New Year Promising Exciting New Gas Discoveries

Work on Phone Bldg. To Start In February

General Telephone Company of the Southwest was scheduled to let contract this week for their new building here in Eldorado, and to have work under way by February.

The building is scheduled for completion in April, after which time installation of new central office equipment will begin.

The new building here will be 36 by 37 feet, and will house equipment with a total capacity of 1200 lines and 1500 terminals. Initial central office equipment will be composed of 600 lines and 800 terminals.

The new central office equipment is scheduled to be cut into service late in 1965.

At time of change-over, all telephone numbers in Eldorado will change to the new seven digit numbers. All will have the same three digit prefix—853—followed by four other digits. The new equipment will permit Eldorado customers to have access to Direct Distance Dialing service at the time San Angelo cuts to DDD early in 1967.

These plans were announced by R. R. McCullough, district manager. John Murr, combinationman for General Telephone, resides in Eldorado.

Oil News

J. M. Huber Corp., Midland, will drill a 5,000-foot Harkey wildcat in Schleicher county, six miles east of Eldorado and 1½ miles northeast of the Page field. It is the No. 1 Koy.

Location is 1,980 feet from the north and 660 feet from the west lines of 22-L-GH&SA.

It is ¾-mile southwest of Humble Oil & Refining Co. No. 1 Koy, a 6,623-foot failure, abandoned on July 10, 1963.

It is also ¾-mile northwest of Tucker Drilling Co. Inc. No. 1 Henderson, a 4,700-foot failure, abandoned March 1, 1964. It returned only drilling mud on a test between 4,562-92 feet.

Marathon Oil Co., Midland, was drilling below 6,459 feet in shale and sand on a 7,350-foot Strawn contract at the No. 1-A Mattie A. Roach, in 38-TT-TCRR, Schleicher county wildcat, 11 miles northwest of Eldorado and 1¼ miles northwest of Case (Canyon) field.

Recovery was 365 feet of gas and 830 feet of slightly gas-cut mud on a two-hour drillstem test between 6,385-98 feet, possibly Canyon.

Eagles Wallop Wall

The Eagles hit Wall with a storm Saturday night and beat them 75-27 to push their season mark to 7-4.

Richard Preston led the attack with 25 points and 21 rebounds. Coach Bell substituted frequently which resulted in nearly everyone getting in the scoring column. Pat Childers, Mike McCravery, and Jay Halbert each had 8, Jessie Bosmans 7, Chris McCravery and Joe Phillips had 6, Monty Montgomery 5, and Gary Derrick had 2.

The boys hit 51% from the floor which accounts for their fine scoring. Everyone team member hit and rebounded well in jumping to a 20-10 lead then a 39-21 half-time margin.

Game by quarters:
Eldorado — 20 19 12 24-75
Wall — 10 11 2 4-27

The Eldorado girls will play the opening game of the Lake View Tournament Thursday against Balingier at 1:30 p.m. Should they win they would play at 9:30 a.m. Friday. The next game would be played at 11:00 Saturday morning.

Finals are set for 8:15 p.m. Saturday with third place at 7:00 p.m. Other teams who will present strong competition are Coahoma, Lake View, Garden City, Rock Springs, Canutillo and Menard.

The Eldorado girls are 14-2 for the year.

This week we received a letter addressed to "Leading Newspaper, Eldorado, Texas, U.S.A." It came from a girl in Ireland and reads as follows:

"Dear Sir, I would like to write (regularly) to a young man, aged seventeen upwards, who works on a ranch, preferably a cowboy. My name is Pamela Hewitt. I am sixteen years old, Irish, 5' 8". I have fair hair and grey-green eyes.

"Interests: riding, animals (especially horses, dogs and cats), music of all kinds, dancing, reading, films and their stars, the sea and ships. I am very interested in American history, especially that of Texas and the surrounding regions."

"I would be very grateful if you could put me in touch with somebody or publish the above in your newspaper."

"When replying, photographs would be appreciated very much. Yours sincerely, Pamela Hewitt."

