BUILD AND LET BUILD (An Editorial)

As far back as history begins, there have been persons who have stood in the way of progress, some for reasons mercenary, others because of a real lack of vision or natural narrow tendencies.

It is a matter of record that the builders of the ancient cities and public monuments, some of which still exist were met by hundreds of obstacles placed in their way by visionless men, who did not have the future interests of their communities and the world at heart.

This same condition may be applied to our own community today. We see opposition to things which would expedite business or cause an economic improvement or would in humanity's sake afford protection against sickness or the killing of hundreds of motorists or pedestrians. Here there should be no room for the obstructionist. Memphis is building pages of history and there should be nothing at this time to hamper its progress.

The truly great men of all time is the builder, the one who produces or helps to produce. The parasite, who does nothing for himself or fellowman is a cheat and the one who interferes with progress is little better. "Build and let build" should be our motto and the future will comfortably arrange itself. There are many things to be considered in the guiding up of a community. Ten men can do more than one and when these 10 men are arranged in team formation, their work can not only count much more than 10 times but, in fact, 20 times as much.

CHARGED WITH MURDER KID IN JAIL AT CHILDRESS

Jack Morgan is in jail in Childress, Texas, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Morgan. The district attorney declared that the salient features of the statement were that she and her husband had been having trouble for several years and that she finally decided to kill him. She attempted to poison him out in New Mexico and after that failed decided to use a gun. She had only a 22-calibre rifle and feared that that would not accomplish the desired result. So she decided to get somebody to help her. She declared that she made arrangements with a party whom she refused to name and had all arrangements made for him to be killed before he returned to Childress from Gallup.

Jack Morgan came back from Gallup and met the party with whom Mrs. Morgan had made arrangements at Panhandle. This party and another man whom she also refused to name, induced Morgan to come to Newlin and into Smith's pasture, on the pretext of going there to make whiskey. They killed him—or one of them did—and Mrs. Morgan later came to Childress and identified the body after it was found. The officers have as yet been unable to get from Mrs. Morgan any clue as to who the men are, though they have suspicions.

Dr. Curran to Address Memphis Business Men and Employees

DR. J. C. CURRAN ADDRESSES THE ROTARY CLUB

Dr. J. C. Curran, of New York City, of the Curran School of Better Business Methods, will address the people of Memphis on "How to Make a Greater Success of Your Business," at the high school auditorium next Monday night at 8 o'clock. This will be free to ever business and professional man, every employer and employee, their wives and all others who desire to attend.

Dr. Curran is one of the most noted and said to be one of the greatest orators in the United States, and has made a study of business methods for many years. He shoots straight from the shoulder and does not mince words but tells people just why they succeed or fail in life, and offers suggestions as to how to improve oneself or one's business. He spoke here Tuesday and every one who heard him pronounce his address the best ever heard, and have been profited very much by his suggestions and advice.

He illustrates his speech with humorous stories that keep his audience awake and anxious to hear every thing he has to say. His coming will mean much to Memphis, for he has a message that all should hear and could profit thereby.

truth, but here it is: If you meet your friends at home you are 'hail fellow well met' and grasp their hands in a hearty hand shake. But when you get back to your business you fold up like a turtle in a shell. You've got to be good old you, wherever you are.

"You really have two homes—one downtown and another on the hill, and people who enter them expect courteous attention.

"You can make a man like or hate you by your handshake. If you stick out a clammy lump of flesh that feels like raw liver men will go out of their way to keep from shaking your hand again, but if you give a man a real manly clasp that says, 'I like you—I'm glad to see you' he knows you are his friend.

Insulting Customers

"The time worn 'something for you' is the world's greatest insult to a prospective customer. No one who comes in your store is sightseeing. Their very presence indicates that they want something, else they would not be there.

"What would you do if your servants insulted guests who called at your home? An insulting clerk is no different. Every man, woman and child wants common courteous attention.

"Most clerks pass into an un-

COUNTY INSTITUTE SET FOR OCTOBER

October 6 and 7 has been set as the date for the Hall County Teacher's Institute. While only two days have been allotted for the institute by the county school trustees, every effort is being put forth to have both an interesting and instructive program for those who attend.

The recent laws relative to the attendance of the institute is very strict. In fact, an absence means a cancelled certificate.

FREE TRIP IS WON TO DIXIE SERIES BY LEE RUSHING

C. Lee Rushing of this city won second prize in the contest of life insurance agents of the Southland Life Insurance company which has just closed. Mr. and Mrs. Rushing leave today for a vacation trip to Mineral Wells and Corsicana, and from there to attend the Dixie series.

