Junior High P-TA Has Program on Fire Prevention

The Junior High P-T. A. met last Thursday afternoon at the school, with "Fire Prevention" as the subject chosen for the program.

Mrs. T. B. Rogers, president, presided over the meeting. Rev. Joe Findley gave the devotional. Alvin Massey discussed "Fire Prevention." In his talk, Mr. Massey stated that not only the previous week had been "Fire Prevention" week, but that every day was "Fire Prevention Day," and told how many serious fires could be prevented by following a few simple rules.

D. L. C. Kinard spoke from the view point of insurance and his talk was not only informative, but entertaining as well, it was reported.

Appropriate songs were directed by Mrs. Joe DeBerry and sung by the following students: Edith Compton, Lois Wines, Gloria Howard, Billy D. Byrd, Marion Posey, Charles McCreary, Jennie Moore, Vivian Taylor, Helen Ruth Blocker, Ivalyn Hill, Virginia Mueller, Barbara Brewer, Oleta Woodall, and Carolyn Cornelius. The children will sell tickets, and the entire amount will be used to buy pictures for the school. It was also agreed that the November meeting will be held Thursday, November 6, at which time the masterpieces will be on exhibit and the program centered around them.

Since one of the most effective ways of familiarizing and impressing the students with great masterpieces of art, is to create through contact an understanding and appreciation of good pictures, it was explained, a number of Junior High School students will "come to life" in "living pictures," on the evening of November 6, in the form of a play entitled, "Bobby's Dream."

The following attended the meeting: Mesdames A. E. Osborne, J. J. McDaniel, C. H. Hill, George Cullin, Roy Patton, G. J. Foxhall, Eddie Mae Scott, Otha Fitzjarrald, Otis Gibson, R. A. Massey, H. E. Childress, S. D. Posey.

Unbeaten Lefors Blasts Memphis Cyclone 46 to 2

The Lefors Pirates reached pay-dirt in every quarter last Friday night to run up a 46 to 0 final score against the Memphis Cyclone for the local gridmen's fifth defeat in five starts this season.

The Pirates, led by the fiery backfield of Milton Odum and Ralph Earhart, tallied twice in the first quarter, twice in the second, once in the third, and twice in the final period.

Memphis got its two points in the first quarter on a safety when Louie Grimes caught a Lefors runner behind the goal line. The Pirates, however, had already scored, and were never threatened throughout the game.

The victory kept the Pirates undefeated for the season both in conference and non-conference play. The Lefors gridmen have won two non-conference and three conference games.

Our boys at camp need the Red Cross. We on the home front need the Red Cross standing by with instantaneous help. Let's show that we recognize these needs by "going over the top" for the Red Cross during the local Roll Call, November 11 to 30.

Home Accident Deaths Highest In Five Years

Injuries arising from cuts and scratches play major role on the home accident front. Above—The kitchen butcher knife is a poor whittling blade, especially when it is drawn toward the body. Right—Falls last year killed 16,000 Americans in their homes. Never use a chair or other furniture as an improvised ladder.

Washington, D. C.—Carelessness is writing a new stanza to "Home Sweet Home." According to the American Red Cross, home accidents last year accounted for their greatest fatality toll in five years. Some 33,000 persons lost their lives through falls, burns, poisoning and other hazards of everyday home life. Although less dramatic—consequently less apt to attract public interest—home accident fatalities ran a close second to death on the street and highway, trailing by 1,500 deaths. With carelessness playing the leading role, more than half of home accident deaths were attributed to falls—occurring on stairs, slippery floors, insecure rugs and use of chairs and other articles of furniture as improvised stepladders. Burns and accidental poisoning followed in that order.

