Golf Club Off To Encouraging Start

Early last week a spokesman for the new El Dorado Golf Club reported that no less than 35 families had already signed up for membership and that it was confidently predicted that the total would reach 50 some time in May. Every pretty day is seeing increased activity on the greens—often by Eldorado high school boys and girls. At present the course is free to anyone wishing to try it out, and it will continue that way for several weeks until a formal organization is set up, which is expected to take place the latter part of May and before the close of school. Annual membership dues have been set at $40 per year. Those wishing to handle their dues on an installment basis may do so through Jo Ed Hill at First National Bank. As the organization develops there will be need for a concession stand and rest rooms, and these matters are now being studied, as well as new lighting facilities for the putting green and skating rink. Farris Nixon has been temporarily employed as park maintenance man.

Robert Marlin Is In Commissioner Race

Robert H. Martin, rancher in the northeast part of Schleicher county, has recently filed his candidacy for the unexpired term of Commissioner of Precinct 3, subject to action of the May 7 primary. Robert, son of the late Pat Martin, was born and reared in Schleicher county and succeeded his father in the operation of the family ranch. Pat Martin was a long-time county commissioner and from him Robert has inherited a rancher's interest in good roads, schools and the general welfare of the county as a whole. He asks the consideration and support of all voters in Precinct Three in the forthcoming election, Saturday, May 7th.

Postal Savings Plan To Be Discontinued

Postmaster Bernard Carr today urged depositors with postal savings certificates to withdraw their accounts from Post Offices as soon as possible or as soon as the anniversary dates on their certificates are reached. The Postal Savings System was abolished March 27, 1966, with the signing of Public Law 8-377 by President Lyndon B. Johnson. Your Postmaster pointed out that as of April 28, 1966, no deposits can be accepted and no new accounts can be opened. He said that interest will end on the anniversary date of each certificate. The Postmaster said that for convenience all certificates held by a depositor may be cashed at the same time and interest will be paid for each full month they have been outstanding beyond three months from interest date. The Postal Savings System was established January 1, 1911, to get money out of hiding and to attract savings of a large number of immigrants who were accustomed to saving at Post Offices in their own country; also, it served as a safe depository for people who had lost confidence in private banks. Today, however, with the growth of banking facilities paying much higher interest rates than the 2% interest per annum paid on Postal Savings, the System has outlived its usefulness for the American people. The Postmaster noted that as of June 30, 1965, there were 997,029 depositors holding certificates in 3,130 Post Offices throughout the nation. The number of depositors has been declining, he said, at a rate of about 6,500 per month. The Postmaster said unpaid deposits remaining in the Post Office beyond June 30, 1967, would be transferred to the Treasury Department in a trust fund and would be available for payment with time limitation whenever proper claims are received.

GUEST EDITORIAL

By Ed Meador

On September 23rd last, a group of local business men, through the auspices of the Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce, met with representatives of the Texas Tourist Agency, Texas Industrial Relations Committee, and the Texas Historical Society, to determine what this community could do to better develop its resources, enhance its beauty, and improve the business climate of the town and county.

Among other things, one of the outgrowths of this meeting was the idea to change the spelling of the name of our city to "El Dorado" in order that it might fit more properly into the area community made up of our sister cities of San Angelo, Sonora, Ozona and Del Rio, all Spanish names historically rich in Spanish tradition. Texas is standing today on the verge of an explosion of tourists into the state. Last year alone travelers from outside our state brought something over fourteen million tourist dollars into the coffers of Texas businesses. Governor John Connally has recently estimated that more than a billion dollars will come from tourism in 1966. Mrs. Lyndon Johnson's recent visit to the Big Bend National Park has focused nation-wide attention on West Texas in particular, and the forthcoming visit by President Johnson and President Diaz of the Republic of Mexico to Amistad Dam near Del Rio will serve to put our particular area in the spotlight of national interest.

Last Fall, most every civic organization, service club, governing agencies, and a good majority of the businesses of this community endorsed letters to the Postmaster General requesting that he approve the change in the spelling of the name. On a reply that some legal authority from the city government was needed for such approval, the City Council passed a resolution that the spelling of the name of our city be in the two word form of "El Dorado". A recent petition to the City Council protested the resolution, and it will now be necessary for a city-wide election to be held to determine the desires of a majority of the people. Of the 43 people signing the petition of protest, 9 are not residents of the city, one of the two businesses represented subsequently withdrew its name, one was not of age, and three names were subscribed by others.

If this community is to retain an effective place for itself, everything in our power must be done to help. We cannot sit idly on our hands and hope that time alone will make better things. We must actively work and draw upon ourselves to make this a community that will appeal to our visitors and entice them to stop and stay awhile.

If a change in the spelling of the name of our city to "El Dorado" would enhance our position even in the slightest way, it would be worth while. The Chamber of Commerce has approved our participation in "Operation Sparkle", along with 56 other West Texas towns. The purpose behind the operation is to enable these communities to present the brightest appearance possible to those thousands of tourists who will be passing through the area en route to the Olympic Games in Mexico City in 1968, and the Hemis-Fair in San Antonio, and to Amistad Dam in 1969. Let's put our shoulders to the wheel and make "El Dorado" or "Eldorado" as the case may be, an outstanding attraction!

Peace Corps Test Set For May 14th In Angelo

Eldorado area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 9:00 a.m., on Saturday, May 14, in Room 324, Federal Building, in San Angelo. The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas.

