Ford Business Changes Hands

A business deal of major importance was finally closed this week when Joe Gault, recently of Brady, took over the George Humphrey Ford dealership here. The deal has been in the mill ever since early December and it was originally expected that the change would be made the first of the year. The delay was occasioned by routine paper work in various Ford offices all the way to Detroit.

Mr. Gault comes here from Brady where he was associated with a Ford dealership since 1956. He moved his family here last week and has rented a Raymond Hall residence at 203 N. Street near Glendale. Mr. and Mrs. Gault have two daughters who have enrolled in the Eldorado school. Cissy, age 14, is in the 8th grade; and Marchia, age 9, has enrolled in the 4th. They have one married daughter, Mrs. Ann Spiller, who is completing her education at the University of Texas.

The family are members of the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey bought the Ford dealership here from Charlie Trigg about 8 years ago. Last year they bought the Jim Williams stock farm east of Eldorado and are now making their home there.

Screw Worm Week Jan 21-26

The Southwest Screwworm Eradication Program will be stopped March 31, 1963, unless by that date, livestock producers have contributed the remaining $1 million of their $3 million goal, it was decided by the board of trustees of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation at a meeting January 3 at the Driskill Hotel in Austin.

The termination could become necessary because the federal appropriation bill specifies that cost will be shared equally by federal and non-federal sources. Necessary state funds requested will not become available until after March 31, unless emergency appropriation by the Texas Legislature is forthcoming.

Trustees avoided a "one shot" contribution policy to ask that producers contribute a second time in order to save the program. An emergency appeal is planned. The original $3 million goal was based on the expectation that every livestock producer would participate.

The livestock industry has contributed and will have spent $2 million on sterile fly production by March 31. These funds moved the three year eradication program, costing $12 million, under way a full year ahead of schedule.

The Texas Legislature will be requested to appropriate $3 million which will be necessary to continue the program after producer funds are exhausted.

175 livestock auction markets from throughout the state will help collect funds for the program in January. During this time the livestock auctions will donate part of their commissions from sales to the program.

To those who have not contributed, make check to Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation and hand to Leslie Baker, treasurer for the local committee.

POLL TAX PAYMENTS CONTINUE TO LAG

As of 5:00 p.m. yesterday, a total of 401 Schleicher county citizens had paid their poll taxes in the local tax collector's office. Last year at this time, the total stood at 500.

Just one week remains until the January 31st deadline for citizens to pay the $1.75 tax and qualify themselves to vote in this year of 1963.

A public notice appearing on Page 4 is self-explanatory—if you'll read it.

It comes from the Highway Department and has to do with the proposed widening of Hwy. 277 in the city from Murchison Avenue to the city limits on the north.

If you are property owner on that street and have some questions about it, the notice tells you what to do in order to get a hearing.

Plans are under way for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oglesby to be honored on their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a reception the afternoon of Sunday, February 3rd. The event will be held at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oglesby, here in Eldorado.

Further details will be given in the Success next week.

About 85 local citizens took Type 2 oral polio vaccine on the two make-up days last Thursday and Friday afternoons at City Hall.

Visiting Sunday and Monday with Fred Gunstead was his nephew, Curtis Johnson of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, who with two companions, Don Hanson and Duane Odegard, were on their way to Phoenix, Arizona.

The three young men left northwestern Minnesota last Thursday morning and rode the cold front down to Texas.

When they left their home, about 75 miles from the Canadian line, the temperature was 10 degrees above zero. The farther south they came, the colder it got, until they were in sub-zero weather in Oklahoma and North Texas. When they arrived in Eldorado Sunday morning they again found it 10 above.

Phoning back home to report to their folks, they were informed that it was then 25 below zero up there, so they didn't feel they'd been cheated so bad after all.

When they left here about 1:00 p.m., Monday, the sun was shining brightly and their faith in the "sunny Southwest" was again optimistically restored.

They were due to stop at Van Horn and then continue on to Phoenix.

More Cold Waves Descend On Area

Ranchers are getting tired of having to get out and break ice on water troughs, as cold waves hit this area with continuous regularity. Last week saw temperatures down as low as 4 degrees above, followed by warm, sunny weather Monday and Tuesday.

