Last Week's Rainfall Averages Two Inches

Starting Sunday night, Nov. 5, and running over a period of four days, Eldorado experienced a spell of light showers and of moisture which measured about 2 inches in most rain gauges.

Skies began clearing by Thursday, and Friday brought clear skies and sunshine which was appreciated by football teams and fans throughout the area.

While last week's wet spell put a halt to cotton harvesting, it was the answer to the prayer of farmers and ranchers. It was a life-saver for small grains and weeds and promises better conditions for winter grazing.

Eagle Band To Go To Coleman Saturday

The Eagle Marching Band will travel to Coleman Saturday for the Region VII U. I. L. Marching Contest. They will be under direction of Bandmaster Wayne McDonald.

There will be 14 bands in Class A and Eldorado will follow Cross Plains again this year. The Eagle Band will be the last band in Class A competition. This is a bad position and the Eldorado Band will have to do an outstanding performance to earn the highest U. I. L. Award.

Eldorado is scheduled to march at 1:50 p.m.

Twirlers will perform solos at 11:54 a.m. They are: Susan Mobley, Stella Hubble, Debra Murr, Kay Mann, and Mona Wagoner.

The Eagle Band will take 76 members to Coleman. The band will have 7 substitutes this year.

The marching contest is the first of 3 contests toward the Sweepstakes award. The Spring Concert and sight reading contests will determine the Sweepstakes winner.

The Eagle Band earned the Sweepstakes award last year. In addition to the Class A competition there are 14 bands in Class AA, 6 in Class AAA, 3 in Class B, and 1 in Jr. High.

S. S. MAN COMING HERE WEDNESDAY MORNING

Bob Logan, representative for the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his trip to Eldorado for November. He will be at the Courthouse from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, November 22nd. This is two days earlier than previously announced.

Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at that time.

Post Script

Canutillo's football team is due in Sonora to play the Broncos for bi-district.

Coach Morgan expects the Canutillo team to be here today, Thursday, to practice.

—ps—
Hunting season kicked off last Saturday morning with a chilly and foggy morning.

On Sunday, James Williams and son Keith and S. D. Harper bagged three bucks at Bob Skurlock's. They had two 9-pointers and one 4-point.

Gene Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nixon, Jr., bagged a large buck opening week end. He won one of the deer leases for which the FFA sold chances.

There were some other effects of the opening of this '67 hunting season.

Mrs. N. G. Hodges, manager of the Eldorado Hardware store, reported that she had a run of camping supplies late Friday and all day Saturday. She sold all the frying pans, lamp mantles and parts, and other items that hunters found themselves short of.

By Monday morning, Granvil Hext reported that the deer storage vault at Hext Foods had 2 turkeys and 35 deer. More were expected, of course, as the week and the hunting season progressed.

—ps—
Ken Rosford was back in circulation Monday after being a patient in Ozona from Tuesday of last week, where he had been taking rabies treatment.

—ps—
Ronnie Mittel, secretary of the Hospital District Board of Directors, informs us that the district now has a total of $160 in its Memorial Fund.

He asked us to remind people that the Board is prepared to accept memorials, and that they have acknowledgement cards which are sent both to the donor and to the bereaved. The fund will be used for special purposes.

—ps—
Unforeseen delays in legal work have prevented the Board from moving as rapidly as they wished in the hospital project, but they were assured last week that most of the obstacles would soon be overcome.

At their last meeting the board did approve tentative floor plans for the hospital, leaving Architect Don Goss free to work out details for each room, and freeing Consultant Tol Terrell to place orders for equipment and furnishings. He has, in fact, already placed some orders.

In Eldorado experience has shown you can drill at one corner of a lot and find solid rock at four feet, while at 100 feet away it will not be encountered until you go twelve. The architect can not work out detailed specifications for a foundation until he has been given the exact location.

It is expected to be January before plans will be completed so that contractors' bids can be called for.

Sr. Farm Skills: Hyman Sauer, Ross Whitten, Allan Sallee, and Roy Mack Hawkins.

These boys will compete in the area contest next Saturday at Big Spring.

Ozona won the Sr. Chapter conducting and Quiz contests. Bronte won Jr. chapter conducting and Robert Lee won the Jr. Farm Skills. The Eldorado Jr. Chapter conducting team won third. Team members were: Walter Speck, Steve Sykes, William Tamkpe, Dobbie Lively, Santos Pena, Garvin Lacy and Steve Poole.

Voter Turnout Light For Amendments

As expected, the voter turnout was light both locally and statewide last Saturday for the election on the six proposed amendments to the State Constitution. All six, however, passed over the state.

Here in Schleicher county we had about 85 votes cast. T. R. Spence, election judge, estimated that the costs of holding the election averaged out at about a dollar a vote.

So those who did vote got their money's worth. All votes were cast at the Memorial Building.

