

MEDITATIONS
By the Editor

A well-known labor journal carried the following editorial in its current issue, that impressed this department in such a manner that it is doubtful if we could write anything more "readable" at this crucial time in the history of the world.

The editorial:

"A Missouri congressman opened the long expected pro-German campaign for a soft peace. He says we should not be harsh with the poor Germans. Their only crime against us was the killing, wounding and torturing of half a million American boys.

"They killed many more Russians than that. And many more Englishmen and Frenchmen and Scandinavians. So why should we be sore over only half a million.

"The congressman can't understand it. He says that those who advocate punishment of the Germans to fit their crimes are following Jewish advice. And he quotes the Bible and Henry Morgenthau to prove it.

"What we should do, according to this man from Missouri, is to 'turn the other cheek.' In other words, let them sock us again.

"But we tried that once, Mr. Congressman! Don't you remember 1918? We had another war with Germany then. And after that war we did exactly what you tell us to do now. We turned the other cheek. And what happened? We got knocked on our fanny.

"Half a million American boys were killed, wounded and tortured for the second time in a single generation.

"And now this man suggests that we try it again. He combines his pro-German campaign with an anti-Jewish campaign, which is strictly logical from a German point of view.

"But when he attempts to gloss over the hideous atrocities of the German concentration camps, he needs more than a German point of view.

"He forgets we have all seen the ghastly pictures of what the Germans did to their captives. But still he tries to divert our attention from the Germans by arousing our prejudice against the Jews.

"That's old stuff, Mr. Congressman. Maybe it will work in your Missouri congressional district. A district that would elect a German apologist might be influenced by German propaganda.

"But as far as the rest of the country is concerned, it is not going to fall for the myth of the 'peace loving Germans' again.

"Both our cheeks are scarred by the mailed fist of imperial and ruthless Germany. We haven't any more cheeks to turn, Mr. Congressman."

Stage Show Here Two More Nights

L. L. Plunkett here last week, made arrangements with the local American Legion to sponsor three days of drama, minstrelsy and vaudeville. The tent show is situated on the lot across from the West Texas Utilities Company.

The Plunketts formerly were with Harley Sadler's show, providing much of the vaudeville. There are ten brothers and sisters in the family, and most of them are here. There are 25 persons in the show.

A change of program is being made each of the two remaining nights the show is here, and Plunkett says that he believes the trained seal act alone is well worth the price of admission.

CORRECTION

In compiling data last week on advancement of the local post office, it was misconstrued by this publication and stated the office would be first class, and should have read second class.

The new ruling and regulations set out will be as stated last week as the two classes under the same ruling.

County Exceeds 7th Loan Quota As Drive Ends

C. L. Meador, Jr., Chairman of the Schleicher County War Finance Committee Wednesday stated the County had again exceeded its quota in both Series E bonds and its overall quota.

"Our quota for Series E bonds was assessed at $80,000, and the people bought $80,025 in this series. The county's overall quota was $170,00 and due to the close co-operation of non-resident property owners, local citizens and the splendid work of those assisting in the 7th Loan Drive, we were able to report an over-all purchase today of $172,985.00," Meador said.

Thus ends another fulfillment of an obligation by residents and property owners of this county.

Revival To Begin Sunday At Reynolds

It was announced this week by residents of the Reynolds community that a revival would begin at the school house in that community Sunday morning at 11 o'clock conducted by Minister Marshall Davis of Roswell, N. M.

The meeting will run through the following Sunday, with services twice daily. Evening services are to start at 8:45 daily.

The public is invited to attend.

Altercation Victim Remains Unconscious

The condition of M. C. Cameron, about 36, Stanolind employee, remains critical, according to reports at press time. Cameron, whose home is Ozona, is in a San Angelo hospital in an unconscious condition following an altercation at a dance here Thursday night of last week.

A Sherwood man, about 26, was held in county jail by the sheriff's department for several days and released on $1,000 appearance bond following his arrest Friday morning about 1:00 o'clock after discovery of Cameron lying back of the building where the dance was in progress.

