Making Ration Books at Home

Uncle Sam's Ration Books No. 1 and 2 cover a good deal of our daily needs, but the Ration Books we make at home are just as important. Unlike Uncle Sam's ration books, the home-grown sort are unlimited. They are counterfeiting ration cards in Germany, but we are not talking about counterfeiters when we say "home made" ration books—they are a genuine as a dish of beans or a platter of steak for which we give up a handful of those precious "points" from Book No. 2.

From County Men in the Armed Forces

Below is a letter from Cpl. Joyce J. Houston, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Houston of Tupelo, Miss., former residents of Memphis. Cpl. Houston is somewhere in North Africa. He is the nephew of Mrs. W. L. Nabers.

Somewhere in North Africa
March 25, 1943
Dearest Mama and Papa:
Well, how's everything going back there? How are all of you, and everyone else around there? I am sitting here in this African sand writing this. I arrived here safe and sound so far. I feel fine physically. I trust that all of you feel better than I do.
So far I haven't been able to get any V-mail nor air mail stamps since I've been here, maybe I can get some and then my letters will get to you quicker. I wrote you all two letters while I was coming over on the ship, did you ever get them? I sure hope so. Hereafter when you write me I wish you would tell me which letters you get from me or at least when they were dated, so I can tell if you got them all.
I could just sit here for hours and hours and write and pour out my heart to you by telling you how I feel now away over here, and about feeling and experiences I have had since I left that school at Oxford, especially lately, but there's no use, for it would make you cry and feel sad, and I don't want you to feel like that for it doesn't do any good. I just wish I could tell all that has happened since I last saw you all and you had to leave me standing there alone at Oxford. With me, my pals 150 of us with our packs on our backs. If I didn't write you, I wouldn't ever get to see you; I didn't know so much could happen in such a short time of six months, since I have been in the army. I wish I could tell you about the trip over here on the ship, but I can't, anyway it was rather exciting. I am seeing a lot of odd and queer things, also interesting scenery over here. I am somewhere in North Africa and that's about all I can tell you at present, and at present I am not in action (combat) nor in an actual combat zone. Our time here is six hours ahead of your time, that is six hours ahead of CWT. The weather here is cold at night and hot in daytime. I went to church, or a church service last night and the night before, and no tongue can tell just how much I enjoyed them and I think I'll get to go every night this week and I'm thankful I can.

We had two church services on the ship as we came across and I sure enjoyed that a lot. Some of the songs we sang in those services were "Holy, Holy, Holy," "The Old Rugged Cross," "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Nearer My God to Thee," those songs seemed so very suitable for the occasion and they really made me happy. Mama, tell Papa I will remember when he used to sing that last song when I was just a small child, and on that trip over here I could feel my nearness to God and it seemed we were so near to God you see, we never knew one minute what would happen next and I thank God for His loving care and safe guidance over here.
I expect my letters to you and my friends to be few and far between. I received your V-mail letter just before I left the place where I was in N. J. when I called C. A. at Memphis, Tenn., and told him I was gone. I was so happy to get it. I'm looking forward to that glorious day when I can be with all you again, and I fully believe that we will be the happiest family in the world.
Love to all,
Cpl. Joyce J. Houston.

Below is a letter from S. Sgt. Merle F. Padgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Padgett, who is stationed in India.
India, March 29, 1943.

Dear Mom:
Received another letter from that old sweetheart of mine yesterday. I guess you know that I sure was plenty glad to hear that you are getting along fine. That is the thing that I want to hear all of the time and there is only one way that I can keep getting that kind of news, and that is for you to stay in that old rocking chair and take it easy. I guess that sounds kind of hard for you and I know it is because I have seen just what you will do no matter whether you are able to go about your work or not you will do it anyway. This is one time that I am going to try to keep you from doing just that. If you don't, I don't know what I am going to do. I'm too far away to do much right at present, but there will come a day when I will be back and then you will have to account for every minute of the day; I mean that you will have to tell me the truth and if you don't get the truth I will know it.
Look Mom, there is only one thing that I am working for and that is that I want you and dad to be rested up for one long trip just as soon as I get back and we can take that trip. I think that you two deserve more than that.