Here is how the local votes tallied out:

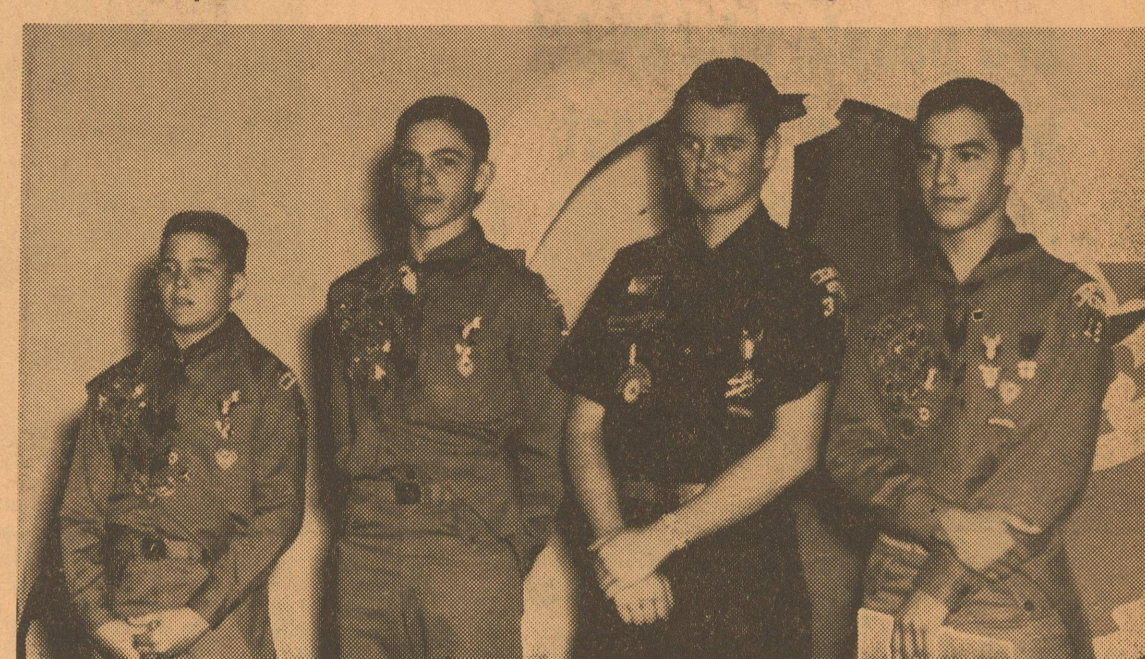

- 1. Consolidating County Taxes - Approval ..... 33
Against ..... 45
- 2. Municipal Health Services: Approval ..... 49
Against ..... 30
- 3. Veterans' Land Fund: Approval ..... 59

Comment: An innovation for 1968 is that District Committee members voted to play a junior high school schedule of boys in grades 7 and 8, and a "B" team schedule. Incidentally, Eldorado is one of the very few school systems which requires players other than those on the varsity team to comply with University Interscholastic League academic rules: i. e., a boy must pass 3/4 of his courses to be eligible to play.

David Meador Is In The Marines

David Meador, apparently taking basic training in the Marine Corps, writes from San Diego to say that the Marine Corps is tough and hard, but great. He also goes on to say that they are restricted as to mail and gifts. "We cannot accept cookies or candy at any time, not even at Christmas," and included newspapers as being on the restricted list.

From this it would appear that first class mail is about the only mail they are permitted at this time.

No doubt when basic is completed and the man is assigned to a regular outfit, the rules will be more lenient.

David is the son of Johnny Meador and graduated from EHS here several years ago. The address he gave in this letter is:

Ozona Lions Blank Eagles In Final Game

The Ozona Lions crushed the Eldorado Eagles last Friday night by a lop-sided 42-0 score in the final 1967 game for both teams. Obviously, the Lions had no difficulties in winning their last game of the year to take third place in 8A conference standings and drop Eldorado to 6th place. Only teams to defeat Ozona this season were Sonora, September 29 by 13 to 7, and Iraan, November 3 by 28 to 14.

The Lions were the heaviest aggregation of lads to compete against the Eagles this year. They were really big boys physically.

Game statistics show the Lions had it their way but that there were some bright spots in the Eldorado efforts:

Eldorado:	Ozona:
9 First downs	22
78 Yards rushing	362
160 Yards passing	12
238 Total yards	374
31 Passes attempted	12
12 Passes compl.	2
0 Opp. passes interc.	3
1 Fumbles captured	0
3for45 Penalties	7for70
6for34 Punts & av. dist.	3for36

Score by quarters:
Ozona — 6 22 14 0 — 42

Eldorado won the toss and received. The Eagles then made a first down or so and were forced to kick. With the clock reading 7 minutes and 16 seconds to go in the first quarter, Lion HB Fleet Coates circled his own right end.

and kept running some 30 yards to score. The attempt to kick the extra point failed and that was all the scoring in the first quarter. But the roof fell in on the Eagles in the second quarter. The Lions forced John Mayo into his own scoring territory for two points. Fleet Coates scored again for Ozona and ran over for the two extra points. As soon as the Lions got the ball, they scored again with Coates carrying. The first half ended with Ozona out front 28-0.

The Lions had the option to start the second half and elected to receive. Lion HB Beto Diaz took the kickoff and ran straight up the middle of the field to score. The Lions scored again halfway through the third quarter and then Coach Sam Mosley called it a night and sent in the reserves. They were not able to score in the fourth quarter and the game ended 42-0 for Ozona.

