Hospital Tax Rate Set at 35¢

In a regular meeting Monday night directors of the Schleicher County Hospital District set a 35-cent hospital tax rate which will be collected by the County tax collector during the regular collecting period beginning October 1st.

Setting of this tax rate at this time was done in order to co-operate with Orval Edmiston's tax office which had requested this be done before July 1st in order to facilitate book work in his office.

County Commissioners last week set the county tax rate at $1.25. In addition the office also collects the State ad valorem tax, and in certain areas in the north part of the county they will also collect a "water district" tax.

The 35-cent hospital tax is less than half of the 75c maximum rate set up in the bill passed by the Texas Legislature in authorizing establishment of the hospital district here. Setting of the tax rate took up only about ten minutes of the board's time.

All seven board members were present when Mr. Ratliff called the meeting to order at 8:00 p. m. Present were Gordon Charlton of Columbian Securities and Jack Brown from Dunbar. The principal purpose was to discuss the issuance of $450,000 in bonds at the best rate of interest over a period of some 20 years. After hearing their offer the directors asked a 48-hr. period to study the matter and agreed to another meeting on Wednesday night. They did sign an agreement with Charlton and Brown as their "fiscal agents" regardless of who bought the bonds.

After the agents left the meeting continued for another hour while all phases of the job ahead were discussed. Meeting was called to order at 8:00 p. m., and adjourned at 11:00. A meeting with the architect is scheduled in the near future.

Post Script

If you have water to irrigate with you can raise crops in Schleicher county—drought notwithstanding.

Monday Mrs. Grat Edmiston brought in a sample of their crop from their place in the southeast part of the county—three large white Bermuda onions that weighed about 13 ounces apiece. They came from three 100-yd. rows in their irrigated garden and she said it was possible there were others even larger.

We asked if they had a market for all that many onions but she explained they were not trying to sell any. Various members of the family have all had a hand in the garden, and the crop would just be distributed around.

Two couples here are making a hobby out of gardening and having a good time out of it.

It came about like this: Patton Enochs used his veterans land credit to become owner of a farm about five miles north of town and has been developing it by installing irrigation, raising feed and running a few livestock. It became a nice place to drive to after work and pretty soon Patton and Gloria were joined by Mac and Danell McCormack and they hit on the idea of setting aside some space for a partnership garden.

No sooner said than done, and now they have a big garden with a lush crop of green beans, okra, etc., coming on, along with a nice camping place equipped with a barbecue grill.

So every so often they invite friends out for an evening in the country. As twilight shadows fall across the land there is the agreeable smell of smoke and barbecued steak, and while the men look after the professional task of turning the meat the gals are out in the garden on their knees happily gathering a big mess of garden-fresh green beans.

Those men are a lot smarter than I ever gave them credit for.

Mid-June would seem an unlikely time for a frozen water pipe to burst and flood a business establishment, but that is just what happened during the week end at the Eagle Chevrolet Co. here.

A pipe in the soft drink machine froze and burst flooding the sales-room and the shop. Monday morning, manager Jim Thornton and Mrs. Sheppard, bookkeeper, were busy with mops cleaning up. By mid-morning they had operations about back to normal.

Ben Keel has experimented in recent months with products made from prickly-pear and mesquite beans. These included gourmet jellies.

Monday morning, he was in the drug store with samples of gum-drop type candies that he had made from prickly-pear.

A few by-standers sampled the candies and found them a good-tasting novelty.

"I'm still working on a formula," Keel stated.

On Wednesday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cole came in from Fredericksburg and placed an ad for the sale of a 10-acre tract of

Two Local Explorer Scouts To Leave On Trip

EXPLORER SCOUTS Bobby Sykes and Keith Williams will be among a group from the Concho Valley Council who will leave Saturday morning for northern Minnesota and the Canadian Canoe Trip. Itinerary calls for them to take two days traveling with a day in Chicago, each way. They are to be away for two weeks.

land west of town. They were back again this week on Tuesday.

"When we got home last Wednesday night we had a phone call from Eldorado asking about this land, and the next day we had two inquiries by letter."

Back in the spring, Neff's Cafe was broken into and the coin machines were robbed.

More recently, they had a fire which seriously damaged the interior of the building and some equipment had to be replaced.

Now, the establishment is back to normal having been completely redecorated. The Neffs invite the public in for free coffee at an open house Friday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00.