ESTELINE WILL HAVE EXHIBIT AT FAIR

Esteline is going to make a creditable showing at the Hall County District Fair at Memphis this year if all those who have been tasked by the Chamber of Commerce to help with the exhibit will only work just a little. We have the products if we can get them together and exhibit them in an attractive way.—Esteline News.

SAVE A LIFE (An Editorial)

"Memphis has more reckless drivers than any town I know anything about," said a travelling man here Saturday, "and I am really afraid to drive on Main street."

This man lives at Wichita Falls and thought his town had some reckless drivers, but finds that Memphis leads by yards. "The autoists here go pell mell and do not signal or pay attention to the signals of the drivers in front or behind," he said. "What your town needs to do is import some hard-boiled traffic cops and let them stick one and all who violate the traffic rules. They may laugh for a few times, but money runs out after awhile, and then they will be more careful."

After hearing this man talk some observations were made this week, and the way some drive past the public schools of the city is a shame and disgrace to a civilized community. One of these days a child will meet its death under the wheels of one of these cars driven by a reckless driver, then what?

By way of explanation, most of the reckless drivers are young people—some not large enough to look over the steering wheel. It's fun to drive dad's car and let him pay the bills—but how is he going to bring life back to an innocent child that is a victim of the reckless speeder?

Safety First, should be the motto of every driver of an automobile.

ENROLLMENT INCREASES IN MEMPHIS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The addition of teachers and the divisions of classes does not seem to solve the crowded school situation since each Monday and almost each day brings its added increase to the enrollment. The school board has spent quite a good deal this year getting ready to take care of all the pupils who desired to attend the Memphis schools. The work has been extended in the commercial department, the science department, and the home economics department. These departments with their new equipment are second to none. The school board is attempting to give the best opportunity possible for a broad and practical education.

We cannot measure our girls and boys in terms of monetary standards. The soul, the spirit, the life of Memphis, is its boys and girls. But boys and girls are assets only when trained and educated. Ignorance consumes it, does not produce; it destroys, it does not create. Instead of happiness and loyalty, ignorance results in discontent and Bolshevism.

The faculty opens the present school term with the expectation

The Hall county exhibit at the Tri-State fair pulled down $100, but failed to place as one of the leading counties due to the lack of oats, barley and rye, cutting the score 75 points in one lump. Also due to immature specimens of milo maize. But she scored high on cotton.

Deaf Smith county won first place, Garza second and Hemp-hill third. The Amarillo News has the following to say of the Hall county exhibit.

C. L. Franz of Turkey made some winnings at the fair with his herd of hogs, winning third on aged boar; second, third and fifth senior boar pig; first and fourth junior boar pig; second aged sow; senior yearling sow; fourth and fifth junior yearling sow; first and second junior sow pig; third aged herd; first breeders aged herd; second and fourth young herd; first and third breeders young herd; first and fifth get of sire; first and fifth produce of dam; futurity—first to eighth senior boar pig; fifth to eighth senior sow pig; first and fourth junior boar pig; first and second junior sow pig; first junior litter.

The list of winners in the poultry class has not been announced in the Amarillo papers yet, but Geo. A. Sager and Chas. Williams of this place won practically everything in the White Leghorn class.

Collingsworth county took six first prizes, Garza county five first prizes in the boys and girls agricultural club displays at Amarillo Tri-State fair as follows:

Prolific corn, first Glenn Thomason; yellow milo, third, Pauline Thomason; hegari, second Truett Stovall; peanuts, first Truett Stovall.

"Falling lower than expected on milo maize, because of immature specimens, Hall county scored high on cotton, which is the banner crop of the county. The grain sorghums in that county are especially good this year, but the late season made it almost impossible to find mature samples, according to Geo. A. Sager, secretary of the Memphis chamber of commerce, who is in charge of the booth. This exhibit was short of oats, barley and rye, which cut the scoring 75 points in a lump. Vegetables scored high and forage crops were among the best. This county will produce forty or fifty thousand bales of cotton this year, which bears out the exhibit, Mr. Sager stated. The season has begun, and 75 or 100 bales have been gined already."

The Memphis Music store will move to a room fitted up in the Thompson Bros. building near the postoffice, from the telephone building on West Noel street.

The telephone company will move its office down stairs, where there will be more room.

that we shall have your hearty support, cooperation and sympathy. Our effort will be to render service, not simply to please. We shall endeavor to subject the boys and girls of the Memphis public schools to the discipline and training that will create within them a desire to do clean, honest work and to become clean, honest men and women.

