MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

Sailor Carrol Ratliff writes this department that he is now "at home" at Co. 44-213, NSNTS, San Diego, 33, Calif.; that he is "very comfortably located," is enjoying good food and has managed to keep busy enough to encourage an appetite. But what we like best of all, he confessed he would like to start getting the Success, beginning now. It always gives us a little encouragement to know that some one would like to see a copy now and then.

Seaman "Boots" Corbell even admitted just before he departed this week after a furlough, that he would like the rag to visit him at his Oklahoma camp weekly.

O.K. Gobs, she's on her way today!

We took time out this week to do a little readin' and less writin' and are passing on to you a letter from Boyce House, that we know you will enjoy.

In yonder life upon that Great Divide,

Where souls of men come to rest,
Our dreams will come true, cast up by the tide.

As it washes us from the West. The above lines were composed by Virgil E. Goodman, the versatile legislator from Tarrant County.

A not-so-widely-known Roy Bean story.

Scaffolding on the famous high Pecos bridge collapsed and ten men fell 300 feet to the rocks. Seven were killed instantly and the other three were so badly injured that there was no chance of recovery. Judge Bean was summoned and arrived on a mule from Langtry.

The ten victims were lain in a row. Over each one he pronounced, "This man seems to have come to his from them big timbers fallin' on him." When a member of the corner's jury objected that three of the men were not dead, Bean replied, "Thier gonna' die! Do you think I'm gonna make another 30 mile trip on a soreback mule to hold anothe r inquest? Officially and leagually them fellars is dead."

"Smiling service has been rationed," an advertisement says. This isn't correct—certain services have been rationed or abolished entirely but smiles haven't, so wouldn't hurt a few sellers, when they have to say "No," to throw in a few smiles.

There are amusing little things that happen in connection with being the author of a book. For example a friend called this columnist by long distance to order five copies of "I Give You Texas: 500 jokes of the Lone Star State." So I went over to a department store to buy five copies of my own book! I was standing there, waiting to be waited on, when a lady picked up a copy and asked, "Have you ad this book."

It was a temptation to say, "yes ma'am, and it's really terrific!" But it would be just my luck for some friend to come up immediately afterward and asked "Boyce hows your book going?" So I replied, "Madam, not only have I read it, but I'm the fellow who wrote it."

She looked at me, looked at the book, then looked back at me and said, "Well I believe I will buy a copy, anyhow!"

New Bus Service May Inaugurated May 1st

Progress in plans for a contemplated change, or addition, in bus service between Sonora and San Angelo, indicates that the change may be made by May 1st, according to word received by the Lions' Club transportation committee, by Virge Bowen, operator of OST Stages over the route.

The proposal was submitted the bus line operator by the club committee recently in an effort to relieve hampered travel conditions brought about by rationing and scarcity of materials. Also, better connections can be made to Eldorado from the two terminal towns by an additional bus, enabling service men to reach here sooner and depart later, and still make their connections, giving them more time to spend with relatives.

Request for an additional bus to be added has been presented the Railroad Commission, and application has been made to ODT to secure better equipment for the line as soon as possible, Mr. Bowen has stated.

The report was made at the Wednesday noon luncheon of the Lions' club by W. O. Alexander, chairman of the committee. E. W. Brooks and W. Irl Breedlove are other members of the committee.

Lieut. Joe T. Hext Speaker Only visitor of the club this week was Lieut. Joe T. Hext, of the Air Corps, stationed at Fort Sumner, N. M., who spoke to the group.

Lieut. Hext urged the club to encourage the support of the better welfare of the youth of our county; to never neglect them in their training and encourage morale building. Athletics was pointed out to be the greatest moulder of character in youth, as is evidenced by young men entering the armed services.

Lieut. Hext related many interesting experiences he has had in the Army and answered questions of the audience about his training.

Mrs. Corbett will remain on the family farm near Fort Worth and look after interests there for the present, Mr. Corbett states.

Style-Musical Review Presented At PTA Meet Tuesday Night

A style and musical review was presented by members of the Choral Club and members of the Homemaking Class when the Parent-Teachers Association met last Tuesday evening in the high school auditorium. Miss Bernice Alexander and Mrs. Sproul were directors for the program and Miss Frankie Thompson and Miss Aleyander were pianists. Approximately 45 girls took part in the review.

The stage of the auditorium was decorated to represent a spring garden and the girls modelled print and sport dresses, housecoats, afternoon and evening dresses, tailored suits and tailored dresses. A musical reading "Hats" was given by Edna Leudecke while eight girls modeled hats, showing both the right and wrong kind to wear.

Following the program, Mrs. S. D. Harper conducted a short business session and it was announced that the next meeting will be on the first Tuesday in May instead of the third. At this time, officers will be installed and a team is being planned. Mrs. Harper announced that the cafeteria had secured a large quantity of carrots, and members of the organization are to meet at the school Saturday morning for the purpose of canning these for use in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Harper gave her report of the district convention which she

ELDORADO H. D. CLUB

The Eldorado Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Cheseter Dugger Friday for an all day meeting with Miss Virginia Ryan, agent, giving two demonstrations. The first was "Cheap Cuts of Meats—Cookery of Cheap Cuts of Meat."