No Flowers This Year

The familiar Mother's Day flowers will never be missed today by the mother above or countless others like her. Mothers know their distant sons in the service still remember them, and proudly buy their own War Bond corsages to hasten the time when they can wear the flowers of peace again on Mother's Day.

U. S. Treasury Department

but that is the least I can do. After all you did everything that you could to show me all of the good times that you could while I was there. I think that it is my turn now and I am going to take advantage of it. So just get set for a long trip across any part of the western hemisphere that you like. I don't care if you want to go to the southern tip of South America, that is just where we will go. And even if you don't want to go then I think that I will have to fix things so that you will want to go, what do you think of that? I think that I have gotten my head pretty well set on that one thing and I think that if I know these Padgetts that when they get their minds set on something they usually do it.
Well, will close and wait for that letter will tell me just one thing and then I will quit worrying and really get down to something that will keep those little yellow * * * on the move.
So until then—Adios.
Always yours,
PAT.

Below is a letter from Leon Nixon to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nixon. Pfc. Nixon has been in the service about 18 months and is now stationed at New Caledonia in the cavalry.
April 11, 1943.

Dear Mother:
I'll drop you a few lines to let you know that I am OK. I hope these few lines find you well.
I want you to check up on my Texas Prudential Insurance policy and find out how much protection it gives, if any with me overseas. I have been overseas for about 8 1-2 months and in the service around 27 months. I have $10,000 insurance with the government. When you have $500 worth of bonds bought, start putting the money in the bank until you have around $500 in cash, then start buying bonds again.
Alvis Finny (Monk) is here on this island in the Army Air Corps. He came by to see me last week. He has been here about 4 months. I get to see Johnnie Rich almost every day. He said to tell you hello.
We have a movie about every other night. We have a radio to listen to and a band concert once a week.
It is almost time to eat supper so I'll close and get ready for chow.
With love,
MICK.

YANKEE DOODLE MACARONI

Yankee Doodle went to town Riding on a pony He stuck a feather in his hat And called it macaroni

It's crazy doesn't it, calling a feather macaroni? One needs to wait many centuries "macaroni" in England was a slang for something pretty nice. It began when the food was first brought to England. The people were delighted. Everyone was asking everyone else if they'd tasted the new delicacy. Those who had not were advised to do so at once. It became customary to say "It's macaroni" when one was something. Can't you just hear the teen age boys and girls shouting "macaroni" just the way our young people today shout "That's super" or "That's keen"? Thus Yankee Doodle was going to tell the world he thought his hat with a feather in it elegant.

A HELP IN PLANNING WAR-MEALS

American women are finding macaroni products more something pleasant to eat. These products are becoming a help in planning our war-time meals. In the world we would do without macaroni, spaghetti and fall back on? They're inexpensive, plentiful and unrationed, more, nearly everybody likes them. They can be cooked with in such a variety of delicious ways. Right now we're finding macaroni combinations especially helpful in making a variety of meat go all the way around. What's more, macaroni, especially combined with cheese, can take the place of meat.

CONSUMPTION OF MACARONI INCREASES

It's a wonder that within the past three years the consumption of macaroni products has increased percentage-wise more than any other food product? You'll be glad to have a new macaroni combination—one to make and a meat-stretcher in the bargain. It's the sort of good tasting meal-in-a-dish combination we Americans like to eat. What's more it offers the kind of hearty nourishing food that's strong and able to do our part toward winning that's why I feel it deserves to be called...

YANKEE DOODLE MACARONI

1/2 cup onion, chopped	3 tsp. drippings (bacon, pork or beef)
1/2 cup parsley, minced	1 lb. ground beef
1/2 cup garlic, minced (less, if desired)	3 1/2 cups cooked tomatoes (No. 2 1/2 can)
1/2 cup sliced fresh mushrooms	1 tsp. salt
1/2 cup canned mushrooms	1/4 tsp. pepper
1/2 lb. macaroni (2 cups uncooked)

COOK MACARONI UNTIL TENDER

Boil the macaroni until tender (about 15 minutes) in 3 quarts boiling water to which 1 tbs. salt has been added. Drain. Heap on a hot water. Pour the hot tomato mixture over the hot macaroni at once. You'll find it makes 6 generous servings. Serve with green salad and plenty of enriched bread with butter makes a meal with this dish.