To day a crisis exists in the educational affairs of Memphis. The need of a forward looking educational program is imperative and the consummation of this program is a challenge to the pride and honor of Memphis. The school officials feel the tremendous responsibility of the undertaking. It cannot be realized without the hearty co-operation of all the people.

We wish to thank every citizen of Memphis for the assistance which you have always been ready to render and for your whole-hearted cooperation in all matters. The success of the Memphis schools is not possible except through the cooperation of all working in harmony for the common good.

MISSION OF THE HIGH SCHOOL IS OUTLIVED

BY PHERE K. WARNER

Another big new school year is here. What are we going to do with it? All over our nation the school bells are ringing again calling our 25,000,000 children back to some kind of a school. Almost one-fourth of our population are school children. And if we would add to the public school population our college and university students it would more than equal one-fourth of the entire population of the whole nation.

That is some group of people to keep busy and growing every day in every way for another nine months. But that's the mission of education. What would it mean to our country if the older people whose business it is to build the schools and furnish the children would get that one duty fully impressed on their conscience? How many of our American children have a chance to get the full eleven years of public school work?

Not many! Hardly a tenth of our children ever enter a high school. And yet every child is entitled to a free high school education. The educational problem of this nation is down in the first eight grades of our public school. Because, unless a boy or girl can complete the grades he can not enter high school. And it won't be long until, unless our boys and girls have completed the high school they can not enter college. It has almost reached there now.

There is something peculiar about our free school system that never will be worked out until the fathers and mothers of the children demand a change. And it is your school and the children are YOUR children. You own the whole business. If the children of this nation are being cheated out of their educational rights there is no one to blame but their parents.

The majority of our high school teachers would like to see a change made in the high school courses. Many of them have been working for it for years. But they can't get anywhere with their reformations because the men and women who own the school won't let them change it to fit the changing conditions of the day in which their children have been born and must live.

Every high school should have at least two great missions. The first and most important and most essential by far should be training every one of our boys and girls to be useful, self-supporting citizens. Don't you believe any institution that demands the support of all the taxpayers eleven years of any child's life should do something more than prepare a favored few for college and turn out the great majority of its inmates unfit to fit into any place in life?

Don't you believe any normal boy or girl should go into any kind of a work shop or business room or out on a farm and with eleven whole years of constant training under the guidance of another person skilled in that business, be able to go out and make his own living and establish himself or herself in life? Does t he average high school in the United States prepare boys and girls to go out and make their living and blaze a trail to any career that boy or girl may select? No! The average high school does not. Thus far in the history of the American high school has been to prepare a few boys and girls for college. Some times it succeeded and some times it didn't. More often it did not. Because there are so many boys and girls in our country who can not afford to spend their entire youth and early manhood and womanhood in school. They must get out and do something to help themselves with the ever increasing cost of education. And once out, too often means out forever.

The motive of this paper at this time is to urge the parents of high school boys and girls to take time to look into the courses of study and see if those courses are what your child needs most. But before you can decide that you will need to look into your child's future and into his disposition and into his likes and dislikes and if possible KNOW YOUR CHILD. And if you don't know him, if you can not see into his nature, then for mercy sake listen to a good superintendent who does know him and has studied his nature and has some idea what your boy or your girl is good for and the kind of training that will be of greatest service to them all through their lives. It seems to me the mission of every high school should be to lay the foundation and pave the way for any boy or girl to build their own career. It seems to me when the State has given any boy or girl eleven whole years of school training free that with ordinary sense they ought to be able to go out and make their own way to any goal in life.

But just as long as we all study books more than BOYS and GIRLS we will continue to drive half the boys and girls out of high school after we succeed in getting them over the dead line of the seventh grade. It seems to me the greatest mission of the high school is to help boys and girls discover themselves and their own talent and inclinations. When that is done there will be millions of our boys and girls who will feel the need of a higher education and a better preparation for life. And the consequences will be more college students everywhere in every branch of education. The very fact that the high school has been made a preparatory school for college rather than a period of discovery in the life of our boys and girls has kept more boys and girls out of college than anything else. Once our Twentieth Century boys and girls discover that they are good for something and get some idea of what that something is and they will conquer their fate no matter how long and how hard it is. Our high schools must get a broader vision of their mission to youth and humanity at large than merely preparing a minority of our school children to enter college. If we would be a true democracy we must make equal educational opportunities possible for every American born child.

Dreadful Aches, PAINS Disappeared

"My health had been poor for ten years, before I took Cardui," says Mrs. Anna Cronin, of Rockport, Ind. "I was lifeless and 'no account.' I dragged around day after day, every move an effort, and never feeling the joy of being well.

