WOOD ALCOHOL CLAIMS VICTIMS IN HALL COUNTY; THREE ARE DEAD

PROFITEERS SCORED BY WILLIAM J. BRYAN

H. Company Spud-In. Coble resume Drilling. Crayoila Ready to Begin Work

Burk-Harlin-Hilton Oil & Company's test well, on Section 28, five miles east of Newlin, failed in Tuesday morning at making something over one hundred feet the first day. Quick forced them to set casing at depth. We understand that well will be set and drilling will resume as well as being put down with any rig.

A number of people visited the well Tuesday and those interviewed seemed well pleased with the start made. Mr. Burk, who accompanied the writer to the Tuesday afternoon. He expressed great confidence that oil will be found within one thousand feet.

Coble people, on the Hollis tract just south of Memphis, started drilling Monday at 835 feet depth at which they stopped some weeks ago to under-ream something over one hundred feet additional depth has since been made. This information was furnished by Mr. Young, in charge well.

L. Thompson, who visited the test well, just south of Memphis, Wednesday afternoon, informed us that they had fired-up the well Wednesday and had things lined-up ready to spud which would probably do so to-day.

People's well, near Deep Springs, last Thursday, Friday and Saturday by the officials of the company. Mr. C. R. Singer, who attended the work, informs us that an impression of the well side which disclosed the fact that there was a slight "pinch" at the bottom of the ten inch casing will necessitate the use of a "wedge" so that the ten inch casing will pass. He stated that the casing tool had been ordered and was expected here today. He stated that the test convinced them that the grey lime had not been thorough, forcing the conclusion that the oil in the well came from a crevice. He said that, if other permitted, they expect to start work next week.

loads of material for the Texas derrick, on the ranch just south of Ox-Bow, broken out today. The completion of the roads will probably cause delay in getting this on the ground.

Bristo and Miss Lillie of Memphis, came up on Saturday and were met by Rev. Ferguson. The bride gave her age in her fifties. Clarendon News.

OF C. OF C. DIRECTORS IMPORTANT

Urges Full Attendance of All Directors at Next Tuesday's Meeting

Secretary Morgan, of the Hall Chamber of Commerce, that we announce the monthly meeting of that body to be held at the court house today, January 27 at 10:00 a. m. and urge full attendance. Matters that require consideration are to be submitted for consideration of the board. The attendance of the full board is exceptionally desired.

DRINK HAIR TONIC AND TOILET WATER. THREE DIE; ONE IS ILL

R. L. Henderson, R. Q. Anderson and E. S. Denson Are Dead and Chas. Mc Elroy Is Ill; Poison Probably Wood Alcohol.

New York, Jan. 18.—Profiteering and public ownership were declared tonight by William Jennings Bryan to be two of the great issues on which the coming presidential campaign should be fought. Mr. Bryan, who was a guest of honor at a dinner given by the Society of Arts and Sciences, asserted that the peace treaty can not be carried into the campaign because of the large number of important domestic questions to be decided.

In reference to profiteering, which he termed "the darkest blot on this war," the speaker advocated the creation of trade commissions in the States and communities before which citizens could bring complaints against profiteering merchants.

"While the boys bleed abroad," he said, "the American people were bled at home by conscienceless profiteers. Even when the bleeding stopped abroad it continued at home. The tax records show how many millionaires have been created in this country."

Mr. Bryan denounced the coal operators for the excessive profits which he said they had made last year and declared that the people must be given machinery to protect themselves.

"The people can not take a club," he said. "The Government that disarms its citizens must assume the duty to protect them."

THREE PLAINVIEW MEN RECEIVE KNIFE WOUNDS IN SKATING RINK AFFRAY

Plainview, Jan. 16.—Three young men, Charles Rushing, J. L. Matlock and Alvian Blakemore, were painfully if not seriously injured in an affray here tonight at a local skating rink. They were rushed to the hospital but the extent of their injuries is not known. Two of them received deep knife stabs while the third suffered cuts about the face.

Charles Daughtie, a farm hand, was arrested and charged with the offense.

FREIGHT EMBARGOES WITHOUT CONSENT OF STATE COMMISSION

Commissioners Address Sharp Letter to U. S. Railroad Administration.

Austin, Jan. 18.—"Embargoes against freight exist without the consent of the railroad commission of Texas or without its knowledge other than knowing obtained from the public press and private reports," said a letter recently addressed to the United States railroad administration by Railroad Commissioners Earle B. Mayfield and Clarence E. Gilmore.

"They are not justified under the laws of this state," the letter continued. "And while we can appreciate that there are times when it would be followed to accept freight for some destination we cannot and do not accept embargoes issued by railroad operators as either reason or excuse for failure to discharge their duty to the public."