The Eagles understandably could make little yardage against the

Transient Injured North Of Town Tuesday

Mrs. Esther J. Robinson, a 69-year-old Del Rio woman, was injured seriously in a one-car accident about 5:30 p.m. Tuesday near here.

The accident occurred 7 miles north on Highway 277. Officers said her car apparently lost control, veered off the road and struck a bridge. The car flipped and came to a rest on the bridge.

Mrs. Robinson was removed from the car by motorists who came to the accident scene shortly after it happened.

She suffered a dislocated hip and head injuries. She went into surgery shortly after 8:00 p.m. Tuesday.

Sheriff Orval Edmiston and Bob McWhorter were among those who assisted.

Mrs. Robinson was taken to Shanon hospital by R. V. Sheppard ambulance, accompanied by Mrs. Sheppard and Mrs. Eldon Calk.

Latest report was that Mrs. Robinson was in poor condition in the hospital.

Chisholm Trail Traveling Museum Is In Angelo Today and Friday, Open To Public

The Chisholm Trail Centennial Museum will be making a scheduled appearance in San Angelo today and Friday.

The sleek, sand-beige Chisholm Trail Museum, uniquely housed in a railway car, is sponsored by the Tri-State Chisholm Trail Centennial Commission.

The car will be parked at the Santa Fe Depot business car spur in Angelo and will be open today, Thursday, from 11:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

The tri-state commission is made up of Chisholm Trail Centennial Celebration Commissions from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Housed in the 60-foot car, are exhibits of selected items from private and museum collections which vividly interpret the story of the Chisholm Trail.

On entering the museum car, the visitor sees a map tracing the Chisholm Trail from its many points of origin in Texas across Indian Territory (now Oklahoma) to Abilene, Kansas, and the railroad.

The entry opens into a spacious compartment roughly one-half the length of the rail car.

Exhibits near the entry depict the strong Spanish influence on the early Texas cattle industry and carries this theme over to "cowboy society"; the evolution of dro-vers' wearing apparel; and adaptation of special tools and equipment needed for the long cattle drives.

The next exhibits are about the actual drives. By the time herds had reached Red River Station on the Texas-Oklahoma border, the cattle were fairly well trail broken.

Oklahoma during the time of the Chisholm Trail was occupied by eight tribes of Indians—Cheyenne, Arapaho, Wichita, Caddo, Kiowa, Apache, Comanche and Chickasaw.

The last section of exhibits are devoted to the conclusion of the drives. At the trail's end were the cowtowns with stockyards and loading pens.

Two displays of special interest tell the Colt Revolver story and the barbed wire story.

The barbed wire display contains many early variations—homemade wire, square wire, ribbon wire, double wire and forerunners of modern barbed wire.

Charming photographs from the Irwin Smith Collection, Library of Congress, adorn the walls above the displays along with three massive sets of horns.

The second half of the museum car is separated into three main exhibit areas.

A cowboy in authentic costume along with his saddle, gun and working gear, occupy the first space.

The second area contains the working end of a full-sized chuck wagon along with a camp cook preparing grub.

The focal point of the third display, devoted to literary and artistic memorabilia inspired by the Chisholm Trail, is a bronze sculpture by Frederick Remington.

Popular western artists, Melvin C. Warren, Tom Lea and Joe Grandee, have special paintings on exhibit.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

It has been a well known fact for ages that the consumer is the most important cog in the total economic wheel.

Who is the consumer? It is us, you and me. It is someone making an 18-cent purchase or a young couple buying an $18,000 house.

All kinds of laws protect the consumer today. No longer does he buy "a pig in a poke" for one law or another demands that virtually everything we eat, wear and use must be labeled.

There is one thing that the government can not do for the consumer. No bureau in the world can force him to learn; no one can force him to think and know; only consumer is responsible for his decisions. He can be protected against virtually everything except his own indifference or ignorance.

For instance: Do you complain about high food costs? Is your food bill too high?

Food is not expensive in comparison to other goods and services you buy said Gwendolyn Clyatt, specialist Extension Consumer Marketing, A&M University.

Some reports list as much as 27% of the grocery bill as non-food items. Are you adding the non-food items to your grocery bill?

If your food bill is too high, do something about it. Take a look at the garbage pail. It is first-hand proof of the food your family refuses to eat.

First look at your planned menus, then, at what you buy. Do you spend enough time in the grocery store to compare values?

Avoid frequent trips to the grocery store. The more often you shop the more you spend for food.

The next exhibit is about the actual drives. By the time herds had reached Red River Station on the Texas-Oklahoma border, the cattle were fairly well trail broken.

Did you know the average American family throws away 2/3 of a pound of food per person per day?

The size of the grocery bill is flexible. The total of the tape when it is your turn at the check-out counter is definitely related to the values your family places on optional and necessary items at the grocery store.

Beef prices are about the same as a week ago and forequarter cuts are generally the best buy, price-wise.

Two displays of special interest tell the Colt Revolver story and the barbed wire story.

and loin roasts, bacon and sausage. Large size turkeys—16 pounds and up—are featured at attractive prices in many markets.