Yesterday brought another bone-chilling dry norther and the end does not seem to be in sight.

The warm weather Tuesday brought in several loads of cotton and about 8 bales were processed. The ginning season is just about over—probably one day's work left when the weather warms up.

Mrs. Billy Edmiston and boys returned to her home at Midland last Saturday to enroll the boys in school there Monday. They have spent the last three months with Mrs. Edmiston's mother, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery while Mr. Edmiston was in Utah in connection with his position with the Continental Oil Company.

Livestock Office Burglarized Here

Hartgraves Livestock and Feeding Company office was entered Monday night and two office machines were carried away.

The loss was discovered Tuesday morning when Donnie Gilmore reported for work. An Underwood portable typewriter and an Underwood calculator were missing and a Coke machine had been jimmied. Both of the office machines had been purchased new last year and represented a value of about $750 or $800.

According to the local Sheriff's office, no other burglaries had been reported.

Admittance to the office apparently was gained with a key. The doors were properly locked when employees came to work Tuesday morning. Nothing else had been molested.

"It looks like a professional job," said Gerald Hartgraves.

The Sheriff's office has broadcast a report and investigations are under way.

Mother's March Is Set For Next Thursday Night

As part of the campaign in the annual March of Dimes, mothers will make a house-to-house canvass of the town next Thursday evening starting at 6:00 o'clock.

Thirty mothers have been enlisted to make the drive. The town will be divided into that many districts enabling each to finish her job in a short time. Residents are again asked to turn on their porch lights.

Mrs. A. G. McCormack is chairman of this year's Mother's March and she states that those volunteering as marching mothers are:

Mrs. L. T. Wilson is convalescing at the home of Mrs. J. B. Montgomery since her return home last week from the Sonora hospital.

A. M. Whitis, superintendent of schools, announced this week that Mrs. Margaret Shannon Harber of Junction has been hired as girls' physical education instructor and English teacher. She is replacing Mrs. Dixie Bell who resigned at mid-term. Mrs. Harber is to move to Eldorado during the week end and start her duties Monday.

Lions Have Program On Oil Industry

Ken Peeler of Midland, with the Oil Information Committee, gave the program at the meeting yesterday of the Eldorado Lions club. Entitled "The Magic Barrel," the program was presented to point out all the many products in our daily life made from petroleum and its derivatives.

Also on hand from Midland was O. H. Crews, past deputy district governor.

Other guests were Pat Preston, R. E. Bland, Henry Moore and John McGregor, who was introduced as having made all-tournament team in Ozona; and Charles F. Moore and Tommy Adams of San Angelo.

ANGUS HEIFERS SOLD

Moore Bros. of Eldorado sold 40 registered Angus heifers to the Oklahoma Agricultural Experiment Station recently. Just One Week Left To Pay Your POLL TAX And Qualify Yourself To Vote During the Year 1963

Austin.—Serving as Governor of Texas should be a snap for John Connally.

Any man who can wage a rigorous, 12 months campaign for Governor, such as he has done, reorganize the state government, plan and participate in all the ceremonies he has been through since his election and inauguration, and assume all the allied responsibilities related thereto—should find the task of being governor a cinch.

It seemed like half of Texas was in Austin to see the first mass turnover in state government since Jimmy Allred took over from "Ma" Ferguson in 1935.

Man of the hour was, of course, John Connally! Bus loads of people, both from his old hometown of Floresville and his latest hometown of Fort Worth, came to Austin for the festivities that surrounded his inauguration as governor.

Most of them were here by inauguration eve when nearly 5,000 people packed Austin's Municipal Auditorium for the Democrat's "Victory Dinner," rated as the biggest seated dinner in the state's history. It was sponsored by the State Democratic Executive Committee. At $25 a plate, it netted the party $100,000 and put it on its feet, well-heeled.

Inauguration Day led off with an interdenominational prayer breakfast and the dignity of the day carried over to the high-noon swearing-in ceremony in front of the State Capitol.

Some 5,000 people clustered on the capitol lawn as Governor Connally and Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith solemnly took their oaths of office from Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert of the State Supreme Court.

Both Connally and Smith expressed a sincerity of purpose and a real desire to work with the 58th Legislature in pushing progress for the state—while holding down spending.

