NUMBER 30

HEPBURN, WHO DROVE BAKER LONG DISTANCE WINS FAMOUS CAR HERE

Made 25,000 Miles in Less Than 1000 Minutes Viewed by Local People

Memphis and Hall County citizens saw Ralph Hepburn, famous automobile racer, and his champion roadster, which was driven 25,000 consecutive minutes, in this city several hours at the Studebaker headquarters.

Hepburn and his car arrived at noon and paraded the streets followed by a number of the late model Studebakers. He was met at Childress and accompanied to Memphis by the dealer, Raymond Ballew, and was met a few miles south of town by a delegation of business men and automobile enthusiasts.

"The car has now been 34,853 miles," Hepburn said, "and is ready for another 25,000 mile trip and I believe could beat the record made at Atlantic City a few weeks ago."

The car is in splendid condition and does not show any effects of the terrific pace it set during the record-run of 25,000 miles. Hepburn was one of the drivers during the run, and also was in the great speedway race at Indianapolis. He is a modest and unassuming young fellow who does not boast about his performances as a racer, and is a very likable fellow.

A committee, representing various organizations of the town, after meeting him south of town and escorting him into the city, were guests of Raymond Ballew at Rube's Coffee Shop where a bountiful lunch with quail as the chief piece-de-resistance was served. Those present at the luncheon were Mr. Hepburn, F. N. Foxhall, R. S. Greene, D. L. C. Kinard, J. A. Brewer, Earl C. Johnson, J. C. Wells, and the host Raymond Ballew.

Hepburn is now has its second wholesale tire house, a branch of the Hicks Rubber Company, owned by W. C. Davis of Childress who operates the United Tire Company of that city.

The local firm will be known as the United Tire Co. and will be under the management of Hugh Crawford. Retail and wholesale sales will be handled at the firm's location on Fifth street in the post office block, where a small space adjoining Handy Andy has just been partitioned off in the Thompson building.

The United Tire Company will have as its wholesale territory all of Hall county and Mr. Crawford says he expects to do a good retail business over a wide territory as well. The parent organization, Hicks Rubber Company of Waco, has a number of houses throughout Texas and is one of the South's largest wholesale and retail tire chains.

NEW SALESMAN
BEGINS WORK AT EVERYBODY'S

The men's department of Everybody's store is now in charge of Lee Cason who has just been added to the sales force. Mr. Cason comes to Memphis from McLean where he was connected with C. M. Stone & Co. He has had considerable other dry goods store experience and formerly worked under J. R. Jones, manager of the C. G. Bower store at Wheeler. Mr. Cason is especially experienced in the men's clothing department but his knowledge of modern merchandising extends to all dry goods store departments.

"Having worked with Lee Cason before," Mgr. Jones stated, "I know he is a capable salesman, and I am sure our customers will find his pleasant and eager to serve."

Announces for State Senate

JUDGE CLINTON C. SMALL

Judge Clinton C. Small of Wellington Is Candidate for State Senator; Has Good Record as Judge of District

Judge Clinton C. Small of Wellington has announced his candidacy for the office of State Senator of this Senatorial District, subject to the Democratic Primary. This announcement came Sunday and meets the approval of the citizenship of this section and district.

Judge Small's friends tried to get him to run for this office four years ago, but he would not because of his friendship for Senator Reid of Canyon, who will not be a candidate to succeed himself.

Clinton Small is the son of Judge and Mrs. E. H. Small, born at Collinsville, Ala., May 22, 1888. The family moved to Collingsworth county in June, 1891, and have made their residence in that county and in Wheeler county since. At this time Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Small are making their home at Shamrock. C. C. Small was educated at Clarendon College, Trinity University, Waxahachie, and the University of Texas. At the latter institution he studied law and was admitted to the bar in June, 1911.

He was county attorney of Collingsworth county 1912 to 1914; city attorney of Wellington from 1914 to 1917; county judge of Collingsworth county from 1917 to 1923; mayor of the city of Wellington from 1925 to 1927. At the present time he is serving as judge of the 100th judicial district, having been appointed by Gov. Dan Moody. Judge Small was a presidential elector in 1916; member of the State Democratic executive committee from 1924 to 1926 and secretary of the County Judges Association of Texas in 1922.

- Judge Small's Platform
1. Recognition of the Panhandle commensurate with their resources, population and taxes paid.
 2. Adequate support of State Educational institutions. Particularly West Texas Teachers College.
 3. Reformation of laws relating to the State Highway Department.
 4. Judicial reform substantially as outlined by State Bar Association.
 5. Abolition of the office of county tax collector and placing those duties on the County Treasurer.
 6. Abolition of office of District Attorney in all districts where the counties have a population of 8,000 or over; putting the duties now discharged by the District Attorneys on County Attorneys; abolition of the fee system and for paying adequate salaries to County Attorneys.

As the campaign advances Judge C. C. Small states he will enlarge upon the six planks of the platform given out at this time. He is of the opinion that if the policy he advocates can be made into laws of Texas the voters will gain in money and have the criminal laws of the State better enforced. Judge Small is well qualified

WANT-AD GETS RESULTS FOR LAKEVIEW MAN

G. H. Brock of near Lakeview had a want-ad run in the Democrat last week which brought immediate and effective results, he told a Democrat reporter while in town Wednesday. "Before the paper had been out very long several called at my farm and I soon sold everything advertised in the want-ad," he said.