Apples, Tokay grapes and Italian plums are the best fruit choices. Cabbage, yellow onions, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, mustard and turnip greens, corn and potatoes are the vegetables now in good supply at reasonable prices levels.

Baylor University's Abner McCall at the past summer graduation exercises of this school, said he never gets too excited about apostles of doom.

His grandfather in his house of logs, Said everything is going to the dogs.

His grandfather in the Flemish bogs, Said everything is going to the dogs.

His grandfather in his old skin togs, Said everything is going to the dogs.

This one thing I want to state, The dogs have had a good long wait.

As a part of the consumer week observance, the Home Demonstration Agent's office has prepared a set of directions for buying and cooking poultry, with emphasis on the holiday turkey.

For next Thursday — May your turkey be a glistening brown, done to a turn; may the gravy be just right, neither too thin, lumpy nor too thick.

May the mashed potatoes be as fluffy as a cloud and not too salty; the cranberry sauce tender yet strong and firm; the green beans crisp, yet tender; the hot rolls both light and hot—the dessert so good that you cannot bear to pass it up.

May you be so thankful for all your blessings that your cup will run over—and over—and over.

Austin, Tex.—Gov. John Connally did what very few people in your capitol city expected him to do when he announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election in 1968.

About the only person who really felt that he would not run, and said so, was Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, an already-announced candidate for Governor.

Connally's declaration brought forth many reactions.

Republicans felt it would add impetus to their 1968 campaign plans... which seem to include former attorney general Will Wilson in the governor's race.

Liberals listened for word from Sen. Ralph Yarborough Houston lawyer Don Yarborough and other potential gubernatorial candidates.

Conservatives began a sudden guessing game, with former attorney general Waggoner Carr apparently high on their potential list. But not all have given up on Connally. They point out that the filing deadline is not until February 15.

Anyway, 1968 promises to be one of those years when cowboys and Indians both may bite the dust. Things are pointing in that direction.

on 54,950 acres of oil and gas lands. Sulphur leases averaged $547.25 an acre on 3,005 acres.

Nueces County Gulf of Mexico oil-gas lease totalling 1,440 acres brought the top bid of $129,787 from Cities Service Oil Company. Top sulphur lease bid was $1,056,323 by W. C. Tillett for 555 acres in Culberson county near Van Horn.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler reported that the permanent school fund now totals $742,338,369.

War On Poverty Projects

Nearly $210 million in federal anti-poverty funds have poured into Texas the past two years.

Annual report by the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity shows $98.9 million authorized for spending on war on poverty projects during the fiscal year which ended August 31.

Money found its way into the largest and smallest counties and the richest and poorest. More than a third of the 1967 allocation — $34.5 million—went to five Texas counties—Harris, Bexar, Dallas, El Paso and Webb.

Nearly $45 million of the statewide total was for Community Action Programs including Operation Head Start for pre-school children, health programs, neighborhood centers, concentrated employment programs to recruit, train and place hard-core unemployed, legal aid and adult services.

Neighborhood Youth Corps activities, reaching some 18,463 students, were allocated $20,118,710 for the year. Job Corps training at Gary Center in San Marcos, the McKinney women's unit, and the New Waverly rural center for men received another $17,340,026.

Assistance to migrants and seasonal farm workers totalled more than $6,300,000; college work study allocations, $1,900,000; co-op loans to farm families, $1,700,000; the work experience program, $2 million plus; and Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA), $1.2 million.

Appointments Announced

Governor Connally announced appointments of 157th District Judge Phil Peden as Associate Justice of First Court of Civil Appeals in Houston, Harris County Court of Domestic Relations No. 4 Judge Arthur Leshner to 157th district court and Harris County Court at Law No. 1 Judge Madison Ravburn to 30th District Court (Civil) of Harris County.

House Speaker Ben Barnes appointed to the Parks Study Committee Reps. Gene Hendryx of Alpine; J. M. Simpson of Amarillo; Lindon Williams of Galena Park; Griffith Moore of Dallas; D. C. Howard of Uvalde; James L. Lovell of Crockett; and Dave Allred of Wichita Falls.

Robert E. Schneider of George West was appointed to represent the State Bar Association on advisory committee for school law recodification.

Glenn Jarvis, McAllen, succeeds presidential aide Larry Temple as chairman of state junior bar's governing board of directors.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer will become University of Texas professor of engineering practice on retirement next year.

Insurance Probe On Banks

State Insurance Board reports a statewide investigation has disclosed credit insurance irregularities in 24 Texas banks.

Ten more investigation reports are outstanding.

Board announced investigations at a public hearing on credit insurance rates and coverages. Board Chairman Wm. Hunter McLean said that investigation of credit insurance practices may be expanded into other lending fields. Texans paid nearly $50 million in premiums last year for credit life and credit health and accident insurance—coverage which provides for settlement of debts in event a borrower dies or is disabled.

Texas Bankers Association men reminded that there are 1,150 banks in the state, many of which rely on insurance companies for advice on insurance matters. He pledged prompt correction of any violations.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court has held that paving assessments must be based on official city-prepared estimate of costs before improvements are made. Decision reversed lower courts which upheld assessments against a Houston woman's property.

