

New $35,000 School Is Dedicated At Weatherly

On the LEVEL

a colyum by
William Russell Clark

Just any day in Memphis when you're walkin' down the streets, you'll find all sorts and types of folk, the sour and the sweets. You'll find 'em talking moisture, the weather man and crops, or maybe you'll be button-holed by one of them there cops. I start out in the morning on the way to get my mail, and these are my reactions that I'm telling in this tale:

It's howdy-doo and hello there, why ain't you got a shave? You're lookin' kinder pekid, but you shore know how to rave. I'm glad you had that story in, that other wasn't much. Now, if you'd write it so-and-so, you'd see it such-and-such. I don't agree with what you said, I'm glad you made it strong. Young man, you're doin' it all right. Now look here, son, you're wrong.

You fellers must sit up all night; I've never seen you closed. And say, look here, put on fresh socks, a hole in one's exposed. How much will Memphis' census show? I bet it ain't so high. You know this bull they're tellin' 'round, ain't nothin' but a lie. We ain't so big as we let on, but big enough I guess to pour it on some other towns, who had no more, but less.

I want to know why I can't get my paper every week. It ain't so darn important but there's things in it I seek. Now see here, my subscription don't expire till '35; I gave it to a woman who was helpin' in that drive. She said she turned it in all right and here is my receipt. Them agents shore was powerful. I never saw the beat.

And have you got a house to rent or rooms to let by chance? Do you have vacant space upstairs or are you in a trance? I lost a cuff link weeks ago, how much now will it cost, for me to tell the public of the article I lost? And how much do you get for ads and do you demand cash? I'm askin' lots of questions, but young man, I ain't so rash.

And let me whisper in your ear that Mrs. Smith's name and you didn't mention Lucy's name and that has roused her ire. She says you're gettin' back at her because she is so cute. You better patch it up some way or she is sure to shoot. She says you ain't at all as fair to Lucy as to Sue. She's coming down to tell you what she's thinkin' about you.

You got my name all balled up, why don't you learn to spell?

Memphis Schools To Close Next Week

Methodist Revival Closes At Service On Sunday Evening

The revival meeting in progress at the First Methodist church all of last week came to a close Sunday night. Church officials and the pastor, Dr. Ernest E. Robinson, expressed themselves as being well pleased with the outcome of the meeting. The services were designed primarily to put new life and energy into the affairs of the church rather than making of the meeting a concerted drive for numbers, as is so often the case in revivals.

Gave Forceful Sermons
Rev. J. W. Watson, of Lubbock, who did the preaching, gave forceful sermons and increased the spiritual well being of the church as a whole, by his broad viewpoints and tolerance, as well as his adequate interpretation of the Scriptures. He was not a sensational preacher in any sense of the word.

A feature of the meeting that contributed largely to its success was the singing of the large chorus choir under the direction of Mrs. C. L. Sloan, Jr. At the services Sunday morning, Dr. Robinson thanked the choir, the newspapers, and others for their cooperation. A class of fourteen was taken into the church on Sunday, with others to follow.

OPERETTA WILL BE PRESENTED WEDNESDAY

Glee Club Will Enact "Belle Of Bagdad" At High School

Final rehearsals are in progress this week for the operetta which will be presented by members of the Senior High School Glee Club on the evening of Wednesday, May 21, in the school auditorium beginning at 8:30. The operetta, "The Belle of Bagdad" is under the direction of Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley, who is the director of the glee club.

Final Musical Event
This will be the final musical event of the year to be taken part in by high school students. Practices have been going forward for the period of several weeks past and it is confidently expected that the forthcoming production will outclass any similar production staged during the school year. With fifty in the cast, the main parts have been assigned to Clarence Jackson, Mazie Perkins and Blanton Bagwell.

This is the most pretentious undertaking in which the High School Glee Club has engaged its energies. "The Belle of Bagdad" is a complete operetta in every sense of the word, and its enactment will mark a new high point in the musical education of those participating in it.

Local Gridsters To End Their Training With Game Friday

With about thirty men out for early training, the boys have been divided into two squads and will play the game Friday in order to let the rookies show their stuff. According to Coach Walter, every man out will be permitted to show what he can do. Very few plays are to be used and the boys will get the opportunity to show what they are capable of doing while playing straight football.

The game will be played at four o'clock at Fair Park. Every follower of the pigskin is invited to come out and watch the rookies perform.

County Agent Thomas stated that the four 4-H clubs are functioning nicely with 75 boys enrolled. Clubs are maintained at Salisbury, Eli, Leslie and Wolf Flat. Twenty-six boys are growing grain sorghums while the other boys have pigs, dairy calves, cotton and baby beeves as projects.

Robinson Named to Make 3 Addresses To High Graduates

The popularity of Dr. Ernest E. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church, as a commencement speaker is attested to by the fact that he is scheduled to make three addresses to graduating classes, the first of which will be delivered on Thursday evening of this week to the graduating class at Pliska. On Friday night, May 16, he will deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the Groom High School, and on Sunday night, May 18, he will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Paducah High School.

Cyclone At Hedley Does Big Damage To Compress Plant

A storm of cyclonic proportions descended upon Hedley last Saturday morning at 1:30 o'clock and did damage to the extent of about $5,000, to the Hedley Compress Company's plant, according to Col. C. T. Matkin, manager. The Hedley compress was the only building in the town that was hit by the Cyclone. One section of the ventilator shaft was torn completely off and was blown across the highway, necessitating a number of men removing the wreckage in order to clear the road for travel.

Posts Blown Over
Half of the compress shed also felt the fury of the storm. Posts were blown over to an angle of forty-five degrees, and other damage was done. Thirty thousand dollars of tornado, wind and hail insurance is carried on the compress and an adjuster was in Memphis Tuesday, getting at the amount of damage done. It is anticipated that the compress will be repaired at an early date. It will be rebuilt entirely at it was before the storm. Col. Matkin stated that the adjuster for the insurance company told him that the storm had also wrecked a brick school building near McLean.

Memphis was signally honored by having one of its bankers, W. C. Dickey, as a speaker on the convention program. Dr. Dickey made his address on the opening day Tuesday. Country banking and its attendant problems, the extension of farm credit in a manner to benefit both bank and farmer were among the problems under discussion by the bankers. Fifteen hundred delegates were in attendance at the three day meeting.

Among the men who delivered addresses during the convention were Haynes McFadden, Atlanta, Ga., secretary, Georgia Bankers Association; Lynn P. Talley, Dallas, governor Federal Reserve Bank; F. F. Florence, president Republic National Bank, Dallas, and W. P. Napier, well known San Antonio banker.

MODEL BUILDING WELL EQUIPPED THROUGHOUT

Dr. Jackson of Texas Tech Is Principal Speaker Tuesday

The new $35,000 school building at Weatherly was officially opened and dedicated with appropriate exercises held at the school on Tuesday afternoon and night of this week. The principal address was made by Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the Department of Government of Texas Technological College at Lubbock. Other speakers on the program were J. M. Parsons, superintendent of the Weatherly school, who presided; County Superintendent Theodore Swift; Mrs. Roy Guthrie, former county superintendent; J. A. Lacey, of Turkey, member of the county school board; E. M. Dennis, of Memphis, president of the county school board; Fred Landers, editor of The Estelina News and publisher of The Memphis News, and Russell Clark.

Number of Visitors
A number of visitors were present from Memphis, Estelina and Turkey and the neighboring schools. After the guests had arrived, they were taken through the new building which is a model of utility and convenience. The class rooms are large and airy. Adequate provision is made for caring for the "little tots" as well as for the older students. The building is equipped with electric lights, the power being furnished by a DeLoe Light Plant.

Well Equipped Auditorium
The auditorium is one of the finest to be found anywhere in this section. It has a seating capacity of 430. It is well ventilated and has the most improved type of opera chairs. The stage is large and commodious with two spacious dressing rooms. The curtain depicts a Texas field of bluebonnets. The backdrops and stage scenery is all adequate as is the stage furniture. Red, white and blue footlights are employed effectively.

Completed in March
The school building was completed about March 1. In connection with the school proper is a 5-room teacherage built some two years ago at a cost of about $2,000. The Weatherly school was consolidated with the Letta school in 1927 and the district now has a total of 156 scholars. Two buses serve the school in bringing students to the classes. One of the buses operates in a radius of 30 miles and the other in a radius of 20 miles.

Council Plans For Girl Scout Summer Camp In Palo Duro

Board To Remain Apart From West Texas Chamber Current Year Awaiting Developments

Routine business matters were discussed at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, held at breakfast Tuesday morning in Rube's Coffee Shop.

To Await Developments
The board decided to remain apart from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce during the current year. Present efforts toward placing the West Texas organization on a proper working basis again were commended, but it was deemed best to await developments during 1930, with a view to renewing relations with the regional body next year in the event it is functioning in a manner that meets the approval of the local chamber.

