Salvage Campaign on Out Basis To Be Launched March 1st

An all-out salvage drive, to include all the vital materials being asked for by the Government to assist in the war effort, will be launched throughout Hall County on Monday, March 1, it is announced by M. J. Draper, chairman of the Hall County Salvage committee.

Chairman Draper called together his precinct chairmen, W. C. Davis of Memphis, Lee Vardy of Turkey, H. A. Wallace of Lakeview and J. T. Duncan of Esteline last Saturday to map plans for the campaign. As in previous drives, assistance of the school children of the county will be sought.

Some phases of the campaign remain yet to be worked out. Chairman Draper said today. Additional information will be given next week concerning the location of the salvage depots and other facilities from collection of the salvage material.

Most people are familiar by this time with the things that are wanted as necessary for the war effort, but for the sake of emphasis, the list is repeated here:

Scrap metal of all kinds. These are to be sold out right to junk dealers and, for the sake of convenience sub-dealers will be located in Esteline, Lakeview and Turkey. Those individuals who wish to donate their scrap to war agencies are asked to use the

6 INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

Term of District
 Court Open Monday
 With Light Docket

The Spring term of 100th District Court was opened Monday morning, with Judge A. S. Moss on the bench, and a very light docket to come up for consideration. So far this week the only cases dealt with by the court have been a few divorce suits, and a contested divorce case has been set for Saturday.

Six felony indictments were returned by the grand jury, which was in session three days, adjourning Wednesday. The indictments were as follows:

Charlie Warden for murder and assault to murder, in connection with the shotgun slaying of his wife near Buffalo Flat on January 26, and all classes will be dismissed on those two days, so that teachers may assist in the sign-up. Those who for good reason cannot register on those days will be taken care of on Saturday, the school head said.

SCHOOLS TO AID IN REGISTRATION

Registrants Must Present Book One and Declare All Canned Goods in Pantries

Registration for point rationing processed foods, canned, bottled and in jars, which will open in Hall County at the Memphis, Turkey, Esteline and Lakeview schools on Wednesday, February 24, through Saturday, February 27, will be simple and quickly accomplished if the householders and individuals who must file Consumer Declarations in order to obtain War Ration Book Two will prepare their declarations before they go to the registration site, C. "The volunteer organization which will assist the board has been carefully instructed in its duties," Sloan said.

Here are the things to do to be ready to get the new books:

Group Action for Transporting Farm Commodities Urged

ODT Advocates Formation
 Of Committees to Conserve
 Transportation Equipment

Groups interested in the production, transportation, marketing and processing of any specific farm commodity in this area were urged today by Office of Defense Transportation officials to start work at once on a conservation plan for efficient transportation of the commodity concerned. Special procedure has now been set up by ODT, the War Production Board and the Department of Justice to speed formation of plans and to safeguard farmers and others from prosecution under the anti-trust laws when engaging in group action to conserve transportation equipment.

First step is selection by interested groups of an Industry Transportation Committee and submission of members' names to ODT for approval, Richard E. Wood, Lubbock district manager, ODT division of motor transport, explained. The committee should be equally representative of producers, motor carriers, processors and dealers.

As soon as committee members are approved, they should begin (Continued on page seven)

Former Resident Of Memphis Dies At Alanreed Home

Archie Tom McKee, 83 years old, for many years a resident of Hall County, died Tuesday, February 8, at his home in Alanreed. ## County Officials Oppose Engineer, Auditor Proposals

Proposed Bills Would Put Unfair Burden on Counties,
 Say Judges, Commissioners

In a called meeting of the State Association of County Judges and Commissioners, held Monday at Austin, action was taken to block two bills introduced at the present session of the Legislature and directly affecting Texas counties, according to County Judge M. O. Goodpasture, who attended.

The bills in question would have made it compulsory for all counties to employ a full auditor and also a full time highway engineer, and both were purported to have originated with the county judges and commissioners. The association adopted a resolution by a vote 154 to 6 condemning the proposed legislation as placing an unfair financial burden upon counties of low assessed valuations.

Hearings were held with the appropriations committees of both the House and Senate, which bod (Continued on page seven)

Sgt. Monroe Writes . . . .

MORE ABOUT THE HOLY LAND

EDITOR'S NOTE: On January 7 and 21 The Democrat published letters from Staff Sgt. J. L. Monroe to his mother, Mrs. D. F. Monroe, describing a tour of the Holy Land made by the sergeant and a large group of soldier comrades. Following is a third letter about the tour, which is most interesting because it deals with the locale of the crucifixion and burial of Jesus.

A few paces westward from the arch of Ecce Homo, where the cross was placed upon His shoulders, is where Jesus fell on the stony road to Calvary. As we stood there, looking back through the centuries, we could see the vast crowd with the soldiers beating Jesus as he struggled under the heavy cross. Turning southward for a short distance we come to the place where Jesus met his mother. Mary, who looked on the scene with tearful anguish and pity. A little further is seen the spot where Simon of Cyrene helped Jesus to carry the cross. A Franciscan chapel marks the spot.

Here the road turns again westward up the steep hill of Calvary where, after a few paces, we arrived at the place where Veronica took her handkerchief and wiped the perspiring face of Jesus as he labored under the heavy burden. A chapel here contains an image of Veronica performing the act, with what is said to be the same handkerchief, on which the print of Jesus' face can still be seen.

