MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

Those people who plant good seeds in their gardens get good crops. Those who plant seeds of service and friendliness in their home towns, are rewarded by success in work and business and friendship.

Thanks go to our readers for the response to our plea to help us raise our quota in bond selling. We are more than ever convinced now that it pays to advertise. Another thing—people are just naturally accommodating in Schleicher county.

De Witt S. Morgan, superintendent of Indianapolis public schools, recently said that the young people 18 to 30 years old, are the best generation of youths any civilization ever produced. That they are generally stronger physically, they think faster, and can work longer.

This should be a comfort to some who thought following the first World War, that the young people were running wild. In those days men's hands were held up in horror, because of the alleged excesses of the so-called flappers of both sexes. Some people seemed to feel the devil had many of them in his clutches.

Modern youth has believed in peace, and wished no part in war. It saw ahead a happy land and expected to produce comfort and welfare by earnest work and education. Then came the grisly specter of war, and millions of them had to forget that dream for a good long time.

Did they complain? They climb the hills of death or sail submarine infested seas as if going to a football game.

The young wives and sweethearts left at home, may have lumps of lead about the heart, but they greet the world with a smile. They put on overalls and tackle the dirtiest jobs as if it were a dancing party. They keep their little families going strong, and say "Good bye" to the soldier with a firm voice that puts courage in his heart.

The country has asked for devotion in a supreme crisis. Youth rushes to defend us and the flag with an energy that wins imperishable glory.

When Hitler stood before Napoleon's Tomb in Paris, and later when he pushed east almost to Lenin's Tomb in Moscow, he thought the fight was "in the bag."

Many of the world's best military strategists thought so too—for no conqueror in history ever reduced so many nations to subjection so ruthlessly, so completely, in so short a time. YET HITLER WAS WRONG. But if Hitler was wrong with all Europe at his feet, what is the mental condition of any American who now jumps to the conclusion that "the fight is in the bag" for the Allies, merely because of a few victories on the outer fringe of Hitler's New Order? Such thinking is extremely dangerous, for it strikes at the very production of America and her armed forces—by encouraging men and women to let up in their labors at the very time when we should be hitting the enemy harder than ever before. All these preliminary triumphs are but mere stepping stones. The corner stone of Victory has yet to be laid. Let's go on—Schleicher—and raise our bond quota!

Good Representation At Firemen's Meet

Despite early morning thunder storms and rains the day before, Eldorado was host city to a large representation of fire departments throughout the Hill Country Fireman's Association Tuesday of this week.

Fourteen towns are represented in the district including Eldorado. It was learned here this week that conversations from many visiting firemen stated they had not planned to come to Eldorado until they received a last week's Success which invited them and made them feel welcome to come.

A timely and outstanding program had been arranged by the Eldorado department and discussions by visitors helped the entire association to better understand some conditions and present-day methods of carrying on an intensive fire prevention campaign in the State.

A committee was selected to present resolutions to the legislature in order to seek state aid in the prevention program.

Brady Next Convention City
Brady was selected as the 1945 convention city. Ray Salter of that place was elected president of the association succeeding Cash Taylor of Sonora, retiring president.

Cherry Addresses School Group
Chester Cherry, West Texas Utilities company official and an ardent fireman, who spends much time in traveling over the district in the interest of fire prevention, appeared before a student group at the high school here Tuesday and was relieved of a silver dollar he had carried through several quiz programs he told a Success reporter. Kathryn Davis, high school student answered the question of how many kinds of fire there are. Namely they are: Wood, gas, and electricity. She also quickly answered how to extinguish them. Cherry was high in his praise of local teachers on posting students well on this matter.

Banquet For Visitors. Others
Following the hose (and not horse) race in the afternoon was a banquet served in the Presbyterian church at 7:30.

Eldorado copped first place honors in the hose race, making their connections and getting water through the nozzle in 25.8 seconds. Junction followed in second place at 30.8 seconds, Brady third at 31.8 and Sonora fourth at 35.1/4 seconds.

Carroll Ratliff, local merchant, acted as toastmaster to more than 100 banqueters composed of firemen, and wives, visitors, and city and county officials.

Climaxing the days activities a dance was held to which many of the firemen attended and drew a large crowd from surrounding towns.