Week's Rainfall Averages 1 1/2 Inch

Rain which came again Sunday and added to that of the week before has brought precipitation up to about 1 1/2 inches over most of the county for the past two weeks. Clemens Sauer in Reynolds reported a good shower Sunday that measured about 65-hundredths, and expected to start planting feed as soon as the ground dried off. Mary Davis Coupe ranch in the Kaffir community reported a nice 1 1/2 inch for the week, and Parker Bros. in Bailey Ranch area came up with one inch. A number of ranchers were not at their phones Tuesday, but Billy Frank Meador was contacted and he reported 1 1/4 inches at home, and 2 1/4 inches over on the north side of the ranch. Everyone appreciated the rain, but are hoping for more as usual.

Elton Harris Wounded

Staff Sgt. Elton Harris was wounded in action in Vietnam on April 13th, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odie Harris were notified recently. Report received here was that a mine exploded close to the sergeant's tank, inflicting an eye injury on him. Elton has been in the Army since 1954.

KENNETH COMING HOME

Mrs. Kenneth Doyle Saturday received a telephone call from her husband in Venezuela, stating that he expected to arrive home by Monday, May 1st. Kenneth, who is employed with a drilling company in South America, has good reasons for returning home at this time. His daughter, Joan, is in the Senior graduating class in Eldorado High School, and daddy has to be here for the big doings.

Some Days It Doesn't Pay To Get Up . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McWhorter feel they've had their share of bad luck or petty annoyances, more or less, lately. During the week-end, Mr. McWhorter was installing a gas dryer in his home. An L-pipe was turned to the right and he wanted it to the left, so he took a wrench and a cheater and using considerable force tried to turn it the way he wanted. The gas burner and mechanism of the dryer broke loose. It looked like a wrecked car underneath. Then the bearings went out on the washing machine causing it to flood everything. A handle in the lavatory broke off in Rita's hand. The commode went out. An aluminum screen door is broken, requiring a pair of pliers to open it. The five-year-old son, Paul, fell Tuesday in front of the postoffice and cut his chin on the concrete sidewalk, requiring five stitches at the doctor's office. Rita had painted a picture and left it on the floor in the bedroom to dry. After going to bed, she was stung by a black and red wasp. Dan jumped up to turn on the light and stepped on the picture. Mr. and Mrs. McWhorter are hoping this cool front doesn't blow in a dust storm. They're having the house repainted since a nearby gas well sprayed oil all over it a while back. Some good came with all the trouble, though. Mrs. Jack Etheredge gave Paul a nickel to spend "just as he pleased" after he was hurt, the first one he had in all his life (to spend). He took considerable time choosing the sucker he was willing to give the nickel for.

Petition Out On Local Name Change

At a Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday night in the Court House, a petition was circulated proposing to the City Council of the Town of Eldorado that an election be called by the council on the changing of the name Eldorado, to El Dorado. That was the main item of business on the agenda at the meeting which was attended by about 35 people. W. G. Godwin discussed future developments of the area, and E. C. Peters presided. A slide shown was depicting what other towns have done in the way of sprucing up their business districts, providing better park facilities, and advertising what they have to offer by way of road signs. The Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce is joining others over the state in promoting a general clean-up campaign for the year 1968. That is the year that the Hemis-Fair will be held in San Antonio and the Lions International Convention will be held in Dallas.

Another Producer For Schleicher County

Third Pennsylvanian and fourth Canyon gas producers and a location south extension to both pays were assured in the Velrex, Southwest oil and gas field of Schleicher county with the flowing of gas from both zones at Gulf Oil Corp., No. 1 W. E. DeLong, in 6-TT-TCRR 11 1/2 miles northwest of Eldorado. The well kicked off and flowed gas at the daily rate of 2.35 million cubic feet through a 24/64-inch choke and Pennsylvanian perforations at 7,385 to 7,410 feet, which had been reacidized with 500 gallons, flushed with 16 barrels of crude and all load swabbed back. This zone has been shut in. It kicked off and flowed 15 barrels of load salt water, plus gas at the daily rate of 2.53 million cubic feet, through a 24/64-inch choke and Canyon perforations between 6,655-57 feet. It was continuing to flow to clean. The field has one Ellenburger gas and one Wolfcamp oil producer.

Completing 25 Years

CHARLES A. WIMER

Charles Wimer, district superintendent for Northern Natural Gas Co., flew to Omaha, Nebraska, early this week where he was one of the honorees at a banquet honoring all employees of the firm who are completing 25 years of employment this year. Mr. Wimer flew to Dallas and Omaha on Monday. The banquet was held in Omaha Monday night, and he returned home late Tuesday. Mr. Wimer began his career as a chemist on November 10, 1941, at the Mullinville plant. He joined the operating crew as second oiler in 1943, and was later promoted to oiler. From 1944 to 1949 he was second engineer and shift engineer. In 1950 he became maintenance mechanic and master mechanic. He was transferred to the Hugoton, Kansas, plant in 1953 as assistant compressor plant superintendent. Austin, Texas.—Candidates for statewide offices are getting set for the final week of their campaign.

Democrats will vote at their May 7 primary for seven statewide offices.

Spotlight has been on the race for attorney general. Candidates are Galloway Calhoun of Tyler, Crawford Martin of Hillsboro and Franklin Spears of San Antonio.

Spears pledges efforts to improve law enforcement. Martin is emphasizing his 27 years' experience as a lawyer and his long service as state senator and secretary of state. Calhoun identifies himself as the "only real conservative" in the race.

All three candidates are eying the large number of voters who apparently still are undecided despite their long campaigns.

Gov. John Connally, seeking a third term, virtually has ignored attacks on his administration by Stanley Woods of Houston. The third candidate for governor, who is Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Brenham, has not actively campaigned.

Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, running as Woods' ticketmate, is opposing Lt. Gov. Preston Smith.

Paul B. Haring of Goliad is waging a spirited campaign against incumbent Railroad Commissioner Byron Tunnell of Tyler.

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr is opposed by political newcomer John R. (Jack) Willoughby of Houston for the U. S. Senate nomination.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has opposition from Fred Williams of Del Rio.