A True Story—RED CROSS WORK NEVER TOLD

Editor's Note: This story was written by a Hall Countian who got it "second-handed," but it points out work done by the Home Service unit of the American Red Cross so well that it is being published here. Most of the facts are true, and names are not being used for obvious reasons. The annual Red Cross roll call will be held November 11-30. We heard a story the other day about some good work done by a county Home Service chairman which was so interesting and so demonstrative of the value of the American Red Cross that we thought perhaps you, too, might like to hear it. It seems that a young man had been sent to the U. S. Army thru the Selective Service channels, and like any other youth would do, he went without grumbling and without knowing just how he would like it. This particular youth, however, was not too well educated. He had only finished a low grade in school, and simply knew little of "readin', writin', and 'rithmetick." But there were so many youths to come to the army station along about that time that the men in charge of the work did not have the opportunity to study each youth individually. As a result, this youth was placed in the field artillery corps, and his superiors tried to make him learn the art and tactics of firing heavy field artillery. In case you don't know, there are lots of mathematics involved in figuring out to fire field artillery to hit the target, and this particular youth was unable to comprehend the mathematics. He became disgusted with the assignments, and began to feel inferior to other men in his group. As a result, he went to his home and did not bother to tell his commanding officer or anyone else. It was only one of many cases of "A. W. O. L." (away without leave), and the Red Cross Home Service chairman was notified. He didn't have to do anything about it, but this Home Service chairman made a trip to the home of the youth in the country, and after a great deal of talk, persuaded the soldier to return to his army post. The youth went, all right, but he was again given the same duties, and he again got the same feeling of inferiority and again was reported A. W. O. L. Before he disappeared, the youth was heard to make remarks that he would "go jump off — bluff before he would stay in the army." An army searching party was sent to look for him. But no trace of the missing soldier was found. Once more the county home service officer went to the home of the youth's parents, with him went a former Home Service officer, and they found the youth at home again. The two of them tried to persuade him to return before the army officers took measures of punishment for the desertion.

more, reporter, will do likewise. Newspaper work is plenty of trouble without taking up any more troubles. But one can't tell young people anything. They are from Missouri when the question of marriage comes up.

Last Sunday morning at 8:15 Lewis T. Noryke read the Democrat Staff Poet's eulogy of last week over KGNC, and remarked that he was going to have the poet broadcast in person over the radio if he had to resort to extreme measures. Noryke, by inflection of his voice, intimated that he still thinks the staff poet and this commentator are one and the same. Just to prove to him that he is all wrong I am asking him for a date Sunday, November 2. If he grants the date, he will receive the surprise of his life.

The Staff Poet's contribution this week is then:

BATHS—THEN AND NOW

Do you know that my Grandma wasn't very modern, but she used the same principles that are used today—just applied in a different manner. Take the modern woman—she uses perturbed bath suds and a lot of stuff to get shined up. Grandma used lye soap and wood ashes, and I want to tell you that she would glow for days after one of her baths. Today my poem is about those Saturday night baths—baths that lingered.

In a cold and darkened kitchen, we would freeze and grunt and scrub, all hunkered down and bathing in a No. 2 wash tub. Grandma used the ashes and Daddy held the whip. There wasn't much fun about it when one took that weekly dip.