Deplore Agitation
Agitation by Panhandle communities north and west of Memphis to seek approval by the next Legislature of the state's purchase of a comparatively small plot of ground in the upper Palo Duro Canyon for the purpose of creating a state park was deplored. It was pointed out that a park in the canyon will not serve the greatest number of people or exhibit the real grandeur of Palo Duro unless it is made to include practically the entire length of the great gorge.

Battle for Park Site
The Memphis Chamber of Commerce will wage an earnest battle to have the entire canyon approved as a state park site instead of a few selected beauty spots in the vicinity of Amarillo that are already familiar to many Texans. A committee composed of R. S. Greene, F. N. Foxhall and J. Claude Wells was named to represent Memphis in the Palo Duro project.

BYPU TRAINING SCHOOL
The B. Y. P. U. training school at the First Baptist church showed a marked increase in attendance on the second night of the school. On Monday night there were 64 present, and by organizing and giving each one a definite assignment, the attendance increased to 116 on the second night. Miss Conn is greatly pleased with the interest being manifested, and is hoping and believing that attendance on Wednesday night will reach 150. The number enrolled is 120. Adults are showing more interest, and it is hoped that this week of training will inspire many of the adults of the church to come to the training school each Sunday evening, and help to put over the program with the young people.

We are fortunate to have Miss Grace Conn to lead and direct this school. She knows her work, she loves her work, and puts such zeal and pep into her work that she inspires to higher and better service. The training school continues through Friday night. We are hoping that every person enrolled will take the examinations.

HOWARDS TO AMARILLO

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard left this week for Amarillo where they will make their home until September. Mr. Howard will be connected with the Panhandle Motor Co.

Coach Schedules 3 Football Games For Next Season

Coach Nolan Walter went to Canyon last Saturday where he attended a meeting of coaches and superintendents of this district. As a result of this meeting, three definite dates for football games were scheduled. On October 10, Memphis will play Wellington at Memphis; on October 17, Memphis will play Turkey at Turkey and on November 11, Memphis will play Estelline at Memphis. Coach Walter also stated that he has a tentative game with Clovis, New Mexico, here on September 19. The Clovis team won the high school football championship of New Mexico last year.

At the meeting Saturday, it was decided to make each school put up a $10 certified check at the beginning of the season so that in case of protest, the losing team would forfeit the money. The salary for officials at the football games was also decided on. It was agreed to pay them $15 per game and five cents per mile for travelling expenses.

A new district chairman was elected in the person of Bob Vaughn of Panhandle. Superintendent H. A. Jackson, of Memphis, was added to the executive committee. Coach Walter announced that the same plan will be followed in determining the championship as has been in effect for the past three years.

Outcome Of Case Favors Defendant

After listening to lawyers' arguments for two days in the case of the City of Childress vs. Jackson Collier, County Judge A. C. Hoffman instructed the jury Saturday to return a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The case developed from disagreements between Childress City officials and Jackson Collier over certain water rights on the Collier property. Collier is said to have leased tracts of his land to the City of Childress, for a period of ninety-nine years, at $1,000 per year. A disagreement arose when the Childress officials failed to drill wells on the Collier line. Heated arguments were frequent on the part of the lawyers trying the case, it is stated.

Amarillo Woman Declares Orgatone (Argotane) Gave Her Relief After Surgical Operation

"I noticed benefits before I had finished the first bottle of Orgatone (Argotane) and now I am in fine condition generally," Mrs. Rose A. Trunk, well known Amarillo woman residing at 303 Lincoln Ave., said.

"In September, 1928, I underwent a surgical operation and had my gall bladder removed," she continued. "I was instructed by my doctor to take something to stimulate the bile flow owing to my general condition which was naturally a run-down one.

"Accounts in the newspaper of its good work led me to try Orgatone (Argotane). I gained strength almost at once and now I feel much stronger every day. I have a fine appetite and what I eat seems to agree with me. My bile flow has been regulated and my nervousness has entirely disappeared. Yes, I gladly recommend Orgatone (Argotane) to all who are troubled as I was."

Hundreds of people, like Mrs. Trunk, have gained from Orgatone (Argotane). The scientific treatment that has proven almost unerring in cases of stomach, liver and kidney trouble, gall duct and bladder disorders and the like.

Genuine Orgatone (Argotane) may be bought in Memphis at the Tarver Drug Company.—Adv.

Dallas Publisher Visits In Memphis

William Berlin Goolsby, one of the guiding spirits of the Southwest Press, of Dallas, has spent some time this week visiting friends in Memphis. In speaking of the publishing house he represents, Mr. Goolsby said: "The Southwest Press is an interesting example of the fact that success will follow a business operated along fundamentally correct principles. I was convinced, some years ago, that there was an opportunity for a publishing house who distributed only the work of authors who lived in the southwest and who wrote about southwestern things. The success of this institution has amply proved the correctness of this stand."

It is interesting to note that one of the publications of the Southwest Press was the past month selected by the "Book-of-the-Month" Club and this volume, "The Vaquero of the Brush Country" is hailed as one of the high lights of the year's literature. Mr. Goolsby advises that his organization will continue to publish only the highest type material with a Texas background and by worth-while Texas writers.

Let's Chat Awhile

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

The quick way people respond to calls for help shows that there is tender sympathy in the world and if pessimists were harder to convince listening in on the various stations making appeals for Frost would prove "God is in his heaven."

Hillsboro Chamber of Commerce has been a busy place with so many destitute families being aided. Hill County was hard hit by the storm, the death list almost equalling that of Frost. Many have died from injuries since the terrible catastrophe and there are still a number of wounded at the sanitarium. So far, we have had no outside aid, money, clothing and bedding, with many other necessities, coming in regularly and abundantly.

My first news of the storm was received at the post office where Bynum was said to be partly blown away. Bynum is situated a mile from my daughter's home, perhaps she had escaped. I hurried home to phone, but all lines in that direction were down. Central was a dear, assuring me that she thought my family safe and that the storm did not hit right in Bynum. Friends of mine and of my daughter began phoning asking for news. My niece found somebody at the sanitarium who told her my family had escaped and an old friend phoned that a friend of his had seen one of the Mr. McCommases and he said they were safe. Next morning a call came from my daughter saying: "Mother we are still alive." Something was wrong with the wires and I didn't understand another word but I had heard what I wanted to hear. I am deeply thankful to have my family still intact while a mile away so much suffering occurred.

The day after the terrible storm was one of those shining ones, that made it difficult for a person to realize that destruction had raged the day before and wiped out a large area, taking its terrible toll of human lives.

I have not seen Frost but my sister has and tells me it beggars description—many have gone over.

Surrounding towns received heavy rains on Thursday, judging by the dark clouds in two directions, but we have not heard a roaring noise like that at 3:30 on Tuesday afternoon. A sudden darkness was followed by a roaring which caused Mama to ask: "Dollie, is that thunder?" "No," I said, "a car going down the highway I guess, but doesn't it make a strange noise?"

There are so many different kinds of noises on our highway that we attribute all of them to it. We had heard the cyclone without realizing it! Several other people heard the peculiar noise and stood upon their porches to get a better view of the cloud.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

In spite of the agitation raving around two kinds of short-cake, two kinds remain. The first to get my preference is a very short, light biscuit—dough cut in the form of biscuits split and covered generously with crushed strawberries and topped with whipped cream. The other is a light one or two egg cake baked in layers or in a egg pan with crushed sweetened strawberries between. One cannot go far wrong in either selection for crushed strawberries might idealize hoe-cake.

Strawberry Preserves
After thoroughly washing, crush and measure a cup of berries to a cup of sugar. Let stand a short while, then cook thirty minutes and seal in sterilized jars. Do not get the idea that all the berries must be thoroughly crushed. Only a few need be so that a juice will be formed and besides that keeps the fruit from rising to the top of the jar as does also the equal amount of sugar to the same of berries.

I would like to call your attention to rhubarb. It is a sort of spring medicine and not used as it should be. Sweetening rhubarb is left to the individual taste and it seldom needs flavoring. Eat it stewed and by the way do not add water when cooking. It spoils the flavor and is unnecessary.

Try rhubarb pie if you want something different—reminds one of grape pie made before the seeds begin to form. This vegetable or fruit loses in combination with other fruits.

Stuart Will Head Athletic Council

At the first meeting of the new Memphis Athletic Council, the members of which were appointed by Chas. Flanery, president of the Memphis School Board, R. D. Stuart was elected chairman for the ensuing school year. Mr. Stuart has demonstrated an interest in all school activities ever since he became a resident of this city, and his appointment will meet with approval generally.

