Ratliff Donates Old Theatre Building To WOBP

submitted by the Way-Off Broadway Players

Through the generosity of owner Winnie Helen Ratliff, a permanent home has been created for civic use and Way-Off Broadway Players' productions. The building is the old theater which served Eldorado for many years as a movie house. Built in 1931 and with the stage still in place, the movie holds many memories for long time Schleicher County residents and was donated to the Way-Off Broadway Players Board of Directors by Mrs. Ratliff. The building is to be known as the Tom Ratliff Civic Theater as a memorial to her late husband.

"The Way-Off Broadway

Players are deeply grateful to Mrs. Ratliff for her generosity and community spirit," stated President Jo Ann Sproul who accepted the gift from Mrs. Ratliff on behalf of the Board of Directors. "This is a dream come true and a blessing to the theater group and community. We are excited and anxious to begin work on the building."

The hope is to start renovations soon. Based upon fund raising and volunteer help, there is the possibility that a production in the Tom Ratliff Civic Theater could come later this year. The Way-Off Broadway Players, as a not for profit corporation, will actively seek tax deductible contributions to offset the expense of the refurbishing the building.

The title to the building was transferred last Wednesday, March 16th. During the presentation and shortly afterwards, several true stories about events that happened in the old movie theater emerged. The directors have expressed an interest in collecting more of these stories so that an interesting history can be written and published.

Anyone with pictures or stories of the old theatre building, please contact Jo Ann Sproul or Geneva McWhorter.

Eldorado Clean-up Day Set

by Pat Sykes

The Great Texas Trash-Off, statewide clean-up day, has been set for Saturday, April 9, 1994. This is the designated day for all Adopt-A-Highway groups to clean their highways. Once again, we have set our city-wide clean-up to correspond with this. Last year we had 250 volunteers cleaning Eldorado's streets and Schleicher County's highways - let's see if we can break 300 this year!

SCHEDULE

9:00 a.m.: Registration for everyone (city volunteers and Adopt-A-Highway groups)

inside the Memorial Building, Cottonwood Street entrance. (Please register, we need your name for our records!) You will receive lunch badges and will be able to pick up your trash bags.

10:00 a.m.-12:00 Noon: Information Center open at Memorial Building.

12:00 Noon: Hot Dog Lunch - served to all workers with badges.

1:00-4:00 p.m.: Resume Clean-up; Information Center open at Memorial Building; - additional trash bags available.

All volunteers are asked to bring trailers, pick-up trucks, mowers, gas weed-eaters, rakes, brooms, gloves, etc. for cleanup. Coca-Cola will again provide trash bags. Please place filled bags along the curb or next to dumpsters. Please DO NOT put bags in street, dumpsters or blocking alleys.

City trucks will be picking up bags that day and the Sanitary Landfill will be open from 8:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Trucks going to dump trash, please bag or tarp debris. Southwest Texas Electric Co-op, Adopt-A-Highway Group for 190 West, will appreciate your cooperation. We don't want debris blowing out of the trucks.

We hope everyone will participate and have fun helping Keep Eldorado Beautiful!

EAFS Participates In Guardian Challenge

Eldorado Air Force Station officials have chosen their operation crew members to compete in the first Air Force Space Command competition which includes both space and missile units.

Capt. Ed Fienga will lead the three member crew as commander, SSgt. Mark Davis will perform crew chief duties, and SrA Pete Lasch will provide system console operator support during the May activities. They will be competing for the best space operations squadron, the Chennault trophy, as well as individual best missile warning awards.

According to Lt. Col. Tim

Kelly, commander of the phased array radar station seven miles north of Eldorado, Texas, the primary focus of Guardian Challenge is to enhance crew professionalism and mission understanding.

"The competition, formerly called Olympic Arena when it encompassed only missile launch units, represents a new atmosphere of competitiveness in addition to the fast-paced, time critical evaluations that they ordinarily face during exercise situations. The command has included some of the framework from the old Olympic Arena competition, but since that originated and has long been identified with the missile launch wings, they selected a new name to symbolize the recent merger of the missile launch and the space surveillance and warning missions under one major command structure," Colonel Kelly added. "We are confident that the Eldorado crew will set the standard for others to try to match."

