FOOTBALL AND RACES WILL FEATURE ARMISTICE PROGRAM

On the LEVEL a column by William Russell Clark ARMISTICE DAY

Armistice Day, 1930! These words are fruited with the remembrance of that eventful day twelve years ago when the Allies celebrated the cessation of hostilities...

Thoughts of home bobbed up like phantoms in the dusk. Wonder if the same old gang hangs around the corner drug store?

Over here, the Y. M. C. A. heroes came to life. Fiery addresses were made. Near-slackers and out-and-out slackers wore flags in their buttonholes.

Those were happy days for many, back in 1918. To many others, the days passed slowly, solemnly. Loved ones were dead; others were wounded; some were gassed and shell-shocked; still others had lost an arm, a leg, or were permanently disfigured.

At the time of the Armistice, the United States had succeeded in mobilizing an army of 4,355,000 men. Of this number, 126,000 had died incident to the service. There were 234,000 wounded and 4,500 reported as missing.

Will Open Section New Highway Soon

The first section of the new highway being constructed from Memphis to Mulberry Bridge is to be opened to traffic within the next two weeks, according to C. L. Hasie, county engineer.

Construction on the highway road bed between Memphis and Lakeview is being rushed to completion. The bed is beginning to take form throughout a greater part of the distance, and work on bridges and approaches is entering its last stages.

ATTEMPT BEING MADE TO GET PARK HIWAY Representatives Go From City To Push Claims For Road

An attempt is being made by members of the Palo Duro Park Board of which R. S. Greene is a director, to get the members of the Association interested in a highway through the Palo Duro Canyon to the proposed state park 24 miles east of Canyon, according to J. Henry Read, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Attempt Meet Sunday Henry Read and Henderson Smith, county tax collector, attended a meeting of the association last Sunday held in the canyon at the proposed park site, and presented the plans for this highway.

Small Speaks At the meeting of the association Sunday, C. C. Small, of Wellington, stated that it would be almost impossible to obtain an appropriation from the state this year for the purpose of building this park and highway through the canyon, and he advised that all (Continued on page 4)

Robbers Active In City Monday Night

Monday night robberies in three homes in different sections of Memphis netted the thief or thieves almost $150 in cash and watches. Each of these thefts are believed to have been committed by the same person or persons because they were all handled in the same manner.

Cash and Watch Taken The third home to be entered was that of Jim Nail on North Fifteenth street. Mr. Nail reported the loss of $22 in cash and a watch valued at $40. Max Nail was robbed of sixty-five cents, and stated that he had taken $71 out of his pocket before retiring and placed it in his trunk.

Walker Home Entered The home of E. E. Walker on South Ninth street was entered and the trousers of Emmett Walker were stolen. Emmett reported a loss of a watch valued at about $45 and seventy-five cents in change. The trousers were found Tuesday morning on the front porch.

Uncle Watt Wells Swept Into Office J. W. (Uncle Watt) Wells has been swept into office on the face of incomplete returns from the general election of last Tuesday. Uncle Watt is somewhat of a demagogue player and is probably one of the best versed men in politics in this section, despite his advanced years.

Well Worth Seeing Both events will be well worth the seeing. Estelline is anxious to redeem her prowess on the gridiron against her arch-enemy, Memphis, and the Cyclone is just as anxious to get revenge for the defeat administered to them at Estelline last fall. It will be a battle to the finish and worth the time and attention of every one out to enjoy the day.

Managed by Ward Too much cannot be said for the auto races. They will be run under the expert management of Mat L. Ward, of Kansas City, formerly of Oklahoma, who has staged races in Memphis before. Admission prices for the races will be 75 cents for each single admission, but it was stated that such races as will be run here on the new race track ordinarily cost from $1 to $1.50 to see. A number of races are scheduled. There will be preliminary races, local stock car races, and the feature race will be between a Ford and Chevrolet with a De Soto challenging the winner of this race, for the final race of the day. Substantial purses are being offered. (Continued on page 4)

AUTO RACES TO BE RUN AFTER GRID GAME

Both Events Are Of Major Importance; Races Aid Legion

Armistice Day in Memphis promises to be a day long to be remembered. There will be a number of activities taking place in the way of entertainment features, and people from surrounding counties are expected to take part in the celebration here.

Two Outstanding Events Two outstanding events have been scheduled for the day, the automobile races at the Fair Grounds and the football game at Owl Park.

Very little interest was taken in the elections on Tuesday by citizens of Memphis and Hall County. The vote was light in all the boxes. On the face of incomplete returns, it appears that all five of the constitutional amendments carried in the county and it is also evident that they have carried over the state as a whole.