NEW LICENSE PLATES

New license plates have been received by the county tax office and are to be attached as by the same method adopted last year. The tabs are green with yellow numbers.

ENEMY RADIOS DETECTED BY NEW LOCATOR

Fluorescent Tuning Reveals Illegal Transmitters

CHICAGO—Details of new electronic weapon for detecting the use of radio transmitters by enemy agents, have been revealed by development engineers of the Hallcrafters Radio Company. The instant a spy attempts to transmit radio messages, a sharp cone-shaped line flashes on the surface of a fluorescent glass screen before the eyes of operators at monitoring stations of the Federal Communications Commission.

The new method, known as fluorescent tuning, enables the FCC monitor to observe simultaneously all radio transmitting efforts across a band of 100 meters.

Panoramic receiver of a type used by the FCC.

All stations—military, commercial, marine and radio-telegraph—appear on the fluorescent screen in the form of glowing peaks rising from valleys of radio silence. Other radio location finders enable FCC investigators to determine the geographic location of any illegal transmitter and apprehend the agents who are using it.

Panoramic receivers, which embody fluorescent tuning, are an ingenious adaptation of the cathode ray oscillograph.

Locker Plant Lacks Renters

Late in the week it was reported that some 50 more renters must be secured before W. T. Parker, proposed builder of a locker plant could present his application to the WPB for approval or rejection.

Interest in the project has grown considerable in the past few weeks and those in charge urge that if citizens are in favor of the proposed proposition they should turn in their applications for lockers immediately as there are to be only a few allotted and the proposition needs its submission to the WPB immediately in order to receive favorable approval.

Girl Scout Birthday

THE GIRL SCOUT is real, and so is the birthday, even if in a war year the cake has to be a prop. March 12 will be the biggest birthday the Girl Scouts ever celebrated, for there are more than 817,000 Girl Scouts ready to commemorate their thirty-second anniversary, not only with parties, but with added promises of increased service and training in democracy to the girls in their communities.

The course is designed to help school people in more effective use of audio-visual aids in classroom instruction.

On Tuesday, Mr. Paul Sveinson of Iceland spoke to the student body of the Eldorado High School and later spoke to several of the upper grades of the grade school.

Bond Quota Far From Being Raised

With a quota of $168,000 dollars to raise in Schleicher county, there remains a very few days in which to raise the balance.

"I hope that every individual will make an earnest effort to make purchases in this drive, as the county has never fallen short of an assessed quota so far," C. L. Meador, Jr., said this week.

Meador was sanctioned in this statement, and many have indicated intentions to buy extra bonds immediately. However, all who can possibly buy a bond—make a loan—should do so now, as the time is closing soon, and beachheads are being made by the allies, thus necessitating the urgent need of more funds to make advances and save men from being taken prisoners or killed.

Bandage Rollers More Numerous

"We are glad to report more help with our bandage folding and are now making 4x4 sponges, and they are easier to work up than the 2x2 size we have always made before," stated Mrs. R. T. Crain, chairman of the local surgical dressing unit this week.

Among those who reported to have worked the past week were: Sunday, Jan. 30. Supervisors, Mmes. W. F. Meador, Claude Meador, and workers, Mmes. J. C. Crosby, Van McCormick, S. D. Harper, Ernest Finnegan, and Earnest Sweatt.

Tuesday night, Feb. 1, supervisors, Mmes. J. E. Hill, W. F. Meador, and Claude Meador. Workers, Mmes. Brice Dabney, Lyonelle Ballew, E. R. Bryant, Luke Thompson, Joe Lawrence, Perry Mittel, and Misses Ollie Lee Jeffrey, Doris Jeffrey, Frances Thompson and Betty Bryant.

Wednesday, Feb. 2. Supervisors, Mmes. Palmer West, J. E. Hill and R. T. Crain. Workers, Mmes. Van McCormick, Ben Hext, J. C. Crosby, Bert Page, S. D. Harper, Brice Dabney, Earnest Hill, Lester Henderson, L. D. Ochsner, and E. R. Bryant.

Sunday, Feb. 6, Supervisor, Mrs. R. L. Crain, and workers, Mmes. Van McCormick, Jim Simpson, J. C. Crosby, Ernest Finnegan and Luke Thompson.

