On The DIVIDE

POPPIES ALL GONE

The fact that last Saturday was "Poppy Day" in Eldorado was very much in evidence, as many, many people were seen wearing the tiny red flower of Flanders Field.

The Girl Scout organization, which is sponsored by the Self Culture Club, reported splendid response from local people. Poppies were sold here, there and everywhere—and long before the day was gone, these Girl Scouts had sold out.

Some 250 poppies were sold, and many others could have been sold had they been available. A phone call was placed for others, but they could not be obtained.

Both the members of the Girl Scouts and the Self Culture Club are very appreciative of the splendid response given them in the poppy sale last Saturday.

Saving the Game

Moans and groans over the fact that the buffalo is gone forever from the Texas range are all very well, but forward-thinking people are doing something more than groan over the gradual demise of other types of Texas wildlife.

The Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, A. & M. College, the American Wildlife Institute, and the United States Biological Survey are now all working together to protect and increase the wildlife resources in Texas.

Methods of such groups include the study of habits and necessities of various birds and animals, a continual restocking of game preserves, and the careful formation of game laws for the mutual benefit of hunter and hunted. These determined workers must have the full support of Texas hunting citizens if this conservation policy is to be effective.

Hail Popeye!

Popeye may well be the patron saint of many people in Texas other than children, since this state leads the nation in the production of his well-advertised power feed. Over six million bushels of spinach were grown in 1936, with a total value of $1,800,000. With Winter Garden Zavala and Dimmitt counties, as the center of this industry the town of Crystal City has won a name as spinach capital of the world. Citizens there have even erected three statues to Popeye. There is a farm nearby of about 3,000 acres, which frequently produces more spinach than any other state in the union. The crop is also grown in the lower Rio Grande Valley and around Corpus Christi.

SHEEP MOVED

A. J. Burk reports that he moved 1,000 head of lambs to the first of this week for Ray Willoughby. They were moved from the Jim Willoughby ranch to Barnhart.

CATTLE TO MARKET

A load of fat cattle were taken to the Fort Worth markets for Tom Russell.

Funeral Services For Will McAngus Are Held Sunday

LOCAL RESIDENT FOR 13 YEARS DIES SUDDENLY OF HEART ILL

The entire community was shocked last Friday to learn of the sudden death of Will McAngus, farmer and rancher, and a resident of this county for some thirteen years. Mr. McAngus died of a heart attack last Friday morning at a local physician's office. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time, but had felt unusually well just before the attack struck him that morning.

Mr. McAngus, who was a native Texan, was born in Travis county on September 10, 1879, and died at the age of 58 years, 1 month and 24 days. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include the widow; four children, Marvin, Christelle, Ross and Mrs. Charlie Suddeth, all of Eldorado; five brothers, Dave, Andrew, M. K. and Alec, of Austin, and Hugh of Eldorado; and four sisters, Mrs. Jessie Chapman, Mrs. G. C. Bradshaw of Buda, Miss Laura McAngus of Austin and Mrs. Walter Doherty of Bishop. He is also survived by seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from the family home in Eldorado at three o'clock last Sunday afternoon, being conducted by Minister L. W. Hayhurst. Interment was made in the Eldorado cemetery by the Eldorado Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Paul Keele, E. E. Newlin, John Rodgers, O. Suddeth, Frank Edmiston and Orval James.

The Success extends sympathy to members of the family in their hour of bereavement.

Drivers License Examiners To Give Tests For Drivers

Austin, Nov. 9.—Two driver's license examiners of the Department of Public Safety will be in Eldorado on Nov. 15th, to conduct tests for drivers applying for their first license, according to Col. H. H. Carmichael, director of the public safety department.

Establishing headquarters at the Courthouse the uniformed officers will give the examinations every Tuesday of each week from 3:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. In applying for the driving tests the applicant must furnish his own vehicle or one he proposes to operate after he secures a license, the safety director pointed out.

After oral quizzes are completed each applicant will be required to drive his car or truck over a designated route under the supervision of one of the trained examiners. During the drive the operator must demonstrate the use of his foot and hand brakes, stop for signals and perform other acts necessitated in ordinary traffic situations. Before the actual driving test is made the examiners will quiz the license applicants on safety regulations and signals, highway laws and make tests of their eyesight and hearing. Dorothy Bruton Wins Third Place In State Contests

Announcement of winners of the state 4-H Club girls' canned products and judging contest reveals that Dorothy Bruton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruton, has won third place in other vegetables.

Points in the contest were based on the girls' ability to judge a good can of food, which rated 200; and the quality of products which she canned herself, which rated 100. The highest rating was given to ability to judge quality, because authorities believe that if people can judge quality they can bring the quality of their own products up to standards.

Dorothy entered a jar of blackeyed peas. She scored 280 points out of the possible 300. The highest score made in the state was 290, scored by Anna Lee Foster of Johnson county.

Nimrods' Hearts, Thoughts, Conversation On Deer Season And Favorite Hunting Ground

Tuesday, November 16th! That's a real red letter day in the minds of local nimrods. Their thoughts, minds, hearts, and conversation are about the "Hill Country" as that date nears. Already they are making preparations to don their hunting clothes and head for their favorite hunting grounds.