Throughout Inaugural Day, Texas' two top men kept popping up in unexpected places—arriving early for ceremonies and dropping in at events related to the inauguration. They shook every extended hand and signed as many autographs as time allowed.

At seven in the evening they took their places, alongside their wives, in a Capitol rotunda receiving line and shook thousands more hands with unremitting enthusiasm.

When Governor Connally presented his plan for progress to a joint meeting of Senate and House members, on the following day, he was met with applause that many legislators felt never had been equaled.

Majority of the legislators said that they felt they could support him "most of the way." All praised his "tremendous grasp of state government," and said if there were differences between the governor and the legislature, such differences could be worked out.

Many were pleased to see Connally urge the strengthening of family sanctity laws. He recommended: An end to common-law marriages; a 90-day waiting period for divorces, prohibiting remarriages until six months after a divorce; and requiring both parents to appear in court when a divorce involves children.

His views on upgrading higher education were approved almost unanimously. But there was quite a bit of disapproval of his proposal to combine the Game and Fish Commission and the State Parks Board. Opposition was based largely on the idea that the Game and Fish Commission would suffer.

Equal Rights

The perennial battle for women's equal rights will hit the limelight in the Texas Senate early in the 58th Legislative session.

Senate constitutional amendments committee set public hearing for 7:00 p.m., January 30, on a proposal to give women equal legal rights. Proposed constitutional amendment was submitted by Sens. W. T. Moore of Bryan and Bill Patman of Ganado.

Vote Age Target

Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio wants the minimum voting age in Texas lowered to 18 years.

Berry has filed a bill which would propose a constitutional amendment allowing the Legislature to make the change. Present law requires voters to be 21 years of age.

Cost Cutting Bill

A bill to create a commission to study ways to cut costs of Texas' government is on file in the House of Representatives.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria said his bill would create a "little Hoover" commission composed of 12 members. Three members would come from the House, three from the Senate, and six would be appointed by Governor Connally, who also has recommended formation of the commission.

Cory said his bill has been passed by the House on five different occasions but never passed the Senate.

Stockmen Raising Funds

Texas Livestock Auction Association is sponsoring a drive to help raise the $1,000,000 still needed to meet the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation's $3,000,000 goal to stamp out the screwworm.

Texas' screwworm eradication program will come to a halt in March unless the million is raised. Governor Connally recommended that the legislature quickly determine whether the screwworm eradication program is in trouble. Result was a hurriedly called hearing, attended by about 30 legislators and as many livestock producers and animal health officials.

Eradication supporters told legislators that the program reduced screwworms by 70 to 90 per cent its very first year, but the $5 million spent to date will be wasted unless the job is finished. It is viewed as a three-year program.

Three-fifths of the money spent so far has come from federal funds, and two-fifths from the livestock producers.

The $12,000,000 program is a true, matching one: Uncle Sam will continue his payments toward the $6,000,000 he promised, so long as the producers and the state combined are matching his payments. So far, the state has paid nothing into the program. But the Texas Animal Health Commission has urged an immediate appropriation of $1,400,000.

Governor Connally has stated that he would ask for such an emergency appropriation if the legislature learns that the program is in danger.

Small-Town Boost Proposed

U. S. Congressman Wright Patman's worry that an "over wheming percentage of the smaller towns and rural areas of East Texas are going downhill" is shared by at least two legislators.

Reps. Joe Cannon of Mexia and H. G. Wells of Tulia spread their concern over economic ills in East Texas to rural areas all over the state. And they have come up with a scheme to bolster the morale and economy of rural counties.

Under their plan, counties with less than 45,000 population would receive a two per cent refund of the sales tax collected by them. This money would go to county judges, who in turn would distribute it to city councils to be used to advertise for new industries and offer incentives to industry.

Wells estimated that 200 counties would be eligible to receive a sales tax rebate, and that $1 million would be distributed the first year.

Main object, Wells said, would be to save counties which recently had some prosperous small towns but which have suffered from being by-passed by highways or from an exodus of citizens who have moved to metropolitan areas.

