Schleicher Co. Gets Edge of Ice Storm

Old Man Winter paid an unwelcome pop call in Southwest Texas Thursday night and covered a large block of counties with a destructive layer of ice.

While Schleicher County escaped more lightly than did several of her neighbors, some damage to stock and to telephone lines is reported.

The San Angelo Telephone Co. sent all available crews out Monday to repair the damage, which is said to be heavy.

The ice caused breakage in only two places in the entire REA system—one in line 3, in Sam Jones' pasture, and the other in line 7, on the Bert Page ranch. Both were found by REA linemen and were easily repaired.

The West Texas Utility Co. had no more than normal trouble.

Much inconvenience was experienced because of the hazardous driving conditions, for part of the time the highways were sheets of ice. No more driving than was necessary was done by the average Schleicherite during the entire weekend, until bright sun of Saturday and Sunday at last melted the ice.

Eldorado's streets were sheets of ice, making driving and walking extremely hazardous.

Hardest hit area in the Southwest was Brady, where 500 houses were without telephone service, and half of the county without electricity. Other places affected were Mason, Menard, Junction, Rocksprings, Sonora and other localities. In those areas, trees and telephone poles went down under the weight of the ice.

FIRST ISSUE OF NEW MAGAZINE RECEIVED HERE

First issue of "Home Life", a magazine on Christian family living published by the Baptist Sunday School Board, has been received here according to Rev. Jim Hays, local first Baptist church pastor.

Designed as a popular monthly, the colorful 32-page January number will reach over 200,000 homes in the South, according to Rev. Hays.

"The global war has given the home the severest test in the entire history of Christianity," Dr. T. L. Holcomb, the Sunday School Board executive secretary, writes in Jan. Home Life. "In the light of these conditions we are happy to present Home Life, A Christian Family Magazine. We believe that it will meet a need and render a service to our people that will prove very significant."

The publisher's purpose, as stated by Dr. Holcomb, is to make Home Life one of the very best magazines of its kind.

Home Life is edited by Dr. Joe W. Burton, who in the first number states the magazine's three-fold purpose to be to "set out the characteristics of a Christian home, demonstrate the values of this manner of living, and show how a genuine Christian spirit can be achieved in family living."

The January number includes a guest editorial by the Southern Baptist Convention president, Dr. Louie D. Newton, and a page of "Letters from Readers."

TESTS ARE ON AT LOCAL SCHOOL TO END SEMESTER

After a three-weeks absence from school, students in both the grade and high school, have been busy reviewing and preparing for midterm examinations scheduled to start this morning, Thursday. They will be completed Friday and the students will receive their report cards some time next week.

Examinations in the grade school began a day earlier.

Beautification Drive to End On July 1

The beautification drive for residences and business houses, sponsored by the Lions Club, will open April 1, according to E. H. Topliffe, chairman of the drive. Citizens desiring to enter the contest, which is designed to improve, clean up and beautify the residential as well as the business section of the town, may register at the Page Drug Store.

At the end of the contest which extends to July 1, those persons making the greatest progress and improvements according to the judges, will be awarded a prize. There will possibly be more than one prize offered.

Although clean-up drives have been sponsored in the city before, this is the first program of this kind offered, and its sponsors feel that it can be made a worth while project if citizens co-operate in the contest.

DISTRICT PASTORS CLOSE RETREAT AT LOCAL CHURCH

Pastors of the San Angelo district of the Methodist Church concluded a three-day Pastor's Retreat at the local Methodist Church following breakfast Wednesday morning. This is the second meeting of this nature held in the district, and both were held here.

The program which opened Monday afternoon when the Rev. F. B. Faust, Eldorado pastor, greeted the visiting ministers, included prayer and group meetings of an inspirational nature. Changing the plan somewhat from that of last year, the two night meetings were open to the public, with the Rev. Ray N. Johnson, San Angelo First Church, and the Rev. E. P. Neal of Brady bringing the messages. The Rev. E. H. Lovelace of Sterling City, led the singing and Mary Lee Gunstead was pianist for the night programs.

As a worship center, the altar with the open Bible flanked by white candles in brass holders and matching vases of white flowers, was placed before the picture, Sallman's Portrait of Christ, which was a gift to the local church from the group at last year's retreat. The candlesticks and vases were brought from England by the Rev. G. B. McCrary, a former chaplain.