Your attention is very earnestly directed to the inclosed copies of telegraphic and other correspondence with reference to failures of the Orient and Panhandle and Santa Fe railroad companies to provide adequate service for the handling of both the cotton and grain crops of their respective sections. The correspondence includes urgent appeals both to Regional Director Hale Holden and Regional Director B. F. Bush, without results.

COMPERS TALKS OF LEGISLATION

Says Proposed Measures Menace to Freedom of Americans.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Formal announcement that the American Federation of Labor would oppose "with whatever power it may possess" the enactment of the anti-sedition bills now pending in congress was made today in a statement issued by Samuel Gompers, president of the federation. The attack of organized labor, its chief aim indicated, will be directed impartially against the Sterling bill recently passed by the senate and against the Graham measure, which is based on suggestions of Attorney General Palmer and awaiting action by the house rules committee for a special rule to expedite consideration.

Referring to the two measures as one bill, President Gompers declared its enactment would "violate the constitution and rob the whole American people of their most cherished and basic guarantees of free government."

Mayor Webster confiscated a car of coal from the railroad last Friday. The coal was distributed to those in need; the bulk going to farmers.

Several additional cars have been received by dealers this week, somewhat relieving a serious situation. A car of coal consigned to the Turkey gin was taken over by the Chamber of Commerce and distributed today.

VALIDITY OF FEDERAL PROHIBITION LAW SOON TO BE TESTED

Washington, Jan. 19.—Validity of the federal prohibition constitutional amendment is to be determined by the supreme court, which today granted the state of Rhode Island permission to institute original proceedings to test it and enjoin its enforcement in that state.

The permission was granted by Chief Justice White without comment or without fixing any time for hearing argument in the case.

SIMS TOLD "NOT TO LET THE BRITISH PULL THE WOOL OVER YOUR EYES"

That, "We Would Just as Soon Fight Britain as the Central Powers."

Washington, Jan. 17.—Rear Admiral Sims told the Senate committee investigating naval awards today that when he was ordered to England in March, 1917, just before the United States entered the war, he was instructed by the Navy Department "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes" and that "we would just as soon fight the British as the Central Powers."

The admiral also charged that American naval headquarters in London did not receive co-operation from the Navy Department and that the department did not arrive at any decided plan of action until ten months after he arrived in London. He added that "it was ten months before we really came to the aid of the Allies or acted on their recommendations."

Admiral Sims' testimony was in the form of a letter to Secretary Daniels, entitled "Some Naval Issues of the Great War," which Daniels received several days ago.

Sam J. Hamilton, who spent last year upon his ranch, near Allenreed, has returned here and will resume the practice of law.

WELLINGTON WITHOUT FUEL; THREATENS TO BURN UP BOX CARS

Wellington, Texas, Jan. 20.—Enraged over protracted confiscation of coal consigned to this city, where people are suffering severely, and by the inadequate rail service furnished, C. C. Small, prominent citizen, has wired the traffic department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Fort Worth, that the citizens intend to tear up the ties and use railway box cars for fuel.

TRANSPORTATION SITUATION AMAZES REPRESENTATIVE

Finds Report of Years production Staggering. Relief Is Expected.

Rev. R. B. Morgan, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, attended the meeting of a representative of the Railroad Administration with representatives from numerous Panhandle counties, at Amarillo Tuesday.

Secretary Morgan says that the railroad representative was astounded, dumfounded in fact, by the magnitude of the transportation problem in this section. It was difficult for him to believe, in spite of undoubted evidence, that there could be such an amount of tonnage to be moved.

It seems that transportation matters are handled in the offices of the Regional Directors on figures arrived at by consulting and comparing statistical data and that in the face of past statistics, gathered during recent lean years, present figures indicating production were almost unbelievable.

Secretary Morgan says that no promises were made; but that those attending the meeting were sure that the showing made would be so impressive that a serious attempt to remedy matters would be sure to follow.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ABOLISHED IN RUSSIA
London, Jan. 19.—The central soviet government of Russia has decreed the abolition of capital punishment, and has directed all tribunals to commute death sentences already passed to various terms of imprisonment, at hard labor, according to Moscow advices.

MEETING BRINGS HOPE OF RELIEF OF CAR SHORTAGE

Delegates to Amarillo Meeting Hopeful that Conditions Will Be Bettered

Amarillo, Texas, Jan. 20.—At the end of an all day conference with railway officials, during which carefully prepared statistics were presented setting forth the needs of cars in the different counties to move the immense grain crops now on hand, producers and other delegates from all parts of the Panhandle and West Texas, left for their homes last night with convictions that substantial relief of the acute car shortage would be immediately furnished by the United States Railroad Administration.