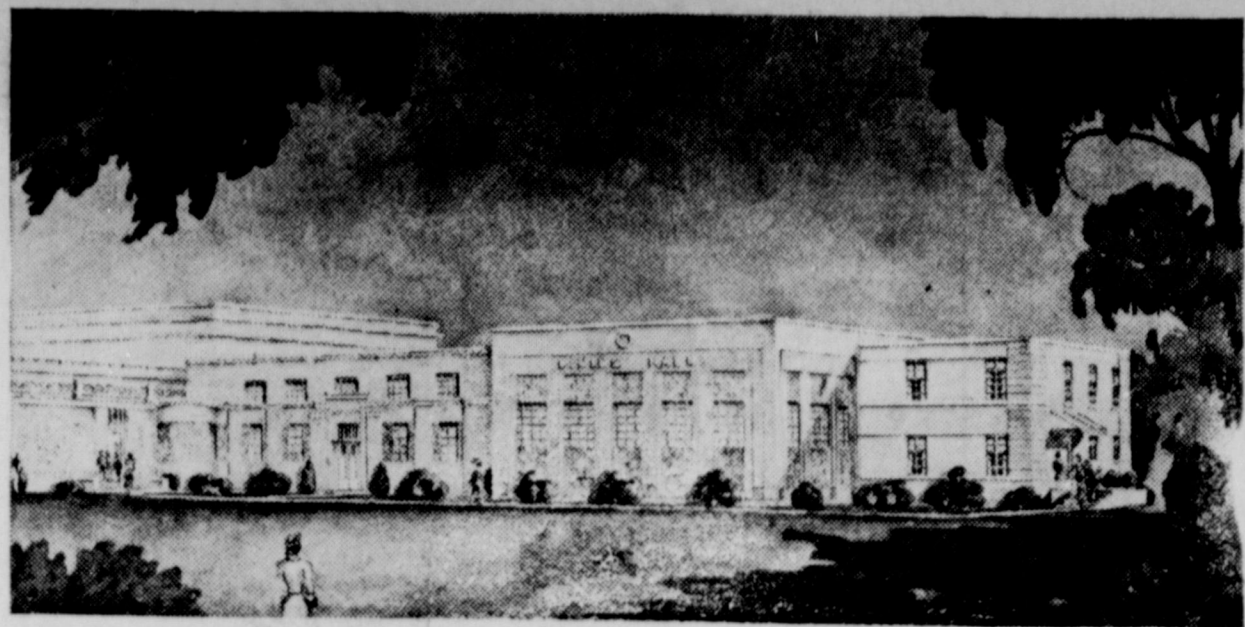

One never got quite finished until he glowed a rosy red. Boy, one got clean then days, if he did as Grandma said.

Miss Duren Named Officer at WTSC

Marion Ruth Duren of Memphis, a sophomore at West Texas State College in Canyon, has been elected social chairman of the Home Economics Club.

The club provides valuable training for its members in social and literary activities, and since 1926 has maintained a loan fund for the benefit of junior and senior girls majoring in home economics.

Loans on 1941 wheat to Texas farmers total 18,698, according to the Commodity Credit Corporation. Of the 12,958,820 bushels covered by loan, only about half a million bushels are stored on farms.

HOME—Above is the architect's drawing of the Tipton Orphans Home, which will consist of a chapel-dining-kitchen unit. A total of 1,200 children from nine states have been cared for in the two decades of the home's history. A drive to raise $40,000 for the new development program of the home will open in cities throughout the Southwest Sunday morning.

Fall-Proof Homes, Specialist Advises People on Farms

Thousands Injured, Some Die Due to Accidents at Homes, Insurance Men Say

Safety in the home is mostly good sense and good housekeeping, says Bernice Claytor, Extension Service specialist in home improvement, in urging rural people to "fall-proof" their homes.

Falls send thousands of people to the hospital every year and cause many deaths. In fact, life insurance companies report that about 80 per cent of the accidental deaths of persons 65 years or over are due to falls.

The specialist says more falls happen on steps and stairs than anywhere else in the house. To overcome this danger she suggests the following of specifications recommended by the U. S. Bureau of standards in building safe stairs. Another is to install handrails for every flight on at least one side of the stairs. This goes for cellar steps and attic stairs as well, she says.

Home stairways should be well-lighted, and all steps should be kept firm and in good repair. Stairs finished with wax should not be slippery, the specialist warns. Likewise, carpets on stairs

Waste of Foods Should Be Stopped, Specialist Advises

Homemakers have responded wholeheartedly to patriotic appeals for being frugal with aluminum, tin cans, and other household equipment made of materials needed for the national defense. They can make an equally great contribution by stopping food wastes, says Louise Bryant, Extension Service specialist in home management. Today, home and family thrift is a basic step in the nation-wide movement to conserve all of this country's food resources, she says.