Also, they are advertising specials for Friday and Tuesday.

In an announcement on page 3, Sinclair is advertising two houses at their Huldale plant for sale to be removed.

The houses were erected when the plant was put into operation back in the county oil boom of 12 or 15 years ago.

With our subscribers: Alva Lee Harris has moved from Big Lake to Ozona where his address is Box 1181.

"We have moved back to California from Odessa and would like news of home," wrote Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Celecote in renewing recently. Their address is: 808 W. Duarte Road, Apt. 13, Monrovia, California 91016.

Tigers vs Cougars Coming Up Tonight

With the Christoval Cougars dominating Little League up to this time, fans are interested in the Tigers who are rapidly improving and now seem to be the only team able to give the high-flying Cougars their first defeat.

Fans are looking forward to tonight's game (Thurs.) when these two teams are scheduled to meet.

Brooks Pipeline Head Killed In Explosion

Dr. William M. Dow, president of Brooks Gas Co., of Houston, was killed in a gas well explosion in Menard county about 11:00 a.m., Tuesday.

Brooks Gas Company operates pipe lines in Schleicher county and Dr. Dow was a frequent business visitor here. He had been scheduled to meet with Eldorado city officials here Tuesday night in regard to supplying an auxiliary supply of gas for this city. He was well-known to local gas and oil operators.

Menard County Sheriff Billy J. Haney, who investigated the accident, said that Dow, J. F. Nowlin and Rogers were taking gas samples at the well at the time of the explosion. Haney said the three men were filling a small bottle-type tank with gas from the well when the tank "seemed to explode" toward Dr. Dow.

Dr. Dow's body was first taken to Mission Funeral Home in Menard and later Tuesday was flown to Houston to Settegast-Koph Funeral Home. Funeral services were set for Thursday in Houston.

Little League Games Continue Here

Thursday:

Tigers Win Over White Sox
Thursday night the Tigers showed their strength once more, when Hunter Henderson pitched a near perfect game, beating the White Sox 16-0. The game was called at the end of 4 innings when Umpire Jack Bell chose to enforce the 15 run rule.

The White Sox executed a beautiful double play, big league style, in the first inning of play to get the game off to a great start. They held the Tigers to 2 runs in the second inning and 4 runs in the 3rd. However, pitchers do have their off nights (along with being young) and the 4th inning proved this when the Tigers scored 10 runs.

If we adults had the determination these boys have what a great world we would have!

Friday:

Cougars Take the Red Sox
The scrappy little Red Sox team played the Cougars a good game here Friday night with a score of 14-5. Each team had a double play to their credit.

The Red scores came 3 in the 2nd inning, 1 in the 5th and, 1 in the 6th. The Cougars scored 2 in the 1st, 6 in the 2nd, 5 in the 4th and 1 in the 5th. Richter went all the way for the Cougars while Jay and Nixon each pitched 3 innings for the Red Sox.

Standings:	Wins	Losses
Cougars	4	0
Tigers	3	1
Red Sox	1	3
White Sox	0	4

Monday Night:

Cougars Win Again
After two good innings of baseball, the Cougars once again showed their ability to hit the ball and run the bases.

The White Sox scored one run in the second inning and one in the 4th for their only scores.

The Cougars scored 2 in the second inning and 15 in the 3rd. The game, once again, was called after only 3½ innings of play.

Tuesday Night

The game Tuesday night was called in the 4th inning with the Tigers 17 runs, and Red Sox 2.

Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock will see an all-star game, made up of players from all 4 teams.

Calf Sale Brings $1,100 For Boys Ranch

A special feature of Monday's calf sale in Angelo was the sale of a Hereford heifer calf donated by Faye Baugh Spence to West Texas Boys Ranch. The calf was bought by M. S. Doss for $1,000 and then donated back to the ring to be auctioned again. At the second auction, the calf was sold to Producers Livestock Auction Co. for $100. It then was sold to Webster for 28 cents per pound.

Dacys Are At Home Following Marriage

Miss Dorothy Lee Roden was married to James Monroe Dacy in a June 10th ceremony at the First Christian Church of Eldorado.

The Rev. Dempsey Salter of the Methodist church of Eldorado was officiating minister. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. August L. Roden and Mr. and Mrs. Marion F. Dacy, of Eldorado.

