REVIVAL AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

Meeting Opens With Flattering Prospects for a Great Meeting.

The revival meeting which began at the Methodist church last Sunday opened with every prospect for a great meeting. The services are being conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. W. Dodson, and large crowds are attending each meeting and a deep interest is being manifested. The song service is under the leadership of Rev. Ervin of Dallas, who has the choir under control and those missing the song service are missing a part of the meeting. The afternoon services begin at 7 o'clock and the night services at 7:30. Don't fail to come to these meetings and help each service. Everybody in-

"A Birthday Gift"

A large coconut cake appeared as a great bowl of frost in the shape of painted strawberry was given to Emma Harlan for her birthday by her mother, Miss Beulah Capp. The cake was indeed a beautiful specimen in culinary art.

A FRIEND

J. Goffinet closed a deal last week in which he became owner of a half section of the Bar land on the south side of the river. This is one of the best land deals pulled off in this section in some time. He will use this land for grazing purposes for his cattle. His son, J. will move his family down to the ranch in some time this week and take charge of the ranch.

A train load of soldiers passed through Memphis last Friday afternoon on their way to San Antonio. There have been about ten other trains passed through since that time all bound for San Antonio. These trains are composed of Artillery, Cavalry, Infantry and ambulance companies and mules and horses.

The soldiers all seem to be jubilant over the prospects of being thrown into service at an early date. Snowflake flour is guaranteed to please. Try it at the Memphis Supply Co.

J. A. Grundy For Mayor.

It is a source of gratification to a great number of the citizens that Mr. Grundy has finally consented to make the race for mayor. It is evident to every thinking man that all phases of the city's affairs should have due consideration and that the man who directs the affairs of the city should be a well rounded man. There are men who are well qualified to forward the commercial and industrial interests of a town who do not stop to consider the morals and social welfare of the people, on the other hand there are some men who are such enthusiasts on moral issues that they would spend all their time and thought trying to project their own peculiar ideas of morality, and neglect the business interests of the town. It is absolutely necessary that our commercial and industrial interests be looked after, but it is just as necessary that other things that go to make up the sum total of the happiness of our people should have careful thought and consideration and the man at the head of the city's affairs should be fully identified with all that different interests of the city. We know of no man who more fully meets the requirements than Joe Grundy. As a business man he has been successful, yet Conservative. As a citizen he has the best interests of the city at heart and has always been found in the forefront in every movement that has been for the betterment of the city, and all recognize in him a broad-gauged, fair minded christian gentleman, staunch and fearless, yet fairminded, who will stand for the rights of all the people, saint or sinner, rich or poor. Mr. Grundy comes out not of his own choice, but in answer to a call from the people so earnest and persistent that no patriotic citizen could afford to refuse. We bespeak for him a most hearty support.

Card Of Thanks.

For the many acts of love and expressions of sympathy connected with our recent bereavement we are deeply grateful. Not being able to express our thanks to each one in person, we take this method of extending our heartfelt gratitude to the many friends who by words and actions helped to lighten the burden during this our sad experience.

May He to whom we now look for comfort and strength, be a blessing to your lives and make you useful in His service. Mrs. Florence Magness and Family.

Interesting Meeting of Cemetery Association.

The cemetery association held a very interesting meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. F. King. At this meeting it was found that several people are owing the association for block rent, dues and purchase money, and all parties knowing themselves so indebted are requested to see Mrs. D. A. Grundy or Mrs. W. A. Johnson and make satisfactory settlement at once. The ladies are endeavoring to raise money enough to put in water works at the cemetery to water the flowers and shrubbery and all parties so indebted should pay up at once.

The Memphis High School baseball team went up to Clarendon Saturday and played the Clarendon team. The game was close and very interesting, the score standing 7 to 5 in favor of Clarendon. Our boys are preparing for a fine team this summer and we expect to see some fine games during the year.

The Texas Panhandle Magazine is a new edition just launched by Walter E. Gunn and published in Chicago. J. F. Sadler, Jr., of Amarillo is treasurer. Judging from the first issue it looks as though it is a real estate booster for Amarillo and adjacent country, but it may come to the best part of the Panhandle before it finishes its mission.

Night watchman Stuart has resigned and Deputy Williams has been appointed in his stead.

Resolutions of Respect.

To the most excellent high priest and companions of Memphis Chapter No. 220, Royal Arch Masons.

