Rites For B. E. Moore Held Here Sunday

B. E. MOORE

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:00 in the First Baptist church for B. E. Moore, 74, who died early Saturday morning at his home west of Eldorado following a long illness.

The pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, officiated. Interment was made in the Eldorado cemetery under direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home. Masonic graveside rites were held.

Pall bearers were John Mayo, Aaron Stewart, Richard Cheatham, A. E. Prugel, Bill Rountree, and Ben Hext.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Joe Hearne Moore and Cecil Edward Moore; one daughter, Mrs. J. F. Michalski Jr., all of San Antonio; three brothers, J. B. Moore of Comanche, C. M. Moore of Mansfield, Ark. and G. L. Moore of San Antonio; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Spears of Pearsall and Mrs. H. T. Tipton of San Antonio; and three grandchildren.

B. E. (Eck) Moore was born Oct. 16, 1889 in Alabama, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Moore. On December 24, 1911, he was married to Sarah Ettie Lewis in the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Lewis in Comanche, Texas.

The couple made their first home at Priddy, Texas, where they stayed four years and Mr. Moore began his life-long occupation of farming. They moved to this county in 1916 where Mr. Moore engaged in stock farming until his health began to fail a few years ago.

Mr. Moore served as a school board member for 14 years. He was also on the board of supervisors of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District from the time of its founding in 1941 until about 1962. He and Mrs. Moore were active in support of county 4-H work. He was a member of the board of the Federal Land Bank of Sonora.

On Christmas Eve afternoon, 1961, a large crowd of friends and relatives called on the Moores to greet them on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Two Fire Alarms

At press time this week, the local Fire Department had made two runs during the past week.

Sunday afternoon at 1:45, they were called to a pick-up which was on fire near the Catholic Church.

Tuesday, the firemen made a run at 2:30 p.m. to Jack Halbert's. No major damage was reported at either place.

Another One: The Firemen were called out shortly before noon Wednesday to a grass fire at Kenneth Check's.

Post Script

I was reading something in Harper's magazine this week that again brings up the curious question, Does history repeat itself?

The Republican convention is over and the country is now looking forward to the Democratic convention in August. Lyndon Johnson, of course, will be unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for President. Then at the proper time, they say, he will indicate his choice for his running mate for vice president—and he, too, will automatically be nominated—just like that.

Not necessarily, so says this writer in Harper's who goes on to give the history of three other presidents in this century, who became presidents through the death of the incumbent.

These, of course, are Teddy Roosevelt, Calvin Coolidge and Harry Truman. All three were renominated and re-elected, but not a single one of them was able to control the selection of his running mate.

Roosevelt wanted Albert Beveridge but had to accept Charles Warren Fairbanks.

Coolidge in 1924 wanted Senator William Borah but had to accept Charles G. Dawes.

Truman wanted William Douglas or General Marshall, but the convention gave him Alben Barkley.

This would make it appear that the choice of a running mate is NOT entirely up to L B J in August. Maybe it is, maybe it isn't. Lyndon is not saying who he wants.

But all the "sensation seeking" columnists are agreed on one point and that is that he does NOT want Bobby Kennedy.

That is going to be the interesting point in the Democratic national convention in Atlantic City, four weeks from now.

Masons to Dedicate New Temple Here Saturday

Eldorado's New $17,000 Masonic Temple Will Be Dedicated Saturday

Eldorado's new Masonic Temple, which was completed earlier this spring at a cost of $17,000, will be dedicated this Saturday afternoon in ceremonies which get under way at 2:00 p.m.

John Collard, Jr., Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, will be on hand at the dedication ceremonies here Saturday and he will be in Christoval later in the day for dedication of the new Masonic Temple there.

Mr. Collard, whose home is at Spearman, Texas, will fly in to San Angelo Saturday morning where he will be met by a group of Masons and then brought here.

Archer & Renfro of Sonora had the general contract for building the 34-by-80-foot tile building.

Ground breaking was held last January with the first spade of earth turned by W. O. Alexander, the only living charter member of the local Lodge.

Orval Edmiston was chairman of the building committee and Henry Speck Jr. was worshipful master while the building was being erected. Edwin Childers is now worshipful master.

The Eastern Star chapter refurnished most of the furnishings that were moved from the old building to the new one, and they will also serve refreshments at the dedication ceremonies this Saturday.

The new building is modern in every respect with year-around air-conditioning, large modern kitchen with electric range, and a lobby which can accommodate a sizable crowd for serving of full meals, or light refreshments at Star and Lodge meetings.

Masons from a wide area of Southwest Texas have been invited to the dedication here.

Mr. Collard will be due in Christoval for a barbecue at 6:30 Saturday evening and the dedication ceremonies of the new Masonic Temple there will get under way at 8:00 p.m.

Completion of the new modern Masonic Temple here in Eldorado culminates several decades of dreams and planning by local Masons, and they now have a building which is a fine addition to the business district.

