Fighting On
Libya Front
Nearly Stops

Sporadic Raiding
Only Evidence Of Battle In Desert

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 4 (AP)—Fighting on the Libyan desert
lapsed into sporadic raiding, the British Middle East command announced today, while both sides apparently reorganized their forces for new operations.

A British communiqué said the lull continued in the last 24 hours although "our forces continue their pressure on isolated enemy centers of resistance in the Libyan-Egyptian frontier area."

Three Italian tanks were reported destroyed in one small engagement while on the main front, southeast of Tobruk small bodies of the axis forces, endeavoring to move toward the Sidi Azeiz area, were engaged by British mobile columns.

The British, who now aim to whittle down the axis armored power in North Africa, have concentrated their main strength on an offensive line from El Gobi
northward toward Benghazi, 100 miles below long-besieged Tobruk.

This line, it was said, will be the base of future operations against the divisions of German General Erwin Rommel and the British banished illusions of a quick victory.

(Standard Italian news agency,
reported from Rome that the British no longer have the impetus of the initial operations of the battle and said it was evident that "after so many days of fighting both the wearing down of large forces of men and the increased difficulties of replenishing gasoline, munitions, food and other materials are making themselves felt.")

A high British officer in the field gave this inkling of the British plans in a discussion of the front with Edward Kennedy, Associated-Press staff writer:

"Rommel knows he is only a slideshow. He knows his force is now reduced that he no longer is a threat to Egypt. He knows the fleet is sinking his supplies. He knows the RAF is destroying his petrol dumps.

"He knows it is only a question
of time for him, but he will stay and fight. His hope is to reduce our strength. He is a resourceful commander and has good men at his disposal.

"We will knock him out entirely,
but it will take some time yet."

needed to fill the quota.

50,000 Planes Per Year
Due In America In '42

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—The American aircraft industry has "every reason to believe" that an annual production of 50,000 airplanes—the number suggested by President Roosevelt before a joint session of congress last year—will be reached in 1942.

This forecast was made today by John H. Jouett, president of the aeronautical chamber of commerce.
If that rate is attained next year,
the industry will be from two and one-half to three years ahead of the schedule estimated in the summer of 1940 by T. P. Wright, now assistant chief of the aircraft branch of the office for emergency management.

"It is estimated," Wright forecast
in July, last year, "that an airplane production rate of approx-

US Expeditionary
Force Of 5 Million
Planned For '43?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Stephen Early, White House secretary, said today the government would investigate the source or sources of a report in the Chicago Tribune
today asserting that a confidential report of an Army-Navy joint board called for an American expeditionary force of 5,000,000 men for an offensive against Germany by July 1, 1943.

When asked about the story at his press conference, Early replied:
"All that can be said is I've not talked to the president about the story. I am in no position to confirm or deny it."

Later, in response to questions, the secretary said "undoubtedly there will be an investigation."

Early added that the president and War Secretary Stimson would look into the matter.

"I will say," he continued, "that there are two branches, one in the war department and one in the navy department, both known as war plans."

"It is their duty, even in peace times, to study and devise plans for all possible emergencies. Even the most improbable situations are studied and planned."

"An unlimited national emergency has been declared. If they lacked the plans to meet this emergency or any phase of it they would be guilty of inefficiency, and if the president of the United States permitted them to face an emergency without a plan, he too would be guilty of negligence."

The copyrighted Tribune story said the secret war plans were drawn last September in response to a letter from the president to Secretary Stimson in July. The letter, according to the Tribune, asked Stimson and Secretary of the Navy Knox to explore at once the "overall production requirements required to defeat our potential enemies."

The Tribune story went on to say that the joint board report contemplated a total army, navy and marine force of more than 10,000,000 men, that it would be necessary for the United States to enter the war and to "employ a part of its armed forces offensively in the eastern Atlantic and in Europe and Africa."

Japanese Press
Sizzles In Anger

By The Associated Press
In the Far East crisis, the Japanese press sizzled anew
today over alleged "encirclement" of Japan by the ABCD group of America, Britain, China and Dutch East Indies.

New Japanese military maneuvers increased the tension.
In Chungking, a Chinese army spokesman said 40 Japanese warships, including an aircraft carrier with 45 planes
aboard, had been spotted in Ramranh Bay, on the southeast coast of French Indo-China—a potential springboard for attacks on Singapore, the Dutch East Indies or the Philippines.

The spokesman said Chinese secret service operatives had also discovered that the Japanese were hastily building an air base in western Indo-China near the Gulf of Siam (Thailand) and had impressed 5,000 native workers for the job.

Meantime, dispatches from Manila reported the approval there of the first group of American transporting men en route to the Far East to keep war supplies rolling over the Burma Road to China.

American planes and pilots will guard them from air attacks over the long road.

President Roosevelt and congress-
sional leaders talked for 90 minutes today in a conference which
"thoroughly canvassed" the Far Eastern situation "in connection with the defense of our territories
and our vital interests."

That summation was given by representative McCormack of Massachusetts, house majority leader,
who acted as spokesman for the group from the capitol.

As the United States still waited for Japan's answer to Secretary of State Cordell Hull's terms for peace in the Pacific, the Tokyo
privy council, Emperor Hirohito's
highest advisory organ, discussed American-Japanese relations in a two and one-half hour session.

Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo and Foreign Minister Shigenori Togo
reported to the council in detail,
and it was announced that "active opinions were exchanged."

Amid the brilliant session, Forstgal was reported to have joined in the rush of defense
measures among Europe's colonies in the Orient.

The Vichy (French) radio said
the Portuguese minister of colonies
had ordered to active service all reserve officers in the colony of Timor, on the eastern tip of the Malayan Peninsula.

In Tokyo, the newspaper Yomi-huri displayed a photograph of Thai troops marching in Bangkok, the Thai capital, and said
the country's neutrality was mentioned by intensified British and American propaganda.

Koh Jichi, former Japanese cabinet spokesman, now Japanese embassy counselor in Bangkok, declared that collapse of Washington-Tokyo negotiations would not mean an immediate outbreak of hostilities in the Far East. Relations between the United States and Japan were not such as to precipitate war, he said.

Quick Work
Ends Fire In Cotton Yard

Quick work and new equipment
were credited Thursday with holding fire damage in a cotton yard
here to a small figure.

Firemen brought a blaze in the north end of the temporary storage place north of the city under control with only about six bales suffering serious damage. Fire had spread to a score of bales before firemen arrived.

Water from the 200-gallon tank
on the city's new pumper was used to handle the blaze.

"The boys brought the fire under control quickly and still had a little water left in the tank," said Chief Olie Cordill. He believed success of the effort could be attributed to the emergency supply of water which could not only be applied instantaneously on arrival, but which also could be moved about to where it was needed.

Approximately 15,000 to 20,000
bales are stored temporarily in a yard. The fire broke out in a spot on the north side, about five rows from the end. Because of a strong wind, firemen considered
this a stroke of good fortune.

Congress officials said investigations showed the fire originated
in a "hot" bale brought in from a Lamesa gin late Wednesday. It had not been checked in or officially received and was not in charge of the compress. A "hot"
bale is one which is ignited during process of ginning and which contains its fire until it burns out to the surface later.

Wider English
Conscription
Is Approved

Labor Groups Keep
Demanding Property
Be Requisitioned

LONDON, Dec. 4 (AP)—The house
of commons today gave general
approval to Prime Minister Churchill's plan for maximum mobilization of men and women
by 326 to 10, after putting down an insurgent laborite amendment
which also would have conscripted wealth.