Twenty five pastors were present for the meeting.

Lafayette McDonald Buried At Harper

Funeral services for Lafayette McDonald, 77, of Harper, were held Saturday, Jan. 18 with burial in the Harper cemetery. Mr. McDonald, who had been in ill health for some time, died at his home Thursday morning, after a week of serious illness.

Mr. McDonald was well known here, having visited in the home of his brother, Ira McDonald a number of times. His wife preceded him in death several years ago.

Immediate survivors include five brothers: Ira of Eldorado, Oscar of Kerrville, S. A. of La Ferria, Lemmie of Junction and Jessie of Leakey; and two sisters, Mrs. V. O. Copple and Mrs. Carrie Calentine, both of Harper.

Relatives attending the services from here included Mr. and Mrs. Lum Davis and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McDonald.

S. A. McDonald of La Ferria, father of R. A. McDonald and Mrs. Lum Davis, was unable to attend the services for his brother, due to illness.

WATER LINES BREAK

Several breaks in city water lines as a result of the weekend freeze have been mended this week, especially in the east part of town where many pipes are near the surface.

PRACTICAL JOKE CUTS ELECTRICITY FROM 80 HOMES

A practical joke Saturday caused inconvenience to dozens of rural residents, and much discomfort and overtime night work to employees. The "joke" was played at about 3:30 Saturday afternoon when some one shot a hole in an oil circuit breaker 8 miles west of Eldorado, and thus caused 70 homes to be without electricity until the trouble could be located!

Linemen went out in the ice and snow upon learning of the trouble, and soon restored service to 38 homes, but the other 32 were without current until 1 a. m. Sunday.

Linemen sectionalized the trouble to 5 miles of line, and then had to make a pole-by-pole inspection of 75 poles. As the poles were coated with ice, linemen had to cut toe holds in each to make the climb, and use lights on into the night before the damaged breaker was found.

Manager Don McCormick and his crew have the breaker on exhibit in their office—and state that they would appreciate information concerning the identity of the criminal.

Firemen Ask Citizens To Have Blood Typed For Transfusions

In order to meet emergencies which often arise in a community when blood transfusions are needed, it was suggested at a meeting of the Eldorado Volunteer Fire Department Monday evening that everyone who can do so, have their blood typed and register this with the department. A list will be made of these so that when the need arises, a donor may be called immediately.

Heretofore, members of the Fire Department have answered the call for blood until their supply is about exhausted, it was reported. It will be a great convenience to the community, saving time, trouble, and perhaps a life, if citizens will register their blood type as soon as possible.

Members of the department responded Monday afternoon to a call for blood donors for Mrs. Hugo Harzke. Two men with each type of blood were sent to the hospital as Mrs. Harzke's type was not known.

Beauford Jester Is Sworn In As Governor

Beauford Jester of Corsicana pledged himself as the state's 36th governor, in a colorful inaugural ceremony witnessed by 30,000 people this week. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice James P. Alexander of the State Supreme Court. Allan Shivers of Port Arthur went in as lieutenant governor.

The ceremony was held from a small platform under the imposing arched front entrance of the capitol. Inaugural marshals had great difficulty trying to keep the crowd—estimated by state public safety director Homer Garrison to be "at least 30,000"—from taking the seats of honor on the capitol steps.

After the formal ceremony was concluded, Jester rode with outgoing Governor Stevenson at the head of a parade south along Congress Avenue. Its ultimate destination was the governor's mansion where the Jester and Stevenson families had lunch together.

Five formal balls and numerous receptions brought the inaugural to a close Tuesday night.

An old-fashioned square dance scheduled in the Senate chamber was canceled after fears were expressed that the reverberations might loosen aging plaster to endanger participants and spectators. The committee planned to move the dance elsewhere.

In his speech, Jester referred to the people's platform, and said, "I charted a path between extremes of the left and right."

Noteworthy delegations in the crowd which listened to Jester's inaugural address included a crowd occupying a special train from Corsicana, his home town, and a large group from Mexico.

LIONS SPONSOR BLOOD TYPING OF LOCAL PEOPLE

A report on the Ballinger Lions Club banquet and program Monday night at which Clifford Pierce, president of Lions International, was the principal speaker, was given by W. M. Patterson and others at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday.