Whereas, on March 7, 1911, the grim reaper, death, cut the brittle thread of life and launched into boundless eternity the spirit of our beloved companion William Hall Magness. Called from labor to refreshment, from his grasp he dropped forever the working tools of this life and obeys no longer the gavel wielded by earthly hands, but having passed through the eternal white veil and being invested with all the necessary attributes he is now receiving more light from the Supreme High Priest who shall forever preside.

Therefore, companions, should we emulate the virtues of our deceased companion, so that upon being called to exhibit specimens of our work we may not be cast aside as the unfaithful of former times, but bear the glad tidings of "Enter thou into the joys of the Lord."

While we bow with uncovered heads and drop sympathetic tears with the wife and children of our deceased companion, let us remember that "God doeth all things well."

Resolved, that one copy hereof be spread on the minutes of this Chapter, one be sent to the bereaved family and one to each of our local papers for publication.

NORTON HEADRICK,

G. M. THOMPSON,

D. A. GRUNDY.

G. M. Thompson was attending a meeting of the directors of the Panhandle Retail Hardware and Implement dealers association last Saturday at Amarillo. The meeting was for the arrangement of plans for the next regular annual meeting which will be held at Plainview, July 10. Mr. Thompson is vice president of the association.

Jim Wilson returned Monday from Weatherford where he had spent a week with his relatives. He is now connected with the Jot Montgomery Drug Co., where he will be glad to see his friends.

J. W. Greenwood for Mayor.

We are authorized to announce in this issue the name of J. W. Greenwood as a candidate for the office of mayor of the city of Memphis.

After the solicitation of a number of his friends Mr. Greenwood consented to run for the office of mayor and promises if elected to fill the office to the best of his ability without fear or favor to anyone. He is well qualified for the office, being a public spirited man and will work for the best interest of the city at all times. He asks a fair and impartial consideration of his claims at the hands of the voters of Memphis on the day of the election.

Joe J. Mickle informs us that the report that he was going to put in a large store at Clarendon and move to that place was a mistake. He also told us that he was going to restock his present stock of goods here in Memphis and let it remain here with Joe Hardy of Clarendon as manager. We are glad Mr. Mickle has decided to remain with us.

C. W. Adair received a message from Rev. R. T. Caldwell at Fort Tuesday evening, stating that both their horses had been burned to death in the stock yards fire which took place there early Tuesday morning. These were both very fine blooded animals and it is a heavy loss to these gentlemen. Further details were not explained in the message.

Mrs. J. C. Riggs departed for Fort Worth Sunday night where she will meet Mr. Johnson and together they will go to Denison where Mrs. Riggs' business affairs will be wound up and she will return to Memphis and make her future home with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Johnson.

Commercial Club Meets.

The commercial club held a very important and interesting meeting Saturday afternoon. The road bond issue being the important subject.

At this meeting the taxable value of this precinct was obtained and the amount of taxation figured out that each property owner would have to pay in order that the matter might be more fully explained to the people. Some of our people are under the impression that this will have to pay a large amount of tax should this bond issue carry, but according to correct figures the tax will amount to practically nothing considering the amount of travel and the condition of the roads at present. For example: If you are paying $20 taxes at present there will be added to your tax $2.00 per year for this road bond provided the bonds are issued for twenty years. If the bonds are issued for forty years there will be an addition of $1.50 to your tax for each year.

There is not a man in Hall county who has to travel over the present roads as much as twice a year who would not be willing to pay twice that amount each year for the pleasure it would afford him to drive along a nicely macadamized road and not have his false teeth jarred out and his team pulled into a shoe string. Let every voter in this precinct come to the polls on the 25th day of this month and cast his vote for the good roads and help make the initiative step towards good roads and bridges all over the county.

PURPOSE OF MASSING AMERICAN TROOPS.

Forces Will Prevent Further Shipments of War Supplies from American Soil - Will Remain in the Southwest Until Republic Is Tranquil.

Washington, March 9.—That the Administration has decided to dissemble no longer its reason for the sudden and unprecedented movement of troops to the Mexican border is indicated by the following dispatch, received tonight from the staff correspondent of the Associated Press, who is accompanying President Taft on his journey to Atlanta, the dispatch being dated Charlottesville, Va., through which place the President's train passed at 7:10 o'clock:

All doubt as to the purpose of the Government in sending 20,000 troops to the Mexican border has at last been swept away. The United States has determined that the revolution in the Republic to South must end. American troops have been sent to from a solid military wall along the Rio Grande to stop filibustering and to see that there is no further smuggling of arms and men across the international boundary.