Meats prepared and used for dinner were shoulder roast, stuffed heart, liver and onions, smothered pork chops and apple rings. The recipe the club decided most beneficial to others is the one for stuffed beef heart. The heart is usually thrown away and it is very low in point value and also cheap. To help others and extend our club work to those who can't be present, we give the following recipe. Other recipes may be obtained at Miss Ryan's office.

- One beef heart
 - 2 tbs. bacon drippings
 - One small onion, chopped
 - 1/2 green pepper, chopped.
 - 3 cups bread crumbs
 - Salt and pepper to taste.
- Remove gristle and veins and wash heart. Make a slit in one side and fill with stuffing made of remaining ingredients moistened with sweet milk. Sew or skewer the slit and place in a baking dish or casserole. Add one half cup boiling hot water, cover and bake in a slow oven (325F) 1 1/2 to 2 hours, depending on size of the heart. Make gravy from drippings in pan. Serves six.

Miss Ryan gave a demonstration on re-seating chairs. Two chairs for club members and one for a non-club member were finished. Fibre card was used in re-seating the chairs at a cost of 55 cents each.

There were six club members, two visitors and Miss Ryan, agent, present.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

The house got down to business last week by passing the 32-billion dollar bill for naval activities for the twelve months following next July first.

That is a lot of money. The committee hearing on the need for the items took 1100 pages to print. Much emphasis was put on the need elimination of waste in the spending of such money. Naval officials gave assurance of many money-making devices that are being used

The under secretary of Navy, James V. Forrestal was a witness before the committee on March 14.

"The next four or five months of this war", said the Secretary, "are about as crucial months as I think the country will ever face in our lifetime. From now until next summer we have to plan for many contingencies".

MORE SHIPS, MORE PLANES

In keeping with the requests of Admiral King, under Forrestal and others, the bill provides money to add 1333 new battleships, cruisers, destroyers, etc., to our great fleet, bringing our present strength to 6623 such vessels.

Under the building program, by next year it is expected that a total of 74,925 other vessels including landing craft will be available.

In addition, the bill includes five and one-half billions to bring our naval air strength to 19,035 combat planes.

There was not a vote against the bill. It seemed to be the strategy of our high command to overwhelm our enemies with superior materials, armor and manpower. Through such tactics, the war may be shortened and lives may be saved.

INVASIONS ARE COSTLY

In the hearings on the naval bill many interesting facts pertaining to amphibious operations and costs involved, were disclosed.

For example, it was revealed that in the Marshalls operations alone, a million and a half barrels of oil were used.

Admiral Morrell, head of the Seabees, said that costs resulting from enemy actions are "imponderable".

"In one assault at Kawjalein we lost about 2 1-2 millions of materials, the result of only 12 enemy planes. They happened to catch them at night and happened to hit a particularly explosive target and the damage was very considerable."

FOURTH SON OF W. O. ALEXANDER'S ENTERED NAVAL SERVICE MONDAY

W. O. Alexander, Jr., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Alexander, was inducted into the US Navy in Dallas Monday of last week. Known to his friends as "Ollie", Alexander has been attending school at John Tarleton, Stephenville since his graduation from the local high school last May. He took the V-12 examination of the Navy March 15, passing it and subsequent tests and is now eligible for training offered those passing the test. He is to remain in Tarleton until called for assignment to some college, possibly around July first.

All of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander's sons are now in Naval service. L. J. is serving as a petty officer at Camp Peary, Va., where he has been stationed the past year. Forrest B. and John W. are at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where they were assigned after having passed Eddy Tests for radio technician training.

The promotion of William H. Springstun to captain was announced recently "somewhere in Northern Ireland" by Brig. Gen. Edmund W. Will, Commanding General, 8th AAF Composite Command. Capt. Springstun, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Springstun, of Big Lake, is Administrations Operations Officer there. He is a former resident here and is married to an English girl, whom he met while stationed in England. She lives in London.

Ensign and Mrs. Joe Ed Hill arrived in Eldorado Tuesday night for a visit of several days with Ensign Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill. After a short visit here, he will report for further duties to an unannounced destination.

Friends here have received a letter from Corpl. Odia F. Maddux, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Maddux, of Alpine, and a brother of Mrs. Bethel Jeffrey of this city, written from somewhere in the South Pacific, describing in a very interesting manner, the beauty and colorful scenes of the islands. However, in spite of their beauty, Corpl. Maddux says that he would not trade one bit of Texas for all of the beauty of the islands, for it just isn't home.

Lieut. Felix Susen who has been stationed in Lafayette, La., is visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Susen, Sr., before going to his new station at the Laredo Army Air Field. Another son, S/Sgt. Harold Susen has been transferred from Northern Ireland to somewhere in England.