It was reported this week that about $5,000 is still due on the mortgage and that that is steadily and gradually being whittled down as large and small contributions to the building fund continue to come in.

Mrs. Fay's Funeral Held Here Yesterday

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 3:00 for Mrs. Dora Berrera Fay, 49, under direction of the Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mrs. Fay died at 8:15 a.m. Sunday in McKnight State Hospital. She had been hospitalized there 13 days.

She was born in Texas Jan. 2, 1915, and had lived in Eldorado for the past several years.

Thrips Cause Delay In Cucumber Harvest

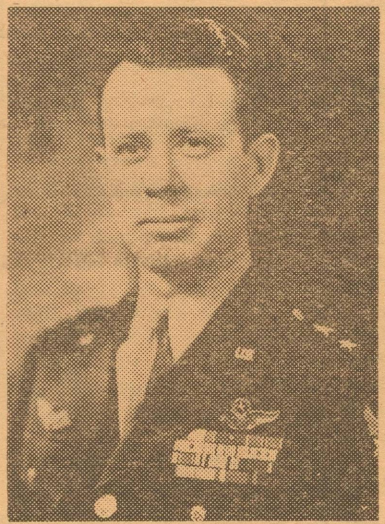

Joe Brown, in charge of the cucumber grading station, reports that 41,000 pounds of the crop had been received here up to Tuesday night. Of that amount 21,000 had come in during the previous week.

Three truck loads were shipped to Texarkana last week.

The cucumber crop here, he said, was hit last week by a siege of thrips which called for an airplane poisoning job which was done last Friday. It was estimated that growers lost about four harvesting days as a result.

With favorable weather the harvest is expected to resume in full swing today.

This old building is to be used by El Dorado Woolens for this purpose for the next six months or so, pending completion of the new building on the Sonora highway.

Spotted Rains Dance Across This County

Rain clouds have been playing hide-and-seek over this area for the past week or more, but the county is still looking for that county-wide 4-inch soaker.

On Wednesday a week ago Eldorado had a good half inch. There were light showers here Sunday and again yesterday, Peyton Cain yesterday reported 1/4 inch while his neighbor R. D. Johnson got 9-tenths. Jess Koy reported the draws running at his place east of town — the fourth rain he had received in July. Also yesterday S. D. Harper is reported to have had 1.40 inches, and Northern Natural in Reynolds community got 8-tenths. The same area got about half an inch Sunday.

Fay Baugh Spence Ranch, 10 miles east of Eldorado, received 1.8 inches.

Heavy clouds were still in evidence as this paper went to press about 5:00 p.m. Wednesday.

Paul Phillips Rebuilding Burned Brooder House

Paul Phillips has started rebuilding the frame brooder house near his residence in the east part of town. The structure, one of three owned by Phillips, was razed one Sunday a few weeks ago by a blaze of undetermined origin which cremated 3600 baby chicks that were in it. Mr. Phillips did not have insurance on the property.

The new brooder house is being built on the foundations of the old one and Tuesday of this week, the walls and roof had been framed up. Mr. Phillips expects to have the new building complete and a new batch of baby chicks in it by August 11th.

A TIP FOR TEENS

Sew your own Fashions

IT'S FUN TO SEW AND PROFITABLE TOO, since you can make your clothes budget do quadruple duty and sail through school with a wardrobe that will really steal the show.

There is ample professional information on the art of sewing to help you acquire that custom-made look. First, know your size . . . fit is all important. Patterns should be purchased from body measurements, not by ready-to-wear sizes.

The array of exciting, easy-to-make pattern designs . . . including separates and jumper outfits which make wardrobes stretch so far . . . are the answer to a beginner's prayer. The patterns guide you step by step. The skirt and neckline zippers called for in many of the patterns are easy to apply, too. Just follow the ABC instructions in the package of the Talon Zephyr nylon coil zipper.

Next, look over the vast selection of fabulous new fabrics in a "wonder world" of colors. There are brocades, fake furs and leathers, mohairs and numerous other textures. Don't miss the stretch fabrics which are perfect for all types of garments, especially for sports togs because they "give" with one's movements. Pressing is most important as you sew, for a professional look and a press cloth should always be used over the zipper area.

With a little planning now, you can easily switch from one season to another and have the wardrobe to put you in the swing of things, always looking your best. It's so gratifying to look appealing through your own efforts, and to reap the rewards of approval from those whose opinions count the most.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

Elnora Love called the other morning to tell me about some very good fig preserves which had been made by Mrs. Roach of the Roach Floral Company of San Angelo. The preserves sound easy to make and Elnora says they are delicious.

Strawberry-Fig Preserves
5 cups figs. Cut stem end off and cut figs in quarters.
5 cups sugar.
Mix sugar and figs and let stand overnight.

Next day slowly boil mixture for 30 minutes and add one large box of strawberry Jello while mixture is hot. Put into clean jars and seal.