Deer season opens on November 16th—just in case there's one in the county who doesn't know about it. Guns are being cleaned up, boots oiled and hunting jackets, etc., are placed in preparedness as local hunters' minds envision a successful hunt-

4,049 Bales Are Ginned In County From 1937 Crop

RAIN HALTS GATHERING OF COTTON IN AREA FOR THIS WEEK

Beneficial rains which were welcomed by ranchmen and received somewhat reluctantly by farmers who had not yet completed their cotton gathering, fell in this county this week. The rain started slowly Monday, with a larger portion of the moisture falling during Monday night.

It was estimated that a little over an inch was received in Eldorado, but ranchmen over the county have reported precipitation that varied from less than an inch to almost two inches.

4,049 bales of cotton from the 1937 crop had been ginned in this county up to this week, a check of the four gins in the county revealed. Many farmers are practically through gathering and others lacked only a few more days when the wet spell started.

Practically all of the cotton crop will be out in the next few weeks, it is estimated.

REVIVAL UNDER WAY AT FUNDAMENTALIST CHURCH, ELDORADO

Preaching services are being held at ten o'clock each morning and at 7:30 each evening. A bible class and prayer meeting is held at nine o'clock each morning.

The entire public is cordially invited to attend these services.

In an election last week George Williams was elected the most popular boy in high school. The election started Monday and a run-off was held on Tuesday. In the first election George and Ed Meador were the two highest. The run-off was between the two of them.

Those receiving votes for the most popular boy were Jack Jones, Gerald Nicks, Bob Williams, Glen Parker, Ed Reynolds, and Orval Edmiston.

F. M. Bradley Is Appointed Deputy Co. & Dist. Clerk

Commissioners Court Establishes Road Through The Runge Thompson Land

F. M. Bradley was appointed deputy county and district clerk last Monday by members of the Commissioners Court. Mr. Bradley is to serve during the absence of John F. Isaacs this month, and as long thereafter as his services are needed by Mr. Isaacs.

The court went on record as favoring the completion of State Highway No. 4, and voted to aid in every way possible to secure approval of a federal bill for placing this highway on the federal aid list. The court also solicited the aid of Congressman Chas. L. South and Senator Whitfield in familiarizing authorities to the need for the completion of this highway.

The report of T. P. Robinson, justice of the peace for Precinct One, was approved, and the clerk was authorized to issue Mr. Robinson a warrant for $23 for six cases disposed of and one inquest.

The Court received the report of the Jury of View on a road through the land of J. Forrest Runge and Mrs. Frances Thompson. It ordered that this road be established and classified as a road of the third class, and it is to be opened up and worked as a public road of such class. Mrs. Thompson and Mr. Runge were each paid $35.00 for land taken for this road.

L'NORA'S CAFE IS NOW LOCATED IN NEW ANDREWS BUILDING

It was "moving time" last week for those connected with L'Nora's Cafe. In spite of the fact that the building was not quite complete, they just could not wait to move.

The cafe is now located in the new Andrews building, which has been under construction for some time. Elnora held her formal opening in the new location last Saturday.

The cafe is one of the most attractive in Eldorado, and employees haven't gotten quite used to the newness of it all, yet. They invite you to visit them at their new place.

DAUGHTER TO McCOYS

An 8½ pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. McCoy on Saturday, November 6th. The daughter has been christened Mickey Ann. Both mother and daughter are reported doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Richey were visitors in San Angelo last Sunday.

L. W. and R. L. Ballew visited their father, J. T. Ballew in San Angelo last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Turney Miller of Tomball, Texas, are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Leggett and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson spent the first of this week in Monterrey, Mexico, attending to business matters.

175 calves were brought to Eldorado Wednesday for Pat Martin.

Ranch Worker On Tankersley Ranch Kills Himself

WALTER L. HENSELY TAKES HIS OWN LIFE AT RANCH SATURDAY

Death by bullet wound self-inflicted was the verdict of Coroner Payne Robinson of Eldorado in the fatal shooting of Walter L. Hensley, 23, ranch worker on the Lake Tankersley ranch near Mertzon. Hensley died when a bullet from a .22 rifle entered his temple while he was inside the ranch house.

According to reports of officers, Hensley was tentatively under arrest by Sheriff John Boyd of Mertzon, who was investigating the loss of some sheep. After talking with the sheriff, Hensley went inside. A few minutes later the gun sounded.

Sheriff Orville Conner was enroute to the ranch when the shooting occurred, it was stated, Sheriff Boyd having called him. A few minutes after he left Eldorado another call was placed for Justice of the Peace Robinson, who held the inquest. The ranch home was in the edge of Schleicher county, but the sheep theft was reported to be in Irion county.

Two others were arrested in connection with the theft. They are Walter Scott and John Rogers, who were released on $1,000 and $500 bond, respectively the first of this week.

Hensley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hensley of Mertzon, had been employed at the Tankersley ranch for the past few months. His funeral was held at Bronte.