High court agreed with lower courts that an employee of an El Paso County commissioner who worked 18 months without pay was entitled to $4,000 in damages and $2,500 in attorneys' fees.

Third Court of Civil Appeals backed the district court in Burnet County in its decision that a suit to block an election on incorporation of the town of Granite Shoals was improperly brought by private citizens.

Guard Aid Granted

Cost of National Guard aid to civil authorities in the Hurricane Beulah disaster was ordered paid by Governor Connally.

Governor granted his entire deficiency appropriation of $200,000, plus $6,582 from his office's appropriations, for payments of disaster claims.

Adjutant General's Department figured the Guard payroll for the disaster period at $160,000, rations at $23,490, medical supplies and expenses at $11,000 and the balance for miscellaneous expenses.

Draft Quota Set

Texas draft boards will call 3,485 men for pre-induction mental and physical examinations in December, says State Selective Service Director Col. Morris Schwartz.

Boards will send 4,650 for this examination in November.

December induction quota for 155 boards is 924 men, compared with 1,159 for November, 977 for October, 1,180 for September, 1,421 for August and 974 for July.

Inductions are scheduled for the period December 1-15. December's state call is a portion of the national quota of 18,200, all for the Army.

Water Costs Eyed

Staggering cost of transporting water to various parts of Texas was reviewed by the Texas Water Development Board.

Staff aides told the Board that they figured it would take 3/10 of a cent per kilowatt hour to pay for power to bring water needed into West and South Texas. Board members indicated they feared that the estimate was too low.

Aides calculated it would cost $1.8 billion to deliver three million acre-feet of water a year to Cooper Reservoir in West Texas to irrigate 1,500,000 acres.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Frank Reid

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist church in Sonora for Mrs. Frank Reid, 55, who was the mother-in-law of Sherrill Dannheim of Eldorado. Interment was made in Ft. McKavett cemetery under direction of Ratliff-Kerbaw Funeral Home.

Mrs. Reid's badly burned body was found Saturday morning by hunters in her auto on a ranch road near U.S. 277 south of Sonora. The death was ruled accidental by Peace Justice Alfred Cooper.

Mrs. Reid had been dead several hours, according to Sutton county Sheriff Herman Moore. The car was gutted by fire and the body had been burned badly. Cooper said the fire apparently started in the engine and caused the gas tank to explode before Mrs. Reid could escape.

The car was either stopped or traveling at a very low speed when the explosion occurred, he said, because none of the area behind the car was burned. The car was on the right side of the road as if parked.

Cooper speculated that Mrs. Reid was stopping the car to park when it exploded. The body was found upright in the driver's seat. Mrs. Reid was born Nov. 13, 1912. She was married to Frank Reid in 1928 in Eldorado. The couple had lived on the Dunbar Ranch since then.

Mrs. Reid was a member of the First Baptist Church in Sonora. Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Sherrill Dannheim of Eldorado; three brothers, T. H. Osteen of Del Rio, James Osteen of Sweetwater and Jewell Osteen, address unknown, and two sisters, including Mrs. Robert Hoopes, address unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrill Dannheim and baby son make their home here and he is employed by the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op.

North Carolina Yams: Sweet, Golden

YAMS, such as those grown so abundantly in the sandy loam of North Carolina, take their name from an African word meaning "to eat." Sweet, moist, golden-fleshed, these super sweetpotatoes mean good nutrition as well as eating satisfaction, for they are a rich source of vitamin A, a good source of vitamin C and yield considerable amounts of other vitamins and minerals.

BAKED STUFFED YAMS

- 6 medium-sized yams
- 1/4 cup butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans
- 1/4 teaspoon baking powder

Wash yams and bake in preheated very hot oven (450F) until tender, 45 to 60 minutes. Cut slice from top of each. Scoop out the inside, being careful not to break shells. Mash yams; add celery, pecans, 2 tablespoons of the butter, sugar and baking powder and mix well. Fill shells, dot with remaining butter, 1 teaspoon on each yam. Bake in very hot oven (450F) 20 minutes or until puffed and slightly browned. Serve at once. YIELD: 6 servings

APPLE YAM AND CARROT CASSEROLE

- 4 yams
- 3 carrots
- 1 1/4 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon peel
- 3 tart cooking apples
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Wash, peel and slice yams and carrots. Place in a saucepan with salt and boiling water to cover. Cover and cook 25 minutes or until tender. Drain if necessary. Mash until fluffy and season with black pepper, nutmeg and lemon peel. Meantime, pare and cut apples into thin slices. Fill a buttered 1-quart casserole with the yam mixture as the bottom and top layers. Sprinkle brown sugar over each layer and dot with butter. Bake in pre-heated moderate oven (350F) 45 minutes or until top begins to brown. YIELD: 6 servings huge Ozona line. They did succeed in grinding out 78 yards on the ground. John Mayo made 30; Roy Davidson, 10; Dwain Dempsey, 1; Mickey Clark, 2; Wayne Doyle, 5; and Bob Page, 30 yards with keepers and his sudden realization that he could "scramble" too on occasion.