Pamela Hewitt's address is given as 13 Wasdale Park, Terenure, Dublin 6, Ireland.

Well there you have it. If there are any prospective pen pals here who can tell this young Irish colleen about life here in West Texas, you may get in touch.

Or we might have a high school civics, geography, or history class who would be interested in writing.

The postmaster will fill any interested party in on the postage rates to Ireland.

It's poll tax paying time again, and that tax must still be paid here in Texas by persons between the ages of 21 and 60 who wish to vote in county, city, school, and state elections.

That applies to school trustee elections, city alderman elections, bond elections, any "wet" election that might be called, or any other special elections that may come up, even though this is an "off year" for voting in primaries and in General Elections.

As of Tuesday morning, only 223 poll taxes had been paid and three exemptions issued for voters just becoming 21, in the office of Orval Edmiston, county sheriff and tax assessor-collector.

Deadline for paying the tax is the last day of January.

Automobile license tags go on sale Feb. 1st, and some drivers are already selecting their numbers. To do this, you pick your number and then leave your registration papers and a check for proper amount in the office. When they come to your number sometime in February or March, you then pick up your new 1965 tags.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Keele of Lubbock were visiting friends in

If all the wells now being drilled should come in as big as predicted by our many sidewalk geologists, then all h-1 is due to break loose right here in Eldorado and Schleicher county in the early weeks or months of 1965.

It seems that Delta-Pauley Petroleum Co., is given credit for it. They have gone in and made producers where other companies had left dry holes years ago. Their drilling program started about two years ago when they dug a Whitten well and made it into a gas producer. They followed that up with three T. K. Jones wells, all producers—and all still capped.

They came back last summer and drilled on the Parker estate and got a 19-million cubic foot gasser and followed that up with another one on T. K. Jones which was also a good well. Then last fall they moved in on the C. C. West estate and brought in a well about two weeks ago. This well blew its head off for four or five days, and "they" said it was even a bigger well than Parker's. Everyone is now waiting for the official potential figure which some predict will be as high as 30-million cubic feet, but strictly off the record.

Delta immediately moved their rig about a mile north to their No. 1 Jackson where they are now approaching pay depth. At the same time they have staked another location on Jackson and two more on West, which makes it appear that Delta's drilling crew has their work cut out for them this spring and summer.

In the meantime Delta's discoveries attracted other companies, and Cabot brought in a gasser on Whitten, and Skelly got busy and is digging on the old Keele place, a mile east of Parker.

But this is not all. A good well was said to be in the making on W. V. Lux or Sauer section—(That's what we heard on New Year's Day.)

Twelve miles west of Eldorado an operator was having the very devil trying to control a well on Speck. Out on the Case ranch a prospector was said to be making a big oil well.

Farther west a producer was assured on McFall. Meadeo was making another well.

For off to the southwest something was being made on a Mayer section.

Just east of Eldorado on a D. C. Hill farm a derrick went up this week. Someone figures the trend runs from northwest to southeast—and is putting up money to test it out.

Anyway that's the way it looks here as we are seven days out into the new year.

New pipelines coming! Gathering systems! A new gasoline plant! Who knows?

It just looks like Schleicher is dripping with oil and gas, waiting for someone to come and turn it on.

Billy Kerr Dies At 48

Funeral services were held Saturday in San Angelo for Billy Kerr, 48, father of Mrs. Lynn Griffin of Eldorado. Mr. Kerr died in Shannon hospital Friday morning after suffering a heart attack.

Born Sept. 11, 1916, at Paint Rock, he had ranched near here and was a retired Goodyear test driver. He was a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Lynn Griffin of Eldorado and Mrs. Jim Swigart of Big Spring; his mother, Mrs. R. B. Anderson of Eldorado; two brothers, Karl Kerr of Marlin and Jack Kerr of Brenham; and six grandchildren.

Pall bearers were R. L. Lacey, Henry Jenness and Jack Arrott, all of San Angelo, and Raymond Mittel, Richard Jones, Jack Jones, Jack Griffin and Gene Edmiston, all of Eldorado.