Besides the parents, survivors are: the widow; infant son; three brothers, Golden of Bronte, Ernest, of Olton; and Eldon of Mertzon; five sisters, Mrs. Lillie Wright, Abilene; Mrs. Mamie Wright, Azle; Mrs. Aora Hallmark, McCamey; Miss Irma Hensley, Mertzon; and Miss Dorothea Hensley, Mertzon.

McCLARY INSTALLS NEW NEON SIGN AT WEST TEXAS CAFE

A new Neon sign, the first business sign of its kind ever installed in Eldorado, was installed last week by L. B. McClary at the West Texas Cafe.

The sign was completed on Friday, and Friday night a beautiful three-colored sign greeted those who were in town after dark. The sign shows up at night as conspicuously as the little barefoot boy's stumped toe.

The sign adds to the attractiveness of the cafe, and strangers who land in town after dark won't have to strain their eyes looking for a place to eat.

CARLOADINGS UP

A NEW INDUSTRY

Speaking before the recent convention of the American Soybean Association at Urbana, Ill., a leader of the industry made the interesting statement that ninety per cent of the soybeans processed go into livestock feed, the high merit of which has been proved repeatedly by experiment station tests.

The development of the soybean industry was brought about, the speaker declared, not by promoters, but by farmers with visions of a new cash crop, aided by bright-minded and determined government and college research experts, by business men and processors, who risked and sometimes lost fortunes in buying crops and selling the converted products.

Processors have kept ahead of the crops, and mills at key points now have total crushing capacity double that so far required, it was said. It is no doubt true that few products in history have so quickly attained scientific handling.

In the laboratories new uses have been evolved; new markets have been created, and new sales forces have been employed to break down the walls of opposition in highly competitive fields. Thus step by step the soy bean industry is expanding to the great benefit of farmers and users of its products.

CONFEDERATE CABINET

While the Confederate government under President Jefferson Davis was in existence only a little more than four years, only one cabinet officer—Stephen R. Mallory, secretary of the navy—served throughout the whole period.

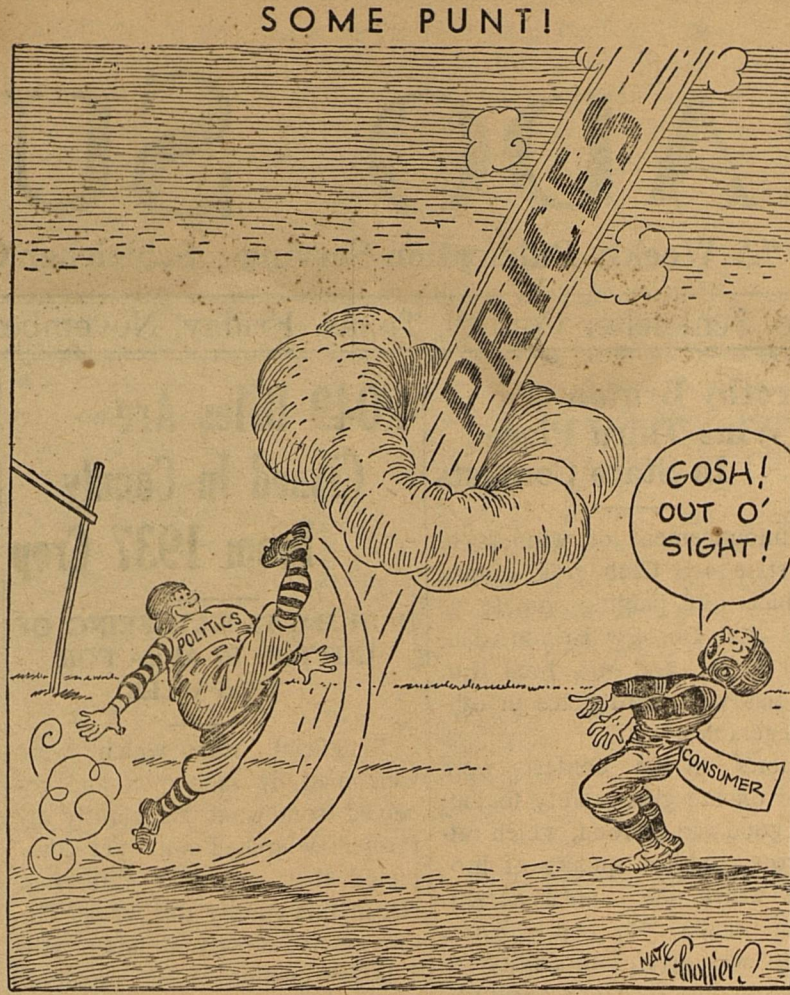

During the same time there were three secretaries of state, Toombs, Hunter and Benjamin; three secretaries of the treasury, Memminger, Trenholm and Reagan; six secretaries of war, Walker, Benjamin, Randolph, Smith, Seddon and Breckenridge; two postmasters-general, Ellet and Reagan, and four attorneys-general, Benjamin, Bragg, Watts and Davis.