"At times, I had a dreadful ache across my back, and my sides hurt me. I worried along, sometimes hardly able to leave my bed, but the demands of a growing family had to be attended to; so I would get up, do what was absolutely necessary, and then lie down again.

"One day, someone suggested Cardui to me. I took it for several months, and all the time I was growing stronger, and less nervous. My aches and pains finally disappeared.

"That was two years ago. My improvement has been permanent. The good health, which followed the taking of Cardui, is still with me, so I do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends."

MEMPHIS BOYS WIN RIFLE HONORS

Washington, September 13.—While at target practice with U. S. Marines from all parts of the country, John M. Hull Jr., and William O. Johnsey, of Memphis, Texas, proved the skill of Texans in the use of fire arms when they recently qualified as expert rifleman and sharpshooter, respectively.

Their names appear on an official target bulletin issued at Marine Corps headquarters here. John who is a native of Texas is 23 years old and was born in Paris. He lived at the home of his father, John M. Hull, in Memphis, before he joined the Marine Corps at Fort Worth, in December 1922. For a while the local boy was stationed with the U. S. Marine detachment aboard the U. S. S. Texas, later being assigned to duty at Norfolk, Va. He qualified as an expert rifleman on a rifle range near Norfolk.

William is 19 years old and was born in Memphis. He is a son of William E. Johnsey, and joined the Marine Corps at Fort Worth, last April. He qualified as a sharpshooter while stationed at San Diego, Calif., later being assigned to duty with the U. S. Marine detachment aboard the U. S. S. New Mexico.

Target practices are held by the Marine Corps at frequent intervals, the men who qualify as expert rifleman or sharpshooters receiving medals and additional pay for their skill.

Mrs. M. M. Pounds is reported on the sick list this week.

a number of oil field workers were not killed or injured by the lightning strokes and the subsequent explosions. It sure looked like for a time that the Good Lord was visiting his wrath on these "wicked" oil field towns and that they were going the way of Sodom and Gomorrah.

I have already written about the war that is being waged on the rats in Borger, and so far the sanguinary conflict has been a howling success, as far as the desimation of the rodents is concerned, but the sequel of the story is that the deceased rats have become a greater menace than the animate ones. It seems that the hunters in their lust for blood and slaughter have neglected to give decent sepulture to the dead and as a result the City Dads have ordered a cessation of hostilities until a wholesale funeral takes place.

The war against prairie chickens, doves and other unfortunate game birds which are now at the tender mercy of the pot hunter is being prosecuted with great vigor. The large army which bravely responded to the first call to arms when war was declared last Wednesday has been receiving heavy reinforcements every day. It would be difficult even to approximate the number of warriors now under arms and at the front, but that you may form some idea, I find upon investigation that Hutchinson county has already sent more than 1,200 volunteers to the front armed with hunting license, shotguns, and thermos jugs full of—well something. It is pretty safe to say that if every hunter, who is out in the breaks wasting time and ammunition, bags his quota of birds the children of the next generation will learn from natural history that prairie chickens and doves which were once plentiful in the valley of the Canadian river, became totally extinct in September, 1927.

It came to the ears of the local constabulary the latter part of last week that the fessive bootleggers were waxing prosperous and arrogant up in the vicinity of Oil City. So late Saturday afternoon a number of local officers headed by Ranger Harrell took a little paseo (trip) up that way. As a result the visit of the minions of the law to the budding oil field metropolis was so unexpected that the "hootch" vendors were caught in a state of complete unpreparedness. Many casualties were in evidence after the short but decisive conflict was over. Half a dozen bootleggers were taken alive while perhaps twice does seem that it might have been done in some other way, which would have done those old soldiers much more good than the donation of huge tracts of what was then considered worthless land. It is safe to say that the land so awarded to the heroes of San Jacinto did them little or no good and left a big gap down for endless litigation in the years to come. It is also safe to say that if no oil had ever been found on these lands or they had not otherwise become valuable there would have been no suits or litigation. When a plaintiff has slept on his rights for fifty years it would seem that he had lost all right to recover. There ought to be a limit somewhere but I doubt if there are many laws in our cumbersome statutes which could not be picked to shreds by any shrewd lawyer, provided the retainer was large enough. I sometimes think they could almost prove that the constitution itself is unconstitutional.