Only contested statewide judicial race is between incumbent Court of Criminal Appeals Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan and District Judge John F. Onion of San Antonio.

Light voter interest is expected to be reflected in a predicted 50% voter turnout.

Population Continues Up

Texas is growing at the rate of 1.5% a year, UT's Population Research Center reports.

An estimate of population shows that there were 10,336,141 Texans on April 1, 1965. This is a gain of 756,464 over the 1960 census.

Irrigated farming areas in the High Plains produced the two fastest-growing counties—Randall and Deaf Smith. Respective growth rates are 7.7% and 7.1% a year. Hartley county, in the top of the Panhandle, has gained 7% a year.

But Texans still are moving to town. Study shows that the 21 metropolitan counties, which contain cities of 50,000 and more, gained 637,374 of the total. Only three of the 21 failed to gain. They are Midland, Ector and Cameron counties.

Pollution Problem Increases

Population growth essentially is to blame for growing problems of stream pollution. For example, the state water plan, soon to be released, predicts that Fort Worth and Dallas will be discharging 750,000 acre feet of waste water a year into the Trinity river.

This prediction has the Texas Water Pollution Control Board looking for ways to require cities and industries to treat their wastes so they will not cause pollution. Board must adopt a plan for maintaining good quality water in all Texas streams by June 30, 1967, or Federal agencies will take over the job.

Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, has appropriated $25,000 to be used, with matching money from the Pollution Control Board, to devise a work plan for a $4 million study of how to keep the Galveston Bay System clean.

Colleges

Population growth is producing more college students. Coordinating Board forecasts that enrollments in 17 state colleges and universities will double by 1978—from 115,015 to 260,097.

This determination was made for the purpose of splitting up the $156 million Texans will pay in the next 12 years on the 10-cent per $100 ad valorem tax to finance college buildings at the 17 schools. Schools in the University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems get their building money from their permanent fund endowment.

A $20 million bond issue to finance the first two years of student loans under an overall $85 million program was approved by the Board.

Crop Of Tourists Rises

Texas Highway Department reports that 12,683,000 tourists visiting Texas by car in 1965 spent $613,148,000—16.4% more than in 1964.

Governor Connally, pushing for tourism, pointed out that when air, train and bus visitors are added to the total, it shows that $907 million was spent by the visitors.

He also emphasized the need for more recreational facilities at major reservoirs during the dedication of Canyon Dam on Guadalupe river.

Attorney General Rulings . . .

A county sheriff or his deputies may not contract with an incorporated city to provide it police protection which are performed regularly by city police officers or city marshals. Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr so advised Galveston County District Atty. Jules Damiani, Jr.

In other opinions Carr concluded that: —In order to obtain a Texas license to practice chiropractic, it's immaterial whether an applicant has passed an examination conducted by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners.

—Only the territory that was in Justice Precinct No. 2 of Denton county, when voters legalized sale of beer in 1935, legally is wet. Precinct was enlarged in 1948, taking in part of a dry precinct.

—Lamar County Hospital District has no authority to convey any of its land to the county as site for a building to house welfare agencies.

Emergency Plan Accepted

A committee named to draw up a plan for management of natural resources in the event a nuclear attack knocked out federal controls presented its report to Governor Connally.

Areas covered by the plan include economic stabilization, construction, electric power, food, petroleum and gas, health, transportation, water, industrial production, housing and manpower.

Connally requested the Emergency Resources Planning Committee to remain in operation 60 days longer.

'An Evening In Paris' Was Theme of Banquet

On Saturday night, April 16, the Junior-Senior Banquet was held. The theme of this year's banquet was "An Evening in Paris." Along with the students many faculty and school board members attended.

Rusty Meador was the Master of Ceremonies. Various French-Style entertainment was provided by June Deaton, Rusty Meador, Teresa Bosmans, and four Freshman girls, Connie Speck, Nancy Lux, Donna Davis, and Debra Murr. The four Freshmen put on a Can-Can dance and both June and Teresa did a dance routine.

Martha Sue Page gave a welcoming speech and Sam Henderson, Senior class president, thanked the Juniors for such a lovely banquet.

The Junior class members spent several days decorating the main room of the Memorial Building in a Parisian theme. A replica of the Eiffel tower, about 18 feet tall and made of wood, was at one end of the room, and paper awnings down both sides with quartet tables underneath carried out the "side-walk cafe" effect.

After the banquet Frank Trevino and his Combo played for the dance.

bock area farmer who said his hogs were killed by aerial spray.

Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld a 1965 permit allowing a Bexar county concern to discharge 696,000 gallons of treated sewage into Salado Creek near San Antonio.

Court of Criminal Appeals ordered new trial for C. L. McCaleb who had been convicted of selling securities without registering with state securities commissioner.

OEO Approvals

Governor Connally has announced approval of seven projects under the Economic Opportunity Act.

Oil Output Boosted Again

Texas Railroad Commission raised the limit on oil production to 35% of potential—highest point for the month of May in seven years.

Allowable was boosted due to increasing demand and decreasing stocks on hand.

Short Snorts . . .

Grayson county officials received a Highway Department survey recommending a new route for U. S. 75 from Sherman to the Red River.

Texas veterans are paying up well on their farm and ranch loans, with only 4.44% of the 23,199 active accounts, due November 1, late on their payments, reports Land Commissioner Sadler.

State Health Department advised local health units of the new Federal aid policy making birth control information available to all who seek it.

Governor Connally named Frank M. Mayborn, Temple newspaperman, to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee, succeeding the late W. R. Beaumier.

'Hobby Club' Members Tour El Dorado Woolens

On Tuesday, April 19th, Eldorado was visited by the "Hobby Club" whose members are scattered from Uvalde, to Del Rio, to Sanderson, and on many outlying ranches. They converged on the El Dorado Woolen Mills.