Miss Judy Sallee was the pianist. The bride was attended by Miss Judy Allard of San Angelo as maid of honor, and Mr. C. F. Dacy of Eldorado, brother of the groom, was the best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a street length dress of white boucle with white lace trim. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses.

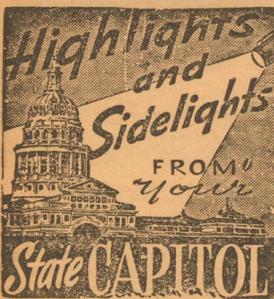

Following the reception in the church the couple left for a honeymoon in San Antonio.

They are now at home at 409 N. Main St. in Eldorado. He is employed here with the Foxworth-Galbraith Lbr. Co.

MOVE TO OZONA

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Lee Harris are now living in Ozona after being transferred there from Big Lake. He is an employee of the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op and had lived in Big Lake about six years. Their new address is Box 1183, Ozona.

Alva Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orland Harris of Eldorado.

Austin, Texas.—Railroad Commission authorized Texas oil industry to produce an additional 2,268,000 barrels of oil during the last two weeks of June in view of curtailed supplies from the unsettled Middle East.

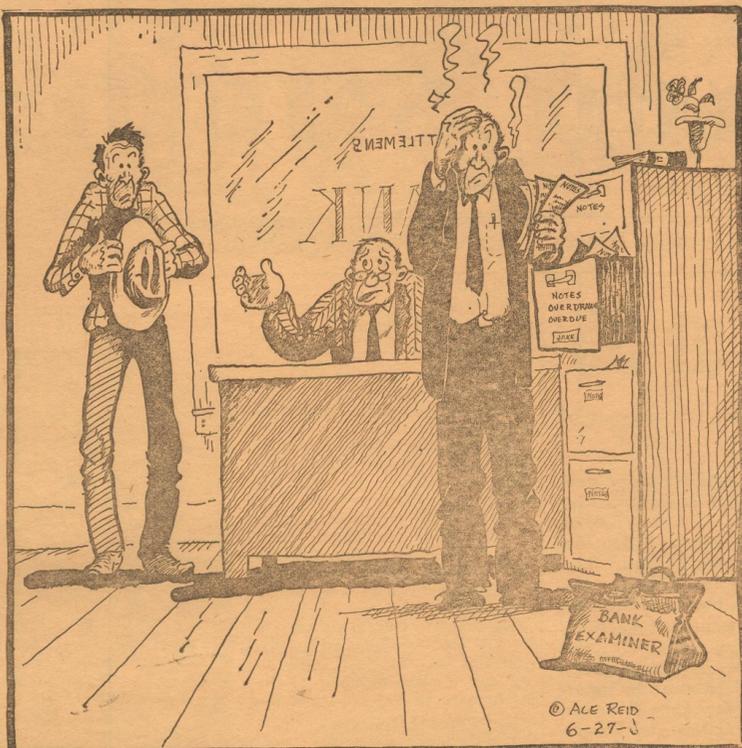

Commission increased the June allowable from 33.8% to 35.9%, retroactive to June 1. This figure will permit maximum oil production of 3,112,191 barrels daily compared to current 2,992,236 barrels. Commission postponed setting an allowable for July, but another moderate increase is almost certain.

State officials, conscious of the Legislature's special tax session looming next year, see a possible revenue windfall (which could reduce the new tax need) from the crisis-caused oil production jump.

With an increase from 10 to 13 days a month in production, there is no telling at this point how much the ultimate increase will be. Before the emergency situation, the oil production tax income for the coming year had been estimated at nearly $140 million.

These factors figure in the magnitude of future allowable increases:

—Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Iraq and Algeria have banned oil shipments to U. S. and Britain. Libya's production has been halted by a strike.

—Arabs want to nationalize their oil fields or call in Spain and France to develop their petroleum industry, replacing the U. S. and Britain.

—Suez Canal may remain blocked for several months. Thus any oil shipments would have to go round the Cape of Good Hope. Trip would be longer and more expensive.

Interstate Oil Compact adopted a resolution calling for a 12.2% limit on the ratio of imported oil to domestic stocks east of the Rocky Mountains. Experts say present situation demonstrates need for better government attitude toward domestic production and industry development.

Drivers Points

Auto drivers may have forgotten, but they will be reminded of "points" starting August 1.