The Eagles went to the air for their 160 more yards. Bob Page hurred 31 times with 12 completions. As an aside and not to imply that the officials influenced the game outcome, but the fact remains that this was the most poorly officiated game in which the Eagles have played this year.

Sophomore Bob Page repeated poundings from Ozona linemen and linebackers as officials indulgently looked on. But Page courageously pulled himself together and got up to fire another and frequently completed pass when it was only too plain that he was in for another thorough clobbering just as the ball left his hand.

His principal receivers were Mike Olson and Paul Page on passes into the territory vacated by the Ozona linebackers who were amusing themselves pounding QB Bob Page. These two Eldorado lads also demonstrated courage of high degree because they knew that within a fraction of a second after receiving Bob Page's passes, the Ozona secondary defenders would crash into their backs. But these two lads held on to the ball and helped the Eagles amass a very respectable 160 yards with their passing attack which clearly was a great surprise to Ozona.

A heart breaker took place when Bob Page fired a "bomb" to Buff Whitten who carried on across the Ozona goal line for a touchdown. But the officials nullified the score with a penalty happening far away.

Mike Olson captured the Ozona fumble and for once this season the Eagles posted a no-fumble-for-a-full-game record.

Coach Ray Morgan called on three promising "B" squad lads in this final game and they acquitted themselves well. Keith Williams made several good tackles of Lions three years and 75 pounds his senior and once after receiving a front, made a squirming, twisting runback and was hauled down by the last man who could have stopped him, Bobby Sykes and Sam Oglesby, the other two "B" squad lads made several tackles and handled themselves well against the Lions who were much older and heavier.

Several Eagles received routine bumps and bruises. Dwain Dempsey received a bruised knee. David Lloyd has a sore knee as a souvenir. John Mayo has a cut hand as a memento. Mike Olson received a clip which induced a muscle spasm in his back but the ache has apparently gone away after some sessions in the school-owned hydro-therapy unit.

Eight Eagles played their last high school football game last Friday night. They helped comprise a 44-man squad which started this past September. This means that 32 boys of this year's squad will be available for 1968. They include these juniors of '68: Bob Page, James L. Davis, Joel Muzquiz, Wayne Doyle, John Danford, Mickey Clark, and Paul Page.

Seniors to be for the 1968 season include Mike Olson, Allan Corbell, Jim Robledo, Albert Torres, Ross Whitten, Jimmy McGinnes, and Dwain (Pinky) Dempsey.

In other words, next year's team can be made up of juniors and seniors so sophomores can have more time to mature. Only sophomores of exceptional physical development are able to compete on equal terms with juniors and seniors.

It's "farewell" football-wise to Jim Mann, Roy Davidson, Sidney Reynolds, Mickey Pennington, David Lloyd, James Hight, Buff Whitten, and John Mayo. And the best of wishes to them all the way.

'B' Girls Host Del Rio

The "B" Eaglettes composed largely of freshmen will host the Del Rio "B's" Saturday night at 6:00 in Eagle Gym.

These girls include Claudia Meador, Gail Robinson, Mary Lynn McCalla, Susan Rogers, Lisa McAngus, Sheri Roberts, Vicki Preston, Debbie Johnson, Kathy Meador and Peggy Hanusch at guard. The offensive unit includes Sheila Murr, Peggy Hill, Linda Derrick, Sue Ann Morris and Kathleen O'Harrow. No starting unit has been named.

This is a good group of "B" girls with height and speed and lots of junior high playing experience.

The team will meet Del Rio here Saturday then travel to Nueces Canyon Monday night for what is expected to be a tough contest. In December the "B" girls face Menard twice and contend in the Eldorado Tournament. The January schedule includes Forsan "B", Nueces Canyon, and Lake View before they wind up with Del Rio February 3rd.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Ting Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

The season when prussic acid poisoning becomes a hazard to livestock is here. The danger of livestock losses is greatest where frosts have occurred during the past several days. Prussic acid poisoning occurs when certain plants are grazed immediately after they have been damaged by frost.

Sorghum species, including johnsongrass, sudangrass, and the grain sorghums, can become the source of poisoning. Cattle are the most susceptible although other domestic animals can be affected.

The poisoning is rapid acting and signs of illness may start within a few minutes after the animal has eaten the plant. Death may occur within 15 minutes or an animal may live for several hours.

The most common symptoms of poisoning are salivation, labored breathing and bloat. Affected animals should be removed from the pasture or field and treated immediately by a veterinarian if possible.

Sorghum species should not be grazed after frost until they have dried out. The time may vary from a few hours to several days. Livestock producers will have to take precaution and use good judgment in the above mentioned frost cases.

Poise is that quality which enables you to buy a new pair of shoes while ignoring the hole in your sock.

With deer hunting season already under way in the county, hunters might be interested in the bulletin "Cooking Wild Game" which is available at the agent's office. Then too, "Field Dressing A Deer" a leaflet available might serve useful in many cases even though you are considered an experienced hunter.

Since quality venison depends primarily on how the deer is handled from the time of the kill until it is placed in the freezer, field dressing is important.