They admired the beautiful materials and were greatly impressed by the beauty of fine workmanship of the blankets and rugs and all the products put out by the firm. They were escorted through the building by Mr. Becknell, manager of the saddle blanket dept.

They also saw the machinery in operation and thought the factory most interesting.

Some of the ladies took advantage of the opportunity to do some shopping while there.

Those in the group were Mrs. Fay Eastman of Sanderson, Mrs. Ruth Geaslin of Sanderson, Mrs. Andy White from the ranch near Pumpville, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Arledge from the ranch near Pumpville;

Mrs. Newman Billings from the ranch near Langtry, Mrs. Clayton Cox from the ranch near Langtry, Mrs. Larry Arledge and small daughter from Ozona.

Mrs. B. G. Maness and daughter, Rosellen of Eldorado, joined the party as guests. Mrs. Maness is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Billings.

Mrs. Pat Smith also joined the group, being a member of the club.

Other members had planned on being in the party, but at the last moment found it impossible to do so. They enjoyed a delightful luncheon at the Java Junction Cafe before returning to their respective homes. They thanked the personnel of the woolen mills and all the business people they met for their friendliness and courtesy.

REGULAR TRUCK LOADS NEEDED TO SUPPLY ELDORADO'S SOUTHWESTERN FENCE COMPANY

10,000 Pieces Oklahoma White Ash Being Delivered To Eldorado Firm

This truck load of lumber which was delivered last week to Rusty Gibson's Southwestern Fence Co., here in Eldorado, is only a part of the material this unusual firm uses up each month.

This load consists of 10,000 pieces of white ash which came all the way from sawmills in Eastern Oklahoma, and it is not the first such load nor the last. Gibson has sometimes used as much as 30,000 pieces in a month. Used principally as fence stays, they take the place of cedar stays, and Gibson says they make the fence look more uniform—all being straight and hard wood.

These stays are about 2 inches square and about five feet in length, and are used in various other ways. Some are doveled and worked up for fancy yard fences; some are doveled and split for special purposes. Various kinds of wood-working machinery is a part of the equipment at Southwestern Fence Co., and sometimes a huge stack of ash shavings becomes a white elephant when a big job is being processed. Gibson says the shavings are excellent for barbecue pits and gives it to those who will haul it away.

The plant this week is processing an order for 13,000 stays for right-of-way fencing on the new Interstate Highway in Sutton county. They also have a fencing contract for an extended F-M road in the Walter Pope and Capt. Thomson area. Southwestern Fence Company has been in Eldorado only five years, when he moved here from Christoval. Before that he followed oil field work.

Since his establishment in Eldorado his field of operation has extended to all neighboring counties and as far away as Del Rio.

In addition to working with wood, he has a complete set-up for metal work. Ranch gates out of welded pipe is but one of his specialties. Built and sprayed with aluminum paint, they are now to be seen throughout the county and are rapidly taking the place of wooden gates.

Among Rusty's employees is one man who works full time at welding.

Sheep panels, cattle guards and all types of feeders are also included in the company's products, as well as custom-made special jobs. "If you can design it, we'll make it," seems to be the word at Southwestern.

Wool-tying tables are another item available, and of course the chain link fence is one of their bread-and-butter items. Last year his chain link fence with white aluminum panel was introduced in Eldorado and is now meeting with a great deal of popularity.

Altogether Southwestern Fence Company has established itself in Eldorado as a going concern by the initiative and management of its owner and—somewhat strange in this day and time—WITHOUT the assistance of government aid or subsidy.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN
by Tiny Godwin
Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

The Rolling Plains cotton area of which this county is a part has extreme climatic variations, particularly rainfall which normally is the limiting factor in dry land cotton production. Written by the Texas Extension Service and commented upon to producers by Mr. Fred Elliott, cotton specialist, April 15. As to uniform planting dates, temperature, seed to be planted and germination, disease, insect control and other factors affecting production is based upon facts gathered for 30 years.

Many factors influence the date that cotton can be planted. These factors remain—highest emergence May 10-20, yields are highest, quality of cotton highest and cost records the lowest. After June 1 shortens an already short season and lowers yields. Copies available at the county agent's office.

The huge national debt that our younger generation will inherit should keep them from one indulgence, ancestor worship.

Don't ruin your lawn by mowing it too close. Mowing too close or "scalping," encourages a thinning of the turf and shallow rooting. This lowers the resistance of your lawn to drought and diseases. It also makes it easier for weeds to invade and take over the lawn.

Mowing too close allows the soil to dry out and literally bake—this causes heat damage to grass during the summer.

Mowing too high can cause many of the same problems. For best results, Bermudagrass should be mowed at a height of 1 to 1½ inches.

St. Augustine, buffalo, zoysia, bluegrass and ryegrass should be mowed to 1½ to 2 inches. The grass should be mowed often enough that not more than 1 inch of the leaf tip is removed at any one clipping.

Many home owners want a dense mat of turf on their lawn, but the buildup of stems and leaves or "thatch" can lead to trouble. This is especially true with St. Augustine and Bermuda. Mowing these grasses too high for long periods causes a thatch buildup. The thatch acts as insulation and new roots must penetrate it to get into the soil. The thatch increases the disease hazard, too.

Proper mowing requires a sharp, well-adjusted lawn mower. The mower should be sharp enough to cut the tips of leaves and not bruise or crush them. Most mowers can be adjusted to the correct height.

Pay close attention to your mowing practices and you'll be rewarded with a more attractive lawn.

Money still talks, but you have to increase the volume if you want to get the message through.

Research shows liquid fertilizers compared to solid, dry fertilizers give comparable results when the same rates of plant nutrients are used. Some farmers are eyeing liquid fertilizers this spring—but many have questions about their use.