It is believed that with this source of contraband supplies cut off the insurrectionary movement which has disturbed conditions generally for nearly a year without accomplishing anything like the formation of a responsible independent Government, will speedily come to a close.

President Taft, on his way to Atlanta and Augusta for a ten days' vacation, passed through here at 7:10 o'clock tonight. He appeared well satisfied with the situation.

There is a general belief that the rapid movement of troops into Texas and Southern California will soon speedily accomplish its purpose that the net results in the end will constitute a valuable lesson in quick mobilization of an effective fighting force that will prove a revelation to the country at large, to the critics of the army in particular, and a justification of diplomatically worded explanations that have been given out from official sources in Washington.

There is no longer any reason to doubt that the sudden move on the part of the American Government was the result of either unofficial representation of foreign Government regarding the situation in Mexico or the intimation that several of the European powers were sounding each other as to the desirability of making representations to the United States at an early date.

At any rate, the matter was put up to the Administration in such a way as to call for the quickest sort of action. The necessity for this speed of mobilization was seized upon by the War Department as a heaven-sent opportunity to answer criticism both in and out of Congress and that interpretation was put upon the movement.

There was little doubt in the minds of these officials that the true meaning of the "maneuvers" soon would be known and the logical interpretation so quickly put upon the movement of the troops unquestionably disconcerted the Administration officials from President Taft down.

The Washington Government unexpectedly found itself confronted by the necessity of throwing an army along the border line of Mexico to stop the source of supply to the revolutionists and to be in a position to invade Mexico at a moment's notice in the event of the death of President Diaz or any other untoward circumstance which might precipitate general fighting or rioting.

It was represented at the State Department that the United States must act and act quickly if the Monroe Doctrine was to be upheld. Foreign interests in Mexico naturally look to the United States for protection under that doctrine.

The foreign interests in the Republic, however, are not to be compared with the American capital invested there, so after all the more to bring about more tranquil conditions in Mexico has to do principally with Americans and American interests.

Just what part the Diaz Government has played in recent events has not been disclosed. From time to time protests have been made to Washington regarding violation of the neutrality laws along the border.

Such protests, however would not ordinarily call out such a force as has been rushed toward Texas and the Mexican frontier during the last forty-eight hours.

It is considered probable that the Mexican Government may have indicated to European Powers its inability to put an end to the disorders so long as succor was given to the revolutionist forces in the United States.

Whatever the inner and diplomatic moves may have been, there is no longer any purpose on the part of the Administration to cloak the movement of troops with mystery.

The Mexican Government, whether it asked help of this Government or not, has been given the greatest assistance it could possibly have desired.

The official note from Washington made public in the City of Mexico last night, assuring Diaz there was nothing in the movement of troops that should cause uneasiness on the part of the Mexican Government, justified by the admissions made today.

There is no telling at this time how long the big army sent to the Mexican frontier will remain there. It will not be withdrawn until the revolution has been crushed and until conditions in Mexico are much more stable than are now believed to be.

The situation in Lower California is said to have caused more concern to the United States than at any other part. It was reported that the revolutionists were exceptionally strong here, and threatened to set Government independent either that of Diaz or revolutionists to the East.

The line between the United States and Lower California but an imaginary one, and a revolutionary Government would be a source of constant worry.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

THE cement sidewalk fever has not yet subsided. There are several walks yet being extended.

Don't forget to talk the bond issue for good roads. The election comes off on the 24th of this month.

OUR people are planting shade trees every day. Let the good work go forward with a vim. It will not be but a short time until we will have one of the best shade towns in the Panhandle.

THIS paper is anxious each week to issue a spicy and interesting local paper. If each of our subscribers would hand us one item of news what a newsy paper we could issue. Try it for a few weeks and mark the change.

In many places where the "Harem" skirt have been introduced, it is said the price of eggs have advanced several cents on the dozen, and the purchasers are not particular how loud the scent is. We are not particular whether the "Harem" reaches Memphis or not. We will have plenty of eggs in either case.

We are pleased to see many of our citizens taking active interest in improving their homes and grounds. A little effort on the part of each citizen would give our town a more prominent place on the map. Nature has done much for us, now let us do much for ourselves along the improvement line.