The hotter the weather gets the less the average home maker wants to cook. Yet, I know of no one who has been exempt from the job just because it is sizzling outside. To make the job a little easier, however, I offer this quick and easy casserole which tastes good, furnishes proper nutrients and is easy on the preparation pedal.

1 package frozen peas
1 cup instant rice (pre-cooked)
1 can Cream of Mushroom soup (undiluted)
1 7-oz. can Tuna, drained
Grateel Parmesan Cheese
—Cook peas until nearly done (3 to 4 minutes)
—Pour 1 cup boiling water over rice in a 1-quart baking dish
—Stir in peas, soup and tuna
—Sprinkle with Cheese
—Bake in preheated oven 300 F. for 30 minutes.
—Serves 4 to 6.

This is so easy that a 1st year 4-H girl could prepare it. Why don't you help the girls to put this together sometimes, leaders and — mothers? *

Wood is a basic material and it appeals to nearly every one of us in some form or another. Why did the old timers like to sit on the square or on the porch of the country store and whittle all day? They could have just sat there and not whittled, you know. But they liked to whittle on wood. Some of them even got so particular that they would work on just cedar or some other soft, nice smelling wood.

Countries such as Denmark produce wood craftsmen today whose works of art are recognized all over the world. Denmark is devoid of iron, oil, much land and many other natural resources, but they do have easy access to wood. Thus their talent for its uses has been developed.

In grandmother's day the burning of a sulphur candle was a regular part of the housecleaning that followed every case of scarlet fever, measles, or other contagious disease.

Today the average household has, very likely, more wooden serving pieces and utensils than ever before in history. I saw not long ago a salad bowl of walnut and a beautiful design which was priced at $40. High—yes, but it illustrated my point about the Danes and the popular use of woods for bowls, trays, plates, cutting boards, and serving pieces.

A question comes up in the mind of every bride of any other person who possesses even a wooden salad bowl—and is universal, how do I clean a wooden salad bowl? And they do need to be cleaned. Wood is notorious for "holding" food bits, bacteria and odors.

Contrary to the old Chef's tale that wooden ware needs only to be wiped after use, wooden ware can—and should be—washed in warm soap, or detergent suds. But—don't soak! Soaking causes swelling, cracking and warping. But do wash.

Salad Bowls
Hardwood salad bowls can be dipped quickly but long enough for a good washing in sudsy water. Rinse quickly, wipe with cup towel and put in an airy place. Don't put wooden ware away until thoroughly dry. Always wash soon after use while food and oily dressings are still easy to remove.

Cutting Boards
Most cutting boards will come clean when scrubbed with detergents or scouring powder. An occasional sanding with 000 sandpaper helps the ordinary cutting board. Always scrub, rinse and dry as quickly as possible.

Spoons, Rolling Pins, Etc.
These articles can be put in a pan of suds, but like other ware, don't leave to soak. After rinsing and drying, let utensils air before putting them away.

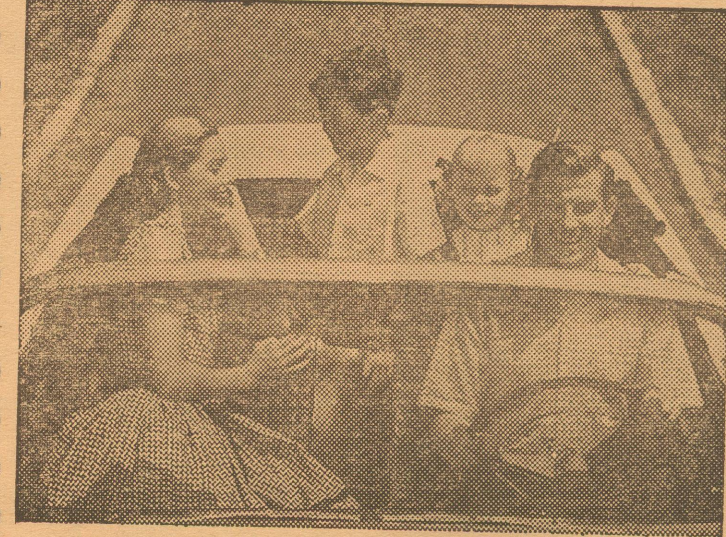

Just a word about rolling pins. If a board or a pin is covered with dough-y materials, be sure to wash off with cool water first. Hot water will set the dough. Then do the usual suds, rinsing, and drying routine.

I'm off to a 4-H club meeting at Mrs. Clifford Schooley's where a gathering of eager nine-year-olds await the excitement of a first "cooking" lesson. We are going to make a panful of quick and easy fudge. Fudge? you ask, yes fudge—because like so many adults today—if you would teach them you must first get their attention. Fudge is a dandy attention getter.