299 VOTES ARE CAST TUESDAY IN MEMPHIS Amendments Carry In County; Republican Vote Very Light

It was originally planned by directors of the Hall County District Fair in cooperation with the American Legion to have the football game played at the Fair Park, but several hitches arose due to the fact that the Estelline team had been given a certain guarantee and the further fact that season tickets to local football games were out and would have to be honored at this contest.

Managed by Ward Too much cannot be said for the auto races. They will be run under the expert management of Mat L. Ward, of Kansas City, formerly of Oklahoma, who has staged races in Memphis before. Admission prices for the races will be 75 cents for each single admission, but it was stated that such races as will be run here on the new race track ordinarily cost from $1 to $1.50 to see. Methodist Circles Hold Joint Meet At Church Monday

Members of Circles No. 1 and 2 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist church met at the church Monday afternoon in a joint meeting in their second week of prayer program, with Mrs. J. W. Slover, leader. The topic for the meeting was "The Saints Pray." The meeting was opened by singing, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," the devotional being given by Mrs. Ernest E. Robinson. The scripture lesson from Ephesians 3:14-21 was read by Mrs. Slover, and a poem, "Prayer is the Soul's Sincere Desire," was read by Mrs. John Lofland.

"Saints of the Early Church" was discussed by Mrs. W. M. Bagwell and Mrs. W. E. Johnson gave "Later Saints Who Prayed." Both were very interesting. A solo was then rendered by Mrs. Clyde Farmer, "Prayer is Appointed to Convey," with Mrs. C. L. Sloan, Jr., at the piano. A playlet, "Wanted—A New Building for Wolff Mission" was enacted by Mrs. H. W. Kuhn, Mrs. George Greenhaw, Mrs. Ed Lofland, Mrs. H. F. Schoolfield, Mrs. A. C. Hoffman, Mrs. D. E. Mrs. Thomason Hostess To Sunday School Class

Mrs. Seth Thomason was a charming hostess to Mrs. H. F. Schoolfield's Sunday School Class Thursday afternoon, October 30, at her home, 709 South Sixth street. The season's flowers were used in profusion throughout the living rooms and Halloween suggestions held places of prominence.

Mrs. L. Dowell, president of the class, conducted the devotional, reading the 13th chapter of First Corinthians. This was followed by singing, "I Must Tell Jesus." A reading, "The Brimming Cup" was given by Mrs. L. S. Clark. Mrs. Clyde Reed and Mrs. Orville Goodpasture sang a duet, "Leave a Little Smile," "My Master," a poem, was given in an impressive manner by Mrs. W. E. Johnson. Little Darline Reed gave a reading, "Fidgets," that was greatly enjoyed.

Woodman Circle Has Meeting On October 29th.

Woodman Circle Grove No. 803 met in regular session Wednesday evening of last week at 7:30 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. Hall. After the business was disposed of, all were asked to remain for the social. As the husbands, friends and musicians had already been invited, all were welcomed into the hall, which was beautifully decorated in Halloween colors. There were readings, music and stunts engaged in and much enjoyment prevailed.

Following the program, the hostesses, Mesdames Vida Graham, Harley Cudd, Dot Webster and Allen Hale served refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pumpkin pie and chocolate.

Harmony Club Is Represented At Music Federation

Five representatives of the Harmony Club attended the meeting of the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, which convened in the First Methodist church at Quanah, last Saturday, November 1. Those attending from Memphis were Mrs. Horace Tarver, president of the local club; Mrs. Frank Fore, secretary; Mrs. Clyde Farmer, delegate, and Mrs. R. S. Greene and Mrs. M. McNeely.

A delightful meeting is reported by those attending from Memphis. The morning business session, with Mrs. C. F. Smith, of Amarillo, presiding, was well attended and splendid reports were made by each club in the district, after which the following officers were elected: Mrs. I. I. Cole, Amarillo, president; Mrs. E. B. Graham, Amarillo, vice-president; Miss Mattie Swisher, Canyon, secretary; Mrs. Sam Isaacs, Canadian, treasurer; for state committee chairmen, Mrs. M. McNeely, Memphis; Mrs. J. D. Hughes, Quanah; Mrs. R. D. Moxley, Lubbock; Mrs. A. C. Pruitt, Snyder and Mrs. Lon C. McCrary, Dalhart.

At noon Saturday, a lovely luncheon was served the visitors by the Music Lovers Club of Quanah in the basement of the Methodist church and at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, an unusually good Fine Arts program was given by members of the district. Lubbock extended an invitation for the next meeting which was accepted.