We heard of a fellow once who took a city paper in preference to the county paper because he got more paper for the money, and his attention was attracted by the advertisement of a fire escape which would be forwarded on the receipt of $2. He sent the cash and in a few days received a copy of the New Testament.

Hall county is going after good roads with a vim. A few days ago the commissioners' court passed an order, upon a petition, in which the voters of precinct one, in which Memphis is situated, will be permitted to vote upon a bond issue of $25,000 for roads. There is a strong demand for this on the part of the people of Memphis and it is said that the bond issue will carry by a large majority. On top of this the commissioners court has called an election for the purpose of voting bonds to the amount of $25,000 for the purpose of building a bridge over Red river about the center of the county. While a portion of the county will make a fight upon this last proposition, there is reasons to believe that it will carry. There is denying that a bridge over the river would be a great thing for the county. It would make the road south of the river more valuable as it would make the road from those lands to Memphis. The county seat, better and farmers could haul larger loads to market. The result of the election means much to Hall county.—Childress Index.

THE LECTURE WAS GOOD

Rev. Morgan of Memphis Gave our People a Treat Monday Night.

In accordance with previous announcement a goodly number of Childress people responded to the invitation of the Childress doctors and met at the Methodist church on Monday night to hear Rev. Morgan of Memphis deliver his lecture, 'The Physician's Crown.'

The meeting was opened by Dr. J. W. Albert, president of the Childress County Medical Society. After some excellent singing and prayer by Rev. Wyatt, Dr. Bryan was called on for a short introductory speech and responded most pleasantly. Following this Judge Cross was introduced and made a short address on the attitude of the public towards public sanitation and public health.

After this Rev. Morgan took the pulpit and delivered to the audience one of the most thoughtful addresses ever heard in Childress on the important work of the doctor, his value to the community and the proper relations that should exist between the doctor and the laity. The lecture showed him to be a deep student and well calculated to instruct the public in their habits of thought on the work of the medical profession. He placed the work of the true physician right alongside of that of the ministry in its Christianizing influence.

The lecture was well received by our people and will doubtless have a beneficial effect.—Childress Post.

Man Sings Hymns at His Own Funeral Through Phonograph

OXFORD, Mich., March 9.—William Faxon's voice was heard at his own funeral here yesterday. While his body lay in a casket those gathered to pay final tribute heard two hymns by him and also heard him as one of a trio including his son and daughter, in sacred songs.

When the mourners had gathered in the parlor of the Faxon home, in which lay his open coffin, they were surprised to here his voice pealing an anthem from behind a screen of flowers and palms.

Twice the attendants at the funeral service heard his voice in hymns they knew were his favorites. Then there were mingled with his notes those of his son and daughter.

Three years ago, believing his life was nearing its close, Faxon conceived the idea of preserving his own voice to be a part of the service when he died. He had been a choir singer for years and his rich tenor made him known throughout Clinton county, where he was an ardent church worker. He used a phonograph and the records were reproduced before he was buried.

Faxon was 90 years old and was one of the wealthiest men in the county. He was the first Methodist convert in this district and built a church for that faith. Almost until the time of his death he participated regularly in the song service.

Thirty-Second Legislature just a few minutes before it adjourned sine die shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon received a final message from Gov. Colquitt, observing that "it is a nice spring day," and advising the Legislature that it might go home. The text of the message follows: "No Radical or Disquieting Laws."—Colquitt "Governor's Office, March 11, 1911.—To the Senate and House of Representatives: Your committee has just notified me of your determination to adjourn at noon of this date, that hour being now about at hand. They also conveyed your request to be advised if I had any further communication to make. "If there has been turbulence and dissension in either branch of the Legislature, yet I offer my congratulations upon the fact that you are adjourning under circumstances which insure to the people a substantial fulfillment of my promise to them of 'a season of legislature rest,' for no disquieting and radical laws will now find their way upon the statute books as a result of your sixty days' session. Governor invokes Golden Rule in Final Message. "This is a most beautiful spring day, with the trees in bud and the flowers in bloom, typical of the new life that is before us all, and should inspire us with love for the Maker of all that is beautiful and good. "In the days that are ahead of us may we be imbued with the spirit of him who taught us that we should do unto others as we would have them do unto us. And may the spirit of the 'peacemaker' be with you after you reach your homes. With this feeling toward each of you, you will carry home with you my personal good wishes. Says Present Not Propitious for Extra Session. "I am sorry that you have made it necessary for me to convene the Legislature in extraordinary session, session, in my judgment it is not a propitious time to do so. Very respectfully. O. B. COLQUITT, Governor of Texas. Texas is the only State in the Union where the farmers, this year, will be paid for their work in raising big crops of corn and cotton. Write to the Texas Industrial Congress, at Dallas for the particulars of the $10,000 prize offer. It will not cost you nothing to enter the contest. Entries will not be received after April 1st.