Judah P. Benjamin of Louisiana went into the cabinet in 1861 as attorney-general, was secretary of war for a short time in 1862, and was made secretary of state later in the same year, serving as such to the end. John H. Reagan of Texas served as post-master-general from 1861 until 1865, when he became the Confederate's last secretary of the treasury.

President Davis, who had been secretary of war of the United States from 1853 to 1857, appears to have had difficulties with his own secretaries of war, of whom, as noted above, he had six.

MILLIONS TO MEMORY

Millions given annually to universities, museums and other public-spirited projects not infrequently form perpetual reminders of the donors, as in the case of Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Mellon, J. P. Morgan, Henry Ford, and others.

The most recent addition to the list is the Atwater Kent Museum, in Philadelphia, which will also preserve a historic landmark in that the Atwater Kent Foundation has acquired the old Franklin Institute building, erected in 1825. This monumental stone building is now being repaired throughout as a home for valued relics and historical manuscripts which may throw new light on American history, when removed from the seclusion of basement storage in Independence Hall, Philadelphia's City Hall, and from the archives of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, and other sources.

This is the second patriotic service by Mr. A. Atwater Kent this year. Earlier, he restored the famous old Betsy Ross House where the first American flag was made, adding another to the many benefactions of this inventor and pioneer radio manufacturer.

Through the Atwater Kent Auditions, Mr. Kent for several years searched the country for singers of merit, sixty of whom he helped to a musical education, several since becoming members of the Metropolitan Opera Company. But his most popular contribution to music-loving America was through his Sunday night series of radio concerts which, over a period of several years, presented for the first time the outstanding artists of opera and concert stage, raising radio broadcasting to the highest plane in its history.

The country needs more men who, like Mr. Kent, are willing to put their money into such commendable patriotic enterprises.

MOVIES RAISE GRADES

Some interesting tests with a view to determining the benefits derived from supplementing ordinary instruction by motion picture films illustrating the subjects taught have been made in San Diego and other California cities.

In all more than 11,000 children were tested, each school being divided into two groups, one of which received both book and film instruction, the other being taught through text books, only. The tests covered a period of ten weeks at the end of which examinations were held.

Pupils having the advantage of motion pictures made grades averaging 33 per cent higher in geography and 15 per cent higher in general science subjects than those who used books alone. This experiment appears to have been extensive enough to warrant the conclusion that the combined book-picture method is highly advantageous in such subjects as those mentioned.

Not only is this method beneficial to the individual pupil, but by reducing the number of failures in examinations, it reduces the number of pupils who must repeat courses, thus effecting a saving in expenses for school purposes.

The introduction of educational films is becoming widespread, and there is little doubt that they will become standard equipment for schools of the future.

DIPHTHERIA CASES FOR TEN MONTHS OF YEAR NUMBER 1,635

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox urges all parents of children between the ages of six months and ten years who have not been immunized against diphtheria, to take them to their family physician and have this done at once.

The first ten months of 1937 saw 1,635 cases of diphtheria reported to the Texas State Department of Health. This is an increase over 1936's figures, and shows the need of immunization of children in this age group.

It was not many years ago that parents dreaded diphtheria because of inability of the medical profession to either prevent or cure the disease. But today when we know the cause and the cure there is no obstacle but negligence which will prevent the complete elimination of the disease in Texas.

Diphtheria is most dangerous to the very young children, and it is especially important that immunization against it be given early in a child's life. In young children there is practically no reaction to the injection. Immunization has been proven to give absolute protection.

"It is in the power of the parents of Texas, cooperating with their physician and the Health Department, to eliminate the disease," Dr. Cox stated. "In about six months after immunization the child should be given a Schick test to determine whether further treatment is necessary. Early immunization against diphtheria is a routine procedure with up-to-date physicians. Cooperate with your family physician and your community and make early immunization a regular practice in Texas."

One of the strangest alibis offered by a law-breaker lately was that of Floyd Metcalf of Buffalo. He confessed to bootlegging, but pleaded that he did it to obtain funds to continue his studies for the ministry, being ambitious to become a missionary.

An NYA work project is providing part-time employment for 30 youths at Taylor, who are beautifying the recreational area, erecting fences, and building entrance gates at the City Park. "These youths are receiving training that will be valuable to them in securing private jobs," Harvey O. Payne, district supervisor, reported to J. C. Kellam, State Youth Director.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoover and R. J. Page made a trip to San Angelo last Tuesday.

Timely Topics

In his daily column O. O. McIntyre recalls that the famous tune popularly known as the "Hootchie Kootchie," which was first used as an accompaniment for "Oriental" dancers during the Chicago world's fair in 1883, was composed by Sol Bloom, now Congressman from New York. Bloom was for many years one of the leading composers and music publishers in Tin Pan Alley.

When knocked to the ground by a bull and in imminent danger of being gored to death, Adam Small of Marathon, Wis., saved his life by scratching the enraged animal's head he says. The bull liked the scratching and stood still to enjoy the sensation for several minutes, then walked leisurely away. Whether this method would work in all cases is problematical, but it might be worth trying in a similar emergency.