Liquid fertilizers can be applied as individual materials or as mixtures of one or more of the plant nutrients. Most liquid, mixed fertilizers contain two primary elements—nitrogen and phosphorus; some may also contain potassium.

Producers should keep in mind that it requires the same number of pounds of nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium from liquid sources to produce a given yield, as required from dry fertilizer.

Where conditions permit, liquid fertilizer should be applied in bands below the surface in the same manner as dry fertilizer.

Some advantages of liquid fertilizer are: Ease of handling. Liquid fertilizers can be handled by mechanical methods (gravity, pump or air pressure) to avoid lifting and carrying of fertilizer bags. With proper equipment, liquid fertilizers can be applied very accurately and combine easily with many herbicides, fumigants and insecticides.

Disadvantages of liquids are that they require special application equipment and storage facilities; and some nitrogen solutions must be handled under pressure. Also, with variations in temperature there is some chance the dissolved solids may "salt out" resulting in clogging of storage facilities and application equipment.

Most agronomists agree the use of liquid fertilizer will continue to increase, but any advantage they enjoy lies in convenience and ease of handling and not in any special agronomic value.

There's one good thing about people who ignore you—they don't give you any bad advice.

Moore's Ranch of this county recently sold an Aberdeen-Angus bull to Edgar Litzmann of Columbus, Texas.

W. A. Edmiston has reported the sale of one registered horned Hereford bull to C. R. Thomas of Mason, Texas.

The couple attend Texas Tech where he is a graduate student. They will live in Lubbock.

Attending the wedding from here were Mrs. Jack Jones and her family.

Woman's Club Holds Family Night, Dinner

The Eldorado Woman's Club held a family night dinner party at the Memorial Building, last Tuesday night, April 19.

The social committee, Mrs. Jess Blaylock, Mrs. C. N. Clark and Mrs. L. L. Watson, were in charge of arrangements, carrying out a Parisian theme. Shannon Harber assisted by Mike Neison presented students from the physical education classes in high school who performed while the guests ate at the simulated sidewalk cafe tables under an Eiffel tower. Can-can dancers, soloists, and ballet kept the 65 persons attending entertained throughout the evening.

Mrs. Arch Mittel, Woman's Club president, welcomed the guests and members.

Senator Tower's REPORT TO WEEKLY PAPERS

Cost-Of-Living Increase
It has been my privilege to visit several communities throughout our state in recent weeks. Most of the Texans with whom I visited told me something that costs them more than it used to—or more than they think it ought to—haircuts, bacon, clothing, shoes, taxes, insurance, television repairs, newspapers, college costs, medical services, interest . . . even eggs.
Now, some federal bureaucrats have characterized this development as only "crawling" inflation. By any name it is genuine inflation—and some people are talking apprehensively about runaway inflation.
Evidences of this inflation are manifold.
The February cost-of-living increase was the greatest in 15 years. Today's dollar is worth only 75 cents compared to the 1950 dollar and only 44 cents compared to the 1940 dollar. It's the cheapest dollar in our nation's history.
Just a year ago the average American family of four told the Gallup Poll it needed a minimum of $81 to make ends meet. This year it needs $99, according to the same poll. That means the average family feels it needs this year more than $900 in additional income to maintain last year's standard of living.

Every Texan, young and old, has been touched by and penalized by inflation. And, it's high time that inflation was brought under control.

The lesson of history is that every major, modern inflation has been aggravated by excessive government spending. It is a matter of grave concern to me that continual federal fiscal irresponsibility has operated to drive the cost of living ever upward.

Unrestrained federal spending on non-defense programs is a principal cause of our inflation. This inflation has been spurred by unwise governmental policies—a sort of debt-propelled "destructive federalism." The policies have substituted compulsion for freedom and have thrown the market place out of kilter by attempting to substitute for it a federally-planned economy.

Yet, the plain fact is that the federal government, even in the face of war and inflation, is not reducing its domestic spending nor placing responsible priorities on its spending. For instance, from January 1965 to January 1966 some 91,000 workers were added to the federal payroll. Federal payroll costs now are in excess of $1 Billion a month. That's nearly $22 billion a year which taxpayers must provide. Our national debt now stands at $324 billion as the government continues its policy of "going now and paying later." That debt penalizes Americans—every minute—$22,000 in interest costs.

But, rather than cut spending, the government is now indicating that it may seek to alleviate its own insolvency by once again tapping the pocketbooks of its still solvent citizens.

In short, it suggests that it fight inflation by imposing an income-tax hike, atop already increased Social Security taxes and already accelerated tax withholding.

Amazing as it sounds, the federal government suggests that it fight the rising cost of living by raising the cost of living!
The theory behind this novel idea is that there is too much money in the economy causing too much demand and pushing up wages and prices. Take some of this money from Americans—reasons the government—and they won't have as much to spend in creating inflation.

Unfortunately, the excess money supply did not come from individuals or housewives in the first place, but the government.

A tax increase might be beneficial if the federal government would pledge to take the money out of the economy and use it to help pay off the federal debt. But this apparently is not part of the plan. The government plans to plow back into spending the money it takes in higher taxes.

Thus, an income-tax increase without controlled federal spending would merely shift spending from individuals to government. It would increase each citizen's cost of living. It could accelerate, rather than slow, the inflationary spiral.

We need less of these unsuccessful "new economics" and more old fashioned American economy. The federal government must recognize that its spending is the biggest single item in the American economy and correct its own shortcomings before imposing new penalties on everyone else.

I hope Congress will take distinct steps in coming months to reverse the cost-of-living increase and to restore reason to federal financing. That certainly will be my goal.