Total production for the week was less than a thousand, so we need more help, and no matter how little time you can give to this work it all helps. Those working for the first 100 hours will receive a service pin, and those who have already earned one of these pins include Mmes. Brice Dabney, J. E. Hill, W. F. Meador and R. T. Crain, said those in charge of the work.

MANY POLL TAXES ISSUED IN COUNTY

Approximately 1,000 poll taxes had been paid in Schleicher county for 1944, according to the information furnished by the tax office. These include supplementary, regular and under-age exemptions, but does not include the overage exemptions.

STATISTICS SHOW COTTON GINNING INCREASE

The tabulation of the card reports show telegraph summary to be correct. There were 1,541 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales ginned in Schleicher county, from the crop of 1943 prior to January 16, 1944, as compared with 898 bales ginned to January 16, 1943, according to a report by the Department of Commerce.

New AAA Director For Southern Division

C. D. WALKER

When C. D. Walker was appointed director of the Southern Division of Triple-A, a friend said, "You must be proud of that title, C. D. It's a long climb from the plow handles of Oklahoma to one of the biggest jobs in the Department of Agriculture."

Walker replied, "Well, I suppose I should be proud but I've been a farmer practically all my life and no title will ever sound better to me than that of just plain farmer."

It is reported that Walker's ties with the soil are real and earnest. He walks, talks and looks like a farmer; but what is more important, he thinks like a farmer, the information continued.

He was born in 1892 on a small farm in Jackson County, Okla.,—the farm on which his parents settled when they arrived there from Mississippi.

He started farming as a tenant farmer in 1921. He now owns 1190 acres, producing cotton, wheat, oats, barley, grain sorghums, alfalfa, corn and hogs.

Walker has seen times when he was almost bankrupt, and has been a recipient of benefits of the AAA he declares. He has held many offices in that organization before receiving his new appointment.

C. A. (Gus) Graves authorizes The Success to enter his name in the Political Announcement Column as a candidate or re-election to the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, subject to the action of the July 1944 Democratic Primaries.

Care Of Your Freshening Cows

By Jack Welch, County Agent
To be in good condition at freshening, a dairy cow should get all of the roughage she will eat during the dry period.

Jack Welch, County Agent, says that a cow which has been well fed during lactation will require little concentrated feed while dry. If she hasn't been well fed and is thin upon going dry, usually two to five pounds daily of the grain ration being fed the milking herd along with the roughage, and pasture, if available, will put her in good flesh at freshening.

To prepare for the approaching drain upon her body minerals, a dry cow should be provided, free choice, with plenty of lime and phosphorus, the two minerals required in largest quantity for the building of the calf's body and in milk. The minerals may be supplied by mixing three parts by weight of steamed bone meal and one part salt. The mineral box should be protected from the weather, and if the cow does not lick the mixture when first offered, sprinkle a little cottonseed meal on it.

At least ten days before freshening, the grain mixture should be changed to equal parts of wheat bran and ground oats, and fed three or four days after calving. If ground oats are not available wheat bran alone may be fed.

Supplying dry cows with feeds containing plenty of Vitamin A, is recommended. A deficiency of this vitamin can cause them to lose their calves, and calves born with a deficiency of Vitamin A will be susceptible to calf diseases, especially scours. Cows getting green pasture hay with green color, or silage made from crops having green leaves will have their Vitamin A, needs taken care of. Five pounds daily per cow of pea green leafy alfalfa hay, will furnish the needed supply of Vitamin A, during the dry period.

In this war our wounded fighting men have a greater chance for recovery than in any previous conflict because of the medical aids and services that have been developed by the War and Navy Departments.

One of these aids is the Hospital Transport Plane service that has been bringing our wounded back from Africa.

Your increased and continued purchase of War Bonds is required to help the Treasury Department finance this hospital transport service. "Back the attack with War Bonds." U. S. Treasury Department

That the Wheels of War May Turn

It is not yet good daylight and the farmer fumbles for the switch to start his tractor . . . It is mid-morning in the city. The tired shipyard welder comes in from his graveyard shift, sails his safety hat across the room and says to his wife, "Well, honey, we skidded another ship down the ways this morning" . . . It is midnight at a highway tavern. The truck driver says to the waitress, "Another stack of wheats and another cup of coffee. I've got a long drag ahead of me tonight."