This vote was preliminary to action on the bill itself and was asked by the independent labor party on Churchill's suggestion that:

"For the purpose of securing maximum national effort in conduct of the war and in production, the obligation for national service should be extended to include the resources of woman-
power and manpower still available."

Following the vote on that general statement, a bill, giving effect
to Churchill's proposal to draft unmarried women between 20 and 30 years of age and to raise the limits of the draft to include men
up to 51 and reduce the number of exemptions, was introduced immediately.

The laborite amendment which also would have nationalized many industries was beaten 326 to 10.

It previously had been disapproved at a caucus which had smoothed over a threatened laborite
split on the issue.

To meet laborite assertions that the conscription was not going to be broad enough, Labor Minister Ernest Bevin told parliament before the vote that the government was determined that "neither interest, property, persons nor privileges" would be allowed to interfere with the supreme objective of winning the war.

Bevin, who directs the machinery for inducting manpower and womanpower into the armed forces
and other branches of national service, closed for the government
in the house of commons debate
on its new conscription bill.

If it is seriously advanced that there should be further requisitioning either of property, services or industry in order to secure a more successful prosecution of the war,
the government will examine any specific thing and deal with it on its merits but will be guided by this one principle," Bevin said.

Bridge Falls
Into River;
Workmen Die

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 4 (UP)—
A section of the new bridge across the Connecticut river here collapsed today, plunging an undetermined number of workmen into the water.

A huge girder and a 100-ton
crane, described as the largest in the world, fell.

The Hartford Times said at least 20 men were believed to have been on the section which collapsed.

Some of the workmen were able to crawl out from the river, but rescuers were attempting to determine whether others were pinned beneath the girder or the crane.

Five ambulances, police surgeons, policemen and firemen were dispatched to the scene to aid in the rescue work.

An hour after the collapse, a bridge company official said that at least three men were known to be missing and that the number
might be increased when a complete check was made.

A hospital surgeon said five men
with fractured legs were pulled from the river.

Others may follow and results will determine the location of a wildcat

Three Axis Divisions Fight
Uprising Of Serb Guerrillas

Major Battle Flares In Balkans

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 4 (AP)—Three axis divisions (45,000 men) and the unconquered guerrilla forces of Gen. Draza Mihailovic were reported by exiled Serbs here to be locked in battle in the Yugoslav valley of the western Morava.

Supported by tanks and aircraft, a Serb
communist said, the axis divisions launched Tuesday
"what appears to be a general offensive against our positions."

"Our forces under Gen. Draza Mihailovic are resisting successfully in the face of furious onslaughts, although in the sector of Usice (a battle-torn town of 12,000 population) enemy tank attacks have obliterated one of our units to withdraw," the communique said.

Hitler Sends
More Troops
To Bulgaria

By Associated Press
Along with reports of a unified uprising in old Yugoslavia came a London broadcast today that resh German troops had been rushed to points along Bulgaria's southern frontier with Turkey, to which President Roosevelt has extended
American lease-lend aid.

The broadcast said that Nazi military preparations all along the frontier had been stepped up, and that the Germans were tightening their control on Bulgarian ports and air fields.

There was no immediate indication whether Germany feared that British-allied Turkey, encouraged by Russia's sweeping counteroffensive in the Ukraine, might open up a new "back door" front
in the Balkans, or whether Hitler
planned to move into Turkey himself.

The flight in Serbia appeared to be more than a minor uprising.
German troops in Yugoslavia have been estimated at five divisions
(about 75,000 men), while Gen.
Mihailovic is said to have 80,000
soldiers, sworn to wipe out the Nazi conquerors.

Official London announcements
recently have reported 300,000 persons killed in mass executions in Yugoslavia since its fall last spring.

Court Finishes
Criminal Work

One prison sentence, one suspended sentence, and one mistrial
were marked up on the district court docket Thursday as criminal week activities were completed
and the jury dismissed.

Frank Barfield entered a plea of guilty to receiving and concealing stolen sheep, and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.
The sheep in question were stolen from Wallace Stockton.

The jury which had heard the case of Lloyd Day, charged with automobile theft, reported itself unable to reach a decision. The vote was reported to be 11 to 1, but it was not known whether the majority favored conviction or acquittal.

In a companion case, Mrs. Lloyd Day entered a plea of guilty to automobile theft, although she denied on the witness stand having stolen the car in question. She asserted that the auto owner had given her permission to use his car. She was given a two year suspended sentence.

Senate Likely To Soften Strike Bill

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—A hard-boiled strike curb bill, stamped with an unexpected house endorsement of almost 2 to 1, moved to the senate today where extensive modification appeared probable.

Senators predicted freely that their chamber would relax
the bill's drastic terms, and then let a senate-house conference committee work out some agreement on the final scope of the legislation needed to avert work stoppages in vital defense plants.

After working itself into a complicated parliamentary snarl, the house finally rolled up a 263 to 126
vote yesterday for the far-reaching bill by Rep. Smith (D-Va.) without even considering some pending
"middle-of-the-road" measures.

Eighteen Texas representatives
voted for the bill and one, Rep.
Albert Thomas of Houston, against
it. Speaker Rayburn as presiding officer did not vote, and the vote of Nat. Father of Crockett was not recorded. All others voted for it.

The Smith bill, admittedly subject to refinements of phrasing,
provides for cooling-off periods
ranging from 30 to 90 days in defense labor disputes, during which time the national defense
mediation board, given statutory life and power, would use its good offices to prevent a strike.

In addition, the bill would forbid
jurisdictional, boycott and sympathy
strikes, would freeze existing closed or open shop arrangements
for the duration of the defense
emergency, and would permit a defense strike only if a majority of the workers affected gave their approval by secret ballot.

Other sections would prohibit the importation of strike-breakers by employers or pickets by unions,
and would deny Wagner labor relations act benefits to unions whose officers included members of the communist party, young communist leagues or the German-American bund.

Smith gained a number of republican votes for his bill by striking out a section which would have authorized the government, as a last resort, to take over and operate defense plants
where production was impeded
by labor disputes.

It was not the cooling-off clause,
but the more stringent provisions
over and above that, which led to predictions that the senate would reject wider milder legislation.

Senator Ball (R-Minn.) declared
the house bill would be "drastically revised," Senator Taft (R-Ohio)
said the senate "probably won't take all of the provisions of the Smith bill."

Huge Plane Crashes
Near San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Dec. 4 (AP)—
A plane, believed to have been a navy bomber, crashed in flames
today near Poway, 30 miles northeast of here.

Lt. John Doherty, pilot attached to the Consolidated Aircraft corporation's army test flight division,
flew over and helped locate the wreckage.

Reds Claim
Wins In All
Battle Sectors

LONDON, Dec. 4 (AP)—Red army troops were declared today to have driven the Germans beyond Taganrog in a scattered and disorganized rout and knocked out virtually four axis divisions in the southern front counter offensive.

The drive beyond Taganrog, 60 miles west of Moscow, was announced in a Red byerob dispatch
which said that the Germans were in full retreat toward Mari-upol, 60 miles farther along the coast of the Sea of Azov.

Russians fighting through fierce winds, bitter cold and snow
so deep as to stall their own motor units also claimed fresh gains
in the two-month-old battle of Moscow.

