DUANE BRANHAM'S GRANDMOTHER DIES IN SAN ANGELO

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Branham and family attended the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. S. R. Boyd Sr., in San Angelo Tuesday.

Mrs. Boyd, 78, died at Clinic-Hospital Sunday. The funeral was held at 10:00 a.m. Tuesday in Johnson's chapel.

Survivors include her husband, three sons, two daughters, a brother and sister, eight grandchildren and seven greats.

The overall increase is about 4 1/2% over the budget as presented to you last year and is due to increased prices and our share of the teachers' pay increase.

We have integrated our colored school and our present faculty will care for the 21 extra pupils involved, saving the salary of two colored teachers. Last year the colored patrons were given a choice and 7 were enrolled in our school this past year.

The administration issued the following statement on future plans for the school:

"At this particular time, we would like for you to look over the facilities that are outgrown, worn out, and badly in need of replacement and/or repair. We refer you to the following which are open for your inspection:

"The Vocational Agriculture Department in which 30 odd number of boys are being taught with classes and a shop in the same room.

"The Band Hall, 30 years old, built for 30 band pupils, and with a present enrollment of between 60 and 70 students in class at a time.

"Stage Curtains that are 15 years old and are worn, split, and tattered.

"The Athletic Field with no field house or dressing facilities for local or visiting players. We propose to move the facilities all next to the new gym (1957) which does have facilities. Too, an old track that has to be reworked and would be included in this project.

"The Elementary School where the hall and two classrooms have buckled floors. They are declared critical by our Board.

"In light of these factors, it is our desire to recommend to you and to our patrons a bond issue to cover the cost of this revamping program to insure adequate space for our children's instruction, and to keep our plant abreast with a present day instructional program.

"Note that no plans are included in this budget on our proposal as the plans are in an immature stage."

New Recreation Area Coming For Eldorado

County dirt moving equipment has been at work for some time in the area adjoining the airport and on the airport land itself and plans call for a new recreation area for both young folks and adults.

"One of the things coming up will be a 6-hole 'Pitch and Putt' golf course and driving range which will undoubtedly be popular with the large number of golf enthusiasts in Eldorado. Also in the works will be a 40 x 100 foot concrete slab designed primarily for a skating rink. (And dancing?)

Starting several weeks ago county equipment has opened up two new streets leading south to connect with the Big Lake highway.

Commissioners Of Housing Are Named

Last week the City Council met and Eldon Calk, mayor, and Lum Burk, city secretary, signed a contract with five newly-named Commissioners of the Housing Authority of the City of Eldorado.

Tom Ratliff is chairman, and Kenneth Vaughan and Clay Porter are also members. These three have two-year terms. Mrs. Max D. Wilkins is acting secretary and Mrs. Domingo Pina is another member; both of these have one-year terms.

The Commissioners are scheduled to meet and hire an attorney and an architect, then issue bonds backed by the government, for erecting low-rental housing units here in Eldorado.

Since the Housing Authority is just getting started, it may be a while before they can announce any definite plans or arrangements.

Post Script

American Independence Day—the Fourth of July—comes this year on Sunday, and a number of local business houses are also observing the following day, Monday the 5th, as a holiday.

Definitely slated to be closed on Monday will be the Post Office and all other federal offices, the Court House and City Hall, the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op, and several other local retail stores.

Concerns expected to be open on Monday will be service stations, cafes, and others serving the traveling public and tourist traffic.

There is no community celebration planned here for the Fourth, and local people are expected to help swell the crowds at the Brady jubilee, lakes within driving distance, and other area activities.

The traditional Fourth of July our Fathers and their Fathers knew has largely gone from the land. Fireworks, save for organized, licensed displays, have been widely outlawed on grounds of safety. With them have gone the orations, once commonly held in town squares and fairgrounds in which leaders in government and enterprise paid tributes to those who founded the nation, and who gave us the powers of mind and spirit which made possible the maintenance of our freedoms and the creation of material abundance.

All this is gone or generally so. The Fourth has become just one more holiday. And something that was at the heart of things, has gone out of American life. It needs to be restored if we are to save this nation from lethargy and cynicism within, as well as from our enemies without. And it can be if, on this and every Fourth, we give a quiet moment to reflecting on the values, our forebearers bought for us with blood and treasure. We must determine to do all we can to defend those values and pass them on, untarnished, to our children and our children's children.

The Eldorado Success welcomes the opportunity of giving the citizens of Schleicher county the personal touch in the news. Since this weekend is the Fourth of July and there are no special celebrations here we know that many of our good people will be out on the highways taking advantage of the long weekend.

But please, we would not like to carry your name in the obituary column due to an automobile accident or some unfortunate accident. So DRIVE CAREFULLY and observe all of the rules of safety and come back home and tell us where you have been.

As noted elsewhere in this Success issue, it was just 35 years ago today that Santa Fe's first excursion train came through here on its initial run over the new San Angelo to Sonora line.