At the meeting Tuesday night, the matter of a football game during the Hall County District Fair was brought up for discussion and other matters concerning the forthcoming football season were discussed.

Golf Gossip

This spring has seen more local interest in golf, thus far, than ordinarily. Many former more or less regular disciples of the tired business man's national sport have resumed their participation in the game and are making strenuous efforts to lower their average score.

The banquet tournament and the annual tournament have been largely responsible for the increasing interest. The forthcoming bogey tournament, to be announced shortly, will also help to further golf locally.

Several Memphis golfers who are known to have announced their intention to play in the Greenbelt Tournament at Quannah the latter part of this month are Frank Foxhall, Raynes West, T. M. Harrison, R. S. Greene, Horace Tarver, S. J. Bailey and Major Wood. About 10 or 12 are expected to represent this club.

Regnal Greenhaw's determination to win the second flight and a matched set of iron clubs was a little more than G. D. Beard could cope with in the finals Sunday. The Greenhaw-Beard match demanded more attention than the Foxhall-West match in the first flight, and the "tension" you've often read about was quite prevalent when Regnal took Mr. Beard to the 20th hole after they had halved on the 18th and tied the 19th.

Some of the duffers will be awed to learn that it is possible to shoot the Memphis course in 63, five under par. That is exactly what Frank Foxhall did Tuesday. He was 32 out and 31 in, lowering the previous course record of 66, which he also held, by 3 strokes. Here's the way he shot the club's lowest score to date:

244 443 433—31

If that won't encourage the golfer who "meases up" every third shot, nothing will!

J. R. Jones and Hersal K. Whaley attended a managers meeting in Childress Tuesday.

Mrs. R. D. Greene, of Estelline, was in Memphis shopping last Monday.

Mrs. Herman Hostler, of Hedley, was shopping in Memphis last Tuesday.

Mrs. Davis, and daughter, Pauline, of Salisbury, were Memphis visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cassels and Miss Winnie Cassels spent Sunday in Eldorado, returning home Monday.

Charming

"I'm so happy now when I look in the mirror and see how much better I look with my cheeks filled out and complexion so nice and clear," says Miss Mildred Lisenbe, who lives at 713 Melba St., in Dallas. "The food I eat is nourishing me now since I started taking a teaspoonful of Herbine occasionally to keep my stomach in shape. All that indigestion and constipation I used to have is gone. When meal time comes I am ready to eat, and I don't have a bit of trouble afterward."

Herbine is a vegetable liquid which does nothing more than help the stomach and bowels take care of the food you eat. Then your blood gets plenty of vitamins with which to build flesh and muscle to fill out your scrawny figure.

Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Perhaps this is a lying world; many lies circulating through the air, but there comes from Denver what is called a white lie because it was told to save a mother. One of a condemned bandit trio has written letters to his mother to cover a period of eleven years. She knows he is in prison, but is not aware that he is condemned to die. She will not be told of his execution and each month the letter she receives will assure her of his health.

It is hoped that somebody will not, with good intentions, inform the 70 year old mother that her son has passed away and her news of him is but a hollow sham. If he had but exercised, sooner, half the forethought he displayed so late, he could have cheated prison and the electric chair or the hangman's noose. I do admire his thoughtfulness almost in spite of myself and I know you will. This is a rather pretty story to be printed as we are approaching Mother's Day. It is hoped his mother will receive a cherry letter on her day.

stellite Meets Amarillo Sunday

Another fast baseball game is slated at Estelline Sunday as that club meets Amarillo. Estelline has played nine games without suffering a single defeat. Amarillo has a similar record. Estelline boys are expecting the hardest struggle they've had this season.

Two Distinguished Masons Visit City

Memphis Masons enjoyed the distinction Wednesday night of having as their guest of honor a man who first visited this city as a Masonic worker in 1923, and returning this week, he came to visit the members of the fraternity in this district as the most worshipful grand master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Texas. He was none other than Judge Hiram Fitzgerald Lively of Dallas. Grand Master Lively came to Memphis with Wilbur Keith of Dallas, well known statewide masonic worker, having been engaged in the work of the educational department of the Grand Lodge since the early part of 1922, the year the Grand Lodge engaged in the service and educational work.

Educational Program

The occasion was a district educational program. The inclement weather conditions no doubt reduced the number present by at least half. The register showed some seventy-five present, however, there were a number who arrived from lodges in the rural districts late. Eleven arrived from Estelline, headed by Dr. A. M. Shelton, and several others came later in the evening. O. L. Dunn and J. A. Thompson came from Lakeview with a number of members from that place. Turkey, Hedley and a dozen or more other lodges were represented.

Receives Grand Master

Wm. Gerlach as worshipful master of the Memphis Lodge received Grand Master Lively with the honors due his office. District Deputy Grand Master and Judge Elliott introduced the distinguished visitor. D. H. Arnold presided over the meeting and introduced Wilbur Keith as the first speaker. Wilbur Keith reviewed the early history of Masonry in America; he told the story of the beginning of Masonry in Texas, the first efforts to establish a lodge being 96 years ago, followed by other efforts in 1835 when finally the fraternity obtained a permanent foothold with the re-establishment of Holland Lodge at Houston following the Battle of San Jacinto 94 years ago. He explained in detail the educational program of the Grand Lodge and at the conclusion of his address the speaker was liberally applauded for his remarks.

Lively Speaks Officially

Grand Master Lively spoke officially as head of the Order representing 1000 lodges with a membership of 140,000 Masons in Texas. He stressed a higher standard of Masonry, warned the members that they are expected to live up to the constitution, edicts and laws of the grand lodge; pleaded for a real spirit of brotherly love among the members, and appealed to the stronger principles of those present to rally behind the ideas and ideals of Masonry and make it stand for the thing outside the lodge room that it teaches to its initiates inside the lodge room.

Grand Master Lively has visited more lodges in Texas than any man who has ever occupied the important station now held by him.

By profession he is a lawyer, enjoying a heavy practice in Dallas, but he sacrifices a great deal of his time in behalf of his Masonic work in which he is devoutly interested. He left Memphis Thursday morning for a meeting at Dalhart from which place he will return to Amarillo for an afternoon and night meeting Friday, closing the week's tour in Northwest Texas at Lubbock Saturday afternoon and night.

Praises Attitude Memphis Democrat On Public Issues

The Democrat is in receipt of a letter from C. D. Erwin of Mineral Wells, in which he compliments the paper for the stand it has taken on public issues. He also enclosed one dollar for the milk and ice fund.

Mr. Erwin's letter reads as follows: "Mineral Wells, Texas, May 12, 1930. "Democrat, "Memphis, Texas. "Dear Boys: "You have now got The Democrat as nearly perfect as it is humanly possible to make it. I have always admired courageous papers that refuse to take dictation from politicians, judges or fanatics. I submit that it is not merely an editor's prerogative, but his duty to express his sentiments fearlessly on any public question. "Every intelligent reader would like to know how his paper stands on any question that engages the attention of the public, and most of us would be glad to know the sentiment of a majority of the readers of any given paper. "You have always expressed your opinions fearlessly. Hence, I think The Democrat about the best weekly paper there is. However, two weeks ago, when I finished reading it, a certain passage of Scripture came to my mind: 'One thing lackest thou,' but your last issue removed that 'lack' and now The Democrat suits me just as well as if I were publishing it myself. What you said about Judge Small caused me to put O. K. at the bottom of the last page of the last issue. I am no enthusiast but I certainly should like for every voter living south and west of Red River to cast a ballot for C. C. Small. "With best wishes for The Democrat force, I remain, "C. D. ERWIN."

Four patrols were formed and the organization will be completed Friday night. R. C. Householder will be Scoutmaster and Jim Martindale, assistant scoutmaster. The chairman of the troop committee is E. H. Whittington. Other members of the committee are Roy Guthrie, Maynard H. Drake, Ben Weiss and L. M. Hicks.

Patrol leaders have been appointed as follows: Ben Fred Wright, Junior Godfrey, Joe Whaley and Woodrow Alexander. The American Legion is furnishing work to all Scouts who are unable to pay their fees without it.

W. B. Goolsby, representing the Southwest Press, of Dallas, was in Memphis on business Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Vance Johnson left Monday morning for Clayton, New Mexico, where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Lubbock visited in Memphis with Mrs. Lee last Sunday.

George Forgy and his mother, Mrs. C. E. Forgy, left Wednesday for a six weeks tour of South Texas. They will stop about a week at Mineral Wells and will then continue to Corpus Christi, where they expect to stay about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ball of Lubbock visited in Memphis with Mrs. Lee last Sunday.

Who has not, at some time, gone to a fishing hole, with an old fisherman? Is there talking and noises of all kinds? No. Why? Because that seasoned old sport knew it would scare the fish away. He knew they could hear, long, long ago.