While no definite announcement or promise was made as to what attitude the Railroad administration would assume in the future in the matter of furnishing the Panhandle with cars, it was the consensus of opinion, of visiting delegates and officials for the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, that N. D. Balentine, representing the Railway Administration, and other railway representatives, had been supplied with sufficient evidence to cause the Railway Administration to take immediate action in the matter and furnish the necessary cars.

It was the estimate of F. R. Jamison, secretary-manager of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, that twenty thousand cars are needed to move the crops of the Panhandle. His estimate was based upon figures and statistics furnished by county officials, grain dealers, commercial clubs, agricultural agents and producers of the 38 Panhandle counties.

HIGGINS GETS FIFTEEN YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

J. R. Higgins, tried here this week on a charge of criminal assault upon his own daughter, was given a sentence of fifteen years in the penitentiary. The jury was out an hour and a half.

Another case, of like nature, against Higgins was transferred to Wilbarger county for trial; Judge Nabers being in doubt as to the possibility of securing a jury in this county.

Attorneys for Higgins filed notice of appeal.

The purposes of the proposed organization are not set out in the petition; but its work will, doubtless, be along the line, and supplementary to, the work of the Hall County Chamber of Commerce.

After the waitress refused to serve Johnson; the former pugilist, said Gardiner, said he would come back that night and raise a rough house.

the way out to Glendale on the Winifred ran over in her mind delightful surprise she would get from phoning her at the station, just one glimpse of her face when she opened the door would be worth it.

It had been nearly four months since she had left Glendale. Before that she had been five years of life spent with Olive after her early widowhood. Neither of them ever quite missed what a relief that widowhood had been after Chester's deliberate bullying and worrying every one in the family half sick.

Winifred always said she was glad she were no children where there were no real love. So the years passed restfully until Winifred's assignment at Washington and she was gone away.

Winifred had been the only person who had been with her. She's dependent on your companionship," answered she doggedly. "And it isn't right or easy for you to get out and husband."

"I want to," protested Winifred. "I see it here, but I want to do something else, be somebody, can't you understand?"

It had kept his own point of view, and only Danny seemed to get ideas right. Danny was nearer own age, anyway, and not at all his cousin.

You know what Chester says about Winifred, he told her tensely. "Says girl with red hair is totally unreliable and prone to temperamental fits. Her hair very red?"

"It is a chestnut," answered Winifred calmly. "If Lewis doesn't like it, may glance in the opposite direction whenever he is in my vicinity. You blame me for going, Dan?"

"I do not," he sang out cordially, going away myself. Government also service after the war. Fine. Maybe I'll drop in on you at Glendon some day and say hello."

He had dropped in, too, several times, and it had seemed as if two or three months of service had set the cap up as no other training could have. He was better looking than before, and more companionable, she had thought. Then he had gone away to the southern stations, and Winifred found herself lonely.

She had only mentioned him once or twice in letters to her. He had been referred, and might go to some of the islands.

As the train drew up to the little station, Winifred leaned forward from the platform, wishing suddenly some one was there to meet her. She took one of the little jitney cars to the bungalow.

She sent the car back at the curb and went up the veranda steps. She sat down on the top step to ponder just what window would be best to break into, when there came the hum of a motor on the street and a car came swinging leisurely up. Someone was leaning back at the wheel singing. She knew Dan's instantly, and sent out a glad cry to him.

"Great Scott! why don't you let people know you're coming?" he exclaimed happily, as he bounded up the steps to her side. "The honeymoon pair have been on their way two days now. Olive will want to tell you for fear it will disturb your plans in the city."

"Olive married?" she demanded. "I nodded with a grin of amusement at her manner. "I've all said you'd be wild. That's why we didn't tell you. She's married Chester. Ches was sweet on you for years, wasn't he, Win? Did you let him down? I'll bet you did. They're happily married and the South. The bungalow is yours. You come home to mother, though. I've warmed up. The furnace has been out two days."

ed. "No I shall go straight back to Washington," she said coldly. If Olive and Chester did not care to notify her of their wedding she would not stay in Glendale at all.

"They're not going to live here, I'm going to," said Dan deliberately. "I've always liked this place. Don't you remember, Win, and Chester's going to stay South awhile and then live in town, so I've taken over the bungalow."

"For a clubhouse?" asked Winifred. "For self and wife," he told her. "I'm twenty-three in June, Win, and it's time I settled down."

"I never dared to show you how much I cared for you, Win," he protested, "not with Chester and all the other fellows hanging around last year. You seemed way out of reach to me, but now it's different. You know how well I've been doing, and don't I honestly seem ever so much older to you?"