The victim was described by E. H. Sweatt, Schleicher sheriff, as having bruises and lacerations on the head and about the face, and suffering from a brain concussion.

The Sherwood man is reported to be a war veteran and on leave from a government hospital.

Revivalist

The Rev. Don I. Miller, pastor of the Fundamental Baptist Church, states that interest is growing in the two-weeks revival at his church, and that Rev. Allen Austin, shown above is delivering good sermons at each appearance. The meeting is to close Sunday, June 24.

ENTERED HOSPITAL

Clyde Roberts, local ranchman, entered a Temple hospital this week for major surgery.

Possibly one of the most important matters in the county's history came before the Schleicher County Commissioners' Court for approval at its regular meeting Monday of this week when it approved 29.3 miles of designated highway in the newly proposed road-to-market highway system of the State.

The body approved the east-west designation that would shorten the distance to Austin and other points and at the same time afford a wide, modern highway bringing travel to Eldorado from the two directions and give to taxpayers one of the best roads in the county to reach property in the general direction of the route and into the county seat.

In order to secure this highway the court must furnish a debt-free right-of-way to the State Highway Department, and in all probability a petition will be presented the court to order a bond election to finance fencing and purchase of right-of-ways through small tracts of land near Eldorado.

Two Sons of E. M. Doty's Receive Injuries In Service

Marine Private First Class Bennie Joe Doty, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Doty, is recovering from injuries received in a shell explosion during the early days of the invasion of Iwo Jima.

In a letter to his parents, the Marine stated that he was able to be up after having spent 44 days in the hospital. A letter from the War Department written March 14, informed them also of their son's injuries.

Another son, Pvt. Earnest M. Doty, received a broken right hand in an accident at his station in the Hawaiian Islands. He is recovering after a stay of 90 days in the hospital, and is becoming quite adept at writing letters with his left hand, his parents stated.

Special Father's Day Services Next Sunday

Perfecting final plans for a special service in recognition of Father's Day, the Rev. J. M. Hays announced this week the church was sponsoring the special service, and that all fathers, men and their families are invited to attend.

A special announcement appears elsewhere in this issue of the Success.

Dial Telephone Project In Need of Large Amount Approval Signers

Early this week there remained approximately 195 subscribers to be contacted in order to determine whether or not Eldorado and the county wants a dial telephone system in connection with a new and imperative telephone set-up over the area when completion and use of REA lines is a reality.

At the weekly meeting of the Eldorado Lions Club, a discussion was held concerning the rebuilding of the telephone service lines. "It is most urgent that subscribers be contacted and presented a petition to designate approval of a dial system that would afford 24-hour service if the area is to secure it," stated members of the club who are well informed on the matter.

"Since a new set-up is to be brought about by the San Angelo Telephone Company, citizens will have an opportunity to get this modern system at a slight increase in rate so far as telephone rentals are concerned," stated the club spokesmen.

A motion was made, seconded and carried unanimously upon a vote to employ a circulator of the petition to complete the survey. W. N. Ramsay was secured for the place, and those who will be urged by the committee appointed by the Lions, to see Ramsay and sign the petition, since the telephone company must be informed soon if a dial system is to be installed for use in the county.

YOU know that sagging, sawdust feeling. It's a wartime symptom of the high cost of living. You often get it when you go to market or pay a bill.

But not when you pay your electric bill. For the price of electric service hasn't followed other prices UP. It's still at low pre-war levels—or even a little lower. In fact, if yours is an average family, you're getting just about twice as much electricity for your money today as you did 15 years ago.

We're glad we've been able to keep your electric service cheap and friendly and dependable—in spite of wartime conditions. That makes our hard work and careful business management seem worth while. And we are glad that it helps give you some relief from "rag doll knees"!