Crude Thoughts From The Editorial Pen

It is a thousand times easier to contract a new habit than to get rid of an old one.

The sky is not less blue because the blind man cannot see it.

The other day we read the following letter printed in a city newspaper:

"Dear Editor: I am a good young man who always had plenty of girl friends and who has recently come to the city. Now my temperament is such that I must associate, but do not know any girls and have no friends in the city."

Thousands of our young people leave our country homes every year to live and to work in our larger cities. They may not be wise in taking the step but the ambition of youth is deaf and blind to saner advice. One of the greatest inconvenience and temptation is that they are strangers among strangers. Making friends with anybody and everybody is both dangerous and foolish, especially so in a large city. There are too many rogues and gilded dens of immorality in cities for the inexperienced young man or woman to promiscuously select company and places of amusements. Before they know it they may be entangled in some vice blighting forever their purity and honesty.

We would sound this note of warning because of the youths that have left or are thinking of leaving our own community. While at home you knew with whom you could safely associate. You had also many friends to advise you. That is all different away from home among strangers.

Without preaching a sermon, but only seeking to give wholesome advice, we would say that the safest way to become acquainted with the best people is to connect yourself with some church. Go to the Sunday school and join the Bible class. In this way you will meet the most moral young men and ladies of that locality. Inform the head of the Sunday school and the pastor of the church that you are a stranger, and they will see that you will have friends. This method of gaining friends, when away from friends may not be the purest, but they are a thousand times better than purest of the foul found upon the streets, in saloons and in questionable places of amusement.

We believe that the world is a good place and is growing better. This world began with a garden and it is going to end with a garden. It's a pleasant place to live in and if we had been consulted as to which of the stars we should choose for a habitation we could not have done better than to select this. We are glad that we got aboard this planet. It just suits us. To our mind the very best color in universe for water is blue; the very best shade for grass is green, and the very best for water is a crystalline flash. The mountains are just high enough for me, the valleys just low enough, the rivers swift enough. The human face is most wonderfully adapted for its use with sunshine in its smile and tempest in its frown; with two eyes, one more than is necessary, so that if one is put out we still may see the beautiful things God has placed around us; with one nose, most admirably arranged to take in the sweet perfumes of earth.

Art, even at its best, may be justly criticised, but where is the blasphemer who would dare criticize the arch of the sky, or the crest of a wave or the flock of fleecy clouds that the shepherd wind is driving over the pastures of the sky. There is only one discord to a thousand harmonies. There is a whole sky full of robins to one hooting owl, and to every destructive torrent there are hundreds of placid streams with water lilies anchored at their banks and stars laying bright reflections to sleep in their bosoms.

The quiet faithful way in which a woman often of superior intellect, and decided talent for higher things, will dish-wash her life away for her husband and children, is a marvel of patient endurance. Here the servitude of woman is the heaviest. No sooner is her work done that it requires to be done over again. Men take contracts of work on them, finish them, and they are over for all time. The prospect of ending them and drawing pay for the labor is alluring. And woman's work holds no such promise. She washes on Monday after Monday the same garments until there is no more of them to wash; then they are replenished by new ones like old, and the rubbing and wringing goes on until the worn-out hands are folded for their eternal and only rest, she mends stockings, with tireless fidelity, week after week, and year after year. Every morning the same rooms are to be put in order only to be in the wildest disorder by evening. The same stockings, the same washing, the same cleaning and cooking in endless rotation, which, if done promptly and properly, leaves no time for reading and self-culture which, aside from the pleasure it affords the woman, is the only means of fitting one-self for the intellectual culture of children.

Japan Will Not Interfere.

Washington, March 10.—"Japan has never made the slightest effort to obtain from Mexico any concession for a coaling station for naval uses at Magdalena bay or All Saints bay or, indeed, at any point on the Pacific coast of Mexico."

