Miss Baker said all youngsters in Eldorado and the surrounding area served by the Eldorado Public Library, are urged to register for the event. "Reading is fun, just as the Library Week slogan points out—'Read, the fifth freedom—enjoy it!'" the librarian remarked.

Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey, director and librarian, Texas State Library at Austin, reports "the Texas Reading Club has already gained 16,000 members and last year's record enrollment of more than 20,000 will be surpassed."

The purpose of the club is to encourage and stimulate interest in reading among the younger age group.

Summer is for fun, for work and for preparation for the continuation of one's education. Miss Baker added, "Why not combine fun, work and preparation by becoming a member of the Texas Reading Club?" Young Texans have until June 1 to register.

Today, May 30, Is Memorial Day

Memorial Day, the day all Americans pause the dead of all wars, is today, May 30th.

Although most local stores and other businesses are remaining open today, many of them are flying the Flag. Legionnaires remind everyone that when the Flag is flown on Memorial Day, it should be hoisted to full mast early in the morning and then lowered to half mast until noon, then raised to full mast again for the remainder of the day.

The post office is closed today, although the mail is being put up as usual. The outgoing mail run to San Angelo will be at about 11:00 a.m. instead of 4:00 p.m. Other federal employees have today as a holiday.

On this Memorial Day, when you put up the Flag, ask yourself: Am I displaying the flag correctly?

Will my children give it the respect it is due?

Do they know what the flag represents? Do I?

Could I explain our system of government to a foreigner as well as he could explain his system to me?

Did I vote the last time I was entitled to? When did I last attend a political meeting?

Who is my Precinct Chairman? Who heads my P-TA? My school board?

Am I asking questions and taking sides often enough?

Am I making full use of the freedoms the Flag represents?

News Of The Sick

Garden Club Installs Officers for Next Year

The Eldorado Garden club has installed new officers for the 1963-64 term. They are: Mrs. J. Forrest Runge, pres.; Mrs. Leo Prater, vice-pres.; Mrs. Perry Mittel, 2nd vice pres.; and Mrs. Jene Moore, secretary-treasurer.

Geraniums, the various kinds and colors and their culture, was the subject of the program which Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves gave at the regular May meeting of the Eldorado Garden Club at the Memorial Building. Mrs. Hartgraves finds that for our conditions this is a most rewarding and easily grown plant. Our conditions are: alkaline soil that is low in organic matter, dry humidity and much sun or reflected light.

There is no dormant season for geraniums. Some people grow them for summer bloom in the yard. Some people grow them indoors for winter blooms.

Some people grow geraniums for flowers; some people grow them for the fancy-shaped leaves and some grow them for the scented leaves which are used in flavoring cakes and jellies.

To have flowers outside in the summer, geraniums like lots of sun, but will make finer, larger flowers if they have shade in the middle of the day. They will need some extra feeding, but they do not like a rich soil. To prepare stalks for winter storing, shake the dirt from the plant and store the bare-rooted stalk in an attic or dry warm place for planting the next spring.

To have flowers indoors in the winter, make cuttings in September. When the cutting is rooted, plant in a small pot and put in the sunniest window in the house. It is best to water geraniums thoroughly when they are watered, and to allow the soil to get moderately dry before watering again. They cannot stand in water. If geraniums are fertilized too much, they will produce more leaves than flowers, but when the leaves are paler than usual and the flowers are smaller, apply fertilizer in a weak dose. For flowers in December and January the plants should be established in 4-inch pots in October or even earlier. They will make more flowers when somewhat potbound, so a 4-inch pot is big enough for a cutting, Mrs. Hartgraves concluded.

The civic committee reported on three projects:

Girl Scout troop 67, whose leaders are Mrs. Gerald Hartgraves and Mrs. Dick Preston, in cooperation with the county planted a windbreak on the west side of the city-county park. The seedling trees were obtained through the Garden Club and Extension Service. Several kinds of trees are available each winter to any individual or organization who would also like to plant a windbreak.

The new shrubs around the post office were planted by Boy Scout Troop 18, whose leader is Gail Mittel, and with the cooperation and assistance of Postmaster Bernard Carr. The plants were given by the Garden club.

The Finnigan corner plot has had some new plantings and future plantings and prunings were discussed by the committee.

It was also reported that the city council is interested in assisting in group coordinated efforts on beautification of park areas, Eldorado Welcome sign landscaping with clean up help.

Plans will be completed this month for a flower show in the fall. It will probably be held during the time chrysanthemums are in flower.

A meeting of the club has been called for 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, June 5, at the Jene Moore home.

Woman's Club Holds Installation Breakfast

The Eldorado Woman's club held an installation breakfast at the home of Miss Miltia Hill Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. when the officers for the coming year were installed.

She presented the gavel to Mrs. Edwin Jackson who was re-elected as president of the club. Miss Miltia Hill will serve as first vice president, Mrs. Arch Mittel, 2nd v. p.; Mrs. W. A. Reports of officers were given after the leader, Mrs. Keno Ogden, presented the Thought for the Day.

Mrs. Ramsay in reporting for the library stated that children are urged to use the library during the summer months.

The president appointed her Calendar Committee and chairmen for the incoming year.

This was the last meeting of the club for the year 1962-63. Meetings will resume in September when the new year begins. Twenty-two members and a guest, Mrs. T. R. Spence, formerly of Bryan, were present.

Editorial Comments From Our Neighbors

Something For Nothing

The "something-for-nothing" craze rages unchecked in the thinking and motivations of millions of people in America today. It has become an insidious force which someday may be recognized in history as a motivating factor in the decline of a great nation — for it represents a complete reversal of thought from the ideals which have made America a great nation—created by hard work, thrift, and diligence.