In an article giving safety advice to motorists, Ab Jenkins, holder of 14 international speed and endurance records says: "Above all keep both hands on the wheel. The only two people I know who are competent to drive one-handed are Eddie Rickenbacker and Ralph de Palma—and both of them use two hands."

When Mrs. Anntal Kramer, 48, a peasant woman living near Budapest, with 21 children won the prize offered by the Hungarian government as the country's champion mother, news of her victory was published far and wide. The prize, however, was only 100 pengoes, the equivalent of about $1 for each child, and Mrs. Kramer doesn't think it was worth all the trouble.

Alan Hale, who for 20 years played "villain" roles on stage and screen with mated success, has at last been cast in a more respectable character, much to his delight. He says he has played "bad" parts so long that he had got to hiding his own purse from himself.

County Council Of Demonstration Clubs Elects Officers

The Schleicher County Home Demonstration Council met in regular session on Saturday Nov. 6th, at the court house. Reports were given from the clubs. Those not having reports were urged to bring them to every council meeting. Committees were appointed to work on a county-wide Christmas program.

Mrs. H. B. Rees and Miss Chris Enochs scored an exhibit of fruits and vegetables sponsored by the Ball Jar Company. Mrs. C. J. Murr of Ft. McKavett won first place with peaches, and Mrs. W. N. Ramsay, Eldorado club, won second place with green beans.

The chairman asked that all officers of the council have a written report of the year's work at the December meeting. An invitation was extended to home demonstration ladies of the county to attend a council meeting in Tom Green County on November 13 at 2:30 p.m. for the purpose of exchanging Christmas ideas.

Prizes were awarded the first three winners in kitchen demonstration and the first three in home food supply demonstration.

A report was given on the educational program held in Ozona on Nov. 2nd by Mrs. Gordie Alexander and Mrs. Jarvis Benton. The council will meet on the second Saturday of each month in the future, instead of the first Saturday, as previously scheduled.

The following officers were elected for 1938: Mrs. Palmer West; chairman; Mrs. Claude Alexander, vice chairman; Mrs. Orville James, re-elected secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Gordie Alexander, parliamentarian and Mrs. Jarvis Benton, reporter.

Mrs. F. M. Bradley returned home last Friday night from Fort Sam Houston, where she had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frost.

Mr. and Mrs. Van McCormick went to San Angelo last Sunday to be with Mrs. McCormick's father, Mr. Ballew, who suffered a heart attack Saturday.

Landowner Does Not Obligate Himself By Signing Lien Waiver For Tenant To Qualify Him For Government Cotton Loan

The following letter from the Washington office deals with the landlord signing a lien waiver to qualify his tenant for the 1937 government cotton loan. Because of the fact that there is some confusion in this county regarding this matter, we are quoting this letter so the facts may be more clearly understood by producers.

"This acknowledges your letter of October 16 advising that many landlords are refusing to execute the waiver and consent pledge contained in the loan agreement in cases where the landlord has received his rent or share of the cotton and has no lien to waive.

"This matter has been taken up informally with the Commodity Credit Corporation and we have been advised that the experience with past loans is convincing enough to require the landlord to execute the waiver even though in fact he has no lien. In some of the previous loans made by the Commodity Credit Corporation the landlord was not required to execute the waiver and consent clause of the agreement unless he actually had a lien on the cotton sought to be pledged by the tenant. It developed in a number of cases that the landlord in fact had a lien and as a consequence the Corporation experienced considerable difficulty in protecting its interests.

"By requiring the landlord to execute the waiver and consent to pledge, additional protection is afforded and at the same time the landlord is in no way inconvenienced. It is assumed that the reason given by the landlords for refusing to execute the waiver is that in doing so they feel they become obligated to participate in 1938 agricultural programs. This, as you know, is not the case. The landlord becomes obligated in no way by signing the waiver and consent to pledge.

Perhaps they also feel if the tenant signs the agreement and remains on the farm the landlord himself will become obligated to participate in 1938. This also is a misconception of the agreement. The borrowing tenant, however, does agree to participate in agricultural programs in operation in 1938 and in the event he fails to fulfill the agreement he remains liable for the face amount of the note plus accrued interest and charges. In view of these considerations, it is difficult to see what objection landlords can otherwise have to signing the waiver and consent to pledge in order that the tenant may place his share of the cotton under the loan and it is believed that if these facts were generally understood, landlords would sign the waiver without question.

"You also advise that the unwillingness of landlords to indicate that they will cooperate in 1938 is causing tenants to leave the farms and as a consequence are being deprived of an opportunity to receive the cotton price adjustment payment and also are prevented from placing the cotton under loan. With respect to the loan a tenant is not prevented from placing his cotton under loan because his landlord refuses to cooperate in 1938. A tenant may place his share of the cotton under loan even though he has not as yet found a place to farm in 1938. It is only required that he agree to participate in 1938 agricultural programs and in the event he does not he will not be entitled to the full benefit of the loan agreement, that is, he will remain liable for the face amount of the note plus accrued interest and charges.