Home Canners Facing Challenge Of Supplying Foods

By Mrs. Fannie L. Pittman
Schleicher County Home Demonstration Agent

Home canners during 1945 face the challenge of at least matching their efforts in 1944, when they accounted for nearly half of the total civilian supply of canned vegetables and two-thirds of the canned fruits available to civilians. Nearly 25 million households put up an estimated 3,400,000,000 quarts of home preserved food in 1944.

The urgent need for home food preservation is emphasized by the fact that military requirements for commercially canned foods have been advancing rapidly. Because of heavy military requirements coupled with strong civilian demand arising from larger wartime incomes, the supply of commercially canned fruits and vegetables available to civilians is now less than at any time during the war. In the current year civilian supplies of canned fruit are only about half of the 1941 supply, with canned vegetables down more than one-third.

Canning equipment may now be bought. Manufacture of 630,000 pressure cookers has been authorized for 1945, compared with 400,000 in 1944. This year's canners will not be rationed and will be available through regular commercial channels.

There are several points to take into consideration when thinking of the value of home canning.

1. Home canning is a wartime necessity that is essential for the Nation's supply of canned fruits and vegetables and essential for each family to make sure of having foods needed for health at any time during the year.

2. There is great economy in the saving of precious foods by preserving them when they are plentiful for use when they are scarce.

3. Better meals the year round can be achieved by home preservation of fruits and vegetables. Nutrition standards call for at least four and, if possible, six to seven servings of fruits and vegetables every day.

4. Victory Gardening is the starting point for home canning. You should plan your canning budget when you order your garden seeds.

5. Efficiency, using the best methods, is the ONLY way to preserve food at all. Naturally you want to do your canning SAFELY, without explosions or spoiled food. Naturally you want to get the most food value out of your efforts. You want to know the best ways to dry, freeze, pickle, brine, store, or can foods. Get advice from your home demonstration agent, State Agricultural College, or the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

The need for home canning is more urgent than ever, despite the unavoidable reduction of our sugar supplies. The food experts of the Department of Agriculture suggest that the home canner, to get the best use of her sugar, vary the ratio of four quarts of fruit to one cup of sugar somewhat according to the fruit she cans. Sour fruits may demand, and get, more than the average sugar, while very juicy and sweet fruits can take short rations of sugar. Such individual adjustments may be worked out by the housewife.

Honey may be used to replace as much as half the sugar called for in canning; or corn syrup may replace as much as one-third. If necessary, fruit may be canned entirely without sugar. Sugar helps canned fruit hold its shape, color, and flavor. But sugar isn't necessary to keep fruit from spoiling. Unsweetened fruit is processed in the same manner as sweetened.

J. R. Wood New General Counsel for Southwestern Life

Dallas.—Appointment of James Ralph Wood as general counsel for the Southwestern Life Insurance was announced in word received today from C. F. O'Donnell, president, by the Company's local representative, W. O. Alexander.

Mr. Wood has been a partner in the law firm of Hamilton, Lipscomb, Wood & Swift in Dallas since 1935. The firm has been dissolved due to the death of James L. Lipscomb in January. He came to Dallas in 1927 to become an associate in the firm of Cockrell, McBride, O'Donnell & Hamilton, after having been engaged in the practice of law in Sherman, Texas, with his father, the late J. H. Wood, and Judge Ben L. Jones, former Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals for the fifth district of Texas.

Mr. Wood is a graduate of the University of Texas, from which he received his LLB degree in 1921. He volunteered for the First Officers Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas, at the beginning of World War I and went overseas as a first lieutenant with the 90th division. He was honorably discharged as a captain. Widely known in Dallas legal, social, and civic circles, he is an active member of the American Bar Association, State Bar of Texas and the Dallas Bar Association; a past president of Dallas Country Club, a member of Dallas Athletic Club, and other organizations.

James L. Wash of Dallas will be associated with Mr. Wood.

H. D. CLUB STUDIES POULTRY DRESSING

"Always hang a chicken by its feet while killing to avoid dark meat," stated Mrs. Fannie L. Pittman, Home Demonstration agent, at a regular meeting of the 4-H club Monday, June 11, in the home of Delma Logan.