As the stony road ascends sharply from the spot, the place can be seen where Jesus fell the second time under the weight of the heavy cross. This marks the spot of the gate through which Jesus passed as He left the city behind. (The walls, which have been rebuilt, of course, now include Calvary's Hill, but at that time the hill was outside the city). A Franciscan chapel now stands on the spot. A little farther up the hill a black cross marks the spot where Jesus, turning and looking back over the city, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not over me." Near here is where Jesus fell for the third time.

We have now reached the place of the crucifixion where, for the redemption of mankind, the greatest act of all time was enacted. One stands in awe and reverence as these sacred spots are looked upon, where our Savior carried His heavy burden and gave His life for a lost world. Here is located the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. The front of the church faces south and the entrance is gained through one of two portals, the one on the right being sealed. Two windows, corresponding to the two portals directly below, are in the upper story of the church. After entering the structure, which a part of it dates back to the Crusades, the "stone of anointment" can be seen, where Jesus was anointed by Joseph of Arimathea and was later laid in the tomb.

From here we pass into a large rotunda where, in the center, is located the Holy Sepulchre of Christ. The edicule, known as the Chapel of the Angel, measure approximately 24 feet in length 15 feet in width and 15 feet in height, with a dome over its top-most walls which is surrounded by a balustrade. The walls are constructed of marble. Upon entering the vestibule one sees many silver lamps that forever burn the oil from the many olives grown in the vicinity.

A door leads to the Sepulchre itself, which is large enough to accommodate only 4 or 5 persons at once. On the right, after entering into the Sepulchre is seen a marble slab approximately six feet in length, three feet in width and one and one-half feet in height which marks the exact burial place of our Lord, the original stone being hidden beneath the marble stone. Mass is held here daily by the Roman Catholics.

Leaving here we enter the Chapel of St. Helena. It was here, in the fourth century, that she discovered the crosses of Jesus and the two thieves buried in an abandoned cistern.

Ascending to the second story we came to the chapel of Calvary, where the crosses of Jesus and the two thieves stood, the penitent thief on the south and the other on the north. Four and one-half feet to the south of the place of the cross is seen the rent in the rock caused by the earthquake when Jesus died on the cross. To the right is the altar of "Our Lady of Sorrows," an image of Mary decorated with 12 million dollars in value of jewelry from the crowned heads of the world. No guard or police is on the spot and not one piece of rich jewelry has been taken throughout the centuries.

In the caretaker's study of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre we received our certificates of pilgrimage, showing that we had on that day visited the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and were also given a small chip off the tomb of Christ.

Our faith had been strengthened as we had seen with our own eyes the exact spots of the crucifixion and burial tomb of our Lord, and we were drawn closer to understanding the suffering of Him as He hung on the cross for a lost, dying world. It is now nearly noon and after shopping in the nearby shops, we prepared for our long trip back to our post in the Western Desert. We had seen what was little dreamed of ever having an opportunity of seeing in our span of life on this earth. Joyce.

For molds: use one 7" tube-center mold (1 qt. size), coffee cans or (to mold in individual servings) jelly glasses. Fill molds 2/3 full. Then cover with waxed paper, and place molds in steamer over water that's already boiling. The steam must surround the mold. Cover steamer tightly. Don't lift lid during steaming, so be sure lower kettle has enough water to last through steaming time.

Use at least 2 1/2 cups water in cooking prunes, so you'll have 2 cups of juice left for the sauce.

2 cups sifted GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Enriched Flour... 4 tsp. Baking Powder... 1/2 tsp. Salt... 2 tsp. Sugar... 2 tsp. Shortening... 1 cup Milk... 2 cups cooked Prunes (drained, pitted).

SIFT the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Then cut in the shortening with a pastry blender or two knives until finely blended. Add milk and mix to make a soft dough.

Perfect results guaranteed only with Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Enriched Flour

Arrange 4 large cooked, pitted prunes (spread open) at equal distances apart on the bottom of a greased pudding mold, and cover with a thin layer of dough (drapping it lightly from a spoon)... then with a layer of prunes (opened)... being sure that the prunes come out to the edge of the mold. Repeat this procedure, with alternate layers of dough and prunes, till all are used. Finish with a thin layer of dough on top.

Now cover. Steam one hour (instructions above). Turn out on a serving platter and serve hot with hot prune sauce. (Enough for 8 to 10 servings.)

HOT PRUNE SAUCE

3 tsp. Cornstarch... 1/2 cup Sugar... 2 cups cold Prune Juice (in which prunes were cooked)... 2 tsp. Lemon Juice or mild Vinegar... 1 tsp. Butter... 1/2 tsp. Nutmeg

MIX cornstarch and sugar with the cold prune juice and lemon juice (or vinegar). Cook over a low heat until thick—stirring frequently to keep from lumping. Remove from heat and blend in the butter and nutmeg.

They're Pigs in Blankets!

Easy and quick to make. They make a hit for a "hurry-up" supper or lunch. All you need is:

2 cups sifted GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Flour... 1 tsp. Salt... 3 tsp. Baking Powder... 4 tsp. Shortening... 1/2 to 3/4 cup Milk... 4 Little Sausages or Wieners (cooked)

SIFT the flour, salt and baking powder together. Cut in the shortening with a pastry blender (or 2 knives) until finely blended. Then stir in just enough milk to make a soft dough.