Christian Society Meets With Mrs. Watson Monday

Mrs. J. P. Watson was hostess to the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Christian church on Monday afternoon, November 3. An educational program on Porto Rico was given with Mrs. J. B. Wright as leader for the afternoon. The meeting was opened with prayer led by Mrs. J. M. Elliott. The opening song was "To the Work." Mrs. J. H. Norman, president, presided during the first part of the meeting, at which time, the minutes of the last meeting were read. A committee was appointed to make special arrangements for the Women's Day program to be given by the Society on the first Sunday in December in the church auditorium. Mrs. Wright read the scripture and led the devotional, putting spirit of worship into the program. Mrs. J. A. Whaley gave, in an instructive way, the "Rebuilding of Porto Rico." Mrs. W. R. Cabaness told about "Homes in Porto Rico." Mrs. D. J. Morgenson gave "The Wonderful Words of Life" in a very interesting way and Mrs. J. P. Watson gave a report of the Washington convention.

THIS AND THAT

I know I'm a tall, ugly, gangling type, but there's a limit to my endurance. As I was walking down Main street yesterday afternoon a man passed me and said very courteously, "How do you do, Mr. Orr." Something ought to be done about it.

You'll pardon the constant reference to my mustache, I know, but really it's quite an event in my life. I took my mother home last Saturday and while I was in Texas I visited my sister and brother-in-law on their farm or maybe it belongs to the bank—most farms do just now) near Hillsboro. I'm sure my sister noticed my mustache but she probably thought I was self-conscious or toughy about it or something. Anyway, she didn't say anything about it. She even refrained from wise-cracking, which is unusual, knowing my sister's mother as I do. Things went along very smoothly. I was in the company of my nieces and nephews. They were running around my rocking chair and climbing over my legs and tripping over my feet. I'm sure they hadn't noticed my manly mustache because if they had their child-like instinct would have prompted a few questions. All of a sudden, out of a clear sky, Andrew, my four-year-old nephew who has to know everything or know the reason why, climbed up in my lap, felt of my upper lip and enquired, "What's that?" I'm telling you, people, I don't know what this world is coming to. Even intelligent children don't know a real mustache when they see one.

Incidentally, I noticed that my brother-in-law's cotton wasn't any better than Hall County cotton is this year. But I did notice that even though the cotton is bad they are still picking it down in that country. I told him we were pulling it up in our country. "Yes," he said, "when you fellows pull cotton it's 'snaps' and you get a pretty good price for it, but when you pull it it's 'bollies' and the price is accordingly low. You folks are ruining the cotton market."

Well, that's a relief! I've been wondering who ruined the cotton market.

Memphis certainly has some important barbers. I asked Ed McCreary to trim my mustache last week. "I'd be glad to," he said, "if I could see it." Roy Leverett, sitting in the next chair to me, said "Lyman, I see you every day and I didn't know you had a mustache until I read about it."

There are victims of quite a fair competition, but I wonder if passenger traffic would have dropped as much in recent years if railroads had made a more strenuous effort to serve the public. The Fort Worth & Denver's request to remove two passenger trains in service between Dallas and Amarillo, which doubtless will be granted, has brought this to my mind.

Let's take, for instance, the item of comfort. Suppose we consider as a fact that most people who travel rather regularly will take the Pullman for a night trip. Many, however, dislike to pay the additional fare for Pullman comfort (which is by no means perfect) during daytime travel. Most of the seats are benches, poorly padded and built too close together for any degree of comfort. The Pullman cars, which nearly all railroads supply—ours included—are considerably more comfortable for travelers. There are a number of interior refinements and improvements to passenger rolling stock that might be tried in an effort to compete with auto travel.

Still more important than comfort, I think, is the matter of speed. Fast trains in Texas are a joke. There aren't any. If I can drive from Memphis to Dallas in my own car in seven hours or less, why should I take a train that limps leisurely along and requires ten or twelve hours for the same distance? The Denver uses heavy steel and has a well-ballasted track, yet still insists on using a day to put passenger trains on a 300-mile stretch. Perhaps one day the railroads will awaken to the fact that people are in a mighty awful hurry these days and times.

Then there's the fare. I don't know whether it's too high or not. The Texas & Pacific Railway is trying to find out by charging 2 cents a mile for the next few weeks for travel between Fort Worth and Big Spring. I believe the fare railroads are charging is really of minor importance. American people have demonstrated long ago that they are willing to pay if they can get what they want. What they want in railroad travel is more comfort and faster schedules.

I am making no charge to the president of the Burlington System for these suggestions. (Big hearted L. E. R.)

The Wellington Leader, Deck Wells' alleged newspaper, spells Bologna "boloni." Which reminds me of the old expression, "No matter how you slice it, it's still boloney."

Here and There IN SPORTS

As a result of a drop after fighting strong teams for three straight weeks, the Cyclone let down on its playing last Friday and was defeated so badly that many of its backers believe the team is through for the season. This is entirely wrong. Every team must slow down for at least one week, especially after several hard games. The Cyclone has had its off day. This week-end the team will come back stronger than ever.