This today was the emphatic declaration of Baron Uchida, Japanese ambassador to Washington.

Alluding to a proposed new line of Japanese steamers to ply between the Mexican ports and Peru on the south, the ambassador stated that if this company had made any arrangements for coaling its vessels in Mexican territory, such an arrangement was on a purely business basis, with which the Japanese government had no connection.

The ambassador's statement was directed to a charge by Mexican revolutionary agents in this country, that President Diaz had sought to secure Japanese support by making traffic arrangements with Japanese steamship lines. These arrangements it was alleged would give the lines practical control of the Tehuantepec railroad.

Baron Uchida promptly denied and knowledge of any such special arrangement. He said

American cotton for Japan was taken in part from the Gulf States by the Tehuantepec railroad to the Pacific coast.

To what extent Japanese is interested in the rates he did not know; but he knew absolutely he said, that the Japanese government was not concerned in this a purely business arrangement.

Several years ago when the American gunners were not nearly so proficient as now it was considered necessary to conduct the target practice in a sheltered bay affording plenty of smooth water.

To this Magdalena bay was admirably adapted. The Mexican government granted permission for American blue jackets and marines to land on the shore north of the bay and erect temporary rifle ranges. A couple of hulks were moored in the bay to act as colliers and coal was piled on shore.

This arrangement worked well for several years, but finally an element in Mexico always jealous of the United States, began an attack upon President Diaz, charging he was yielding Mexican territory to Americans. When the arrangement for the use of the bay expired early last December the Mexican government decided to refrain from renewing it. The American state department, moreover, no longer considered the bay as indispensable.

R. M. Bost went down to Crowell Friday on a business trip.

Sheriff Bob McMurtray of Silvertown, was a business visitor to Memphis last Friday.

Music Recital

The Students of the Lowrey-Phillips Conservatory of Music of Amarillo, assisted by local students of that institution will give a public recital Friday evening March 17th at the Arnwood Opera House. There will be some twelve of the students come down from Amarillo, accompanied by the Director, Doctor Dunaevski.

This recital is the first to be given by the students at this place, but all will recall the recital recently given by Dr Dunaevski in this city. All who are acquainted with the work the Conservatory has been doing declare this will be the finest of the kind ever had in this section.

It is learned that Dr Dunaevski himself will play by special request. He is also scheduled for a lecture and all are looking forward to these features with much anticipation.

The students have placed the price of admission at 50 cents and we are assured that all will receive much more than their money's worth, whether they be musicians or not.

In as much as this is a character of school work which should have the earnest co-operation and support of all of our good people the DEMOCRAT wishes to urge all who can possible arrange to go to this recital to be on hand and the proper amount of encouragement to these who are preparing themselves in this most coveted line of educational work. The program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. We have learned that many tickets have already been sold, and in order that you get a seat, we would advise that you get your tickets immediately.

OF DEATH
DIAZ CAUSE OF
ARMY MOVEMENT

Believed to Be Preparing for Intervention in Mexico.

Washington, March 9.—The significance of the sudden relocation of a quarter of the United States army and a formation of the navy near the Mexican frontier is gradually being pointed out in Washington.

From various sources, yet with the possibility of official confirmation, credible admissions have been obtained which go far to substantiate the interpretation placed by the public upon the great movement.

It is said that about the time of the return to Washington of Lane Wilson, ambassador to the United States from Mexico, the American administration received advice indicating increased interest in Mexico, and that a revolution, notwithstanding the opposition of the Mexican government to the contrary, had exploded in many directions. The country was reported in a state of confusion, and it was said that the health of the president was such that he was known to be considering anti-American feeling among Mexicans generally, and it was feared that developments at the moment might precipitate a state of affairs, it was discussed with deep interest at the White House with the result that the suggestion was made that it would be the best forethought to concentrate the Mexican border a force to meet any situation which might arise. This movement was to take the form of a survey and all parties to the survey were sincerely hoped that nothing would be necessary.

The interpretation which was placed upon the movement by the newspapers and the country is said to be disconcerted the administration and the President and advisers hasten to relieve the feeling by emphatic denials of the harmless intent of the movement.

It is believed that it will be, and covers over American soil except according to this view of the situation. Meanwhile accurate information as to the real situation of affairs in Mexico is being sent to the health of Diaz is being sent with intense interest.