German plans to cut off Leningrad
from the east were declared to have been frustrated by Russian soldiers who slew more than 5,000 invaders, destroyed 23 tanks
and recaptured several more villages in the vicinity of Tikhvin.

More than 200 miles north of the Rostov-Marjupol fighting, the Russians still claimed the initiative in the Khar'kov sector after launching a counterattack Nov. 28.

Lieut. Gen. P. Bodin, writing in the army newspaper Red Star yesterday, said the Germans were calling reserves, including Rumanian
troops, for operations in the Kharkov theater.

"The initiative now is in Russian hands," Bodin wrote, "but the strength of the Germans is not crushed. The enemy has many tanks and reserves."

Tipland said the Russian garrison of the Rango naval base was withdrawing, with the hope of escaping by ship through the Gulf of Finland to Leningrad, and the Vichy-controlled Martinique radio commented that this would remove an obstacle to a separate peace between Moscow and Helsinki.

Shot In Chest, Man
Coughs Up Bullet

FORT WORTH, Dec. 4 (AP)—D.
M. Wood, 44, of Tolar, walked into the emergency room at St. Joseph's hospital this morning and announced
calmly that he had been accidentally shot in the chest.

"I coughed up the bullet," Wood told attendants. "I didn't like the taste of lead."

A physician found the bullet had reached upward from Wood's left breast—under the skin but outside the lung cavity—and into his throat. It missed vital arteries and veins.

Wood told attendants that he had driven alone to Fort Worth
from his home at Tolar—a distance of 45 miles.

ing Craft heading into a ditch,

He'll Be Here Tuesday -- America Must Be More Than Defensive, Asserts Valtin

More defense of the freedom now possessed by the American people is not enough. The United States must fight the professional methods of the totalitarian states with equally professional methods. So says Jan Valtin who, as a one time communist worker and a sufferer at the hands of Hitler's Gestapo, knows intimately of the working of both dictatorships. Valtin will bring his interesting lecture to Big Spring next Tuesday night, speaking at the municipal auditorium at 8 p. m. with proceeds from the affair going to the local chapter of the Red Cross. Tickets, at only 55 cents, are available at the local Cunningham & Phillips stores, at the chamber of commerce in Colorado City, through the Bundles for Britain group at Midland, and at the Taylor-McCall drug store in Lamasa.

The complacent satisfaction of the Americans with conditions as they are here is condemned by Valtin. Freedom can never be taken as a matter of course, he says. A fight to reconquer lost freedom and freedom's lost territory should be instigated.

The German-born anti-Nazi ex-presses alarm at what he terms the first signs of disunity in the United States which he had perceived in his travels through the country. Such disunity, he asserts, prevailed in Germany when Hitler and his soldier forces first gained control. It weakened France until it was an easy prey for Hitler's legions, and caused other countries to fall before him one at a time in his relentless march through Europe. Financial cliques that hold their own interests above national interests, working people who live a life isolated entirely from nationalism are pointed out by Valtin as major weaknesses in the United States which might lead to the loss of freedom. "It is not enough to defend what we have," the ex-communist asserts, "A forward marching people, yes, a sky-reaching people are those that attempt to attain more than they have."

He warns that the United States is filled with German agents and espionage positions in American life in such a manner that little suspicion can be cast upon them and to pursue the instructions of the Nazi government, he said. Again and again Valtin stresses importance of the interdependence of human beings — not merely Americans, but all nationalities — in keeping democracy in the world. The Declaration of Independence which declared that "All men are created free and equal" was cited as an example of this spirit.

Small Business Men of Texas Disgusted With Matter of Getting Defense Contracts

By The Associated Press
Disgust with the entire set-up for small businessmen in the national defense effort was expressed by the spokesman of the Sherman, Tex., chamber of commerce in a survey made by the Associated Press.

"Firms have filled out so many questionnaires for so many agencies without results, that they have become quite disgusted," said Frank M. Thompson, manager of the Sherman civic organization. Abilene and other West Texas cities have experienced similar discouragement.

Yet all Texas cities indicate new hope with the visit of the OPM red-white-and-blue train to Texas, and clinics for small businessmen and manufacturers scheduled this month.

"I've seen a train," said Lowell Stapf, Amarillo businessman in reply to a query whether he would go to Dallas for the OPM clinic on wheels.

The Panhandle businessman appeared much in the minority, however, as delegations from many parts of the state made ready for the OPM special train and clinic.

In July some 85 manufacturers and machine shop operators in the Abilene area held a special meeting and organized a pool of machine shop operators to bid on prime and sub-contracts.

"We have spent considerable time in assisting this pool," said Merly Gruber, manager of the Abilene chamber of commerce, "but like others in the state that have been organized, there have been no definite results obtained—at least they have not received any contracts."

"Too much red tape in the OPM office and too few on the staff ever to catch up with the problems facing them" was the criticism voiced by W. E. Long, manager of the Austin chamber of commerce.

"There must be something done and done soon," he declared, "if many small business places are to survive. The belief of many of our businessmen is that a billion dollar job is being done on a 25 cent basis."

Organization of a South Plains pool of manufacturers, fabricators and machine shop operators brought no tangible results in the Lubbock area, reported A. E. Davis, manager of the Lubbock chamber of commerce.

"We have not received any concrete evidence of contracts, nor any definite indication of forthcoming relief for the small operator," Davis said. "To the contrary, it appears that freight rates and other contributing circumstances eliminate us from filling successful bids."

Garnet Reeves, manager of the Pampa civic body, reported an earnest effort in his area to assist small manufacturers but "without a great deal of success."

The campaign to aid small manufacturers is not benefiting Denison plants at all, according to A. W. Long, chamber of commerce manager. "We do have quite a number of firms handling defense contracts but these were obtained without assistance."

"Usually the time required to submit bids is too short for a manufacturer to prepare an intelligent bid," he added.

The same problem confronts small plants in the Marlin area, said George S. Buchanan, chamber of commerce manager.

"Local manufacturers hesitate to make bids because of lack of reasonable time to obtain specifications and make estimates," he said. "Quantities called for are usually so great as to disturb them."

Representatives from small manufacturing concerns in Vernon held several meetings with chamber of commerce officials on means of securing defense contracts.

"I do not know how successful we will be," said W. H. Wright, chamber of commerce secretary, "but I am of the opinion that these concerns must secure defense contracts or eventually be closed due to lack of materials with which to work on civilian contracts."

Whitella Falls' pool of 40 manufacturers, fabricators, machine shop and foundry owners "has made no howling success in obtaining contracts," said J. C. Boyd, Jr., assistant manager of the chamber of commerce. "But we believe it has been able to find out a number of reasons why it is so difficult to get work in this section."

"In my opinion," he added, "very little work will be obtained by the small manufacturers until some very substantial changes are made in the rules for handing out this work."

Capital invested in vineyards in the United States is estimated at about one-half billion dollars, says the department of commerce.

At one time Leibler's value would have been many times greater than represented in this deal, but he will be 30 years old next month and has been hit on the head twice with pitched balls—making his durability doubtful.

A group of prominent Farm Security officials, including Henry Wilkinson, Amarillo, state director for 27 West Texas counties, was to arrive here Thursday evening for a series of conferences Friday with FSA committees in Howard and Martin counties.