The Shamrock game has passed into history, and the thing the locals will have to guard against is another let down before the season is over. The McLean game Thursday ends the scheduled conference season for the Cyclone, but with the Twisters winning this game, Memphis and Clarendon will be tied for sectional honors. In this case, the two teams will meet again in Memphis, probably on next Friday. This will be the greatest battle of the entire season. Three thousand people should pack Owl Park if this should come to pass.

With only four days' between games, the Cyclone goes up against the Estelline Cubs next Tuesday at Owl Park. Estelline is not in the conference and has not shown even an average team this season, but look for a surprise in this Armistice Day contest. It may be a big one. The Cyclone will be feeling the effects of a hard game, and the Cubs will play far over their heads in an attempt to down their greatest enemy. A Cub victory would not be too great a surprise.

The day of the undefeated, untied football team is almost passed. Every squad has too many hard games to go through the entire season without a let down. Only nine major college teams go into the November contests with a clean slate. Of these, Notre Dame and Alabama are the most likely to finish with this record. T. C. U. in the Southwest is the only school left in this section with so good a record, but the Christian's strength has not yet been tried. Texas, Rice, Baylor, S. M. U.—all are still on the schedule. Any of them may upset the Christians, and at least one of them will probably do so.

When S. M. U. was trounced last Saturday by Texas, football history was really made in the Southwestern Conference. S. M. U. had an easy game the week before against Indiana which made this upset even greater. Texas is celebrating its first victory over the Methodists in ten years. Eastern sports writers said that Notre Dame met the greatest passing attack it will meet this year when that school entertained the Methodist aggregation. Texas stole S. M. U.'s own game and showed them a real passing attack. The Dallas team did not know what an aerial game meant until last Saturday.

Word comes from France that Paul Journee is attempting to sue Primo Carnera for approximately $80,000. Journee claims that he discovered Carnera and gave him his early training that enabled him to become a heavyweight contender, and has received nothing for his services. If Journee really made Carnera what he is today, then the suit should go the other way. If Primo has ever had any training, he has never proved it while in the ring.

BRICE

The Halloween Carnival was a "scream" Friday night! But why shouldn't it be with the many things we had to provide for such entertainments? The Egyptian fortune teller was partly responsible for all this gayety and animation, for she told the people of their bright and promising futures, from seven o'clock until eleven.

There were several booths which betrayed a real carnival spirit. A typical gypsy was in charge of a booth where the "wheel of balance" was kept in a continuous whirl. Several of the school boys were in charge of a booth where a dime was given every time a nail was driven into a board with two strokes of the hammer. Probably the booth managed by Mr. Kellogg and two or three of the Las Paratas was the most interesting to the hearty eaters, for it was at this booth that hamburgers, ham sandwiches, candy, chewing gum, chile, cigars, coffee and cigarettes were sold. The "Witches' Tea Room" where 'wiches, hot chocolate and pie were served was another outstanding feature of the carnival. The "Pirates' Den" was another feature attraction.

The faculty presented a one act play entitled, "The Underworld." Forty-two, Bingo and other games were played. Music was enjoyed throughout the entertainment. Mrs. Higgins' mother is visiting her this week.

Zack Aduddell made a business trip to Wellington Tuesday.

We have had wonderful weather the past week for gathering cotton.

Iva, Henry and Clarence Merrick of Groom attended the carnival Friday night.

Ray Roundtree of Fairview visited Raymond Ellis Friday night.

Frank Smallwood was forced to be absent from school the latter part of the week on account of tonsillitis.

A MERITED PROMOTION

WHEN it was learned last week that King Stephens, editor-manager of The Memphis News, had resigned his position, it was thought that he would be associated with the Panhandle Radio Company of this city. However, we understand Mr. Stephens has been offered a position in the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., and has decided to leave Memphis. For almost a year, he has handled the destinies of The News and it is due to his efforts, in large measure, that the paper has been entirely readable.

King Stephens is a good newspaper man. He is a competent editorial and news writer and he is a "democrat" in the "back-end." Past experience on the staff of The Democrat has demonstrated that King is one of the best linotype operators in this section of the state. In addition to his newspaper responsibilities, he has taken an active part in the affairs of the community, and was recently elected adjutant of the local post of the American Legion.

King has furnished The Democrat clean competition. Whenever both newspapers were given a story and asked to hold it in abeyance until a certain date, the News editor always carried out his part of the bargain. In certain stories, we have reciprocated with The News and they with us and the entire relationship between The Democrat and News have been exceedingly cordial and friendly during the time Mr. Stephens was at the helm of the opposition paper. It is with real regret that we see him leave Memphis, but we know his promotion is merited and we wish him unbounded success in his new field of endeavor.