The ad told of some mules, horses and farm implements for sale. For the sum of sixty cents invested in the ad he made sales amounting to hundreds of dollars. Both he and the buyer benefited from the superior service of the Memphis Democrat.

Lakeview Man New Member of D & M Company

T. M. Potts, well-known Lakeview gin and business man, has purchased the interest of C. C. Meacham in the D. & M. Chevrolet Company, according to B. E. Davenport who stated the deal was completed Monday.

There will be no change in the firm name just now, Mr. Davenport said, and Mr. Potts will be active in the business as soon as the ginning season closes. He will make his home in Memphis.

Mr. Meacham told the Democrat he was still undecided as to future business connections.

"Some people have been accusing me of preparing to seek a county office," Mr. Meacham laughing remarked. "This is not true, but I do hope to make arrangements that will enable me to remain in Memphis."

"I am glad for the D & M that Mr. Potts has acquired my interest for he is a man capable of giving the people with whom I have been so pleasantly associated for the last two years the utmost in service. I leave the firm with considerable regret, but I feel sure Mr. Potts is an able successor."

Referring to the change, Mr. Davenport said: "The D & M Motor Company announces the retirement of Mr. Meacham who has been of invaluable service to the firm during our two-year partnership. Mr. T. M. Potts of Lakeview is succeeding him. This is my second business association with Mr. Potts and I can heartily recommend him to our clientele."

REV. MURRELL SPEAKS TO ROTARY

Rev. Wm. Murrell, Methodist presiding elder of the Clarendon district, and a member of the Clarendon Lions Club, represented his club Tuesday as speaker at the Memphis Rotary Club luncheon.

"Luncheon, or service clubs, are doing more to help their respective communities to find themselves and render better service to humanity and their communities than any other organizations," Rev. Murrell said, "because they are composed of men who realize there is something more in life than just looking after their own selves."

"Any man who joins any service club just because he thinks it will be worth something to him, without taking into consideration the help he might be to his fellow man, has no business belonging to such a club."

"When men get to the point where they want to see their competitors prosper because, if their competitors prosper, they will also prosper and combined they render a service that is worth while to the community."

Many other fine things were said by the speaker and everyone present enjoyed his common sense talk.

Next Tuesday noon will be Father and Daughter day, and each Rotarian will bring his daughter or the daughter of some one else. Only a few weeks ago the club observed Father and Son day, and the sons have had some fun at the expense of the daughters, but the tables will be turned Tuesday.

IN MEMORY OF ROBERT JONES

Robert Jones was born March 22, 1858, in Abbeville, South Carolina; married Miss Georgia Baker in 1878; came to Texas in 1880, locating in Texarkana, where he was engaged in the furniture business for two years, then moved to Hubbard, Hill county, where he was superintendent of the Hubbard schools; after several years at Hubbard, he was superintendent of the schools at Kopperl, Valley Mills, Clifton and Morgan; in 1896 he was elected district clerk of Bosque county, and served for eight years; in 1905 he moved to Hall county where he resided until March, 1927, moving to Fort Worth, where he spent his last days, and on January 6, the Master called and he was buried from the family home, (2220 Alston avenue) on the afternoon of January 7, 1928, in Greenwood cemetery at Fort Worth. Rev. Cluster Q. Smith had charge of the service.

His good wife, four daughters with their husbands and one grandson, were present at the funeral, also Mr. Stargel and Mr. Crowder, tenants on Mr. Jones' farm near Eli, and many friends of Fort Worth. Two sons and their families live in California and could not be present. He was ill only about two weeks, ate Christmas dinner with the Barker family and friends, and that night about 10 o'clock complained that he could not get his breath. The doctor was called who gave him a hypodermic to relieve the pain. He had lighter attacks afterwards but would get up and work about the house. On Wednesday night he listened to the Dodge Victory program, also Will Rogers, and made several comments on the cost of such a program. Thursday his son-in-law Mr. Barker and wife spent some time with him; he ate a small steak, the family read to him and he said he felt pretty good. Friday morning his wife gave him some fruit juice, and he said "he would take his breakfast, but did not want an egg." She was gone from the room from three to five minutes and when she returned he was breathing his last.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, several from friends at Memphis. Perhaps the most appreciated one was from the Mothers Club at Eli, where they had lived so long.

E. U. BULLARD MOVING TO SNYDER, TEXAS

E. U. Bullard and family left Tuesday for Snyder to make their home. These estimable people have been living in this county about 16 years, and may return some day, as they are not burning any bridges behind them. Mr. Bullard was secretary of the Hall County Poultry Association the past year, and was one of the prominent poultrymen of the county.

Frank White, claim adjuster of the Fort Worth & Denver City railroad, was here Monday in the interest of the road.

Ewell Grundy of Estelline was a business visitor in the city Monday.

Bill Rowell of Newlin was a business visitor here Monday.

Many letters and telegrams were received and fully appreciated. Mrs. Jones and Raymond, who is teaching, will continue on in the home. Near them are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barker, and Mr. and Mrs. Graham, the other daughter, Mrs. Alexander, lives in Wichita Falls.

What can we add more? Only those that knew him in his home could fully appreciate him. I was there often, and while he enjoyed company as much as any man, he did not visit very much. When he moved to Memphis, he had lost his eyesight, and could not get around much alone, and notwithstanding that he was always cheerful.