Interment was made in Fairmount cemetery, San Angelo.

1120 Bales; Few More To Go

The gin total stood at 1,120 bales here Tuesday afternoon, including several loads on the yard waiting to be ginned.

If the weather remains clear, Gin Man Mikeska hopes to close out the season this week, and it will go down as the smallest cotton crop in many years.

Last year at this time the gin reported 2635 bales, and that was considered a half crop.

Ideal Time To Vote More Bond Issues

According to figures submitted this week by County Treasurer A. G. McCormack, the outstanding bonded indebtedness of Schleicher county is down to $66,000 as of December 31st. Also in its sinking fund waiting to be paid is a cash balance of over half this amount, or $33,367.

At the end of the year 1954, the county's outstanding bonded indebtedness stood at $253,000, and the records show it has been steadily reduced in the last 10 years.

Flu Subsides Here

As the new year, 1965, gets under way, there are still a few cases of flu or related virus but there are not nearly as many now as there were around Christmas time when attendance at school was curtailed and nearly every family was affected.

School reopened Monday morning and attendance was reported about back to normal in both the elementary and high school.

There were two types of the virus reported here. Some people were ill for just about two days, while others were ill for two weeks.

J. A. Butler Dies

Word was received here recently that J. A. Butler died in California on December 16th. He was a former Eldorado resident, having lived here from February, 1921, to April, 1953.

Survivors include his widow who now lives at 3180 Rubio Canyon Road, Altadena, California.

The Butlers had visited back here in recent years.

DIVIDEND REPORTED

The Texas Production Credit Association recently announced the payment of a 5% dividend to all holders of Class A & B Stock of record, December 31, 1964. Dividend checks were mailed shortly after the first of the year.

This distribution of profits was of benefit to all in this area as there are many borrower-stockholders of the association in this county. The Texas Production Credit Association makes agricultural loans and is owned by stockmen and farmers of Schleicher County and the 10 other counties in their territory.

SONORA CASHIER MOVING TO AUSTIN

News of the Sick

Mrs. Dick Jones was called to Abilene when her mother, Mrs. Payne, suffered a stroke, and was taken to an Abilene hospital a few days ago.

THE RATLIFF STORE

ELDORADO AND SONORA, TEXAS

Austin.—Just one year and four months ago, the state law establishing the office of Regulatory Loan Commissioner—called the "Loan Shark Law"—went into effect.

Opening of that state office marked the end of more than 36 years of legislative battles over regulatory control of loan companies.

Actually, that part of the law which provides for the licensing of those making loans of $1,500 or less, once they meet rather rigid licensing standards, didn't become effective until December 23, 1963.

Since that time, some 1,800 loan offices have been licensed. Commissioner Frank Miskell says that 22 examiners have made a thorough check of the books and records of 724 offices.

Also, the agency's enforcement division has investigated 154 complaints by individuals against lenders. According to Miskell, 72 of the complaints involved alleged overcharges or refund shortages. But most of the investigations revealed that borrowers had not been overcharged. "They just woke up to the high cost of borrowing money."

Forty of the complaints involved charges of harassment or unreasonable collection efforts. Investigation of these led to the discovery that some complaints were unjustified. Also, some were beyond the jurisdiction of the Loan Commissioner. These have been referred to district courts.

Other complaints ranged from hip-pocket (unlicensed) lenders to concealment of facts that should have been revealed in license applications. At the close of the agency's first year of operation, all but four of the cases were classified as "settled."

Miskell says that the "big ones"—the complaints that will be subject to public hearings and possible revocation of license—will be coming up early in 1965.

Legislature To Convene

Texas Legislators will be back in Austin on January 12 to grapple with an array of problems which could keep them here throughout the summer.

Congressional and legislative redistricting, taxes and appropriations top the agenda of controversial subjects for the 59th session.