THE LIBRARY OPEN HOUSE

WITHIN the very near future, as announced last week, the Board of the Carnegie Public Library will hold open house to better acquaint the people with the facilities offered by the Library and to create a new interest in the work this institution undertakes to accomplish. There are any number of people in this city who have come to take the Library for granted. Many there are who have never entered its portals. They are not at all familiar with what the Library is and does.

In other years, we understand it has been a practice of various clubs to entertain at the Library and invite guests to bring books with them as donations. This is not the purpose of the Board. No books or funds are requested. We want to become better acquainted with the reading public and to make new contacts with non-readers. In this way both the individuals and the Library are helped. The local institution functions much the same way as in the larger centers of population. About the only difference is that in Memphis, we do not have as many books as are to be found in cities. We have an excellent building, a competent librarian, and many facilities for service. We hope the general public will take advantage of the open house and see for themselves, from first hand observation, how the Library functions.

RECOGNIZING MOTHERS

A new development or innovation in high school athletics has been brought about this week through the rather unusual practice of honoring the mothers of the Cyclone football players by free admission to the grounds and a special reserved section of seats at the Memphis-McLean football game Thursday afternoon. The player's home life is a very important factor in the winning or losing of football games or in any other kind of competitive contests.

We know of homes where parents allow their boys to come out for football when they could use their services advantageously in work about home or in other ways. It is the desire of Coach Walter and the Memphis Athletic Council to show to the players' mothers that their help and influence is appreciated and about the only way in which this could be demonstrated was as already outlined.

We hope that every mother invited will take advantage of this opportunity of witnessing what will prove to be a real game, and we feel confident that the section reserved for their use will be full. It may be true that some of the mothers do not fully understand the game, but it will do them good to see their boys in action and other mothers' boys.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

WE have already begun to wonder what the Christmas spirit will be this year in Memphis and Hall County. Are we going to permit hard times to do away with that intangible something that has been so apparent at other Yuletide seasons? There is no reason for such a thing to transpire. It is true that many of us cannot do for others at this Christmas what has been our custom, but we can all do the best we can, and if we do that much, there will be Christmas spirit and to spare.

We often incline to the opinion that we set too much store by an elaborate Christmas celebration—to the giving of expensive gifts and really going far beyond our means. This will be a cautious Christmas, as we see it, when every individual will take stock of himself and his resources and make what he has cover the largest amount of ground possible.

It is not how expensive the gift is or the token or whatever it is we impart at Christmas-time that makes this season the brightest of the year, but the spirit in which it is given. "The gift without the giver is bare" and this will certainly apply to the Christmas of 1930.

A simple remembrance, a kind word, a glad greeting, a friendly handshake will go a long way to keep the Christmas spirit in that fine idealism in which it should stay. We know our readers will get in line and help to put over a real, old-fashioned Christmas, in a friendly kind of way, during the coming holiday season.

Dirzy Spells

Mrs. Cora Mosher, of 601 North New Orleans Ave., Brinkley, Ark., writes: "I was so constipated until I was just sick. I could not stand to take strong medicine, so I decided I would take Black-Draught, and I found it to be all right."

Unknown?

Let potentates their flowers keep And great men hoard the homage due; Far better let the tired boy sleep At peace with all the world, and you Who seek to laud him with your praise, He did not fight for your acclaim: He had a monument to raise And etched his blood without a name On foreign fields mired crimson, lush With other blood like his, that spilled Amid the carnage with its crush Between the jars of Mars-iron-willed. Leave him in peace in his quiet grave And let his watchman lonely plod, We do not know him, but he gave His name in Flanders to his God.

DOPE BUCKET SLOSHES OVER AND CYCLONE SPILLED BY IRISHMEN AS LOCALS FAIL TO SHOW FIGHT

Shamrock Runs Away With Non-Conference Game Last Friday 24-0; Curtis Bourland Plays Best Game For Cyclone

BY ADRIAN ODOM
The Shamrock Irishmen upheld their tradition that once in the lead and on their home field they do not go down in defeat last Friday afternoon when they swamped a disheartened, spiritless Cyclone aggregation by a score of 24 to 0. Although the Irishmen, when they found that they had a substantial lead and a very good chance to carry off the honors, played a brand of football that they had never shown before during the entire season, the decisive defeat they dealt the Twisters was due to the poor playing of the local squad rather than to the superior playing of the Irishmen.

Second String Starts
The entire second string started the game for the Cyclone, and although they fought hard, they were no match for the inspired Irish eleven. Shamrock scored their first counter near the end of the first quarter, and immediately Coach Walter sent in his first string players, but the Irishmen had already obtained the lead that they desired. The first line was hopelessly dead and seemingly uninterested in the outcome of the game, and proved it by giving the poorest exhibition of football playing that they have ever shown. Overconfidence and the fact that the Cyclone knew that this game counted nothing in their conference standing may be blamed for the exhibition that they gave on the field Friday.