His family read books and papers to him and he was considered one of the best, if not the best, posted men in Hall county. He took a great interest in the school of his district, and was one of the first appointees, on the county board. His home was the old fashioned Southern home with just enough of the Western hospitality to make it pleasant for all who were entertained there. In his earlier life he joined the Methodist church, was a member of the I. O. O. F., K. of P. and W. O. W., but never attended very much in his later years.

While he will be absent from us in the body, we will still think of him and thank the Lord for his life and good influence while he was here among us.

A FRIEND.

BUSINESS GIRLS MEET AT HOME OF JOAN BRYAN

The Business Girls Club met in regular session Friday evening at the home of Joan Bryan, on South Seventh street, with Joan Bryan, Mildred Harrell, Ruth Lee, and Frankie Allison, as hostesses. After the business session the president turned the meeting over to the leader, Miss Bird Pressler. Each member named one of her favorite authors, giving what she considered, one of his best works. A lovely social hour followed. One of the club members, Madge Poole (nee Christian), having recently become a bride, was given a very pretty miscellaneous shower. The hostesses had very cleverly arranged the presentation of the gifts.

Advertisements, in the form of a pantomime, were carried out by different club members. Madge was called in, given an umbrella, rain coat and galoshes, and a box of salt to carry under one arm. She was told to advertise "Mortons salt." When she came out and proceeded to open her umbrella it literally "poured"—not salt, but gifts.

After looking at the many gifts the bride was asked to cut the cake, which was a three tier affair, with a dainty bride on top.

Much fun was had in cutting for the ring. Rose Cohen cut the wedding ring, while Susie Hortman cut the engagement ring.

The hostess then passed a lovely plate of sandwiches, potato flakes, pickles and hot chocolate. Guests for the evening were Miss Susie Hortman and Mrs. Hester Bounds.

MRS. McMURRY HOSTESS TO MISSIONARY SOCIETY

An attractive feature of the occasion was a duet rendered by Mesdames Pierce and Mallard with Mrs. Shelley at the piano.

Reports from the various committees were gratifying. All reports showing the committees are planning constructive work for the new year. The program committee has prepared a delightful program to be given the fifth Monday in this month at the First Baptist church at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

After song and prayer the meeting adjourned to meet with Mrs. G. D. Beard the third Monday in February at 12:30 o'clock.

Spain, having suffered more from forest destruction than any other country of Europe, has recently appropriated $19,300,000 for a reforestation program to be carried out before the end of 1936.

Feed silage as soon as it is taken from the silo, and do not feed it when frozen. Feed dairy cows after milking to prevent the milk from taking up the flavor and odor. A low feed truck that can be pushed in front of the mangers will help greatly in feeding silage.

If a cow leaves part of her hay or silage or does not clean it up greedily, it is a pretty good sign that she is getting a little too much. It is always good practice to give a cow just a little less feed than she cares to consume. A cow will eat from 7 to 20 pounds or more of hay daily, depending on her size and condition and on the kind and quality of the hay.

There is, perhaps, not yet a full realization by farm women that failure to play means that work becomes drudgery, and that failure to rest means that work becomes forced and of poor quality. No one needs a vacation away from home more than does a housekeeper.

S. T. Harrison left Sunday night to attend the Hardware Men's convention in Dallas this week.

Jan. 19 1928

MRS. WARNER ON NEW YEAR NEEDS

BY PHEBE K. WARNER

Here it is, 1928. Aren't you glad you're here and ready to start out on another New Year? How many of us really and truly appreciate the chance to live? How many of us half way appreciate the real worth of our health, our home, our family and a chance to try once more to do our best?

It seems to me this privilege, this opportunity to step across the Threshold of Time should be enough to make a decent man or woman of every one of us. And it would of most of us, if we were lying today on beds of pain and disease with every hope in this world blotted out, like some of our friends and neighbors are, and suddenly the light of a new year would dawn and restore us to perfect health and give us back a chance to live our natural lives another year.

Then why wait until we reach that hopeless state before we appreciate this New Year. Let's all wake up and take advantage of it now while we may. Next year may be too late. And the first thing for every one of us to do who is old enough to think for himself is to ask himself "What am I going to do with 1928?"

It would pay every high school boy and girl, every college student, every young man and woman in any kind of business, every father and mother, and every other man and woman old or young to sit down quietly and alone for at least fifteen minutes and make a list of the things you would like to accomplish this year.

Put them down on a piece of paper and hang that paper in your room or in the kitchen or in the office where you can see it every day. And it will do more to help you accomplish those things than to make a list of resolutions today and forget by tomorrow what they were. Have a goal for 1928. You may reach it. But you can't reach it if you don't know what it is.

Next, after fixing our individual goals, we should have group goals. Most of us belong to something beside just ourselves. A club, a church, an organization of some kind. This is one reason the world is moving so much faster and doing so much more than it used to do in one short year. We are learning to work together. There are so many groups doing things. What is your group going to do with 1928?

Oh, the things that ought to be done! And the things that will be done in 1928 if every organized group put over ONE good piece of work for the betterment of our country. And there is one woman and one group in the Panhandle that have their goals fixed for 1928. And that woman is Mrs. F. T. Collins of Amarillo, president of the Seventh District, Texas Federation of Woman's Clubs and that group is composed of the four thousand club women in the seventh district. And this is it. More TREES, more LIBRARIES for the fifty counties that comprise the seventh district.