"Ages," said Winifred gravely, her chin on one hand. "You've grown, too, Dan."

"Let's not go straight home," he pleaded. "It's a wonderful night. Let's take a whirl down along the shore road, Win, and then I'll bring you back to mother and we'll tell her. It is yes, isn't it?"

"Aren't you afraid to marry a girl with red hair?" Winifred asked. Dan rose and helped her down the steps. "I'll tell you when we're in the car," he warned.

"What a lovely Dutch landscape!" exclaimed the admiring visitor. "You've been to Holland, of course?" "Why, no," answered the artist, modestly.

"Then how were you ever able to paint such a realistic picture?" "To tell the truth, I copied it off a beer mat,"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

"I believe—aw—you were—aw—sketching me; isn't that so?" he inquired.

"That is so," replied the artist.

"Well—aw—would you tell me what newspaper you—aw—represent?" "I represent no newspaper," answered the artist. "I design comic postcards."—London Tit-Bits.

KEEP KNOCKED-OUT TEETH

Dentist Can Replace Them in Mouth So That They Will Soon Give Good Service.

When one's front teeth are knocked out there is no need to leave them on the floor, for they can be reinserted very well by a good dentist. Dr. H. M. Stryer tells in the Lancet (London) of two cases in which the teeth were completely dislocated from their sockets.

In one case the teeth were placed in salt water while the dentist carefully washed out the sockets. Then they were reinserted, a stitch or two placed in the gums and the jaws were bandaged shut so that the teeth bit on a pad of lint. In the other case the teeth still hung to the gums, so the sockets were cleaned out without disturbing the teeth.

In both cases the teeth became solidly fixed and the patients could use them for normal biting a few months after the accident.

Dr. C. De Witt Henry of New York replaced not long ago the teeth of a truck driver that had been knocked out in a collision. The man had picked his teeth from the gutter and run up to the dentist's office carrying them in his hand.

Liberty bonds amounting to $65,000 were put up as cash bond for about fifty "reds" captured in recent New York drive.

The "high official" who told Rear Admiral Sims, "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes," and that, "we would as soon fight the British as the Central Powers," has not been identified; but if he has other qualifications equal to the common sense thus indicated we have an idea that he might be a popular presidential candidate with several million Americans who have been disgusted with the Anglomania exhibited by certain "high officials" in the past.

William J. Bryan says that he and President Wilson "agree in purpose." Could it be possible that this "purpose" is related to the democratic nomination?

One reason why we were not surprised because W. J. Bryan's prophesy that the peace treaty would be ratified last Friday failed to materialize was because we remembered that he was the same prophet who "foretold," long ago that we would never again have dollar wheat until we had free silver.

The greatest present need of this country is additional housing facilities! In Memphis there is not a vacant house, residence or business, and a considerable proportion of the residences are too over-crowded for health or comfort. But bad as this condition is, in its effect upon development, the woeful lack of houses upon the farm lands in this section is worse. Hundreds of good citizens are anxious to locate with us, and would do so if they could rent farm land. We have the land in plenty, less than half of the tillable lands in Hall county are being cultivated, but there are no houses. Land owners hesitate to build because of the high price of building materials—and the prices go up while they wait. Dealers say prices will not be lower but will continue to rise. The situation is critical! Our greatest material need is more good citizens, we shall make but limited progress without them. The greatest benefactor this county could have would be some one who could devise a way to provide our farm lands with two good farmers for every one we now have. To double the number of producing farmers in Hall county would provide more abundant and lasting wealth than the bringing in of a "gusher" oil field. Is it not probable that something practical could be done by the organization and co-operation of those who would build more houses? How about a building and loan association along co-operative lines? Think the matter over!

REED PREDICTS TREATY DEFEAT With or Without Reservations It Will Not Pass, He Declares.

New York, January 19.—Defeat of the peace treaty, with or without reservations, was predicted tonight by Senator James A. Reed at a dinner given in honor of himself and Senator Hiram Johnson by a committee of New York business men. Senator Johnson declared that the Lodge reservations while not wholly protecting the United States, did give a measure of protection and that they were the "irreducible minimum" on which no compromise could be made.

The New Edison Gives Countless Hours of Happiness

The New Edison is the only phonograph which goes deeper than mere sound, and RE-CREATES that soul which is the very life of real music. It alone gives you the fascinating lilt of the dance, the soaring soul of grand opera, the inspired tone-painting of famous symphonies, the simple, heart searching ballads, equally as well as the artists themselves could give if they came in person to your home.

This is absolutely true. Edison has given more than 3,000 tests in which he has had fifty different artists sing and play with