One of the best ways to stop waste of food is planning—long time planning of production of food on the farm, planning for storage arrangements in the home, careful planning of meals for a week or several days rather than for one day at a time, and planning for food buying.

Wise shoppers not only take a list to the grocery store, but they also stop waste by studying labels on packaged products and knowing government grades. Miss Bryant also urges homemakers to be "scale checkers." It's thrifty, she says, to make sure the butcher puts in all the fat trimmings with cuts of meat for these can be used in cooking.

There is also plenty of opportunity for waste in the cooking and serving of food. Many homemakers peel potatoes improperly. Many throw away the outside leaves of lettuce or cabbage as a matter of habit. And there is waste in lemons or oranges only partially squeezed and in carelessly scraped mixing bowls.

Directly or indirectly poor cooking is responsible for lots of food waste. For example, when meat is improperly cooked at too high temperatures, it shrinks more than is necessary, which means fewer servings per pound.

Forest fires are more easily spotted if watchers make their observations through colored filters which polarize the light.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

NEWLIN

By MRS. FRED HEMPHILL

Church Announcements
A quarterly conference will be held at the Estelline Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, November 2, for the Newlin-Hulver churches and the Estelline church in joint session. Annual conference will be held November 12 instead of the 5th as previously planned. Rev. Scott Crawford of Wellington will preach here Sunday at which time the local Baptist Church will call a pastor for the coming year.

Has Operation
Herman Cass, who has been ill since April, and who has been in a Dallas hospital for the past 11 weeks, underwent an operation for a brain tumor last week and is recovering slowly. His mother, Mrs. C. V. Cass, is at his bedside. His illness had caused almost complete loss of his eyesight, but since the operation his sight is returning.

Long Bicycle Ride
You boys and girls who ride your bicycles for pleasure and think you have covered a lot of ground after riding a few miles, think how tired you might be after riding 14 hours and covering 68 miles. A young man who was employed in this vicinity last year decided to return to his same employer and the only means of transportation was his bicycle which he used in the long ride from Altus, Okla. He made the trip fine until a short distance from town. The front axle of his bicycle broke, making it necessary for him to push the wheel the rest of the journey.

Recreation Program Here
Approximately a hundred persons enjoyed the games sponsored by the Hall County recreational directors here Friday night. The large gym floor makes an ideal place for the playing of the games and all ages participate. It was voted to devote the third Friday night of November to volley ball for boys and girls teams, and also any others who care to play. Community singing will be held October 31.

Are You Afraid of Mice?
At first thought you might say no. But then if you were old and lived alone and had been hearing about an abundance of rattlesnakes everywhere and even some being in your house; and if you had set a mousetrap and caught one by the tail, and if after dark you had gone into another room to light a lamp and the mouse stirred and dragged the trap over the floor making a noise suspiciously like a rattlesnake; and if you were afraid to move for fear you might step on him, don't you think you would be afraid? This all happened to "Aunt" Maggie Harrell last week. After getting up enough courage to tiptoe a few steps to light a light and devise some means of killing the reptile, she discovered the scare of her life to have been caused by an innocent (?) mouse.

THE BIGGEST SMILE In Hall County

Is found on the face of the man who has paid ALL HIS OLD TAXES up-to-date. He has that "grand and glorious feeling" that won't be hid!

October is the last month in which Delinquent Taxes can be paid without penalty and interest added. Over half the month is gone and a great many have already paid who are on safe ground feeling happy.

Don't wait until the very last day to settle your old taxes because the tax collector's office can do only one day's work in one day and we don't want to see anybody crowded out by being "too late." It's lots safer to come NOW and be sure to get the discounts; so, friends, don't wait.

Owing to discounts being taken in Delinquent Tax payments (as much as one-third of the total in many cases) and the 3% discounts on current taxes given in October, the Tax Collector will have no time to leave the Memphis office to go to Turkey or elsewhere to receive taxes until November, as the books must stay here during the rush.