Here is something for every last one of us to do. No matter whether we are a club woman or a man, we need more trees in this country. Every town needs more trees. Trees are about the only thing the Lord forgot when He made the Panhandle. And He did not forget them entirely for we have glorious trees in our canyons. But we all need more trees on top this country where we live and they will never be here until somebody plants them.

Trees! Just Trees! Let's make this TREE YEAR in the Panhandle and on the South Plains and in all West Texas and every where else where there ought to be trees. Why, over in East Texas as where our great Texas forest are, they are putting on a campaign for new orchards. It seems like the more trees you have the more you want. Let's help Mrs. Collins reach her goal by planting more trees because her goal is for our good. She has set her goal for us.

And LIBRARIES! Every county in the United States ought to have a library. Every home ought to have a library. But books cost. And not many of us have the means to build up a general library in our homes. Every child in this nation no matter where he lives or in what kind of a home he lives should have a chance to get acquainted with the fine people the only good folks, some folks ever have a chance to meet. And it does look like with all the grocery stores and dry goods stores there are in every county there ought to be at least one place where a fellow might get something with which to feed and clothe his mind. But libraries are like trees, you have to start them and let them grow. So don't get discouraged and do nothing because you can't have a big library to begin with. But plant some good books some where in the county, take good care of them, scatter their influence around in the different communities and

ORDERS MILLION DOLLARS OF AUTOS

South Bend, Indiana, Jan. 17.—A million dollars worth of automobiles in one order and paid for by one check.

That was the sale recently made by the Studebaker Corporation of America to Henry R. Levy, president of the Studebaker Sales Company of Chicago. The order—the check for which is the largest ever received by Studebaker—is for 1,013 Studebaker and Erskine cars. The exact amount of Mr. Levy's check was $1,014,650.05.

Some idea of the size of this order may be gained by the fact that 1,013 automobiles, packed three in a car, would require 338 freight cars. And 338 freight cars are equal to five freight trains.

These 1,013 Studebakers and Erskines would form an unbroken line from the new Stevens Hotel on Michigan Avenue in downtown Chicago well out into Lincoln Park on Chicago's North Side.

MRS. J. L. SMITH

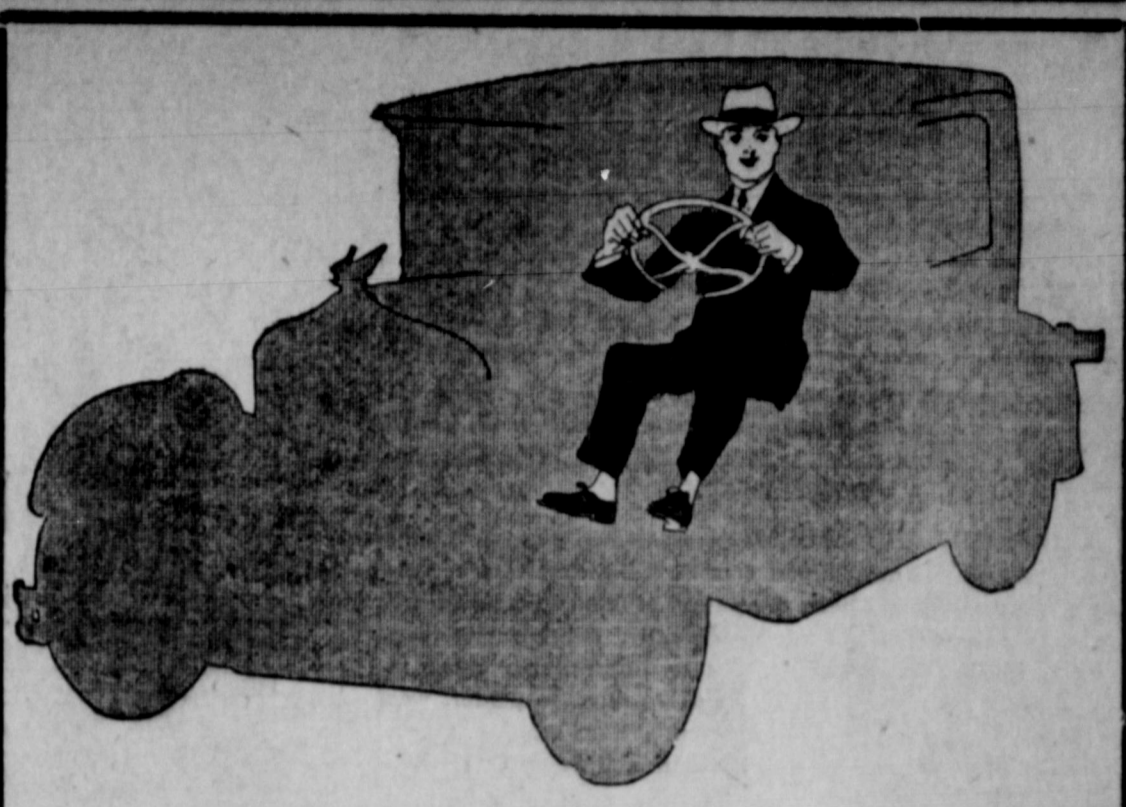

Mrs. J. L. Smith, age 46, died at her home in Estelline Sunday night after several weeks illness. The funeral of Mrs. Smith was held at the First Christian church in Estelline Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Evangelist S. E. Templeton of the Seventh and Brice streets Church of Christ of Memphis conducting the services. Burial in the Estelline cemetery. She leaves a husband and three children.