That July 1st of 1930, interest was running high in the railroad and a large crowd turned out to greet the first passenger train. That train carried a number of West Texas dignitaries, who were greeted here by Mayor Fred O. Green and Judge J. A. Whitten and other local people who thronged the depot site on the east edge of town.

We're sure that a hot July sun beamed down on the proceedings, and doubt that trains back then were air conditioned, so it must have been a warm trip, to say the least, for all who made it.

Santa Fe planned originally to extend the line south from Sonora to Del Rio, but the effort died as the Great Depression set in.

In last week's Success we had a report on the Commissioners meeting in which statement was made that the county would pay $125,000 for purchasing right-of-way for the road extension in the southeast part of the county. An official pointed out to us that that would be the estimated cost of the road, and that right-of-way would cost only about a fifth of that amount.

If all goes as planned, this coming fall may be the final season for football games to be played at the present Eagle stadium south of town.

The school trustees are looking into the matter of moving the stadium to new location west of the high school gym which would make the entire school plant more compact.

For the past generation, the Eagle stadium has been the site of football games in the fall, track meets during the spring, and such diverse special events as an occasional fireworks display or Punt, Pass & Kick contest.

In earlier days, the site comprised the old Schleicher County fairgrounds where the county fair was held each fall. When the old Fair Association disbanded in the early 1930's, the several acres were acquired by the school for an athletic field. Grandstands, lighting, a concession stand, rest-rooms, fencing, and a lighted scoreboard were all facilities installed and improved over the years. Now, some major repairs are needed, along with a new field house, and the school trustees figure that the stadium can be moved in for about the same costs.

The acreage west of the high school gym would be ideally located near the dressing facilities of the gym, so that a separate field house would not be necessary. Some filling may be necessary on the west edge of the location, which fronts the Merton highway. The grandstands, fencing, etc., can be moved from the present stadium. The school trustees are looking into all of these matters, along with other school facilities that need repairing or replacing.

When the authorities at Sanderson reported two weeks ago that they could handle no more donations of clothing, etc., Eldorado churches found themselves with quantities of goods and no immediate place to distribute it.

In a Ministerial Alliance meeting this week the pastors here voted to continue to act as custodians of the donated goods and to distribute same as they thought best—provided there is no objection on part of the original donors.

Objections, anyone? If not, their plan will stand approved.

On page 6 of this issue appears Ratliff Store's announcement of its annual mid-summer clearance sale which runs for three days starting today. It has always been a popular event with Schleicher county shoppers.

The new city water well is expected to be tested out next Tuesday.

Casing was set and cemented about two weeks ago and last week the cement plug was drilled out and Leonard Wilson's rig was moved away. Palmer West reported yesterday that the well will be acidized Tuesday by Halliburton. This will be followed immediately with Billy Green pumping the well for a potential test. All the men connected with it expect that it will make a good well.

HAYNES YOUTH BREAKS LEG

Bobby Haynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Haynes, broke his leg last week end in a motor scooter accident near the school. He was taken to the Sonora hospital where he underwent treatment and observation. He is home now, and is reported making good progress, but will probably be confined home much of the remainder of the summer.

Bobby will be a member of the Freshman class this coming year in Eldorado High.

Pickle Crop Is Being Gathered

Ben Keel and John Mayo both put crews to work Monday gathering the first of this year's cucumber crop.

Ben has about 75 acres planted in pickles this year while John has about 25. In contrast to last year's disaster, the crop this year is apparently turning out well. Keel's crew of 35 hands picked over 20 acres of his 75 and were continuing their first picking on Tuesday and Wednesday. Their first picking totaled about 12,000 pounds.

Keel said his vines are literally loaded with tiny pickles which are expected to grade out as 1's and 2's by the time the field is ready for its second picking.

Pickers who have been hired are mostly from Eldorado, with some coming from Sonora.

The Brown-Miller Company of Texarkana have moved their grading equipment here and have set it up at Keel's place where he will be in charge of grading and shipping.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Shipman made a trip during the week end. They visited their son, L. D. Shipman and family at Fort Stockton and their eldest son, Monroe Shipman and his family at Carlsbad, New Mexico. Dee and Mary returned here about noon Monday.

News Of The Sick

Mrs. L. L. Watson is much improved at the Shannon hospital in San Angelo after suffering a virus attack. She is continuing a series of tests and check-ups.

Ernest Hill was brought home from the Sonora hospital last week and is doing nicely.

Ronnie Sauer is convalescing at home after undergoing surgery at the Clinic-Hospital recently.

Bruce Burton was ill at the Sonora hospital for several days recently.

Mrs. S. H. Cheatham, mother of Richard Cheatham, is at her home at 28 E. 24th St. in San Angelo after spending several weeks in Shanon hospital. She is reported as doing nicely.

Bert Page remains the same in the Brady hospital. The family have expressed thanks to the people of Eldorado for their thoughts, cards, etc., during this time.

Salvation Army Drive Begins This Morning

The first annual Salvation Army fund raising drive in Schleicher county kicked off this morning (Thursday) with a coffee and cakes meeting at the Java Junction Cafe. Bob McWhorter, committee chairman and drive chairman, and his assistants as well as members and administrators of the local unit were present for the occasion.