Roll out 1/4 inch thick on a lightly floured cloth-covered board, and cut in oblong pieces to make the "blankets" for the sausages. Place a cooked sausage or wiener in the center of each piece and roll dough around it, letting the sausage show at each end; then press edges to seal firmly. Now place on lightly greased baking sheet.

Bake 15 minutes in a hot oven (450°). Makes 8 servings. Delicious when served hot with a Cream Sauce.

FOR YOUR FEBRUARY PARTY IN WAR TIME

- Hot Chicken Loaf garnished with Parsley or Watercress and Pickled Peach Halves filled with Red Jelly
- Hot Mushroom Sauce
- Buttered Green Peas
- Small Rolls Or Heart-Shaped Biscuits
- Cherry Tarts
- Coffee

Red and White is usually the color motif for February parties—this lunch—or supper—will fit in well to such a plan either for a Valentine party or for one celebrating Washington's birthday.

It's a menu planned with an eye on war-time restrictions. If you find that some of the foods mentioned are not available in your neighborhood—you may have to make substitutions. For instance, you can use tuna fish instead of chicken—or veal or pork. But chicken is an unrestricted meat and thus far there seems to be plenty of it.

If mushrooms are not available, add your peas to the creamed sauce for the chicken loaf—or add cut-up olives and slices of hard-boiled eggs—or sliced tart pickles.

Plums might be used in place of cherries for the tarts. The cherry tarts call for only a half cup of sugar, so they should be welcome for that reason, as well as the fact that they are delightful to look at and even more delightful to eat.

HOT CHICKEN LOAF

- 1 lb. fresh mushrooms (or one 4-oz. can)
- 1 tsp. butter
- 1 cup soft bread crumbs
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup chicken broth (well seasoned with celery, salt, pepper, etc.)
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. paprika
- 1/4 cup pimiento (cut fine)
- 3 cups cooked chicken (cut fine)

Method
Wash fresh mushrooms, remove stems, and peel. (Caps do not need to be peeled.) Cut stems and caps into pieces. . . if canned mushrooms are used, drain well and slice thin. Cook gently in butter for 20 minutes. Mix soft bread crumbs with milk and broth. Add well beaten eggs, salt, paprika, pimiento, chicken and cooked mushrooms. Mix well. Pour into buttered bread loaf pan which has been lined with paper. Steam-bake (that is, set pan of chicken loaf in another pan containing a little hot water, in oven) for 1 1/2 hours in a moderate oven (350° F.). When baked, turn out on platter and serve with Hot Mushroom Sauce. Amount: 6 servings.

CHERRY TARTS

Filling
Drain juice from contents of one No. 2 can of sour cherries. If cherries if they are not already pitted. Combine 1 cup of the cherry juice with 1/2 cup sugar. Bring to a boil and strain. Blend to a paste 2 1/2 tsp. cornstarch and a little cold water. Stir into the hot juice. Cook over moderate heat until it thickens, stirring the while. Remove from heat and beat with a rotary beater to remove scum. While hot add a few drops of red vegetable coloring. When cool, fill freshly baked tart shells. Garnish each with a puff of whipped cream or with a little hard sauce.

This makes sufficient filling for 8 small tart shells.

To Whip "Coffee" Cream

"Coffee cream", which has a butter content of about 20 per cent can be whipped if it is kept in the refrigerator and until very cold. Place the desired amount in an ice cold bowl and add 1/2 tsp. lemon juice for each cup of cream. Whip immediately with an ice cold beater.

On the Home Front . . . . HOW POINT RATIONING WILL WORK

Approximately 21 million War Ration Books Two are now in the hands of nearly 800 local war price and rationing boards in Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri, ready for distribution to consumers during the coming week. The Office of Price Administration has been working night and day for many weeks in order to have material ready for the gigantic task of registering millions of Southwesterners for the point rationing program. Thousands of forms have been distributed for the registration of processors, wholesalers, retailers, industrial users, consumers and others.

It is a gargantuan task that will require the patience and cooperation of every consumer and every business man. It will require the help of thousands of volunteers—school teachers, civilian defense workers, local rationing board volunteers and other public-spirited citizens. The groundwork for a job has been laid in other registrations; consequently, it is hoped that the work will run smoothly. The registration procedure has been tested hundreds of times in order to get the "bugs" out of the system. Registrars have been trained and hard-working local board members have been instructed on the entire procedure. All have cooperated 100 per cent because it is a job that must be done lest we find ourselves without food.

Despite the immensity of the task, despite the long hours that many have worked on the program and despite the inevitable complicated angles, the registration procedure for the consumer is a simple 10-minute task. The consumer merely fills out a consumer declaration form, takes War Ration Book One and this declaration form to the registration site and receives War Ration Book Two. It is as simple as that.

So, just remember, if your neighbor comes home with a "red hot tip" that they are going to start rationing clothes tomorrow you remind him what it takes months to print 130,000,000 ration books and it takes months to print other necessary forms. The problem of distribution itself is one of tremendous magnitude. The authority to ration anything must first be given the Office of Price Administration by the War Production Board, which determines where our shortages are and where they are likely to be. WPB chairman Donald Nelson said this week that WPB has not even given the OPA authority to ration clothes. Once OPA has the authority it then must plan the entire program.