Scan the advertising columns of the newspapers and magazines and listen to the glib words cluttering the airwaves, and be amazed at the high percentage of the messages which seek to create interest in a product or service not on its merits or what it can do for a buyer or user, but by the simple expedient of offering something for nothing.

"All you have to do is sign an entry blank at your dealer's," we hear, and "You may win the grand prize worth so many thousands of dollars." In most of the deals today the contestant does not even have to find the hidden faces in the apple tree, or supply the missing words to "Why I like ----- best." Just wander into a place of business and sign a name, and then wait for lightning to strike.

It seems harmless enough. It costs nothing but time, and if a manufacturer wants to give his money away, why complain? Especially is it unbecoming for a medium for the "give-away" advertising—such as this newspaper—to question the trend. But we do question it, and long for the day when Madison Avenue boys who dominate the trend in American thinking through advertising decide to emphasize again the qualities of the product and what it can do for the user, rather than vie with each other to see who can come up with the wierdest assortment of "free gifts" and sweepstakes awards.

We hope it will be soon, for the attitude has invaded many other fields; and even church groups, youth groups, and community improvement associations seize the easy way out to finance worthwhile projects by going for the easy buck with a raffle or some other variation of the "something-for-nothing" theme. Big government is employing the same theme naturally, with the promise that money from afar has either special virtue or no cost to the recipient. —Ft. Stockton Pioneer.

WHY give it house room if you no longer use it? Come by the Success office and place an economical FOR SALE want ad—and sell it, quickly and efficiently.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

The Birmingham race riot is believed here to be but a forerunner of other explosive incidents that may erupt during the immediate future. One observer said: "This looks like a big year for the agitators." Spearheaded by Dr. Martin Luther King, the NAACP went so far as to call thousands of school children away from their classes in Birmingham to swell the ranks of the demonstrators. King, a close friend of Bobby Kennedy, proved his ability to trigger violence by his Alabama venture.

Actually, most of the racial tension, and the occasional racial clashes, are traceable to the politicians and the professionals in the NAACP. Earlier this year the Republican leaders in Congress out-did the Democrats by proposing Civil Rights legislation beyond anything the Democrats had come up with. It was a bold attempt to capture some of the negro votes and counter Bobby Kennedy's political strategy. Following that, the White House announced the Democrats would come up with something real big in this field. In the meantime, Martin Luther King and entourage moved in on Birmingham to create a crisis, followed by 3,000 anti-riot troops being ordered to the outskirts of Birmingham by the President. That dramatic act was followed by Bobby's secret meeting in New York with a group of negro leaders. The meeting, however, was

Buy It In Eldorado!

One of a series of reports by this newspaper and the Print Advertising Association on the advantages of print media

Don't you read before you buy?

Most people do. They count on advertising in print to give them the information they want on products that interest them—information on features . . . designs . . . and prices, for example. People not only read about products and services, they show ads to their family and friends; they clip coupons for information and samples; they tear out ads to take along when they go shopping.

When you add it all up, print advertising—the kind you read in the pages of this newspaper—makes sense.

And because it measures up to the buying habits of most consumers, print makes sales.

Most people read—and then buy. Don't you?

Eldorado Success

leaked to the press.

Ordering troops to Alabama despite the fact that the President told his news conference no federal law had been violated, has given rise here to some serious concern about the Constitutionality of the move. One observer thinks the Attorney General may have blundered when he advised his brother such action was legal under the Constitution. It is reported, however, that Bobby is confident the Supreme Court will sustain his position and vindicate his advice.

Article IV of the Constitution permits the deployment of federal troops to deal with a local problem only " . . . on application of the Legislature or of the Executive—when the Legislature cannot be convened." In the Alabama case, no request was made. In fact, the troop order was protested by the Governor, who contended it was un-Constitutional and might tend to encourage rioting by assuring rioters that federal protection would be provided if needed.

It is believed the Supreme Court will approve the troop order, but there remains an undercurrent of concern because of the precedent that may be established, by having the federal government, of its own volition, intervene to deal with a local problem, where no federal law is being violated. If such unsolicited federal intervention is applied in connection with a racial incident, then the question occurs: What other local incidents might inspire a future President to invoke the all-powerful military might of the federal government? It is something to think about.

MEMORIAL DAY

This is the day all Americans pause to honor the dead of all wars. On this day since May 30, 1868, every American at home and abroad has paused to pay tribute to those courageous men and women who sacrificed all that our nation should survive the tragedy of war. During these 95 years, three years after the close of the Civil War, Memorial Day has become a patriotic observance, a pledging anew of fealty to our Flag, while we honor the memory of those who so gallantly gave their lives that the Nation, and the American way of life be preserved for us and future generations. Take time to remember them this Memorial Day.

Tex. Highway Week

Austin.—"Highway Week" in Texas was last week announced by a gubernatorial proclamation that urged Texans not to rest on their highway laurels—but to keep a wary eye on the road ahead.

Highway Week is being observed in Texas and nationally during the dates May 26 to June 1.

The proclamation urged "every citizen to view with concern the needs incurred by increasing population and traffic, to support a sustained improvement program, and to improve standards of driving safety."

Governor John Connally signed the proclamation in the presence of the Texas Highway Commission and State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer. Herbert C. Petry Jr. is chairman of the Highway Commission while Hal Woodward and J. H. Kultgen are members.

The proclamation declared that "today's Texas highway system is contributing immeasurably to the future growth potential of the economy of the state" and paid tribute to the Texas Highway Department. "The Highway Department is to be commended for its accomplishments in an effort to keep pace with the ever-increasing flood of traffic."