This is a very special year in the annals of Salvation Army. This is the Army's 100th Anniversary. Their theme this year is "A Century of Service To God and To Man." This year is Eldorado's first year as a local volunteer committee. Organized to bring the many wonderful charitable services to Eldorado on a local basis.

Mr. Bob McWhorter is chairman of Eldorado's Service Unit Committee. County Judge W. R. Bearce is vice chairman. Raymond Hall is treasurer and Sheriff Orval Edmiston is welfare secretary. Other members of the committee are Mr. T. P. Robinson, Tom Ratliff, Eldon Calk, W. T. Parker, and Rev. Kenneth Vaughan.

The Salvation Army has no highly paid personnel. The top general can make $75 per week. The Salvation Army conducts no widespread advertising campaign. In the past The Salvation Army's lassies have come to Eldorado 52 times a year to ask for your aid in carrying on their great charitable work. Now a group of local volunteers will ask for your help just once a year. Of the monies you so generously contribute, one-third will stay in Eldorado to be used as your local committee sees fit for emergency welfare. Two-thirds is sent to Division Headquarters in Dallas. This money is spent on disasters, on unfortunate unwed mothers, on underprivileged children. 99 cents of your dollar stays in Texas for welfare.

The Salvation Army's administrative cost is only eight cents of the dollar. If your local unit has insufficient funds to conduct their welfare program, Division headquarters will supplement your funds, no strings attached, until your next annual fund drive.

The Salvation Army disaster units were at Hale Center and Sanderson within a matter of hours, dispensing food, clothing, physical efforts, and disaster KNOW HOW. Your local Committee wants to carry on this wonderful program of helping those who need help. The local committee needs your help. If you are not contacted by a volunteer worker and wish to contribute to this worthy cause, please make your check payable to The Salvation Army, Eldorado, Texas. For any amount you wish to give the committee says Thank You. Remember this is for a year's gift. Joe L. Moore of Midland, Field Representative of The Salvation Army, was here this week helping local people set up the drive.

The Fourth of July is more than firecrackers, picnics and a one-day vacation from work. It is a day to fly proudly the flag of our country and to be thankful for the freedoms for which it stands. ther than on an individual basis.

4. The use of malathion LCV will reduce the frequency of summer spray—which brings into the second phase of cotton insect control problem—the bollworm.

The less insecticides used, the more beneficial insects, to minimize boll worm control.

5. The use of malathion LCV is the less toxic of all insecticides. Man or animal are not endangered when used on small or large scale.

6. Malathion LCV is accepted by the Pesticides Regulation Division as of February 5, 1965.

Other advantages:

1. Large area control programs may be encouraged without resorting to highly toxic persistent chemicals, allowing for a co-operative approach rather than individual.

2. The low cost of malathion LCV applications are of real value to the diapause programs directed toward reduction of over wintering populations. Killing the boll weevil just before going into hibernation, rather than crop production, has economic advantages that can reach astronomical figures for a region, county or individual.

3. Entomologists and insect survey teams will be helping keep check of the cotton insect situation.

The committee selected by cotton producers to represent them on the 28 county Rolling Plains Cotton Association, Inc., are Jo Ed Hill, president; George Mikeska, secretary, and Bill McWhorter.

Many a man has tried to pull the wool over his wife's eyes by using the wrong yarn.

Thanks to Schleicher county livestock men for surveillance the past few weeks in collecting and turning in suspected screwworm cases.

A relatively mild winter and a wet favorable spring has contributed to the screwworm buildup.

Last week marked the heaviest week of infestation, 46 cases, in Texas with Sterling, Real, and Terrell counties being added to the list.

Eradication officials continue to "man their guns," but must depend upon the livestock man to continue to assist by treating wounds, collection of samples and reporting cases as quickly as possible.

No screwworm cases in Schleicher county to date. With an assist from the weather the coming weeks, let us hope with confidence.

Don't worry about finding your station in life. There's always someone who'll tell you where to get off.

With summer and warm weather, comes the onrush of weekend boaters, loading boats on trailers and heading for the nearest lake for a week end of water sports.

Most people go boating for relaxation and fun. But safety is just as important in boating and water sports as it is around the farm or home.

One small mistake in a boat can mean disaster. Learning and heeding boating safety precautions means more fun for you, and can prevent your week end from being a disaster.

The following boating safety rules, if followed, can remove many of the hazards from water sports.

1. Never overload a boat with passengers. It has a rated capacity and that should be the limit.

2. Always have an extra paddle in the boat in case one is broken or lost.

3. Before leaving shore, ask an informed person about hazards in the lake or stream, such as location of swift water, whirlpools or hidden obstructions.

4. Wear shoes and clothing that can be removed easily in case the boat sinks or capsizes.

5. Have a life preserver for each passenger in the boat.

6. If a motor is to be used, make certain that it is the proper size or horsepower for your particular boat.

7. Be as cautious when steering a boat as when steering a car. Learn and observe the rules of the water such as speed limits, yielding right of way and forbidden zones.