Borger is surely getting better. A big carnival struck town the other day which was to hold forth and relieve the populace of their surplus coin under the auspices of the American Legion. It had been heralded far and wide as a great moral aggregation, but after a brief one-night stand the noisy "laws" headed by Mayor Pace, swooped down on the outfit and closed it up on account of its "Tis a sad, sad story, mates," but many of the concessions owners did not have time enough to corral sufficient legal tender to pay themselves out of the housegow. Yes, I am sure Borger is getting civilized.

Can you afford to spend 25¢ a week to save 50¢?

IT is reliably estimated that it costs on the average $20 per year for removing carbon from a six-cylinder motor. This does not include the cost of necessary repairs due to the wear and tear which carbon causes. That's why you save money when you use Conoco Ethyl Gasoline even though it costs 3c more per gallon than ordinary gasoline. It costs you about 35c more a week—$13 a year—but it saves you double this amount by reducing carbon removal and wear and tear bills. Isn't that wise economy?

DEMOCRAT SERVICE

The Memphis Democrat, in keeping with its policy of rendering the best possible service to the community at all times, has employed Mr. Lyman E. Robbins as advertising manager and he will devote his entire time in assisting advertisers in the preparation of their copy, when ever this service is wanted.

Mr. Robbins will have at his command plenty of advertising cuts and illustrations that will make the advertisements readable and attractive. Well written and well illustrated advertisements going into the homes of people who appreciate the Democrat, make a combination that will bring good results to advertisers.

Call 15 and ask for Mr. Robbins—he is at your service.

Donley county will have a county fair October 14-15. This fair promises to be one of the best county fairs in the Panhandle.

Now comes Editor W. A. Smith, former president of the Texas Press association, announcing his candidacy for the office of Lieutenant-Governor in next year's Democratic primary.

Jerry—"What do you mean—you were kicked by a surefooted horse?"

Dave—"He kicked at me three times and didn't miss once."

DR. J. C. CURRAN

the day. Often they'll wait on a customer in an utterly disinterested spirit."

Speaking of accomplishments that really benefit mankind, Dr. Curran said:

There is no provision made for excess baggage on the ladder to success. There is no room for passion, jealousy, hatred and a desire for revenge.

"How many places of business will close when you die? All of them? What one thing have you done in the city of Memphis that you can point to and say, 'Thank God I had will enough to do that.'"

Forgetting People

"In the average bank you have to pass through a frigid zone to get to the window. When the cashier sees you he immediately drops his head and starts figuring on something. But you can't blame the poor fellow, he's only ashamed because he doesn't know you. Come clean with people you don't remember and they'll thank you for it."

"Everyone wants to be made someone—wants to be noticed. Man doesn't want to be ignored. He wants to be individualized."

"No man is flattered when you tell him you've seen his face before. They want you to know them. Do a little thinking when you see people."

Keeping Physically Fit

"When you lose all pride in that body of yours, you've about lost interest in life. You can make a cess pool or health resort of it. Be careful. One often sees men driving down the street with their chests in their laps. The nearer you get to nature the nearer natural you'll be. Practice human nature."

"Have you ever thought how much your wife has to wade thru to kiss you through all the filth of cigars, pipe and chewing tobacco? How she must love you! What would you say if your wife came down to the store smoking a big black cigar and chewing a jaw full of tobacco, spit over in the corner like you do and said, 'Kiss me, honey?'"

"The foundation of every good man is some good woman. Woman always believes man can do something and the big things in this world were accomplished because of a woman's untiring faith."

One stunt pulled by Dr. Curran at the close of his address Tuesday was out of the ordinary. He called the name of all present except two—more than forty were present. While the others were eating he sat next to Jeff Watson and asked the name of each individual present, and then at the end of his address was able to name all but two.

Dr. Curran has addressed over 400 Rotary Clubs of the United States, and over 1,000 other service clubs. He is rated as one of the best speakers of the nation, and his services are in demand by big business institutions all over the country. Arrangements have been made for him to return next Monday and deliver an address to employers and employees at 8 p. m. at the high school auditorium. The expense of this lecture has been met by local business men, and the entire public, men, women and children are invited and there will be no admission charged. Every business man, every employee, and their wives cannot afford to miss his talk.

PARNELL NEWS

The pie supper given by the home economics class last Friday night was a huge success. The proceeds were small, but also large if we consider the scarcity of money at this time of the year.

A sum of $42.25 was realized from the sale of the pies. The new railroad has already benefited us in that the railroad boys helped liberally in the buying of pies.

Plans, which we hope will materialize, are under way to put Parnell before the people of this county during the Hall county fair.

Misses Theta Brinn and Ruth Morehead spent Sunday with Misses Alva and Lillie Hamilton. Misses Lola, Lala, and Nora Winn, Ouida Brunson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pugh Thrasher at Estelline.