Describing Pierce as an able and interesting speaker, Patterson brought out the highlights of his speech, in which the official told of the work the Lions Clubs are doing in South America, Central America and Mexico in helping to establish hospitals for crippled and invalid children.

Pierce, who was a consultant at Dumbarton Oaks, a representative at the San Francisco Conference, and flew to Paris to be present at the Peace Conference where he presented a scroll from Lions International, backing the conference in their efforts to establish a just and lasting peace, described his various experiences at these meetings.

In the business session, a committee was appointed to secure the blood type of all Lions and other citizens. A record of these will be kept by Patterson, secretary, so that donors may be called on immediately in emergencies. The committee is composed of the regular members of the sick committee: L. M. Hoover, Truett Stanford, S. L. Stanford, Horace Linthicum, Tom Smith, Henry Speck, W. R. Nicks, Ford Oglesby and Perry Mittel. In addition to these, E. W. Brooks, H. E. Finnegan and Don McCormick were appointed to assist.

Mrs. Boyce Moss, who is assisting with the play "Pep Parade", sponsored by "The Talon", high school annual, was present at the meeting and selected 8 Lions as members of the "ladies chorus".

One new member, Glenn Parker, was introduced, and Palmer West was re-instated as a member.

THREE PEOPLE ARE INJURED BY FALLS ON ICE

Ice covered streets and walks proved disastrous to three Eldoradoans, who received broken bones and bruises in accidents last week end when ice at least an inch thick covered this vicinity.

Ben Biggs, probably the most seriously injured of the trio, suffered a badly crushed left hip when he slipped and fell on an ice covered walk at his stock farm about three miles south of Eldorado last Friday. Biggs was taken to a San Angelo hospital where he was placed in a cast which he will wear for several months, according to the attending physician, who also stated that the injured man would be hospitalized from three to eight months according to how well he gets along. It will be at least a year before he will be able to work, it was reported. Mrs. Biggs is with her husband.

Clyde Biggs, used car dealer at San Angelo, and brother of Ben, visited here with relatives Sunday night.

John Williams, local stock farmer and Rambouillet breeder, suffered a severely bruised side when he fell on an Eldorado street Friday afternoon. After treatment by a local doctor, he was taken to the Shannon hospital Saturday morning for X-ray pictures and observation. Although no bones were broken, he will remain in bed for a few days. Mrs. Williams accompanied her husband to the hospital.

Chester Winans, caretaker at the local cemetery, received a broken right arm when he fell on ice at his home Saturday morning. Both bones in his wrist were broken and after doctors at the Shannon hospital where he was taken, failed four times in attempt to set the injured limb, steel braces were fastened on it Monday morning before placing it in a cast. He was able to return home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Williams of Sweetwater visited Monday night and Tuesday in the homes of Mr. Williams' sisters, Mrs. Allie Sweett and Mrs. J. B. Christian.

Home Talent Play Benefit Talon Fund

Boyce Moss

"Pep Parade", a home talent play to be presented in the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday, Jan. 30 and 31, for the benefit of the high school annual, The Talon, is being directed by Boyce Moss of Kansas City. Mrs. Moss comes to Eldorado highly recommended. She holds a degree from the American Academy in New York City and has had several year's experience in this type of work.

"Pep Parade" is a hilariously funny comedy with ten characters. (Notice the advertisement on another page for local names of the cast.) One of the high spots of the show is to be a "beautiful lady" chorus consisting of the leading business men of town. They sing, dance, and wear evening dresses.

The high school girls and boys will appear in a chorus. Remember the date, Thursday and Friday, Jan. 30 and 31.

LAND SALE TO TEXAS VETERANS MAY START IN '47

A $100,000 appropriation bill now before the senate will decide the starting time for sale of surplus government land to World War II war veterans, voters having approved the project by ballot last November. The bill would set aside funds to pay salaries of employees needed to conduct the sale.

It is thought that the first sale might start during 1947. Schleicherites have been interested in the project, expecting that the state might acquire some of the University land in the county and open it up for sale to veterans.

The amendment authorized the board to issue up to 25 million dollars in bonds for purchase of federal or state lands. Of primary interest to the board are approximately two million acres of idle federal land in Texas now available for resale to veterans. The federal property consists mostly of contentment areas and air fields purchased during the war.