"With respect to the cotton price adjustment payment, the tenant becomes entitled to receive payment provided he submits proof of compliance with the 1938 agricultural adjustment program to be formulated. It is immaterial whether he complies on the same farm operated in 1937 or another farm wherever located. It is easily understood how the landlord's refusal to cooperate in 1938 is forcing many tenants to leave the farms. However, we wonder if such landlords have given full consideration to the probable effects of their refusal. In so refusing the landlord himself will be unable to receive the cotton price adjustment payment and will in many cases be unable to procure desirable tenants in 1938.

"Possibly landlords are refusing now for the reason that they wish first to understand the nature of the program to be formulated. While no accurate prediction can be made as to the precise nature of the contemplated legislation, it may be assumed that the program formulated under it will not be a radical departure from past programs. Congress convenes on November 15 and soon thereafter will begin consideration of the 1938 agricultural adjustment programs cited in the legislation providing for cotton price adjustment payments."

Very truly yours,
E. N. Holmgren,

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

A few of the big daily papers and Senator Shivers of Port Arthur have criticized me because I said over the radio that unless the Legislature provided revenues, pension payments would be stopped after November 1st. Now that the Board of Control has announced that payments will be made at least for the next two months these papers and this Senator are trying to make it appear that I misrepresented things.

If they wanted to be fair they would tell the people that before I made my radio speech the State Board of Control, which handles pensions, made a written statement to the Legislature that payments would be stopped unless the Legislature provided money. These papers and this Senator know that I relied upon the statement of the Board of Control in making my appeal for aid.

But, in any event, it doesn't make much difference who made the statement first. The rest of the record is this:

For over a year now the Board of Control has owned $1,626,000 to Dallas banks on warrants issued before the tax bills went into effect. I told the Legislature last January this would have to be paid. No provision was made for it. I told the Legislature again during the special session that this should be paid. Nothing was done about it. Meantime, however, the Dallas bank had been demanding its money and the Board of Control had agreed to pay it. They told the bank positively that they would take care of it if the Legislature didn't at the special session. This was the reason they issued the statement that payments would be stopped unless the Legislature provided more money. Now the Legislature didn't make provision for paying this money, which simply meant that if the bank continued to insist upon its money then the Board of Control would have to cut payments out completely for at least two months, just as they said they would. However, the Board has prevailed upon them to accept payments of $100,000 a month for November and December so they can go ahead and make November and December payments. They are to work out other arrangements for paying the balance to the bank about January 1st.

Naturally I am pleased to know that according to the Board of Control's statement old age assistance can go on through the next two months. One member of the Board of Control, Mr. John Wallace, testified that payments would not be stopped at all and there would be no reduction on the rolls. I had been hearing that they were going to cut off several thousand, and was not surprised yesterday when Mr. Little testified before a legislative committee that this was inevitable since the Legislature had failed to provide more money.

Whether the board pays the debt of $1,626,000 to the banks in installments or all at once, any school boy could figure out that the board has got to cut the rolls or cut the average of $14 per month. For that reason, I regret the ray of false hope which has been held out to the old people when the day of reckoning is inevitable.

I am opposed to dropping any more needy aged from the rolls. I think that many of the so-called border line cases should be put on the rolls rather than lopping them off, particularly during the coming weeks when winter will be setting in. The present $14 a month payment is not enough for a pension especially with the added suffering that will result from the winter months.

Another angle of suffering is the relief problem which is linked with that of old age assistance. The aged needy who are dropped from the rolls must be cared for by someone. If they turn to the relief rolls for help, they will find the lines swollen by an estimated 325,000 people. This figure according to the relief administrator compares unfavorably with the lesser number of 166,779 last January when when public works projects removed many from indigent rolls.

Neither the state nor federal government are able to supply money for direct aid but only relief in the form of surplus food-stuffs and some clothing. With the suffering of the aged people added to that of those unfortunates without employment, it is obvious the cry of the destitute will be heard over Texas in the midst of the rainy, cold winter months.

With these will be the needy, blind and destitute children left holding an empty bag by the Legislature.

When this situation comes to pass, the question "Why?" will be on the lips of every citizen.

That question will be directed at the corporation senators—Holbrook and company—whose job of scuttling the social security financing program cost the state a $200,000 session but saved the wealthy natural resource groups from shouldering a humanitarian burden. Their attitude "Am I my brother's keeper?" will be the target for those needy unfortunates whose faith was not kept.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—There is a classic newspaper story about a young reporter who was sent to write the details of a story involving the destruction of a town by a tornado. He surveyed the wreckage, and then spent several hours trying to think up an impressive opening sentence for his story, while his editors waited impatiently. Finally he produced this masterpiece: "All is confusion."

And that phrase might aptly be used to describe the Texas political scene, in the wake of the taxless special session. Gov. Allred apparently is undecided what he will do. He insisted this week he wouldn't call another session "until assured a tax bill will be passed." His closest advisers are telling him that he shouldn't try for a third term, but the governor seems reluctant to take their advice. This week a man who has been his closest political adviser told this reporter: "I don't think the Governor has any idea of running for a third term."