Many lawmakers feel they barely will come to grips with the redistricting issue before expiration of the regular session in May. Special sessions very likely will be necessary to settle this explosive matter in line with the one-man-one-vote theory laid down by court decisions.

Proposed expenditures for higher education and teacher pay raises look like top topics for debate in the spending area.

Other legislation sure to stir strong interest and hot tempers includes horse race betting, oil and gas lease pooling, water planning and development, mixed drink sales and judicial pay raises.

No significant change in the power structure of either house of the Legislature is likely. House Speaker Byron Tunnell is assured of another term and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will begin his second term as presiding officer of the Senate.

There are only two new members in the Senate and 42 in the House.

State Sales Tax

There is guarded talk in the halls of the State Capitol, by lawmakers who would rather remain anonymous for now, that the two-per-cent sales tax will be extended to cover grocery purchases when the 1965 Legislature meets.

State sales tax law passed three years ago brought in $204,736,161 during the fiscal year which ended August 31. This tax accounted for 12 cents of every State revenue dollar.

But expected demands on state resources—to meet teachers' pay raises, improvement of higher education facilities, and upgrading of other state services—is expected to be the trigger for making the sales tax applicable to groceries, heretofore exempt.

Texas Bands Washington-Bound

Southwest Texas State College band of San Marcos and the University of Texas Longhorn band will represent the State of Texas in the Inaugural Parade following Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson's swearing in in Washington, D. C., on January 20.

State Democratic Chairman Marvin Watson of Daingerfield, speaking for the official Inaugural Committee, announced the committee's selection.

Bands must raise their own funds to pay transportation costs.

Bob Hope Talks Texas

A special premiere of a film designed to tell the "true story" of Texas will be held in Austin on January 13, when "Bob Hope Talks Texas" will be shown to Gov. John Connally, members of the Legislature and other state officials.

Film was produced through efforts of the Texas Industrial Commission. It was financed by 14 industries and chambers of commerce. Purpose is to sell persons in other states and other countries on Texas and its business, industry and tourist attractions.

E. B. Germany, chairman, said the commission hopes that the film will have some impact on plant location decisions—and that it will "hit at the image that Texas is all cowboys, Indians and sage brush."

Inaugural Invitations

Some 40,000 Texans have received invitations to the two big state political-social events of the season—the gala Democratic victory dinner on January 25 and the inauguration of Governor Connally and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith on January 26.

Party leaders hope to set new attendance and financial records at the $25 a plate dinner.

Speaking will be limited to a minimum for political functions, probably confined to Connally, Smith and House Speaker Byron Tunnell.

Inauguration ceremonies will be simple and brief.

Redistricting Delay?

High Texas political leaders have not given up thwarting federal court-ordered legislative redistricting on the basis of population alone.

Connally, Smith and Tunnell all have made known their support of efforts to amend the U. S. Constitution permitting state senators to be selected with consideration given to geography, as well as head count.

Tunnell was chairman of the resolutions committee, at the recent General Assembly of the States, which called on all states to petition Congress for a constitutional convention on reapportionment.

Look for two resolutions to be introduced on this subject during the 1965 session of the Texas Legislature.

One will call for a constitutional convention to consider an amendment reserving to states the right to determine makeup of their subordinate political subdivisions.

Another version may simply urge Congress to submit such an amendment for ratification by three-fourths of the states.

Actions by 34 state legislatures would be necessary to require Congress to call a federal convention. Apparently, a simple majority vote of Congress could set the convention in motion. A two-thirds majority in Congress is necessary for outright submission of an amendment to the states.

Under a federal court decision, Texas lawmakers have an August 2 deadline staring them in the face for completion of legislative redistricting. Nevertheless, some continue to hope that they will find a way out through a constitutional amendment.

Guard Integrated

Texas National Guard units practice no racial discrimination. Adjutant General Thomas S. Bishop so stated in commenting on a presidential advisory committee report which criticized the Guard in some states for balkiness toward integration.

Bishop said the Texas National Guard began integrating early in 1960. It now has about 200 Negroes (2% of the force). A number are non-coms but none are officers.