With Wilkinson were to be Peter F. Murray, district farm debt adjustment specialist, E. Euel Linder, acting district supervisor, Juanita G. Butler, district homemaking supervisor, and James P. Williams, water facilities supervisor for districts No. 3 and No. 4, all of Lubbock.

Ur D. Kendrick, farm supervisor, and Mrs. Girdy P. Flache, home supervisor, were to participate in the sessions.

The problem of substitution for scarce materials is being studied by many governmental and non-governmental agencies, the department of commerce says.

The railway labor force of the United States reached the highest point of a decade last October, the department of commerce reports.

Leiber Returns To Giants In Trading Deal

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 4 (AP)—Big Hank Leiber returned to the New York Giants today in a deal that sent Pitcher Bob Bowman to the Chicago Cubs and it was anybody's guess whether the trade was worth all the labor that went into it.

The first big league player swap of the minor league meetings was made in a smoke-filled hotel room at 2 a. m. today after representatives of the two clubs had wrangled nearly three hours over terms of the transaction.

As finally announced, the trade called for the Giants to give not only a right handed hurler but a sum of cash for the big blond outfielder who has shown signs of being one of the most dangerous sluggers in the National League.

The money involved was generally estimated at $10,000, but this was in doubt because the Cubs went into the conference reportedly seeking something like four times that amount.

At one time Leibler's value would have been many times greater than represented in this deal, but he will be 30 years old next month and has been hit on the head twice with pitched balls—making his durability doubtful.

Public Health Officials Warn That Influenza Is On March

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
AP Feature Service Writer
WASHINGTON—Flu is on the march again. So health officials, mindful of the savage onslaught of the mysterious malady during the World War, are keeping a wary eye on the situation.

The number of cases being reported to the United States public health service is running almost three times as high as a year ago when the winter wave developed into the most extensive epidemic since 1929. There were 2,308 new cases reported for the week ending Nov. 8 compared with 767 for the similar period last year.

If the influenza curve should rise at the rate it did last winter when a peak of 200,000 new cases for the four weeks ended Jan. 25 was reached, the outbreak probably would be the largest since 1920.

Earlier this year a few doctors and bacteriologists warned of the possibility of an epidemic similar in scope and severity to the great pandemic of 1918-1919. They said last winter's epidemic which traveled eastward might get a foothold among war-weakened European peoples and return in more virulent form to this country.

So far, however, there is no indication of anything hitting us comparable to the explosive World War outbreak of the disease when between August, 1918, and June, 1919, there were an estimated 20,000,000 to 27,000,000 cases and more than 500,000 deaths from influenza and pneumonia in this country.

No widespread outbreak has yet developed in Europe. The cases in the United States this fall have been mild and the wave quite localized. More than 1,800 of the 2,308 new cases reported for the week ending Nov. 8 were in Texas which for several months has been accounting for some 40 per cent of the cases.

Since the year 1900, worldwide influenza of great virulence has occurred about four times in each century. The 1918-1919 sweep was the first of this century so another may be about due. The concentration of masses of men in training camps and the heavy travel of civilians and soldiers tend to complicate flu control.

Army medical officers, however, see several favorable factors now as compared with 1918. Training housing facilities are better; a much lower death rate from illness indicates a healthier army and the medical corps is preparing for quick hospitalization and segregation of its sufferers. The army has now become accustomed to camp life while recruits are not being inducted in large groups as they were in 1918.

Even if there should be a sweeping outbreak of severe cases, medical men believe the various sulfonamide remedies for pneumonia and streptococcal infections would curb the death toll.

Old timers still shudder when they recall the speed and ferocity of the 1918 assault. Thousands died.

Texas Worries About Material For Auto Tags

AUSTIN, Dec. 4 (AP)—Distribution of 1942 Texas automobile license plates to county tax collectors has begun but state highway officials are lying awake nights pondering the 1943 situation.

Already denied a priorities number for steel for the 1943 tags, they are not very hopeful about cracking the Office of Production Management's ruling.

What makes the problem particularly knotty is the fact that the 1942 plates—made of 26-gauge steel and given one coat of paint—were designed and built to last only 12 months.

Therefore, there is small chance of adopting the policy of some states and making 1942 licenses permanent by attaching to them in following years a supplementary metal strip or certificate to show payment of registration fee.

Judge Makes 'Leave Town' Order Stick

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 4 (AP)—The defendant, charged with a misdemeanor, offered to leave town in five minutes if released.

He adjourned court, drove the man 28 miles out of town and told him to start hiking.

THE WAR TODAY: Hope Of Peace Within Next Year Grows

By DEWIET MACKENZIE

There seems to be a cautious but growing feeling that the European war may be finished in another twelve months, the latest to venture this thought being New York's Mayor La Guardia, who told the senate naval affairs committee yesterday that he expected the war to "be over in a year" if this country attained production goals and saw that supplies were delivered where needed.

Such a prediction is too happy an idea to pass by in these days of worry. Also it is both pleasing and encouraging for this column to have the support of such a personage as the head-man of the world's tallest city. We ventured the view long ago, and have repeated it, that the trend of events indicated the possibility of peace some time next year—though we emphasized that this obviously wasn't any certainty.

As a matter of fact I suspect that one even higher than his honor gave us a lead on this subject last Saturday night. I refer to President Roosevelt's "little silent prayer" during his belated Thanksgiving dinner at the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation. Referring to the folk of the countries at war he said:

"I think we can offer up a little silent prayer that these people will be able to hold next year a Thanksgiving more like an American Thanksgiving. That is something to dream about, perhaps."

Now I don't know exactly what was in the chief executive's mind, but some thought he was holding out at least a glimmer of hope for an early peace. True, in almost the same breath he said "It is always possible that our boys in the military and naval academies (he had been talking about football) may be fighting for the defense of these American institutions of ours." However, it's good to believe that he was thinking of peace and that his qualification was merely the caution of a wise man to emphasize that no categorical prediction could be made regarding the length of the war.

One judge that Mayor La Guardia believes this is a war of resources. Anyway, that's what this column believes. I motored to my New York office this early morning with Pat Barnes, the genial entertainer of the air. We fell to discussing the possibilities of peace and he asked the grounds for saying that it might come next year. That was a fair question, and the answer was along this line:

This isn't a war of tanks and bombers alone. The terrific power of the Nazi fighting machines as it has crushed and ground countries beneath its overwhelming weight has rather blinded us to other factors, and no wonder. Battle fields must play their awful part in the solution, but this war fundamentally is one of resources. We have a Germany in the heart of a continent which is bottled up—almost wholly cut off from the outside world. Continental Europe isn't self-contained, as this column more than once has stressed, and in itself is unable to support a total war such as Herr Hitler is waging.

The struggle with which he started is steadily lessening, for lack of replacements. The resources of those continental countries about him are rapidly disappearing, or have almost altogether vanished. Meantime Britain and her allies, and the United States with its all-out aid, are growing in striking power by leaps and bounds.

If two and two make four, then the fashner must break out of his encirclement to fresh resources. The crimson flash of great guns and the roar of exploding bombs may distract our attention from that fact, but they cannot altogether alter it.

Two men were killed in Nueces county as a result of two shootings yesterday—one following an argument over the ownership of a shack on the gulf beach and another following an argument over a small debt.

The dead are C. C. Lewis, 33, of Corpus Christi, and C. E. Wolfe, about 35, fishermen at Corpus Christi.