Within an hour, the Governor told another of his friends, who is supporting Col. Ernest Thompson for governor: "Don't count me out of the race too soon."

Thompson's Friends Active

Meanwhile, Col. Thompson's friends are pushing ahead steadily with organization of his campaign, and the colonel is expected to make a formal announcement soon after January 1, and launch a vigorous personal campaign soon thereafter. Attorney General Bill McCraw, who has been campaigning since the last election, is driving ahead with his speaking tours and publicity barrage.

Meanwhile, politicians were intensely interested in a report that one of the Federal District Judges in the Western Texas district (in which Allred's home town of Wichita Falls is located) is nearing the retirement age, and might step down soon, creating a vacancy upon which the Governor has his eye. Allred has assiduously cultivated his already happy relation ship with the White House in recent months, keeping alive the belief that a Federal Judgeship in his idea of how to get out of his present political dilemma.

Pensions To Continue

The political threat to suspend old-age pension payments if the Legislature failed to enact a tax bill blew out of the water this week—as predicted in this column—when the Board of Control, through John Wallace, its minority and retiring member, declared arrangements had been worked out with the Republic National Bank in Dallas to pay off the $1,600,000 of pension warrants the bank holds, on the installment plan. This, Wallace declared, assures pension payments for November, December, January and February.

A pretty little political drama was enacted behind the scenes. The Board of Control sent a letter to Harry Graves during the session, saying pensions would have to stop unless the tax bill passed. The Governor made the same declaration in his radio "fireside chat." When the tax bill failed, Wallace, who wasn't reappointed by Allred and retired January 1, was sent to Dallas by the Board, to negotiate with the Bank. So well did he do the job that at least four months' additional pension payments were worked out. That left both the Board of Control and the governor out on a limb on their threat—but the old folks won't go hungry, and Wallace gets the credit.

Nepotism Probe Goes On

The final report of the House investigating committee looking into the employment of relatives of legislators, campaign contributions and other alleged malpractices in State departments may contain some sensational matter developed through its questionnaires or in executive sessions, but the probe so far has not developed anything exciting. Under the chairmanship of Judge Ben Cathey of Quitman, it has brought out testimony that employees in the treasury, the comptroller's office, the department of their bosses. But there was no evidence that these contributions were extorted. And, while everybody knows that it is a favorite trick of department heads to hire friends or relatives of legislators—therein being the chief strength of the official lobby—it is pretty difficult to get the legislators to work up much of a lather over a practice in which they are the chief beneficiaries. The committee also heard Land Commissioner Bill McDonald voice a stout defense of his policy of rejecting high cash bids for oil leases on state school lands, and awarding the leases to bidders who offer small cash sums, and large payments in oil royalty—if oil is found.

"It is, of course, a gamble either way," said McDonald. "But I get the best information I can on the prospect of striking oil on each tract, and I think the schools will profit more in the long run by accepting the larger share of royalty, particularly on the tracts which look like they are sure to be oil producers." McDonald said he wouldn't oppose a bill voting the leasing power in a board, instead of in himself alone, but admitted he opposed a bill by Coke Stevenson with such a provision, at the regular session.

"I opposed it because there were a lot of other things in that bill I didn't like," he said.

News And Names

A strange parallel between the appointment of Harry Graves, Georgetown legislator, to the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the naming of Senator Hugo Black to the supreme court exists. Many lawyers claim Graves is not qualified, because he voted for a bill raising the pay of the judges at the regular session, the resigned to accept appointment to the court at the hands of Gov. Allred, exactly as the claim was made that Black had disqualified himself by increasing the emoluments of the Eupremeract as a Senator, before he was appointed. Lawyers here are reluctant to discuss Graves' case openly, but most of the best ones privately say he is disqualified. Graves' case openly, but most of the best one privately say he is disqualified. Whether a court test will be made of the matter remains to be seen. . . . Contract for the first 22-mile section of the Kenedy County road through the King Ranch to the Rio Grande valley probably will be let by the Highway Commission Nov. 23. The road was an issue in the last Governor's race, with Allred promising to get it started. The new road has been designated a Federal route, and opens a shorter route to the Valley. . . . Sulphur taxes from Oct. 1, 1936 to Oct. 1, 1937 were $2,251,936, a jump of 89.45 percent.

increase, due to larger production and increased tax rate. Liquor revenues also jumped in October to $674,552, an increase of $119,041 over Oct. last year. Pensions got $462,920 and schools $141,359 of the October liquor revenue.

ON THE
Electrical Standard of Living

HAVE YOU ever thought how little the Pilgrims actually had for which to give thanks? How infinitely more blessed are we of today! But it was those brave souls who, through love for home and family, made Thanksgiving Day a national institution—a day for reflection on our domestic bliss. And our blessings have increased year after year until 1937 finds many thousands of West Texans possessed of all-electric homes . . . enjoying the Electrical Standard of Living. It is a mode of life—comfort and ease—undreamed by the Pilgrims. Its adoption has been swift in West Texas, so swift that this Thanksgiving finds a larger percentage of West Texans living in electrical security than do average Americans. We live better because every man who ever loved his family has sought to provide the advantages of Electric Service.

deformities will be recorded on a grade card.