"By hanging a chicken by its feet and allowing it to drip until bleeding is complete, the blood does not clot inside the bird, and the meat is all white. Dark meat is a result of blood clots in the bird," she said.

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing and demonstrating methods of canning chicken. "Birds that are two years or older are better for canning because they yield a product with better texture and flavor," Mrs. Pittman said. She also told and demonstrated how to remove the tendons in the chicken's leg.

Jane Mund was elected secretary and Dorothy Valis was elected assistant reporter. Council delegates are Wanda Dannheim and Pauline Nixon. New members included Jane Mund, Pauline Nixon and Wanda Dannheim.

Meeting days are the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Only one meeting will be held in July in the home of Wanda Dannheim on July 19.

Refreshments were served to those present.

Swimming Pool Increase Seen Soon In State

More than 140 public and private swimming pools will be built in Texas within five years after the war, according to a recent study by a prominent swimming publication.

"Increased stress on swimming in the armed forces, the intensive instruction program of the Red Cross and the growing pollution of open waters will result in doubling swimming facilities everywhere," said Sylvian Hoffman, editor of Beach and Pool, who forecast that the nation will construct about 10,000 new pools in the first five postwar years.

Outdoor pools, now about 60 per cent of the total in operation throughout the country, will show a slight gain over indoor in future construction, according to Hoffman. Tile will continue to be used extensively for pools because of its sanitary features and ease of cleaning. Chief change will be a demand for new designs and more use of color, he predicted.

"In general, municipal pools will be larger, with wading and diving separated from swimming sections," Hoffman said. "Tile indoor pools will be in greatest demand by schools and colleges, where swimming, like other body building exercises, will be stepped up after the war," he declared.

Texas now has about 145 pools, according to estimates. Swimming facilities of private estates, camps, hotels, country clubs and pool operators, as well as municipalities, are included in this figure.

The greatest number of U. S. swimming pools—an estimated 4,000 of the national total of 10,000—are owned by municipalities and counties. YMCA's, colleges, schools and hotels come next, with 2,500, while private estates claim 1,500 pools, country clubs 1,200 and commercial interests 800.

17-Year-Olds To Make Up Red Raider Squad Next Season

LUBBOCK, June.—Coach Dell Morgan of the Texas Tech Red Raiders, will again have to rely primarily on a group of youngsters to take on the 1945 ten-game schedule. Morgan has very little comment on the prospects for the coming season. He will hand you a schedule and remark, "We certainly were optimistic when we made this out."

Then he will show you a list of 24 boys, who were out for the spring football training and remark, "Many of these will definitely not be here in the fall, the others, no one knows whether they will be here for another week or for another three months, but the Red Raiders will be playing them and playing them hard with what we will have on hand in the fall."

On the spring training list are found the names of the following lettermen from the 1944 season: Walter Selinkman, Dumas; Arthur Shahan, Graham; Cecil Norris, Beaumont; Gene Hardey, Hugoton, Kansas; and T. M. Cox, Muleshoe, Backs. The lettermen who reported for spring training are: John Birdwell, Bossier City, La.; Clyde Black, Ben Franklin; Jack Dillon, Winslow, Arip.; Otis Turner, Wink; Joe Snodgrass, Brownfield; Floyd Lawhorn, Temple; and Bob Hayes, Burkburnett.

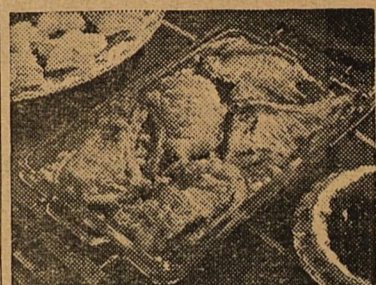

Schlinkman received a medical discharge from the Naval Reserves. Dillon and Turner received medical discharges from the army. Shahan, Norris, Cox, Birdwell, Black, and Hayes have been turned down by the armed forces and placed in a 4-F classification. Hardey and Snodgrass have not yet reached their eighteenth birthday.