THE RIGHT KIND OF MACARONI IS IMPORTANT

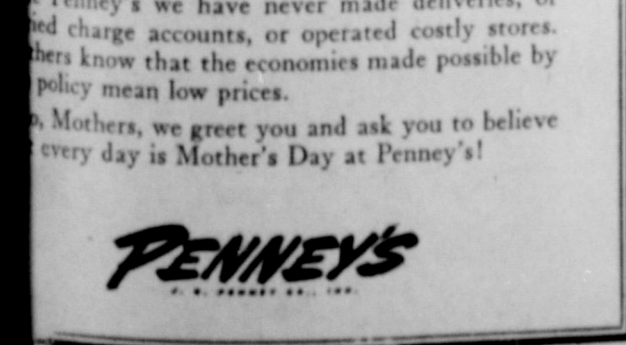

Give me your word of advice about the kind of macaroni you buy. Whether you buy in bulk or in package, it should be a clear amber in color. Because that's the kind that has the shape, stay firm and yet be tender and tasty. It's the best that makes this one-dish macaroni combination its very most.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood, if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a direct medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Inset on Doan's box at all drug stores.

Canning Given By Texas A & M

Only Two Methods, Pressure Cooker or Water Bath, Really Safe for Canning

Only two methods of home canning are recommended by the Extension Service, A. and M. College of Texas, as being safe, preventing spoilage, and retaining the maximum amount of food value, flavor, texture, and color. One method, says Winifred Jones, Extension specialist in food preservation is to process meats and vegetables, except tomatoes and ripe pimientos, in a pressure cooker. The other method is the water bath for fruits, tomatoes, and ripe pimientos.

She explains that the pressure cooker offers the safest known method of canning the non-acid vegetables and meats because it destroys bacteria in these foods, including the most dangerous—the bacillus botulinus. If these bacteria are not destroyed in the spore stage they may grow and later produce a toxin or poison in the food.

The worst part about this poison is that you usually cannot smell, taste or see it, yet one small bite could cause death or severe illness, she says. The bacillus botulinus is destroyed by maintaining pressure at 240 to 250 degrees Fahrenheit. In an oven or water bath the temperature of the food inside the jar never goes higher than 212 degrees, because the only way to get liquid higher than 212 degrees is to maintain pressure.

Open kettle canning is not recommended by the specialist because research has proved there is a greater percentage of spoilage and the food often becomes mushy in texture. It is best not to can fruit and tomatoes in a pressure cooker because they keep easily when processed at 212 degrees Fahrenheit in a water bath. Further directions on modern canning methods are available from county home demonstration agents.

A poor map may mean the difference between victory and defeat. So help your Boys towards victory with your purchase of War Bonds. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. Let's "Top that ten percent."

Good Health Vital In Raising Chicks

Raising what they have is the main problem confronting Texas producers of poultry. According to W. A. Boney, poultry veterinarian for the A. and M. College Extension Service, Texas poultry flocks are 17 percent larger than at the same time a year ago.

Doing the job efficiently means better brooding, ranging pullets on ground free from visible parasite eggs and placing them early in clean houses with deep litter, sufficient feed, water, space, light, nests, ventilation, grit and oyster shell.

A five per cent reduction in mortality of hens would mean an increase of 200,000,000 dozen eggs and 100,000,000 pounds of poultry meat, Dr. Boney says. Frequent culling and marketing of unprofitable birds is one means of increasing the supply of poultry meat.