Merry Makes Meet

The Merry Makers "42" Club met in the West Texas Cafe dining room last Thursday for a regular meeting. There were three tables of players including Mrs. Roy Andrews, Mrs. Thomas Baker and Mrs. Myrtle Galbreath as guests. Rose Brannan was hostess and she served pie and coffee after the games.

Amid screams of "They hate us" and "kill or be killed", 600 Negroes raced through Harlem and Brooklyn for five nights in a row last week, looting and attacking whites where they could find them. One Negro was killed, two others shot, 150 injured, and 700 properties were damaged and most of them looted by the vandals.

Cause of this violence stems from agitation for civil rights legislation, and the racial atmosphere that has been enveloping the nation for almost two years. The past two years has been called "the age of the agitators", during which time scores of organized groups have sprung up, all fanning the flame of racial tensions.

The Harlem riot was spearheaded by Negro James Farmer, head of CORE, who screamed defiance of police when he spoke to a mob of followers.

There are 52 Negro organizations in Harlem, which creates competition for leadership in the fanning of racial tensions. The Communists are mixed in with them, according to the Mayor of New York.

Civil Rights legislation is at the bottom of this outburst. Politicians and do-gooders have told Negroes they are being exploited by the whites, and must do something to assert their "equality". Already in less than 30 days, since the passage of the civil rights bill, crime among Negroes has increased in many areas, and resistance to law and order has been stepped up.

Bride-Elect To Be Honored Today

EILEEN KENT

A Gift Coffee today, Thursday, in the club room of the Memorial Building will honor Miss Eileen Kent, bride-elect of Gerald Hudson.

Calling hours are from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m.

Alexanders Honored With Farewell Party

The James Alexanders, who are moving to Ozone, were honored by friends with a farewell party Saturday night, July 24, on their lawn.

Sally Rowe, Duané Branham, and Bob Ledingham presented an enjoyable evening of musical entertainment while the children played games.

Gifts were presented to the Alexanders and home made ice cream and cookies were served.

There were 61 who attended.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Minnick and children from San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Belk of Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ray Richard and two children of Houston spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Davis. They left Sunday to return to Houston and were accompanied by Mary Lee Davis who planned to spend a few days with them before returning to Dallas, where she is employed as secretary to a lawyer.

Joe Stanfords To Move To Los Angeles, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Stanford are leaving this week end for Los Angeles, California, where Mr. Stanford has been accepted at the University of Southern California, and Mrs. Stanford will teach during the coming year.

Mrs. Stanford, the former Nancy Jo Jackson, will be awarded a Master's degree at Baylor University in Waco Friday night. She has a major in education and a minor in English. She has accepted a position as teacher in an elementary school in Norwalk, California, a suburb of Los Angeles.

Mr. Stanford will continue study on his Master's degree in music, having received a bachelor's degree a year or so ago. He serves as a music director of Baptist churches while continuing his education.

On The Screen . . .

'Charade' Is Set In Paris, France

Possibly we are too thin-skinned for screwball murder but the art form has not been outlawed in the movie palaces and it is still with us. Possibly the ablest practitioner is Cary Grant whose latest picture is "Charade" which will be shown Sunday and Monday nights at the Eagle Drive-In Theatre, and it is in color. He is cojoined in stardom by Audrey Hepburn. To show how long Mr. Grant has been around, he used to do these things with that other Hepburn, Katharine.

There is a reasonable amount of mystification in "Charade," but it goes tangentially "new wave." It begins with Miss Hepburn's sitting in a Paris, France, mortuary trying to look griefed over a dead husband. He had been cast off a speeding train and cracked up in a roll over a rugged night of way.

One unbidden mourner sticks a pin in the hand of the corpse. Another examines him for his breath or lack of it. "Good gracious" exclaims Miss Hepburn.

With the morose comedian, Walter Matthau, offering protection and Grant offering befuddlement, Miss Hepburn has a hard time keeping her humor straight but somehow she is good enough an actress to do just that. In a particularly tense moment, she wants to know how Grant shaves the celebrated cleft in his famous chin.

The husband, whom Miss Hepburn did not know very well, is suspected of making off with $250,000 belonging to the U. S. government. The curious party at the undertaker's includes a bruising Texan, a homicidal stumblebum with a steel hand and a whimpering Victor Moore type with a disrespectful sneeze.

Where the $250,000 is hidden is the nearest disclosure of the week. Everybody suspects Miss Hepburn and threatens to kill her, overlooking the fact that if she is dead she can't tell where the loot is if she knows, which she doesn't.

This is sufficient to give Grant a bad moment in the mansard roofs of Paris with the prosthetic handyman trying to fling him to the pavements. There is a good old-fashioned shooting match in the Paris subway with Miss Hepburn looking no more than busy.

Grant uses the Grant personality. He doesn't look his 59 years by 19.

The cast:
Peter Joshua.....Cary Grant
Regina Lambert.....Audrey Hepburn
H. Bartholomew.....Walter Matthau
Tex Pentthollow.....James Coburn

Christian Church C.Y.F.

Meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. C. E. Cogswell. Roll call was made with a Bible verse.

Mrs. Cogswell was chairman of the meeting. Scripture was read by Mrs. Young and Mrs. Haynes.

Our lessons will be on the Spanish American people, for the next few months.

Mrs. Cogswell opened the meeting with a poem Worship, by Anna Wikly.

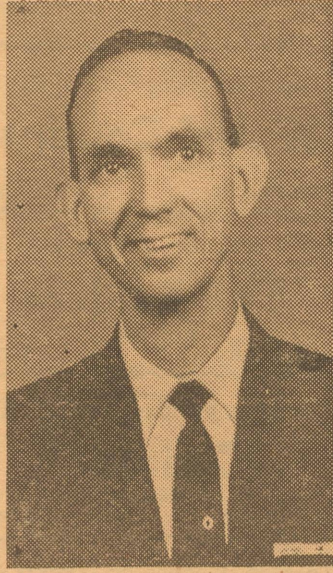

Mrs. Cogswell brought thoughts on the moving of these people to various parts of our United States. How the churches had united to help in the entertainment, when these people are off duty, this also serves as an education to these people as well as an entertainment. Meeting closed with prayer.

We will not meet in the month of August. Our next meeting will be September 14 and Mrs. Andy Nixon will be our hostess.

Mrs. Bud Haynes was our hostess and served home made cookies and tea and coffee.—Rep.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Taliaferro have had their daughter, Wanda Camp and baby son Tony Lynn of Odessa visiting them, while Wanda's children Karen and Billy are visiting relatives in East Texas.

Baptists To Launch Revival August 30

DR. W. LERAY FOWLER

A Revival will start at the First Baptist church here in Eldorado on August 30 and continue through September 6th, announces the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Vaughan.

Dr. W. Leray Fowler, pastor of West University Baptist church in Houston will be evangelist. Dr. Fowler has been pastor at church since January of 1962 and has held pastorates previously in Sweetwater, Brady, and Ballinger.

Dr. Fowler is a graduate of Baylor, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and attended the University of Texas Journalism School. His wife is the former Rosemary Turner of Henderson and they have two sons, Mark 14 and Steve, 11.

Dr. Fowler conducted two preaching missions for the U. S. Air Force to Cape Cod, Mass., and in 1955 was in Cuba and Jamaica on a preaching mission sponsored by the Texas Evangelism Dept.

He was in England in 1959 and toured 13 European countries and the Middle East, on a preaching mission.

In 1961, he covered almost 25,000 miles in Scotland, England, France, Italy, Greece, Yugoslavia, Austria, Holland, Egypt, Germany, Turkey, and Moscow. This trip was under auspices of U. S. Air Force and individual churches of Europe and the Middle East.

Dr. Fowler also traveled 30,000 miles in Japan, Thailand, Hong Kong, Philippines, and Hawaii last May, and was a part of New Life Movement.

He has served six years on Executive Board of Texas Baptists, has served on Convention Program Committee, also on Committee to name Executive Board Members on two occasions. He has served as trustee of Howard Payne and Hendrick Memorial Hospitals. Since his return from Berlin and Moscow in June he has made over 50 addresses on "Communism vs. Christianity" to civic, church, and convention groups.

An avid photographer, Dr. Fowler has made over 5,000 color slides in 37 countries. These slides are used in Sunday night Visual Sermons which attract good crowds.

Further details concerning the Revival will be given in the Success later.

Beth McCalla And Donna Davis Winners

Beth McCalla was named winner in the Senior 4-H Club Dress Revue held in the Memorial Building on last Thursday afternoon. Beth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McCalla of Eldorado.

Donna Davis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Davis, won the Junior division of the county dress revue on the same afternoon occasion.

Close to 20 other 4-H girls showed costumes which they had made during the summer's work. The girls' ages ranged from 9 through 16 and their outfits were as varied. Shirts, blouses and skirts, blouses and shorts on up to completely tailored lined and well accessorized dresses were modeled.

Schleicher county Senior and Junior winners will compete with girls from 18 neighboring counties on August 6 at the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo. Parents and friends of 4-H girls are invited to attend the luncheon style show which will be presented at the District Seven 4-H Dress Revue. Mrs. Vida Kreklow, H.D. Agent, will make the necessary arrangements for reservations if they are called in to her office.

Mrs. Kreklow said that the success of the girls summer projects was due to the excellent work of the adult leaders who have helped the girls this summer.

Mrs. James Davis is the leader of a group of Senior girls; Donna Davis, her daughter, has helped a group of younger girls and Mrs. Clifford Schooley, Mrs. Leo Prater, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. C. J. Niblett and Mrs. Clemens Sauer of the Reynolds club have all given many hours to the 4-H program of work during the past two months.