TOUCH-DOWN TACTICS

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA
by Major L. McC. Jones
Head Football Coach

This is the fourth in a series of six outstanding diagram plays by leading college coaches from Grantland Rice's new Cities Service Football Guide.

The play as shown in the diagram above was one of our most effective plays of last season. It was used to very good advantage by Vike Francis, our fullback, against Stanford University in the Rose Bowl game. He made several very excellent gains with it.

The Stanford guard was very aggressive and continually charged deep into our backfield. This action, of course, made an excellent setup for the use of trap plays. After observing the actions of the Stanford guard then it became a matter of selecting the best time for its use. The ball is snapped to the No. 3 back who fakes giving it to the wingback (No. 1), who continues on around his left end. No. 3 back hesitates momentarily and then goes through the line between the guards.

The successful execution of this play depends upon the proper blocking and timing. Since no interferences lead the ball carrier, one slip-up in the proper blocking assignment would stop the play at the line of scrimmage or before it got started.

Chinese Children Need Help, Says Relief Chairman

Two million Chinese children, starving, without shelter, maimed and mangled, are facing a winter that will destroy them by the thousands unless help is forthcoming immediately from America.

Chairman Adams made his appeal in extending the fund raising campaign in Texas for an indefinite period. The campaign was to have closed October 15, but insistent pleas from county and community chairmen over the state made it necessary, Adams said, to extend the time for fund raising.

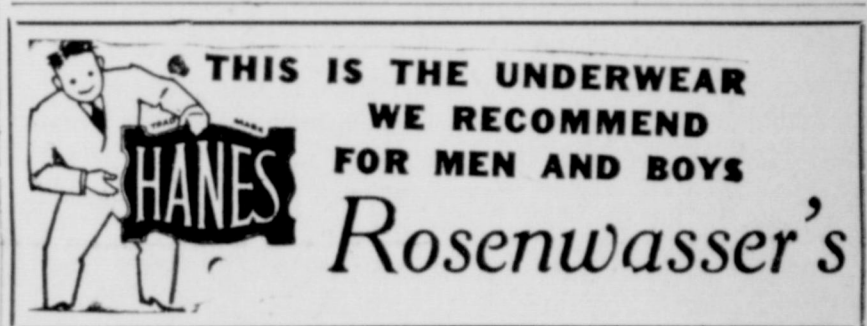

T. E. Noel, president of the First National Bank of Memphis, was recently named Hall County chairman of the United China Relief, and any contributions may be made to him at the bank.

Money raised in Texas will be used to procure clothing and medical supplies for homeless Chinese children, according to Chairman Adams. He said literally tons upon tons of medical supplies are needed at once.

"Unless China is helped in every way possible," Chairman Adams said, "we here in America are liable to wake up some morning to find a war raging on both our Eastern and Western fronts. China must not fall. She stands today as a great pillar of stone on the Axis highway to world domination. She must continue to stand. People everywhere in this state should contribute liberally to this most worthy cause. This is every man's responsibility."

THERE GOES A TIRE! ...but why junk the car?

Every car can have a blowout in a tire. But you wouldn't junk the car. You'd fix the tire—or replace it.

That's very much like a situation that exists in the retailing of beer. Beer retailers has its "flat tires," too—retailers who disobey the law or who permit unworkable conditions.

To protect your right to drink good beer, we of the beer industry want to eliminate the few "flat tire" retailers. There's another reason: Right here in Texas, beer has provided employment for 31,165 persons, supports an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and paid $2,273,968.64 in state taxes last year.

The state, too, has an important stake in the beer industry's purchases—for material, equipment and services—from more than 100 other industries.

Those benefits are worth preserving. You can help us preserve them by patronizing only the reputable and legal places where beer is sold and by reporting any law violations you may observe to the duly constituted authorities.

DO UNTO OTHERS . . .