Grandmother takes up a pole to go down on the creek to get a bite of fish for supper. Several of the children want to go—"Will you be as quiet as mice so you won't scare the fish away?" Grandmother knew they could hear!

Dr. Frisch may have discovered something for Europe but we've been knowing it all along. Perhaps, fish in tanks are not like the ones we knew, we're willing to admit a few things.

My sympathy has been extended to the census takers, they have had some difficult times. Resentment and anger have been encountered on their rounds. Somebody is always telling some anecdote of the census. The latest is of some colored district where the head of the house stepped out to call his family and over thirty trooped in for the amazed taker to enumerate. Still, that was better than being defied and imagining somebody was trying to pry into family affairs. Looks like there are many who do not relish being tabulated citizens. They want the privileges for ten years without seeing their names attached to a document proving their existence. Census takers struck for higher pay in one state before they signed their oaths. The rate was increased over a former rate and yet the census takers were not satisfied.

Annual Initiation Of "M" Club Is Held

Initiating ten members into the "M" Club, an organization composed of boys who have earned an "M" in some kind of Memphis High School sport, six old members of the organization formally exercised their duty Monday afternoon. H. A. Jackson, superintendent, gave the boys a half holiday and fifteen lettermen, together with Coach Nolan Walter, made the trip to Browder Springs. Plenty of good things to eat and drink were carried along with the boys.

Eight Pound Bass Is Caught By Doss

Leonard Doss, it develops, is good for something besides cleaning and pressing. You've heard lots of stories about the fish that got away, but this one is about a fish that didn't get away. Leonard's one catch at Childress Lake Friday—an eight and three-quarters-pound bass measuring 23 inches—exceeded all day attempts for a number of fishermen. The fine specimen was caught with a minnow.

Scout Troop Goes On Outing Tuesday

Boy Scout Troop No. 2 of the First Methodist church went on an outing to Broome's Park Tuesday night. Scout Executive I. E. Jolly and J. B. Reed accompanied the boys. The Scouts cooked their supper and afterwards indulged in a game of "capture the flag."

Heavy Rains Fall Here During Week

Hall County, in keeping with practically every other county in the Panhandle, has continued to be the recipient of heavy rains. The rains during this week have blown up at night, for the most part. Early each evening, the night seems fair enough, but before morning, hard rains fall. Many farmers have had to replant their crops, due to the heavy precipitation.

Christian Endeavor Societies will hold meetings at 7:00 o'clock in the evening. The Pastor's Cabinet will meet Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in a brief special session. The church choir will meet for the regular weekly rehearsal on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mother Knows Her Secret Now

"For a long time I couldn't find out what was making my little girl so drowsy and cross," says Mrs. J. N. Mathis, who lives at 1141 Busby street, here in Shreveport. "She suffered, too, with pains in her stomach, she was restless, and would whine and grit her teeth in her sleep. I tried laxatives and other medicines, but to no good. I had a friend in Texas who recommended White's Cream Vermifuge, and—Normadelle started feeling better right away. Her cheeks are now plump and rosy. She is so full of fun, play and pep I can hardly keep up with her."

When children stay sickly looking and can't sleep at night, even after you have given them laxatives to clear the bowels, that's usually the sign of round or pin worms. White's Cream Vermifuge is perhaps the best medicine you can give them.

SUNDAY RECITAL PRESENTED BY TWO GIRLS

Geraldine Kinard Is Assisted By Betty
Dale West, Reader

A splendid recital in every detail was that which delighted some fifty invited guests Sunday afternoon at four o'clock in the piano studios of Mrs. Margaret Morgan-Andrews, when Geraldine Kinard, 10 years of age was presented in piano numbers, assisted by Betty Dale West, 12 years old, in readings. Betty Dale is the pupil of Vernadine Jones.

Geraldine is really a child prodigy as was testified to by her excellent musicianship, her poise, and graciousness of expression and interpretation shown in each number she played. Her touch was delightful to the ear. The rakes notes so often struck by children of her age were noticeably absent. Her fingering was a marvel to behold. She did not make of her recital a practice performance, but rather, she acquitted herself as the fine little artist she is.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Andrews presented Geraldine with a diploma, testifying to the fact that she had completed the required work in the Dunning System, and this testimonial was given to her in recognition of her proficiency. It was a pupil's diploma of graduation. Mrs. Andrews stated that the entire program which Geraldine gave had been prepared since the start of the present school year. Geraldine was the recipient of a number of exquisite flowers during and after her recital.

Adding much to the program, were the readings given by Betty Dale West. Betty Dale has a stage presence that might well be envied by many older folk. Her enunciation is perfect, her expression pleasing and tinged with that fine texture of sympathetic understanding that is essential in presenting any kind of reading.

The program was as follows: Knight Rupert, by Schumann; Geraldine, Mrs. Andrews at the second piano; Prelude No. 1, Musette, both by Bach, Geraldine; Mazurka, Opus 68, No. 2, by Chopin, Geraldine; The Happy Land, by Batchelder; Betty Dale; Pizzicato by Delibes, Geraldine; A Jolly Party and Fireflies, both by Grand-Schaeffer, Geraldine; The Little Coss, by Thompson, Betty Dale; Berceuse by Cimarosi, and Hungary by Koelling, Geraldine.

Local Citizens To Give Examinations To Scouts Of City

As this year's school is drawing to a close and vacation time is nearing, Boy Scouts of the city are beginning to don their old clothes and to take added interest in outdoor activities of the organization, according to I. E. Jolly, executive of the Southeast Panhandle Area of the Boy Scouts of America. As the number of Scouts in the city is increasing so rapidly that Scoutmasters have found it almost impossible to give individual Scouts as much attention as they deserve, the local Scout Executive has selected a number of prominent Memphis citizens to give examinations to Scouts wishing to take on more Scout work.

These men, who have been appointed by Executive Jolly, will make up the faculty of the Examining Board of the Court of Honor of Memphis, of which Rev. J. Hardin Mallard is chairman. Executives of the examining board are: W. C. Dickey, who is in charge of First Class tests; H. A. Jackson, who is in charge of all Second Class tests; Will Kesterson, and Dr. M. McNeely. These executives decide whether or not a Scout is qualified, according to Scout laws, to receive merit badges, after the Scouts have passed their required tests.

Other members of the examining board, and the tests which they will conduct are: E. W. Thomas, who will conduct examinations in Agriculture, Animal Industry, Bee Keeping, Beef Production, Corn Farming, Farm Mechanics, Farm Records and Bookkeeping, Fruit Culture, Gardening, Sheep Farming, Soil Management, Farm Home and Its Planning, Farm Layout and Building Arrangement, and Hog and Pork Production; I. E. Jolly, who will conduct tests in Archery, Bird Study, Bugling, Camping, Marksmanship, Pathfinding, Reptile Study; J. H. Croft, angling; T. Kittinger, architecture and carpentry; Mrs. Bill Guill, art; Nolan Walter, athletics and physical development; T. M. Potts, automobile; Sam Holder, aviation; C. D. Martin, Blacksmithing, Foundry Practice, Metal Work; William Russell Clark, Bookbinding and Journalism; L. C. Linn, Botany and Chemistry; W. C. Dickey, Business and Conservation; H. J. Gore, Civics and Scholarship; Rube Sisk, Cooking; T. N. Harrison, Cycling; W. R. Cabaness, Electricity; M. G. Ray, Firemanship; Dr. D. C. Hyder, First Aid and First Aid to Animals; Dave Price, Handicraft, Wood Work and Wood Carving; Rev. J. Hardin Mallard, Hiking, Pioneering and Stalking; R. S. Greene, Leathercraft, Leather Working and Textiles; Frank K. Fore, Music and Radio; Dr. R. E. Clark, Personal Health; W. D. Orr, Photography; L. Holt, Plumbing; L. P. Lane, Poultry Keeping; Reese Poole, Printing; Dr. A. Odom, Public Health; H. A. Jackson, reading; Will Kesterson, Safety; J. P. Watson, Salesmanship; Jim Martindale, signaling; W. A. Thompson, Surveying; J. C. Wilson, swimming; J. H. Norman, Tavaderny.

Scouts who wish to take tests in any merit badge work will make application to the man listed above and that man will give the examination at any time the Scout desires. "Scouts should clip this article from the paper and file it in their handbook for further reference," said I. E. Jolly.

Draper's Menagerie Attracts Hundreds

Hundreds of people were attracted to the Draper Grocery Company's store here throughout the day Saturday, May 10, due to the unique display which was in one of the show windows of the establishment. It was referred to by many as "Draper's Menagerie."

J. A. Cassels, who works Mr. Draper's farm some three miles east of Memphis, discovered two small rabbits on the farm recently. He thought that they would make choice food for an old mother cat on the place, who had just recently given birth to two kittens. Mr. Cassels was surprised to find that instead of eating the rabbits, the cat mothered them.