"There are no rules, regulations or practices in the state military forces of Texas that discriminate against any racial minority," Bishop stated.

Hospital Board To Meet

State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools will review proposed legislation submitted by its executive committee at a meeting here on January 11.

Among other items on its agenda, the Board will accept a deed for new state school property in Corpus Christi and examine Governor Connally's budget proposals for the hospital system which trimmed spending requests.

School Boards To Be Canvassed

Texas school boards this month will be asked their opinions of public school legislation. Results of the survey will be made known to lawmakers.

Members of the Texas Association of School Boards and the Texas Association of School Administrators form the committee which will poll the boards. Local school superintendents will be called on to distribute survey material to the board members.

Biggest Lease Sale Set

On February 2 Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler will offer a million acres of land for oil and gas leasing. It will be the largest sale in general land office history.

Some 800,000 acres of the land lie in the Gulf of Mexico out to the three-marine league line. The rest is in bays, riverbeds and uplands.

School Land Board authorized the sale at its December meeting.

Sadler released a complete listing of the property together with maps. Sealed bids must be received at the land office by 10 a.m. February 2.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whitis were in McAllen recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Whitis. The Bob Whitises are at home now at 1609 La Vista in McAllen.

Boys Win No. 8

The Eldorado Eagles beat Sterling City in an exciting contest by a 58-56 margin. The first half saw Eldorado draw 17 fouls to S.C.'s 4. At the half Richard Preston and Gary Derrick both had 4 fouls and Bobby Halbert had 3 and Scott McGregor fouled out. The score was Eldorado 27, Sterling City 32. The Eldorado lads never gave up and despite the foul handicap Richard Preston remained in the game tie the beginning of the fourth quarter, and scored 27 points plus 12 rebounds.

It was Bobby Halbert's fine shooting in the fourth quarter that put Eldorado ahead. Bob was second high scorer with 11 points all coming in the final 7 minutes of play.

Gary Derrick had 10 points and played until the final minute of the game. Monty Montgomery had 6 points, and Mike McCravey 4. Chris McCravey and Jay Halbert both did a good job defensively.

Scott McGregor played his first game since December 4 and added that spark of experience and ball handling that is always needed.

Congratulations to a bunch of hustling Eagles who came from behind to victory! The boys will entertain Wall here Friday night. The "B" boys will play at 5-15, the "A" boys will follow and then the "A" girls.

German's Chocolate "Quickie"

Only three steps are called for in making this excellent chocolate dessert, yet the recipe definitely belongs in any collection of glamour desserts. Wonderful for a party since it may be made the day before!

GERMAN'S CHOCOLATE ICEBOX CAKE

- 1 package (4 oz.) sweet cooking chocolate
- 1 tablespoon water
- Dash of salt
- 2 egg yolks
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 12 double graham crackers

Melt chocolate in water in saucepan over low heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add salt. Then add egg yolks, one at a time, beating well after each. Cool. Meanwhile, whip the cream; then fold a little into the cooled chocolate mixture. Blend well. Fold in the remaining cream, blending well. Chill.

On serving platter, place 2 of the double crackers end to end; spread with chocolate mixture. Top with alternate layers of crackers and chocolate mixture. Frost sides and top with chocolate mixture. Garnish with chocolate curls, if desired. Chill 8 to 12 hours in refrigerator. Slice and serve. Makes 8 servings.

Driver May Be Admitted Free To An Attraction This Coming Week

The owner and manager of the Bronco Drive-In Theatre in Sonora, Hillman Brown, reports a new deal this coming week for movie fans. Just clip out the theatre's ad from this Success issue, and the driver will be admitted Free (with at least one paid admission) to any of the four upcoming movies.

Tonight and Friday night, Elvis Presley stars in "Follow That Dream" and this attraction features the usual Elvis formula of Elvis's songs, personality, and Technicolor.

A suspense drama, a Rock Hudson and Doris Day comedy, and a Western, complete the week's offering.