That's when the new insurance plan adopted last July by the State Board of Insurance begins to show on insurance rates. Drivers will pay 15% more for insurance if they have one point charged against them, 35% for two points, 60% for three points and 90% for four points.

Points are assessed for accidents or traffic law violations which came after August 1, 1966, when the plan was adopted. Penalties will apply when auto insurance policies are bought or renewed after August 1, this year.

A driver who is assessed points can "work them off". Only points assessed after August 1, 1966, will count. But after three years of being charged more, the points drop off the driver's record, for rate purposes.

Board believes this will lower the basic rates, thus will reward no-point drivers.

14-Year-Olds Can Drive

Fourteen-year-olds who complete driver education before August 28 still can get a license good until its regular expiration date.

Homer Garrison Jr., Director of Texas Department of Public Safety, issued the interpretation following numerous calls about new licensing law amendments.

New law which goes into effect in late August would raise the minimum age for licensing drivers with behind-the-wheel instruction to 16, except in unusual cases. Garrison said, however, he did not interpret the new law as denying "the privilege of driving" to 14-year-olds who already have qualified under existing regulations.

Desalting Feasible

New study concludes that large desalting in the Lower Rio Grande Valley can provide a dependable source of good municipal water at costs comparable to that of conventional production.

Study for Texas Water Development Board and U. S. Department of Interior said water could be made available to a metropolitan district for about 25 to 31 cents per 1,000 gallons at a desalination plant. Cost of delivery to individual cities in the Lower Valley would increase that figure from one to two cents per 1,000.

Courts Speak

U. S. Supreme Court has agreed to hear arguments October 2 on whether the one-man-one-vote standard it applied to congressional and legislative districts also fits county commissioners precincts in Midland.

State Supreme Court found no error in lower court opinions dismissing the case of a woman who sued Galveston County for $20,000 after finding glass in scrambled eggs served her at the county's Memorial Hospital.

A certificate-holding student pilot does not meet standard insurance policy definitions of a duly-licensed aircraft operator whose passengers remain insured while in flight, State Supreme Court concluded in a Gillespie County case.

Attorney General Rules

Gulfward state boundary is a line three marine leagues from coast, and in those waters Texas is empowered to control and regulate fishing, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has ruled.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—In counties where the office of ex-officio county school superintendent has been abolished, a county judge serving superintendent's role continues to be paid for the extra job until the end of the current term of office. Thereafter, he must perform those duties without pay.

—State can make lease and rental contracts for up to four years, contingent on availability of funds appropriated by the legislature.

—When a married couple creates a valid joint tenancy agreement with a third party, including right of survivorship, inheritance tax is applicable on passing of the couple's interest.

Water Projects Approved

Texas Water Development Board found San Antonio River Authority eligible to seek $960,000 in state aid to build a low water dam on Cibolo Creek and provide water supply to Karnes City and Kenedy. SARA also will seek a federal grant of $915,000.

At the same time, Board extended for 120 days a $2.7 million loan commitment to the Upper Leon River Municipal Water District for facilities to take water from the Proctor dam reservoir to Comanche, De Leon, Dublin and Gorman pending outcome of bid for a federal grant.

Air Service Broadened

Texas Aeronautics Commission has given Fleetway Commuter Airlines a certificate to begin operations in eight locations and approved extension of Davis Airlines service to Houston.

Fleetway, a new company, will fly two routes: from Gregg county airport to San Antonio via Tyler, Waco and Austin and return; and from Tyler to Houston via the Gregg County Airport, Palestine and Nacogdoches and return.

Davis, which now operates between College Station and Dallas, was granted a permit for service between College Station and Houston.

Both companies had presented evidence showing the need for their passenger services on these routes.

Manpower

Texas Employment Commission reports that during April the civilian labor force in Texas continued to expand with an increase of 37,000, boosting the total to 4,204,300 at mid-month.

Non-farm employment reached 3,784,400, a record for April; and agricultural employment rose 16,800 — to 307,400.

There were 110,000 unemployed in mid-April, 4,000 less than were unemployed in mid-March. This put unemployment at 2.6% of the total labor force.

Salvation Army Drive Is Under Way Here

CAPTAINS of the fund drive launched a week ago are shown at the kick-off breakfast held last Thursday at the Java Junction Cafe. Seated are Benny Harkey, L. D. The drive is now being concluded.