8. Never stand in a small boat.

9. Wear clothing that will protect you from sunburn. Sunlight is intensified by reflection off the water.

10. Never go boating when winds are high or severe weather warnings are out.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

The bollweevil—new concepts and old problems.

One of the most progressive steps taken by cotton farmers of the county was by joining the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Association, Inc. in January of 1965. The main objective of the association is to check the most damaging of all cotton insects, the bollweevil. By the use of the latest technology available, here is the plan and technology available:

1. The use of malathion low volume concentrate (LVC). This means spraying cotton with 8-16 ounces of 95% malathion by weight to the acre without a carrier or the standard 3 gallons per acre (waters) with less efficient control. Malathion (LCV) gives better control than methyl parathion or other phosphates usually used. And is more effective than standard control with carrier.

The advantages are:

1. One plane can do the work of four, spraying 1200 acres in 2 hours and 46 minutes where by old methods spraying 1200 acres requires 11 hours and 6 minutes.

2. Spraying malathion LCV costs 1/2 the price of old methods for weevil control.

3. Producers can organize and share the cost to check weevils—on acreage basis. Co-operation ra-

The Spirit of '76

The valiant fathers of our country put at stake their 'lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor' in order to form these United States of America. Were it not for their fearless love of freedom, this land would not be what it is today. The freedom which we consider our birthright, and oftentimes foolishly take for granted, would not be ours, were it not for the gallant stand they took on July 4, 1776 at Philadelphia.

Let us the living today, who many times feel that we are faced with problems which have no solution, take heart from the example of these gallant fathers of our country. Let us pledge ourselves to upholding this great nation which was born from their foresight, gallantry, hard work and life's blood.

FIVE YEARS AGO June 30, 1960—A Homecoming celebration was coming up on the Fourth of July. Events on the agenda were to include assembly and registration in the morning, barbecue at noon, afternoon air show, parade, and a fireworks display that night at Eagle Stadium to close out the day. 12 YEARS AGO July 2, 1953—Raymond Mittel, Jimmie Whitten, and Herman Phillips won the state Land Judging Contest at A&M as the 4-H round-up was held. Dr. Jack Mowrey moved to Eldorado to be a partner with Dr. Wm. Lindsey. Halliburton rented the Cecil Meador business building and Lee Jennings moved here to work for the firm. James Williams succeeded Van McCormick as deputy in the sheriff's office. Buster Calcote died at the age of 52. Mrs. Eugene Gibson, a recent bride, was honored with a shower at the Methodist church.

35 YEARS AGO July 4, 1930—A crowd of about 1500 greeted the first passenger train through Eldorado on July 1st. A short program was held at the depot with Mayor Fred O. Green, Judge J. A. Whitten, and Joab Campbell participating. A rodeo and race meet was set July 4th and 5th here in Eldorado. Rev. Gray moved here to the newly completed manse of the Presbyterian church to serve as full-time pastor. At W. A. Reeder's Pennant Service Station you could buy Pierce Oil and Gasoline. As Little League Enters Second Half

Thursday, June 24

It just simply wasn't the Tigers' night last Thursday when they played the Christoval Cougars. Christoval ran in ten scores in the first inning, two more in the second and another two farther down the line. Tigers were weak on pitching as well as batting and were shut out to the tune of 14 to 0.

Friday, June 25

The Red Sox and White Sox put on a jam-up ball game Friday night to close out the first half of the season. Final score was White Sox, 4, and Reds, 3. Randy Black pitched the entire game for White Sox, while the Reds used Bobby Lively and Archie Nixon.

Saturday—All Star

The all-star game Saturday night was just what the name implied. The boys all played like stars and produced the best game of the season.

A team made up of players from the White Sox and Tigers (White Tigers) took on one made up from the best players from Red Sox and Cougars (Red-Cougars).

The White Sox had not been defeated so far this season, but this time they came out on the small end of the score.

For two full innings it was pretty much "three-up and three-down," but in the third each team squeezed in one run, tying it up. Red-Cougars got another score in the bottom of the fourth to put them in the lead, and that remained the score for the game.

White-Tigers threatened in the top of the fifth as well as the 6th, but good defensive play on part of their opponents prevented them from crossing home plate, and the game ended at 9:15 after 5½ innings of play.

This was a fast game with very few fielding errors and very few bases-on-balls.

By innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6—
White-Tigers 0 0 1 0 0 0—1
Red-Cougars 0 0 1 1 0 0—2

Monday, June 28

As usual the Tigers couldn't win for losing Monday when they played the top-ranking White Sox, who defeated them 29 to 7. It was a slow moving game with many bases-on-balls.

Tuesday, June 29

It looked like the Cougars were defeating the Red Sox Tuesday night when they were leading 2 to 1 at the end of the 5th inning. But in the top of the 6th Red Sox started a batting rally which brought in 5 scores. Then the Cougars were shut out in their last time at bat.