Keeping young stock away from old stock, and daily cleaning and disinfecting of houses and utensils protect against outbreaks of disease. Phenothiazine in quantities of 1 1-2 ounces or three level tablespoonsful, in the mash 100 hens would consume in two days, is 100 per cent effective against the cecal worm whose eggs transmit blackhead to turkeys. It also is effective against the large round worm of poultry, Boney says.

The bluestone and vinegar treatment along with this is proving effective in controlling blackhead and other protozoan diseases. The mixture comprises two ounces of powdered or small crystals of bluestone dissolved in one pint of vinegar. It is administered by putting one tablespoonful in each gallon of drinking water in non-metal containers for two or three days, and never given more than five successive days at one time.

Farmers Purchasing Tires Since May 1, Have Rubber Tires

Farmers who have purchased tires since May 1, 1942, may now convert to steel wheels since the Texas USDA has announced.

Standards which the county war boards will use in certifying applications for tires are: (1) that it is necessary for the equipment to be moved from farm to farm for most efficient utilization, and (2) that the soil type or topography on which the tractor or implement is to be used is such that steel wheels are a hardship.

Many tractors purchased since May 1, 1942, now are being used to perform custom work and necessarily must be moved from farm to farm as quickly as possible to get the most out of the manpower and equipment involved.

Manufacture of new tires and tubes will not be required under the new program since sufficient supplies are in stock.

farmers for converting from steel to rubber, major attention will be given to the increase in food production which will result from the change. Since there is a shortage of rubber, the aim is to obtain the greatest possible farm output from the amount of rubber being made available for this program, the board said.

The objectives of the V-home campaign, Smith said, "is to impress upon the people in every home a sharp realization that cotton on the home front has a direct bearing upon the safety of husbands and brothers and sons on the battle fronts."

"Every home doing those things is entitled to display the red, white and blue V-home sticker," Regional Director Smith declared.

U. S. Army Signal Corps Now Open to Nine Texas Women

Nine West Texas Women May Enlist in Signal Corps; Pay While Being Trained

Nine young West Texas women will be offered the opportunity of a lifetime, through enlistment in the U. S. Army Signal Corps, it was announced today by Lieut. Col. Marvin B. Durrette, commander of the West Texas Recruiting and Induction Center. The nine women chosen for the work will be well paid during their instruction course.

To be qualified for the enlistment, women must be from 21 to 45 years of age, with no dependents, and must be high school graduates. Thoroughness test will be given a three months Signal Corps course as radio mechanics and operators, in regular Civil Service status, and while training will receive $85 a month. After completing the basic course, certain succeeding courses will be given the women, Col. Durrette said, and during this time, a salary of $120 a month will be paid, before being ordered to active duty with the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps.

Col. Durrette urged that all interested women contact their nearest Army recruiting station, as the training school will be opened within the next few days.

V-Home Stickers Given by OCD

Awards of special "Victory Community" banners to all communities in which 60 per cent of the homes have received V-Time stickers, will be presented by the U. S. Office of Civilian Defense as part of the renewed V-Home campaign being conducted during April, Regional OCD Director R. E. Smith announced today.

"The widespread public interest in the V-Home program indicates that most of the committees in Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico will be eligible for the Victory pennants," he said.

"In addition to this institutional investment, all of the associations," he said "are participating in the War Bond financing in one way or another. Their 23,513 members, busy with essential war production, are buying bonds individually as well as through the investment of their association's capital and surplus in bonds.

"The associations are sponsoring Victory Clubs to promote the sale of War Bonds. When a member purchases a bond through the associations or pledges to buy bonds with money received from sales of certain pledged products his name is placed on the association Honor Roll.

"Farmers and ranchers are ready to do their full part but their income is received at irregular intervals, which makes it difficult for them to participate in regular month-to-month buying," he said. "As they work out financing plans for the year, the associations are encouraging them to include regular bond purchases in their 1943 operating plan."

Victory Garden Poisons Safe if Used Properly

Protecting Victory gardens this year with poisonous insecticides is entirely practical if suitable precautions are observed, says Paul Gregg, assistant entomologist for A. & M. college.