"Fate Is The Hunter" is a new mystery drama which will come Saturday night to the screen of the Bronco Drive-In Theatre in Sonora.

The baffling circumstances surrounding a tragic air crash are the subjects of "Fate Is the Hunter," Twentieth Century Fox release in CinemaScope. The script by Harold Medford is based on Ernest K. Gann's book of the same name, a saga of the airways by the same man who wrote "The High and the Mighty" and "Island in the Sky."

Glenn Ford stars as Sam McBane, the man ordered to investigate the causes of a jet airplane disaster in which the only survivor was an airline stewardess, played by Suzanne Pleshette. The dead pilot, played by Rod Taylor, is accused of pilot error, and McBane must vindicate him and the airline. McBane has a personal interest in the matter, since he and the pilot were old friends who served together in Burma during World War II.

But McBane's initial investigations turn up no facts. He can find no logical cause for the accident. McBane knows that the pilot always believed in Fate, insisting that he would die when his time came, and not before. In a number of flashbacks, he is shown escaping death time and time again during the war. Even the beneficiary in his will, played by Nancy Kwan, feels that Fate is the reason for the crash. She thinks that it was the pilot's day to die, and that any investigation is a waste of time.

McBane is inclined to agree with her, but he must pursue the investigation if only to clear his friend's name. Eventually he does uncover the true circumstances behind the crash, vindicating his friend and Fate too.

Co-starred with the above are Wally Cox, Nehemiah Persoff and Mark Stevens. Jane Russell also appears in a cameo role as an actress who entertains the troops in World War II.

"Send Me No Flowers" is slated for a three-night showing Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, at the Bronco.

Doris Day and Rock Hudson glow no longer with stirring youth but they do have the vitality for a third farce. It is "Send Me No Flowers." It finds its humor once more with men who make dating passes at ardent lasses when married to them. The team collected big grosses with "Pillow Talk" (1959) and "Love Come Back" (1961).

"Send Me No Flowers" begins with satirical promise. Hudson, a television viewer, has been turned into a hypochondriac by commercials on pain-killers.

In this one, Rock is married to Doris, and he overhears a doctor discussing a terminal case which he mistakenly believes concerns himself. With the assistance of his neighbor, Tony, who also is friend and advisor, he proceeds to put his affairs in order even going so far as to select a new husband for his widow-to-be—all this without telling his wife. What happens until the mistake is clarified serves as the solid base for the comedy situations. The screenplay by Julius Epstein, based on the Broadway play by Norman Barasch and Carroll Moore, ingeniously makes the most of it.

"McLintock" is a western in color which comes to the Bronco screen Wednesday night. It stars John Wayne who is called on to perform one of the most rugged roles of his long career.

"McLintock" is being called a comedy-drama with a western accent and its top stars are Wayne and Maureen O'Hara. Wayne himself is also a veteran of many a movie battle. The story was written by James Edward Grant. The Grant story is concerned basically with an estranged couple—Wayne and Miss O'Hara—a rugged cattle baron, banker, and town-power and his wife, a proud beauty who had left him two years earlier because she suspected him of infidelities. He wants her back; she wants a divorce though she confesses she still loves him. Their battles are reportedly monumental and hilarious.

There is a secondary romantic situation involving the McIntocks' 17-year-old daughter who is courted by two men, one poor and the other wealthy. And mixed up in the whole affair is a struggle by ranchers to oust a group of home-steeders from the area and to force a tribe of Indians back to the reservation.

The co-stars of the film are Yvonne De Carlo, Patrick Wayne (John's son), Stefania Powers, Jack Kruschen and Chill Wills. Another Wayne son, 29-year-old Michael, carries the title of producer of the film and the son of another film great, Andrew V. McLaglen, whose father was Victor McLaglen, is the director.

"McLintock" was filmed largely in the Arizona areas of Nogales, Tombstone and Tucson. It was here that the ranches still typical of the 1830's were found; that is the period of the film. A replica of the old walled city of Tucson was used, an ancient train was brought in, longhorn cattle were loaned from Mexico, and almost 300 Indians were recruited from nearby reservations.