Impact In Supreme Court

Wagoner Carr made his first appearance before the State Supreme Court as attorney general when the high court heard the case of the state versus the city of Impact. Impact is a satellite of "dry" Abilene which proposes to operate "wet."

Carr made a brief argument for the state, but turned the major presentation over to Tom Eplen of Abilene, and former State Senator Clint C. Small, who have worked on the case for about three years.

March Draft 404

Texas' March quota for draftees is 404 men.

"This is more than double the calls of recent months," says State Selective Service Director Col. Morris S. Schwartz.

February quota was 173 and the January call was for 163 men.

Oath Taken

Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro has been sworn in as Texas' Secretary of State. Ceremonies were held in the Texas Senate where he served for 14 years.

He took the oath as the first constitutional state official appointed by Governor Connally.

Oath was administered by Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert of the Supreme Court.

Several hundred persons were present, including legislators, appellate judges and friends, with a delegation of more than 100 on hand from his home city and county.

4-H Awards Program Is Well Attended

Joyce Woodward, Gold Star Girl, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Woodward. She is a Senior in high school and is finishing four years of club work. She has been a junior leader, competed in district contests, and was blue ribbon winner in District Favorite Food Show, 1962.

Clifford Schooley was given the Achievement Award. He has been in 4-H two years, exhibiting in the local show and in San Angelo. In his first show he won champion lamb of the show in 1962, winning the Nathan's Trophy. Cliff has 15 lambs and two calves that he will exhibit at the local show Saturday.

The leadership award went to George Draper. George is president of the 4-H club for 1962-63. He has been a member since 1955, participating in county grass and range schools. George is a junior leader, assisting others in wool and mohair, grass identification, and range management.

Buzz McCormick has been in 4-H since 1954. He was Gold Star boy in 1961 and is secretary-treasurer of the club at present. He won the production award in 1961. He showed registered heifer and baby beef in the San Angelo fat stock show and fat lambs at El Paso. Sue and William both are actively engaged in registered Hereford and Rambouillet sheep projects.

Rickey Jones received range management award. He has been in 4-H since 1959, has exhibited wool in two county and area shows. He has had numerous champion fleeces and registered in both area and local shows. He was given pasturage on which to run his registered sheep and the way in which he has managed grazing land in small tracts made Rickey the eligible recipient for this past year's range management award.