Eldorado Loses To Ozona Tuesday

The Ozona basketball team nipped the Eldorado Eagles here Tuesday night in a hotly contested conference game 37-31. The local lads were overwhelmed the first half of the game, but gamely fought the Ozona contingent to a standstill during the second half.

Eldorado apparently was headed for a win when they cut down to a 10-point lead to only 4 points. But a succession of bad breaks ruined their chances and the game ended with the Eagles trailing 6 points.

The Eldorado volleyball team completely crushed Ozona 51-13 in an easy game.

A highly touted Big Lake Quintet lost to Sonora in Sonora Tuesday night. As a result all basketball teams in this half of District 2-B stand on the 500% level.

The locals go to Big Lake's invitational Tourney Friday and clash with McCamey at 7 p. m.

NOTED SURGEON OF SAN ANGELO BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Dr. J. S. Hixson, 77, San Angelo, well known West Texas physician and surgeon, were held at 3 p. m. today (Thursday) from the First Presbyterian Church of San Angelo, with the Rev. B. O. Wood officiating.

Interment was in the Fairmount Cemetery with the Johnson Funeral Home in charge. Dr. Hixson died Wednesday morning at his home.

He was well known in Eldorado as well as throughout this section. He had many patients from this county, and had at different times come here at the call of the late Dr. W. D. Patton, to assist him with his cases.

Dr. Hixson came to San Angelo in 1907 on a homeseeker's ticket then sold as one of the promotion features of the Santa Fe Railroad. He visited several points in Texas, including Galveston, but his vote was cast for San Angelo because of his wife's health. She died here few years later and was buried in Fairmount Cemetery.

Entering the practice of surgery here without hospitals had its difficulties, and there was horse and buggy transportation that added to them. Frequently he operated on patients on kitchen tables in the homes of Fort Concho and its environs, and friends have heard him relate stories of the extended trips made to other cities. Once he was gone three days to Ozona to perform major surgery. Those days gave him incentive to boost for hospitals and he was one of the civic leaders which saw to the location of St. John's Hospital here in 1911. Subsequently he headed the staff there.

He was married on March 17, 1913 to Miss Mary Cooper. Shortly thereafter he became a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons. He became active in the promotion of a county hospital here and it was this factor along with his friendship for the late J. M. and Margaret Shannon that led to Mrs. Shannon's setting up the trust funds for the establishment of a hospital here, with a portion of the revenue from the estate to be utilized for medical services to those in need. In her will she set out that Dr. Hixson should be the superintendent and that he should arrange for his successor. It is presumed that this has been done in his will.

In June of 1929 Dr. Hixson and associates formed the San Angelo Medical and Surgical Clinic, a development that was an outgrowth of the association with Dr. J. P. McAnulty and the late Drs. E. L. Batts and A. W. Clayton in the Central National Bank Building where they had offices together.

A son, Dr. W. C. Hixson, was named assistant superintendent by the directors of the institution in May of 1946 and he had charge of the hospital since with the assistance of Thomas Head, who has been assistant superintendent since 1936.

MARCH OF DIMES NOW UNDER WAY IN THIS STATE

Texans have again been asked to do their share in the unending fight against infantile paralysis in the annual March of Dimes which opened in this state Jan. 15. The appeal will continue through Jan. 30, the birthday of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

A proclamation setting the latter half of January aside for the annual appeal was signed by Governor Coke Stevenson in the presence of Governor-elect Beauford Jester and George D. Wilson of Houston, Texas chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Although Texans are not assigned a specific quota, they are expected to give liberally under the grim reminder of the epidemic of poliomyelitis which raged in this state last year. The national goal, set by Basil O'Connor, foundation president, at 24 million dollars, must be raised through the March of Dimes.

Both Stevenson and Jester pledged their personal efforts to the Texas drive and asked Texans to support it wholeheartedly.

Disease Report Service Set Up at A & M

A service long needed by poultry and livestock producers has been started by the Extension Service of A&M College.

The service consists of a system of monthly reports, coming from county agricultural agents and veterinarians, giving information on poultry and livestock diseases, where and when the diseases occur, and the number of cases reporting.