Lewis died shortly after suffering three shotgun wounds in the back and side, climaxing an argument over a small debt that began in a domino game, City Detective Joe Fawcett said.

Police held a man who, they said, admitted in a statement that he shot Lewis.

A murder charge was filed in justice court yesterday against Dick Van Leuben, about 30, in connection with the death of Wolfe.

Sheriff John Hatney said Wolfe died yesterday as a result of a shotgun wound in the abdomen, following an argument over ownership of a tar-paper fishing shack.

Valley Fruit Crop Faces Good Year

AUSTIN, Dec. 4.—Fruit trucks and trains are rolling out of the valley again under the best marketing conditions in years, with the prospect that the citrus crop possibly will be slightly below the 21,000,000 bushels of fruit shipped and processed during the 1940-41 marketing season, Commissioner of Agriculture, J. E. McDonald said today.

There were 15,360,640 bushels of citrus fruits shipped out of the valley last year, about 46 per cent of the crop. The rest of the fruit was processed into juices and citrus hearts.

Because of the greater demand, due to better conditions in the nation, the valley is facing possibly its best year, Commissioner McDonald said. Although the quantity of fruit shipped possibly will be smaller, the quality is reported good.

Selective Service To Aid In Minor Defect Correction

Selective service officials soon may be receiving detailed information on how registrants with minor physical defects may be brought into shape for service.

National selective service headquarters has announced that a plan is in the making whereby remedial defects may have the freedom corrected with the government paying cost of the work to cooperating doctors.

It is estimated that 200,000 can thus be restored to the rolls as sinless. Men passed previously by reason of defects and who were classified as D-B will soon be given orders to report for re-examination.

The department of commerce says that 4,500,000 motor trucks move over the nation's highways.

Foreign Policy Gets Test In Massachusetts

BOSTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—A major test at the polls of President Roosevelt's foreign policy appeared developing today as the special primary campaign in Massachusetts' defense-booming seventh congressional district gained fury.

The showdown was indicated in the contest among ten candidates for the democratic nomination for the seat vacated by the death of U. S. Representative Lawrence J. Conroy (D-Lynn).

Demanders that the campaign be confined entirely to foreign policy came early from a 35-year-old state senator, Joseph B. Harrington of Salem, a leader in the American First Committee, who is running on an out-and-out isolationist platform.

His challenge brought a quick response from the two candidates generally considered the favorites at this point of the campaign for the Dec. 16 primary.

Assistant democratic floor leader of the Massachusetts senate, Thomas J. Lane, 43, of Lawrence, asserted that he was "casting my lot with the kind of Americanism typified by President Roosevelt" and added "I pledge my full support to his foreign and domestic policy."

County Commissioner J. Fred Manning, 55, for ten years mayor of Lynn, the largest city in the district with a population of 200,000, said that he would "never vote for war," and declared:

"I stand steadfastly behind the foreign policy of President Roosevelt in giving all aid to the powers fighting the axis without sending our boys across to fight on foreign soil."

American Woman Tells Of Life Of Housewife In War-Time Rome

(One of the few remaining American women in Italy—or on the continent of Europe—has just returned home. Here she gives an intimate wartime picture of Italy from a housewife's viewpoint. As wife of AP Foreign Correspondent Richard Massock, now chief of bureau at Rome, she has been in Paris, Moscow and Rome since 1933.)

By MRS. RICHARD MASSOCK
AP Feature Service

NEW YORK—I suppose I have gotten out of Europe about the right time, as running a home is becoming quite difficult. In fact, so is life in general.

There was a fever of buying going on in Italy just before I left and the new rationing cards came in. These new cards cover clothing and all household goods. Everyone had the idea he must buy, buy, buy and buy; shoes, gloves, shoes, suits, silks, coats. It was in the air, and everyone was struck by it, even we Americans.

Now I come home and hear everyone excited and anxious to buy a plot of land, or spending like mad in the night spots; buying jewelry, buying furs. The spending fever seems even worse than it was in 1932.

It's startling to see the elegance of the women in New York. One has only to walk down Fifth or Park avenue to realize how untouched we seem to be by this war, and how far away it all must seem to most people.

Social life in Italy is almost at a standstill due to the lack of transportation. Few private cars are seen, and these are vehicles of diplomats or high fascists. We had a special permit to use our car, but when our ration of gasoline reached 30 liters a month, we felt it was necessary to give up driving. Taxis run only until 8:30 in the evening, and even then one must be going in the direction of the taxi to get a ride, as each vehicle has a zone and cannot go out of it.

Before the war there were as many automobiles in Rome in proportion to the population as there are in New York. With cars laid up, Romans now are obliged to take buses or trams. And there are no more of these public conveyances than there were before the war. So people are packed like sardines in a box. It's really dangerous to wear a good fur coat or other garment, since one is pushed and shoved about mercilessly getting in and out of the crowds.

Movies, restaurants, bars—in fact, all public places—must be closed by 11 at night.

The food problem is difficult. Rationing is so restricted that entertaining at home is almost impossible. One is allowed 100 grams of butter a month per person (there are 28 grams to the ounce), 200 grams of oil, 100 grams of rice, one and a half kilograms of spaghetti, which is quite gray; 100 grams of meat per person a week, which isn't even the size of a lamb chop, and you can have your choice of veal; 100 grams of bread a day, dark and tastes gritty. The Black Market for food has completely disappeared, so one gets along on his rations.

To shop for the day, one must allow two or three hours for rousing up the food, as separate lines are formed for milk, meat, bread, potatoes, fruits, etc. Waiting around in line long hours puts everybody in a bad humor, the shopkeeper as well as the shoppers.

Foreigners are not permitted to go outside Rome or certain specified nearby towns, but until now we have had no unhappy experiences, and Americans are treated the same as before the war.

Four Men On A Tiny Raft Are Heroes Of Brazil

The fisher foursome sail into Rio after 2,000 mile voyage across open sea in frail "jangada."

AP Feature Service

RIO DE JANEIRO—When four fishermen of Ceara started an amazing "jangada" voyage two months ago, they were just four poor workmen coming to the Brazilian capital to ask the president for better wages.

Today, after having navigated their frail craft 2,000 miles through the open ocean, they are heroes, a little dazed by it all.

To Rio, which turned out en masse to welcome them, they are a Brazilian combination of Lindberg and Wiley Post after their famous flight.

The four are Manoel Olimpico Meira, 38; Jeronymo Andre da Souza, 28; Raymundo Correa, 52, and Manoel Pereira da Silva, 38. All are married.

The four brought their tiny, bouncing craft into Rio on schedule. Escorted by more than 100 fishing craft and yachts they steered their little raft to a dock, were hoisted ashore by a derrick for a rousing ovation from 10,000 spectators waiting to greet them, and immediately asked the way to Guanabara Palace, where they knew President Getulio Vargas could be found.

Their plea to Vargas was for some sort of government control on prices offered for the fish which they catch far out in the ocean, and for a government program of aid for them and their families. Vargas promised them help. Now they are eager to start home again, over the same dangerous route.

Their "jangada" craft is nothing but four crudely shaped balsa logs, about 15 feet long, lashed together to form a raft, with a small triangular sail. The "jangada" skims over the water, rather than through it. An oar thrust between two of the logs steers the raft. The "jangada" is used for ocean fishing usually.

It is impossible for the crew to sit or lie down. On ordinary fishing trips, fishermen sometimes remain four days at sea, munching cold food carried in sacks strapped to their waists and sipping tepid water from a small, wooden cask.