Not only will driver's license applicants be examined as to their ability to handle a vehicle with safety, but the vehicle itself will be tested for defects in brakes, horn, lights, rear-view mirror, and windshield wiper.

If a driver proves his ability to operate his vehicle with care and safety he will immediately receive his license at the examination headquarters. If a passing grade is not made after the test is completed, in instruction permit card will be issued which requires the applicant to return at a later date for another examination. Examiners of the Safety Department estimate that a complete test can be given in 12 minutes.

Truck, bus, and other commercial vehicle drivers will be issued licenses divided into three classes, A, B, and C, according to the type of vehicle to be operated. Passenger and school bus drivers are issued a permit bearing a special endorsement of the Department.

Col. Carmichael urged that drivers seeking licenses verse themselves in safety regulation, rules of the highway and the mechanical operations of their vehicles in preparations for the tests.

A GOOD DAY AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Last Sunday was really a good day for the Baptist Church. There were 208 present at Sunday school and a large crowd present for the preaching service. We were all made happy at the announcement Sunday morning by Judge Whitten, chairman of the Finance Committee, that the debt on the church had been paid. Appreciation was expressed for the fine way the church and friends of the church cooperated in paying this debt.

We were delighted Sunday night to have the students and faculty from the High School as our special guests. We appreciate the fine cooperation of this group.

Queen's Coronation Is Staged Saturday Night At Carnival

After two weeks of preliminary and final struggles between the four classes in High School to determine who was to be Queen of the Carnival, Ernestine Finnigan of the Senior Class came out ahead. The preliminary race resulted in the Senior and Freshman class being represented in the finals, with Ernestine and Ruth Aline Danford the candidates of their respective classes. After a slow start in the final campaign the contest waxed hot on the closing day, and especially the closing hours and minutes, when the Freshman Class turned in $74.00 in two boxes, but this amount was quickly put in the shade by the Seniors turning in all of theirs at once to bring their total for the final to $91.00. Counting the preliminaries, in which $135.00 was taken in, the entire Queen's race took in about $299.00, to top last year's race by about $140.

The Coronation ceremony in charge of Miss Howell, Miss Elmore, and Mrs. Hicks was very impressive and beautiful. The Queen and her entire court were strikingly dressed with each girl wearing a corsage and the Queen carrying a beautiful bouquet of carnations. Mr. Riddle controlled the spot light of many colors, which he threw on the members of the court as they advanced down the aisles to the stage.

George Williams was elected, by vote of the student body, as the most popular boy in High School in a close run off with Edward Meador. This vote made George King of the Carnival, so he became the escort of Ernestine in the Coronation Ceremony. Edward Meador attended Ruth Aline Danford as Prince. Other Princes and Princesses were Jack Jones and Billie B. Steward; Joe Ed Hill and Beatrice Wright, Dukes and Duchesses were Gerald Nicks and Genevieve Ramsey; Glenn Parker and Kathleen Crosby; Orval Edmiston and Doll Weatherly; and Bob Williams and Eloise Whitten. Jo Ann Bowman and Joe Chan Whitten were the beautiful young pages of the court, with one carrying the Queen's staff and the other carrying her crown.

After the Queen was crowned a short program was presented for the entertainment of she and her court. The first number was "The Skaters Waltz" under the direction of Miss Elmore. The second number was a violin solo by C. F. Jones. Jo Ann Bearce then gave a reading for the third number. A group of seventh grade girls then gave the "Blue Danube Waltz." The last number on the program was a song by the Girls' Trio, made up of Neva Jo Steward, Rosalyn Jones, and Betty Jo Whitten.

After the program for the court was over the members of the court sang the school song, bowed to the Queen and left the stage.

The Carnival ran for two hours before the Coronation, then practically closed down until after it was over, then opened up in full blast with Bingo, Shooting Gallery, Muscle Dancers, Photo Gallery, Fish Pond, Fortune Telling, Picture Taking, Zoo and Monkey Cage being swarmed with customers. The Bingo stand with the useful list of prizes donated by the merchants of the town drawing a full table almost every time was the big money gatherer, but the Shooting Gallery, Muscle Dancers and Foods Booth ran good seconds. In the Photo Gallery Mrs. Blaine Sammons won the prettiest baby prize, with Luke Thompson and Rev. Wilkinson running her a close race. Rev. Wilkinson tried to fudge on the others with some curls, but still didn't get over. Luke Thompson should have won on sheer beauty "unadorned," but these women just naturally get the call over the male sex when it comes to beauty. Rosalyn Jones won the prize of naming the greatest number of pictures, with 42 out of a possible 61. The Home Economics girls with Miss Johnson in charge put out good hot food and coffee throughout the noisy, but orderly affair. Noise makers and candy were sold by Mrs. Williamson to match the loud lunged Bingo barkers.