INFANT DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bain of the Harrell Chapel community had the misfortune of losing their infant baby Tuesday morning.

watch them grow into a county library.

And the COUNTY FEDERATION is the spirit that must be generated before these other things will ever come to pass. City clubs alone will never build up the county. That has been demonstrated. If the county is ever built up it must build up itself. One reason our cities have outgrown our counties and caused urban life to be so much more attractive than rural life is because the city is thoroughly organized while the county is still trudging along each family trying to live its own life alone. The greatest need of rural life today is organization. Organize the whole county and learn to work together for the welfare of every body in the county the same as those in the city and the country and the city will grow together. The women of every county in Texas and America ought to be organized and working together to restore rural life to the high position it held at the birth of our nation. As club women of the Seventh District, T. F. W. C., let's every one work this year to make our president's dreams for 1928 come true.

HALL CO. BANKS SHOW BIG INCREASE

The seven banks in Hall county had on deposit on December 31 a total of $3,031,517.54, representing a gain over the October call of more than one million dollars, and is quite a substantial gain over deposits the same time last year.

The deposits in the three banks of Memphis, December 31, were as follows:

First National bank, $914,246.14; Citizens State bank, $709,036.75; Hall County National bank, $477,500.00. The Esteline State bank showed deposits of $477,865.45; First National bank, Lakeview, $107,813.37; Farmers State bank, Newlin, $150,755.74. The First National bank of Memphis showed the heaviest gain of the seven banks, its deposits almost being doubled since the call on October 10. It had on deposit at that time $486,998.11, and on December 31, $914,246.11.

F. M. GWINN IN RACE FOR COMMISSIONER PCT. 2

F. M. Gwinn of the Brice community authorizes the Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct 2, subject to the Democratic primary.

Mr. Gwinn has lived in Hall county for twelve years. This is his first time to ask for an office, has had 25 years experience in road work and dirt moving, and promises if elected to personally give his attention to the road work of his precinct, and will put the road money in each neighborhood where it belongs as nearly as possible. He says "If I am elected I will fulfill my promises to precinct two as near as I possibly can."

J. R. (BOB) CANNON FOR COMMISSIONER PCT. 2

The Democrat is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. R. (Bob) Cannon of Lakeview for the office of County Commissioner for Precinct No. 3, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. Cannon needs no introduction to the people of his precinct, for he has lived in that community for the past eighteen years, and has shown he is qualified to look after the business affairs of the county by the way he has successfully carried on his own business affairs. He says, if elected, he will do everything possible to attend to the duties of the office of county commissioner in a business way, and will strive at all times to so conduct such affairs that the county will not suffer, but will be kept on a business basis. Give his candidacy your earnest consideration.

R. H. (BOB) PUGH FOR COUNTY TAX ASSESSOR

The Democrat is authorized to announce the candidacy of R. H. (Bob) Pugh for the office of Tax Assessor of Hall county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

Mr. Pugh is well known in Hall county, having been a resident of the county for a number of years. He is probably best known as having conducted "Bob's Place" in the edge of Memphis for several years. He has never asked for any office, but feels confident that he can attend to the duties of Tax Assessor in a creditable and businesslike manner. He is asking for the support and influence of the voters in the campaign, promising, if elected, to look after the duties of the office in a capable and straightforward way.

T. N. BAKER ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER PCT. 2

T. N. Baker, of the Deeplake community, authorizes the Democrat to announce his candidacy for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, subject to the Democratic primary.

Mr. Baker served as commissioner for six years, from 1908 to 1914, and made a good record during his tenure of office. He has lived in the county since 1900 and is thoroughly familiar with the (Joe) Barnett of Lakeview for County Commissioner Precinct No. 2, subject to the Democratic primary.

Mr. Barnett has lived in that community for 22 years, and is therefore well known to the voters of precinct two, and knows the needs of that section of Hall county. He is a capable man who, if elected, will look after the affairs of the office in a businesslike and practical way. Consider his claims before casting your vote in the coming election.

E. C. (JOE) BARNETT FOR COMMISSIONER PRECINCT 2

The Democrat is authorized to announce the candidacy of E. C.

COWBOY BAND IN MEMPHIS FEB. 2

The famous Cowboy Band of Simmons University will play a concert in Memphis the evening of February 2, if plans under way now are completed.

The band has a very enviable record for efficiency. In the last four years it has travelled in fifteen states of the union and a total of around forty thousand miles.

The cowhands are the official band of the United Confederate Veterans for life, and have won national recognition with the veterans in Atlanta, Ga., and Tampa, Florida. The Cowboys were also the official inauguration band of Governor Moody.

The unique uniform of the bandmen, Western Spirit, is to be matched only by the musical ability of the organization. Classical numbers not attempted by the ordinary college band are executed smoothly and with ease by the Cowboys.

The band this year has a better program than ever before. The concert of classical and popular numbers, new and old, insures that there will not be a dull moment.

Contracts of the Cowboy Band now include an appearance in Amarillo at the Texas Cattleman's Convention and a trip, to Little Rock to the National Reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of America.

Donald Squibb of Garland visited in the home of Dr. Pat Wiggins Sunday.

QUITAQUE POULTRY SHOW FEBRUARY 3-4

L. E. Graham is president of the show, W. M. Draper vice, G. H. Russell secretary and A. A. Hatchell superintendent. A good show is expected, and Quitaque is making every effort possible to make it worth while to the poultry breeders and dairymen of that section.