The rationing of shoes, which began on February 9, was ordered because for several months civilians have been buying shoes at a rate faster than manufacturers could make them and at the same time keep our soldiers and sailors supplied—and the armed services, which require a huge number of shoes, comes first. In the last six months of 1942 one out of every 10 pairs of shoes manufactured in the United States went to men in the military forces. Every soldier who landed in North Africa, for example, was outfitted with three pairs of shoes and the convoys carried additional reserve supplies. A pair of shoes doesn't last a soldier as long as a civilian—they must be used on the harsh mountain trails of New Guinea and Tunisia, in muck and water of South Pacific islands, on the burning sands of North Africa, or in the snow and ice of Alaska and the Aleutians.

Under the shoe rationing plan three pairs of shoes will be made available during the next 12 or 13 months to every man, woman and child in the country. Stamp 17 in War Ration Book One is good for one pair of shoes until June 15, and stamps may be transferred from one member of the family to another. Anyone who needs shoes but has no Stamp 17 in his own book or in the family book may apply to his local rationing board for a shoe purchase certificate. The stamp must not be presented loose but must be torn out in the presence of the person making the sale. In the case of sales by mail order, the stamp may be torn out and presented with the purchasing order.

Demand for WAACs Ahead of Supply In Hall County

Mrs. L. L. Doss, Mrs. Inez Baker and C. C. Dodson Are Named as Local Recruiters

A West Texas woman, now a first lieutenant in the Women's Auxiliary Corps and stationed at Fort Des Moines, Iowa, wrote the following to the Lubbock WAAC recruiting officer:

"Every few days new calls come from all points of the nation with new jobs for WAACs. The demand far exceeds the present enrollment. We are mighty proud of the response West Texas girls have given the call of their country and we know they will continue to heed the call until, through our united efforts, victory is ours."

Texans as usual are in the front ranks doing this job. Governor Stevenson has urged Texas women to heed the call of our country. Texas has between 300,000 and 400,000 men in the service of Uncle Sam. Governor Stevenson said that he felt sure the women of Texas would want to back up Texas' fighting men.

The West Texas United States Army Recruiting and Induction District has been asked to furnish 584 WAACs by March 31. Hall County has been assigned a quota of nine women. To date Hall County has enrolled two of this quota.

Women, of any race, color or creed, desiring information concerning enrollment in the WAACs should contact some of the local recruiters, who are: C. C. Dodson for the local American Legion Post; Mrs. L. L. Doss for the American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Inez Baker, Informationist also had from any Army Recruiting Station, or by writing the U. S. Army Recruiting office in Lubbock.

"UNCLE SAM HAS FIRST CALL ON US"

For the war's duration the Gulf South has become an arsenal . . . of men, weapons, war materials, fuel, and food. All of this region's rich resources are at the disposal of Uncle Sam and our fighting forces. Their needs come first!

We know, as all America knows, that no matter what the price of Victory may be, defeat is infinitely more costly. Our entire organization, joined with all America, is willing to pay Victory's price. Our more than 3,000 employees feel their responsibility to their country more keenly than ever before. They are determined that no dictator shall rob America of her precious heritage.

Because of the greatly increased demands for Natural Gas and because building of pipe lines must be curtailed to save every ounce of precious steel, all of us can help speed Victory by careful use of this vital war production fuel.

Our employes are investing 10% of their earnings in War Bonds. We proudly fly the Treasury "T" Flag.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smearing and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

Farm Meetings at— FARMERS WILL STUDY DAIRY AND HOG PROBLEMS IN OPEN FORUMS

The Vocational Agricultural Department of Memphis High School is cooperating in a program called for by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to organize in various communities courses of instruction aimed at developing methods and skills that will assist toward the tremendous war goals in food production for 1943.

Under this program competent persons are secured to instruct for a minimum of 20 hours per course on subjects in which they have special knowledge. With the assistance of the Memphis department, one such course, dealing with swine production and taught by Lon Alexander, Hall County outstanding breeder of hogs, was started last week in the Salisbury community.

Another course was inaugurated at Plaska Wednesday night, with L. M. Hicks, successful dairy cattle breeder, instructing in various phases of milk production. Farmers and producers of both hogs and dairy cattle are urged by their Government to attend these meetings in order that they may exchange ideas and skills with view of reaching or surpassing the unusual quantities of production needed for this nation's war effort and aid to allies.

In order to save gas and tires the farmers are asked to pool their transportation resources and to attend the course now in progress in their various communities, even though the instruction they are most interested in is not now being taught. Within a few weeks time, the plan is to set up such courses in all communities of the county.

County Officials—

Betty Crocker KITCHEN CLINIC

prepared for The Democrat by Betty Crocker Home Service Department

CONSIDER TONGUE

Tongue is considered a great delicacy by many. It lends itself to a variety of different methods of preparation, and it is generally well liked.

You all know how good tongue is with spinach. But I think some of you will find the following recipe a little different from any you have used before with tongue—

- Beef Tongue Ala Jardiniere 1 beef tongue (about 3 lbs.) 2 cups diced carrots 2 cups diced celery 1 cup diced white onion 4 cups meat stock 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour 4 tsp. butter

Put tongue in cold water, bring to boiling point and boil gently for 2 1/2 hours. Remove tongue from water, skin and trim, removing bone and gristle from end. Put in roaster and pile vegetables around it. Pour the 4 cups of meat stock in which the tongue was cooked over the tongue and vegetables. Cover and bake. When baked remove tongue and vegetables to platter to keep hot. Brown the flour in a small pan, add the butter and blend. Then thicken the stock in the roaster with flour mixture and cook. Pour some of this gravy over the tongue and vegetables. Serve remaining gravy in gravy dish. Bake 2 hours at 325° F., moderate oven, 8 servings.