Is Thurgood Marshall, President Johnson's latest appointee to the Supreme Court, a lawmaker or a jurist? That question is being pondered by many.

Most people who know him best do not regard the new appointee as a very good lawyer. Although he has had some judicial experience by virtue of a Presidential appointment, his chief claim to fame is his record as an effective civil rights leader.

The importance of the Marshall appointment cannot be over emphasized. He replaces Justice Tom Clark who as expected resigned because the President appointed his son, Ramsey, Attorney General.

Justice Clark was often the "swing man" in 5-to-4 decisions. While Clark was a liberal, he bucked Warren and his cohorts on issues relating to subversive activities and crime. This did not please many of the liberals.

But despite Clark's dissents, Warren has usually had his way because in most cases he could command a one-vote majority on the court. A one-vote switch could have upset the Warren pattern, but the Chief Justice was buttressed by the appointment of liberal Abe Fortas less than two years ago—and is now strengthened even more by the Marshall appointment. Hereafter there will be fewer 5-to-4 decisions and more 6-to-3 decisions.

The simple fact is that in a whole series of decisions, "justice" has been held clearly to favor the accused, regardless of the crime, regardless of the evidence of guilt.

As is well-known, the Supreme Court in recent years has been not merely interpreting and clarifying law—it has been writing it.

Hence, the importance of the appointment of Thurgood Marshall. There is every reason to believe the net effect of this appointment will be to add one more to the Warren majority on the Supreme Court. It is for that reason that the liberals acclaim the choice.

Editorial Comment From Our Neighbors

Fewer Farms Feed You

Every day Texas has fewer farms producing, but more mouths to feed. The same thing is happening all over the nation and in many other countries.

Texas farms decreased by 21,962 in the five years from 1959 to 1964. That's a drop of more than 4,000 per year—a rate that would result in no farms in 50 years, if continued. Of course, no one expects that to happen. But the average Texas farmer today is 53.3 years old, and he's not being replaced as he disappears.

His farm place may continue. But it's farmers "try harder," as the slogan goes. Who's going to do the actual farming and how is a very big question.

Fortunately for those who live in cities, farmers have phenomenally hiked their productivity—per acre, hour, man, and machine.

U. S. 1964 Census of Agriculture data show that the number of farms in the nation dropped by 552,639 from 1959 to 1964. That's equivalent to having some evil magician remove all of the farms and ranches in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arkansas, Louisiana, Arizona, California plus most of those in Colorado, in five years.

In the previous five years, 1954-59, American farms and ranches dwindled by 1,078,522. They have been decreasing since 1935 when the number reached the all-time high of 6.8 million.

These figures aren't, of course, as ominous as they sound. If farmers had not become production wizards, consumers wouldn't be complaining loudly about grocery prices. They would be too weak from hunger.

Startling rises in productivity have enabled U. S. producers of food and fiber to feed almost 200 million Americans better than ever before in history and ship huge tonnages abroad for the starving, the only slightly underfed and the prosperous foreigners who can afford to pay for our agricultural luxuries.

Texas, alone, last year sold abroad $495 million worth of farm and ranch commodities, while U. S. exports of such produce were valued at a record $6.7 billion in the 12 months ended last June.

But the race between hungry mouths and those available to feed them is a marathon which agricultural technology may lose in the miles ahead.

While U. S. farms and farm population have been receding, on the whole, the number of large, commercial farms actually increased from 1959 to 1964. Those with 500 acres of land or more rose from 336,439 to 355,723 and units with annual sales above $20,000 increased from 312,744 to 401,800.

Total acreage farmed in the U. S. declined only slightly in the years between the recent census tabulations. Farmers and ranchmen reported 1,110,000,000 acres in their 1964 properties, compared with 1,124,000,000 in 1959. Crop-land harvested dropped from 311,000,000 to 287,000,000 during this period. That, by the way, is almost equivalent to taking out of crops all of the land harvested in Texas and Oklahoma in 1964.

Value of U. S. farm products sold rose 16% from 1959's $30.5 billion to $35.3 billion in 1964. The latter total was 32% above the $26.7 billion farmers sold in 1954. Inflation accounted for part of the rise, but farm sales have inflated the price far less than the cost of things farmers buy or the general price level. —Walter B. Moore in The Dallas Morning News.

Franklin G. Berry is now here in a Riley house.