W. F. Edmiston was commended for his work as a 4-H leader.

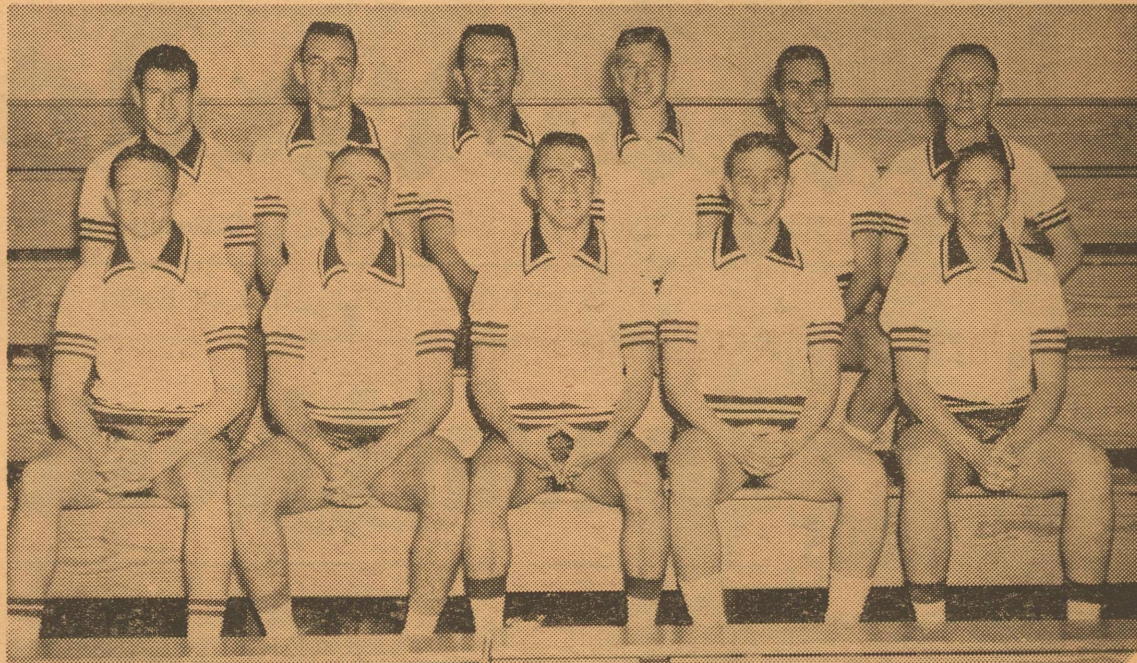

Ronnie Mittel and Edgar Sauer were recognized as 4-H alumni, having been outstanding in 4-H work in previous years.

Four Local Women In 'Distinction' Book

McAdams Publishers of Austin recently published "Texas Women of Distinction" and the 1,000 or so biographies of women of the Lone Star State includes four from Eldorado. Women listed are prominent in public affairs, club work, politics, education, and other fields of endeavor.

Listed in the book from Eldorado are Mrs. W. O. Alexander, Miss Miltia Hill, Mrs. J. O. Willoughby, and the late Mrs. John Luedecke. Mrs. Luedecke's death occurred shortly after the book was brought out.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West were in San Antonio Saturday and Sunday where they attended the executive board meetings of the State Firemen's and Fire Marshal's Association and the Ladies' Auxiliary. Plans were made for the June, 1963, convention to be held there. Palmer went on to Austin to attend meetings of the State Fire Insurance Board.

While the House was getting organized, the Senate began the session with its usual battle over civil rights. The radical-liberals in the Senate want to change the rules so they can force through bills designed to appeal to the Negro and radical voters.

That prompted Senator Dirksen, the Senate's Republican leader, to do the revolutionary thing — he urged that the Senate put all nonsense aside, including long, dreary, filibustering speeches, and get on with its important business!

If the Administration has its way, and if the budget message of last week is followed, the public debt will skyrocket upward this year to $315 billion—about a $15 billion jump. Hopes that the President (after pleading for a tax cut) would favor a reduction in non-

Notice To Parents of School Age Children

The school census for Schleicher County is now being taken. All children who are six years old on or before September 1, 1963, but will not be 18 or older on or before that date should be counted in this census. It is important that all children six to 18 be counted in this census. The child should be counted even though he may not be in school and even though he may be married.

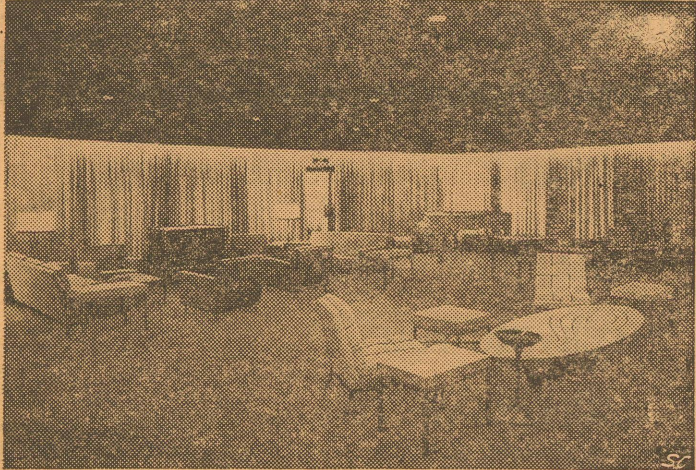

If you, as a parent, have not received and filled out a school census blank on or before January 31, you are being overlooked and should contact one of the following school principals:

The Nuclear Ship Savannah

Today's merchant ships are a far cry from the ships of yesterday. The modernity of the N. S. (for nuclear ship) Savannah—the first nuclear-powered cargo-passenger ship—is typified by this photo of a section of the vessel's main passenger lounge. The spacious, comfortable lounge is used for formal receptions for visiting dignitaries, passenger recreation and as a movie auditorium.

The Savannah's nuclear reactor has a tremendous capability. The vessel can travel 14 times around the globe without refueling. Named for the S. S. Savannah, the first vessel to cross the Atlantic using steam, the nuclear Savannah carries a 3 1/2 year nuclear fuel supply of 17,000 pounds of enriched uranium oxide. Approximately 90,000 tons of fuel oil would be needed to produce an equivalent amount of energy in a conventionally-powered vessel.