THESE MEN are in the fight as are millions of fellow Americans—men, women and children. They win no medals but they are rewarded with the satisfaction of the necessary part they play in feeding, clothing and supplying the armed forces with the vital tools of war.

The Humble company is in the fight, too. With all possible speed, it is converting Texas oil to war needs: Toluol for T. N. T., 100-octane aviation gasoline, fuels, greases, lubricants of all kinds. (See partial list below.)

Less spectacular but equally important is Humble's obligation to do its part toward keeping the wheels of industry and agriculture turning on the home front. The farmer's tractor must run, the wheels of transportation must turn, the multiple mechanisms of varied industry must not lag for want of a petroleum product.

13,000 Humble employees* have dedicated themselves to an all-out effort so that the wheels of war, both here and abroad, may turn—and keep turning till victory.

*Over 2,500 Humble men and women are in uniform at the fighting front.

Please Try The "Good Neighbor" Policy On Your Rural Telephone

In order that all may have equal use of the line, it is a good practice and a common courtesy to limit your conversations to not more than five minutes.

Allow intervals between calls.

Give the other party plenty of time to finish talking if you happen to break in when the line is busy.

You'll find that if you are thoughtful about such matters, your rural-line neighbors will be thoughtful too. And it will pay dividends in better service for everyone on the line.

sign of a well-financed farm or ranch, too!

THE Fourth War Loan is on! Every farmer, every rancher in America is called to the greatest offensive yet . . . the buying of more War Bonds than he has ever bought before.

There are lots of other places we could be putting our money, sure! And there are lots of other places our boys could be than in foxholes and slit trenches. But none of those other things we'd rather be buying or doing amount to anything right now. The boys are doing their job. We've got ours to do to take every cent we can scrape together and buy War Bonds with it!

And what a lot of sense it makes, after all. War Bonds are the safest and best financial reserve ever offered us. We will have buildings to repair, machinery to replace, and improvements to buy later on. Where's the money coming from if not from today's earnings? And where's the money coming from for that long vacation, for the children's education, for the new car?

Take a look at the types of War Bond investments that are offered. Pick the type that fits your particular needs. And then write out the biggest check you can and order Bonds today from your postmaster, your bank or your Production Credit Association. When the money you are saving goes to work for you tomorrow, you will look back on this day as the wisest day you ever lived!

"Your dressmaking will be made much simpler, more nearly perfect, and exactly to fit your own figure" was the advice given by Miss Virginia Ryan, agent, when the Bailey Ranch Home Demonstration Club met last Thursday with Mrs. E. H. Dannheim.

These dress forms are simple to make and are very inexpensive, costing from about sixty-five to seventy cents to make, depending on price paid for foundation of dress form. Every woman who sews for herself should have one. Due to the fact that they are so inexpensive a new one can be made as often as required.

A very nice refreshment plate was served to Mes. J. E. Spencer, Lester Henderson, Charlie Suduth, C. N. Shaw, Aaron Steward, W. C. Parks, Jr., Archie Mittel, E. H. Dannheim, J. F. Kinser, Bill Roberts, Peyton Cain, members, and one guest, Mrs. Robert Nixon.

"The Church With A Friendly Welcome".

We all greatly rejoice for the fine services and splendid attendance in all of our services Sunday.

We enjoyed the visit as well as the message Sunday morning from our District Missionary, Dr. J. R. Hickerson. It was his first visit to our services, but he promised that he would be happy to come any time in the future that we needed his assistance and his routine and plans would permit.

The splendid message by Dr. Hickerson Sunday morning was on this subject: "Being Ashamed of Christ." This was one of the most challenging messages, as well as inspiring as I have heard in a long time; and those of our people who missed it, missed a great service.

We were honored in our Sunday evening service by having Captain as well as Chaplain W. D. Kirkpatrick, a former pastor. Our church, some two and one-half years ago gave him a leave of absence so that he could enter the military forces of our situation. We were happy indeed to have Bro Kirkpatrick, his family, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, David and Jimmie to be with us and for Brother Kirkpatrick to bring the message last Sunday evening. He gave us many of his experiences and also gave us the splendid attitude of the many men with whom he works.