REBEKAHS CLOSE SESSION.

Installation of Officers Takes Place in Morning—Retiring President Presented with Token.

Waco, Tex., March 8.—The Rebekah assembly brought its work to a successful close this afternoon and tonight most of the officers and representatives are leaving for their homes. The installation of officers took place this morning. Past President Mrs. Mary C. Bennett presiding. The memorial ceremony occupied the most of the time between 1 and 3 o'clock this afternoon. There were seventy-nine deaths reported for the year just past, three of whom were special deputies and the remaining seventy-six members of the subordinate lodges over the State.

The retiring president, Mrs. Mary C. Bennett, was presented with a silver fruit basket by the assembly as a token of appreciation of her stewardship as presiding officer for the year.

Mrs. Myrtle Wynne of Beaumont was presented with a silver loving cup by the Sour Lake lodge, which she had the honor of organizing.

For the coming year's work Mrs. Annie Camp of San Gabriel was installed as marshal. Miss Gertrude McIntire of Big Springs, as conductor. Mrs. Elizabeth Roth of Galveston, as inside guardian. Mrs. Wortham of Beaumont, outside guard. Mrs. Humphries of Georgetown, chaplain.

At the memorial exercises Miss Lillie Schmidt of Flatonia rendered "Nearer, My God, to Thee," audience rose and sang "God Be with You Till We Meet Again."

15 AMERICANS DIE FIGHTING FEDERALS IN MADERO'S ARMY

El Paso, March 10.—Dispatches received last night from Columbus, N. M.; state that Madero's forces under Colonel Garcia have renewed the attack upon Colonel Cuellar's federals at Casas Grande. They have captured the town, but are still fighting to retain possession. The loss is said to be heavy on both sides.

The number of Americans reported dead is increased to fifteen, while thirty-five are said to have been taken prisoners by the federals. Those men are said to have been recruited at Ahumada and were in charge of the machine guns under Captain Harrington.

Late last night Colonel Rabago telegraphed Juarez officials that he expected to reach Chihuahua early today, restoring rail and wire communication with that city. The message stated that detachments of troops are guarding the road.

BAILLE ANSWERS RECENT CRITICISMS

Denies That Resignation was Intended to Give Opportunity for Whitewash.

Washington, March 9.—Senator Bailey, in an interview tonight on the proceedings of the anti-Bailey caucus at Austin in regard to his resignation, and discussing the initiative, referendum and recall, said:

"The most casual attention to those proceedings will make it plain that the men who were managing that caucus believed that the Legislature would reelect me to the Senate, and they desired so far as they, to discredit such action in advance. I am not in the least surprised that those men would attribute an unworthy motive to me, for they have been doing that a long time, and even when they seek to deprive me of any credit by ascribing an improper or selfish motive.

"I am, however, somewhat surprised that members of the Legislature were willing to assemble and impute to their colleagues as desire or an intention to 'whitewash' anybody. Of course, nobody but an ex Populist or a charter member of the Anti-Bailey Society could possibly have thought or said that my reelection, even if it had occurred, would have been or could have been intended as a 'whitewash,' but their senseless accusations against their associates as well as against me will not be without its use, for it will give the people of Texas a very excellent photograph of those men and their mental processes.

"I have never known a good woman who was skeptical about the virtue of her sister; I have never known an honest man who always doubted the integrity of his brothers; and I have never known a man of high motives who was always ready to impeach the motives of other men. The man who is always ready to suspect the integrity and motives of other people gives other people ample reason to always suspect his integrity and his motives.

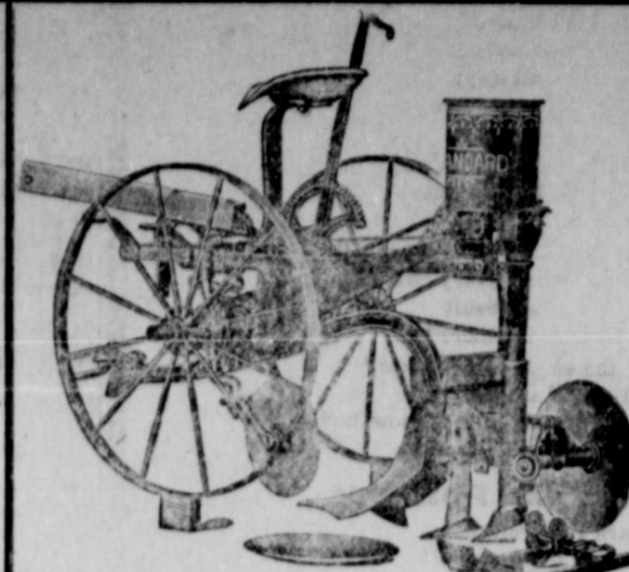

"If those anti-Bailey people had delayed their caucus a few hours they would have saved themselves from the absurdity of pretending to believe that I had resigned really to secure the approval which a re-election would imply and they could have declared, as they would have done without the slightest hesitation, that I had never intended for my resignation to become effective.