Trigg Local 'Boss' For Boys' Ranch

That popular old song, "When It's Round-up Time in Texas" has become the theme song of a group of stockmen already in the saddle in preparation for the annual West Texas Boys Ranch Roundup.

These men, called "Wagon Bosses," represent all sections of the 60-county area served by the Ranch. They assist in collection and assembly of livestock donations from ranchers who want to help in the Ranch's biggest fund drive of the year.

Mr. Charlie Trigg is serving as Wagon Boss for this area. He's gearing his activities toward the week of August 24-29, at which time the maximum effort will be made to obtain gifts of sheep, cattle, goats, horses and swine. The livestock will be sold at auctions which levy no charges for handling or selling the animals—all proceeds of all sales go directly to the Ranch. Contribution of handling expenses is simply another way West Texans have of helping the Ranch.

This annual Roundup was begun five years ago and has become a main source of income for the Ranch. John Cargile of San Angelo is general chairman of the drive this year.

"The Ranch needs help to provide for some 80 boys the year around," Cargile says. "I realize if this year's Roundup is to be a real western type success I will need a lot of help. I would like to ask you to pitch in and help by making a donation of livestock, farm products, or cash."

Cargile pointed out that the gift of a single cow can outfit two boys in school clothes. Ten sheep can furnish one of the smaller boys with school material for a year, and as many goats can provide work allowance for 14 boys for a month. Three pigs will furnish funds for 134 quarts of milk.

Naturally, the Ranch appreciates and needs donations any time of the year. But this annual Roundup, with its concentrated effort to obtain donations, comes at a time when a great many ranchers are working stock and can conveniently sort out animals they feel able to contribute to a cause whose worthiness nobody doubts.

Ranchmen of this county are invited to contact Charlie Trigg for information and assistance in making their contributions.

And of course any donor can find abundant reward in knowing he has helped some boy, or perhaps several boys, who are growing into healthy, responsible citizens only because a strong man took notice of his need and gave him a boost at the right time.

West Texas Boys Ranch is financed entirely through free-will contributions. Morris Craig, executive director, says most boys at the Ranch are from broken homes or non-existent homes. At the Ranch, they get the necessities of a wholesome, self-reliant personality—from personal affection and religious training to the schooling which enable them to make a good mark in the world.

The organization of a Chamber of Commerce or a Board of Development and Tourist Bureau will also be discussed.—Iraan News.

Medallion For Sutton Courthouse

A Texas Historical Building Medallion has been awarded to the Sutton County Courthouse and affixed by the east door.

Securing the medallion for the Courthouse was a project of the Sutton County Historical Survey Committee, and the cost was paid by the County.

John Eaton, chairman of the Historical Committee, says that the native stone building was completed in 1892.—Devil's River News, Sonora.

Girl Motorcyclists Visit Here on Tour

Seven young women school-teachers, five traveling on motorcycles and two in a Volkswagen automobile, came through Eldorado last Thursday morning on a border to border tour they were making.

The seven were from the states of New York, Pennsylvania, and Massachusetts and were traveling together camping out part of the time and making about 200 miles a day, "on good days."

The five Honda motorcycles had rolled-up sleeping bags and other camping gear packed on the back.

The group had spent Wednesday night in Sonora. Down there, they were shown through the Sonora Caverns and when they came here Thursday morning, they were met by a group of interested local citizens who escorted them to the mill of the El Dorado Woolens, Inc.

Their itinerary included going up through New Mexico to Albuquerque and Santa Fe, and a swing over to the West Coast before returning to their respective towns in the Northeast by late August.

The girls gave their names and addresses as:

- Barbara Pearson, 47 Summer Street, Lynnfield, Mass. 01940;
- Carol Gillespie, Haines Falls, New York;
- Ann Wilkinson, R. D. 2, Wellsboro, Pa.;
- Judy Faville, Cassville, N.Y.;
- Shirley Ostrander, RD1, Port Allegany, Pa.;
- Karen Crockford, 223 Moore St., Newark, New York;
- Jean Carroll, 147 Sunset Drive, Horseheads, New York.

McGinneses Attend Funeral Together

All the members of the Sam McGinnes family attended the funeral of Sam Low, retired Menard ranchman and father of Mrs. McGinnes. The services were held last Friday morning at Menard.

The McGinnes sons, Albert and Elton of Eldorado and Floyd of Crosbyton, their wives and children and a daughter, Mrs. Walter Low, her husband and children of Lamesa, met at the Sam McGinnes home and drove to the funeral in a caravan of five cars.

Mr. Low, who was 92, was survived by his wife, who is 88, and ten children, all of whom are still living and all living with their original husbands or wives; not a one ever having lost a mate in either divorce or death. All of Mr. Low's immediate family attended his funeral except two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Low's death was the first that has ever occurred in the immediate family since their marriage in 1895; one grandchild and one great-grandchild preceded him in death. He was survived by 26 grandchildren, 49 great-grandchildren and two great greats.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young had as their guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cocklin of Oklahoma City, Okla., a sister of Mrs. Young. The Cocklins and the Youngs will tour Fort Stockton, Alpine, Fort Davis and the Big Bend Nat'l Park during their visit here.