The Savannah is on a port-to-port schedule that will take the vessel to major seaports throughout the United States.

Developed jointly by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission and the Maritime Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce, the Savannah is operated by States Marine Lines as general agent for the Maritime Administration.

The N. S. Savannah is a floating good-will messenger for the United States. The ship is demonstrating to nations around the world that nuclear power can be harnessed for peaceful, productive purposes.

The vessel will be open to the public at the various ports of call.

The nuclear ship Savannah is due to arrive in the port of Galveston, Texas, on February 5, and will be open to the public on February 6 & 7.

License Plates Finished, Ready For Sale Feb. 1

Huntsville.—Due to the continuous efforts of a number of Texas Department of Corrections officials and the hard work of 220 specially-assigned inmates of the Huntsville Unit, car owners of Texas will be able to purchase their license plates on time in 1963.

License Plate Plant Superintendent, Benjamin Smith, announced recently that the last of more than eleven million individual vehicle plates were shipped to the distributing centers on January 15, 1963, one full month ahead of the deadline established by the Texas Highway Department.

Since July 1962 when the plant started producing 1963 license plates, inmates and employees have worked a day-and-night shift.

Reuben Blagrove, 17-year veteran employee of the Department of Corrections, said, "This was our busiest year. We got started late due to installing new equipment, and we had one million more plates to produce, but we got caught up and finished well ahead of time."

Blagrove gives credit to the inmates who operated the presses, cutters, ovens, and other machinery in the plant. "They are the boys who turned out the work," he said.

Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West were in San Marcos with their daughter, Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Eubank, and Scott. Both Mr. and Mrs. Eubank are in bowling league now, and she plans to accompany her team to a contest soon in Waco.

Sonora Army Reserve Unit To Be Discontinued

Sonora's United States Army Reserve Platoons One and Two of Troop "B" of the 15th Cavalry, part of General Earl Rudder's 90th Division, will cease to exist after this January 1963 or February at the latest, uncertainty due to difficulty in turning in all property including wall lockers, chairs, desks, sand tables, other training aids, and the M-40 tank which for the past several years has been parked at the rear of the Sonora Armory, appearing only on Sundays when drivers took it for training drives. The First and Second platoons as well as their sister platoons, the Third and Fourth at Junction, will be consolidated and reactivated probably at Boerne.

It will be the first time in many years that a United States Army Reserve unit has not been based at Sonora. Its loss will be keenly felt by its members many of whom will be forced to end their Reserve careers.

This ending for the Sonora and Junction units occurred in the second of sweeping reorganizations to take place with the Army Reserve, the first being in early 1958, when many small units in towns and communities were ended. Usually such deactivations took place with units which had become chronically understrength, this condition stemming from probably lack of enthusiasm for the military studies after the erosion of the men who first set up the USAR establishments. For example, 10 years ago both Sonora and Marfa United States Army Reserve units frequently had more men each in their ranks than those from such cities as Beaumont and even El Paso. Today, however, US Army Reservists from Sonora are outnumbered by men from San Angelo, Eldorado, and Ozona, all of whom have been driving many miles to attend the weekly and Sunday drill periods, this transportation at their own expense. But there was a time when the Sonora unit where many young men formed a strong, capable, and ready USAR organization.

A recent peculiarity with the Sonora organization has been that there were no commissioned officers who were members from Eldorado, Sonora, and Ozona, officer in charge being 1st Lt. Arlan L. Fenner of San Angelo. Lt. Fenner will be able to continue USAK associations in San Angelo.

But this won't be true for a number of high ranking non-commissioned officers and other highly capable personnel from Eldorado and Ozona several of whom are young men developing into highly competent instructors such as Sp-4 Antonio Gomez and M/Sgt. Cecil Hedrick, both of Ozona. Such men, several with as much as eight to 10 years military experience will have to journey to San Angelo at their own expense for further US Army Reserve participation. This is loss not only to them but to the National Defense effort as well.