Use of active poisons may become necessary where gardeners are unable to obtain enough of the so-called non-poisonous materials like rotenone and pyrethrum. Pests which attack practically all vegetable crops can be destroyed by toxic substances without undue danger to humans if properly applied and the vegetables and fruits are thoroughly washed and handled after harvest. These poisons include lead and calcium arsenates, cryolite, nicotine sulfate and specialty products, and the copper and sulphur fungicides.

On potatoes and other root crops where the tops are not used for food there usually is no danger. But where the tops are eaten they should be washed thoroughly and not be sprayed or dusted within 15 to 30 days before picking. This period depends upon the type of crop, the material used and the weather. Poisons remain on plants longer when it is dry.

Gregg says that peas, sweet corn and other crops protected by their own covering can be treated without special precaution if edible parts are well washed. String beans and similar vegetables should not be treated after pods begin to form. Cauliflower and broccoli should not be treated with poisons when heading or after edible parts begin to form, and Swiss chard and beet tops should not be treated during the 30 days before harvest.

The most important thing to remember, is to wash thoroughly after picking all vegetables which have received poison treatment.

Associations Buy Bonds in Drive

Taking their part in the $1 billion dollar war financing drive, the 36 Texas production credit associations are investing approximately $700,000 in War Bonds this month out of capital paid in by farmers and ranchers and earnings of the associations, according to President Virgil Lee of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston.

"The report further indicates that unless additional sources of feed are developed or unusually favorable yields of feed grains are realized during 1943, livestock numbers will have to be leveled off and products perhaps reduced, Vance declared.

"Together it is estimated that the number of grain consuming livestock for the calendar year 1943 will be 10 to 12 percent above the number for the calendar year of 1942," he said.

"Farmers and ranchers are ready to do their full part but their income is received at irregular intervals, which makes it difficult for them to participate in regular month-to-month buying," he said. "As they work out financing plans for the year, the associations are encouraging them to include regular bond purchases in their 1943 operating plan."

Increases Needed in Feed Grain Says B. F. Vance

Plant to the Limit of Critical War Crops and Feed Crops For Livestock this Year

Texas' 418,000 ranchmen and farmers have been sent an urgent plea to plant to the limit of critical warcrops and feed crops for livestock this year.

With spring planting well underway throughout the state, B. F. Vance, chairman, Texas USDA War Board, declared here this week that "this is the most important planting season in American history and the number of acres to be planted still can be increased."

Asking farmers "to take an extra degree of chance and plant in full the acreage that would be handled under the most favorable circumstances" he said the War Food Administration, Washington, already was working on plans to organize latent labor resources to harvest this year's crops, that plans for more harvesting machinery were being drafted and that continued price supports at fair levels to minimize risks in the market place were being planned.

He explained that the recent Food for Freedom sign-up campaign in which increases in oil crops were stressed in no way minimized the importance of other essential crops, such as feed grains and hay.

"Texas ranchmen and farmers are not being asked to change their plans this year at the expense of oil crops for which need is even greater than feed crops, but at the rate corn, wheat, oats and other feed grains are being consumed, we will need all the acreage to these crops that can be planted," he said.

He referred to a recent report from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics as basis for feed grain increases.

According to this report, producers who now are heavily stocked with cattle, sheep hogs, and chickens will use as much grain during the current feeding season as was produced by the record crop of last year. He added that hog weights now are running 10 percent above normal while egg production per hen is about 12 percent and milk production per cow about eight percent above the 1932-41 average.

"Altogether it is estimated that the number of grain consuming livestock for the calendar year 1943 will be 10 to 12 percent above the number for the calendar year of 1942," he said.

The report further indicates that unless additional sources of feed are developed or unusually favorable yields of feed grains are realized during 1943, livestock numbers will have to be leveled off and products perhaps reduced, Vance declared.

Vacuum Cleaners Must be Cared For

Housewives fortunate enough to have a pre-war vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper will want to know how to keep these appliances in good running order for the coming spring house cleaning which imposes extra heavy duty on these cleaning tools which must last for the duration.

