New Deer Storage Facilities Provided For Use of Hunters

HEXT FOODS is co-operating with the Schleicher county hunting program by providing this new deer cold storage unit. It is designed principally for convenience of visiting hunters and will accommodate from 40 to 60 carcasses at a time. A few Colorado deer are already stored in it.

Office Set Up For Deer Hunting Season

Local CofC to Act As Clearing House for Hunters & Ranchers

At a called meeting of the board of directors early this week, Jack Hext was appointed as new president of the Chamber of Commerce to serve the remainder of this year. The period coincides with the deer hunting season, Nov. 16 through Dec. 31.

Mr. Hext stated that an all-out effort would be put forth immediately to develop a program to utilize the wildlife of Schleicher county to its fullest potential during the current year.

Directors authorized the new secretary for the remainder of this year and to establish an office to serve as a clearing house for visiting hunters and local ranchers.

Office space in the Eldo Hotel building has been rented for the purpose and workmen early this week were installing telephone and other necessary utilities. Mrs. Oran Enochs has been selected as secretary and has already entered upon her duties. The secretary's phone number will be 23061.

Land owners are being contacted for complete listings and hunters' accommodations. This information will be kept current and available for sportsmen over the state.

1500 Doe Permits

Game Warden Bill Works reports that he has issued 1500 doe permits to ranchers in this county. Most of these were issued in a two-day period last week. Works also stated that at least 25 Schleicher county ranchers will have shooting preserves.

Ranchers who are still in the market for doe permits are instructed to contact Mr. Works. Fifty hunting licenses were also issued last week.

Meeting Last Week

A public meeting called by Game Warden Works last Thursday night was attended by 45 interested ranchmen, sportsmen and others. The group met to go all out in the promotion of wildlife through the Chamber of Commerce endorsing the plan to advertise and promote its possibilities to the maximum.

At the meeting it was revealed that revenue from wildlife in 1962 amounted to $37,000, increasing to $144,650 in 1963. In 1964 a goal of $500,000 is possible and through the co-operation of all it is hoped the maximum of $950,000 will be reached eventually.

2300 Bales Here

At the close of business last Tuesday night Mikeska Gin had processed a total of 2283 bales. The crop has been coming in at a rate of 20 to 25 bales a day, and the total was expected to pass 2300 by last night.

Mikeska reports very little dry-land cotton left. What's coming to the gin now is mostly irrigated cotton.

Possible 3-Way Tie Hinges On Eagles Success Tomorrow Nite

Years ago a sportswriter reported on an imaginary critique held each Monday morning by the "Old Professor of Football," these critiques being held for coaches of teams suffering upsets, winning hard games, or facing crucial contests. Were the "Old Professor" still around, he might advise the Eldorado Eagles and their fans something like this: "Write the following sentence 500 times each day between now and Saturday: 'Now is the time for all good Eagles and their fans to come to the aid of the Eagles against the Reagan County Owls tomorrow night.' It doesn't hurt to add that whether the 'Old Professor' is still around or not, the advice is extra-ordinarily timely and appropriate.

There are some other thoughts the "Old Professor" might pass along such as that Eldorado with a covey of the finest backs in District 8A still has to depend on its line blocking to enable speed merchants Meador, Williams Whitten, Henderson, Griffin, and Montgomery to get out in the open where they can engineer the enemy ruin. Even talented and mighty "M" McAngus who outranks any other fullback in 8A has to have some help through that first desperate line of defense. The "Old Professor" might conclude that defeat stings all members of a squad just as much as it does any individual and that now is the time to prepare for a full 48 minutes of determined and aggressive Owl blocking; otherwise the Eagles will be like little boys with their noses pressed against the candy showcase starring futilely and longingly at the goodies inside.

Eagle Coach Barnett when queried about the contest said that the Owls employed a somewhat unorthodox system of football described as variations of so-called I formation and T formation and that they changed sides with their line frequently to take advantage of the larger boys who composed the strong side.

Coach Barnett concluded that the Eagles intended to give the game 100% of competitive effort and that similar support on part of fans could materially help in the effort against the Owls.