The Sonora unit, like many other occupations, traditions, and customs, finds itself outmoded in the face of tremendously accelerated changes in the American scene today where the only certainty remains uncertainty.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKUCW

For a change, let's start off today with matters not so weighty, such as—

An answer to this question, "Is there any way to whip cream so that it will hold up well for an hour or so?"

Yes, there is an easy way. The secret is simple and it's this: Add 3 tablespoons unsifted powdered sugar to each half pint of whipping cream BEFORE you whip it. Add ½ teaspoon vanilla or other flavoring at this time. Chill bowl, cream, and beaters well. (Now egg whites are just the opposite, have everything at room temperature). Whip cream until it is just stiff enough to hold its shape when the beater is lifted, but still smooth and glossy looking.

Cover with saran wrap or foil and the whipped cream stands well in the refrigerator. If some is left over and you need to keep it for a day or two, refrigerate in a tightly covered jar.

Freeze any left over whipped cream. Place a layer of waxed paper on a baking sheet and drop mounds onto it. Set the whole thing, uncovered, into the freezer until the cream is frozen solid. Then quickly remove each mound with a cold spatula and drop at once into a plastic bag. Seal bag and put in freezer immediately. These little dollops keep about 4 weeks without any change of flavor, color or texture and they are wonderful for a serving on warm ginger cake, pumpkin pie, cocoa, or on fruit desserts.

The use of powdered sugar helps the cream to hold up better in the freezer, too.

We have had the cold north blasts and very likely will have some more, but it won't be too long before spring days will begin to show themselves. Already the days are getting a little longer and soon they will be long enough to get a little spring cleaning in. When the floor furnaces and stoves have been cut off, you may want to give the wooden furniture a special beauty treatment to counteract the long months of heat.

So—do this. Use a mixture of one fourth gum turpentine and three-fourths boiled linseed oil. Be sure—use only gum turpentine; not distilled. And buy only linseed oil labeled "boiled." This has a lot to do with the stickiness of the oil. Non-"boiled" will not dry properly.

Now, pour hot water in an old cup or a tin can. Set the cup of hot water on a saucer, an old plate, or aluminum foil pie pan. Shake the turpentine and oil mixture and pour enough into the cup to cover the surface of the hot water. Do not stir.

Dip a soft cloth into the oily layer of liquid and put onto furniture a small section at a time. For shellac finishes, wring cloth very dry.

If your wood is grimy, dip triple 0 steel wool in mixture and rub surface gently, following grain of the wood. Then wipe wood with another cloth wrung from hot water. Finally, wipe wood with a dry cloth.

This is a lot of trouble, you may say. Maybe a little more than a one swipe method, but it is so worth it. Use this restoring method on varnishes and wood work. Makes it look like new again and much cheaper.

You may use this treatment on varnish, lacquer, oil and shellac finishes. Take it easy on the shellac finishes, as water is hard on shellac finishes. To tell whether or not a finish is shellac, sponge a spot on the underside of the furniture with rubbing alcohol. If it is shellac it will soften and become gummy.

When the mixture cools, throw it away. Do not try to reheat it. The mixture will burn furiously, as you well remember about turpentine, since it comes straight from a pine tree. Mix up about what you can use at one cleaning session.

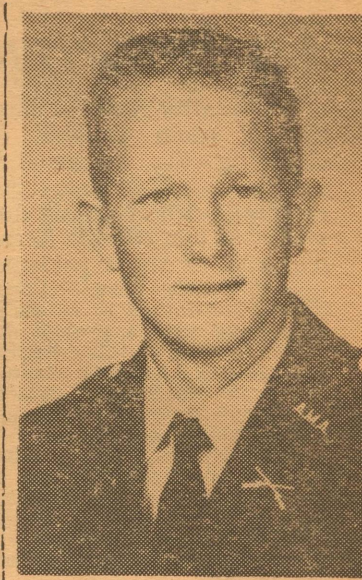

Next time there is a 4-H awards and family fun night, be sure to come. More than 80 dads, mothers, boys and girls ate chili dogs, relishes, cookies, cake, coffee and pop together last Friday night at the Memorial Building, and then stayed on to see who had done a good job of 4-H work in 1962. Peyton Cain presented awards to more than a dozen boys and girls and briefly reviewed the work of each one.