Manufacturers Urged To See Defense Train

Manufacturers, machine shop operators and fabricators of this area were urged Thursday by E. J. Uhl to make plans for inspecting the display in Dallas on Dec. 11-13 of materials which small concerns might produce.

Uhl is representative of the Big Spring district on the area executive committee which is attempting to secure contracts which could be sublet to small manufacturing concerns.

There will be all variety of items on display in the special train sent out by OPM, said Uhl, and heads of the various firms may inspect them with the view of ascertaining which they could produce. Work of this type, it was thought, might relieve the pinch of the national defense program against small production units.

Those who attend should have credentials signed by Uhl and the chamber of commerce, else they may not view the exhibits.

East Indies Keep Oil Under Watch

BATAVIA, Java, Dec. 4 (AP)—A Netherlands East Indies spokesman declared today that the vast oil industry of the Indies would be placed under government supervision if the colony became involved in war, and would be destroyed if it could not be defended.

"The enemy will have to pay a heavy toll and then find only ruins," the spokesman was quoted by Aneta, NEI news agency.

'Aunt Jemima' To Serve Her Famed Pancakes At Local Store Saturday

Of interest of practically everyone in this area who ever feels the desire to eat "hot cakes" is the announcement made today by Lawrence Robinson of Robinson & Sons grocery and market that arrangements have been completed with Quaker Oats company for a personal appearance of Aunt Jemima in that store all day Saturday, Dec. 6.

Literally millions of people are familiar with the smiling face of this lovable personage, whose fame as a creator of one of the most tempting dishes has spread throughout the world.

Robinson states that Aunt Jemima will prepare and serve her delectable pancakes and buckwheat cakes, together with all the "flourish" throughout the day—and everyone is invited to call and sample them as cooked by Aunt Jemima in person.

Aunt Jemima and her products are among the many good things manufactured by the Quaker Oats company, which recently acquired extensive milling properties in Sherman in order that they might better serve the Southwest.

Turkey Receives U. S. Lend-Lease Aid

Turks Promise To Resist Dictators

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP)—The United States began furnishing Turkey with military supplies six months ago so the Turks could stand by their pledge to Britain to defend Turkey and the strategic Dardanelles against any threat of axis aggression.

This Turko-British pact, it was learned authoritatively today, accounts to a great extent for President Roosevelt's formal decision adding Turkey to the list of nations eligible for lend-lease aid.

The White House statement yesterday, however, said merely: "The president announced that he had found the defense of Turkey vital to the defense of the United States and had directed Lend-Lease Administrator E. R. Stettinius, Jr., to see that the defense needs of the government of Turkey were filled as soon as possible."

Under present plans, it was disclosed, future lend-lease aid to Turkey is expected to include $100,000,000 worth of planes, tanks, trucks, anti-tank and anti-aircraft guns, ammunition and other supplies urgently required by the Turkish army.

All supply shipments since last May have been made to Great Britain, which in turn delivered them to Turkey, and it was learned that this procedure would prevail on all future shipments.

By this arrangement, it was explained, Britain will be enabled to fulfill her treaty promise of military supplies in return for Turkey's pledge not to allow any aggressor the use of Turkish territory as a pathway for attacks on Iraq, Iran, Palestine, Suez, or the vitally important Caucasus and Mosul oilfields.

The United States and Great Britain alone were said authoritatively to have worked out the

Blue Stamp Issuance Reaches $5,600 Monthly

Issuance of blue food stamps—representing additional food eaten by needy people and new business for grocers—has reached $5,600 per month in Howard county. Claud Wolf, county stamp officer, reported Thursday that during November his office issued $5,595 free blue food stamps to needy persons. A total of $8,058 worth of orange stamps were sold. Receiving stamps were 826 families containing 2,327 persons.

Two Men Complete Navy Enlistment

Two young men completed their enlistment papers Thursday for the U. S. naval reserve. S. L. Cooke, in charge of the U. S. navy recruiting office here, reported. They were Hollis Leland Collins, Wickett, and Prentice Edward Hayes, Monahan. They probably will not report until after the holidays.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4—(Wide World)—The "unsung heroes" of New England football will have some singing done in their honor at Boston tonight. Maybe they should invite the whole Duguesse team as guest stars. One who won't be there is Francis Jones, who was nominated by Yale Coach Spike Nelson. He was drafted two weeks ago and has just been shipped from Fort Devens (Mass.) to Camp Lee (Va.). Buddy Baer leaves Sacramento (Calif.) tomorrow and is due here Monday to start training for that affair with J. Louis. Joe already has begun working out at his Stevensville (Mich.) place. Looks like a bust-up in the Big Seven conference over Denver's objections to playing home-and-home games with the other clubs. If it happens, Colorado U. will bid for a place in the Big Six, which would then become a Big Seven. And so what?

Southern Hospitality

A big moment in North Carolina football turned up last month when Guilford college, trailing Elon 59-0, was about to score against the Elon subs. At the crucial moment, the Guilford captain took time out and walked over to the Elon coach. Guilford was about to score its first touchdown in two years, he explained, and wouldn't the coach put in his regulars so the boys would get more satisfaction from it? Elon's first stringers went into the game; Guilford pushed over its touchdown and final score was Elon 60, Guilford 7.

HSU Risks Clear Record At Tempe

ABILENE, Dec. 4.—Out to keep their slate clear of the first year of Border Conference membership, the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys will invade Tempe Saturday for the season's finale with Dixie Howell's doughty Arizona State Bulldogs, rulers of the loop the two past seasons.

Coach Warren Woodson's Cowboys drilled against Tempe formations, and polished their own offense daily this week in gunning for a third conference win, that can earn them a tie for the title with the University of Arizona Wildcats.

Norton Gets Bid For Top Coach Honors

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4 (AP)—Heading toward the great northwest today was the Texas Aggie football team, led by a candidate for the mythical coach of the year laurels.

At Tacoma Saturday his team will meet Washington State, guided by another contender for the nation's coaching honors.

The friendly rivals are Homer Norton of Texas A. & M. and Orrin (Dabe) Hollingbery of Washington State.

Norton lost nine out of eleven regular games in his great 1940 campaign yet won the 1941 Southwest conference championship. His one defeat with a team that had to be fashioned from the well known scratch was to the mighty Texas Longhorns. It was his second defeat in 20 games.

Hollingbery's feat was equally astounding. He took the remnants of what was a remnant to begin with, lost more than 20 players—two during the 1941 campaign via injuries, concussion and withdrawals, and emerged as the giant-killer of the Pacific Coast.

The Cougars lost two games by one-point margins to Southern California and U. C. L. A., and dropped another to Washington, but they walloped the Rose Bowl Oregon State team, Stanford, California and all the rest of their opponents.

There should be some kind of award for these two coaching gents.

Peel Named Playing Pilot For Okla. City

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 4 (AP)—Three deals aimed at providing much needed punch for the Oklahoma City Indians in their 1942 Texas league campaign were announced today by President John D. Holland.

The Indians obtained four players and disposed of three in the transactions which followed the signing of Homer Peel, acting manager the latter part of last season, as playing manager for 1942.

Pitcher Al Fisher was traded to Knoxville of the Southern association for First Baseman Alex Hooks and Pitcher Jennings Peindexter, a left-hander. Bud Hefey, outfielder was purchased from Memphis of the same league.