Cold tongue makes delicious sandwiches for the lunch box. Or you may like to serve it Glacéed for a Sunday supper or for a luncheon.

Glacéed Tongue Trim neatly cold slices of tongue. Prepare a stock . . . using liquor from a soup bone or canned consommé or bouillon (from dissolved bouillon cube, if desired). Add plenty of gelatin to stiffen well . . . 2 tbs. gelatin to 1 qt. liquid. Let cool until mixture begins to thicken and is almost ready to set. Then dip each slice of cold cooked tongue into it . . . and set slices aside on an oiled platter to become glacéed.

Just before serving, arrange slices of tongue attractively on a platter . . . with sprays of watercress and slices or wedges of lemon or tomato. Sprinkle slices of meat with parsley, and place radish roses and olives around and over meat.

WOMEN AT WAR

Bessie "All right, Bessie," said the boss of the little factory which was making jackets for soldiers. "Did you want to see me about something?" The thin middle-aged woman stood up from the chair in the outer office and looked earnestly at the boss. "It's about this ten percent pledge," she began. "Oh, that's all right, Bessie," the boss said. "I'd been meaning to speak to you about that. We don't expect you to pledge ten percent of your pay for War Bonds like the others are doing. We know you have a hard time making ends meet since Jake isn't. Elevers kids, isn't it? That's quite a lot of mouths to feed. Let's see, you make $25.50 a week including overtime, don't you?" "Yes, sir, but . . ."

"Don't give it another thought, Bessie. You've got your hands full as it is. Uncle Sam knows you haven't got a penny to spare. Don't let it worry you. We understand." The boss turned to go back into his private office. "But what I wanted to say was . . . Bessie raised her voice and the boss looked around. "I wanted to say, would a dollar a week be too little? You see, after we get the living expenses paid, there's just about a dollar a week left. Would they be willing to accept a dollar a week?" "They'd be more than willing," the boss said quietly. "They'd be proud."

Bessie looked relieved. "All we have to do is scrimp a little," she said. "I'd feel just terrible if we couldn't give something." Back in the boss's office a representative of the Treasury Department was waiting. The boss shut the door and sat down. "I've just seen the greatest single sacrifice I know of," the boss said. "Listen, if you want to hear what American women are made of . . ."

Women Work— CIVILIAN DEFENSE AUXILIARY NOTES

By INEZ BAKER They are making the prettiest little girls' dresses at the sewing room from white scraps left on the cutting tables. They are trimmed with colored tape or braid. You too can make some of these garments at home if you have a small scrap of any color. Make them any size or any style you choose and some little girl in a stricken foreign country or maybe in a community in the United States, that has been laid waste by flood, fire or storm, will be made happy and comfortable.

Red Cross headquarters is still calling for items for government hospitals. These are so easy to make. Hot water bottle and ice bag covers, bed pan covers, foot warmers, afghans, lap covers, and many other things which can be made in a few minutes from scraps. If some club would like to have a list and instructions for these things, we shall be glad to furnish them.

Mrs. C. S. Compton's children at school are making a pretty afghan and furnishing all the material. Other school children have in the making many articles. If you have woolen material or yarn that you want to give they will be very glad to have it, and will make it, under the direction of their teachers, into something nice and serviceable for wounded or sick soldiers.

Many clubs and committees are setting aside one day a week to work in the surgical dressings room. This is a fine idea. Of course we can't use our cars as much as we like but clubbing together and using one car can be done once a week. In this way many can come from other communities and a great deal of work be accomplished. Speak to your friends about it and plan a day to drive into Memphis and assist with this most important service. The calls for surgical dressings are coming faster than they they can be made. Hall county has never fallen down on any call the Red Cross has made, we shall not do so this time if all will make a special effort to help.

There is yarn at the rooms for gloves, sleeveless sweaters, helmets, watch caps and scarfs. Also a shipment of material for girls'

A MESSAGE FROM MR. J. P. MORGAN

Nowhere in these days can a safer investment be found for savings than U.S. government bonds and of all the issues the war savings bonds seem to me the most advantageous.

SAFE INVESTMENT: Americans who are looking for a good, safe investment, as well as a means of helping the Government to win the war, can well heed the above statement about War Bonds from J. P. Morgan, one of the nation's leading bankers.

isn't it good to know folks like it so much that they are all frustrated when it doesn't arrive on time?

Town and Farm In Wartime

(Weekly News Digest prepared by the Rural Press Section, OWI News Bureau)

Rationing Begins March 1

Rationing of canned, dried and frozen fruits and vegetables will begin March 1, and retail sales of more than 200 items to be rationed will be "frozen" on February 22, beginning Monday, February 22, housewives will register for War Ration Book No. 2, which will allow a total of 48 "points" for each member of the family for the month of March.

Gasoline Credit Cards

Credit cards may now be used at gasoline stations by vehicles carrying a Certificate of War Necessity or "T" ration stickers. Most other vehicles cannot use such credit cards.