The Owl starting lineup will probably include the following:

No.	Name	Pos.	Wt.
20	Bill Barnes	LE	150
63	John Massy	LT	150
62	David Atwood	LG	150
52	Bren Holland	C	200
64	Don Childs	RG	190
84	Andy Bowen	RT	170
31	Johnny Howard	RE	190
40	Monte Nevills	LHB	140
42	Tommy Love	RHB	160
22	or Charles Millwee		155
32	Wayne Luxton	FB	205
12	Steve Coats	QB	160

Eagle starters will probably be as follows: Kickoff team: Scott McGregor, Ronald Griffin, Captain Lynn Meador, Captain Marvin McAngus, Sam Henderson, George Draper, Jim Belk, Mike McCravery, and Captain Larry Blair.

Offensive team starters will probably include Richard Preston and Captain Blair at ends, Jack Mackey and Rex McCormick or Mike McCravery at tackles, Jim Belk and George Draper at guards, Bobby Halbert at center, Captain Lynn Meador and Ronnie Williams at halfbacks, Captain "M" McAngus at Fullback and QB Tipton Finley as Field CO with Apprentice QB Scott McGregor standing by at the alert.

Defensive shifts probably will include Beep Cain whose right hand has troubled him at a guard and Scott McGregor at a safety slot.

There are some obvious conclusions: The Owls stand in the way for the Eagles and they are worthy opponents. They derailed the Eagles last year in the final game of the season and will again unless Eldorado rises up to "Football Heights" tomorrow night.

Post Script

The Rankin Red Devils who went all-out four weeks ago to humble the Eagles, will be out in force at Big Lake tomorrow night—and now they will be pulling for Eldorado.

Why? Because if Eldorado should defeat the Big Lake Owls it will put Rankin, Eldorado and Big Lake in a 3-way tie, and the championship will be decided by flipping a coin.

It happened several years ago. Eldorado beat Sonora, and in the final game Ozona beat Eldorado. It was a 3-way tie and Sonora won the toss.

Rankin is scheduled to play Iran tomorrow, but they have rescheduled that game for today in order to be with us at Big Lake. No doubt the Eagles will be glad to have their moral support.

Let's go, Eagles, you can do it!

A bonfire pep meeting is scheduled for tonight at 7:00 o'clock at the football field. All routine tootin' Eagle fans are invited to be there.

Mrs. Louise Boyd is now in charge of the Java Junction cafe on the Sonora highway. She took over the establishment during the week end.

Mrs. Boyd announces that the public is invited to come by the Java Junction Saturday morning between 8:00 and 10:30 in the morning for free coffee and doughnuts.

The dedication program that was scheduled for this Saturday in connection with unveiling of the monument on the Angelo highway near the jail, and placing of the two medallions on the historic structures, has been postponed indefinitely, Judge W. R. Bearce stated this week for the Schleicher County Historical Committee.

Tony Stasswinder, of the Stasswinder Monument Works in Austin, stated in a letter to Judge Bearce that their firm had been delayed in placing the monument here. The two medallions are to be placed on the Schleicher county jail here in Eldorado and the Col. Black ranch house near the Menard county line.

Schleicher Voters Join Rest Of Texas In Voting To Retain The Poll Tax

Schleicher county voters turned out lightly as expected Saturday in the Amendment election, and went along with the rest of the state of Texas in rejecting the proposed amendment that would have done away with the poll tax as a prerequisite for voting.

Schleicher voters turned the poll tax repealer down by a vote of 158 to 71, and the amendment also failed to pass on the state level.

Our citizens voted as follows on Amendment 1 (poll tax repeal):

	For	Ag.
1. Mem. Bldg.	45	92
2A. Wool House	1	18
2B. Frieske Res.	9	5
3. Co. Barn	8	7
4A. Mittel Res.	2	21
4B. Reynolds	5	8
Absentee	1	7
Totals	71	158

In regard to the three other proposed amendments, the local total vote was as follows:

2. Welfare Payments increase: Approval 130, Against 92.
3. Jefferson County Pensions: Approval 60, Against 144.
4. Veterans Land Fund: Approval 131, Against 90.

Rejection by Texas voters of the poll tax was reported to have "stunned" state officials headed by Governor Connally who were on the record as favoring the amendment. Also the daily press, overall, was in favor of voters approving the proposal.

On the national level, there is an amendment going around among the states to outlaw the poll tax as a pre-requisite for voting for federal officials in national elections, and if the other two required states approve it as expected before November of 1964, this will bring up the question of how to vote in the state of Texas since the poll tax will be still officially required here in order to vote.

The local sheriff's office has started sale of poll taxes and deadline for this will be Jan. 31st, as usual. You will still need the poll tax receipt in order to vote throughout 1964 in Democratic or Republican primaries, school trustee, and city alderman elections, in addition to any special elections that might be called.