"All of them would have, readily made that declaration, and most of them would have believed it, because they are thoroughly incapable of understanding how a man could give up a great office rather than compromise what he considers a great principle.

"Of course, they will not be above pretending among the more ignorant people to believe that the Democratic Senators who, after voting for the admission of Arizona, gave me the direct and positive assurance that they did not mean to approve its initiative, referendum and recall features, were really in collusion with me, and some of them, judging those Senators by a knowledge of their own natures, will doubtless believe what they say.

"I began this contest against the initiative and referendum, when they were advocated by the old Populist party nearly twenty years ago. I then declared them to be subversive of the fundamental principles of this Government and believe them to be even more dangerous when advocated by Owen, LaFollette and Bourne in the Senate of the United States, than they were when advocated by Harry Tracy, Jake Rhodes and Cyclone Davis on the stump in Texas. I did not oppose those measures then because the Populist party proposed them, but because I believed them to be at war with democracy, as I understand it, and I will not stultify myself by accepting them or by offering only a perfunctory opposition to them.

"There are some good men and some very able men who have sought to minimize the importance of this question by declaring that, after all, it is one for the States, and not for the general Government, but those men have given little attention to the persistent and systematic propanganda which the advocates of the initiative, referendum and recall have been conducting in this country, or else they would understand that the aim is to apply it to every division of the Government, from the smallest of our incorporated towns to the general Government itself. The old Populist party, which was the first to propose and to advocate the initiative and referendum, incorporated a declaration for it in its National platform of 1892, and there is today a National association organized for the express purpose of securing the adoption of that governmental system with the recall added, not only by States and their subdivisions, but also the general Government, and that association numbers among its members several United States Senators and Representatives in Congress.

"Indeed, there are really two organizations of that kind, one claiming to be Democratic and the other claiming to be Republican, both working in cordial unison for this very radical change in our form of government, with those men working day and night, and with those opponents of their system idle, or indifferent, it is just as certain that they will ultimately succeed as it is, that activity will overcome inaction.

"I intend no criticism against my Democratic colleagues, for I have accepted their assurance that they did not intend by their votes to approve those dangerous innovations and that they believe that they were simply voting to admit Arizona without committing themselves to the peculiar provisions of her Constitution; but the proponents and the advocates of the initiative, referendum and recall understood exactly what they were doing and they were trying to force the Congress of the United States to expressly approve that Arizona Constitution, for the amendment offered by Senator Owen, though it contained some other matter by way of recitation, reduced the vote itself to the single and naked approval of the Arizona Constitution.

Divorce Is Denied Husband Separated From Wife 32 Years

Memphis, March 10.—That a husband who has permitted his wife to live apart from him for thirty-two years is not entitled to a divorce, nor is the wife who has waited that long before asking that her husband provide for her the right to demand support was held by Chancellor Heiskell yesterday.

In the suit at issue Mrs. Elizabeth Gerber, 76, sought an order compelling Jacob Gerber, 67, to make provision for her support. Gerber replied with a cross bill asking divorce. The couple separated thirty-two years ago. Chancellor Heiskell dismissed both suits.

"THE OWL"

The Terrapin toils and plugs away,
In the daily grind of "The Simple Life"
Searching the hills and vales all day;
For the food to stop fierce hunger's strife.
The Horned Owl hoots in high disgust,
And claims the right to rob his neighbor,
Whether flying in air or crawling in dust
To satisfy his wants without labor.
With the graft and greed of his "fiendish cult,"
Where "might is right," using every chance to spoil,
He takes from his neighbors the result
Of their labors; and fattens on others' toil.
But man must eat "by the sweat of his brow,"
And sow seed in and out of season,
So, if you have failed before and don't know how
Come to Garrott's and learn the reason.