When Mr. Draper was informed of what had happened, he had the mother cat, the two kittens and the two rabbits brought to his store, fitted out a box for them in his window, and that is the why of this story and accounts for the menagerie.

Bill Rice left Sunday for Gainesville and was operated on Monday in a sanitarium there. Mrs. Rice received a wire Tuesday that Mr. Rice was doing fine.

You've made me out a laughing stock, now you go straight to—well, it looks like if you had some sense, you'd know my name by now. I bet at times you have to think when you are spelling "cow." I never saw a man as lumb as you can be at times. Why don't you start to chewing gum and saving wooden dimes?

And then I gather up the mail and feel that I'm subdued. I think I know just how it feels when once a man is sued. I ponder over it awhile, but maybe not a lot, then walk up to a fountain and ask for a strong shot. The coke revives me up a bit and gone is my cold sweat. This is one phase of life I lead, lest you forget, lest you forget.

BUILT ON VALUE GROWING ON VALUE

THIS AND THAT

Mrs. Dunbar Johnsey just talked to me over the telephone. She is surprised that Memphis has done nothing to aid storm sufferers in Central Texas. "If a calamity should befall Memphis," Mrs. Johnsey asked me, "how could we expect other towns of the state to help us if we do nothing for those people who are homeless now?"

Mrs. Johnsey wants me to tell you people that the Dorcas Society will give $10 to a local fund to be sent to the storm sufferers. The society is willing to start the ball rolling and expects other Memphis individuals and organizations to fall in line. The Democrat will add $5 to the fund.

If you want to be included among the contributors call 15 or drop by The Democrat office and leave your contribution.

"When dresses were lengthened recently I thought my eyes would get better," a friend of mine told me, "but they didn't and I had to buy a pair of specs after all."

A Memphis woman drove her car in Veta Electra Company yesterday and asked W. J. Turnupseed, "Could I get a battery charged?" "No, lady," he replied, "we only sell for cash."

"Need any oil?" Bob Henderson asked a gas customer who drove in his station. "No, I drive my car a thousand miles without changing the oil," the customer answered. "Well," Bob soliloquized, "if you can drive it that far without changing the oil, think how far you could drive if you changed it."

One quiet day last week two women walked in B & M Grocery, looking neither to the left nor right. They got almost to the back of the store when one of them looked up in astonishment and said, "Oh! I beg your pardon! We thought this was the undertaking parlor."

"I knew business was quiet," Gyp McMurry told me, "but I didn't know it was that dead."

Just because Erasmus Tack can find lost dogs for everybody in this country is no sign I can find lost straw hats. But my friend, M. A. Shaw, who used to live in Tack's town, wants me to try to find his top-piece. He says it's a tan flexible straw with a brown band and he wants to recover it chiefly because it's brand new.

He is offering a reward of one dollar. Now, if Tack were doing this he'd add another dollar of his own money to the reward. Just to be different I ought to offer a reward of one dollar to everyone who doesn't find Parson Shaw's hat. No fooling, though, if you find a stray straw bring it around to The Democrat. And if you find two, bring both of them. I'm still wearing a fall felt.

I imagine a lot of you people think bottle cappers are used for bottling home brew. You're absolutely mistaken. Yes, you're dead wrong. Here's the proof, clipped from the Rockdale Reporter, Bill Cooke's dad's paper: "The tomato and grape season is here. Get one of these bottle cappers for putting up your grape juice and catsup."

I had a visitor Tuesday. She was Mrs. George Langley of San Antonio who is visiting in the E. Gerlach home. Mrs. Langley made a special trip to the office to ask me if I thought Clint Small was a good enough man for east and south Texas people to support. Of course I told her that Senator Small certainly deserves the support of all of Texas. When she learned I was a Republican she was a little surprised to hear me say that. I told her that if I am willing to support a man who doesn't even belong to my party it certainly is a sign that I think he'd make a good governor.

Republican gubernatorial candidates don't have a chance in Texas. I wish they did have—because I think it would give us better government. I don't see much sense in voting for a candidate who's "licked" before he starts, so why shouldn't I cast my ballot in favor of West Texas' choice—Senator C. C. Small?

West Texas is too big and its interests are too important for one to allow party politics to interfere with the support of a favorite son, especially when that favorite son is well qualified for the state's highest office. I'm a Republican and I'm backing Clint Small. Laugh that off.

Speaking of loyalty to West Texas reminds me that I am getting sick and tired of transients making derogatory remarks about our country. They come to the Panhandle and West Texas because it is the most consistently prosperous section on earth. They come here to make money—and they make it, but they delight in razing our country when a sand storm blows up. They say they just wouldn't live where the sand blows. "Why," they say, "we don't have weather like that" in Mississippi, Louisiana or Florida or California or wherever they come from.

If I were a mollicoddle I'd hate to admit it like some of the salesmen and saleswomen who come to Memphis and other Panhandle towns do when they become so distressed over a little clean sand. I'd like to say to them that this country is made up of people who know that there are no roses without thorns. I'd like to remind them that the pioneers who first settled this country withstood more hardships than they ever dreamed of.

Those kinds of folks don't like our sand but they sure do like our money. They spend eight hours a day making more money in the Panhandle than they ever made in their lives anywhere else, then they spend the other 16 telling each other what a rotten awful country this is. I don't know of anything that is more un-sportsmanlike or unappreciative than that. If they don't like the Panhandle it will just suit me fine for them to stay just as far away from it as they can possibly get.

The little occasional sandstorms we have don't bother true West Texans. They take them as a matter of course and continue to be glad that they are privileged to live in the greatest country on earth. Listen, stranger. We folks like the Panhandle and we like Memphis. That's why we live here. If you don't like it, don't show your bad taste by saying so in our presence. Just leave. It suits us better.

The American Federation of Musicians is conducting a campaign for membership in the Music Defense League. A recent advertisement says music-wise Europeans are objecting violently to mechanical music in the theatre. The advertisements contain coupons for the enrollment of those people who object to "canned" music exclusively in the theatre.

I am one of those persons who objects violently to an entire theatre program of canned music, although I am not Continental. I certainly do miss the pipe organ music in the fine theatres of our large cities. Pipe organs are the fondest things I'm of, but talking pictures have put cobwebs on them. I'm mighty fond of talking pictures, too, and I wouldn't think of returning to the silent movie. But can't we work some real music into our theatres again?

JACK BRYAN UNDERGOES APPENDICITIS OPERATION

Jack Bryan, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bryan, is convalescing from an appendicitis operation which he underwent at a local hospital late Friday night of last week. Although it was thought immediately following the operation that Jack would be in a serious condition for several days, attending physicians said that he is improving nicely and that he will probably be released from the hospital within a short time.

Jack went to the hospital late Friday afternoon for an examination, having been unable to work for two days previous. After a thorough examination, attending physicians insisted that they operate that night in order to prevent a rupture of the appendix.

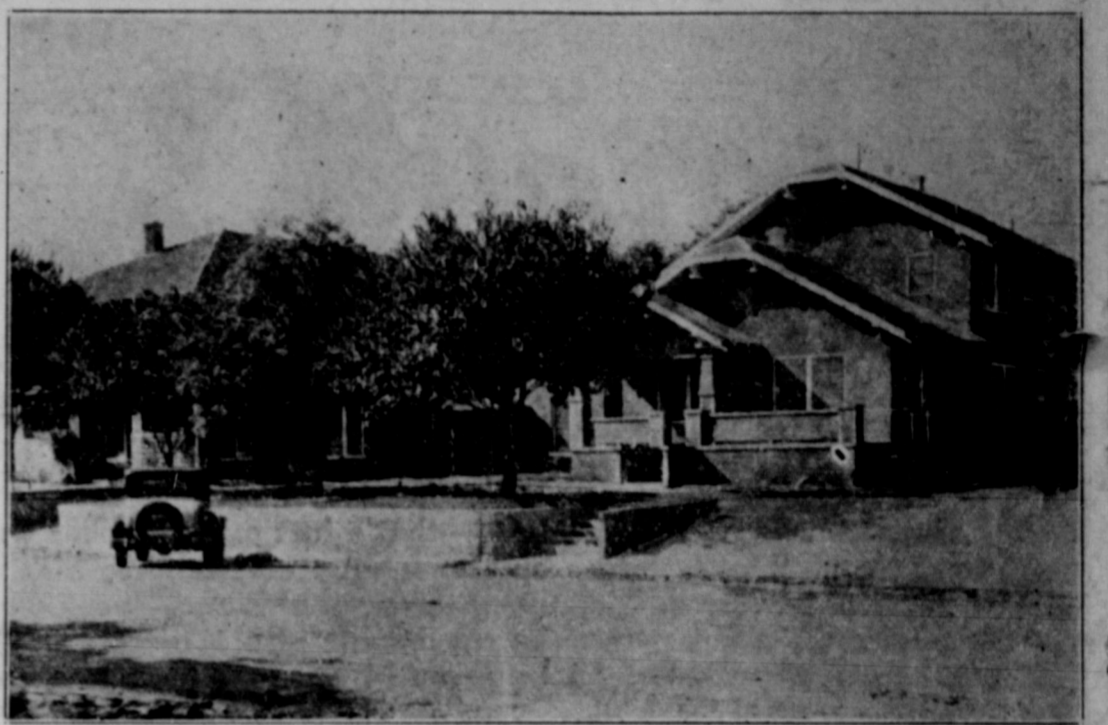

The operation was made late Friday night and by Saturday morning, Jack was doing nicely.