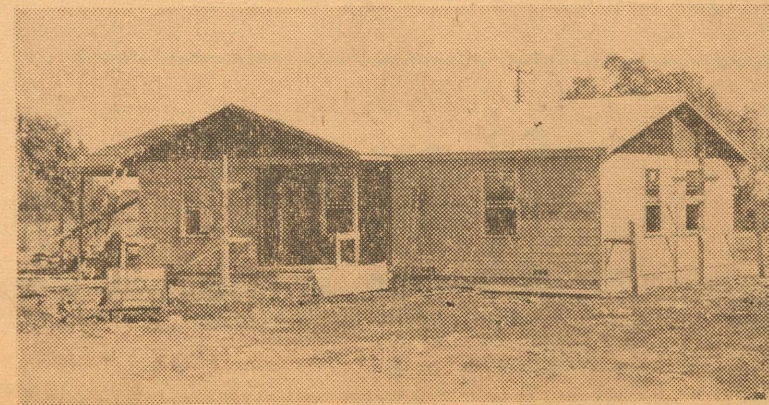

Persons who wish to vote in the national election in November of 1964 and who have not paid their poll tax, will vote using a "bob-tailed ballot" with just the federal races on it (President, Vice-President, Senator, Congressman). All races from state governor down will be marked out. Such voters, too, will have to be otherwise qualified to vote, having lived in the state a year, in the county six months, be at least 21 years of age and be a citizen. These are the same requirements of voters who pay the poll tax each year by Jan. 31st and thus qualify themselves to vote.

Here in Texas, payment of the poll tax each year is equivalent to the "voter registration" of other states.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column
By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

Last Spring members of Home Demonstration clubs attended meetings where electric blankets were washed as a part of a laundry demonstration. Some questions were raised as to how such a proceeding would turn out and so far, I say—excellent.

All blankets are working fine and if it ever gets cold enough they can be used the same as always, only cleaner.

Women of Schleicher county, we have an invitation.

On November 19 two well known home economists will give demonstrations on "Home Short Cuts for Today's Homemakers." Mrs. Elsie Short with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service will discuss "What Price Short Cuts?" and "How To Cut Corners in Home Care."

Mrs. Allena Pace, Home Economics Department head of San Angelo College, will demonstrate and discuss "How To Make Light of Three Meals a Day."

Two sessions will be held. The first, Tuesday morning, Nov. 19, from 9:30 to 11:00, and the second Tuesday evening, Nov. 19, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Admission is free. The meetings will be held in the San Angelo College Student Center and everyone is invited.

Make up your own party and go. If you would like to go but have no way, call me—22592. Home Demonstration agent's office, and maybe we can get some drivers and passengers together.

Plan to go in the morning, have lunch and finish the afternoon shopping. Or, go in a little early, have supper and go to the night session. Regardless of how you do it — GO! * * *

The young home maker's club is going to have a candy making demonstration in the Corral of the Memorial Building this afternoon, Nov. 14th, and you are invited. So make your plans and come on down by 2:30 and we will be all lined up.

Have a little trouble with your divinity? That's the main kind we're going to make. Plus brittles, plus many other kinds.

Come on, you don't have to be a club member and you don't have to be young to be welcome. Everybody is. Besides learning something, maybe you will get tastes of everything. * *

I liked this one about happiness: "Success is getting what you want; happiness is wanting what you get." And: "Much happiness is overlooked because it doesn't cost anything." * * *

Boss—What do you want? I fired you two weeks ago.

Office Boy—Oh, I just came back to see if you're still in business. * *

Miss Fannie Brown Eaton, clothing specialist from A&M University, was in the county on Nov. 11 and 12 working with Mrs. Vida Kreklow, H. D. agent and members of the county program committee on Home Economics.

The Kimble-Menard County singing convention will meet Sunday, Nov. 17, at Hext Baptist church at 2:00 p.m., announces the secretary, Mrs. Allen Davis.

Ozona Loses In Hard-Fought Game

The Ozona Lions put up a surprisingly strong 48-minute of competition against the favored Eldorado Eagles; but the Eagles although held scoreless in the first and third quarters, managed to score two touchdowns in the second and one in the fourth to defeat the Lions 20-0 in the last home game of the 1963 season.