Miss Methyl Clayborn of Childress, returned to her home after week's visit in the home of Miss Mabel Braidfoot.

An interesting election was held Friday night at the pie supper for the purpose of electing a princess to represent Parnell at the fair. Miss Nora Win was the successful candidate.

Misses Nona and Gladys Weatherly visited with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jones Sunday.

Rube Canada and daughter, Nellie, were shoppers in Childress last Friday.

Crump Ferrell, who is attend school at Memphis this year, spent the week end with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Graham spent Sunday in Memphis visiting their daughter, Dee.

Roy Sneed is on the sick list this week.

Several children are out of school picking cotton.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE

The best of workers ket out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sick spell, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by Leverett-Williams Drug Co. 10-5t

Miss Elizabeth Bryant will leave Sunday for Abilene to attend Simmons University. Mrs. S. A. Bryant will accompany her and visit a sister in Abilene, sisters in Hamlin, and her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Jamison in Knox City, and will be gone several weeks.

SURPRISE SHOWER HONORING BRIDE

On Saturday afternoon, September 10, Mrs. D. B. Gentry, nee Miss Versa Odum, was honored with a shower given by Misses Cress Ardery, Lucile Read and Helen Beard at the home of the latter, assisted by Mrs. G. D. Beard.

The guests, arriving at 5 p. m., were refreshed with delicious punch. After registering in the bride's own book, they were seated to await the coming of the honoree, Mrs. D. B. Gentry.

An electric sign with beautiful pastel shades of lavender, rose and yellow, constantly changing, announced the guests the names and date of wedding of the newlyweds. Bowls of many-colored zenias adorned the house, which resembled the salesroom of the Dodge Motor company.

When Mrs. Gentry came, she was directed to a seat of prominence in view of all the guests. Little Miss Jean Draper, driving a beautiful miniature Dodge convertible coupe, 1928 model, asked Miss Versa to watch for a caravan of Dodge automobiles coming through; these were driven by little Misses Jeanette Watson, Peggy Figh, and Master Jack Walker. The latter driving an old '97 model. All of these cars were laden with packages for the bride, which contained beautiful silver, linens and numerous other lovely gifts for herself and home.

After Mrs. Gentry and the guests had viewed the gifts, dainty refreshments were served consisting of cream in colors of gold and white, and delicious cake. Tiny automobiles containing "Dodge News Special" with the news and date of the wedding were used as favors.

The many friends in departing wished the happy bride great joy and happiness and a long, prosperous married life.

"Aunt Jemima" burst through the circle of girls and set the laundry basket before Mrs. Clara Meseck, and fanning herself, panted, "I've ironed all day to get here in time—never would a' made it if dese ghosts hadn't chased me."

TOO MUCH MARRIAGE

Prince Leopold of Belgium and Princess Astrid of Sweden have to be married three times to make it stick. Two church ceremonies and a civil ceremony will go to the wedding, and if they are not married by then few are.

That means that if they ever try to get divorced, they will have to take three strikes on that. Prying them apart will be harder than opening the bottom drawer of an antique dresser. They will be so thoroughly married that even shooting one of the parties will not dissolve it. They would have to shoot both.

Marriage of course is an excellent thing, but taking three shots at it all for one wedding seems over-doing it. Unless the parsons need the fees.

Buying Texas Products
California is buying Texas products. This is as it should be, for Texas has been paying tribute to California for these many years. Colorado, Texas, is shipping 100 tons of threshed sorghum grains, principally maize, to California each week, for which buyers are paying $14 a ton and taking all they can get. Many farmers are realizing $12 to $20 gross an acre from their crops, which they say nets them more than can be realized from cotton.

Mitchell county farmers are fattening more live stock with sorghums this year than ever before and reports indicate that many of them are making their livestock and poultry pay all expenses, leaving the cotton a clear profit. Diversified farming is nearly always profitable in Texas.

Are High Prices Disastrous?

Nathan Adams, president of a Dallas bank, is quoted as saying that farmers will make a big mistake to hold their cotton for 30 cents, and that "A higher price than 20 cents will cause a false wave of prosperity and end in a spending spree that will offset the profits made," and make it difficult to finance the 1928 crop. He thinks that with a 4,000,000 bale crop at 20 cents "the farmer would make a nice profit and be enabled to pay off outstanding debts." Does Mr. Adams think that all the farmer wants and needs is to pay off his debts to the banks? Isn't he entitled to some of the profits and the comforts the banker enjoys? Why is the farmer not entitled to a 30 cent price for cotton, not more than a third of which is profit, just as much as the banker is entitled to a fat dividend on his bank stock? Why is a "spending spree" any more wrong for the farmer than for the banker.