FOXWORTH-GALBRAITH

Austin.—State Board of Control is willing to go only halfway in the drive to take energetic tourists to the top of the capitol dome.

State purchasing and housekeeping agency asked for $16,950 to open the dome to the fifth floor. Sightseers now must stop at the fourth floor landing. Board of Control looks with disfavor on tourists going 41 feet higher, to the tip-top.

"Structurally," said the Board, "the capitol dome is thoroughly safe for its intended and original purpose—which was not as a tourist attraction."

Cost of opening the dome to the public—complete with guide service, security, repainting and janitorial service—was estimated at an additional $52,000.

Even opening the fifth floor landing is complicated enough, said the Board.

Included in its recommendations were $4,000 for a grill to catch objects dropped from the lofty landing; $3,000 for a ventilation system in the stairwell areas "to keep people from dropping out from exhaustion while climbing"; $2,000 to run a water line and install a fountain; $2,500 for annual repainting to hide the work of slogan-writers; and $350 for a first aid kit.

Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court has declined to reconsider an earlier decision holding off pipe shipping rates set by the Railroad Commission in 1962 while they are in contest. High court refused the Commission's request for rehearing. Oil field truckers called for suspension of the new rates, claiming they give the railroads an unfair advantage.

In another case heard by the Supreme Court, a Railroad Commission production formula for Fairway Field in East Texas, largest U. S. oil discovery in the last eight years, is under attack. W. L. Pickens brought the action to void the formulas for the field in Anderson and Henderson counties. Pickens claims the formulas would allow neighboring leases to drain oil from under his property. Under the Commission order, allowables would be based 50% on tract size and 50% on acre feet of oil-bearing sand beneath. District court here has upheld the order.

Finance companies won a major battle with the State when the Third Court of Civil Appeals in Austin refused Regulatory Loan Commissioner Frank Miskell's motion for rehearing on the State's case against Terplan, Texas Public Finance, Beneficial Finance and Consolidated Credit.

Court affirmed the opinion of the 53rd District Court in Austin that the 1963 Texas Loan Act section which says a loan company cannot be licensed unless 51% of its stock is owned by Texans is unconstitutional.

Education-Job Opportunity

Texas Department of Public Safety is offering educational opportunities along with jobs for young men who can qualify.

Fifty will be selected between August and October for the DPS Law Enforcement Academy here. Graduates of the 4-month school, covering 800 hours of instruction in 95 subjects, will fill vacancies in the highway patrol, license and weight, motor vehicle inspection or driver licensing divisions.

Young men 21 to 35 who can meet physical and mental requirements will be given qualifying examinations on August 8, September 12 and October 10. School will begin on November 19. Students earn $375 a month while in training and $438 to $453 a month on graduation.

Redistricting

Fourth in a series of public hearings held by the Legislative Council Study Committee on Congressional Redistricting will be held in San Antonio. Legislators seek public opinion on the way to draft redistricting to conform with the U. S. Supreme Court edict. It's a matter which must be settled during the 1965 session.

Speaker of the House Byron Tunnell says he believes redistricting—both congressional and legislative—should be handled at the end of the session, after higher education proposals and tax matters are out of the way.

His idea conflicts with those of Governor Connally and Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr who have said redistricting should be the first item on the Legislature's agenda.

Passenger Train Hearing Set

Railroad Commission issued notice that it will hold hearings on the Texas and Pacific Railway's request to discontinue operation of two passenger trains now operating between Fort Worth and El Paso.

Fort Worth hearing will be held on September 15, and the El Paso hearing on September 17. Railroad claims it has suffered a net loss of $200,000 on these trains over the past year.

Food Stamp Plan

William M. Herndon, who administers the commodities distribution program for the State Department of Public Welfare, says the Federal Food Stamp Program, just passed by Congress, will take at least five years to filter down into all counties which otherwise would participate in the surplus commodities distribution program.

Under the proposed program, low-income and no-income families may trade federally-supplied stamps for food at any grocery store, instead of limiting their supplies to those items declared surplus commodities and distributed on a county-agent basis. Luxury and imported items will be exempt from the plan. Barred from the stamp "shopping" list are bananas, coffee, cocoa and tea.

But the switch must be gradual because current surpluses must be used up, and it has not been determined yet how much Congress will appropriate for the program.

Screwworm Funds Asked

Sen. Ralph Yarborough's Austin office announced he has urged the Senate Subcommittee on Agriculture Appropriations to earmark $5,500,000 to continue the screwworm eradication program in the Southwest.

Unless a barrier zone is established along the Mexican border, Yarborough said, reinfestation of "free" areas will occur and a $12 million investment in the program will be lost.