Cougars got their first run in the second inning, and the Reds tied it up in the 4th when Steve Sykes knocked one over the fence for a home run.

Innings: 1 2 3 4 5 6
Red Sox 0 0 1 0 5—6
Cougars 0 1 0 1 0—2

DISASTER WORK REQUIRES UNIQUE SERVICE—A Salvation Army officer gives cartons of fresh drinking water to flood victims when local water was contaminated. Often, Salvation Army workers in disaster canteens are first to arrive on the scene. Thousands of victims and rescue workers can be served entire meals from these mobile canteens.

DISASTER STRIKES PEOPLE AND ANIMALS ALIKE and a Salvation Army worker finds compassion for all. Although the family was safely evacuated following devastation of their home, their faithful pet refused to leave. The dog received his daily portion of food until reclaimed by his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker left Wednesday on a 10-day vacation trip; they expect to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Baker in Kansas City, Mo.

Mary Hoover expects to leave today, Thursday, to return to Dallas and her position with Braniff Airways.

Melody Davidson is attending Girl Scout Camp Jo-Jan-Van near Barksdale this week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Davidson.

Mrs. Gary McShan of San Angelo and Mrs. Ardis Cansler of Christoval visited Mrs. Jesse Morris of Spokane at the Van Dusen home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn Hazelwood of Holmes, Pa., and Lonny, Danny and Mary visited from Tuesday to Saturday with Lilburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hazelwood and other relatives. He works for the Soil Conservation Service. They left Saturday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith of Llano.

Saturday a get-together was held at Richards Park in Brady. Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteley, Mr. and Mrs. Laman Hazelwood, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hazelwood; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carroll of Andrews; and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whiteley, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Whiteley and Paula and Ken, all of Brady.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Calk of Laredo and Mrs. Harold Storm of Denver, Colorado, visited Mayor and Mrs. Eldon Calk last week end. Mr. and Mrs. Calk were taking their daughter, Mrs. Storm, home after a two-weeks' visit with them. They will return in about two weeks from their Denver visit to attend the wedding of their niece, Pamela Calk, to Lewin Plunkett on July 10.

Spending the week end at Kingsland were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Kerr and family of El Paso, Mr. and Mrs. Rony Kerr and family of Brownwood, and Happy Kerr, Bill Edmiston, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Love all of Eldorado.

Austin—Two of the three redistricting plans passed by the last Legislature soon will come under courtroom attacks.

In a legislative redistricting case in Houston, motions will be filed asking that the new plan for dividing Texas into 150 districts for the House of Representatives be declared unconstitutional.

State Republican Chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr. has announced that the Harris county plaintiffs in the Congressional redistricting case, headed by George Bush, will drop out of active roles in the case because that county was treated fairly in the redistricting plan.

But the Republicans plan to bring in new plaintiffs from Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, Midland, Ector, Jefferson, Orange and Brazoria counties to try to convince the three-judge federal court in Houston that the new law violates several apportionment principles.

On legislative redistricting, state Reps. Jake Johnson of San Antonio and Robert C. Eckhardt of Houston, who joined in the suit which led to present reapportionment procedures being declared unconstitutional, will ask the court to say that the new plan violates the U. S. Constitution, too.

Main attack is expected to be purely on the question of whether county-wide districts with more than one legislator serve to discriminate against minority, racial and political groups.

No attack is expected on the plan passed to divide the Texas Senate into 31 new districts.

Auto Rates To Go Up

A State Insurance Board public hearing confirmed the earlier warning that auto insurance rates will go up an average of some 13.4% on August 1.

Actually, new rates for property damage, liability and collision lines carried by most motorists will be increased more than 20% in most areas.

A rising toll from traffic accidents is blamed for the hike.

Insured drivers paid $404 million in premiums last year against $198 million settled by companies on claims. Another $16 million in pay-outs is pending. Board decides premiums should go up when more than 63 cents of the premium dollar goes to pay claims and adjustment costs.

Building, Sales Down

Texas building and retail sales dropped off in May, according to UT's Bureau of Business Research.

Sales fell off about 1% from the April level, in contrast to a normal seasonal gain of about 3%. The January-May total is 4% above the same period for 1964 but has not kept pace with the nationwide increase. Trade is expected to improve with repeal of federal excise taxes.

Building authorization decreased 13% last month to the second-lowest level in the last 12 months.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court affirmed Court of Civil Appeals finding that the two-year-old law which placed bonded liquor exporters along the Mexico border under state regulation is unconstitutional.

In two separate opinions—from Harris and Matagorda counties—court held that holders of hurricane insurance policies which specifically excluded water damage coverage could not collect for flood water damages to their homes from the Sept. 11, 1961, Hurricane Carla.

Attorney General Speaks

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has held that San Marcos Consolidated Independent School District cannot use Martindale District tax assessments for 1965, though the districts have, consolidated. All property throughout the district must be assessed at an equal and uniform rate, Carr concluded.