THE DEMOCRAT has been "fer" this, and "agin" that, but if there is any one thing which this newspaper believes in supporting, it is the annual roll call movement of the American Red Cross.

As far as we know, the American Red Cross is one organization which has never let graft and corruption enter into its management. It is one organization which lives on the charity and freewill gifts of Americans, and which turns all money contributed to the movement to worthwhile aids to worthwhile people all over the world.

The Red Cross donations which you make are never, never used in paying the salary of any of the workers. All those people who come to you and ask for your membership are volunteers, people who receive nothing for their work. The regular workers of the organization are paid for their time, but the money comes from an endowment fund set up years ago.

Your money, then, is used only to help destitute people. Fifty cents of each membership donation is retained by the Hall County Red Cross Chapter, and is used during the year in Hall County, not in some other county, state, or nation.

We in Hall County should realize the value of Red Cross help. About ten years ago, Hall Countians were made to realize the value of the Red Cross when the Turkey area was flooded. Hundreds of dollars of aid came to citizens of this area at that time.

Then came the years of drouth. During a period of only three or four years, the American Red Cross aided Hall Countians to the extent of about 15 or 20 thousand dollars—not in money always but in seed, food, and clothing.

The annual roll call will start in Hall County November 11, and continue through November 30. During the past few years, we have fallen down on our quota, and the goal of members has not been reached. It looks as though Hall Countians may get "out of the red" this year, and it seems to The Democrat that we should make an attempt to do more than our part in aiding the American Red Cross, an organization to which we are greatly indebted.

SEVEN YEARS OF PLENTY, SEVEN YEARS OF FAMINE

HALL COUNTY, County Agent W. B. Hooser said last week, is going to make one of the largest crops of feed in history, yet much of the feed will go to waste in the fields ungathered.

Feed, it was explained, is not bringing as much money this year in proportion to cotton prices, and for this reason much of the feed will never be gathered.

Naturally, farmers are not to be blamed for leaving the feed in the fields, when they can gather the cotton and get more for it. Time is an important factor at present, and the cotton has to be gathered or no money will come in.

Yet most farmers can, in one way or another, find time to harvest the feed, although it may cost them some money which they might otherwise save or spend for other things. These farmers might not sell the feed, and therefore are reluctant about gathering it.

Feed, however, is like any other crop—it just does not "make" every year. And in those lean years, a farmer with cattle may have trouble finding feed to buy—and perhaps if he did find the feed, he might not have the money to pay for it.

For this reason, any farmer with any sizable amount of feed needs a trench silo to preserve this year's crop. When the lean years come, he would have the feed and would not have to worry about his cattle becoming underfed, or starving to death.

The feed will keep almost indefinitely, Hooser explained, if placed in a trench silo. The county agent will be glad to give information necessary in building a silo, and is one of a committee in charge of ensilage cutting machines available for use by the public at a small cost.

One can never tell—it looks good in Hall County now, but we may have "seven years of plenty," then "seven years of famine."

Guard Against This New Danger

Press Paragraphs CULLED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Youth

Ed Bishop in the Dalhart Texan: Herbert Spencer said, "We do not stop playing because we grow old. We grow old because we stop playing." By that slogan, I'm still a mere child.

Good Heading

The Panhandle Herald: A General Motors publication has this heading over a humorous column: "It tickled me, but not to death."

Where They Belong

Mirth in the Bay City Daily Tribune: I listened to my linotype operator ask someone in the back shop—"Do these marriage licenses go on the society page?" Poor boy is happy in his lack of knowledge of the real place for such notices. They belong in the obituary column.

Triangle

The Plainsman in the Lubbock Morning-Avalanche: That Girl on Broadway says a love triangle is the result of two people not being on the square.

Names

Joe Criser in The Prairie (WTSC paper): "What's in a name?" asked Shakespeare, evidently not having given much thought to the matter. Consider a headline: "Dahugashvili Defies Schickelgruber" as compared to "Stalin Defies Hitler." Headline writers and typesetters should be thankful that the Soviets' top man and Nazi No. 1 changed their names.