Parks Overcrowded

All state parks in Texas are overcrowded, says Director W. M. Gosdin.

Gosdin pointed out that 47,944 persons visited Corpus Christi State Park on Easter week end and the level has held up through mid-summer. Other major parks such as Garner, Inks, Goose Island, Brownwood and Fort Parker are handling capacity crowds.

A $160,000 expenditure at Huntsville State Park provided only a third of the facilities that could be utilized, reports the parks chief.

New expansion projects at Falcon, Lake Whitney and Dam B will help take care of next year's visitors but probably won't come close to meeting demand for park facilities, Gosdin said.

Appointee

Tom E. Beard, county attorney for Hill County, has been appointed by Governor Connally as District Attorney for the 68th Judicial District.

Beard, a Baylor University law graduate who is also Democratic nominee for the position he was appointed to, succeeds the late Jerry E. Clarke.

Retail Sales On Rise

UT Bureau of Business Research's seasonally-adjusted index of retail sales in Texas shows a 2% rise in June. Bureau reports that in the first six months of 1964 retail stores recorded a rise of 5% over the first half of 1963.

Biggest increase over the 1963 period were made by automotive dealers and stores dealing in women's ready-to-wear. But every retail category showed a rise, except meat-less grocery stores.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Only one case of screwworms were found in Texas last week. This case was found in a neighboring county, Crockett county.

Pupae production at the Mission plant reached its peak last week with an increase of 1,284 litters over the week before, and the highest total production of sterile flies in many weeks. Of course more flies require more food and these little critters consumed last week 7,975 pounds of horsemeat, 167,490 pounds of pork lungs; 2,224 pounds of fish flour; 3,990 gallons of blood and 6,000 gallons of water.

Another reason why all livestock producers need to do all within their power to prevent screwworm cases is the actual cost of hot spotting in areas where screwworms have been identified. It costs approximately $750 to hot-spot each identified screwworm case. For instance, 300,000 sterile male flies released at the rate of 100,000 per week will cost $240. The airplane cost of distribution is $175. Inspection and survey costs are $252, and on-the-ground spraying costs of infected and adjacent herds, $75.

The total samples being sent to Mission, Texas, has dropped drastically. It is hoped that this means all producers are looking but see nothing suspicious. This eradication program has means of savings of literally millions of dollars so let's all pitch in to complete the job!

Producers are urged to:

1. Inspect all animals frequently and treat all wounds, whether man-made or otherwise.
2. When working livestock to spend a little for dopping material now in order to avoid possible cases later.
3. If worm cases are noticed, submit samples immediately to the Mission laboratory for identification.

"Does your wife play bridge for money?"
"No, but her opponents do."

Smith-Doxey applications to the USDA Cotton Classing Office were prepared for all cotton producers in the county and mailed last week by the County Agent's office.

Officers Geo. Mikeska, Wayne Mikeska and Sam Gausemeier signed all necessary papers and mailed to Cotton Division, USDA.

Being eligible to use this service means that all producers cotton is graded from samples taken from each bale by a bonded grader and cards return of grade to producer in care of the ginner. This gives each producer knowledge of marketing situation and encourages producers to stay informed on current markets and prices.

Market reports are posted, and assist in obtaining local price information.

Here is the adopted cotton improvement program for the county.

1. Plant varieties which are adapted to the county.

2. Use proper cultural practices.
A. Timely planting, cultivation, etc.

B. Close observation of insect infestations and control if necessary.

C. Proper use of irrigation water, (where applicable). (1) Proper coverage; (2) Proper timing.

D. Proper use of fertilizers.

3. Improve harvesting practices.
A. Careful timing of harvesting operations.

B. Proper use of defoliant.
C. Proper use of harvesting equipment.

4. Have knowledge of market situation.

A. Encourage producers to stay informed on current markets and prices.

B. Post market reports supplied by U.S.D.A.

C. Cooperate in assisting the U.S.D.A. in obtaining local price information.

Now is the time for irrigated grain sorghum growers to check fields for head smut.

Particular attention should be given to resistance among different varieties. This information should be useful in selecting a variety to plant next year.

There is a direct relationship between the per cent smutted or sterile heads and the percent yield loss. A 10% smut infection will lower yields 10%.

To insure against head smut always plant resistant varieties.

The hickory shuck worm causes severe injury to pecans. In the late fall the shucks are tunneled out. As a result the nuts are slow to mature and the kernels do not develop. The shucks stick to the nuts and fail to open, increasing difficulty in harvesting.

The larvae passes the winter in the shuck and emerges in the spring as a grayish-black moth 1/8" long. As many as five generations may be completed each year before larvae goes into hibernation.

Spraying during August will help. The best method of control—raking and destroying infected shucks and pecans that do not hull during harvest.

A good reputation may merely be proof that you don't have inquisitive neighbors.