Dr. E. A. Grist, veterinarian for the Texas A&M College Extension service, who operates a central clearing point for the information, reports that the system of gathering information has been in effect for four months, and the figures gathered to date have afforded excellent opportunity to issue timely disease warnings and suggested control programs.

With the aid of the Economics division of the Extension Service, the information is being compiled according to Texas soil areas and types. Dr. Grist points out that while it is impossible now to measure the real worth of the system, it has shown more clearly the need for better poultry and livestock disease control in Texas. For instance, mastitis of dairy cattle, an udder inflammation, is a disease that is ordinarily considered a small item affecting dairy production. Yet during September, October, and November, county agents and veterinarians reported over 4000 cases of mastitis in Texas. Cases occurred in every county in the state.

Dr. Grist says that such a livestock disease summary can be of great value in developing future programs to prevent and control livestock and poultry disease.

'Extension Minister' Works to Strengthen Country Churches

Above, left: The Ashland Christian Church, oldest Christian Church organization west of the Mississippi river, founded in 1817, which is one of the demonstration churches in the new movement; right, Rev. Gene W. Wetherell. Below, left: Paul J. Bodard, who preaches at Sturgeon Christian Church, lives on a small farm near his church, according to the new plan.

THE nation's first "Extension Minister"—Rev. Gene W. Wetherell—operating much like the average extension specialist from the state agricultural college, is now on the job in Missouri carrying on a "Down-to-earth" program designed to strengthen the struggling churches of the country, according to Lloyd D. Miller, writing in nationally circulated Capper's Farmer.

Employed by the Bible College of Missouri, at Columbia, Mo., the Reverend Wetherell is working closely with extension people from the state college of agriculture, Mr.

Miller points out. He goes into communities to help the people get a church program started. He carries his program out into the field and sets up demonstrations so that people can see how it actually works.

Reared on a farm, Reverend Wetherell studied for the ministry on funds he earned farming.

Wherever participating churches are located, Reverend Wetherell helps local leaders make a thorough survey of community needs. He next develops a loyalty program, seeking to get every member active.

ly interested in church work. He institutes a visitation evangelism program in churches where denominations use this type of work.

A sound financial program is necessary for the successful operation of any church, so the "Extension Minister" asks his church to develop a unified budget system. He shows them how to use the Lord's Acre for supporting special projects of the church. He also suggests that churches provide their ministers with a rural parsonage and 20 acres or more where they may make part of their living.

D. A. R. Meeting
A program on National Defense was observed when the Eldorado Chapter of the DAR met last Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. W. Alexander. Mrs. L. W. Ballew read a paper prepared by Mrs. V. G. Tisdale on "Half Forgotten Romances of American History", and Mrs. L. M. Hoover gave a report on National Defense as prepared by the National Chairman. In the business session, the committee appointed recently to investigate the possibility of placing a marker at the tree where the first mail box was located near the home of Mrs. C. C. West, reported that the tree had been found, and Mrs. West was very enthusiastic over the idea of its preservation. However, due to the expense involved in carrying out the plan, it was decided to wait until more public interest can be aroused regarding the matter. Pie and coffee was served to Mmes. Hoover, Joe. B. Edens, Luke Thompson, Ballew, Miss John Alexander and the hostess.

Mrs. Howard Belcher and infant daughter were brought home last Thursday from a San Angelo hospital. They are reported to be doing nicely.
Lt. Ernest M. Head of Phoenixville, Pa., was a recent guest in the home of Mr and Mrs Chester Wheeler. Lt. Head was formerly stationed at Goodfellow Field.

Mrs. Ruth Nicks is attending the San Angelo Business College.

The small son of Coach and Mrs. Ernest Sutherland was brought home Saturday from a San Angelo hospital where he underwent medical treatment for several days. His condition has improved.

Jay Arlan, six-year-old son of Mr and Mrs. Floyd Farrington, is doing fine at his home following a tonsillectomy which he underwent in a San Angelo hospital last Thursday. The child, who was hospitalized for several days preceding the operation, was brought home Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Harvey of Seminole, Okla., is visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Ira McDonald and family. Mrs. Harvey, who arrived in Eldorado Friday night, spent from Friday until Monday morning in the home of Mrs. Frank Spencer.