But a note of concern was sounded, keyed to expanding highway needs. "... the very growth of the state's economy has posed future highway needs of a serious nature," the proclamation pointed out, "since the state's population has increased by 25% since 1950. The state now has more than five million registered motor vehicles, and the miles traveled by these vehicles now total well in excess of 40 billion a year."

DEATH REPORTED

John Holcomb, brother of Dr. M. G. Holcomb of El Paso, died May 1 in Houston in the M. D. Anderson hospital and was buried May 3rd in Salisaw, Oklahoma.

VISIT IN KILLEEN

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer West were in Killeen over the week end for an instructors' meeting for the A&M Firemen's Training School at College Station in July. A barbecue supper was at the home of past president and Mrs. Vernon (Blondy) Rucker. Mrs. Rucker is president of Texas Firemen's Auxiliary.

Mrs. W. T. Whitten visited Mrs. Vester Hughes at Mertonz several days last week.

Austin.—Members of Gov. John Connally's "Committee of 25"—to study education beyond the high school—have only one thing in common: they're all Texans.

Twenty-three, however, have something else in common: they are college graduates. Ten hold master's degrees and five have doctorates. Eight have something else in common: they attended Connally's alma mater, The University of Texas.

Other than that, their backgrounds vary.

Included are lawyers, bankers, contractors, telephone company executives, oil men, engineers, a district judge, a hospital administrator and educators.

Committee is composed of: Geo. R. Brown, Martin Burns, Morgan J. Davis, and Mrs. Ray L. Dudley of Houston.

Also, James H. Dunn and Mrs. Albert B. Martin of Amarillo; John Erik Jonsson, Willis M. Tate and Gifford K. Johnson of Dallas. Austinites are Vernon McDaniell, J. M. Odom and Dr. Harry H. Ransom.

Sewing Classes To Be Offered To Adults

The homemaking department of the Eldorado High school offers for adult women of the community a series of sewing lessons during the month of June. Registration will be at 2:00 p.m., June 4, in the homemaking department with Miss Dana Owens as instructor. First day of class will not be until the following Tuesday week, June 11.

There will be no charge for the lessons but each participant must obtain small sewing equipment with which to work. Most of this is in possession of the homemaker so the largest expense will be time. As a rule, two afternoons per week are required in order to construct the garment under supervision; some work may be done at home between lessons so that learning techniques desired may be achieved during class time.

Because the sewing skills of women vary from the beginner to the advanced, the group may need to be divided according to the levels of experience. However, if the group is small one class may be sufficient. No one need hesitate to join the group because of lack of ability; anyone with desire can learn some basic sewing that can help in the care and purchasing if not the construction of family clothing.

It is true that more women and girls are sewing than ever before. But, do not forget that there are more people to sew! Look at our increase in population. Not only are more people sewing, but more people are buying ready-to-wear clothes and ready-made household items!

Recent research and surveys made by several companies in the sewing industry reveal such figures as these: 53,000,000 women are sewing at home in the U.S.A.; 1,800,000 sewing machines are bought each year; $400 million worth of piece goods are sold each year.

On the other hand, the textile industry reports that 95% of the total production of apparel fabrics goes into ready-to-wear, with only 5% used in home sewing. Further figures reveal that of the 53 million who sew at home, 46% use machines for mending 40% make new clothes 37% alter ready-to-wear clothes 35% make household items.

Of the 40% who make new clothes, a study at Texas Tech revealed that there are fewer utility clothes being made and more of the more-expensive type. Women and girls now sew because they "like to sew"—or for creative expression—not to save money.

However, one can save money when she sews. Furthermore, individual expression is more feasible when selection of materials, pattern and techniques are employed. Women and girls should be proud of their work, get satisfaction from it and be glad they spent their time in the particular project. They must be taught to sew quickly and easily, to manage their time and equipment well, and to get professional results. These are the goals for the few lessons which will be offered. Plan to attend. Phone your neighbor and bring her. Ask some whom you know have attended in the previous summers. It's worthwhile. Register and don't forget to attend each session! The course will be under the direction of Miss Dana Ray Owens.

Odessa Out

The expected bumper crop of college students in 1965 will have two more state colleges to choose from. Angelo State College in San Angelo and Pan American College in Edinburg are the state-supported system in the fall of 1965.

But Odessa Junior College still will be a junior college, despite strong efforts by Rep. George Cook of Odessa and Sen. Frank Owen III of El Paso.

State Studies Projected

When the 58th legislative session ended, lawmakers immediately began to study possible legislation for the 59th Legislature.

Interim committees of legislators will look into guidance training testing in public schools; boat-safety; reservoir planning; Texas bays; care and discovery of tuberculosis cases; poverty and indigency in the state; state and local tax policy; and a thorough survey of the oil and gas industry.

Women Win Small Victory

The army of women's clubs, led by Mrs. Hermine Tabolowsky of Dallas, lost their session-long battle to get the Legislature to approve a proposed constitutional amendment by Sen. Bill Moore of Bryan to provide "equal rights" for women.

Moore's amendment was lodged in a reluctant House Insurance committee at the session's end.

But they did gain something in the way of equal property rights under bills passed by Rep. George Cowden of Waco to:

- 1. Give married women the right to manage and sell their separate property without their husband's consent.
- 2. Take away the "examination apart" required of notaries public.

New AG Sets Record

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr reports that his Bond Division set an all-time record for bonds examined and approved during the first four months of his administration.

He stated that the record of 274 bond issues approved—$189 million worth—exceeded the first third of any calendar year since the Attorney General's office was first given these duties in 1905.