Anyone who has applied for a Certificate of War Necessity may get gasoline pending the arrival of the Certificate by notifying his local war price and rationing board.

Silk Stockings for the War: Silk and nylon stockings—232,158 pounds of them—were donated by American women during the month of December 15 to January 15.

Renew "B" and "C" Cards by Mail: Holders of "B" and "C" gasoline ration coupons may renew them by mail now instead of appearing personally before the local war price and rationing board.

way uses of gasoline, such as that used for farm machinery and industrial equipment.

Soldiers Family Allowance

If a soldier's family is not getting their allowance under the Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act, it may be because the soldier has failed to file a formal application for it.

Advise Completing Education

"It is advisable," said a recent statement of the War Manpower Commission "that young people have the fullest possible opportunity consistent with the war effort to complete their education."

Youths under 18 can best help the war effort by continuing in school, the WMC said. Many of them will have to replace persons who have gone into war work.

Stop Rise in Clothing Prices

It is evident that the rise in clothing prices was effectively stopped by the General Maximum Price Regulation. Prices of all kinds of clothing rose 25.8 percent between spring of 1941 and May, 1942.

WACCs and WAVES

Sue Stone, another Memphis girl in the WACCs, gives a revealing account of the rookie's life in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps in the following letter to Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wood. Sue, the daughter of Mrs. Jimmy Stone of Clarendon writes:

Fort Des Moines, Feb. 15, 1943

Dear Dale and Tommy: Yes, here I am a soldier for Uncle Sam. Am I having fun? I'll let you decide. Just came off of K. P. Yes, I was chosen from about 250 (won't my mother be proud when she hears?)

We were met by trucks when we got here and "fell out" drilling. For awhile I "fell in" and "out" so much I didn't know where I was but now I'm about to get in the groove. The hardest thing is getting out and getting dressed on time. My tie slows me more than anything.

You should see my G. I. shoes. I can hardly get around in them but they don't hurt. Our shoes, when not worn, are neatly put in a row under our bunks, with strings tied and tucked inside of the shoe.

A comical thing happened the other day. A big-footed country girl (No, I'm not just telling it on someone else either) walked up and said, "My feet are just killing me and I can't keep these strings in, can you?"

Our food is very good and well-cooked. We live in barracks. Lights are out at 9:30. Bed check is 10:30. I might add it is wise to be there too. We get a break on week-ends. There is no bed checks. We are off from noon Saturday till reveille Monday morning.

I've taken three shots and have several more to take. I was sure sick for two days. I went to town Saturday night for the first time. Without telling you, you can guess; every other person I saw was a WACC. They are a swell bunch of girls though.

You may have heard, there are no more "clives" to be worn by WACCs. As yet I haven't gotten all my clothes. I've borrowed so many that I have a time keeping up with who each belongs to.

You never know anyone's name. It is "California," "Mississippi," "Louisiana," etc. Of course, they call me "Texas."

Mrs. Roosevelt visited our post yesterday. She passed about a hundred yards from the mess hall I was doing KP in. I found time to peek through the window at her. It was quite an event.

Well, too much for all of that. What have you all been doing? What is the news? I haven't read a newspaper since I left there. There is no such thing here. Gee I surely do miss seeing the people I knew in Memphis.

I must close now and scrub under my bunk and iron a shirt before lights out. I might add, too, that I have to get up at 6:00.

Please write soon. I never knew before what a letter means. All my love, Sue.

names, similar to the one which greatly facilitated registration for War Ration Book No. 1, will be followed in the coming sign-up, and Davis urges that people abide by it insofar as possible. The schedule is published herewith in bold faced type and all are asked to read it carefully, noting the hour in which the initial letter of their last name is listed.

With the experience of issuing War Ration Book No. 1 to guide them, and the public's familiarity with registration procedure, Davis and his corps of teachers are prepared to handle the new registration in an efficient and speedy manner.

"If the public will devote a little time to informing themselves concerning the requirements for securing War Ration Book No. 2 and will prepare themselves before coming to the gymnasium, only a few minutes will be necessary to register each person," Davis declared.

There are a few important things to remember about the point rationing system. They are:

1. All canned fruits, vegetables and soup; all frozen fruits and vegetables in containers under 10 pounds; all fruit juices in bottles or cans of one gallon or less; and all dried fruits will be rationed.

2. Retail sales of the foods to be rationed will be suspended as of midnight Saturday, Feb. 20.

3. Registration for War Ration Book Two will be conducted in Memphis Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 25, 26 and 27.

4. Any adult member of the family may make the application and receive the books for the entire family.

5. War Ration Book 1 of each member of the family must be presented at the registration.

6. Each applicant must file a declaration of goods on hand as of Feb. 21. The consumer declaration sheet simply asks for the amounts of coffee on hand as of Nov. 28—when coffee rationing started—and of canned goods on hand as of Feb. 21.

7. OPA is not requiring the use of official copies of the consumer declaration sheets and local boards are being instructed to accept any reproductions of the sheet that may appear in newspapers. Copies of the sheet are being made available to every newspaper in the United States for reproduction and released February 15 and after. Supplies of official sheets will be on hand at all registration points to take care of persons who did not clip copies from their newspapers.

tion form, or if there no more than five cans each, the report will be "none."