Vandenberg AFB will host the teams from all of Air Force Space Command's units worldwide to attend the final score posting and awards banquet which will be held May 4th-6th.

Trail Blazers Enjoyed Dinner Theatre

Editor's Note: The following article is being reprinted by request from the February 24th issue of The Big Lake Wildcat.

Twenty-two members of Trail Blazers left Big Lake at 4:00 p.m. Saturday afternoon, February 12 for Eldorado. The Way-Off Broadway Players, in conjunction with the Chamber Pride Committee of Eldorado, presented a Dinner Theatre at 6:00 p.m. The play was "Daughters," written by John Morgan Evans. By the way, Eldorado was first place winner in the "Keep Texas Beautiful" contest last year. This $30,000 in prize money will be spent on a park project in Eldorado.

Now about the play: It was written by John Morgan Evans about an Italian family and was very believable... with Mama Mia etc. The mother had an ailing husband, two daughters, Tessie and Pattie Anne and a granddaughter, Cetta. Her mother, who was very old, lived with them, shuffled around, ate the pasta with her fingers and practically stole the show! We lived the play and identified with the family. "The funeral was nice," the Mama Mia said. "The funeral was nice?" asked her daughter. "Well, the flowers were nice," she replied.

Tessie told this corny joke, "...For 15 or 20 years this lady had fed her dog ground hamburger, but one day she decided to give him a big bowl of dried dog food...Friskies. The dog pitched a big fit and told her of. "You can TALK! Why didn't you tell me you could talk?" The dog replied, "Why, up until now, everything's been O.K."

Tessie expressed her feelings in this manner..."I'm not angry -- I hate 'em! Men are nothing but scumballs."

Pattie Anne had this good line near the end of the play..."In spite of all, you are still my family and I love you."