The Lions tabbed more first downs than the Eagles but just did not have the breakaway talent to match the Eagles yard for yard as the following statistics show:

	Eldo.	Oz.
First downs	6	9
Yds. gained rushing	275	173
Yds. gained passing	16	44
Total yds. gained	291	217
Passes comp.	2of4	3of5
Passes intercepted by	1	0
Fumbles lost by	3	1
Pen. & yds. lost	1for5	4for30
Punts & Av. dist.	5for38	7for20

The underdog Lions fought their favored opponents to a standstill during the entire first quarter but halfway in the second quarter, Halfback Ronnie Williams broke away over his left side on a reverse side and sped 50 yards for the Eagles' first score.

Three minutes later, Captain Lynn Meador broke away to his right for 45 yards for the second Eagle touchdown.

The Lions suffered heartbreak in the first quarter when their 150 pound halfback Richard Vargas returned an Eagle punt 65 yards to cross the Eagle goal line; but an overzealous Lion team mate had clipped a defending Eagle back where Vargas caught the punt; so the Lions score was erased and they suffered a 15-yard penalty instead.

Again the Lions fought the Eagles to a standstill in the third period, denying them any opportunity to score.

But in the fourth quarter, Captain Meador broke away to his right and squirted 60 yards for the Eagles third touchdown.

Features of the game included a pass completion on part of Captain Larry Blair which is remarkable in that QB Tipton Finley was badly crowded and barely had opportunity to launch his missile. Captain Blair by virtues of a terrific effort captured the ball in the air against a defender and secured another first down for the Eagles.

Then Captain "M" M. McAngus and his scholarly right toe kicked the first two points after touchdown and would have kicked the third extra point but a furious charge by Ozona defensive linemen never gave him and ground crewman QB Tip Finley opportunity even to kick the ball. McAngus also personally accounted for many bruising yards of Eagle gains early in the game.

An examination of the yardage gained reveals that of the Eagle total of 291 yards, HB Williams and Captain Meador racked up 155 yards and Captain Blair's spectacular completion added 16 for a total of 171 yards. The Lions held the Eagles to 120 yards other than these four gains.

The Ozona line demonstrated great determination and obviously were firmly opposed to Eagle travel anywhere. But the Eagles had too much talent for the Lions and that was that.

The win kept Eagle hopes alive giving them a 3 win-one loss district record and sends them into the final contest tomorrow night as the underdogs in their effort to defeat Big Lake and capture one third of the District championship.

Christoval Wins District Title

The Christoval Cougars captured the District 3-B championship Friday night with a 47-9 victory over the Flower Grove Dragons. The Cougars who are 3-0 for district play, had a 1-5 record before going into district and surprised more than one sportswriter by capturing the title.

Outstanding for the Cougars were Phillip Montalvo, scoring 24 points and Bobby Menchaca who scored 16. Tommy Ayers scored 6 points and Joe Ben Garcia scored 1 point. Outstanding defensive players for the Cougars were Norman Jenkins and Rudy Menchaca, both Seniors who have been out with injuries for most of the season. Every boy on the squad saw action.

Bobby Deatherage scored seven points for the Dragons and their other two points came from a safety.

The Cougars will play the winner of Dist. 4-E, which has not yet been decided. This was the first time Christoval had won a district championship in 12 years. —Bob Helmers, coach.

Accompanied by Mrs. Carothers and Deputy Gov. Percy Pace of San Angelo, Mr. Carothers spoke to local Lions on the need for putting Lionism more before the public and for members to visit each other's clubs more in order to get new ideas for projects.

The purpose of his visit was to advise and assist the officers, directors and members on matters pertaining to Lions administration and Lions' great program of humanitarian service.

Eldorado Man Attacked By Herd Of Javelinas

Wm. A. Blaylock was attacked by a herd of 15 or 20 javelinas on his ranch about 20 miles west of Eldorado last Saturday about dusk. He had gone to the ranch with his dog. The dog ran ahead of him and stirred up the hogs. They attacked the dog which ran back toward Mr. Blaylock. The hogs then turned on him. There was nothing to climb but a cedar bush. From the bush he fired the two shells in his gun which didn't even faze the hogs. He took the barrel in his hands and fought at them with the stock until they finally gave up and left him. He suffered a cut about two inches long on the leg where one got too close to him. Other than that, he escaped uninjured.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

In the past, many successful deer hunters have learned the hard way that the quality of venison is primarily dependent on how the deer is handled from the time of the kill until it is placed in the freezer.