The next time you get worried about our youth, just come to one of our meetings. Mr. Godwin and I will welcome you as a leader and you will become so interested you will forget about what you were worrying about in the first place.

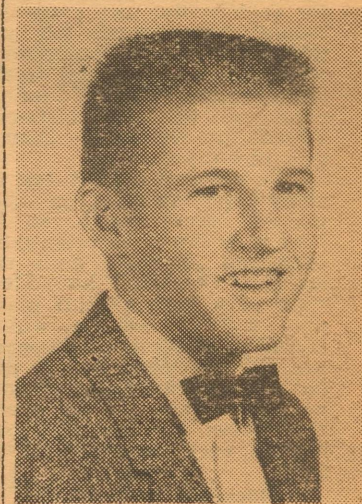

FLASH!
A letter today from A&M College says: DO NOT prune shrubs damaged by the extreme cold weather until spring. There will be time enough then to survey the damage and do the pruning properly.

March of Dimes Pioneers Plan To Improve Child Medical Care

Top-quality medical care, though often capable of changing the whole life prospects of infants and children with crippling disorders, is unavailable to the majority of these patients.

That is why The National Foundation-March of Dimes is pioneering with a project designed to remedy this situation by financing a network of more than 50 treatment centers across the nation for birth defects, arthritis and polio.

But fully twice this number of centers is needed because of the magnitude of the problem. This urgent need is one of the chief reasons for the current March of Dimes campaign here this month.

"No other health organization in the United States, or for that matter not even the federal government, has attempted any such comprehensive network of special treatment centers," Basil O'Connor, president of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, said recently.

"We invested a great deal of study and thought in this project before we began in 1960 with the three pilot units patterned after our polio respiratory centers," he added. "But even with all this planning and preparation—which included medical conferences across the country—we did not foresee the full magnitude nor the urgency of the needs that these special treatment centers very soon brought to light."

Some Headway Made

"The thoughtful and compassionate generosity of the American public has permitted the March of Dimes to make some headway in meeting the research and medical-care problems posed by 250,000 infants born each year in our country with major birth defects; and the 42,000 children and adolescents crippled by some form of arthritis or rheumatic disease."

These treatment centers for birth defects, arthritis and polio, whose costs are borne directly by about 500 March of Dimes chapters as well as national headquarters, are affiliated with more than one-half of the medical schools in the United States. They are located from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Canadian to the Mexican borders.

'Health Teams' Used

Each provides continuous and comprehensive care for inpatients or outpatients by specialist members of "health teams." In the case of birth defects, this would often mean a pediatrician, a pediatric neurosurgeon, urologist, orthopedist, physical therapist, medical social worker, psychologist or psychiatrist, and others. Similarly, all of the special medical and other skills needed for the research study and the treatment of arthritis are enlisted in the "health teams" at the arthritis centers sponsored by the March of Dimes.

These March of Dimes-financed centers are the setting sometimes for family dramas where emotions range from despair to jubilation. More than once have parents given up hope for their child only to find that early treatment has made it possible for their youngster to escape serious disability or death. It is so often a matter of prompt action and expert treatment that makes the difference.

In a review of the progress in scarcely two years of these special treatment centers, Dr. William S. Clark, director of the medical department of The National Foundation-March of Dimes, reported:

The Guiding Principle

"What we have been achieving through our centers may seem breathtaking and miraculous to some people. But the underlying principle involved here is really very simple. It has been the guiding principle of The National Foundation-March of Dimes throughout its first quarter century, the anniversary of which we observe this month. It is this:

"Do something to prove that the best care can be brought out of our great medical centers and hospitals to America's doorstep in every town and village, and the American public, seeing that it can be done, will demand that it must be done. That's the March of Dimes in a nutshell."

Dominating an entire new area at Six Flags Over Texas will be the "Sky Hook." Located in the new "Boom Town" portion of the U.S.A. Section, the 150 foot high ride will carry two "baskets" of passengers in the air where they will be able, on a clear day, to see the skylines of both Dallas and Fort Worth. The "Sky Hook" was built in Switzerland and is the only one of its kind in the United States. Six Flags' 1963 season will begin April 20.