W. C. Spurgers left Thursday for Lubbock. He volunteered his services for immediate induction into the US Navy. He is the fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Spurgers entering the armed forces.

MISS MARY JO HORTON, ENSIGN HILL MARRIAGE RITES HELD IN FORT WORTH

In a single ring ceremony performed at five o'clock in the First Methodist Church Chapel, Fort Worth, Miss Mary Jo Horton, daughter of Mrs. Dwight D. Horton, became the bride of Ensign Jo Ed Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hill, Eldorado, on Sunday evening, April 16. Dr. L. D. Anderson, minister of the First Christian Church, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Jack James Horton, wore a white satin wedding gown with full train. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white satin covered Bible topped with a white orchid, showered with white satin streamers and orange blossoms tied in love knots. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Billie Barbour, Fort Worth, wore a pink net dress with tight bodice and full gathered skirt. She wore a half hat in pink and carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Hill, Eldorado, and Miss Margaret Ross, wore dresses identical to the maid-of-honor, in blue and orchid net. They wore half hats in the same colors as their dresses and carried bouquets of spring flowers.

Frank Medarich attended the groom as best man, and groomsmen were Clyde Flowers and Raymond Frambo, all of Fort Worth.

The church was decorated in green and white with baskets of white carnations and ferns, and seven point candelabra with burning white tapers forming a background for the altar.

Miss Helen June Cole was at the organ for the traditional wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Dorothy Forrester.

Following the ceremony, a small reception for the bridal party, immediate family and out-of-town guests was held in the home of the bride's mother, 2929 Hemphill street. The home was decorated with spring flowers, and Miss Sarah Hill and Miss Barbara Nelson presided at the punch service. The three-tiered cake was decorated with a miniature ensign and bride.

The bride is a graduate of the Paschal High School and attended Texas Christian University, where she was a member of Sigma Omicron Sigma.

'Does and Don'ts' for Home Equipment Care

THE old adage, "Take care of what you have and it will take care of you" is doubly true these wartime days when household appliances are difficult to replace, Marjorie Griffin, Home Editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer advises housewives.

Here are some of her "does and don'ts" about such items as the kitchen sink, the refrigerator, and the range:

"Don't let coffee grounds or particles of food, especially greasy ones, go down the sink drain. If it gets stopped up, force it with a suction plunger. Regular use of a commercial detergent or chemical will soft-or frost loose with a knife. Wash shelves and interior of mechanical or ice refrigerator once a week.

"The range is home base in your kitchen. Clean oven with soap and water. Rub with unsalted fat to prevent rust. Don't store food in the oven. Wipe up food as it is spilled, as acids in some may per-ten the accumulation in pipes so it can be rinsed away. Soap and water or a mild abrasive, used daily, will keep the surface pick-and-span.

"Don't crowd the refrigerator or foods will not keep well. Be sure refrigerator isn't getting hot under the collar standing too near the range. Defrost regularly; frost on freezing unit shouldn't get over one-fourth inch thick. Never pry trays manently discolor the finish. When cold, wash with soapy water. Washing while hot may craze enamel.

Your Use of The Telephone In Wartime

Crowded With The Calls of War

It's true we usually can put through quickly your long distance telephone calls to towns near-by. But when you send your voice to far cities, it may travel on lines jammed to the limit with calls that help move troops, making planes, build tanks.

We can't put on more lines, because most of the metal has gone to war. So please help us in a vital job. Make as few calls as possible to war centers or cities far away, and please plan to keep such calls short. It will help clear the way for the calls of war.

Starts Harvest Brigade Rolling

Gov. Coke R. Stevenson of Texas (left) is shown extending his best wishes to the Harvest Brigade through Fred C. Knight, Texas director of the Massey-Harris Company. Massey-Harris is guiding this great patriotic crusade to harvest an extra million acres of grain this year. The Harvest Brigade, an organization of several hundred self-propelled combine operators, is cooperating with the War Food Administration in a custom-cutting campaign to overcome the wartime shortages of men, machines, and fuel. The Harvest Brigade will begin operations about May 1 in the vast flax fields near Kenedy, Texas, and will work north, as the season progresses, through the grain fields of Texas and the Great Plains states to the Canadian border—harvesting wherever farmers ask for help.

AN APPRECIATION

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to all our friends who extended sympathy during the anxious days through which we have just passed. Your visits, cards and letters have been a source of great comfort. Your prayers have upheld us and will continue.

May God spare each of you from such an experience, and bless you in days to come.

PLANE TALK

BY Rowland Burnstan

Since successful controlled flight can now be maintained by the helicopter, there are three types of heavier than air craft with which the public is becoming familiar. These are the airplane, autogiro and helicopter.

The conventional airplane illustrated above is the type most common in the sky today. It differs from the other two types in that it is a fixed wing aircraft. It obtains its forward motion by a mechanically driven rotating propeller, known as the air screw. In flight it is supported by the air flowing over its fixed wings, which because of their shape are referred to as the airfoil.

Next week we will explain the difference in flight characteristics between the autogiro illustrated above and the airplane.