Realizing the problem, here are a few simple answers to the formidable question, "I've killed a deer; what do I do now?"

1. After you have shot the deer, approach it carefully, making sure it is dead. Tag the deer immediately. Begin field-dressing the deer at once with a sharp, strong knife.

2. Prop the deer on its back using two rocks or logs beside each shoulder. Remove the sex organs with the knife. Begin between the hind legs, cutting down to the pelvic bones; then turn your knife blade up, using the other hand to hold the skin and meat away from the entrails. Cut up through the breastbone and continue up the neck as far as possible. Cut the windpipe and esophagus as far forward as possible. Lay your knife down. Grasp the windpipe and esophagus and pull downward. The insides will come free to the mid-section.

3. Now remove the stones from under the deer, roll the carcass on its side. Cut all the way to the backbone the thin layer of muscle (diaphragm) that holds the entrails to the ribs. Turn the deer over and do the same on the other side. Cut around the vent so the entire visceral mass can be removed without severing any part.

4. Lay your knife down and using both hands, grip the entrails; pull down. All the entrails will come out of the deer.

5. Place your knife against the middle of the pelvis to locate the seam where bones grow together, and press down. This separates the pelvic bones.

6. Finish by removing the remaining viscera in the cavity.

7. If a tree is handy, hang the deer for about 20 minutes, head first. If no tree is handy turn the deer upside down on a clean place and let drain.

8. Skin the animal within two hours.

9. Take the deer to camp and allow to hang by hind legs 3-4 hours. Cut it as you wish.

10. If you do not desire to skin and process the deer yourself, take it to a commercial processing plant. If for storage only—always skin the deer within two hours for storage only. Always keep deer in shade. Always for cooling hang by hind legs. If hung by antlers or neck, blood still in veins will collect in hams.

Happy hunting!

A friend is a person who leads interference for you in the pursuit of happiness.

Brucellosis testing has been completed in the county with 20% of the cattle in the county tested, 17 suspect herds being tested and 12 reactor herds tested. November 14 is the last day to complete testing. It was through your willingness and a thorough understanding of what it means to the cattlemen to be able to move brucellosis free cattle to market that the job was accomplished one month early.

Any day the modified certified certificate should be received for the county from the state animal health department.

The state animal health department is engaged in hiring men to more effectively check on all animals that are slaughtered at processing plants, to give you the privilege, Mr. Cattleman, using the back tag method of re-certifying your cattle and the county automatically every three years.

Back-tags and glue is available at the county agent's office.

Fall favorable weather is with us for the build-up of screwworms. Without producers full co-operation the gains made so far can be threatened. Inspect. Spray. Treat. Report.

Number of screwworm cases for 1963 in the county up to date—11. Savings in labor, death losses, etc., $125,000. This does not include peace of mind and labor released for more constructive operations.

The only thing in the deer's favor at this season is that they don't wear red caps.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murr spent the week end visiting at Fort McKavett with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murr. High point of the visit was when John and his brother-in-law, Ray McGuffin, went fishing and caught a 31-pound yellow cat.

A. M. Whitis is in Knox City where he is attending the 25th anniversary celebration of the Lions club. Mr. Whitis was charter president of the club and will re-present the club's charter.

On The Screen . . .

Not So Nutty Is Prof. Jerry Lewis

Jerry Lewis stars in "The Nutty Professor" which comes to the Eagle Drive-In Theater screen Sunday and Monday nights. This new Jerry Lewis creation is one of his better ones. He shows up as author, director and portrayer of two roles in this Technicolor motion picture.

The witless college professor addresses his chemistry class in a high, cracking treble, stumbles over his rostrum. He is not too old, though, to resent manhandling by a football ringer and to respond to the stirring voice and figure of Stella Stephens as a sweet and canny coed.

The Freudian hurts send him to his books, often hauled by the hundreds in his ludicrous jeep, and to secret experiments with his test tubes. In his background are a termagant mother and a Milquetoast father to blame Freud for everything.

"Professor Kelp's" objective is a Jekyll and Hyde transformation potion. Like a highball, its effect is temporary. While it works, he is the stunningly sharp Adonis of beatnikery. As Buddy Love, Mr. Lewis is unprecedentedly handsome. If he drew on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," he also had a rendezvous with Cinderella, if not at midnight by 2 a.m. The moment his voice climbs to tenor-buffo patter range, he had better vanish.