On Wednesday night of February 29, the Chicago Civic Opera company will open the season in the Memorial auditorium at Wichita Falls, with the opera "Aida" on Thursday night, March 1, "Resurrection" will be presented.

The company will only appear in two Texas cities; Wichita Falls in North Texas and San Antonio in South Texas. Wichita Falls invites the people of this section of Texas to participate in this great opportunity to see and hear, that, for which they usually have to travel so much farther and pay so much more.

Rosa Raisa, in the stellar role of "Aida" is worth going many miles to see and hear. Her voice is peculiarly fitted for the song "Ritorna Vincitor." This aria has served to wreck soprano voices incapable of handling it. "O Patria Mio," sung in the Nile scene, is wonderful in sustained loveliness and the scenic background is beyond comparison.

Others in the cast include Cyrene Van Gordon, Chase Baromeo, Virgilio Lazzari, Lodovico Oliviero, Elinor Mario. The conductor is Giorgio Polacco.

In the opera "Resurrection," we have Mary Garden—our own Mary. Her personality is the most vivid of any grand opera star. In the role of Katiusha, the Russian peasant girl, Miss Garden runs the whole scale of human emotion. The last act is colossal. In this act alone, Miss Garden rises to sublime heights in acting and her voice is at its best.

Others on the cast include Rene Maisson, Lorna Doone Jackson, Cesare Formichi, Maria Claessens, Anna Hamlin, Desire Defrere, Lodovico Oliviero, Alice d'Hermanoy, Jose Mojica, Antonio Nicholich and others. The company travels in two special trains and eighteen baggage cars carry the equipment, comprising scenery, properties, wardrobe and personal trunks.

DISABILITY EVIDENCE STILL CONSIDERED

Washington, Jan. 6.—There appears to still be an impression that since June 7, 1927, the Veterans' Bureau can no longer consider evidence to prove service connection of disability not officially noted during service or within one year from date of separation from service.

In order that any confusion resulting from the interpretation of Section 206, which governs the time limit for filing evidence after June 7, 1927, may be corrected, the Bureau has issued Circular 259-C naming the three types of cases on which the Bureau may consider evidence after the above-mentioned date. They are:

"Where such evidence shows the death to have occurred or the disability to have developed to the extent of 10 per cent or more during active service or within one year subsequent to the date of separation therefrom."

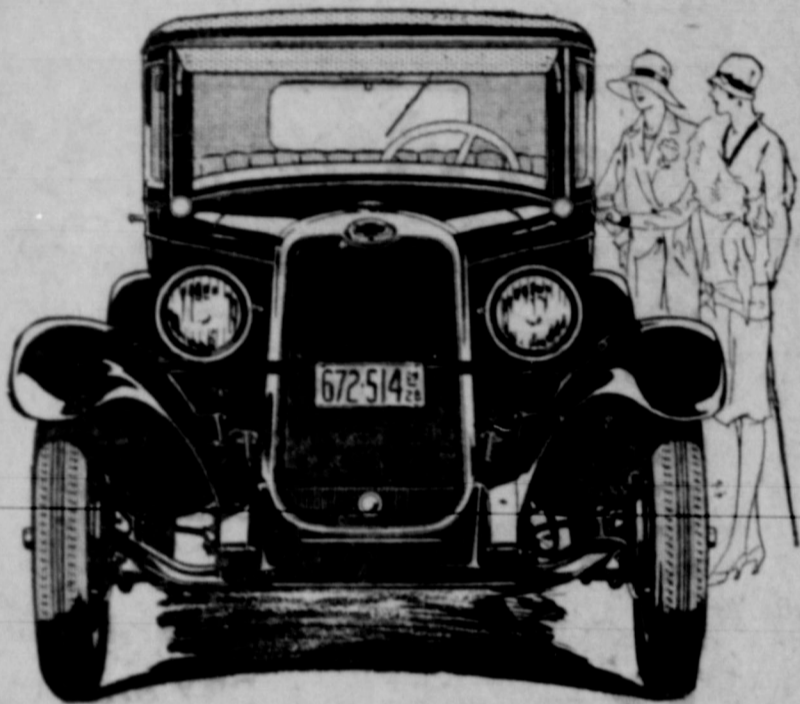

"Where the disability is one of the mental or tubercular or other diseases provided for in Section 206 as coming under the presumption of service origin."

And "where there is an official record of the disease or injury during the service at the time of separation from the service." —D. A. V. Paper.

SAYS DONLEY COUNTY NEXT BEST DEVELOPED

Donley county is, next to Childress, the best developed county in this part of the Panhandle in the line of farm diversification and the promotion of the dairy industry, according to H. D. Cuykendall, field representative of the oil mill and Gate City Creamery. Mr. Cuykendall has been working out of Clarendon for the past week and visiting the rural schools of Donley county in the section where cotton was grown during the past year. He made only three stops in the non-cotton area, those being at a home demonstration club meeting in the Martin community, the Martin school and one other nearby school. Dairying has reached its highest development around Lelia Lake and Hedley. In one school Mr. Cuykendall found two families represented that were engaged in operating farm dairies, in both cases the cream being sold in Clarendon. That was at Hudgins school.