For Substitutes

The Scurry County Times: We are particularly strong for a substitution of synthetic materials, where possible, that will mean increased markets for even by-products of the farm and ranch, such as corn cobs, cotton boll burs, hides from animals found on farm and range and other items that could be mentioned right along the line. When the man of research, with his laboratory gadgets, steps in the front door of the average American home you can tell the world the farmer or rancher that emerges later from a side door will have some real cash in his pockets!

Grows

The Liberty County News: When one has seen the bear in the woods, he hears him growl in every bush.

Legs

The Chillicothe Valley News: An army may march upon its stomach, but when a young lady picks the stage for her life she must depend upon her legs to carry her along.

Present Warfare

The Floyd County Hesperian: Squirrel rifle days and a million men leaping to the defense of their country overnight are of the past. A million American men, we once thought, could reach up over their door facings, fetch down the deer slayers and whip anybody's army. A bitter truth we have had to learn is that this is no longer true.

Joke

The Claude News: An actor who was married recently for the third time, and whose bride had been married once before, wrote across the bottom of the wedding invitations: "Be sure and come; this is no amateur performance."

Support

The Happy Herald: . . . The people of this country should be prepared to support whatever measures become necessary to force the Germans to disgorge the spoils that they have acquired from the peoples of other nations by force of arms. This refers not only to territory but also to plants, facilities, and supplies.

Definition

E. E. Hayley in the Saint Jo Tribune: Propaganda is said to be the presentation of the other side in such a way it makes you mad.

The flying cloud sailed through the air. And Scouty said, "I don't know where we're bound for now. But by and by we'll find a place, on earth or sky."

Then Duncy said, "I hope you're right. The thing to do is hang on tight." "Why, there's a strange bird," Dotty cried. "I hope it doesn't spoil our ride."

The bird then saw the bunch whizz by. And it let out an awful cry. One of the lads looked back and said, "It's coming at us, straight ahead!"

"We can't do much here," we sit. But shout and try to escape. And then the bird swooped near. And Coppy cried, "Get here."

They took the queer bird by surprise. It swooped again and hid its eyes. The next thing that they knew He flapped his wings and flew.

They saw a cloud across the sky. And Gully shouted, "Ma, A sign says 'Ozone Island' I think we'll have some today."

Frost Map Highlights Problem of Anti-Freeze Shortage

Attention of the car owner has been called earlier than usual this year to his problem of winter radiator protection, by the fact that the defense program has substantially cut the supply of permanent anti-freeze solution available to the public. Not only does this product play its part in tanks, trucks, ships and planes, but the raw materials used in its production are also needed in other parts of the defense effort.

As the map shows, every state in the union gets a freeze-up at some time, though the problem is rare in a few localities. This year the coming of the first really cold weather will find many motorists unprepared, and perhaps unable to buy their usual anti-freeze protection for their cars.

The principal manufacturer of permanent anti-freeze, National Carbon Company, Inc., has made great increases in its production facilities, but needs of the defense program have nevertheless curtailed the amount available for civilian use.

McLean Defeats—

conference victory during the season from Wheeler in a tight 13 to 7 game. This week-end will see either McLean or Lefors go out of the picture, for a while at least, when the two teams meet on the Pirate field.

Both the Pirates and Tigers are favorites. Some fans do not believe Lefors can be beaten, and some feel the same way about McLean. Lefors has whipped Perryton 31-0, Clarendon 26-6, Amarillo Yarnigans 34-6, Wheeler 32-12, and Memphis 46-2. McLean has downed White Deer 25-0, Phillips 7-6, Panhandle 53-0, Lakeview 35-0, Memphis 19-0, and Wellington 19-3.