The Wabash River was named for the Indian word "ouabache" meaning white.

Oliver Wendell Holmes called Baltimore the "gastronomic metropolis of the Union."

Cobra and python skins from India are used in making shoes and handbags.

Siamese cats were first imported in 1890.

Eaglettes Downed Lake View Monday

The Eaglettes proved that they could beat Lake View's Maidens twice in a season last Monday as they downed them 40-27.

Neither team put on much of an offensive show. Eldorado was behind 10-9 and 19-18 but at the end of the third quarter it was Eldorado 29-23 never to be behind again.

Lake View's Beta Little did an excellent job of "holding" Christy Moore to 20 points. However this turned loose the other two, Marsha Mund and Karen Griffin, who hit 10 each. However, the game was somewhat sloppy and Eldorado had to scramble to score 40.

The guards did a fine job the last half rebounding. Chris Edmiston had 17, Frankie Blaylock 13, Jane Cain 10, and Paula Mace 2. These four strong guards give a needed depth to the line-up. This was the 14th win against two defeats this year for the girls. This game was a warm-up for the Lake View Tournament which begins today (Thursday).

Game by quarters:
Eldorado — 9 9 11 11—40
Lake View — 10 9 4 4—27

New Credit Aid For Low-Income People

A new credit service to help low-income families in rural areas raise their incomes is now available in Texas, according to State Director, L. J. Cappelman, Farmers Home Administration.

Mr. Cappelman said today the new service opens up Farmers Home Administration credit aid for the first time to many low-income rural families who previously were unable to obtain either public or private loans to improve their earnings.

All County offices in Texas, Cappelman said, are accepting applications for loans up to $2,500 to finance farming enterprises, small family businesses, trades and services. Rural cooperatives serving low-income families and providing services and facilities not otherwise available may also be eligible for credit under the program.

Borrowers will be provided continuing management aid to help them make a success of their farming enterprises or new businesses.

Farmers Home Administration, a U. S. Department of Agriculture agency, will administer the new loan service under recently delegated authority from the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Liberalized loan terms and conditions for participating low-income families allow for an interest rate of 4 1/8 per cent.

To be eligible for the new rural credit program, an applicant must live in a rural area, have an income that does not cover basic family necessities, be unable to obtain credit from other sources, including the regular loan program of the Farmers Home Administration, and show a reasonable promise of succeeding in the enterprise to be financed by the loan. (Further information available from the Farmers Home Administration office in San Angelo.)

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Thanks to the many friends of the sheep and goat industry and other business associates who wrote letters of praise and congratulation on receiving the Sheep and Goat Award in Dallas, on December 11, 1964.

The plaque reads: "W. G. Godwin For Outstanding Service To The Sheep and Goat Industry, — Sheep and Goat Raisers Association—1964."

I am grateful and proud to receive the award and will continue to give service as complementary of the award.

1964 was not the best year economically for the county; but considering all things from weather to management progress was made in over-all technology. Because of increasing efficiency in production a farmer will need to keep abreast of the latest scientific, economic, marketing and conservation developments if he is to meet competition. Expansion through management will offer the greatest economic return in 1965.

Friendship is a responsibility, not an opportunity.

Although 1964 lamb prices have been higher than in several years and will continue above this level in 1965, next year's lamb crop is expected to decrease four to six per cent.

Evidently, this year's favorable prices have not been high enough to encourage producers to retain large numbers of ewe lambs for breeding flocks in the U. S. as a whole.

Sheep and lamb slaughter in 1965 will be down this year, whether or not rebuilding or adding to breeding herds begins this coming year. If such rebuilding does begin, slaughter supplies will be substantially reduced, strengthening prices even more than expected.

January 1, 1964 inventory of sheep and lambs listed the smallest number on record. The sheep business should be a most profitable year.

Sheep numbers are down approximately 40% in the county, due to the '64 drought.

Seed supplies will be plentiful during the next few weeks.