Agricultural production plays a vital role in the economy of Schleicher county. Gross sales are in excess of $3,700,000 annually for products produced.

The following production guidelines for major agricultural enterprises in the county have been mailed to producers, namely: cotton, grain sorghum, beef cattle, production of feeder stock and range lambs, accelerated lambing, swine, production, wool and mohair production, feeding lambs and angora goat production.

This is a continuing effort of the local Extension Service office to provide all producers with up to date information that will enable them to continue their level of and efficiency of production.

These guidelines include the latest information from research and local result demonstrations. The information was compiled from many sources with the assistance of our Extension Service Specialists at Texas A&M University.

The various sub-committees of the Schleicher Program Building Committee had an active part in developing the guidelines and join in urging that consideration be given to those practices which offer a potential for increasing production and profits from agricultural enterprises.

We have made an effort to keep guidelines brief and to the point. Please contact the County Agent's office if more detailed information is desired on any of the recommendations.

It takes a long time for some people to get over an illness if compensation sets in.

Wool incentive and mohair support prices have been set for 1968. A shorn wool incentive price of 67 cents a pound for 1968 markings, up one cent from present levels, and a support price for mohair of 77.5 cents a pound also up one cent has been announced. Payments to producers on the 1968 calendar year marketings will be made beginning in April, 1969.

Here are four points of pesticide safety to remember each time you consider the use of a pesticide-chemical on your farm or ranch. Just as you are responsible for the decisions on the use of pesticides in your agricultural enterprise, you also assume the responsibility of their safe use. Pesticide safety, then, depends on you and your actions.

You can "practice pesticide safety" by remembering the following points: (1) take appropriate protective measures, as called for on the label, each time you use the product, (2) always strive for accurate application, to hit the right pest in the right place at the right time, (3) remember to protect those around you with locked storage space, and (4) never neglect correct disposal of the left-over chemicals or empty pesticide containers. Pertinent information about the first three points of safety will be found on the label of the pesticide you buy. This points out the importance of reading and re-reading labels on the products.

Don't rely on your memory when you buy or use pesticides. New pesticides in different chemical strengths are constantly coming on the market.

The correct disposal of the left-over chemical, or empty container, is not always covered in the label information. Different types of containers also call for different kinds of disposal.

Here are tips to remember when the time comes to safely and effectively dispose of unwanted pesticide containers.

To safely break glass containers, roll them first in old newspapers, then break them. Metal and plastic containers should be punched pull of holes to make them unusable. Crush all containers, for this same reason, and bury the remains. The best practice to follow in the disposal of paper containers is to bury them. Paper containers can be burned, but do so only on a windless day and stay out of the smoke. Some of the pesticide residue in the "empty bags" will remain in the ashes after burning; so, it is always a good idea to bury the ashes.

Do not punch or burn aerosol (pressurized) bug bombs. When dealing with bug-bombs, take them to a sanitary land fill dump or bury them yourself. For further information on pesticides and their safe use, contact the county agent's office.

One reason we can love our enemies; they don't borrow anything.

Considerable improvement can be made in range and pasture production. A comparison of pounds of calf produced per acre with other producers who have similar-type cattle and land will usually reveal the difference is due to the pasture.

Range and pasture conditions that cause pounds of calf per acre to be average or lower include:

1. Pasturing poorly adapted or low-producing plants.
2. Overgrazing that has resulted in weak, low-producing plants and weed invasion.
3. Poor grazing management that may cause the same damage as overgrazing.
4. Invasion of trees, brush and weeds that shade trees and use available moisture.
5. Poor establishment practices that result in poor stands.
6. Lack of planning for ample grazing at all seasons.
7. Lack of adequate temporary pastures to rest or supplement permanent pastures in seasons of low productivity.
8. Lack of hay, silage or other feed to supplement pastures as needed.

“Freedom must be at all times defended, because it is at all times besieged. Not all of us are called to fight on the battlefield. Many of us must, quietly and firmly, do what we can and all that we must, here at home. Buying Bonds, regularly, is as important to this nation in the long reach of history as almost anything we can do.”

When you buy U.S. Savings Bonds regularly—through Payroll Savings where you work or Bond-a-Month where you bank—you are also entitled to purchase new Freedom Shares. Freedom Shares are short-term Savings Notes. They pay a higher return than Savings Bonds (4.74% when held to maturity in 4½ years), may be bought one-for-one with Bonds in four denominations, and are redeemable after one year. You will find complete information where you work or bank.