Several appearances at The Purple Pit, an off-limits but plush students' hangout, establish him as the university's best-known character and an inescapable disturbance to Stella, Prof. Kelp's star student. At a prom, the Buddy Love apparition changes before the student body's eyes. This affair is danced to the bounciest music of Les Brown. Up goes the voice, down comes the hair and out come the protruding teeth. It is then that Lewis tries direct pathos. He roars, blinking away his tears, that he meant no harm, and then with no relevance, if a person doesn't think himself wonderful, who else will.

Lewis seldom is severe on Lewis in the cutting room. You can expect a kind of "milking" or protraction of gags and repetitiousness. On the other hand, Lewis has a feeling for symmetry.

While there is too much moronic umbling among the spilled chemicals, vivid in the picture's excellent color, there are also excursions into higher comedy, representing the authorship at its most respectable. The witty exchanges between Lewis and Miss Stephens have an edge. Wonderful in their way are the meetings of Lewis and the college president, this part played with smooth indignity by Del Moore. The culmination is when Lewis, in his boy-wonder aspect, flatters the prey to wear cap, gown and breakaway trousers and recite "To Be or Not to Be."

Something special is Miss Stephens as the heroine. She looks as vacantly innocent as Marilyn Monroe, has the seductive throaty voice of an Ingrid Bergman and is as tempting as any sex package shown on the screen recently.

The color is keyed to gaiety, and the events of the photography looks like what Paramount once called "Vistavision." Locales and sets are the best.

A double ring ceremony united Eddie Jo Harvey and Charles West on Friday, Nov. 1, in the Chapel on the Hill in San Angelo. The Rev. Collins Moore, Baptist minister, officiated at the candle light ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a mimosa colored wool and mohair suit trimmed in silver fox fur. Her accessories were gray and her pill box hat was gold brocade. The bridal bouquet was a single orchid. Her only jewelry was a tear drop diamond necklace given to the bride by the groom.

The bride is a graduate of Central High School in San Angelo and also a graduate of San Angelo Business College.

Mr. West is a 1961 graduate of the Schleicher County High school. He attended Schreiner Institute where he was a cadet in Co. A and a member of the rifle team. He is now a student in San Angelo College majoring in Business law. The past three summers he has been an employee of the Sinclair Oil and Gas Co.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harvey who reside in San Angelo but who have ranching interests in Schleicher county. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie West of Eldorado. The grandparents of both the bride and groom are pioneer ranch families. Mrs. Joe Tisdale and the late Mr. Tisdale are grandparents of the bride and Mr. Ben Meckel and the late Mrs. Meckel of Sonora are grandparents of the groom. The late Mr. and Mrs. C. C. West, some of the first settlers in Schleicher county, were the paternal grandparents of the groom.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in San Angelo.

Out of town relatives and guests were Mrs. Robert Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tisdale, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie West and Floyd, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol White and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cathey all of Eldorado. Mr. and Mrs. John Francis of Junction and Ben Meckel of Sonora and San Angelo.

The bride and groom are at home at 1008 So. David since returning from their wedding trip to Kerrville and San Antonio.

NEW CHEVELLE!

BY CHEVROLET

The kind of handling ease you'd expect in a smaller car. Come on down and drive it.

The kind of comfort you'd expect in a large interior. Come on down and sit in it.

Only a car that looks as good as this could come between Chevrolet and Chevy II. Come on down and stare at it.

New Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Now—Chevy spirit in a new kind of car!

We built this one to do more than just stand around looking beautiful. Held its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. Then built four lusty engines—two sixes and two V8's—with output all the way up to 220 horses*! And if that makes you think this is one frisky car, you've got the right idea.

You've also got a roomy car here. Yet its 115-inch wheelbase keeps it highly maneuverable in traffic and very easy to park.

With its Full Coil suspension, it's got a ride that reminds you of the Jet-smooth kind the way it muffles noise and cushions bumps.

And the fine hand of Body by Fisher craftsmen shows up beneath this one's suave good looks, too.

Sound good? There's more. Like the fact that Chevelle comes in three series with eleven models—convertibles, sport coupes, sedans, wagons, even Super Sport models with front bucket seats. Like the fact that (and see if this isn't one of the nicest surprises of all) the new Chevelle comes at an easy-to-take price!

Like to hear more? The listening's wonderful at your Chevrolet dealer's—and so's the driving.

*Optional at extra cost.