Miss Esther McElrath spent the week end in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cross left Tuesday for Lubbock.

Pauline Ross And Margot Shaw Make Splendid Grades

Two Memphis' Seniors, whose names were not listed in the story last week relating to the honor students of Memphis High School, have made excellent grades ever since they entered high school. The students referred to are Pauline Ross and Margot Shaw. Pauline Ross' average for the school year that is drawing to a close is 93.1-3 just a few points under the grades of the students who were declared valedictorian and salutatorian respectively. Pauline has missed being on the honor roll only once or twice since she first entered high school, and in addition, has taken a leading part in all student activities. Margot Shaw transferred to Memphis from the Amarillo High School early in the spring, and her average of 91.1-2 was made during the past term. She, also, has taken an active part in student activities since enrolling in the local high school.

Mrs. J. H. Bradley, of Amarillo, visited Sunday in Memphis with Mrs. R. L. Simmons, on her way home from Fort Worth.

Rev. H. A. Shaw returned Saturday from Austin where he attended the State Convention of the Christian Church.

state and I was forced to rise many times each night. This naturally made sleep difficult. My nerves were in very bad conditions and this seemed to affect my eye sight. I could scarcely go about my work and I was worried and discouraged. I seemed to have no energy for anything.

"I tried a great many medicines and treatments but nothing seemed to do me the least bit of good. I finally decided to give Konjola a trial and the benefit which I received from this medicine is almost unbelievable. Konjola built up my health until I am in better condition than I have been in years. My kidneys are normal and I can sleep without interruption. My entire system seemed to respond to this modern medicine and my friends all remark upon the improvement in my appearance."

Konjola has become the most talked of medicine in America

because it makes good. Taken after meals over a period of from six to eight weeks, this great medicine has made a remarkable record in the most stubborn cases. Konjola is sold in Memphis at Leverett-Williams Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

TEST OF CONOCO'S GERM-PROCESSED TENACIOUS FILM . . .

. . . Compared with Popular Oils at Pike's Peak . . . Reveals 76.4% Less Motor Wear! . . .

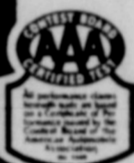

We sincerely believe that this disclosure alone will cause you to begin using CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil . . . such decided reduction in motor wear . . . such triumph over the savage attack of friction and heat . . . such positive supremacy over the oil you have been using, all have a definite appeal to your pocketbook and judgment.

Charts prepared from the Pike's Peak Test records indicate a longer life for your motor by lubricating it with Germ-Processed oil. Too, you will save substantially on your gasoline cost, and in oil expense, by using this oil. And the fact that Germ-Processed oil penetrates metal surfaces means, that after starting your car on a cold morning you can safely drive at top speed with less likelihood of damage . . . for CONOCO'S film is already on the job.

Less Carbon—Less Cost—More Mileage and Less Heating—More Compression. All these things mean a better all-around motor. It is truly unusual for a motor oil to so excel competition as CONOCO did in the Pike's Peak Tests. Tested out on the Pike's Peak Highway, scene of many famous automobile tests, was a memorable struggle for supremacy. . . On the one side, three of America's representative and popular oils—on the other, Germ-Processed oil. And CONOCO Germ-Processed Motor Oil won, by all tests applied.

Only CONOCO can make Germ-Processed oils. CONOCO can give you these new motor oil merits, including penetrative lubricity. We hope to serve you soon, at stations displaying the Red Triangle.

SEND NOW for the new Free Booklet which describes in detail the story of the Pike's Peak Tests. Illustrated with photographs and charts. Address Continental Oil Company, Ponca City, Okla., or at the station with the Red Triangle.

3. A better understanding between Memphis and the towns and communities in Hall County.
4. More respect for city ordinances in connection with parking of cars in the downtown district, observance of fire rules and regulations, and keeping the streets of the city in a clean condition.

6. A municipal auditorium.
7. More paved streets.

DANNY BOY WADES IN

THROWING whatever of discretion and good judgment he may have possessed at one time or another to the proverbial four winds, the Honorable Dan Moody announces to an unsuspecting democracy that he will again be a candidate for the office of Governor of Texas. His announcement is not viewed with any great amount of alarm. Dan has proved that as a governor he would make an excellent caretaker of a second-rate burial ground.

He will get a smattering of support from all sections of Texas with the possible exception of West Texas, but nothing more than a smattering. What little strength he has is spent. He is one of the political "has-beens." We doubt seriously if he could be elected justice of the peace.

Moody seeks to set a precedent in being elected Governor for a third term—something that has never yet been accomplished in Texas politics. The people of Texas are tired of "Moody's Follies." They are tired of seeing the boy prodigy ranting around at Austin, accomplishing practically nothing, and then trying to get elected for a third term on a platform of penitentiary reform. "Moodyism" has become just as much of an issue as "Fergusonism" ever was. After the July primaries, Danny Boy will find what the people of Texas think of him, and his curly red hair may have a few extra kinks added to it by that time.

We suggest that somebody page Al Jolson to sing Moody's swan song for him as it should be sung—full of pathos and tears.

ANOTHER DISGRACE

THE law abiding element in Texas look with horror upon the recent disgraceful occurrence at Sherman, when a blood-thirsty mob fired the courthouse in an effort to rid the state of a negro charged with criminal assault on a white woman. We are for white supremacy first, last and always, but we think the affair at Sherman was the most uncalled for happening ever to cast reflection on the fair name of Texas.

The negro was being given a trial by jury, to which every man is entitled. He had pleaded guilty to the offense as charged and he would have been speedily removed from the scene if the law had been allowed to take its course. Sherman, as a result of what transpired there last week, will have blood-spots on its name that will be hard to erase.

By burning the courthouse and the negro in it, the purpose of the mob was served—but what a purpose! No good can possibly come of such an event, but rather disgrace and dishonor. The crime, and such it was, is infamous. It cannot be justified on any grounds and those who seek to condone the actions of the mob are seeking to tear down the structure of our laws.

PLAY BALL

IT now seems assured that Memphis is to have plenty of entertainment this summer, with a semi-pro baseball club leading the procession under the name of the Memphis Owls. Business interests generally have rallied to the support of those who have been seeking a local club, and when the new park is put in condition, everything will be in readiness for the umpire to say "Play ball."

There are no more familiar words in the English language, as it is known and understood by Americans than these two, "Play ball." Nearly every town and community has had, at one time or another, a ball club. Baseball continues to be the great American pastime, regardless of the inroads made upon the game by football and other sports.

The people of Memphis should rally to the support of the Memphis Owls. It is our team, our club and regardless of the outcome of the season, we should be just as loyal to this ball club as we are to any other of our home institutions. Those people here, and there are many, who enjoy real baseball games will get their money's worth and then some if they attend the games here regularly. The admission charges will be within the price range of all. Let's make this an eventful summer for Memphis, by supporting the home club for all we are worth.

GOOD RACES IN PROSPECT

THE announcement made recently by Bill Keaterson that the race track at the Fair Grounds is being improved will be heralded as good news by the many who are interested in racing. Mr. Keaterson assured The Democrat that when work on the course is completed, Memphis will have one of the best race tracks in the state.

With an adequate track, we may expect some good races at the Hall County District Fair this fall. Races, of any nature, always appeal to the majority of patrons of a fair, and this is certainly the case in Memphis, as attested to by the interest that was manifested in the races last year. It is believed that a number of A. A. racers will enter the competition when word spreads that the track has been put in condition.

If the Hall County Fair Association would permit a free gate this fall and charge only for attractions, such as races, that take place in front of the grandstand, we believe such a course would mean dollars and cents to the Association. The racing card is scheduled to be the big feature of the forthcoming fair, and we are glad to be able to observe that adequate preparation is being made to make this a certainty. Hall County District Fair patrons are entitled to the best, and this is what will be accorded them.