Mrs. Herbert Smith of Austin has been visiting this week with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Bearce and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lum Davis and daughter Jan, and Mr. and Mrs. Rauce McDonald went to Harper Saturday to attend the funeral of an uncle, LaFayette McDonald. Mrs. Davis and daughter went on to La Feria to spend a week with her parents, and the others returned home that night.

W. E. Priddy, who operates Rock Station No. 2, announces opening of a laundry in the building this week. He has two machines in operation and will add several more.

Mrs. J. E. Tisdale visited last week in Sonora with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Prugel.

Miss Iris Brooks returned home Sunday from Tennyson after visiting from Tuesday through Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brooks.

Texas School Funds Inadequate For Needs

(Article II)

Money to operate the public schools is derived from three sources, local, state, and federal. During the school year 1945-46, the local school districts contributed 49.6 percent, the state 47.8 percent, and the Federal government, (through vocational, Lanham Act, and Hot Lunch appropriations) 2.6 percent.

The state provides funds through two sources for the public schools—the available school fund, distributed on a per capita apportionment; and the equalization aid appropriation, from the general revenue fund of the state.

The available school fund provided a per capita apportionment this year of $35 per child of school age. What are local communities doing to help educate their own children is a question often asked. Local support has kept ahead of state support consistently, although the constitution provides that the legislature shall provide funds for the operation of the schools for a period of at least 6 months.

Texas ranks sixth in population figures, yet thirty-third in per capita expenditures for the education of her children. What effect does such an inverse ratio have on qualifications and pay of teachers and the opportunities for the best possible schools for Texas boys and girls?

The month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Edmiston was brought home from a San Angelo hospital last Thursday and is getting along nicely at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Mund. The baby, who was a month old Jan. 11, suffered an attack of pneumonia, but responded quickly to treatment.

Washington News Letter

By Cong. O. C. Fisher

The past week was marked by the assignment of members to committees in the 80th Congress. Each Member being limited to but one committee under the new rules, I was assigned to the Committee on Education and Labor. It is likely I could have gotten on Public Works, but I preferred Education and Labor because it will be one of the most important House Committees, especially during the next two years. The Labor-Education group will have jurisdiction over measures relating to education and labor, mediation and arbitration of labor disputes, wages and hours of labor, school lunch program and vocational rehabilitation.

There has been a tendency in the past for members to shy away from the Labor Committee because if one tries to do the job right, he antagonizes radical labor leaders and pressure groups and they usually try to "liquidate" him when the next election comes around. It is often referred to in the cloak rooms as a "hot spot". The result has been that the CIO has dominated the Labor Committee in the past and that accounts in a measure for ineffective legislation dealing with labor problems.

Under these circumstances—with the public demanding and expecting this Congress to do something about the laws that now make czars out of such labor bosses as John L. Lewis—I hardly felt that I could afford to run from the fight and seek refuge in a committee where I would be free from threats and political intimidation of pressure groups. From first glance, it appears that the Education and Labor committee will be a fairly good one and I believe it will give some consideration to the public interest for a change.

California's Herbert Hoover is the only living ex-president, and Texas is the home of the only two living ex-speakers of the House, John Garner and Sam Rayburn. In fact, of the last six speakers of the House, only Garner and Rayburn survived their terms. The others died in office. Garner walked to the Senate side to preside for eight years as Vice President while Rayburn stepped down.

Brig. Gen. Alvin Luedecke of Eldorado has gone a long way since he graduated from Texas A&M in 1932. In 1944 at the age of 33, he became one of the youngest generals in the U. S. Army. He was Chief of Staff to Major Gen. Geo. E. Stratemyer in the India-Burma area during the war. Gen. Luedecke is now senior AAF member of the Joint War Plans Committee under the Joint Chiefs of Staff. The general is the son of Mrs. John Luedecke of Eldorado, and recently visited her there. Last week, he was my guest at the weekly Texas Delegation luncheon where he met the other Members from the Lone Star state.

ATTENTION STOCKMEN

You and your neighbors are cordially invited to meet with Mr. Grath Christopher at Eldorado on Friday, January 24th at 7:30 p. m., at the court house.

Mr. Christopher is with the Agricultural Department of The J. R. Watkins Company and has made an extensive study of Animal Husbandry and Nutrition.

After a short, non-commercial talk, he will hold an open forum to discuss the problems of individual stockmen.