Bourland Stars
If any man can star in a game that was played as this one was, that star was Curtis Bourland, Cyclone center. Bourland played head-up football from the time he went into the game, but with practically no support from the rest of the linemen, he could not do much. He broke through the line several times and threw the Irish runners for substantial losses or for no gain; he made almost every hard tackle that was made by the Cyclone squad. Curtis played a good offensive game as well as a good defensive one, but he marred his playing by one wild pass that prevented Champion from punting on a fourth down.

During the first part of the game, Captain James Hammond kept up a good fighting spirit and did his best to install this spirit in the other players. He found this impossible, and although he did not give up entirely, he slowed down and did not play as good a game as is his custom. The failure of the entire team to get started, however, must be credited. (Continued on page 4)

Misses Shaw Honored In A Musical Comedy And In Choral Club

Misses Doris and Mota Maye Shaw, daughters of Rev and Mrs. H. A. Shaw of Amarillo, but recently of Memphis, have both received signal honors, the one in Amarillo and the other in Fort Worth. Miss Doris had the leading role in a musical comedy presented in Amarillo this week. She is not only a musician of note, but is equally well known for her histrionic ability. She teaches music in the Amarillo Public Schools.

Miss Mota Mae Shaw was elected president of the Choral Club at Texas Christian University, where she is a senior student. This is one of the highest honors that can be conferred on a student at the university.

ANOTHER DRIVE FOR FUNDS TO BE STARTED

Re-Organization Will Be Effected At Meet In Near Future

The United Charities of Memphis is forced to cease operations because of a depleted treasury, according to Dr. J. Hardin Mallard, president of the organization. The charities will not operate until another drive for funds can be launched, Dr. Mallard stated. The monthly bank statement of November 1 shows a balance of only a little more than $14 and there are enough charity orders out to more than take up this balance. An arrangement has been made with Mayor Sam Harrison for the city to take care of the orders now out in excess of the bank balance reported, so that all outstanding bills will be paid through the cooperation of the city.

Expends About $2,400
Dr. Mallard reported that since the United Charities started functioning two years ago, the organization has expended between $2,000 and $2,400 in relief work, handling about 600 cases of distress and poverty. "It has aided all kinds of need and suffering," the minister declared. "It has clothed the naked, fed the hungry, administered to the sick in the way of doctor bills and medicine and operations to save lives or to relieve permanent physical impair- (Continued on page 4)

CHRONIC KICKERS (An Editorial)

Every town has its kickers, and every school, for that matter. It is so easy to find fault with the other person—to see where some one made an error, did something he should not have done, pulled a "boner" as the saying goes. Chronic kickers get their chief joys in life from finding something wrong, something out of place. In other words, "kicking" is second nature with them. If they couldn't kick, they couldn't function. We have all seen the kind.

We are proud of the fact that kickers are in a minority in Memphis and in Memphis High School. We are equally proud of the fact that the student body, as a whole knows how to take either victory or defeat. Of course, in athletic contests, victory is always to be desired, but it is impossible to win all the time and we pride ourselves on the fact that

Halloween Party Given Last Week For Junior Class

On Tuesday night, October 28, the Senior Class of the Memphis High School gave the Juniors a Halloween party at 7:30 in the Junior Study Hall, which is being used as a girls' gymnasium at the present time. The students arrived on time and wore gay masquerade costumes suited to the occasion. The couples were taken through the "chamber of horrors," which proved to be a very exciting experience.

Had Fortunes Told
Following this diversion, the students had their fortunes told. The fortune teller was dressed to depict an old witch and her forecasts were pointed and often struck home. Interesting games were played taken part in by all those present, after which delicious refreshments of apples and candy were served to the many guests who declared the evening to have been a very delightful one.

"It Happened In June" Is Title Of Play Given Soon By Junior Class

"It Happened In June" is the title of the Junior Class play that is to be given in the high school auditorium soon. This is a three act play that is jammed full of laughs from the start to the final curtain. It was chosen by the class from the Baker Book of Plays and will be the only play given by the class this year. Although the date of the presentation of the play has not been decided upon, the cast held its initial practice Monday night and plan to give the play as soon as possible.

Cast Is Announced
The cast is composed of nine members, who were given their roles as follows: Lola Mae Grundy as Betty Brenson, pretty young owner of a Shady Grove store; Annie Louise Hudgins as Susie Crundel, Betty's closest friend and neighbor; Tommie Boren as Nell Crundel, Susie's sixteen year old sister; Pauline Turlington as Mollie Jessop, cook for the Brenson family; Loreece Webster as Evalina Scroggs, homeliest girl in the village; Charles Flanery as Charles

Many Improvements Are Being Made To Girls' Gymnasium

According to Miss Volva Mae Sharbutt many improvements have recently been made to the girls' gymnasium at the senior high school. An apparatus has been set up to help the girls in their physical exercises, and more especially, for corrective uses. A hand balance apparatus has also been secured which is important in having girls keep the correct poise and to assist the girls to work gracefully and straight.