At Windy Valley school, there were more than a dozen families represented that were selling cream, either to the Gate City Cream Station in Lelia Lake, the stations in Hedley or those in Clarendon. From all indications the farmers of the section around Lelia Lake and Hedley will make their entire living expenses the next year off their dairy herds and have their cotton crop next fall for a net profit crop. They will not have to borrow money to make this crop on and will not have to pay this money back next fall. Many of the farmers had been feeding cottonseed but were interested in the proposition of the Memphis Cotton Oil Mill for trading feed for seed. The mill at Memphis is thus destined to bring in farmers from a large area around Memphis and these farmers will probably spend money with Memphis merchants. In this wise is the Memphis Cotton oil mill drawing business to this city. The proposition offered by the oil mill is to pay the farmer a bonus of $3 for the seed when brought in on the exchange plan. Then, when the farmer gets ready to haul out his meal and hulls he gets a $4 discount off the regular price of meal and a $2 discount on hulls. The farmer can let the mill store the feed and take it out like he wants it, thereby relieving the farmer of the necessity of storage room.

The A. & M. College of Texas has learned that 100 pounds of cottonseed meal is as good a feed as 205 pounds of cottonseed. Then, since the farmer can trade his 205 pounds of cottonseed for nearly 200 pounds of meal, the farmer loses almost 100 per cent by feeding cottonseed and doubles his feed value by feeding meal and hulls. Many farmers are now calling at the Memphis Cotton Oil Mill each day and bringing in their seed to exchange for meal and hulls. The splendid proposition offered by the mill for exchange is bringing these farmers to Memphis and will bring scores of others here within the next few weeks. These men come here and trade with Memphis merchants, showing that the mill is proving an asset to our city in another respect.

Although the death rate from this disease has been more than cut in half during the past twenty years, the number of deaths among young women has been increasing at an alarming rate since the war, while among men in the same age group the rise although noticeable, has been considerably less. Recent English statistics have called attention to a similar condition in that country, so it is not peculiar to America alone. Figures of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company also show that adolescent girls constitute the only group in their statistics in which the tuberculosis death rate has not declined.

Nurse Advises WEAK, RUN-DOWN WOMEN To Take Cardui

"I have known of Cardui for nearly twenty-five years," says Mrs. Selma Meissner, 1072 Harrison Ave., Beaumont, Texas. "During that time, I have taken it several times and have frequently recommended it to others, for it is a splendid medicine and I am glad to give people the benefit of my experience. I have been a nurse for several years and have often come in contact with patients who were run-down and weak. Often I have told sufferers of Cardui, and the way I, myself, had been helped after taking it, and advised them to give it a trial. I first took Cardui because I was awfully run-down. I had no appetite, and was weak and listless. It was hard to keep going under such conditions, and I looked for something which would help me. I had read of Cardui and decided to try it. After taking it, I improved so much that I have taken it since whenever I needed a tonic." Sold by all druggists. 63-132

"JAZZ OR FLAPPER AGE" IS THE DANGER AGE

The "jazz or flapper age" is the danger age according to information recently given out by the National Tuberculosis Association, which points out that one of the most puzzling phenomena of today, to those who are active in the study and promotion of public health, is the increase of tuberculosis among young women between the ages of fifteen and twenty-four.

Although the death rate from this disease has been more than cut in half during the past twenty years, the number of deaths among young women has been increasing at an alarming rate since the war, while among men in the same age group the rise although noticeable, has been considerably less. Recent English statistics have called attention to a similar condition in that country, so it is not peculiar to America alone. Baked Sausage With Cheese On Toast

(Serves 6—Cost .4908)

Prick the sausages with a fork and place them in a spider, set in a moderate oven. When browned on one side turn the sausages and brown on the other side. While the sausages are baking, toast a slice of bread for each service, place a very thin slice of Young America or Yankee cheese on each slice of toast. When the sausages are almost cooked place the toast in the oven to melt the cheese. Remove the toast and sausages from the oven and serve about 3 sausages on the cheese-toast.

Spinach With Sardines and Eggs

(Serves 6—Cost 58c)

Wash 2 pounds of spinach, changing the water at least four times; add no water other than that which clings to the leaves, put in two teaspoonfuls of salt, boil one hour. Slowly chop fine and press into a deep mold or a square glass bread pan, chill thoroughly and unmold. Serve surrounded with sardines, slices of 2 hard cooked eggs, and garnish with radishes and lemons.

Orange Rolls

(Cost .0428)

Sift together two cups of flour, four teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-half a teaspoon of salt. With the finger tips work in two tablespoonfuls of Mrs. Tucker's shortening; add enough milk to make a soft dough that can be easily handled (one-half to two-thirds of a cup). Turn on to a floured board, knead lightly into a smooth mass, then roll into a thin rectangular sheet. Spread with orange filling and roll over and over, to form a roll about two inches and a half or three inches in diameter. Cut into thin slices with a sharp knife and place on a well-buttered baking sheet. Bake at 450 degrees Fah. for twelve to fifteen minutes.

Princess Pats

(Cost .673)

Two eggs beaten until light, 1 cup sifted brown sugar, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1-3 cup flour with 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon baking powder, 1 cup nut meats broken.

Bake 425 degrees F. for 5 minutes. Mix all together at one time.

NATIONAL THRIFT WEEK

Benjamin Franklin 1706-1790

Two hundred and twenty-two years ago . . . on January 17, 1706, to be exact . . . there was born in Boston he who was destined to become one of the Nation's greatest men . . . Benjamin Franklin. Time proved him a singular genius . . . successful author, scientist, inventor, business man and statesman. Of these, however, his work as an author . . . his writings on Thrift in particular . . . served most to perpetuate his name.