Play Is Presented By Public Speaking Department Monday

A one-act play was presented to the student body Monday, May 12, by the Public Speaking Class, entitled "The Kelly Kid." This year the class did not get to enter the contests that it usually enters each year, on account of the change of teachers and a late start in the study of dramatics. This play was one of the cleverest plays ever given to the student body.

This play was one with a setting in a house of an Irish woman who had two lady guests for tea; and they were gossiping when the boy who caused more trouble in the neighborhood than any other one rushed in with the police following him. Albert Pearson played the part of "The Kelly Kid" well. The three ladies who did so much of the gossiping were Chloe Johnson, who played the part of Mrs. Murphy, the hostess; Mrs. Cahill was played by Catherine Easterling, and Mrs. Callahan was played by Ernestine Walker. Mazie Perkins played the part of Ellen Murphy, the daughter of Mrs. Murphy. Clarence Jackson played the part of a "hard-boiled" policeman, and James Hammond played the part of another "hard-boiled" policeman.

This will end the career of this year's Public Speaking class which has strived to get an affiliation for the school in this subject.

Harry Womack To Serve As Editor For 1931 Annual

Harry Womack, according to announcements made this week, will edit the Sandstorm, the high school year book, next year. The appointment of Harry to the editorship was made at a teachers' meeting about two weeks ago.

Harry is well qualified for the position, as he has had one year's experience in the capacity of assistant business manager. He is also studying some book editing courses at the present time.

No other members of the staff of next year's book have yet been selected, according to Harry. We are not as yet sure who will serve as business manager to the publication. Several boys have intimated that they would seek the position.

Finishing his third school year, Harry has made a good record in school. He has entered in all high school activities.

He is now president of the Hi-Y Club, and has served that position very well. He has been a Hi-Y member two years. Harry is also a member of the Glee Club, High School Band, and other clubs.

Harry made the track squad this year, failing, however, to make a letter, as he did not win a first place at the district meet. He is coming out for the football team next fall, and is out for the spring training squad now.

In speaking of the possibilities of the book next year, Harry said, "I am expecting to do what every other editor has expected to do, and that is to put out the best book that the school has ever had. I am going to do my best to give the high school one of the best books that it has ever had. I have already started working on the book in order to have it ready for early publication."

PLANS BEING MADE FOR SENIORS COMMENCEMENT

Plans are well under way for the final exercises of the seniors of the 1930 graduating class. Miss Ora Lee Brav, sponsor of the class, is in charge of the plans; however, she is being assisted by Supt. H. A. Jackson and Homer Shankle, president of the class.

I. W. Jay, high school principal, announced this week that caps and gowns would be handed out to the class Monday for rehearsal and preparation for the exercises.

Senior examinations will be held the latter part of this week to determine those who will receive diplomas. Many of the class of sixty-five will be exempt from the examinations.

Judge J. M. Elliott, and Miss Mae Nell Elliott spent from Thursday until Sunday visiting in Fort Worth and Dallas.

Wm. H. Cooke spent Friday in Clarendon visiting relatives and attending to business.

Mrs. Erin Jones Couch spent the latter part of last week visiting with friends in Dallas.

ON and OFF THE CAMPUS

BY THE EDITOR

One more issue of the Whirlwind, and readers will be permitted to rest for three months. Just think, the editor will not have to spend his Sundays working; the readers will not have to waste their time on such crude literature; it will be a relief all the way around.

Speaking about it, we bear in mind that with the ending of the Whirlwind, another school year has gone, and another senior class has passed out. Next year things will be different, a new senior class and everything.

As the closing time is near for the Whirlwind, let a few remarks be said about some of the people who have rendered valuable service on the Whirlwind staff. There are others, too.

Albert Pearson "wins the cake." He has written more stories for the Whirlwind than any other reporter. He has expressed himself well on the sport lines. He has kept the readers well informed as to the athletic conditions in Memphis High School. Too much praise cannot be given him. If conditions are favorable, Albert will have a good chance to become editor of the school paper next fall.

Other reporters who have rendered valuable assistance to the editor are Chloe Johnson, assistant editor, Mary Winston Walters, and Lola Mae Grundy. Their timely stories helped out when tight places stared the editor in the face.

Then Miss Lucille Pope, the Sponsor of the Whirlwind, should receive some credit for the success of the school paper this year. It was her advice, proof reading, and such that made the page more interesting to read. Whatever stories have been hammered out by the editor, she should not be blamed for her part. In the mind of the editor, she has well filled her position.

By the Senior Class of 1930, who are the owners and publishers of the Whirlwind, gratitude is expressed to The Memphis Democrat for the space in the paper each week. Their kindness has enabled the high school to post their news weekly and to keep the people informed as to what has been happening around the old school.

"And next week," said Frank Simmons, "I shall probably walk out of the high school building with my education of four years in my hands." Frank is somewhat of an optimist, but here's hoping that Frank will always hang on to his education. It might help him some day.

Frank went over in a large way in the Senior play. He was the modern hero, the kind that kisses the girl and "lives happily ever after." During one of Frank's love scenes, some one sneezed loudly in the audience and somewhat disturbed the atmosphere under which Frank was working. He said that after that he was not in the mood for making love, or he would have made a bigger hit.

Friday the Seniors play Coach Walter's team. Frank will be there, ready to battle for the old class. He is going to play tackle. I don't know what kind of player Frank is, but if he can play football as well as he sneezes sodas, he should be o. k.

Walter Massey will also play. This will be Walter's last football, that is, his last football game in high school. He will play full-

SCHOOL SPORTS SUMMARIZED AS YEAR CLOSES

Walter Massey Is Outstanding Man Of Past Season

BY ALBERT PEARSON

With the final day of school rolling around the school athletics are also coming to a close. The purpose of this bit of a story is only to summarize the athletic year of the high school.

Some time before the day of the opening of school, Coach Nolan Walter had many men at the local Fair Park field working out every day to make football players out of them. Somehow he succeeded. The football team was made up of mostly inexperienced men, but even this did not discourage the new coach, who went on and put out a winning team. By "winning team" we mean a team that won more than they lost. Memphis had a team of this kind. When they decided to win a game, it was practically won. Although one or two times they did not decide to, and the game was lost. We had very few of this kind of games, though.

The football year as a whole was a big success in Memphis High. Several men will be back to try for the team next year and with the material now out for spring training, a winning team should be put out for Memphis High School.

Basketball took up the swing where football left off, and it proved to be a great sport in the school this year—only one letterman was back from the team of a year ago, and again the coach had to make a team out of rookies. Although the boys did not make as good a showing in basketball as they did in football, they played a consistent brand that kept their opponents on the jump all of the time. Several tournaments were attended, and some mighty good showings were made by the team representing Memphis High School. This sport is gradually working its way into the hearts of the students of this high school, and in not so many years to come, the students will back basketball as they do football.

Following the basketball season, track came into prominence. With the largest bunch of boys out for track that had ever been out in the history of Memphis High School, the coach started work. After a while boys began dropping out one by one, until only ten boys were left to attend the district meet. Following this meet, they were all dismissed, with the exception of one. Of every meet that Memphis entered, they did not fail to "place" each time. This fact was due to the efforts of this only one person, and that was Walter Massey. In the last five track meets, excluding the state meet, Massey was the highpoint man. Massey won a name for himself by his athletic ability. The track season was also a success, due to the fact that the team "placed" in every meet in which they took part.

Along about the time that the track team was working out, a few boys decided to have a baseball team, and they began working out every day.

Although there were only a few out for baseball, the boys played amongst themselves and practiced with regularity. After a few days of practice, the team was disbanded because of the lack of interest. A team is expected for the high school next year, and it is sure to put out a winning team.

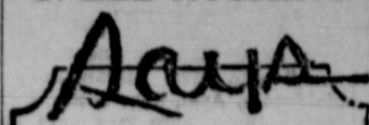

Spring training started just after track season stopped, and many boys are out to learn the fundamentals of the old game. Something like thirty boys are working out daily under Coach Walter and his crew of assistants. A scrimmage will be held at the last of the practices, and any one who cares to see it is welcome.

After looking back through the high school records, I find that the one person who has as nearly a perfect athletic score as any one has, is none other than Walter Massey, the one-man track team, the terrible neck-twister in football, and no one knows what in basketball and baseball. Walter will finish his high school days this May 23, and the school will lose one of the most versatile athletes ever to enter Memphis High School's portals. The back Memphis people haven't seen Walter play in the backfield for the last two years, but they are invited to come out and watch Walter in action.

school should respect and fondle the memory of Walter Massey when he steps out into the world, as he is sure to make a success, because he knows how to manage and how to take care of himself in the manner in which he should be taken care of. The school will miss and wish success to the great athlete of Memphis High School.

