

Farmers Getting Equipment In Order For War Production

Egg Purchase At High Mark In January

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 18—Texas hens are doing their part in the all-out war effort, judging from the announcement of the state USDA war board today that over 1,900,000 pounds of dried eggs at prices between $1.08 and $1.10 per pound, were purchased from egg drying plants in the state during January by the Surplus Marketing Administration, USDA, for lend-lease shipment and other purposes.

Since about three dozen medium sized eggs are required to make one pound of dried eggs, purchases last month represent around 5,970,000 dozen shell eggs, it was pointed out.

"Dried eggs are especially important these days because they take up only a small part of the shipping and storage space fresh eggs would require and they do not need refrigeration," Emmett A. McBryde, Austin, USDA, assistant district supervisor and member of the Texas USDA war board, said.

Purchases of dried eggs and other farm commodities for lend-lease shipment, community school lunch programs, meeting Red Cross orders, and similar purposes, are being made by the Surplus Marketing Administration as a part of the U. S. department of agriculture's broad plan to help assure farmers a fair return on their full production, it was explained.

"At the same time, these and similar programs, are helping to build and maintain the fighting strength of soldiers, workers and the people—both at home and abroad—in the struggle against aggression," McBryde said.

Midway Islands were claimed in the name of the United States in 1899.

Repair Parts Orders Are Greater

The farmers of Texas, in general, are getting their equipment in order for the production job ahead, but in most areas of the state farmers still need to order more repair parts.

This was indicated by a survey just completed by the Texas USDA War Board in which county boards were asked to determine the status of the farm machinery repair program throughout the state.

The survey indicates that farmers and dealers already have ordered a great many more parts than by the same date last year, E. F. Vance, state board chairman, declared. County board estimates of the percentage increase in number of parts ordered ran as high as 200 per cent, although most counties reported increases ranging from 25 per cent to 75 per cent.

At the same time, the reports indicated that in only a few counties have farmers ordered all the repair parts needed. About half the state's counties reported difficulty in obtaining parts, while only thirty counties reported delays in the repair program because of a shortage of machines, welders, or blacksmiths.

"We must have all farm equipment in shape in ample time to avoid serious breakdowns at critical moments," Vance pointed out. "Production is what counts and any slowdown of production by breakdowns which could have been avoided is inexcusable. The thing to do is to order repair parts now so as to be ready for any emergency."

Friday, Feb. 20, is the deadline for filing of entries with show officials here.

Your Farm Can Help

A farm "ground crew" waves a comradely salute to America's air forces while loading a truck with the kind of food that will help "keep 'em flying." The picture is from a popular U. S. Department of Agriculture poster entitled "Your Farm Can Help." And it's true that every farm in the United States can make a valuable contribution to the national victory program by producing more milk, eggs, pork, and vegetables, says the Department. A record production of these foods is needed to feed soldiers and sailors, keep families properly nourished at home, and give strength to Allies overseas.

Food Co-Op Heads To Meet Saturday

Stockholders in the Howard County Food cooperative have been called by their directors for a meeting at 3 p. m. Saturday in the district courtroom.

The co-op members will decide the future course of their organization: whether remaining stock will be sold and a freezer-locker plant will be built, or if the project will be abandoned and the cooperative liquidated.

Organization of the cooperative was perfected about a year ago, and stock sold rapidly for a period. Then rural people became so engrossed in their production of a record crop that the freezer-locker project was forgotten.

Aliens Must Report For Identification

All natives, citizens, denizens or subjects of any foreign nation of government with which war has been declared, who are 14 years of age and older, and who have not fully acquired United States citizenship, should apply immediately at the postoffice for a certificate of identification. This must be done not later than Monday. Identification cards must contain the alien's photograph and thereafter be carried by the person to whom issued. Those who do not comply with these requirements are subject to severe punishments. The certificate will serve different purposes than the alien registration receipt card, heretofore issued, and it is not to be confused with it. The alien receipt card should be taken with the registrant to the postoffice in order to avoid delays, but if the alien registrant has not this previously issued card, he should go to the postoffice anyway. The back of the alien registration card shows much of the information the registrant must have in order to be furnished an alien certificate of identification.

Rodeo Champs To Be On Hand For Ft. Worth Show

FORT WORTH, Feb. 19.—All the 1941 champions will be back in Fort Worth March 15-23 to compete in the rodeo at the Southwestern Exposition and Fair Stock show, Verne Elliott, rodeo manager, said today. But it may be the last rodeo, for the duration of the war for Homer Pettigrew of Grady, N. M., the world's champion cowboy for 1941. Pettigrew, 35, will take his physical examination for army service within 30 days and expects to be called for duty soon after the Fort Worth show. Other contestants are expected to be in the armed forces before long. Pettigrew, least superstitious of all cowboys, won his title by scoring the most points in 25 rodeos. Last year he made rodeos in all the 48 states except Maine, where, it seems, they don't have rodeos. Champions of the Fort Worth show in 1941 were: Paul Carney, Chandler, Arizona, bareback bronc riding; Buck Goodspeed, Wetumka, Okla., calf roping; Euel Mulkey, Salmon, Idaho, saddle bronc riding; Dave Campbell Las Vegas, Nev., steer wrestling and George Mills Montross, Colo., brahma bull riding. RECORD HOG PRICES—SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 19 (AP)—Hog prices on the San Antonio livestock market, continuing a steady upward trend broke several weeks ago, yesterday broke a 25-year record in rising to $12.75, highest price paid locally since shortly after World War No. 1.