Also since January 1, Carr's office has handled a total of 1,311 cases: 986 won, 61 lost and 264 disposed of in other ways.

Cotton Deadline Extended

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White announced a 10-day extension of the cotton planting deadline in 17 coastal counties. Extension to June 1 was due to extremely dry weather in the coastal bend area.

Planting of the state's 1963 cotton crop is three-fourths complete, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Judges' Pay

Another legislative study will concern the pay needs of judges.

One of the controversial subjects during this legislative session has been the proper pay for district judges.

State pays all district judges an annual salary of $12,000. Many counties supplement this. Many more have asked their representatives to pass this session to authorize county supplements.

Lawmakers from districts where judges get only $12,000 or a slight supplement have battled every bill that called for increased pay. Some increases would run as high as $20,000 a year. Rural members

Methodist Notes

Dr. Lawrence K. Brown, superintendent of the San Angelo district, will preach this Sunday morning at the First Methodist church. The Nyquist family will be in Georgetown that day where Judy Beth will graduate from Southwestern University.

Bible School Starts Monday

The Daily Vacation Bible School will be held June 3rd through 7th. Classes will be held each morning at the educational building.

Kindergarten, preschool ages 4, 5, and 6 will have theme "Stories About Jesus" and Mrs. Elton McGinnes will be teacher.

Primary, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd grade theme will be "Jesus Went About Doing Good" and Mrs. Wiley Hight will be teacher.

Juniors, grades 4, 5, and 6, will have theme "Finding God Through Worship" and Mrs. Albert McGinnes will be teacher.

Assistants in charge of music, crafts, and recreation will include Judy Nyquist, Lynda McGinnes, Mrs. L. V. Newport, Mrs. Douglas Jung, Mary Lynn McGinnes, and the Intermediate girls.

argue that judicial salaries like that cause too much competition.

Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville noted that creation of a new Court of Civil Appeals in Corpus Christi and the opening of three justice jobs at $15,000 caused a flood of applications.

Gold In Them Hills?

People who think a hidden fortune may lie "somewhere north of the Big Bend" may get a chance to test their theory under a new law. It allows prospector permits for 640 acres, at 25 cents an acre rental, for a maximum of five years. Rep. Grainger McIlhane of Wheeler, author of the bill, noted that present law limits a hard-metals prospector to 40 acres.

Watersheds

Speed-up in planning watershed flood protection projects won approval from the Senate-House conference committee on appropriations.

It allocated $100,000 a year to the State Soil Conservation Board to be used to plan small-watershed programs.

U. S. Soil Conservation Service funds for planning are limited. So some watershed districts have raised money and hired the planning done, rather than wait for the U. S. State program will help in the same fashion.

Salt Water

State agencies are moving deeper into the field of stopping oil-field pollution of fresh water strata.

New Texas Water Pollution Control Board gives oilmen in Gaines county until December 1 to stop using open pits for salt water disposal.

Railroad Commission issued a similar order for Menard and part of Schleicher counties. Agencies have concurrent powers in this field.

Beach Speeds

Voters said last November that it would be fine with them if the Legislature gave Gulf Coast county commissioners courts authority to pass ordinances regulating speed and littering on public beaches like Padre Island.

Rep. James L. Lattimore of Corpus Christi passed such a speeding bill through the House. Ironically, he was killed in a traffic accident.

But Governor Connally felt the law was too vague, because of amendments placed in it by the House. So he vetoed it.

Rep. Charles Scoggins, Corpus Christi Republican who replaced Lattimore, tried to get the House to override the governor's veto. Although he got a majority vote of 78-62, it fell short of the two-thirds needed to override.

T.C.U. Degree For Mike Moore

Fort Worth.—Michael Henry Moore of Eldorado was a candidate to receive a B. S. in Com. degree in business administration in spring commencement exercises at Texas Christian University Wednesday evening, May 29, when approximately 640 students were graduated.

The university conferred more degrees this spring than it did during the entire first 48 years of its history. From 1873, when it was founded as "AddRan Mole and Female College" at Thorp Spring, through the school year of 1920, the university conferred 597 degrees.

Dr. Harry E. Ransom, chancellor of the University of Texas, gave the commencement address and received an honorary LL. D. degree.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

I've been trying to figure out something about vegetables. To me vegetables rank high on the list of nature's finest offerings. But not all agree. With some they rate very low.

And the thing I want to know is: are vegetables disliked because they are prepared so poorly or are they prepared poorly because they are disliked in the first place?

The answer will be hard to come by but I'm honestly convinced that we are missing a fine taste treat as well as a good nutritional bargain when we bypass vegetables.

During the month of May, Home Demonstration Club members have been given a chance to pronounce their own opinions about how good vegetables are when cooked in a specific way. Some have been candid enough to admit that for the first time they liked spinach, or carrots or many others I could name.

In the meetings we teamed up in groups and each team cooked and served its particular assignment and as yet we have had no dissenters. These are two of the ones which have been favorites. Would you like the whole five pages of recipes? Call 24281; we will be glad to mail as many copies as you want.

- Carrots With Herbs 2 bunches small carrots 2 tablespoons butter 1/4 teaspoon sugar 1/2 teaspoon M.S.G.; this may be called Accent, Zest, or other name 2 tablespoons chopped parsley 2 tablespoon chopped tarragon, can be found in most food stores 1/3 teaspoon salt 1/8 teaspoon Java Cracked pepper, or coarsely ground 2 tablespoons heavy cream 2 lettuce leaves. Wash carrots with a stiff brush and slice thinly, or julienne with the proper tool. Into frying pan put butter, M.S.C. and sugar (if carrots are not fresh-picked), add carrots, then cover with lettuce leaves dripping with water. Cover and cook over low heat 20 minutes. Take out lettuce leaves, add parsley, tarragon, cream, salt and pepper, mix well and serve in a hot dish immediately. Can use fresh mint.