Wellington will have a chance to stick to its one-game loss, for the Rockets meet the three-times-beaten Clarendon Broncos on the Rocket field. The Rockets will be the heavy favorites.

Lakeview will play host on the Eagle field to the Shamrock Irish, and once more the Eagles will go into the game as the underdog. The Wheeler Mustangs will come to Memphis for the second home game of the Cyclone. The game should be a close one, and each team will be battling to pull itself out of the cellar position. Comparative scores find the two teams about even.

Full season standings find McLean on top with 6 victories, Lefors second with 5, Shamrock and Wellington tied for third with 4 victories and 1 loss, Lakeview 5th with 2 victories, 2 losses, and 1 tie, Clarendon 6th with 2 victories and 3 losses, Wheeler 7th with 4 losses, and Memphis last with 5 losses.

Conference standings: Team, W, L, Pct. McLean 3 0 1.000, Lefors 3 0 1.000, Shamrock 2 0 1.000, Wellington 2 1 .667, Lakeview 2 2 .500, Clarendon 1 2 .333, Wheeler 0 4 .000, Memphis 0 4 .000

Stevenson Names Bond, Stamp Week

In a movement to increase the sales of bonds and stamps, November 3-11 has been designated by Governor Coke R. Stevenson as Defense Savings Stamp and Bond Week in all Texas schools and colleges.

A campaign to sell the bonds and stamps in each of the 13,781 schools and colleges will be launched during that week, Frank Scofield, state administrator, said this week.

schools for cotton picking, the vegetables are being gathered and preserved for use this winter. The garden is producing green beans, black-eyed peas, lima beans, tomatoes, turnips, turnip greens, mustard greens, okra, and sweet potatoes.

The sweet potatoes are an excellent crop, W. V. Swinburn, superintendent of the Lakeview schools, said, and it is possible the yield may be large enough to furnish some of the rural community schools with the potatoes.

The Lakeview canning kitchen is canning surplus apples for the schools in that community. Another shipment of apples is expected from the Surplus Marketing Administration and Hall County will can approximately 70 bushels to be used this winter in the preparation of school lunches.

Sears, Roebuck and Company made the purchase. The calf was first in the junior milk-fed class at the Estelline FFA show last February, and then went on to take second place honors in the junior milk-fed class at the Hall County Fat Stock Show in Memphis in March.

The calf was bred by S. E. Pycatt of Tulsa, and fed under the supervision of the Estelline vocational agriculture teacher, Walter Labay.

Rapp is a member of the Estelline chapter of the FFA, and during his four years of feeding, he exhibited the grand champion steer two times and reserve champion one time at the Estelline show. He has shown one grand champion and one reserve champion steer at the Hall County terest is being deducted on all taxes prior to 1940. The penalty and interest on Memphis school taxes, even including 1940 taxes, is deductible if paid before November 1, it was explained.

County and state taxes are payable in Ferrell's office, city taxes in the office of W. V. Coursey in the city Hall, and Memphis school taxes in the office of George Forgy in the City Hall.

A report on the cotton spinning industry for June shows 104,662,016 active spindle hours in the state for the month. The average hours per spindle in Texas was 431—slightly above the national average of 408 hours per spindle.

The average American will consume 8,000 pounds of meat during a reasonable life expectancy. Assuming that appetites also are average, this poundage will include six steers, five sheep, three calves and 39 hogs.

an early freeze, which would stop production of the cotton on the plants.

Excessive rainfall during the entire year made the cotton crop much later than in the past few years. Gathering was possible only a short time until more rain came. Last week, two days were dry enough to allow more gathering, and then the damp weather started again.

Lowest temperature for the week was recorded for last Friday night, when the thermometer dropped to 46 degrees. Highest for the week was Tuesday afternoon—86 degrees.

Temperatures for the week are as follows: Wednesday high 64, low 59; Tuesday, 86-62; Monday 73-60; Sunday, 80-47; Saturday, 77-48; Friday, 74-46; Thursday 54-49.