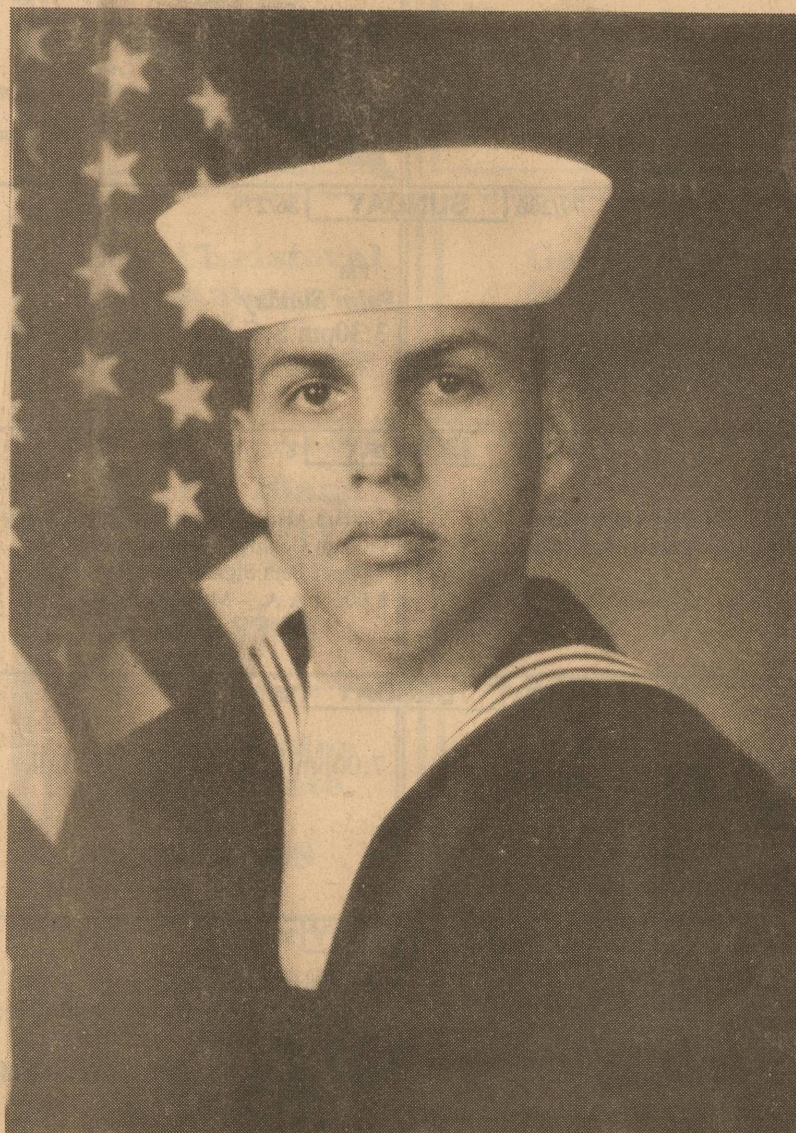

Our dinner was a dream come true. Influenced by the play, no doubt, we were served lasagna, Italian salad and bread on a red checkered cloth. Pan dulce caramella tartuga noche

(or chocolate turtle pie) for dessert. It had chocolate, pecans, caramels and cool whip. It was just wonderful! Dr. Lee Brewer, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Eldorado, had a beautiful operatic voice and he sang a couple of arias in Italian, if you would believe it. Also some light classics from Porgy and Bess. Terry Green was the talented pianist who entertained us while we ate, and also accompanied Dr. Brewer as he sang the classical music. She is one accomplished individual! The warm and friendly atmosphere made us feel very welcome. The music, food and everything was just beautiful, and we enjoyed our evening so much!

TOP OF THE DIVIDE by Thomas Giovannitti

by Thomas Giovannitti

All of us Irishmen know that today is Saint Patrick's day, a day on which a few of us drink green beer, march in parades, or merely celebrate our ancient homeland by helping a few illegal immigrants find jobs in New York. It might interest you to know that the next largest group of illegal aliens after hispanics is the Irish. St Patrick, whose origins seem to be shrouded in legend, may have been of Celtic blood himself, going to Europe to become a priest and returning to the emerald Isle to convert the natives. He is often credited with driving snakes, a symbol of the devil in some cultures, from Ireland and that is why there are no snakes in Ireland. None of us can refute the truth of such a boast since all eye witnesses are now long gone themselves.

I believe, though, that if St. Patrick were alive today he would not be a member of the Irish Republican Army. There is nothing either in myth or fact that show St. Patrick to be anyone other than a man of God, and men of God don't bomb places or shoot soldiers. The Irish are a proud race who struggled mightily against the English and managed to gain freedom for most all of the Isle but the northern part. But all of the valor shown in the early struggle, all of the interest and sympathy gained because of their oppression is now spent because the extremists of that beautiful country have won nothing but the enmity of all free people and all oppressed people for their terrorism. Much more is lost through extreme violent behavior than is gained.

Lastly, it is no excuse that extremists among the Ulster constabulary are terrorists also. Such arguments are circular and lead only to further violence not freedom. Violence only makes all of us less free.

Insights by Dr. Lee Brewer

by Dr. Lee Brewer

In the spectacle of the Tonya Harding case we have been shown the dark side of athletics in America. I fear much of America has been so consumed with sports that ethics and character building are secondary to "my child's" success as an athlete and a "winner." There are no laurels given out for those who come in second or give their best. We do not reward those who are growing and achieving. We only have blame for them or debilitating criticism for what they did not accomplish. Can we really be surprised when we see people who are willing to do anything to win?

I am cognizant that there are positives to sports-building strength, endurance, responsibility to a team (sometimes), discipline, and orders the ability to take orders. I believe, however, that in many cases the benefits are lost as other more important areas of life are relegated to second place or lost altogether. For many, school and the learning process are not emphasized except for the purpose of making the grade to stay on the team. Spiritual matters are seen as an addendum to life rather than the center of meaning. Winning replaces sportsmanship. We no longer emphasize the importance of allowing all of the children involved to take part and have a sense of worth and accomplishment.

I know coaches who have their emphases in the proper place. I know some parents who do. But many do not. When anger and profanity are exhibited at small children's games, what kind of signal are we sending our children? That if you do not get your way it is fine to be rude and antagonistic? If you do not succeed it is always someone else's fault rather than your lack of ability, practice, or intensity? I think we can see the evidences of what that mentality is doing to our society.

Sports can add many positive aspects to our children's lives and to the community. May we keep the positives without surrendering our values and character in the process. May we as adults keep our lives in perspective that we may pass it on to our children.

I asked the New Year for some message sweet,
Some rule of life with which to guide my feet;
I asked and paused;
He answered soft and low,
"God's will to know."