L-634 explains one method of field dressing and skinning a deer. However, any method resulting in a clean, well-bled carcass is satisfactory. Unpleasant experiences with venison usually result from the lack of care before the meat reaches the kitchen. Information in the leaflet has been provided by Wallace Klussmann, Extension wildlife specialist, and the Texas Parks and Wildlife magazine.

Another publication that should be of interest to hunters and housewives during this hunting season is Extension Bulletin, B-987, "Wild Game Care and Cooking." It offers many suggestions for preparing delicious dishes of venison as well as other wild game meats.

Both publications are available from my office.

Experience is what makes you wonder how it got a reputation for being the best teacher.

Two things are receiving a lot of attention today—youth and involvement. It's important to be young. It's important to be involved—to be doing something rather than just being a spectator. While this emphasis is being applied to all facets of daily life, it shows that 4-H is as up-to-date as the top ten records and as "in" as the latest styles.

4-H is all about youth. Its members are the young, its junior leaders are young and the youthful attitude extends to the adult leaders who guide and counsel the members.

And talk about involvement! Doing things has been the 4-H way since long before the current vogue was realized. "Learn by doing" continues to be the keynote for the countless 4-H projects that are constantly in progress throughout the world.

Parents and adult leaders will be given the opportunity in 1968 in all phases of 4-H. It's going to take more than standing on the sidelines and let "John" or "Tom" have a free ride at the expense of youth of the county.

There is a very definite need for citizenship and unselfish leadership in youth organizations that will challenge older youths to be useful citizens through programs brought by leaders.

Other things may be seized by might, but knowledge is to be gained only by study.

Girls To Travel To Nueces Canyon

Monday night the Eldorado girls will hit the road to Barksdale to take on a very good Nueces Canyon girls team. A couple of years ago the Nueces Pantherettes breezed to the finals of the Eldorado Tournament before the Eaglettes defeated them. However, they now possess height, speed, and very fine rebounding accompanied by the fact they have been playing since Oct. 15 since they are a Class B school. This means that while invading their home court the Eaglettes must be "Ready" to play ball. It will be the local team's second game and it should be a "barn burner" because the green and white does not like to lose.

The offense will be composed of Libby Preston, Susan Mobley, Susan Hill, Stella Hubble, Arlene Hartgraves, and Dale Montgomery. The defense will consist of Chris Edmiston, Sherry Yates, Billie Gay Blaylock, Randy Yates, Lisa Whitten, and Donna Davis and Shirley Hubble. Chris also plays forward in given situations and Dale Montgomery goes to guard when her height is needed.

The "B" Eaglettes will begin at 6:30 with the varsity playing immediately following.

Eldorado Employee Receives SCS Award

Two area USDA Soil Conservation Service employees were recognized in San Angelo Tuesday in a ceremony held at the SCS area office in the old San Angelo National Bank building.

Lloyd B. Johnson, soil conservation technician with the Eldorado work unit, and Harvey R. Kahlden, soil conservationist of the Runnels work unit, were awarded certificates of commendation for the outstanding contributions they made in their individual districts.

"In recognition of his being assigned an outstanding performance rating for fiscal year 1967... the superior manner in which he performed his duties in the application and maintenance of quality conservation practices..." William M. Rountree of Eldorado, work unit conservationist, read from the certificate before making the presentation to Johnson for his 25 years service.

Johnson has been with SCS since April 1942, having joined that agency after graduating from Honey Grove (Fannin county) High School. He entered the U. S. Air Force in 1944 and reassumed his duties in Eldorado in 1946.

Roy Case Gets Deer In Wisconsin At 78

The first man in the state of Wisconsin ever to shoot a deer with bow and arrow as a sport has done it again.

Racine's Roy Case, now 79, one of the nation's pioneer and best known archers, got a big buck near his "second home" in Vilas county. It weighed 170 pounds after being dressed out and returned to Racine for packaging and freezing.

Mr. Case is a brother of the late P. F. Case of this county, and his nephew Fred Case, still lives here. Following account from a Wisconsin newspaper gives further details:

Wisconsin was the first state to have a bow and arrow season for deer in 1930 and Roy Case was the first archer to get one. He has shot about 14 or 15 since then, all of them near his Vilas County home. Mr. and Mrs. Case go there each year for one deer season as well as spending much of the summer there.

Case formed the first archery club in Racine in 1927, helped organize and was the first president of the Midwest Archery Association and in 1929 helped to organize the Wisconsin Archery Association.

Since that time he has won many trophies and has been active in bowhunting and archery organizations.

He was hunting this year with Art LaHa, Winchester, Wis., one of the nation's top bowhunters.

LaHa has shot polar bear in Alaska and dozens of bear in northern Wisconsin with bow and arrow.

* District Games

Eaglettes Host Del Rio Here This Saturday

For the first time in several years the Eaglettes will open their basketball season at home in Eagle Gym. The date is Saturday, November 18, the time is 6:30, and the foe is Del Rio, a Class AAA school.

The Del Rio Wildcats have had a fairly strong team the last couple of years although Eldorado has managed to subdue them. This year should show a fairly young team with a sprinkling of experience.