Farm Prosperity

Cotton is selling right around 25 cents and I hope to see it reach 30 cents a pound. The farmer and his hard-working family deserve it. Most of them need better homes than they have and all of them need more comforts in their homes. There is no reason why the farmers of this country should not live in as good homes as the people of the cities and towns have and none why they should not have as many luxuries as their town neighbors. To wish less for them, to desire to hold them forever as the debtors of the banks and the merchants, is a narrow-sighted conception that would bode no good for any one. This country will not prosper, as it should until the farmers become as prosperous and as satisfied as any other class of citizens. Let us all hope to live to see that time.

Anderson County Fairs

It is reported that Anderson county, of which Palestine is the county site, will have 10 community fairs before the Texas Fruit Palace opens at Palestine, September 27. These community fairs in themselves will insure the success of the big event. They get close to the people and broaden their interest in bigger things. It is doubtful if any other Texas county will have a many and such farm-stimulating community fairs.

Who Gets the Premium?

There is something wrong with either the farming or the marketing methods in Texas if the statement recently made at Waco by a cotton expert is true. He stated that spinners are paying as high as 13 cents a pound additional for extra staple cotton, "but not a penny of this is ordinarily received by the producer of such cotton in Texas." Who gets the difference and why? Concealed plans should be put on foot to see that the Texas farmers produce the best cotton that can possibly be grown and that they, and not the cotton speculators, get full value for what they produce.

Panhandle Creameries

The Dalhart Texan says that the Kaufman Creamery Company which has a branch creamery at Dalhart, handled 93,431 pounds of cream brought in by farmers of the Dalhart trade territory during the first seven months of 1927, which was slightly more than 100 per cent increase over the business of the same period of 1926. If there is a place in Texas with a creamery that is not regarded as a distinct help to the community I should like to hear about it.

Granite Men Cheered

After a long fight for lower rates the granite men of Llano and Burnet counties have persuaded the Interstate Commerce Commission that rates on Texas granite shipped to the North and Northwest have been too high,

HARRELL CHAPEL

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Forman returned home Sunday from a few days visit with Mr. Forman's parents in Oklahoma.

Sherrell Callahan and father, returned last week from a stay of several weeks in New Mexico. They report dry weather in that country.

Miss May McClanahan has returned home. She has been visiting her brother in Oklahoma.

The Harrell Chapel ladies club met with the girls at the home of Mrs. Woodson Monday, September 12. Miss Mary Sitton, home demonstrator, was with us. We had a real interesting meeting, with discussions and plans for the fair at Childress, which begins September 20. The ladies of and lower rates have been made effective in December. Now that Texas is prepared to compete for business in those territories a rapid expansion of the Texas granite trade is expected.

Sweetwater Wants Water

Sweetwater is going to vote on a $750,000 bond issue to secure a permanent and abundant water supply. The water is to be obtained from a artificial lake and from wells. West Texas towns are realizing that if they are to grow they must have plenty of water and most of them are now hurrying to get it. The recent "water rights" agitation has put them on the alert, as a matter of self-preservation.

Telling Them Now

Editor Faubion of the Marble Falls Messenger says that very few people outside of that county know that Burnet county has in operation one of the largest granite mines in the country and has a lead mine, too. Well, the readers of some 35 of the best newspapers in Texas are reading about it now. That is the purpose of this column—to let Texans get the constructive news in regard to what is being done for the development of Texas, and thus aid a bit in that development. Help the movement along, Brother Faubion, help it along.

Back on the Old Job

Strange about these newspaper fellows. Sometimes they imagine there is something better for them than the endless work of getting out a newspaper or that there is a better place for them than right where they are. Then, they are tempted to sell out and hike for somewhere else. Most of them soon find out their mistake and are glad to buy back the old "home-town sheet" at a premium. All of which leads to the statement that Editor Bradbury is back at the helm of the Lometa Reporter and mighty glad to be there after seven months wandering.

Wants an Office

Editor W. A. Smith, "Billie Smith" of the San Saba News, wants to be Lieutenant Governor of Texas. He hasn't explained why and I am at a loss to know, but if he wants the place, most of the newspapers of Texas are going to help him get it, "by gatlins."

Harrell Chapel will have a booth there.

Everybody is invited to come to the Harrell Chapel community club meeting, Saturday night, September 17. The Memphis Gold Medal band will render some music and also have some good singers from Memphis. The ladies will sell ice cream and cake.