The Indians sold Pitcher Sheldon Jones to Jersey City of the International league for cash and Centerfielder Hershel Martin, one-time Phillies player.

Aggies Named Among 'Up' Teams Of Nation; Texas Listed 'Down'

Five Clubs Called Surprise Winners Of '41 Season

NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP)—Oregon State, Texas A. and M., Vanderbilt, Notre Dame and Army—these were 1941 college football teams which showed unexpected strength. Colgate, Tulane, Texas, Stanford and Colorado—were teams which failed to live up to their advance promise.

The ten teams listed, five on the "up" and five on the "down" side, are the most prominent examples from an annual Associated Press survey designed to show how closely football follows pre-season ratings. The survey shows there were just about as many, from coast to coast, on the "right" side of the ledger as on the wrong.

Since they will be playing in bowl games on New Year's Day, Oregon State and Texas A. and M. are perhaps the No. 1 "surprise" champions of the year.

Neither had been rated a contender in its conference race (the experts picked the Aggies for fifth in the Southwest), yet each came through handsomely. Oregon State, behind a stout defense, fought its way into the Rose Bowl, and the Aggies, chiefly through the unexpected development of Darnace Moser as the conference's best forward passer, became the first successful defending champions in Southwest history and earned a Cotton Bowl berth.

Each section had its surprises and its disappointments. Hitting the high spots, with causes wherever known, they were:

Mid-West
Unexpected strength—Ohio State, which in its first year under high school marvel Paul Brown operated with brand-new precision; Notre Dame, given its first unbeaten season in 10 because Frank Leahy made the most of his new material; Michigan, with Bob Westfall and Sophomores Tom Kusma, Paul White and Merv Pregulman taking up the slack left by the graduation of Tom Harmon and Co.

Southwest
Disappointing—Nebraska which, after losing 15 lettersmen from its Rose Bowl squad, was hit further by injuries and lost five games in a row for the first time since 1899; Wisconsin, beaten chiefly through a porous pass defense.

South
Up—Virginia, able to win all but one game because of ace Back Bill Dudley and a stronger line; Vanderbilt, moving faster in the second year under its present coaching staff; South Carolina, because of better morale, according to Coach Rex Enright.

Down
Down—Purdue, which, after being rated high, apparently never recovered from a 32-6 licking by Tennessee in its opener; Tulane, the team no one could keep up with because it was down too often.

Far West
Stronger than rated—Washington State, able to win five conference games in spite of the loss of 23 men, including three full-backs, Idaho revitalized by Francis Schmidt to such an extent that the same material which won one minor game in 1940 and scored only twice was able to hold Washington State scoreless for a half.

Wenker
Wenker—Santa Clara, which lacked a blocking back; Southern California, where Sam Barry had to take over after Howard Jones' death; California, hit hard by the loss of star Back Jim Jurkovich in its second game.

Rocky Mountains
Up—Colorado State, which developed the section's best pass attack in Coach Harry Hughes' 31st consecutive season.

Down—Colorado, hampered by slim material to start with and injuries on top of that.

East
Up—Army, given a grand "shot in the arm" by Earl Bielek; Syracuse, whose Ossie Solem came up with one of the year's biggest developments in his reformed center "Y" formation; Penn., making up by Gene Davis' smart quarterbacking and Bert Stiff's plunging for the loss of many 1940 stars.

Down—Colgate and West Virginia, whose sophomores failed to come up to their promise the first time out; Lehigh, unable to win a game for the first time since 1884; New York U., stripped of almost its entire first-string line by the draft.

Sinkwich Leads Field In Rushing During Session

SEATTLE, Dec. 4 (AP)—There are still a few more games on the 1941 football slate, but individual football laurels have already been nailed down for the season.

The American Football Statistical Bureau, which chronicled the forward advance of 204 teams and 5,000 players this fall, tips its well-worn yardstick in the direction of these leaders:

Wilson "Bud" Schwenk of Washington university in St. Louis. Schwenk set a new total offense yardage mark of 1,925 yards in nine games; he set a new forward pass completion figure of 114, or 31 more than the old standard fixed by Davis O'Brien in 1937, and he set a season "workhorse" record by figuring in 284 plays.

Frankie Sinkwich, the boy with the broken jaw from Georgia. Sinkwich, although records on his last game against Georgia Tech are still unreported, led the nation as a rusher with 1,588 yards, and finished third in total offense with 1,556 yards, a figure which undoubtedly will be expanded with addition of his last Saturday's exploits.

Owen Price of Texas Mines. Price became the only individual to lead a statistical classification both this year and last. The top punter of 1940, he booted one 50-yard spiral last week to nose out Steve Lach of Duke by a fraction for punting supremacy with a 45.33 yard average per boot. Price also finished second as a passer, tying O'Brien's 1937 completion mark at 95.

Henry Stanton of Arizona. Stanton caught 41 passes for 680 yards, and has one more game in which to better the modern record of 67 catches established by Jim Benton of Arkansas in 1937.

Richardson of Marquette. Richardson boasted the best pass completion percentage figure of .537. He completed 58 of 91, with seven intercepted. Previous high man was Hugh McCullough of Oklahoma who in 1938 completed 70 of 111 for a percentage of .631. His figure still stands for passers at tempting 100 or more throws.

Mitchell Red Cross Gifts Total $400

COLORADO CITY, Dec. 4 (Sp) Over $800 had been reported this week in Mitchell county's annual Red Cross roll call drive, with clean-up not yet completed.

Over 40 business firms and civic units have been reported with 100 per cent memberships, according to Bruce Hart, roll call chairman.

No Room Left For Underdogs In State Race

They start the battle for the Texas schoolboy football championship tomorrow with more favorites than you can shake a stick at.

Wichita Falls' Coyotes, Paris' Wildcats, Sunset's Bisons, Temple's Wildcats, Tyler's Lions, Corpus Christi's Buccaneers—all have their followings. But it will be Saturday before any team can be established as No. 1.

Season records mean little when the teams move into state play. Elevens that couldn't beat a carpet in September are not convinced that Temple could go past Tyler, should these teams clash in the second round. They do believe, however, that Corpus Christi is going to the semi-finals but that its toughest game is due this week against Austin, a team the Bucs beat in a non-conference tilt in mid-season.

Anyway close to 75,000 fans are due to see the eight battles this week-end if the weather is favorable. That would be a new high for the bi-district round.

Paris may find the going quite rough from an upsurging Highland Park team that didn't look as though it would win its district title six weeks ago.

Temple's Wildcats, one of the state's four undefeated, untied teams, had its chances dimmed when its fine back, Wayland Hill, joined a couple of other regulars with a touch of influenza.

Tyler, while it has a good record during the season's opening game, still is untested. And so on.

But anyway four games are scheduled tomorrow to bring half of the district champions into action. They are:

Paris vs. Highland Park at Dallas.
Breckenridge at Temple.
Nacogdoches at Tyler.
Austin at Corpus Christi (night).
Then Saturday they line up like this:
Lubbock at Wichita Falls.
Sweetwater vs. Yelita at El Paso.
Sunset vs. Amon Carter Riverside at Fort Worth.
Lamar vs. Robert E. Lee at Houston.

Paris, Temple, Tyler, Corpus Christi, Sweetwater and Sunset are definite favorites to win but the Lubbock-Wichita Falls and Lamar-Robert E. Lee tilts are toss-ups.