This year's edition of the Eaglettes was originally experience packed but before the season ever got started, Coach Bell had lost the services of two strong guards, Shirley Hubble and Donna Davis. Shirley was injured in a summer auto accident and Donna underwent knee surgery in September. However, he is in hopes that both will be ready to see service by district play. Until that time various combinations will carry the defensive duties.

The only two proven guards under pressure with experience are Chris Edmiston and Sherry Yates. Both are seniors, hustlers, excellent ball handlers, and get more than their share of rebounds despite their 5' 4" and 5' 3" heights. Both girls were All District and All Tournament choices last year. The other senior is Billie Gayl Blaylock who is a letterman with some experience. Among the sophomores will be Lisa Whitten and Randy Yates, neither of whom is tall but both hustle the ball well. Both Donna and Shirley are working out but not ready for game activity.

The offensive unit should be a solid one led by Libby Preston, last year's captain and All District forward. She is a constant threat with good scoring ability, free throw accuracy, and rebounding. Susan Hill, also All-District as a junior, was the leading scorer last year and led at the free throw line. Susan Mobley, a 5' 8" forward, has excellent rebound ability and hits consistently. She was honorable mention All District last season. Stella Hubble, 5' 3", is coming on stronger this season than ever before. All these girls are seniors and will be providing the leadership and ability to carry the offensive load. They will be ably aided by two sophomores, Arlene Hartgraves and Dale Montgomery. These two were stellar scorers on the "B" team as freshmen and were excellent in the rebound department as they stand 5' 7".

This group rounds out the varsity team for 1967-68 with Kathy Robinson as the manager for the third year.

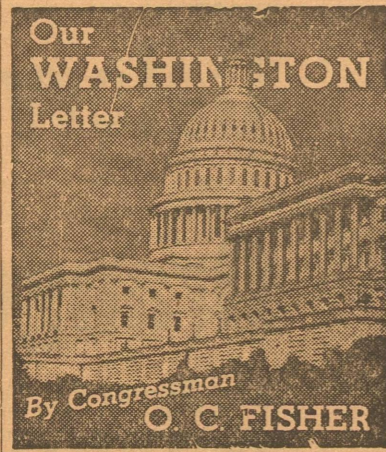

Coach Bell looks forward to a very successful season for the Eaglettes and points out that every member of the team has already set her sights higher than just a district championship. This was not just an unqualified statement for he did hasten to add that for the team to make a solid showing this season the defense must get tougher on the ball handlers outside and on the boards rebounding. This will help make up for the very definite height disadvantage. The forwards not only must score consistently but also must improve their defensive tactics. An all-out effort by both the Eaglette forwards and guards will be made to control the basketball as much as possible. Many players may find themselves playing both forward and guard when needed.

There are several non-district foes that will provide tough early season competition, among them Nueces Canyon, Rocksprings, For-san, Winters, and Lake View. The girls go into the very tough Hardin-Simmons tournament with only 5 games behind them but the experience and recognition of a big well-publicized tournament is very worthwhile and Eldorado more than held her own last year winning 4th and having Chris and Sherry on the All Tournament team and Sherry was the most outstanding player. The Eldorado Tournament will have fewer teams but tough ones. All of this could indicate a rough early schedule but prepare the team for district competition.

A look into district play shows "the games" to be with Menard. They return all players from a good team last year.

However, with the season two days away the team is ready to play and every Eaglette will show her usual desire, hustle, and pride that has pushed them over the "20 game won" many many times.

When John Nance "Cactus Jack" Garner passed away on November 7, Texas lost one of its most illustrious sons, and the nation lost one of its most distinguished statesmen. He symbolized the rugged individualism which vitalized the strength and development of the country. He believed in square-dealing and honest toil. Perhaps a bit old-fashioned, he adhered to the principle of balancing the ledger on Saturday nights.

It became my sad duty to formally announce the death of Mr. Garner to the House of Representatives. Only three or four are in the House now who were in office when Garner left the House in 1933. Yet even the mention of his name in the Capitol brings forth evidence of reverence and respect. Few men in American history have left such an imprint on the Congress.

I always enjoyed visiting with Mr. Garner in Uvalde. He was a wise counsellor, was emphatic in his views, and always made certain his point of view was understood. It was not easy to disagree with anything he said. He applied cold logic and common sense to his conversation, with bits of humor

"There are just two things to this government as I see it," he once said. "The first is to safeguard the lives and properties of our people. The second is to insure that each of us has a chance to work out his own destiny according to his talents."

John Nance Garner was indeed and in fact a great American. The nation is better off because he lived and served. The world is a little darker because his light has gone out. The entire nation mourns the passing of this great and good man.

THE MERRY MAKERS

The Merry Makers 42 club met last Thursday in the home of Mrs. Ruth Williams. There were three tables of players including three guests, Mrs. L. T. Wilson, Mrs. Mary Palmer, and Mrs. Lummie Whitten.

A business meeting was held and names were drawn for the Christmas party. The date of the party was voted to be on Dec. 14th in the Memorial Building. A luncheon will be prepared by Mrs. Fred Riley. Gifts will be exchanged and games of 42 will be played.

The hostess served cake and coffee. —Rep., Bessie Doyle.