This meeting should prove very beneficial to our community. Wives and club boys are urged to attend.

Co. Agent Discusses Spring Activities

Jan., Feb., Best Time to Prune

In all of Texas, this is the best season for pruning. The only plants that should not be pruned now are the early-blooming ones: spirea, flowering quince and redbud. Prune these immediately after blooming.

There are several reasons for pruning: 1) cutting back moderately stimulates more and larger flowers or fruit; 2) the shape of a plant is improved by removing awkward limbs; 3) pruning relieves plants of cross branches, which rub each other and form places for diseases to enter; 4) taking off dead limbs removes places for diseases to grow; 5) perhaps one of the best reasons is that it will keep plants somewhere near the size needed in the landscape.

Everybody Wants Roses

Roses need little pruning, but if they need cutting back, Jan. and Feb. are good times for rimming them. All the five general rules given above can apply to roses.

Plan to buy No. 1 or 1½ roses regardless of age. The following are among the hardest: Red: Etoile de Hollande, Poinsettia, Radiance; the White: Koningin Luise; Yellow: Soeur Therese, Lady Hillington; Pink, Editor McFarland, Radiance, shell pink radiance. Most adaptable of all are the radiance roses.

Start Flowers in Frame Garden

For those that are interested in getting out in the lead, start flowers in a frame garden. Among those that may be started now are: alyssum, arctotis, babys breath, blue salvia, calendula, candytuft, chinese forget-me-not, coreopsis, corn flower, daisy, everlasting, four o'clock, gay feather, hollyhock, larkspur, lobelia, marshmallow, mignonette, petunia, phlox, pinks, rosemallow, scabiosa, snapdragon, stock, sweet pea, sweet william and verbena.

Remember shrubs take less work than annuals.

Control Insects and Diseases

All should recognize San Jose Scale and how to apply lime sulphur to it. Dry lime sulfur is much easier to handle than liquid. For small jobs where San Jose scale needs controlling use two teaspoonfuls of lye to one gallon of water. Apply with brush, broom, or cloth swab. We generally think of San Jose scale as a peach tree disease, but it attacks roses, pyracantha and other plants.

On the Job

If the poultryman is really on the job this year, he ought to make "some nice money". There's a job that needs to be done right now, and that's ordering your baby chicks. Always, thousands of producers decide to start their baby chicks at the same time, and that leaves a lot of them out of luck. The only way you can be sure of having a good bunch of laying pullets next fall is to get your order in now for baby chicks.

And while you're waiting for the baby chicks to come in, another job can be done in the meantime: go over the brooder house, nail up the cracks, clean, scrape and wash the floors. Disinfect the whole thing and be ready to give the chicks a clean, disease-free house.

There are a lot of different ways to feed baby chicks, but everyone means that you have to be on the job. The outlook for profits in the man who wants to do a good job of poultry business is good for a feeding chicks.

Carelessness Causes Spread of Disease

Austin.—“Carelessness and ignorance represent two of the most powerful factors in spreading communicable diseases from man to man. No more emphatic example of this fact exists than the continued ravages of tuberculosis. In spite of the knowledge of its cause and spread, and of curative methods, tuberculosis is still a very serious problem not only in Texas, but throughout the U. S.,” states Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

“It is true that TB is no longer first on the list of killing diseases, as it was formerly,” Dr. Cox said, “but despite having been reduced to fifth place in Texas, it still is responsible for more deaths between the ages of 15 and 45 than any other disease. And this fact exists even though the majority of TB patients could have their condition arrested if it were recognized early and proper treatment applied.

“Treatment of the early recognized case is essential. It is of equal importance, from a public health viewpoint, that the spread of this devastating infection be prevented. A more intelligent appreciation of this fact would result in the saving of thousands of lives.

“When a diagnosis of active TB has been made, examination of all the other members of the immediate family should follow as a matter of course. Tuberculosis runs in families, not because of any especial susceptibility to the disease, but because it is communicable, being usually transmitted through close and prolonged contact with an active case.”

To reduce the number of deaths caused by tuberculosis, Dr. Cox suggests periodic examination of all adults, a check-up by physicians of the known active cases and contacts, regular examinations of high school children, isolation or hospitalization of the active tuberculosis case, and a more intelligent application of hygienic living principles.