These are to be counted: Canned olives, canned meat and fish, pickles, relish and jams, jellies and preserves, spaghetti, macaroni and noodles, home-canned food, if not canned for sale.

Persons who are not living as members of their family group must make their own declarations and get their own ration books. Domestic help is not a part of a family.

Official declaration forms will be printed in nearly all newspapers and should be clipped and used for making the formal declaration. Be sure to write in all the information asked for on the declaration.

Coffee on hand November 28, 1942, must be declared, minus one pound for each person whose age stated on Book One is 14 or over.

Remember to take Book One of all persons listed on a Declaration to the registrars, when applying for Book Two. No Book Two can be issued unless Book One is presented at the place of registration for tailoring.

major war relief agencies other than Red Cross.

Chairman Roberts, in explaining the "green light" given the Red Cross appeal in March, quoted a report to the president by Joseph E. Davies, chairman of the War Relief Control Board, Davies said: "... this organization would provide the general framework for the accomplishment of our objective, namely, the reduction of national appeals to two, that of the Red Cross in March and that of the National War Fund ..."

"The Red Cross will, of course, conduct its separate campaign in March for its important world-wide service, and these two will then remain the only national war appeals, as you contemplated. The country now can give its full backing to each of these drives as they come, the Red Cross in the spring and the National War Fund in the fall."

County Men in the Armed Forces

in the South Pacific have gone with the boys. Curtis Harrell, Democrat's roving correspondent, who mentions "jungle picture show six coconut trees" where he sleeps. The mess hall acquired a machine.

South Pacific, January 3, 1943

Our reading material is pretty well balanced, since everyone has some special book or magazine sent to him each month.

It is an interesting fact to note that I am still living next door to "that Estes boy" from home. However, I don't think he is aware of the fact.

Please excuse this letter, as it is just a little "time passer" on this hot and dull day.

My friend said his rich uncle had two sawmills. He lost one drawing to a straight, and finally drew one. Then he lost the other sawmill betting on it.

How about somebody writing to me?

SeaBee Curtis Harrell.

Roger Ellerd writes from San Diego that he visited "Dusty" McMurry and they ran across Wendell Harrison, the three of them had a Hall County reunion which was very much enjoyed.

San Diego, Calif. February 7, 1943

Dear Mr. Wells:

I have just finished reading a couple of copies of The Democrat that mother sent me and I really enjoyed reading them. Especially the letters from the boys in the Army, Navy and Marines. Those letters you publish are about the only way we have of keeping up with the boys from Hall County.

About two weeks ago I went to see "Dusty" McMurry and he and I were looking for Chas. Williams, so we walked up to a chief and asked where a certain barracks was, and when he turned around it was Wendell Harrison. So we had a little "county reunion." I was really glad to see some one I knew.

A MESSAGE FROM OWEN D. YOUNG

*From the desk of—
OWEN D. YOUNG*

We do not produce goods in large volume by individual action. We do it by individuals organized into action. So let us organize War Bond purchasers under the Pay Roll Savings Plan.

For the worker it makes the saving of 10% of earnings easy.

For the Government it creates an emergency belt to assemble funds and quies. After 10 years the belt will bring us for every 3 feet on.

So we can daily win the war and daily save for the time after the war.

Owen D. Young, noted industrialist, affirms in the above statement his belief in united support for the War Bond program.

"We do not produce goods in large volume by individual action. So let us organize War Bond purchases under the Pay-Roll Savings Plan. For the worker it makes the saving of 10 percent of earnings easy."

I am going to hospital corps school now. We leave San Diego in two weeks to work in a hospital somewhere for three weeks, and from there we go somewhere to be stationed, if we don't go to the Marines.

Well, I just thought I'd write and let you know that I really enjoy The Democrat and I don't know any news that would be of any interest, so I will sign off. By the way, I agree with Curt Harrell, Jack Holcomb and Ray Childress—let's all buy bonds and help put bombs in Pat's bomber, so we can have our revenge for Rusty Sanders, Virgle Ford and the others who weren't so lucky.

As ever,
Roger Ellerd, S2c.

WACCs and WAVES

The following letter is from Aux. Jacqueline McMurry, A-802631, Co. 1, Reg. 2, Des Moines, Iowa. Auxiliary McMurry was transferred last week to a college at Conway, Ark., to take a course in instruction.

Dear friends:

With only a few days left for our basic training, this letter starts back on January 13, when 47 Texas Rangerettes arrived in Des Moines.

From the time the Rangerettes stepped from the train we started learning "army life." Our first taste of the new and exciting adventure was the ride to the Fort in a very spacious and extremely ventilated, if not so upholstered, G. I. truck; the kind that goes forward and backward but mostly up and down.

Once at the checking station of the Post the girls found that the taxi service ended there and girls walked from there on and I do mean walked, literally, figuratively and positively.

To the checking station to barracks was the first thing done by command. Harassed with luggage containing civilian clothes we thought we were going to wear when time allowed. The Rangerettes were given the command "forward march, route step." This was demoralizing as was evidenced Hindenberg was a soldier who had little taste for politics... and little love for Hitler, forced on him as Chancellor.

This shrewd old Prussian summed up Germany's defeat: "America's brilliant, if pitiless, war industry had entered the service of patriotism and had not failed it... They understood war."