In other opinions, the attorney general ruled: Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner may not approve a credit union as a depository for other credit unions; Dallas County Junior College may contract with the county tax assessor-collector to assess and collect its ad valorem taxes; and

In time of national emergency, the governor has authority to direct implementation of the emergency resources management plan, to order state agencies to assume their responsibilities and to create a "state executive reserve."

Appointments

Gov. John Connally has named Dist. Atty. Edwin F. Berliner of El Paso to the new 171st District Court, which goes into operation on September 1. He appointed W. Barton Boling, El Paso lawyer, to succeed Berliner as district attorney.

Connally appointed Garrett Morris, Fort Worth attorney and insurance executive, to Texas Public Safety Commission to succeed Jake Jacobsen, Austin attorney who recently joined President Johnson's staff. Morris is a native of Nocona.

Commission establishes plans and policies for Department of Public Safety, state law enforcement agency.

UT Lands Leased

University of Texas leased 47,014 acres of land for $10,106,000 at the 50th public auction of oil and gas leases.

Active bids were drawn on 159 of 167 tracts offered. All leases were made for five-year terms and a one-sixth royalty on mineral production. Highest and second highest bids—$260,000 and $225,000—were on 320 acre tracts in Ward county.

Receipts from auction will swell the Permanent University Fund to over $442,000, Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said.

July 4 Warning Issued

Homer Garrison, Department of Public Safety director, estimates that 31 persons will die in Texas traffic accidents during the three-day July 4 holiday.

DPS plans maximum enforcement with additional personnel from other uniformed services to augment the regular Highway Patrol.

"Operation Motorcade," a DPS-directed coordinated effort among state agencies to reduce traffic accidents, will focus public attention on added dangers of holiday travel.

Governor's Vetoes

Just before the veto deadline Governor Connally vetoed the bill which would have allowed banks, savings and loans associations and others to charge up to 17¼% interest on certain types of loans.

"No evidence was presented to the Legislature to justify these specific rates, either on the basis of reasonableness or need," the Governor said in his veto message. He said he also was concerned about a provision of the bill which would have let lenders require borrowers to purchase or provide insurance as security for a loan. That provision, he noted, would not have limited in any way "the number or types of insurance coverages which (could have been) required."

Connally vetoed a total of 40 bills passed by the 59th Legislature. Among them were:

Insecticide bill which would have affected both commercial insecticide applicators and farmers and ranchers; Bill which would have authorized the expansion of the Upper Colorado River Authority to include Coleman, Concho, Irion, McCulloch, Menard, Runtels and Sterling counties; and Bills creating Northeast Texas State College at Texarkana and Permian State College at Odessa.

ELDORADO AND SONORA, TEXAS

On The Screen . . .

James Stewart At Best In His Latest Motion Picture, 'Shenandoah'

Ranking as a landmark among Civil War motion pictures, and starring James Stewart in the leading role, "Shenandoah" comes to the screen of the Eagle Drive-In Theatre on Sunday and Monday nights. It is significant and superior, and was not unworthy of the personal appearances of James Stewart, director Andrew V. McLaglen and a number of others for a series of premieres in Texas just a month ago.

Stewart, a quizzical and elderly farmer who is as wedded to a cigar as General Grant, is the central force, and almost alone.

No slaveholder he, but a hard-working yeoman, with six husky sons and a bright daughter to keep his Virginia farm going. Slavery or no slavery, states rights or federal sovereignty are all the same to him. Just leave him and his tribe alone.

"Quit shooting up my place," he barks at embattled Union troops. "Get off my place," he tells the Rebel purchasing agents who want his horses for the Confederate cavalry. His boys, who obey their patriarch like Old Testament sons, pitch in for a stirring and victorious free-for-all.

Stewart and family go to church Sundays, usually late, because Stewart's sainted but dead wife had asked it.

When his youngest (Philip Alford of "To Kill a Mockingbird" and now two years older, 16) is picked up by the Feds, mistaking him for a Reb, Stewart makes the war his business. He and his other sons and hands halt a prisoner train and burn it up, freeing the Rebs for the heck of it.

The missing lad eludes him until Appomattox, but other parts of the war come to Stewart. His elder son, Patrick Wayne, and his wife, Katharine Ross, are left home to guard the farm, and are slain by a trio of Union looters. Another Stewart son is shot by a trigger-happy Confederate sentry.

His daughter (Rosemary Forsyth) marries handsome Doug McClure, a Confederate officer, who is torn from her side at the altar by army orders. Later Stewart brings them together and improvises a honeymoon chamber.

Stewart settles down to head-of-the-table rule and a total lack of conviction that the Civil War made any sense.

It did make trouble for everybody so "uninvolved" a man as Stewart had a big quota of heartaches.

The star plays his role attractively, with sharp characterization and at no loss of his ingratiating, slow-motion mannerisms. The Misses Ross (Katherine) and Forsyth appear to have significant acting flair.