- Spinach 2 1/2 pounds spinach, or one box chopped frozen spinach

- 1 tablespoon olive oil 1 clove garlic (run through press) or mashed 1 teaspoon Beau Monde Seasoning (Spice Island puts this out) 1 teaspoon M.S.G. 1/4 teaspoon sugar 1/8 teaspoon Java Cracked Pepper (Spice Islands). Put in your frying pan the olive oil, Garlic, Beau Monde, sugar, pepper and M.S.G. Wash spinach well, cut with kitchen scissors into very small pieces. Take a handful and cut across the bunch until you have no more. Put in frying pan and cover tightly and quickly bring to a boil, turn to lowest heat for five minutes. Dish out and serve. You might turn it once, but remember, intaking off lid of any vegetable you lose a lot of flavor in escaping steam. Try tossing in a tablespoon of sesame seeds just before serving, for added interest. Chives and bacon are also intriguing addition to spinach. Serves eight.

I feel that our girls have been well chosen and all are qualified to take this responsibility.

Would you like to be a 4-H leader for the summer and work with a group of six girls? Would you like to make an investment of your time, talent and energy which will pay dividends for years? Would you like to have the fun of watching these girls from nine years on up as they live out the meaning of the 4-H's? Would you like any of this? Call me at 22592; the 4-H program needs you. These girls will learn to do by doing and it takes several adults to guide 30 or 40 girls through this "doing process." You will be trained as a leader. Never will you be asked to help on something when you aren't sure what it is all about.

Call me—for two reasons. The first is if you have a girl who is nine years or older who wants to join a 4-H club, or if you want to be a leader.

Just to remind you. The four H's stand for Head, Heart, Health and Hands.

Combine: rice, carrots, 1 1/2 cups of the cheese, milk, eggs, onion and seasoning. Pour into a greased 1 1/2 quart baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (325 F.) for one hour. COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN by Tiny Godwin Schleicher County Agricultural Agent 600 acres in 1940, an increase of nearly three times the brush in 1960 as in 1940. Brush and especially mesquite costs Schleicher county ranchers 1 1/4 million dollars annually. It is going to take approximately $10 an acre, control and eradication over a period of years.

wood is the chip on the shoulder. Hunters, fishermen, land owners and others interested in fish and game affairs are urged to attend the hearing that will be conducted in Eldorado at the Memorial Building June 3, at 2:00 p.m. by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

Landowners must look at this problem realistically and promote and demand a sensible brush control financing plan. A five-year plan would look like this: 1st year, 5% of principal plus int. 2nd year 10% " 3rd year 15% " 4th year 35% " 5th year 35% "

Hunting recommendations for the coming year, formulated by technicians will be presented at this meeting. Recommendations will be based upon field studies and are designed to encourage scientific harvesting of wildlife in the county.

Such a plan gears repayment to the time when increased income would accrue. The above plan may need to be changed or modified but the basic reasoning is correct.

There are more white tail deer in this country than in the time of the Pilgrims. The deer is an "edge" animal. The building of farm to market highways or super highways does not worry Mr. Whitetail. He will continue to increase in population so long as feed and water continues to be in adequate supplies. The laws of nature will work for man and animals so long as man takes the time to study the conservation of natural resources through management.

This is a job that lending institutions will eventually have to do. A conservation financing plan for brush control. In the Southwest is a billion dollar financial need that is only a matter of time, with incomes shrinking from the hazard, until the job of conservation financing plan for brush control will have to be made possible.

If at first you don't succeed, try borrowing from another friend.

The small amount of money made possible by the ASC and Great Plains Conservation Program on a matching basis has not kept the brush control problem in check in this county. However, some counties are organizing and spraying together, making the money go as far as possible.

The landowner who wants to control mesquite and brush is "between a rock and a hard place." Regular loans don't meet the need. And unless some action is taken to solve the brush financing problem, brush is going to "choke the Southwest down." Take the brush problem in our own county. 690,000 acres infested with mesquite as compared to 240,

VERNA LUX

Barbara Metzger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Metzger of Bryan, and Verna Ann Lux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lux of Eldorado recently represented the Shannon School of Nursing as delegates to attend the National Student Nurses Association Convention, which was held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, May 10-13. Texas was represented by 35 girls who traveled by rail in a special coach. Representatives from many states joined the train along the route. The meetings were very educational and rewarding, and the girls will give a full informational report to the students at Shannon.

Miss Lux was a 1962 graduate of Eldorado High school.

Anniversary Party Held By WMU Monday

The women of the First Baptist church met Monday at 2:00 p.m. at the church to celebrate the 75th anniversary of Women's Missionary Union, and the 50th anniversary of Girls Auxiliary. WMU was organized in Richmond, Va., in May 1888.

Mrs. Wm. Rountree was leader of the program which was entitled Through the Years with women in period costume participating.

Those on the program were Mrs. Frank O'Banion, Mrs. W. N. Ramsay, Mrs. Granvil Hext, Mrs. Leonard Wilson, Mrs. Charles Warnock, Mrs. Weldon Davis, and Mrs. L. M. Hoover who gave a tribute to pioneer women of the church. The First Baptist church of Eldorado presented old records, scrap books and pictures to inform the members of how the work began in the early days of the church. An added feature was interesting talks by Mrs. Tom Johnson, Mrs. W. O. Alexander and Mrs. R. A. Evans who were members of the local society during earlier days, Mrs. Johnson being a charter member.

Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan gave the devotional. Seven G. A. girls, accompanied by Marilyn Wilson, at the piano, sang, "We've a Story To Tell to the Nations."

Jacque Davis and Jean Rountree lighted the candles on the three tiered birthday cake while the entire group sang "The Light of the World is Jesus."

The cake and green punch over lemon ice was served to the 27 members, the 8 girls, a guest Mrs. Austin of Missouri, and six women from the Latin American Mission, by the Van Dusen circle.

Miltia Hill Elected State President Of Daughters Of Republic Of Texas

During the annual convention of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas held in Austin recently, Miss Miltia Hill of Eldorado was elected state president, to serve the next two years.

Miss Hill is the descendant of Theophilus Hill who came to Texas in 1840 from Welker county, Ga. He was ceded two land grants in Panola county, this being the time that Texas was a republic, from 1836 to 1845. Another ancestor was Thomas Baines who came to Texas at the same time and their land grants joined. His daughter, Julia Ann Baines, married Marshall Hill, son of Theophilus Hill. Their son was James Theophilus Hill and his daughter, Alma A. Hill, married D. C. Hill, who were Miss Miltia's parents.

Another Eldorado woman is a daughter of the Republic of Texas. She is Mrs. V. G. Tisdale, granddaughter of John Ingram of Gillespie county, who fought in the Battle of San Jacinto.

During the Centennial year of 1936, a monument was erected by the state at his grave in Fairmount cemetery in San Angelo.

BOY SCOUTS TO LEAVE FOR WEEK OF CAMP JULY 7TH

Fred Watson plans to take the local Boy Scout troop again this summer to spend a week at Camp Sol Mayer near Fort McKavett.

The troop will leave Sunday afternoon, July 7th, for the camp and remain there until the following Saturday, Mr. Watson stated.

Mr. Watson is institutional representative for the Boy Scout troop which is sponsored by the Lions club. He has taken the Boy Scouts to camp for the past several summers.

Boys who are presently in the troop or who would like to join and attend the summer camp may get further information from Mr. Watson or from Gail Mittel, the Scoutmaster.

BIBLE SCHOOL UNDER WAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Bible School started yesterday at the Presbyterian church and will continue through June 7. Sessions are being held each morning from 9:30 to 11:00, for all ages from kindergarten through juniors.

The First Christian church is co-operating with the Presbyterians in staging this school.

FISHING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Whitten and Fenna Whitten enjoyed a fishing trip to Devil's Lake last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Also on the trip were Mrs. Hal Whitten's brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Weddle of Robert Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Jon Weddle, San Angelo; and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Fletcher, San Angelo. The party had a nice fish supper at the lake and brought back enough for another in the near future.

MEETING CALLED

There will be a called meeting of the Eldorado Garden Club. It will be at 9:30 Wednesday, June 5, 1963, at the Jene Moore residence. The telephone committee will use the means of this notice to notify the members. It is hoped that all can attend this important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ballew and Mrs. F. M. Bradley were kept busy the past week end attending commencement exercises for their children and grandchildren. They went to Bishop, Texas, early Friday morning for a visit and to attend Texas Agricultural and Industrial College commencement at Kingsville at which their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Sherwood Barker, received a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education on Saturday, May 25th. They returned to Eldorado on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Barker and little daughter, Jamie Lyn, for Ray Lewis' baccalaureate service on Sunday evening and commencement on Monday. Mr. Barker will come for Mrs. Barker on Thursday and they will go to Cuero, Texas, where he is employed for the summer. Both will teach in the Cuero schools the coming year.

Little Sherry and Bobby Joe Burton, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Burton of San Diego, Cal., are spending the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Burton. Their mother, the former Loretta Dossett, is confined to a San Diego hospital with infectious hepatitis. The children will probably spend some of the time with their other grandparents, the Joe Dossetts in Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Paff from Troy, Ohio, have been vacationing in Arizona and visited Mrs. Paff's mother, Mrs. V. G. Tisdale, here last week. She will be remembered as the former Pat Tisdale. Mrs. Tisdale's other daughter, Mrs. Duard (Lola Mae) Archer and Mr. Archer of Sonora, joined them at Mrs. Tisdale's for the week end.

Heart Association Still Needs Funds

Although Schleicher county over-subscribed its quota during the recent drive for the 15-county San Angelo Heart Association, word came recently that funds for this work are still needed.

Dwain F. Dodson, M.D., president of the association, stated last week:

"As president of your Heart Association, I feel that you would like to know that we have fallen short some four thousand dollars of our goal set by the Board of Directors of the Texas Heart Association. I am not asking for the impossible but only that you, along with your friends, help us stay together as a fifteen county unit. With a little additional support we can continue our present organization and qualify as a chapter.

"Since June 30th closes our fiscal year, the executive committee and I feel a responsibility to present these facts to you."

Anyone wishing to contribute, just mail or hand your check to Rev. Kenneth Vaughan or Mrs. Charlie Warnock, here in Eldorado.

S. of 1925 as amended, which Article 1105b is hereby adopted by said City as its authority for the construction of said improvements and assessment of the costs thereof against the abutting lots on said highway within said limits in said city, and the true owners thereof for payment of the cost of said improvements. In this connection, the City Council finds that at this time there are more than one thousand persons residing within the corporate city limits of the City of Eldorado, Texas.

Section No. Three:

It is ordered that the improvements to be constructed by the said City of Eldorado, as aforesaid, shall be paid for as follows:

All of the cost of constructing, reconstructing, repairing and re-aligning the curbs, gutters and drains abutting said portion of said Highway 277 to be improved as herein provided shall, as to each abutting lot or tract, be paid for by the true owner or true owners of such tract.