Now history is repeating itself. America's war industry again is pouring out the weapons of war—meeting production goals that seemed fantastic at first.

Back of this fast-growing military power is electric power, turning the machines that turn out everything from bullets to battleships under the American system of free enterprise... a way of life off to mess we marched—chilled to the bone. The food is good and there is plenty of it. So mother, I'll be saying "Praise the Lord and pass the food" when I come home on furlough.

Follow Label Directions

The next three days were a series of "Fall in—Fall out" and brother—we fell. Just as the body was being lowered into a reclining position "FALL OUT, ON THE DOUBLE" and the sight of 47 girls trying to be agile while swathed in an enlisted man's overcoat and galoshes is something for every family album.

The girls are still laughing about the first three days and the E. M. coats. You see it was this way: Due to the fact that our overcoats had to be altered the girls had to have coats that would be suited to the cold weather, so we were issued men's overcoats. And mind, I said issued, not fitted. Everyone wore size 34, big, little or between, all size 34. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer couldn't have produced a better show than the sight of 47 girls in these coats.

By this time, we were all anxious to march, for there seemed to be nothing hard about putting one foot in front of the other. Of course we didn't count on the ice, but there we were, stumbling to the count of "Hut, two three, four."

The first three days were the hardest. They were the processing days during which our wardrobes were issued (and fitted), government tests were taken and typhoid and tetanus shots were given. But all this seems to fade away as we were transferred to the Savery Hotel in Des Moines for basic training. The government has taken over this hotel for training the WAACs and the people of Des Moines are still a little peeved—but we're happy and quiet fortunate to be here. No one ever told me the army would be like this—and it won't be after basic training.

Three weeks of that time has elapsed and the girls that were laughing at themselves and being laughed at were judged the best platoon in the company at the parade Saturday, January 31. Not bad for only two weeks training.

We were terribly frightened at the thought of K. P. But, the only difference in K. P. in the army and K. P. for me in my home kitchen is—when I wash dishes at home, I wash three plates, glasses, knives, forks and spoons, and a few pots and pans, but in the army you wash over a thousand of each; when my table at home is set, it is for three, but here it is set for over a thousand—each—each day. I'll admit I was tired at the end of K. P. duty—but so was Osa Johnson after a day of wild game hunting. Anyway, I love it all. I never could begin to tell all that has happened and the many things I have already learned in this letter.

Trimly uniformed now, each Texas Rangerette takes personal pride in knowing that she is the best element in her sphere, that she is in the best squad in her platoon, she is in the best platoon in her company, she is in the best company in her battalion, she is in the best battalion in her regiment, she is in the best regiment in her division, she is in the best division in her service command and that she is the best WAAC in the army.

Sincerely,
Jacquelee.

GET UP-TO-THE-MINUTE INFORMATION FREE

STUDEBAKER dealers have received new service instructions direct from the factory that enable them to help you get the best possible performance out of your car under mileage rationing.

It's essential to the nation's war effort that cars themselves be conserved as well as the tires they roll on and this means regular maintenance and lubrication as well as painstaking inspection service.

Studebaker dealers will gladly advise you on what to do to keep your car from wearing out before its time and to prevent it from performing unevenly. And you place yourself under no obligation by consulting any Studebaker dealer on your driving problems.

By "unfettered" he meant freedom from political bureaucracy and socialistic control which throttles individual initiative and enterprise.

His successors in the electric field have done a great job in carrying out his prophecy of an even greater future for electricity. But unless it remains "unfettered," his voice, too, may be heard: "I told you so."

...cation increases our responsibility to large and small operators, President R. B. McMurry of the PCA said. "We are in position to finance all who have a sound program. There is ample credit available but farmers and ranchers should see that there is no waste of land, labor or materials on faulty operation plans."

The Victory Club sponsored by the Memphis PCA for members and others has a total of 45 members. To qualify for the honor roll, a producer pledges to invest the money received from the sale of specified crops or livestock in War Bonds. This helps finance the war and creates a cash reserve for the farm or ranch family.

Hedley Preacher Guest Speaker at Rotary Luncheon

Archaeology was the subject for an address at Rotary luncheon Tuesday by Rev. R. L. Kennedy, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Hedley.

The speaker told how writings of the Egyptians before, during and after Christ's life have been preserved in the ruins of Egypt, and how scholars have been able to decipher such writings. These translations have been the means of Bible scholars getting better ideas of scriptural sayings and quotations, the speaker said.

"The St. James version of the Bible was made in the language of St. James' day, and not in the language of today," Kennedy said, "and I would not take from my add to that version. However, the study of a modern version as found through the study of archaeology will help people understand the Bible much better."

Husband of Former Local Woman Killed

Lieut. James D. Graham, who lost his life recently in an airplane crash near Ransom, Kans., was the husband of the former Miss Clesie Pugh, who lived in Memphis most of her life and was graduated from Memphis high school with the class of 1931.

According to word reaching here, Lieutenant Graham was acting as navigator on a plane flying through a heavy snow and sleet storm. It became necessary for the crew of eight to bail out and Graham was the last to jump. Some sort of an explosion occurred and he was thought to have been mortally wounded before leaving the plane at an altitude of about 3,500 feet.

Lieutenant Graham's parachute is reported to have opened, but most of the strands were severed when he struck the ground. Other crew members landed safely, but one sustained a broken leg.