The remainder of the spring training list consists of a few squadmen from last season and high school graduates who have just recently enrolled at Texas Tech. The Raiders will again be running from the T formation and will have to depend greatly on the 17-year old boys, who will enroll at Tech this summer or in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones returned Friday of last week from Marlin where they have been undergoing medical treatment.

Freezer Locker Foods Make Zestful Duet

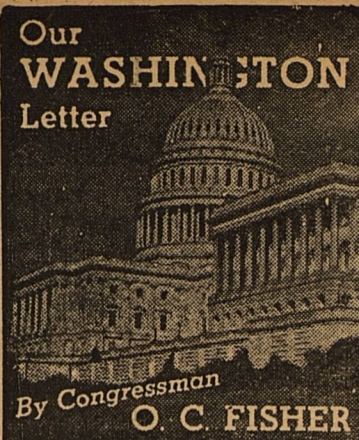

"On those 'just home from town' evenings, try a baked corn and pork chop casserole, the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer advises housewives.

"It's an appetizing combination of two foods you've frozen in your locker or canned this last season," she writes. "Catsup with corn gives the casserole color and a palate-teasing quality."

Corn and Pork Chop Casserole
 3 pork chops 1 c. diced celery
 Fat 1 c. soft bread crumbs
 Salt and pepper 1/2 c. tomato catsup
 2 c. whole kernel corn 1 tsp. salt

Have chops cut 1/2 inch thick; season and brown well. Combine remaining ingredients and place in greased casserole. Top with browned chops, pressing in slightly. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes or until chops are done. Serves 5.

Besides adding something temptingly different to the family bill-of-fare, this dish gives a tantalizing aroma and a bright new look to the table, the Capper's Farmer expert points out.

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

Lt. Petritz
 When American bombers set fire to an unmarked Japanese prison ship off the Philippine coast last fall, only two out of some 1400 American prisoners escaped recapture. One of those was Lt. George Petritz of Illinois.

Lt. Petritz described his experiences to a meeting of Texas members of Congress last week, with Under Secretary of War Patterson attending as an interested guest. The young Lieutenant, a hero of Corregidor, told of intimate details of Japanese brutalities. His prison life was climaxed by the ride on the ill-fated Jap prison ship. The Americans were herded into the hold of the ship where 230 died in two days from suffocation, all because the Japs refused to open ventilators.

Lt. Petritz recalled the thoughts and hopes of the prisoners during the 30-month ordeal of prison life, many of whom no longer live. "The men I knew," he said, "want to give the members of Congress and the American people the details of their experiences. We want to help you prevent this sort of thing from happening again. We want to help maintain American democracy so this will always be the best place on earth in which to live."

A Dying Bureau
 Many wartime agencies have been essential in order to prevent inflation, control distribution of goods and insure adequate materials for war industries. Many of these will insist on being made permanent. An example is the Fair Employment Practices Committee, set up by Executive order purportedly to help solve certain manpower problems during wartime.

A desperate attempt is now being made to make the F. E. P. C. permanent, from now on, and give it tremendous powers of control and regimentation over employment practices of merchant and farmers.

This proposed legislation stems mostly from the influence of pressure groups, highly organized, that make violent political threats against Congressmen who don't do as they are told.

The fight to make the F. E. P. C. permanent is being led in the House by Congressman Vito Marcantonio of New York, of the American Labor Party. Every radical organization in the country is supporting the move and there are some people who support it solely because they don't know of its vicious un-American provisions.