The amount payable by each of the said abutting property owners shall be assessed against his, or her, or their respective tracts or lots abutting on said portion of said highway to be improved as herein above defined, and upon the true owner or owners thereof, and shall constitute a first and prior lien on such tract or lot, from the date such assessment shall become final, and each of said lot or tract owners shall be personally liable for the payment of such assessment in the proportion of his or their interests therein. All such assessments to be paid for by said respective abutting lot owners, shall become due and payable as follows: When such improvements are completed and accepted by the City Council, the amount assessed against each lot, or group of lots owned by one person or more than one person jointly, against which such assessment shall have been made, shall be and become due and payable in 3 equal annual installments, the first such installment to become due and payable within thirty days after date of completion and acceptance of said improvements by the City Council, and the two remaining installments shall become due and payable as follows: one installment shall be due and payable one year after the date of completion and acceptance of said improvements by the City Council, and one installment shall become due and payable two years after said date of acceptance of said improvements by the City Council. It is ordered however that if default be made in the payment of any installment, or any part thereof, as the same shall become due and payable, then at the option of the owner or holder of said indebtedness, or of any certificate evidencing the same, the entire unpaid balance upon any assessment may be immediately declared due and payable, with accrued interest to the date of payment, together with reasonable attorneys fees for collection, if incurred, and the owner or holder of said indebtedness shall be authorized to proceed to collect the same, and to foreclose the lien securing the payment thereof. It is ordered however, that no assessment shall be made against any land abutting on said portion of said highway 277, to be improved hereunder in a sum greater than the benefits which shall be found by the City Council to accrue to said land by reason of such improvements. It is further ordered that the assessments against any lot or tract of land for its share of the improvements herein provided for, shall be upon the Front Foot Basis, provided for by said Art. 1105b, R. C. S. of 1925, as amended, wherever the City Council finds on final hearing that said assessment plan is not inequitable to the owner or owners of said land, and the City Council now finds that said Front Foot Rule has been followed by the Texas State Highway Department in its plans and specifications and estimates of cost of the improvements being provided for in this ordinance, subject to any adjustment by the City Council on final hearing in respect to any particular tract affected. In this connection, it is ordered that one assessment shall be made against each abutting tract, which may include one or more lots or group of lots adjoining each other and owned by one person, firm or corporation, or jointly owned by two or more persons, firms or corporations, and against the owner or owners thereof according to their interests therein; and if the name or names of the true owner or owners of any such lot or tract be unknown, or if any assessment be made thereon under the wrong name or names of the true owners thereof, such assessments together with the lien securing the payment of such assessment, shall, nevertheless, be valid and binding against such tract, and against the true owner or true owners of such tract, and such owner or owners shall be personally liable for such assessment to the same extent as if they were correctly named as the owner or owners thereof.

mate of costs, and proper assessment against such tract and the true owners thereof to pay the cost of construction thereof as set out in said estimate of cost and contract shall be made after the hearing herein provided for shall have been closed; and assignable certificates may be issued by said City against each such tract and the true owners thereof for the amount of the cost of construction of such improvements thereon; and the terms and conditions there of shall be fixed by order of the Council of said city consistent with the provisions of this ordinance and the provisions of said Article 1105b R. C. S. of Texas, as amended.

Miss Jerry Blaylock was selected to be a charter member of the Alpha Delta chapter of Sigma Theta Tau, the national honorary society for nursing. Charter members were initiated at the University of Texas School of Nursing in Galveston, Texas, on May 25th. This is the first such chapter to be established in Texas. Sigma Theta Tau, the only national honorary for nursing, is comparable in its purposes and functions to such societies as Alpha Omega Alpha in medicine or Tau Beta Pi in engineering. It is important in its purposes and functions both to professional nursing and to society as a whole. There is emphasis upon upholding high professional standards and upon encouraging the creative approach to nursing and nursing research. In addition, significance is placed upon the responsibility of nurses to society, both as a group and as individuals. Members must have completed at least half of a program leading to a baccalaureate or higher degree in nursing. Members are considered according to their demonstrated scholastic ability and according to their demonstrated or potential contribution to nursing other than academic achievement. The manner with which the person has accepted her professional and general citizenship responsibilities is also very important.

On The Screen . . .

Desperate People Seek Freedom

Showing at the Eagle Drive-In Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday nights will be "Escape From East Berlin" and it forms a telling document of oppressed people seeking freedom from oppression.

The Berlin Wall is an ugly thing of concrete, mortar, steel and wicked barbed wire. It meanders its ominous way across the face of Berlin, dividing the city into West and East, serving as the barrier which keeps the unhappy and oppressed people of East Berlin in their prison state of communism.

The wall began going up in August, 1961, and probably all the world knows about it. However, knowing about the wall and seeing pictures of the wall in newspapers and magazines do not convey its true significance in its effect on the people of Berlin. It really must be seen on the spot to be fully understood.

The wall is not an insurmountable barrier, despite its varying 6- and 8-foot height, even topped with barbed wire, but under the guns of the Communist peoples police with their trigger-happy fingers it has become truly a matter of life or death for those who seek safety on the other side by going over, through or under the wall.

Yet, East Berliners do get their fill of Communist tyranny and they are willing to risk death to escape the Red yoke. Sometimes, they come alone, sometimes as a group whose escape has been carefully planned. Last January such a group of 28 fled through a tunnel under the wall, an event which immediately captured the interest of the free world.