'Operation Sparkle' Is On Over W. Texas

The Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce is joining with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in promoting a clean-up campaign over the area entitled "Operation Sparkle." All cities and towns are being urged to clean up between now and the year 1968, when a number of out-of-state people are expected in Texas. They will be passing through on their way to the Olympics in Mexico City, they will be going to San Antonio for the Hemis-Fair, and they will be attending the Lions International convention in Dallas.

A local committee has been set up with Bud Davidson as chairman and Kenneth Vaughan as publicity chairman, to promote Operation Sparkle on a local basis.

Vaughan cited the following phases of beautification that have been done, or are in the process:

1. Some women and Girl Scouts have cleaned the weeds from the courthouse parking lot.
2. Dead trees have been removed from vacant lots.
3. Several local people have outstandingly beautiful lawns, among these are Thomas Baker and Arch Crosby.
4. The Woman's club and P-TA have placed trash cans in the downtown area and at the school.
5. Posters will be made for a clean-up campaign, for the Month of May.
6. Several old buildings have been removed from South Main street in recent weeks.

Literary Contestants Top Lubbock Meet

At the Regional Meet held in Lubbock last Saturday, Eldorado participants ranked high in Slide rule, Number Sense, Shorthand, and Persuasive Speaking. Contestants from Eldorado were competing against others from Class A schools in this region. In events such as Slide Rule, Number Sense and Shorthand, the first and second place winners go on to State competition. In speaking events, only the first-place winner goes to state. There were from 8 to 16 participants in each of these contests, all of whom were tops in their districts.

Scott McGregor, who placed second in Slide Rule, will enter the State Meet in Austin the first week-end in May. This will be Scott's second visit to State, placing fourth last year. Because of these trips to state, Scott is eligible for a number of scholarships from various universities and industries. Representatives of these will be at the State Meet surveying prospective recipients of the scholarships.

Mickey Pennington and Karen Griffin both missed out on a ticket to State by only one place, since Mickey placed second in Persuasive Speaking, and Karen third in Shorthand. Martha Sue Page and Larry McGinnes placed fourth in Slide Rule and Number Sense, respectively, while freshman Kathy Robinson placed fifth in Number Sense, this being her first trip to Regional.

Everyone gained valuable experience to be used (along with lots of determination) in District, Regional, and perhaps even State competition next year. —Martha Sue Page, sec., Science Club.

National Library Week Program Held Friday

Mr. Ratliff stressed the Thought of Library Excellence is Today's Necessity in his report from the Governor's Conference on Libraries, in the program held Friday. Twenty-eight counties in Texas have no library service. There are 50 cities of Texas that have public libraries open less than one full day per week.

Mrs. Jackson brought the thought that always any improvement in libraries comes back to the local level. Interest the community and get the people behind the program and you can expect an improvement.

Mrs. Coupe stressed that the library friends study the Texas Library Law and become familiar with it and see how it can be of benefit.

We had more visitors through the week than we have ever had for National Library Week. We had 118 people to register during the week.

Those who missed hearing Mr. Ratliff and Mrs. Jackson lost some interesting facts on the libraries of Texas. We found out that our library is certainly not at the bottom level, but there is much room for improvement.

We are glad that we had four men present for our program. A social hour followed the program.

Mrs. Miller brought her first graders to visit us on Tuesday, April 19. Mrs. Nimitz brought her first graders to visit on Wednesday, April 20. —Ruth Baker, librarian.

Meador Submits More On The 'Name' Business

Additional data on the name business is submitted by Ed Meador who has done some investigating and comes up with the following: "Investigation at the city office reveals that there really is no "Eldorado" after all.

"The city charter, adopted on March 2, 1926, signed by then Mayor C. A. Spencer, and Aldermen A. A. Bush, A. T. Wright and T. K. Jones, officially lists the name of the City as 'The Town of Eldorado'.

"So it might be well to get the matter straightened out, once and for all. It is unlikely that people would want to write four words instead of two.

"The use of the two word spelling of El Dorado is becoming quite popular.

"Twenty local businessmen joined together in developing the new apartment project in the northwest part of the city in an effort to provide the community with additional housing. The name of the project is 'El Dorado Apartments'. The new golfing facilities near the municipal airport will be supervised under the auspices of the El Dorado Golf Association."

To Attend State Meeting Of Future Homemakers

Judy Ann Davidson and Shane Henderson, members of the Eldorado Future Homemakers of America, will attend the State Meeting of the Texas Association, Future Homemakers of America, in San Antonio, April 29-30, according to Jane Cain, president of the chapter. The meeting theme for delegates from the 1,406 FHA chapters throughout the state will be "Citizenship — Youth's Greatest Challenge."

Judy Davidson has been selected by chapter members as voting delegate to the State meeting. Shane Henderson is alternate.

Outstanding visitor will be National Adviser, Miss Mildred Reel of Washington, D. C., who will bring greetings. Main speaker for the opening session Friday will be Dr. Carl S. Winters, lecturer, speaker, and entertainer. He will address the 5,000 delegates on the meeting theme. A program of F.H.A. talent emphasizing Texas' heritage will be conducted Friday night. The closing session on Saturday morning will be given over to business and installation of officers.

During the meeting, the State Nominating Committee will name the 10 State officers from the nominees elected by members in the 10 areas of the state. Delegates to the National FHA Convention in Chicago in July also will be designated; as will be singers in National Chorus and nominee for National pianist.

Nearly 500 members from the 60,473 membership of the Texas Association will receive the State's highest award, the State Home-maker Degree of Achievement. Delegates will confer honorary memberships on 40 adults who have contributed in an outstanding way to the accomplishments of the organization.

Registration headquarters will be the Gunter hotel. Meetings will be held at Municipal Auditorium. Reservations for local groups have been made at the Wayfarer Motel. Miss Dana Owens, Vocational Homemaking Teacher, will accompany FHA members to the meeting.