Owing to the fact that Brother Kirkpatrick could stay only until Monday afternoon, as he would not have time to make the many visits he wanted to make, it was decided late in the hours of night; after most people had gone home from the services, for all who could to bring lunch Monday to the church and have a social gathering with the Kirkpatricks. Time was so short that we could not get the news around and many of our people did not know about the meeting Monday. Bro. Kirkpatrick understood about that and thought nothing about the absence of those who could not come and had no opportunity of getting the word.

Brother Kirkpatrick is stationed in Puerto Rico, and will leave Saturday or Sunday as his furlough will be up then. We regret to see the family leave so soon but we are so thankful that they took time to visit us. Surely our prayers and best wishes will go with them.

May we not forget that we are still in the midst of the effort of enlarging and enlisting our own people in Sunday school, Training Union and church attendance.

Shell Safety Meeting Held In San Angelo

Chairman Ernest Dickey acted as master of ceremonies when the Safety Chapter of the Shell Oil company entertained with a steak dinner in the English Room at Hotel Cactus in San Angelo, Saturday, Jan. 22.

About 25 members, most of them accompanied by their wives and several guests were present for the dinner and the meeting which followed. F. A. Watson gave the invocation, and following the dinner, Marilyn Jane Dickey rendered several piano selections.

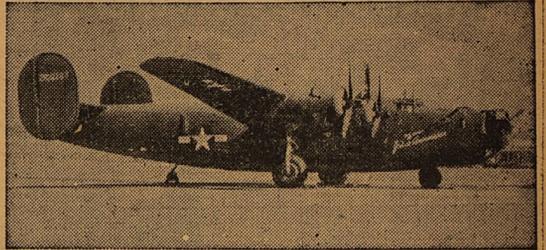

Doc Farrell turned on the etranscribed speech by Mr. Corney which had been originally delivered to the Shell Oil employees at the Houston refinery. This was followed by a picture showing the important part oil plays in our war at this time.

R. L. Hoffman gave a short talk, followed by an address by Mr. Reese, plant protection engineer, who stressed the importance of cooperation in fighting sabotage. Mr. Farrell told the group of the part which the Shell is doing in order to get products to the fighting front, and he also stated that Safety Shoes would soon be available for immediate shipment.

M. B. Hambrick and N. E. Hassel were presented with 15-year service pins.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Smith and family left Wednesday for Austin to make their home, where Mr. Smith will continue his duties with the Shell Pipe Line company.

Jack & Heintz Workers Buy Four-Motor Bomber With Bonds

Pictured above is the Liberator four-motor bomber "Spirit of Jahco Associates" purchased with money raised in the form of extra War Bonds bought in addition to regular 15% payroll deduction by the 7500 Associates employed at Jack & Heintz, Inc. of Bedford, Ohio. Picture of the bomber has just been released.

Jahco Associates (every worker is called an Associate) set out several months ago to buy a bomber, under a plan of the War Finance Committee of the U. S. Treasury Dept., by purchasing $450,000 worth in 30 days for cash. In 15 days they exceeded the quota, actually purchasing $532,868.75 worth of War Bonds.

Jack & Heintz, Inc. is that manufacturer of essential aircraft units which has been in the headlines a good deal, but this paper can reveal some facts that have had little attention. It is possibly the only plant in the country to operate 12-hour shifts and 7-day weeks, thereby conserving skilled labor by avoiding the need for thousands more men.

The hourly pay is the same as is paid for the same skills in other shops in the Cleveland-Detroit area. The greater take-home pay is because the men work longer hours at production. The publicized benefits enable the men to continue efficient production the year around. Strikes and absenteeism are unknown and production is so efficient that when parts must be bought outside they cost up to ten times as much as when produced by Jahco Associates.

The Associates contribute regularly every month to send boxes to men in the Armed Forces, and their wives have a club which packs and mails them every month. Soldiers all over the world, some complete strangers, have written favorable letters to the company.

Wounded soldiers are not forgotten either. Recently Associates donated $25,000 to buy radios for Crile General Hospital, just completed by the Government for returning wounded soldiers.

The products of the company cannot be talked about freely in war time, but it can be said that no American fighter plane can start its motor without a Jahco starter, and other products are almost as important.

The company operates on flat price contracts, undersells other manufacturers, and has voluntarily reduced prices and made refunds to the Government.

Recently the Renegotiators have called their profits excessive and have ordered the return of a sum which will result in Jack & Heintz, Inc. sustaining a net loss on its 1942 operations.