On The Screen . . .

Varied Line-Up Of Movies Scheduled

A Walt Disney action-adventure set in the California Gold Rush days, a World War II drama in North Africa, and a touching adventure of two boys in India are all on the agenda for local moviegoers at the Eagle Drive-In Theatre this coming week. All three movies are in color.

'Griffin' Whips Up Closing Storm

The newest release from Walt Disney Productions, The Adventures of Bullwhip Griffin, is a comedy spoof of the California Gold Rush area that starts out as a somewhat aimless nephyr and winds up in a whirlwind of the wildest kind of fisticuffs.

The film will be shown Friday and Saturday nights here.

The screenplay, developed from Sid Fleischman's novel, By The Great Horn Spoon, places a sheltered Bostonian lad (Bryan Russell) and his proper butler (Roddy McDowall) in San Francisco in the mid-19th century. The boy and his sister (Suzanne Pleshette) have been left penniless by their grandfather and seek their fortune in the rush for gold.

Through circumstances beyond his control, McDowall is hailed as a fighter-hero and finds himself matched with Mountain Ox, played by Mike Mazurki, truly a mountain of man. McDowall wins the fight, the girl and apparently all the gold in California.

Ward Kimbell deserves a pat for the screen credits, reminiscent of the silent film days, and the animated gimmick. George Burns' rinky-tink score is in the proper mood and period.

Action-Heroics at Tobruk

If you are looking for something that will provide an interval of escape from the humdrum, then try the motion picture, Tobruk. This new film, which comes Sunday and Monday nights to the Eagle, is a combination of heroics, vivid spectacle, bombastic sabotage and action adventure in the vein of the highly successful Guns of Navarone of a few years back.

Tobruk, as one might suspect, is about the World War II fighting in North Africa and basically concerns the efforts of a British commando team to destroy the hidden fuel bunker's that spark Rommel's tank divisions, wreck the gun emplacements and hold the port city for 12 hours while allied seaborne forces land to take control.

Rock Hudson is the reluctant British major "drafted" to go on the suicide mission to destroy Rommel's petrol supply in that port city.

How to get past the Germans? Go disguised as POW's "guarded" by German-speaking Jews George Peppard and Guy Stockwell.

Filming on the Arizona desert location vacated by the Flight of the Phoenix company, Director Arthur Hiller blows up and burns enough of the countryside for 107 minutes probably to render it useless for any future filming there.

As such, Tobruk explodes and seethes with enough intensity to make it totally entertaining.

Boys Win In 'Maya' Film

Wild-animal adventure coupled with a warm, touching story, then set to breathtaking color of India are the ingredients used to make Maya a new motion picture for the whole family. It comes Wednesday and Thursday nights of next week to the Eagle Drive-In screen.

The cast of this movie, adapted for the screen by John Fante from the novel, The Wild Elephant, by Jalal Din and Lois Roth, is headed by Clint Walker, Jay North, Sajid Kahn and I. S. Johar.

Maya is the story of an American boy who comes to India to live with his big-game hunting father. But because of an accident with a tiger, his mighty father has turned coward and is a disappointment to the boy. So the boy, Terry, runs away and meets an Indian boy, Raji, who has a mission to carry out for his own dead father.

This mission is to take the sacred baby elephant named Primo and its mother, Maya, to a faraway temple. The two boys start out together: Terry optimistically and Raji pessimistically.

They encounter many drawbacks along the way. The white elephant calf is a sacred and prized animal in India, and thus many try to take the calf from its mother and the two boys.

The movie ends as the boys complete the journey and discover for themselves the treasure of brotherly friendship they have found in their treacherous journey together.

Clint Walker, as Hugh Bowen, indifferently plays the part of the seemingly indifferent father. But when he was not the true star. The star would be Terry, played by Jay North, much changed since his Dennis the Menace days. He does a good job and pleasingly puts across the excitement of youth in a strange country.

The action of the movie is fast and continuous under the direction of John Berry and the beauty of the scenes of India make this production something to behold.

Methodist Notes

There was Open House in the Education Building with exhibits of handicrafts, and refreshments were served. The school was conducted for two weeks, with Mrs. Bob Joyce and Mrs. Ed Meador in general charge.