In again honoring his birthday, let us recall those terse epigrams of his own on the value of Thrift. Perhaps, the best known is his shortest:

"Save and Have"

No question as to the point implied. Success and Happi- ness are almost wholly the result of Thrift . . . Saving for future Opportunity . . . Saving for a Home . . . Saving for the nobler things which give us so much Happiness in Life. Then too, as Franklin wrote, "beware of little expenses . . . a small leak can sink a Great Ship."

The moral:

Spend Wisely and Save!

Begin Right This Year—Start Saving Now!

LET'S CHAT AWHILE

By Dorothy B. Robbins

During the holidays we had the usual number of accidents. I have no statistics to show that they were greater than the year preceding, but warnings and newspaper cautions, if read, might have carried weight.

All the accidents, however, cannot be laid to the motorist and, by-the-way, did you know that distinction is being clearly drawn? Real accidents are from the elements—by lightning, cloudburst, etc., and something preventable is not considered accidental. The accident I have in mind might not be a real one when such a version is considered.

A celluloid doll clasped in the arms of a little two-year-old burst into flames when the child crept too near the stove. Before the burning toy could be tossed away the baby was seriously injured about its head and hands.

I have thought so often of this child. It happened during the cold weather—getting real close to the stove to warm the beloved Christmas doll. An old-fashioned open faced stove, I imagine, because gas would have given out such uniform heat that the baby would not have felt the cold so much and would not have thought the doll needed warming.

Can't you imagine how, at the last minute, the busy mother had said, speaking to her husband:

"Jim, we forgot to get a doll for the baby," and he had answered: "I'll run down to the corner grocery and get a celluloid one, they look so much like a real baby."

Just what we would have done under similar conditions, never giving thought to the fact that celluloid is quickly inflammable when brought too close to flames.

I remember my first experience with celluloid and fire. I had one of those picture frames that were all the rage in—well several years ago—and it came all to pieces so I took it with an apron full of odds and ends to the big open stove, expecting to dump it all in at once. The flames leaped to the celluloid. Fortunately the stove board was of galvanized iron and the flat side of a shovel beat out the fire.

My introduction to this highly combustible element taught me a lesson, but I am afraid I wasn't sufficiently educated to refuse to buy a celluloid doll. I am like the father buying the doll for his baby. I have often wished when I have been in a five and ten cent store that I had one of those largest size ones—wished, but never bought for any member of my family because of the disappointment they bring. Their faces or heads become crushed, or even their arms and legs. Aunt Callie with her two hundred pounds could easily demolish little Maurine's twin celluloids if they happened to be taking a Christmas Day nap in the old Morris chair. Or Grandpa with his poor eyesight could flatten celluloid features until a small child-mother would weep her eyes out.

Aside from not being practical because so easily destroyed, they have now been shown to be positively dangerous, especially in the arms of a very small child or even in the hands of a thoughtless older person.

I vote for the indestructible doll at Christmas, there are the inexpensive all-bisque or part-bisque that draw the youngsters' hearts. Such an array of dolls at Christmas! Such an assortment! What wonder that playing dolls in many places has lost some of its old-time charm. When the best doll was of wax, very susceptible to cold or heat, then much care must be taken. A second best doll of china or rags was very necessary.

Spend a little more, parents, and buy dolls that your children can hug before the fire.

WHAT PRICE EDUCATION?

By S. S. Miles
Football looms large in the interest of the nation. It is associated almost wholly with our institutions of learning and is conceded the leader in sports, both in college and in high school.
This leads to a speculation as to the relative position of the country's sports and its education. Education is the very life of the nation—sports its pastime. The former, like our water and air, is taken for granted and almost considered routine; the latter is dramatic, impulsive and full of motion.
We are not belittling the value of sports in the life of people. We recognize their unifying influence in our institutions. It is a healthful sign when our citizens grow in their love for outdoor play.
It is a fact that the nation's expenditure for spectacular sports makes the outlay for education look insignificant. The last World Baseball Series approached a million and a quarter gate receipts; our last big prize fight, two million dollars. This latter figure is but a fraction of the cost of the fight when the other expenses of the fans are estimated. The American public paid this price for a two-man combat that lasted a total of thirty-nine minutes, and yet in this country we spend but a million and a half dollars yearly to train twenty-three million boys and girls for a fight that lasts an average approximating thirty-nine years.
There is another angle to this viewpoint of relative values. A middle western metropolitan newspaper sold 50,000 more copies the morning after the Dempsey-Tunney fight than it did the morning after the election November 2. Sport news is, therefore, looked upon as a matter of great importance by the newspapers, and, based upon public demand, naturally so. As specialized subject it increasingly outranks the space of any other department in the day's news. When the Corbett-Sullivan fight took place in 1892 a newspaper not overly devoted to sports printed more than seven columns about it during the two weeks immediately preceding the contest. In 1923, for a like period previous to the Dempsey-Firpo battle, the same paper used thirty-eight columns. In the Dempsey-Tunney fight last year, the same paper used ninety columns.
No process of thinking can lead us to conclude that education has gained a corresponding emphasis. Nor will it, until we have a shifting of demand on the part of the public.
We believe in the manly art of self-defense. Our conception of the greatest self-defense, either for the individual or the nation, is education. It costs less and gives more.