Mrs. Charlie Bain who has been real sick is reported better.

Mrs. S. E. Anderson is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Goble, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. McClanahan and Miss Ruth Woodson spent the day Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill McClanahan.

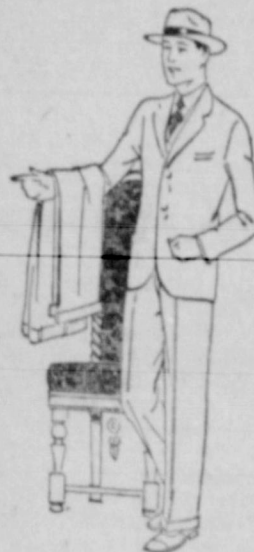

Miss Merble Sheppard spent Sunday with Pauline Bain.

Miss Bernice Kinsey returned home Monday from a few days visit with her sister at Eastland and friends near Ahlone.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Richards have returned home from a few days visit in Taylor county. They report short crops there.

Just A Few Cents More

Added to the price you pay for an article often adds one half to the wearing life of that article. There isn't but a few cents between the price of the leather in a full calf stock leather shoe and a side leather shoe, but there is often fifty per cent more in the full calf shoe. Examples of this kind are to be found all through dry goods stock. This store has always sold the better. Sometimes the price is a few cents more, but you always get much more for your money.

Our stocks are now complete in every department for fall business. We will appreciate an opportunity to serve you.

The agricultural exhibits are expected to be exceptionally good, this year's crops are better than usual in many sections of the district. Estelline won second place last year at the Hall County District Fair with an exhibit that was gathered up hastily and without the proper grading. Estelline is planning to do better this year.—Estelline News.

DAD GIST HAS FINE COTTON

N. L. (Dad) Gist brought some stalks of cotton to the Democrat office Monday morning, which he pulled from his half acre patch—just average stalks. The cotton shows that it will make something like a bale per acre. Several open bolls already, with most of the other ready to open.

Dad has been suction man at the gin for sixteen years, losing only 17 days during that time. He will begin right away at the Seago & Simmons on his seventeenth year.

CHEVROLET IS BREAKING ALL ITS RECORDS

Shattering all previous production records for the manufacture of gear shift cars for the eight consecutive month this year, the Chevrolet Motor company in August completed 91,453 units for its greatest August in history, according to figures released today by H. J. Klingler, general sales manager for the company.

This new record brings the total output during the first eight months of this year to 786,336 units as against 513,507 units during the same period last year and 732,147 units during the entire year of 1926. The 1926 output was passed this year on August 12.

Last August Chevrolet turned out 76,586 units, showing an increase in August, 1927, of 14,867 units, for a gain of more than nineteen percent.

To accomplish this tremendous volume the nine great Chevrolet factories in the United States have been running practically at peak production during the entire year, while the export plants have maintained a similar fast pace, attesting the world-wide appeal of the "Most Beautiful Chevrolet."

In view of the fact that the monthly output has consistently exceeded the production schedule—the August volume being nearly 2,000 units over schedule—Chevrolet officials were satisfied that this year's output would approach one million cars.

MRS. GEORGIA E. GARVIN

Mrs. Georgia E. Garvin, age 59 years, died at her home on Dover street Saturday morning at 12:50. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Nazarene church on North Tenth street, conducted by Rev. S. H. Erwin. Interment was made at Fairview cemetery.

Mrs. D. A. Neely left Monday for Farmersville to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Jack Bumpass (nee Miss Omega Womble). Mrs. Bumpass resided here a number of years ago and has many friends who will regret to learn of her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moreman and daughter Marcolita of Corpus Christi visited relatives here latter part of last week.

$5,000 Education Endowment Becomes $60,000 Legacy

"Son! Let's see if you're good at figures. Listen closely. Here's the problem: When you were born, Dad was 26. He bought you an Educational Endowment Life Insurance policy. The requisite annual instalments during 18 years will total $4,185. But the policy will pay you $5,000. Now the first question is: how does that $4,185 get to be $5,000? And the second question is: how does that $5,000 become $60,000, the day you receive your diploma?"

The first answer is: that Dad's investment earns a profit of nearly $1,000. And the second answer is: that Sonny, in four well-spent college years, will turn that $5,000 investment in education into an asset of $60,000. Statistics prove that college graduates average $60,000 greater earnings during life than non-graduates. This is the one certain way to assure a son's education, whether Dad lives or dies. Ask the Southland Life Agent to explain it fully.