Petticoat Preakness To Be Held Today

The third annual running of the Petticoat Preakness, a Track and Field meet for the elementary school girls, will be held at the Football Stadium, Thursday, April 28 (today) at 12:30 p.m., announces Mrs. Shannon Harber, who is in general charge of the event.

The event culminates the spring Track and Field unit for the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade girls and will feature events of the running, jumping, and throwing nature. Preliminary trials have been held in class to determine the classification of the participants and the events in which each girl should perform best. Each grade is divided into three groups of competition, Bantams, Middies, and Heavies, and all 4th, 5th and 6th grade Bantams compete against each other, as do all the Middies and Heavies. The names, Bantam, Middle, and Heavy are chosen to denote the size and ability of the levels of competition, as a high correlation of these two factors is indicated but with some exceptions.

Although the girls have worked on all ten events in class, each girl will be entered in five events for the meet: one of the dashes, the 50, 60, or 75-yard dash; one of the standing jumps of the broad and hop-step-and-jump; one of the running jumps of the broad and hop-step-and-jump; one of the throws—the basketball or softball; and each girl is on a 200-yard (pursuit) relay team. Ribbons will be awarded to the first four places in each event.

This year's results of the preliminaries indicate that several of the Preakness records may be in jeopardy: Peggy Hill's 6.5 second 50-yd. dash; Mary Lynn McCalla's 8 sec. 60-yard dash and 66' 8" basketball throw; Linda Derrick's 10-sec. 75-yd. dash, 12' 8" running broad, and 20' 2" standing triple jump; Carolyn O'Harrow's 7' 4" standing broad; Bonnie Haines's 28' 4 1/2" running triple jump. Kathleen O'Harrow's record softball throw of 152' 8" set in 1964 appears safe. The greatest current threat may be in the jumps: Loretta Schooley and Gay Lynn Richardson have class trials equal to or exceeding three of the four jumps. In fact, their recorded 29' and 29' 10" distances in the running triple jump could have won the event in some of the high school girls' track meets that were held throughout the state this spring.

Running, jumping, and throwing skills are basic to most of the sports and recreational games in which we want our children to participate. There are many other values of Track and Field activity to the child, but training in these skills in order to better equip our girls for engaging in a variety of sports and games seems to be an obligation of the school program. And pointing toward a track meet is a very fun way to get there! But a meet of this type requires a lot of outside help—parents or interested members of the community are urged to come out and assist with the conduction of the meet if at all possible as finish line judges and timers, scratch line judges, officials to mark jumps and throws and to measure jumping and throwing distances, etc. Paul Page again has consented to act as announcer and coordinator of officials; Lucy Page will be awards chairman, T. P. Robinson will be the official starter. These stand-bys are becoming tradition in these capacities; other names of volunteer helpers of past years found on old notes left by Paul are Mr. and/or Mrs. Edmiston, Rountree, Preston, Bradley, Derrick, Hill, Rutledge, Schooley, Hubble, Rogers, Davis, Hanusch, Maness, Cawley, Martin, Bland, Hartgraves, Lester, Murr, Gault, Robinson, Humphries, Page. These names are deliberately dropped as a hint and reminder: today, Thursday, at 12:30. Several of these have graduated from grade school and new recruits are needed as replacements.

Meanwhile, the girls are ready. And Thursday noon, when Mr. Humphries has donned his sports cap, checked his stop watch, and wheeled the bus around front, then they know it's Petticoat Preakness day and they're off to the races.

Attend Conference Of Texas Bank Women

Mrs. Mary Nell Harkey and Mrs. Frances Peters, both assistant cashiers at the First National Bank, returned Sunday afternoon from Austin where they attended the regional conference of the Southwestern Division of the National Association of Bank Women. Today this association has reached a membership of some 5,000 women who serve as executives in Banks and Trust Companies.

The Southwestern Division of NABW is composed of women bank officers from Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. Around 170 registered for this meeting, which was held April 22, 23 and 24 in the Crest Hotel, Austin.

Mrs. Marcella Perry from Pasadena is regional vice-president and presided over the meeting. This year two of the National Officers, Miss Eleanor Kropf, second vice president of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York City, who is president of NABW, and Mrs. Mona Cunningham, vice-president of the Union National Bank of Wichita, Kan., vice-president of NABW, attended this meeting and addressed the group at different times.

Three other outstanding women were members of a panel who on Saturday morning discussed "Selling Your Bank Through General Services, The Trust Department, and the Loan Department." After these informative talks were made a group discussion was held.

Two men were invited as guest speakers at the all-women gathering. At a luncheon Saturday H. C. Pittman, executive director of the Texas Automobile Dealers Association spoke on "The Price is Right." At a Saturday night banquet Dr. Karl Pederson spoke on "A New View of America." He was listed as a guest lecturer from Copenhagen, but during the speech was unveiled to be none other than "Cactus" Jack Pryor.

The conference opened with a business meeting held Friday in the House of Representatives at the State Capitol. At this time the group was welcomed by Waggoner Carr.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

This week will be an unusually busy week for me but I'm looking forward to it with pleasure. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday about 10 agents from that many counties will do intensive work with two specialists from Texas A and M university. The two represent the clothing and housing fields and we will do detailed work on color in the home and in the clothes we wear.

Color is one of the great pleasures of my life. (I even dream in color.) Colors affect my actions and reactions to an intensive degree. Sometimes, however, I feel like agreeing with a friend who declares she wishes that she were color blind so that the whole color world wouldn't make so much difference to her. But then I really would not after all.

Thursday we meet in Sonora again for the class on "guidance and counselling of youth" and then on Saturday about 400 4-H club boys and girls from District Seven meet in San Angelo for dozens of kinds of contests that cover things from shooting matches to baking bread. Of course we will be involved.