Tumbling mats will be secured before long, it was stated. The mats will be used for certain gymnastics, and to furnish a place for the girls to recline during rest periods while taking physical training.

Senior Class Has Meeting Following Chapel On Monday

An important Senior class meeting was called following the chapel period last Monday morning. The important matter up for discussion was whether or not the high school annual should be published. It was decided that in order to make the publication possible, it will be necessary to give a number of entertainments by both the Senior and Junior classes.

It was brought up that a certain amount is still due on the 1930 annual and this will have to be cared for if the new annual is to make its appearance. It is believed, however, that with the proper kind of entertainments, the necessary funds can be raised to finance the year book.

NEW BOOKS ORDERED FOR SCHOOL LIBRARY

A number of new books and a complete set of Popular Science books have been added to the school library recently. New shelves have also been put in place to care for the ever increasing library that is being acquired by the school. Work has been started on cataloging and repairing the old books that are in poor condition. Some new history books and magazines have been ordered and they will be in place within a short time.

Cyclonettes Open Cage Season With Win Over Teachers

The high school Cyclonettes opened their basketball season here last Thursday night with a 48 to 11 victory over a team composed of members of the high school faculty. One of the features of the game was the presence of the pep squad that gave yells for both the girls and faculty.

Showed Real Fight

Although the faculty showed some real fight and spirit, it was no match for the girl cagers, who took the lead from the first of the game and did not let up. Almost every girl on the squad saw service in this game, and many of them showed some very good ability. Miss Ruth Pendergrass, coach, is well pleased with the showing that the team is already

40 Juniors Pledge Themselves To Buy Sandstorm Of 1931

CYCLONE MEETS CUBS IN GAME HERE

Armistice Day Tilt Is Grudge Battle Of Old Enemies

The Memphis Cyclone goes into its last scheduled game of the season next Tuesday in an Armistice Day contest with the Estelline Cubs at Owl Park here. With only four days of rest following the McLean game, the local squad will be somewhat slowed down in this battle, but this will not prevent them from fighting their best to avenge the defeat suffered last year at the hands of the Cubs.

Estelline Rated Low

Estelline is rated low this season, having lost all but one game, but in the game Tuesday, they will play far over their heads in an attempt to defeat their greatest gridiron enemy. With the Cubs entering the game as underdogs but fighting harder than they have ever fought before and with the Cyclone held down because of their previous game Thursday but determined to leave the field victorious, this contest will prove to be very interesting to both Cyclone and Cub followers.

Part of Celebration

The Cyclone-Cub grid contest is scheduled as part of the Armistice Day celebration here and will be timed to correspond with the rest of the program. For this reason, at the time the Whirlwind (Continued on page 4)

TODAY
We Celebrate PEACE

We have discovered the Waste and Futility and Horror of War. Our eyes have pierced the veil of hypocrisy and seen the too-long-hidden Greed of nations.

But what of the sacrifice made by our war heroes? What of their idealism? All reverence! They were beautifully brave men. They loved their country. They gave themselves to a Cause.

And we pray that their Cause was not an illusion, that the "War to End War" will prove more than a catchphrase. It will . . . if the world has learned to honor its Warriors as the givers of Peace.

HE IS NOT UNKNOWN

NOBODY knows his name; yet simple heroism needs no other calling. Nobody knows his creed . . . or whether he had a creed . . . yet no more sublime lesson than self-sacrifice is learned within church walls.

He may have been a toiling clerk whose scope encompassed only the task before him. Or his life may have been as far-flung as the mist-blue western hills toward which he pushed his plow.

Who he was, or what he was, matters little.

He was American. The sun-warmed Virginia hillside where he sleeps is his soil for it is American. The ideals for which he died were the fruit of a tradition characteristically American; a tradition of freedom that has heard ax strokes in a clearing, pen scratches at Independence Hall and "Cuba Libre" at San Juan Hill.

Nobody knows what he did or where he fell. Yet in honoring him, we cherish the remembrance of those who marched an unknown road far longer than the one to St. Mihiel or Vaux.

For the Unknown Soldier is not unknown. His name is known to those who called him buddy; he still marches with the immortal Fifty Thousand. Though they have never returned, they are all the more glorious for the misty years that separate us from them.