Money invested in quality planting seed is good insurance. The use of high quality seed of adapted varieties is basic to a successful crop. As productive costs increase, it is poor business to gamble by using planting seed of low or unknown quality and those not adapted to the county.

When certified seed are purchased, producers are assured of varietal purity. There are many varieties of each crop and they differ greatly in yielding ability, height, insect and disease resistance, date of maturity, seed colors and other characteristics. New varieties that are released are superior in important characteristics to commercial varieties already in production or they would not have been released.

All are important factors in the production of higher yields and quality crops.

When livestock men of Schleicher county started to work on income tax for 1964 there was a pleasant surprise. Labor costs were down 30%, or the work done individually was 30% less, due to the absence of screwworm cases.

This does not include the reduction in loss of livestock that has been suffered in the past.

Taking the county as a whole, $150,000 saved to the industry.

There's no harm in having nothing to say. Just try not to say it out loud.

News Review of 1964 From the Files of the Success

Following is a review of the news in Eldorado for the past year as revealed in the files of The Success for the past 12 months. The dates at the beginning of each paragraph are the dates of the issue in which the news appeared.

January

2.—Chester Wheeler became the new county auditor, succeeding Mrs. Mabel Parker who had resigned.

It was the beginning of a political year and the first candidate placed his announcement in the paper.

Sam Oglesby in a Houston hospital following an attack while on a hunting trip.

Funerals reported for F. E. Chapple, 76, and for Skeet Griffin, 68. Also for Mrs. Geo. B. Moore, 92, aunt of Mrs. E. W. Brooks and Joe Christian.

9.—The cotton gin was approaching the end of their season with 2505 bales at that time.

Annual stock show was set for that week and a March of Dimes drive was on. Halbert, Speck and Wagley had announced for commissioner, and voters were reminded that it was poll tax paying time. The county published its annual financial statement. Total rainfall for 1963 was 15.31.

16.—Increasing the board of directors from six to eight was one of the principal pieces of business transacted at the annual stockholders' meeting of the First National Bank here in Eldorado. Elected were Paul Page and Jimmie Powell, both of whom are young Schleicher county ranchmen with extensive business interests.

Masons preparing to break ground for new temple. Forward Oil & Gas Co. of Angelo had two wildcats going; one on Case and a shallow on Keeney near town.

Kinser gets in the race for commissioner in Precinct One.

Schooley shows his third champion lamb in the 4-H and FFA show.

Edmiston announces for re-election for office of Sheriff.

23.—Forward's No. 1 Case well was being completed and appeared to be the best gasser in the Canyon sand, which oil men think runs from the Velrex field down to the Jones wells near Eldorado.

Workers were starting on the new Masonic temple and also a new educational annex for the First Baptist church.

E. C. Peters gets in the race for Commissioner, Precinct 1.

Schleicher county, in common with most of West Texas, was treated to a violent dust storm Sunday, which made housecleaning difficult for homemakers and driving hazardous.

The storm seemed to reach its peak about noon with winds as high as 60 miles per hour.

Firemen were forced to respond to an alarm at 11:20 a.m., during the storm's height. A stucco house on East street was ablaze with the entire roof on fire when the firemen arrived.

When four local women lost purses here within a period of ten days it convinced lawmen that there was more to it than just coincidence.

Sheriff Edmiston finally arranged for a bank employee to leave a purse in her car parked by the bank and then settled down to await developments.

It took a good deal of patience but it finally paid off when a 15-year-old Eldorado youth took the bait. When arrested he confessed to getting the other purses which were from Ethel Etheredge, Phyllis Montgomery, Jane Alexander, and Mrs. Ernest Hill.

The contractor—T. M. Jr. and Don Brown—is expected to put a seal coating on the several blocks of the Angelo highway here in town this week.

30.—Mothers March of Dimes was scheduled for that night.

Prospective candidates were reminded that Monday was the deadline for filing for a place on the primary ballot.

Ranchers were warned that a rabid skunk had been killed on the Koy ranch.

Funeral reported for Mrs. Mary