Nurse Tells

How CARDUI Helped Her

Mrs. W. A. Cox, a well-known professional nurse of Burnside, Ky., writes: "I was in very bad health, and only weighed 110 pounds. I read in the papers about Cardui, and thought I would give it a try-out. After I had taken one bottle, I could see that I was improving. After I had taken it a month or two, I began to gain, and I weigh at present 168, and have weighed that for some time. I am now 55 years old, and can do as much work as the average middle-aged woman can."

"I would advise any woman, who is weakly and in a run-down condition, to try Cardui, but not to expect one bottle to make her well. I take two or three bottles a year, now, and I feel fine."

DRILLS AND PLAY FEATURE PROGRAM OF KINDERGARTEN

The Kindergarten children, under the direction of Miss Lillian Thomas, gave a program Tuesday morning, May 10, at 11 o'clock. Many parents and friends of the children were present to see the drills and play.

First on the program was a Soldier's Drill, in which all the children participated. Next a Rhythm game, then skipping by music, and, for the benefit of the boys, loping to music. Two band numbers were given, to phonograph accompaniment, with Marjorie Couch directing.

A Mother Goose play followed, with Marjorie Couch as "Old Mother Goose," others taking part were Billy Joyce, Jack Miller, Cullen Chapman, Jim Caviness, Nell Parks, Anita Meacham, Walter Moore, Temple Deaver, Dick Thomas, Harold Smith and Winifred Jane Tarver.

The kindergarten work covered that done during the latter part of the term, the orchestra music being begun in the fall term, the play, drills, and games, being learned during the spring term.

Many interesting hand-work objects were exhibited, showing what the children have made, flower-stands, chairs, door-stops, and toys, among the things made by members of the kindergarten.

BUSINESS WOMEN HOLD MEETING AT HOTEL ON TUESDAY

Tuesday at the Memphis Hotel the Business and Professional Women's Club met in regular session, at 6:15. A lovely luncheon was served, during which various business topics were discussed by the president, Gladys Hammond. A letter from the National president was read accepting the application for federation of the local club. Announcement of the state convention dates as June 9-12, and Harlingen as headquarters for the session.

Word has been received that Clarendon is contemplating organization of a Business and Professional Women's Club, and the local club is to meet with the prospective members and help them organize Thursday evening, May 18.

Local emblem chairman, Della Webster, stated that the sale of emblems is practically 100 per cent, and she anticipated making it entirely so before sending in the order for the pins.

The program for the evening was on "Women in Industry." Frankie Hamilton talked fluently on "Women in Politics"; Ophelia Webb, "Who Gets the Jobs?"; Erin Couch on "Women's Handicaps in Business."

One new member, Miss Saye, was welcomed into the club. A visitor, Miss Cecilian Webb, of McKinney, Texas, was introduced to the club.

METHODIST SOCIETY OF PRESBYTERIANS IN MEETING ON MONDAY

Mrs. W. R. Cabaness gave a most pleasing discussion of the historical setting of the book. Mrs. Barnes outlined the plot and character revelation of the story. Mrs. J. H. Mallard described "The Hermitage," which is the setting of the story, and was able to make the description most vivid because of the personal visits which she had made to the historic spot in her childhood and youth. The program was ended with a short discussion of various points, by Mrs. Barnes.

Mrs. G. W. Kesterson, as official delegate of the Delphians to the federation meet at Pampa, reported on the meetings and socials during her stay there. Mesdames R. H. Wherry and Roy Guthrie and Miss Maud Milam added interesting comments on the Federation convention.

METHODIST SOCIETY OF PRESBYTERIANS IN MEETING ON MONDAY

The Ladies Missionary Society met Monday at 3 p. m. in the church parlors of the First Presbyterian church. The meeting opened with singing "Count Your Blessings." Prayer was led by Mrs. H. E. Deaver. Minutes were read and approved, and plans were made for an associate member list. The offering for the afternoon was $11.50.

Roll call was on Latin America. The devotional was led by Mrs. Let Thompson, who read Psalms 47, and led in prayer. This was followed by song, "Is Your Life a Channel of Blessing."

Mrs. A. J. the leader for the afternoon study, then took charge of a synopsis of several articles on Women and Missions. Mrs. Mallard told the story of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow in Mexico, which was very interesting.

Drake, who gave three solos, accompanied by Mrs. Elmer S. Shelley, and Harry Womack who played three numbers on the saxophone, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Morgan-Andrews. Dr. Jenkins, president of the newly formed Rotary Club at Clarendon, made a two minute talk following the address of Mr. Hamilton.

In discussing the civil law, Mr. Hamilton said:

Is Broad and Varied

"The Civil Law is as broad and varied as human experiences. The first record I know of the administration of the Civil Law is of Moses who sat daily and heard the pleas of the Jews and determined their respective rights on the facts as stated to him. Later this task became so great that judges were appointed to settle the disputes of the various parties. Since that time there has been more or less progress in the administration of the Civil Law. The first outstanding step in systematic adjudication of individual rights and disputes was the codification of the laws by Emperor Justinian. This code, however, dealt with the criminal laws as well as the Civil Law. The code is commonly known as Justinian Code or the Roman Law and forms the basis of a large portion of our laws.

Type Has Changed

"The type of lawyers engaged in the civil practice has changed. In earlier times the lawyers had no decision of the courts to direct them but he went before the court with his own logic and oratory. Then it took very little preparation but he depended on his own ability to reason and convince the courts and jury with oratory. But now, and it is becoming more and more so, the practice of civil law is largely done in the office and less civil business is carried to the courts. The lawyer takes the facts and investigates the law from the decisions and statutes and advises his client as to his rights.

Every Phase of Law

"The civil law in its broadest sense covers every phase of law known to man except of course criminal law, and in a great many instances in order to be able to properly pass upon rights of parties (civil law) it is necessary to be well versed in criminal law. So then we might say that the practices of civil law involves a knowledge of criminal law as well as a knowledge of the law generally referred to as civil law. This, of course, is a very simple matter as the whole body of the law may be easily divided into seven main heads: namely, Persons, Property, Contracts, Torts, Remedies, Governments and Crimes. Then with only seven subjects to work under it is a simple matter to solve any question. If the question is about persons, just look in the heading, 'persons' and you will find the law—so it is with reference to the other subjects.

"But to give you some idea of the magnitude of the law practices: We have in our offices one set of books that advertise that they treat of 485 distinct questions of law. This series of books is now being published. The first volume was published in 1914 and the series is about half complete. "In Texas, prior to the last Legislature, we had on our civil statutes 8,324 articles dealing with various subjects. During the last regular session 314 laws were passed. Not all new ones but either changing the old laws in some respect or passing new laws altogether. And in addition to these articles of our civil statute provides:

"The common law of England so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this state, shall together with Constitutions and Laws be the rule of decision and shall continue in force until altered or repealed by a system of unwritten law not evidenced by statute, but by tradition and the opinions and judgments of the sages of the law.

Have No Little Task

"So it will be seen that the civil lawyers have no little task in preparing for his profession and no little responsibility in answering questions that confront him. Yet people generally think because you are a lawyer you should be able to answer any question without investigations. No lawyer should render an opinion on any question without referring to his books.

Decisions of Courts

"In addition to the common law and our statutory law we have decisions of eleven courts of Civil Appeals and one Supreme Court to keep up with. These decisions are published in bound volumes by the State of Texas, and also by the West Publishing Company. Lawyers generally use the West Publications because of their annotation system. To date we have 320 of these bound volumes. They are now being published at the rate of about eight volumes a year. However, we get these decisions every week in what is known as advance sheets and if one had nothing else to do and could read continuously ten hours a day, one could just about keep up with the various decisions and acts of the Legislature, but we must content ourselves to simply keep up in a general way with these decisions and know how to look them up and apply them when the occasion arises.

Sit in Judgment

"The courts of Civil Appeals sit in judgment over the trial courts. That is when a case is tried in the county or district courts the records of the case are sent to the Court of Civil Appeals who examines the records for errors of the trial court if errors are found the case is sent back for retrial.

"One of the purposes of the Supreme Court is to keep the decision of the various courts of Civil Appeals in harmony. That is, if two courts of Civil Appeals render conflicting opinions, the Supreme Court will review the decisions and decide which is correct. The decision of the Supreme Court is the law.

was correct when he said Never-Failing Curiosity "The whole body of the civil law will excite never-failing curiosity, and receive the homage of scholars as a singular monument of wisdom. It fills such a large space in the eye of human reason; it regulates so many interests of man as a social and civilized being; it embodies so much thought, reflection, experience and labor; it leads us so far into the recesses of antiquity, and it has stood so long "against the waves and weathers of time," that it is impossible while engaged in the contemplations of the system not to be struck with some portion of the awe and veneration which are felt in the midst of the solitude of a majestic ruin!"