LeAnne Cawley, a junior 4-H girl and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cawley of Schleicher county, will represent her group in a 4-H club food show. LeAnne has chosen to prepare and show a vegetable dish called chilie-asparagus. This dish is a favorite with the Cawley family and is equally good hot or cold.

LeAnne's Chilie-Asparagus

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
Dash onion salt
Dash garlic salt
1/2 cup processed cheese
1 small can hot green chilies
1 No. 2 1/2 can green asparagus
Open asparagus and heat in liquid. Melt butter and blend in flour to make smooth mixture. Add milk slowly and cook over low heat, stirring constantly until it is thickened. Add all seasonings. Add cheese and drained chilies.
Drain asparagus. Pour sauce over asparagus. Makes 6 servings. May be served hot or cold.

Debbie Johnson, another junior 4-H girl and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson of Eldorado, is making her entry with a great favorite of her family—carrot bread. This recipe has been in the column a time or two before but for the pleasure of new readers or for the convenience of some who may have misplaced the first one, here it is again:

Carrot Bread

2/3 cup oil—salad type.
1 cup sugar.
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups all purpose flour
1 teaspoon soda.
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup grated carrots
2/3 cup broken nut meats (optional)
Cream oil and sugar together. Add eggs and mix thoroughly. Sift flour, soda, salt and cinnamon together. Add dry ingredients to sugar mixture. Add carrots and nuts to batter. Pour batter into greased 8x4 in. loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 55 minutes.

The month of May is almost upon us. May is a time for parties, receptions and occasions for the hospitality of celebrations for any occasion, wedding receptions or graduation parties. This spring punch may be exactly what you are looking for. If you can't quite imagine what it would taste like, make up a half or quarter recipe, then you'll really know.

Party Punch

1 quart boiling water
1 1/2 teaspoons black tea
5 whole cloves
1 cup orange juice
1 quart lime juice
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup liquid honey
1 cup cold water
Pour boiling water over tea and cloves. Cover, let steep for 5 minutes, then strain. Combine tea with other ingredients and pour over cracked ice to chill. Garnish with thin orange slices, red cherries, or mint leaves. Makes twenty-four 1/2 cup servings.

Note: Limes add a distinctive flavor but if you cannot get them you may substitute an equal amount of lemon juice.

Paula Mace On Dean's List At San Marcos

San Marcos, Texas.—Paula Mace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mace of Eldorado, was among 875 fall semester Southwest Texas State students named to the San Marcos college's Dean's List recently.

According to statistics released by college dean Dr. Joe H. Wilson, 51 students made the superior honors list which is composed of students earning all A's or A's and no more than one B in all courses.

The regular dean's list was composed of 824 students with at least a 2.0 grade point or B average.

Miss Mace, a Speech and English major at Southwest Texas, was named to the regular Dean's list. She is a member of the Strutters, the Texas Student Teachers Association and the Campus Speakers.

Members of the Community Choir who rendered the cantata, "Gethsemane" the night of Palm Sunday, were guests at a get-together Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Robinson on the old Sonora road south of town.

Refreshments were served, and a tape recording of the rendition was played.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

Extremists Can Hurt Their Own Causes

Agonizing readjustments mark this era of extremism which has featured civil disobedience to law and order in this country. The other day Assistant Attorney General John Doar in charge of the civil rights division, became the first prominent federal official to say the time has come to "draw the line" against those who think they have a license to protest at any time or place, in any way and in any numbers.

Thus, those who helped bring this condition about seem to be at a loss to know how to tame the tiger that has been released on the streets. Those responsible include vote-hungry politicians, many Negro civil rights leaders, some clergymen, and the Supreme Court. They are now reaping the harvest they have sown.

The Watts, Harlem, Rochester, Philadelphia, and Washington, D. C. riots are all traceable to these people who have fed the fires of contempt and disrespect for law and order. And there have been scores of others.

Washington, D. C. recently witnessed its third riot fomented by extremists in the civil rights movement. The Watts riot claimed more than 20 lives and destroyed more than $100 million in property.

Despite the natural yearning of most Americans for fair play toward all races, it is increasingly difficult to adjust to this new way of life. The Supreme Court in two 5 to 4 decisions upheld sit-ins and illegal demonstrations, which Mr. Justice Black said encouraged civil rights demonstrators who think "they will be automatically turned loose so long as whatever they do has something to do with race."

The call for disobedience, which denotes wilful violation of laws, has sparked this craze for demonstrations and riots. Much of this has been with tacit government sanction. Many preachers, who should be telling their flocks how to behave, have incited their members to join this form of public display which usually leads to violence.

Now, when the horse is already out of the stable, Assistant Attorney Roar says the "line must be drawn" against those who insist upon the unlimited right to protest. Certainly extreme civil rights legislation which certain politicians projected as a sort of panacea, has in fact helped trigger these developments which they should have foreseen. The chickens are coming home to roost.

Round-Up Held Monday

The Round-Up of pupils who will enter the First Grades in the local schools this coming September was held Monday.

About 50 turned out for the event, it was reported by C. T. Humphries, elementary principal. The Round-Up is put on each year by the P-TA, and Mrs. Mort Mertz was this year's chairman.

FOUL WEATHER FRIENDS

Wonderful in fair weather, too. When the weather is foul, as it is so often in winter, an automatic washer and flameless electric dryer guarantee a constant supply of fresh-smelling, fluffy-dry clothes. With your own automatic electric laundry, you just pop the family wash in the washer, set the dial and go about your other chores. Drying clothes is no problem either—pop them in—set the dial—then do some other little chore for the family, you have been "putting off." So remember, in fair weather or foul, your best friends are an automatic washer and flameless electric dryer.