THE UNKNOWN SOLDIER

He is known to the sun-white Majesties
Who stand at the gates of dawn.
He is known to the cloud-borne company
Whose souls but late have gone.
Like wind-flung stars through lattice bars
They throng to greet their own,
With voice of flame they sound his name
Who died to us unknown.

Robinson Opens

He was honored in this way last year when he preached the opening sermon for the conference at Pampa.

Last Sermon Sunday

Next Sunday morning will be the last time Dr. Robinson will fill his pulpit here during the current conference year. Members of his congregation hope that a large crowd will greet the minister on this occasion. Sunday evening, the choir will render a special musical program and the general public is invited to attend. Last Sunday night, the fourth quarterly conference was held at the church at the conclusion of the preaching services and wonderful reports were made of the year's work in all departments of the church. Church officials for this year were also elected at this time.

Voltage

A three-phase, 2,300 volt primary line will be built from the Estelina Sub-Station to Newlin, a distance of approximately four miles, where it will connect with the Newlin distribution system. Newlin is a town recently purchased by the West Texas Utilities Company and it is expected that service will be tied-in within the week.

Proposed 20 Mile Line

Mr. Cabanes announces further that an appropriation has been made to cover the cost of preparing a survey and plans for a proposed twenty mile 66 kv H-Frame line from Clarendon to a point two miles northwest of Jericho, Texas. This line will make possible a contemplated interconnection with the Southwestern Public Service Company of Amarillo, and will strengthen and improve service throughout the northern section of the company properties. The survey is being made now in order that there will be ample time to determine the best and most economical location for the proposed interconnecting transmission line.

The public demand for their attraction is so insistent, managers have purchased large blocks of their time to such an extent that they have no time for many months to come. Their program is patriotic, popular, character building, wholesome, jovial and sacred.

Heartfelt Gratitude

"It has received the blessings of some of its beneficiaries in heart-felt gratitude through tears of emotion, as one widow with an afflicted daughter said to us: 'God bless the Charities. Every one of those who are carrying it on will go to Heaven on a charity ticket.' For mere humanity's sake, it has been placed in a few positions where it has been forced to administer grudging aid to those who were undeserving and ingrate."

The president of the United Charities will call a meeting in the near future to elect a new president and a secretary and arrangements will no doubt be made to raise another budget during the month of February, 1931.

90 Head Stock Have Been Returned From New Mexico Grazing

Ninety head of stock were brought back from fall pasturing in New Mexico this week. The horses and mules were taken to grazing lands just across the line in New Mexico, near Farwell, Texas, in the latter part of the summer, due to the scarcity of feed in Hall County. The work stock are said to be in good condition. The other stock will be returned later.

Ed McQueen had charge of bringing the stock back to the county. The stock have had an abundance of grass and feed, which was contracted for by a committee of farmers and business men to aid the feed shortage.

Chronic Kickers

we are as good losers as we are winners.

A great deal of criticism seems to be going the rounds since the Memphis-Shamrock game. Every one connected in any way with football in Memphis seems to have come in for a portion of the blame. The truth of the matter is this: the Cyclone squad had a natural let-down following the superb account of themselves they gave in the game with Clarendon. It was to be expected. No amount of expert coaching or anything else would have bolstered up the team's spirits last Friday. They were not in a fighting humor or mood, and in justice to all concerned, it is very probable that the Cyclone underestimated the strength of the Irishmen.

The game last week is past history. We feel that by-gones should remain by-gones. There is always another day, and Memphis will certainly avail herself of the next opportunity. Let the howlers howl and the yelpers yelp and whiners whine and the kickers kick. They are not hurting the team. They are only displaying a poor sort of sportsmanship.

Selects Beautiful Girl

James Montgomery Flagg, popular illustrator, has been selected by the staff to name the most beautiful girl in the high school for the year book. The pictures of eight girls, three Seniors, three Juniors and two Sophomores, will be sent to Mr. Flagg, and from these he will make his selection. These pictures were made this week at Orr's Studio. The girl selected by Mr. Flagg will not be known until the annual is distributed to the pupils.

ed to the line rather than to the backfield. With the linemen letting opposing linemen through on almost every play, no backfield could have given a very good account of itself.

No Alibis Offered

It is not the intention of this writer to excuse the defeat the Cyclone suffered in this game. No alibis will be offered. The Irishmen outplayed the local squad in almost every part of the game. They had the aggressive spirit and power that is needed to win any contest, and the Cyclone had no spirit. They met defeat that was well deserved, and the Irishmen, undoubtedly the weaker team, also won a victory that was equally well deserved.

Memphis-Clarendon Tied

Contrary to reports, this game does not effect the conference standing of the Cyclone. Memphis and Clarendon are tied for first honors in this section of the district. Clarendon holds the lead in percentage because they have played all their conference games, and Memphis has not completed its conference schedule.