Freelance Philosophy

When Lion's District Governor, Henry Goulet, visited the Noon Lions this week, he read a poem entitled HUGS. This wonderful little poem bears repeating.

HUGS

It's wondrous what a hug can do,

A hug can say, "I love you so," or, "Gee, I hate to see you go."

A hug is, "Welcome back again!" and, "Great to see you!" or "Where've you been?"

A hug can soothe a small child's pain

And bring a rainbow after rain.

The hug! There's no doubt about it,

We scarcely could survive without it.

A hug delights and warms and charms,

It must be why God gave us arms.

Hugs are great for fathers and mothers,

Sweet for sisters, swell for brothers,

And chances are some favorite aunts love them more than potted plants.

Kittens crave them. Puppies love them.

Heads of state are not above them.

A hug can break the language barrier,

And make the dullest day seem merrier.

No need to fret about the store of 'em.

The more you give, the more there are of 'em.

So stretch those arms without delay,

And give someone a hug today.

Open Letter

Thank You

I would like to thank the Parents, Family and Friends for giving us the opportunity to work with your kids in this years 1994 Little Dribblers program for the 3rd and 4th grade. The program was set up to help work on the young kids skills in basketball. I personally would like to Thank Cristie Belman, Melisa Mejia, Marina Lozano, Megan Little, Hallie Greer, Liza Sanchez, Courtney Sauer, Jennifer Rodriguez Tony Martin and Christina Redish for giving me the chance to work with them. They all are beautiful little girls. Also, I would like to thank the score-keepers, book-keepers, referees, the school for the use of the gym and, of course, the coaches for their help. Without them it would not have been possible. I would like to say a special thanks to Eddie Albin who refereed most of the games, and was willing to give of himself wherever we needed him.

THANKS TO ALL,
 Mack Redish

VVA Response To Lifting Of Trade Embargo With Vietnam

Vietnam Veterans of America (VVA) reaffirms its commitment to obtaining a full and final account of our POW/MIA's.

VVA has and does strongly oppose the decision to lift the trade embargo with Vietnam. However, regardless of the President's decision, the search for answers must and will continue no matter where those answers may lie, both in our government and that of Vietnam.

For the past seven months we have been laying the groundwork for a veteran-to-veteran exchange of information that we believe will help clear up what became of America's over 2,200 POW/MIAs and Vietnam's 300,000 missing. We have been pledged the support of other American veterans groups, President Clinton, members of Congress of both parties, and the Vietnamese Veterans Association.

We have already gathered identity cards, letters and photographs held as souvenirs for two decades that will positively identify Vietnamese soldiers whose fate remains unknown to their families. We trust that Vietnam's veterans are doing the same, and that we will be able to exchange these materials in upcoming months. From these items we will learn things about what became of the missing that neither government may know.

Vietnam Veterans of America is asking every Vietnam veteran in America to help in the final resolution of this twenty-year old tragedy. We are asking Vietnam veterans to look in their attic, look in their old duffel bags, look in their hearts and send us whatever they have that will help the veteran-to-veteran initiative.

SCISD Board Met

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of Schleicher County Independent School District was held on March 7, 1994 at 6:00 p.m. in the Administration Building. Mr. Barton distributed to the board the latest 5-AA schedules. We will not play Anthony in football, but we will be paired with Ozona when we travel West to play Van Horn and Anthony in basketball. A board workshop was scheduled for March 21, 1994, to discuss options available in relation to a building program. The District Improvement Committee is continuing to work on the 1994-95 school calendar which will be presented at the April board meeting for approval. Harold Steele will be reassigned as middle school principal and the search for an elementary principal will begin immediately. The nurse's report was also presented to the board.

In Action Items, Neria Pina was granted a leave of absence. Bessie Jones was approved as the election judge for the May 7, 1994 election. The board approved the recommendations for teacher renewals on all three campuses with growth plans as recommended. Approval was given to compensate Mr. Barton for serving as middle school principal.

 Talk less. Keep a book in your briefcase, by your bed. Get up 15 minutes early. Read a new poem aloud each night before dinner. Can't sleep? Don't count sheep. Read. Turn off the tube. Tune into books. Expand your horizons. Read for fun. Read for information.