It is this escape, at that time the largest group to flee the East, which producer Walter Wood has turned into a disturbingly true life film with Erwin Becker, the East German who actually led that escape, as technical advisor. For name stars, Wood signed Don Murray at Kurt Schroeder in the role of the escape leader and Christine Kaufmann as Erika Juergens. Murray is the only American born member of the cast; all the others, including Miss Kaufmann, are German. The picture was filmed entirely in West Berlin with Robert Siodmak as director. The screenplay was written by Gabrielle Upton, Peter Bernais and Millard Lampell.

As suspense drama, "Escape From East Berlin" deserves considerable credit. The stark reality of life under communism has never been better portrayed. From the very first the viewer becomes well aware of the fear which has become a part of daily existence for these people behind the wall.

There are times when editing reveals jerky progression of the film's development, but these moments can be forgiven as the action mirrors the faces of desperate men and women digging their small tunnel toward the west. The cast performs competently under Siodmak's direction, with Murray and Miss Kaufmann earnest and attractive in their leading roles. The English-speaking German members of the cast fit into their characters easily. There is skillful assistance in creating the drama of suspense from cameraman Georg Krause.

Perhaps the most telling angle is the fact that the people of this film who seek refuge in the west are just ordinary folk, family people, not heroes nor extraordinary patriots, but people somewhat like those who will be viewing the film.

"Escape from East Berlin" would be a good film for all to see, especially those who have vague ideas that it is "better to be Red than dead." One leaves the darkened theater after seeing the picture with an overwhelming sense of relief that we live in a land where we can cross any street, live anywhere, work anywhere we want to. Only those who have lost freedom know the price they are willing to pay to regain it.

A few weeks ago we asked readers of this column what they knew about Charles D. W. McNeill whom we believed to have been the youngest soldier of the Confederacy. McNeill was the great grandfather of Mrs. Truett Williams of Salado.

E. Rayburn Gooch of Farmersville read our story in the Farmersville Times and sent information from a little book entitled "Reminiscences of the Boys in Gray, 1861-1865" by Mamie Yeary. According to this information, McNeill was living in Port Lavaca, Texas, at the time the book was published. He was born May 5, 1848 and enlisted in the Confederate Army Oct. 26, 1861 which would have made him just past 13 years of age when he joined up.

He enlisted at Savannah, Georgia, as a sergeant in Co. H, Fourth Georgia Infantry, R. C. Tyler's Brigade, Army of Tennessee.

Milton F. Hill of 417 N.W. 5th St., in Mineral Wells, wrote to say that he knew Dr. McNeill personally when he was a small boy living in Victoria. Dr. McNeill was then practicing dentistry and was a great friend of Mr. Hill's grandfather, Major George W. L. Fly, a Confederate veteran of the siege of Vicksburg and then practicing law in Victoria.

Mr. Hill says that Dr. McNeill wrote a book about his experiences in the war and was very proud of having been the youngest Confederate soldier.

We haven't been able to learn the name of the book, but would like to find a copy of both this one and another we believe to have been written by a friend of Dr. McNeill's and called "Ginger Charlie." Anyone having a copy is invited to write to this columnist.

Recommended reading for this week: Almost overlooked amid all the activities of commemorating the 100th anniversary of the Civil War was the centennial of the Emancipation Proclamation last year.

Called by many Abraham Lincoln's greatest document, the Proclamation is treated with reverence and insight in "The Emancipation Proclamation" which John Hope Franklin wrote for Doubleday and Company. Dr. Franklin, a Negro, traces the evolution of the document in Lincoln's thinking and describes with minute detail how it came to be written and evaluates it for its significance in today's world.

Surely some of President Lincoln's early training and the influence of his contact with his constituents were put to work in his great mind as he conceived the Proclamation which freed the Negro. A look at some of his experiences prior to his election as President are seen in "Prelude to Greatness, Lincoln in the 1850's," written by Don E. Fehrenbacher and published by Stanford University Press and "Lincoln as a Lawyer," by John P. Frank, published by the University of Illinois Press.

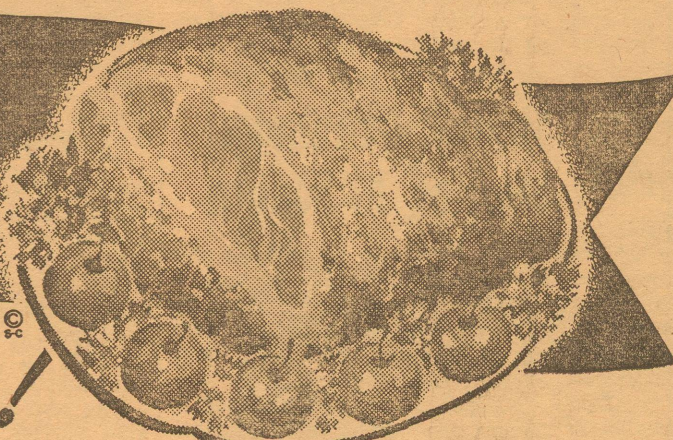

These two volumes place Lincoln's "growing up" period in a perspective that helps readers see how he emerged as one of the greatest Americans of all time.

For further study in politics of the pre-Civil War and Civil War period, we suggest a second volume from the University of Illinois Press. Entitled "Politics and the Crisis of 1860" and edited by Norman A. Graebner, this is a collection of five essays presented at the Fourth Annual Civil War Conference at Gettysburg College commemorating the centennial of Lincoln's first election to the presidency. The essays are concerned chiefly with slavery's impact on politics.

And finally, for light entertaining reading we suggest Otto Eischen's "Historian Without an Armchair," published by Bobbs-Merrill Company. Known affectionately among his Civil War buff friends as "O. E.", Eischen tells of his experiences tracking down and writing his many books and articles on the Civil War. Excellent reading that can be put down and taken up again any time, but we think readers will go thru it in one sitting.