Young Messrs. McClure and Wayne get little script help but impinge sturdy personalities. Glenn Corbett makes pathetic his death from the gunshot of a jumpy guard. Stewart is ready to wreak vengeance on this unfortunate Reb, but finally simmers down, in one of his better scenes, for a "father's curse."

The several battle scenes are probably spliced from older productions but they are beautifully integrated and give "Shenandoah" an epic stature.

McLaglen's direction is sensitive and direct. The 105 minutes of Technicolor footage give depth and breadth to his many characters.

Ash Fencing New Line At Southwestern Co.

Since he moved here from Christoval and went into the fencing business several years ago, Rusty Gibson's chain link fences have become a familiar sight in this area. Gibson's Southwestern Fence Company also handles cedar fencing, staves, redwood and other types, and just recently began the manufacture of a line of white ash hardwood fencing.

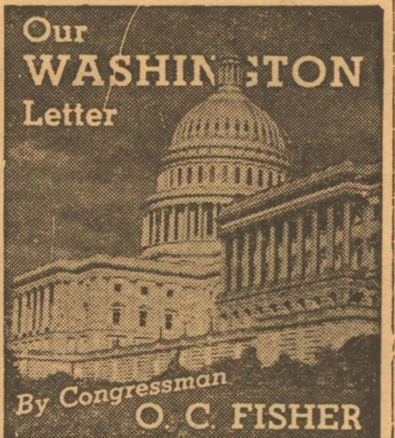

The new line is result of a supply of white ash wood which is shipped in here from Oklahoma and Arkansas for converting into the finished product.

The staves are put through a special machine that forms them into round poles about seven feet long. These are cut down the middle, and the resulting half-rounds are then mounted on panels eight feet long, and trimmed off to be 5 feet high.

Already, Gibson has fenced in the back yard of his neighbor, Glenn Parker, in western Eldorado with the new fencing which has a rustic look and is treated with a preservative. "They can also be finished any other desired way, or left with just the preservative," Gibson said.

Besides selling the new line through his own Southwestern Fence Co. here in Eldorado, Rusty has also lined up the Big Spring Fence Co. and the San Angelo Fence Co. to handle the product. Gibson reports that he keeps as many as six men at a time at work.

Roy Williams of Fort Worth, a brother-in-law of E. H. Sweatt, was visiting in Eldorado this week.

The new Department of Housing and Urban Development, whose head—Robert C. Weaver, a Negro, is to become a member of the President's cabinet, is sure to swell the ranks of employees in that agency. There are already 13,500 people working in federal housing, and all of these, and others, will be lumped into the new bureau.

Designed to facilitate federal grants to the big urban centers, the additional costs of this expansion cannot be estimated at this time. Boost in terms of additional employees and new federal housing aids and grants, housing is to become another of the giants in the sprawling federal aid-grant complex. A mammoth $6 billion housing measure is now in the works, and it includes the administration's novel rent subsidy project which, if enacted, may see Uncle Sam paying a fourth of the monthly rentals for up to a half million tenants in the big cities.

When a few months ago LEJ playfully lifted one of his beagles by the ears, a mighty cry went up from the dog lovers. The dog probably enjoyed it, but not the sensitive readers who made like they were horrified. This incident gave rise to quotations from the Holy Script, including this one: "He that passeth by, and meddeth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears." (Proverbs 26:17)

Reminiscent of the late Dr. Townsend's grandiose plan for big pensions for all over 60 during depression days—when the dollars to support the project came rolling in, Dr. Martin Luther King's 1965 model for money appeal is likewise paying handsome profits to King & Company. An aide has just revealed that the King's treasury has grossed $1 million this year. And he said the Selma march had a lot to do with it.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

Last year I ordered over 100 bulletins on how to make pickles and relishes. The cucumber crop was a disappointment and I had fewer calls for them than I anticipated.

As it turned out, however, I'm glad I have them—the bulletin is now out of print and people from all over the state are asking for them. If you need one, just call for it; I'll be glad to mail one to you before they are gone. Everything is covered, all the way from pickled okra to bread and butter pickles. Right now it looks like a good year for vegetables; take advantage of the summer bounty while you may.

If I can keep this tasting tea game going long enough I'll have material easily to fill a dozen columns. Family and friends are doing a beautiful job of sharing their prize finds with us—you and me.

The latest is delicious and the name tickles me besides.

"Hello Dolly" Cookies

Melt 1 stick butter or oleo in square pan. Add— 1 1/4 cup graham cracker crumbs. Press in bottom of pan; on top put: 1 can coconut 12 oz. chocolate chips or bits 1 cup broken nut meats. Dribble one can of Eagle brand condensed milk over all. Bake 300 degrees for 40 minutes. Cut in squares while hot.

Cornbread goes with a lot of things and it goes with my idea of something perfectly delicious with almost any vegetable, plain cornbread, that is.

But this cornbread that I'm going to tell you about is not plain. It is Jalapeño Cornbread and I can taste it now with a pot of red beans or a dish of fresh blackeyed peas, or squash, or some snapped pintos or—just take your choice.