Your vacuum cleaner will last longer and serve you better if you know the type of cleaner you have and how it cleans, says Mrs. Bernice Clayton, specialist in home improvement of the A. & M. college. It makes a difference whether your cleaner cleans by suction alone, or whether it has a sweeping and beating action, too. The main thing to watch in a straight suction element—and an important feature in any cleaner—is that the nozzle makes a good seal with the rug. For best results, clean rugs often, operate the cleaner slowly, keep the dirt container empty and the brushes free of hair and thread. Be sure that the brush tips extend beyond the nozzle. If the cleaner needs repairs, or a check-up, take it to a reliable serviceman.

When the cleaner is put away, the rubber belt that turns the rotation roll should be taken off the fan shaft if the manufacturer recommends it. Since pins, hairpins, or other stray bits of metal can cut the belt and nick or bend the fan, the housewife should not expect the cleaner to pick up these articles and since strong winds around the rotating roll it should not be taken up by the cleaner.

If the belt is very loose or worn, replace it—the old one can be turned in for salvage.

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT SOLDIER

She never wore a soldier's uniform in all her life. She couldn't shoot a machine gun for shucks, bless her heart. But she will be serving on one of the busy fronts in this war—the kitchen front—and she will help win!

Like so many other American mothers, she has learned that health depends on what we eat. For instance, in cooking vegetables on top of the stove, she knows that the best and most healthful way is with the minimum of water and a low or simmer flame.

Suppose she wants to have kidney beans for dinner—she cooks them over a low flame, slowly, until they are tender, in water in which they have been soaked (about 2½ hours). Below is one of her favorite recipes using dried beans—you'll want to try it, not only because it's nutritious, but also because it's patriotic.

Here's another thing she knows—that you can get your free copies of the Home Volunteer Booklets on nutrition, conservation, and meal-planning simply by calling at our office. They are free, and you will find them mighty helpful.

THE BEST WAY TO AIR A ROOM

IN the current wartime effort to conserve the supply of gas fuel to meet the tremendous demands of the defense industry, gas heat in the home is valuable and should not be wasted by the national habit of enjoying fresh air via a partially open window with full heat on. And yet, there is no need to live in a stuffy atmosphere. If your home uses gas for heating, it is possible to air a room without waste of fuel by observing a few common sense precautions.

When a window must be opened for purposes of airing a room, the door to that room should be closed, otherwise the cold air rushing in will chill the rest of the house. With warm air systems, the register should be closed to prevent the cold air from rushing through the register to the furnace and chilling the air circulation to the other rooms thus wasting fuel.

WHAT IS DEATH

What is death? A little broadening of a ripple Upon the eternal shore; A little loosening of the bands that cripple, And nothing more.

What is death? A parting of the clouds above Which hide the sun; A golden vision of the souls that love us And labor done.

What is death? The opening of a perfect flower No watcher sees; The silent spirit, who at twilight's hour The bondman frees.

What is death? God's mercy strange, uncomprehended; The undiscovered goal; The land of promise when the toil is ended, The day dawn of the soul.

—I. B. Howell. (In memory of Mrs. Fred Hemphill by the Newlin Mothers Club.)

WILL HITLER BE ELECTROCUTED? Advertisement for West Texas Utilities Company featuring an illustration of an electric chair.

ADOLF may not live long enough to pay for his mass murders by actually sitting in the "hot seat." But electricity is already hastening the day of his doom! Electricity drives delicate machines that turn out time fuses—and thundering presses that forge tank armor. Electricity is a basic part of every bayonet, bomber and battleship—of all America's roaring war production. Even when war began, America had more electric power than all the Axis countries combined. It's no military secret that today our power supply is far greater. And it's no secret, either, that the electric companies under experienced business management supply about seven-eighths of it! Free Americans set world production records primarily because they are free—because they have grown up under a business system that encourages initiative and invention—instead of forcing them to the ranks of Axis slaves. Free Americans are giving billions of dollars help put Hitler in the shade. But once he's there, a worth of electricity will show what BIG the penny-priced electricity do!