The winner of the Lubbock-Wichita Falls game will be picked to go to the semi-finals but should Sunset and Paris meet in the quarter-finals, there are many who would take the Dallas eleven over the Wildcats despite all the forecasts that have been coming out concerning Paris power since the season opened.

Gifts That Are Pleasant To Make

There's something about the Salvation Army Christmas kettles that we like. Christmas would be incomplete without them. As much a fixture of the Yule season as the red kettles and red-and-black clad, bell-ringing attendants as are mistletoe and holly.

NEW YORK—Nobility asked me, but I was sorry to see Bob Zuppke resign from Illinois. . . . When I was a cub, he was one of the first Big Shots I ever interviewed. . . . His teams were famous, and I think he guessed I was just cutting my teeth, for he quickly and easily took the interview out of my hands.

Good Rice Pudding Year. SACRAMENTO, Calif.—It looks like a good year for rice pudding in California, according to the federal-state market news service. The reporting agency estimated California's new rice crop at 4,471,200 bags, the largest on record. Last year's production was 4,035,300 bags and the 10-year average 3,679,200 bags.

WHEN YOU LOOK AROUND AND CONSIDER THE GREAT THINGS OTHERS HAVE DONE IN SO SHORT A TIME, HOW ELSE CAN ONE FEEL?' and 'JENNIE SHOOK HER HEAD. "I DON'T KNOW. I HAVEN'T SEEN ANY SIGN OF HER. I TRIED SO HARD, ASSEY, TO GET AWAY FROM THAT MAN AN' FIND OUT WHAT MRS. DOANE WAS DOIN'. BUT EVERY TIME I GOT UP, HE SAT ME DOWN. ASSEY, WHAT YOU LAUGHIN' ABOUT? IT WASN'T A BIT FUNNY.' 'MAYBE IT AIN'T FUNNY TO YOU NOW,' ASSEY SAID, 'BUT IN A DAY OR SO IT'LL PROBABLY HIT YOUR FUNNY BONE, TOO. HOW'D YOU MANAGE TO GET AWAY?' 'HE WENT INTO THE PANTRY TO GET ME SOME PIE, JUST NOW, AN' I RUN OUT! ASSEY, THERE'S THE GIRL, NOW!' JENNIE POINTED TOWARD THE FRONT DOOR. 'FREDDY DOANE CAME IN, TOOK OFF HER DRIPPING RAINCOAT, ROLLED IT UP AND SLUNG IT OVER THE CORNER DESK INTO THE CUPBOARD BEYOND. 'ARE YOU TWO STILL HERE?' SHE TRIED TO SOUND SEVERE, BUT SHE OBVIOUSLY WAS IN TOO BUOYANT A MOOD TO BE AT ALL SUCCESSFUL. 'LOOK, I KNOW YOURS FROM AROUND HERE, BUT YOU'RE A MISTAKE AND YOU'VE MADE A MISTAKE AND GOT THIS PLACE MIXED UP WITH SOME OTHER INN. BUT IF MOTHER FINDS YOU HERE AFTER SHE'S SET YOU AWAY ONCE, SHE'LL SIMPLY RAISE THE ROOF! MOTHER'S IN A TALKY STATE TONIGHT, ANYWAY. WON'T YOU BE LAMBS AND DASH OFF BEFORE SHE SEES YOU?' 'ASSEY, JENNIE SAID BLANKLY, 'YOU KNOW WHAT I THINK? I THINK THAT GIRL DON'T KNOW A THING ABOUT MISS OLIVE'S BELT! KILLED! SHE DON'T KNOW A THING ABOUT WHAT'S BEEN GOIN' ON THERE!' 'ABOUT WHAT?' THE GIRL WALKED OVER TO THEM QUICKLY. 'WHAT DID YOU SAY?' 'ASSEY WATCHED JENNIE'S FACE AS SHE LOOKED AT THE GIRL. WASHY HAD CONSPICUOUSLY MET HIS COUSIN, AN' MRS. DOANE PUSSED HER, BUT THE DAUGHTER WAS APPARENTLY SOMEONE MORE TO HER LIKING. A GREAT DEAL MORE. ASSEY MENTALLY AMENDED, AS JENNIE HELD OUT HER HAND TO THE GIRL. 'COME OVER HERE, DEAR, AN' SIT DOWN. YOU DON'T KNOW, I CAN SEE YOU DON'T. WELL, MISS OLIVE'S BEEN KILLED.' 'TO BE CONTINUED.' 'Good Rice Pudding Year. Man Keeps Nerve After Experience On Reuben James

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 4 —A terrifying experience with torpedoes which sank the ill-fated destroyer Reuben James wasn't enough to make George Beasley, 22, weary of the war.

The Havener, Okla., youth who was aboard the ship when it sank west of Iceland Oct. 21 says he would be "glad to get back" to the war zone.

Beasley clung to a life raft in the icy North Atlantic for two hours after the Reuben James was hit. He narrowly escaped death in explosions of the ship's death charges.

"We were swimming about 30 yards away from the Reuben James when she went down," he said, visiting friends here. "Just as she slid under, the depth charges went off. The ocean was thrown up in a great wave, our raft was overturned and I was pulled under."

"About half of the men of the Raft were drowned and I was able to climb on. A few minutes later another destroyer came along and began circling us. It was one of the most beautiful sights I ever saw. But it didn't stop. Another ship came along and picked us up."

Seventeen Year Old Shoots Friend For Laughing At Him

ALVA, Okla., Dec. 4 (AP)—Seventeen-year-old Kenneth Root today was charged with the fatal shooting of a neighbor lad because officers said, he laughed at him.

Donald Benson, 22, died of gunshot wounds inflicted last Thursday night by a youth who fled on horseback.

Undersheriff Dewey Randall gave this version of the shooting: Benson and a group of friends were walking home from a rural school box supper when Root approached. Benson laughed at him.

When Sergeant York Made A Big Decision

Gary Cooper was about as close to heaven as it's possible to get on a movie sound stage when he played a scene depicting a decision that made history. The scene was for "Sergeant York," and Cooper sat on the top-most crag of a man made mountain on a Warner Bros. studio set. There was a spiritual quality to the scene that made the scene perch highly appropriate. Alvin York was searching his soul, torn between religious convictions and love of country. It is one of the outstanding scenes of the picture which plays at the Ritz Saturday night, Sunday and Monday. Dressed in the olive drab uniform of the American doughboy of 1917, Cooper sat on the rocky crag, looking out toward the cloud flecked sky backing. His campaign hat lay beside him, his tunic was unbuttoned, and in his hands he held a leather backed Bible. Except for a hound dog that lay curled beside him, he was alone. Wipes of fog, released from compression cylinders, curled up from the valley below, stealing through the branches and wreath-

Transportation Men From USA Go To Far East

MANILA, Dec. 4 (AP)—The first group of hardy American transportation men who will keep supplies rolling over the Burma Road while American planes and pilots guard them from air attacks overhead have reached Manila en route to China. With them came United States supplies en route to China, with a single shipment alone carrying a quarter-million dollars worth of material. There also were war materials for American forces in the Far East. The 46 men in the transportation group are under contract to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's government and will receive up to $500 a month in United States currency. They were sent for in accordance with recommendations to the generalissimo by Daniel G. Armstrong, American transportation expert who undertook to speed traffic on the lifeline highway.