Really it's more than bread—it's a kind of main dish all by itself—use more Jalapeños and heat it up or else and cool it down; take your choice but do choose.

Jalapeño Cornbread

3 cups Cornbread mix (I used yellow mix) 3 eggs, beaten 2 1/4 cups Milk 1/2 cup Cooking Oil or bacon drippings 3 teaspoons sugar 1 large onion, grated 1 no. 2 can Cream Style Corn 1 1/2 cup grated cheese 1 teaspoon baking powder one 12-oz. can Jalapeños, chopped fine. 3/4 teaspoon soda. Mix well. Bake at 450 degrees for 30-40 min. till well done. Crisp, chopped bacon is good added to this mixture.

Cool Ideas For Hot Days

This idea worked fine for me at 4-H camp. It might work as well for you and your family on a vacation trip: I put all the articles of clothing to be used for one day in a small plastic bag—everything except slacks or skirts. At 5:30 a.m. it's a great convenience not to have to reach for an article of clothing but once. And another assurance is that if it's in the bag, it's clean.

Now that I've thought of it this would work in drawers at home for children—of all ages.

I hope that no one gets sick at your house this summer but if they do and need a meal or two in bed a muffin pan makes a dandy sick-bed meal tray. Individual foods can be placed in custard cups and these fitted in the muffin rings. Even a glass of liquid won't tilt on this tray.

Modern cabinets lack one thing—there is rarely ever a place to fasten a food chopper. Protect the ironing board with a cover to fit the need and fasten the grinder there.

Summer time calls for cleaning. Varnished cabinets or any kind of varnished wood work can be renewed by rubbing with equal parts turpentine, linseed oil and strong vinegar. Shake well before using. The oil and vinegar need to be mixed. Steel wool or a piece of wool cloth makes a good applicator.

At a Club Meeting recently one of the guests remarked that she was saving old nylon hose to make a hooked rug. If you are doing the same thing slip the hose over a fruit jar. Hold the open end of the jar with the left hand, turn and cut. Easy to get a uniform width this way.

REUNION SUNDAY

The family of Mrs. Claude Doyle held a reunion in Louise Hays Park in Kerrville Sunday which was attended by 65 relatives. Attending from Eldorado were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Doyle and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doyle and their boys, Jimmy Dan and Mike.

Mrs. Sherwood (Ann) Barker and little daughter, Jamie Lyn, have returned to their home in Dickinson, Texas, after a week long visit in the R. L. Ballew and Bradley homes. Mrs. Ballew and Ray Lewis took them to Austin Sunday to meet Mr. Barker.

Attend Meeting At Brownwood

H. A. Belk and two sons, H. A. Jr., and Jimmy left Monday morning for Brownwood to attend a 2-day carburation school put on by the Butane Dealers Association.

The school is designed to instruct dealers in the most efficient methods of converting tractors, trucks and pick-ups from gasoline to butane fuel.

Mrs. F. M. Bradley has received recent communications from her youngest son, Tom, saying he is aboard the aircraft carrier, Bonhomme Richard, which is participating in the Viet Nam conflict.

Methodist Notes

This Sunday, the Rev. Dempsey G. Salter will officiate at Holy Communion at the 10:45 morning worship hour. Communion starts at the 1965-66 year are Mrs. B. L. Blakeway, Mrs. Elton McGinnes, and Mrs. Dick Preston.

Sunday afternoon, Rev. Salter will leave for Mount Wesley at Kerrville to serve as a counselor for the 9th and 10th grade assembly. There will be no Sunday night service.

Usher-in-charge for July is Pete Peters.

The Official Board met last week and Joe Gault was elected chairman, succeeding E. C. Peters. The church budget for the coming year was approved. It was recommended by the Commission on Finance, and totals $13,830.50.

Flowers will be provided in the church during July by the Pioneer Circle.

DeLongs Celebrate 100th Anniversary Of Settling In Texas

Around 55 descendants and friends of George Washington DeLong met in Christoval June 27th for a reunion commemorating the 100th anniversary of the arrival of Wash DeLong in Texas. He came to this area while serving as a scout for Captain Bailey's troops out of Fort Belnap, settling at Lipan Springs. Here his first child, Dave DeLong, was born in 1866, being the first white child born in this area. While living here Samuel M., James H. and George W. were born. Later the family moved to the South Concho where they started one of the first irrigation projects in Texas.

Mrs. Cora Kennedy and Mrs. Minnie Bowen, late residents of San Angelo, were born here.

Dave DeLong told of Indian raids while in their early days here. He remembered their taking farm produce into Fort Concho and their giving candy to the Indian women and children in the stockade there. Dave's father, Wash DeLong, and a friend named Love were on a trip to Big Spring to get salt and were attacked by Indians and Love was shot in the ear by a poisoned arrow. Wash took him to Fort Concho. Later in an Indian fight, Wash DeLong lost an arm and lay ill in Fort Concho for 7 months.

It was voted to hold this reunion each year on last Sunday of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Carroll of Andrews spent Friday night here with Mr. and Mrs. Laman Hazelwood.