Here, briefly, are some of results the measure would bring about:

1. It would enable a bureau in Washington to tell the farmer and merchant affected whom they can hire, whom they can fire and whom they can promote. It would protect the lazy and the indolent.
2. It would allow the bureau to force school boards to hire teachers of minority races, regardless of the judgment of the trustees.
3. It would deprive the farmer and merchant of a right of trial by jury where a complaint be filed by a disgruntled jobholder or job seeker, claiming discrimination on account of race, religion, etc.
4. It would set up a system of regulations over employers, that would make F. E. P. C. the investigator, the prosecutor and the judge.
5. If enacted, it would be the first time in American history that an independent agency could force an employer to hire a particular person, contrary to his own good judgment and the effect on the success of his business.
6. It would repeal job preference laws now in effect for the benefit of war veterans, to the extent that there should be a conflict between the preference laws and the broad jurisdiction given the F. E. P. C. It would thereby strike a terrific blow at the veterans of this war.

From this, it is easy to understand why it is that, with a better general understanding of the vicious provisions contained in the bill, much opposition has developed. The temporary set-up will die on July 1st, unless revived. It is bogged down at the moment and many of us are doing everything in our power to see that it stays bogged down. We hope it's a case of a dying bureau.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

One "take this" is better than two "you shall have."

The first time your columnist name ever appeared in print was about the age of 6: "Master Boyce House is recovering from a spell of the chicken-pox." Right under that highly important item was: "Farmer George Higgins, one of the most successful farmers of the Liberty community, was a welcome visitor to the Argus office Saturday and while here left ye editor a watermelon and renewed his subscription for another year."

One line about my having been the victim of a long illness and four lines about a farmer renewing his subscription. It was a long time before I forgave the press—in fact, it was after I had become a home-town weekly editor myself and realized that there was nothing more important than a subscriber renewing.

A little poem from the Star-Telegram, Jr., the little paper that is issued of, by and for the men and women for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. The author is given simply as "Dad" and it's called, "So Long, Son—Good Luck."

Just what is there for a dad to say When duty calls one's only son away.

What bold fronts we make In this parting handshake, All turmoil within, yet outwardly gay— Each knows that the other wants it that way.

Dad knows well it's a man's part you play; You must do your duty—all the way.

And to these moments we grasp In a last hearty handclasp That's more than words as I only say; So long, Son; Good Luck, until another day.

LUBBOCK, June. — Numerous letters indicate a wide interest in the forthcoming book, W. LEE O'DANIEL AND TEXAS POLITICS, 1938-1942, by Dr. S. S. McKay, professor of history at Texas Technological College.

Others who write are Mrs. Margaret Duffie, secretary to the Governor, Preston E. Smith, state representative, James V. Allred, Guy McNamara, Gerald C. Mann, Adjutant Harry E. Rafter, and many others.

The Associated Press and the Scripps-Howard newspapers have asked for copies of the book and have indicated they would carry stories about it.

PRESBYTERIANS HAD ANNUAL PICNIC FRIDAY EVENING

Approximately 60 guests enjoyed the annual barbecue sponsored by the Presbyterian Church on the courthouse lawn Friday evening of last week.

A typical West Texas meal of barbecued chevon, beans, salad, pickles, onions, tea and cookies was served to the group.

The occasion which has grown to be an event anticipated by the entire congregation, brings together friends, relatives and acquaintances of long standing, in a spirit of social unity and neighborliness carried out with true western hospitality.

Nephew of Local Men Awarded Gallantry Medal

Sgt. Joseph W. Luckett, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Luckett, Lubbock, formerly of Eldorado, has been awarded the Silver Star Medal for gallantry in action with an infantry unit in Germany, according to a recent article in a daily newspaper.

The citation accompanying the award stated that "As the enemy advanced in superior numbers in a counterattack Sgt. Luckett and a companion, voluntarily and at great risk to their lives, remained behind to pour devastating machinegun fire on two enemy self-propelled guns, a tank, and supporting enemy infantrymen.

"Only after the entire section had cleared a wall and obtained cover did Sgt. Luckett and his comrade move their gun to a new position and resume their firing on the enemy. Their action contributing material to the successful repulsion of the assault."

Sgt. Luckett is a 1941 graduate of Eldorado High School and he was a student at Texas Technolgical College when he entered the Army in 1943. Previously he was awarded the Purple Heart.

Sgt. Luckett is a nephew of Jack and Bob Whitley of this place.
