DAY OF DECISION RAPIDLY APPROACHING

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY
Democratic Nominee
For President

RICHARD M. NIXON
Republican Nominee
For President

Schleicher County voters are all set to join others over the nation when they go to the polls Tuesday to vote in the quadrennial General Election.

Officials from President clear down to the court house level will be elected, and a good turnout of voters on both the national and local levels is anticipated.

Here in Eldorado as in all of Texas, the polls will open at 8:00 a.m. and close at 7:00 p.m. Some returns may be available shortly after the polls close. Here are the local polling places:

- No. 1, Memorial Building-----T. R. Spence, Judge
- No. 2, Sw. Co-Op Building-----Wallace Joiner, Judge
- No. 3, County Barn-----Mrs. Frankie Short, Judge
- No. 4, High School Gym-----Clemens Sauer, Judge
- No. 5, Absentee-----Mrs. Donnie Gilmore, Judge

There will be enough clerks and other helpers at all polling places to take care of the tallying of votes during the day, so that complete returns will be available sometime Tuesday night. Voters are urged to cast their votes as early in the day as possible to speed the count of the ballots.

Mrs. Kenneth Cheek Buried Here Friday

Mrs. Kenneth (Gladys) Cheek, 59, resident of Eldorado for over 30 years, died in Shannon hospital at 9:05 p.m., Thursday, following a one-car accident 35 hours earlier on a bridge south of Christoval on Highway 277.

A heavy fog lying over the area that morning may have contributed to the wreck.

Funeral services were held at the Eldorado First Baptist church at 5:30 p.m., Friday followed by interment in Eldorado cemetery under direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Gladys Cheek was born September 7, 1909 at Waco, Texas. She was married to Barney Kenneth Cheek January 1, 1934. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, Billy Kenneth Cheek and James Hoffman Cheek, and three grandchildren, Rebecca, William and David Cheek.

Also surviving are five brothers and sisters; Mrs. Otsie Lee Rogers, Uvalde; L. C. Hoffman, San Antonio; Mrs. Dorris English, Eldorado; Mrs. Juanita Baineaux, Corpus Christi; and Talbert F. Hoffman, San Antonio; besides many nephews, nieces and friends who all mourn her tragic and untimely death.

McCormicks Move To Austin Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Don McCormick moved last week to Austin where they will make their home at 5703 Shoalwood in a residence they have owned for the past five years.

A resident of Schleicher county since early in this century, Mr. McCormick became manager of S. Thwest Texas Electric Co-Operative in October, 1945, and held that position for 22 years until his resignation recently.

He also served a number of years ago as county Tax Assessor and as a gin employee.

Mrs. MacTaggart On South American Trip

The Success received the following post card this week: "Oct. 20, '68 — After touring Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, and beautiful Chile, we are now entering Argentina. A thrilling experience for me. Six in our group. Andes are immense. Stayed in them for two weeks. So good to be at sea level again. Spring time here. Lots of good fruit and fish to eat. Regards. —Anna MacTaggart."

Tomorrow Last Day For New Voters To Vote

County Clerk J. P. Enochs has reminded new residents of the county that they must vote in his office by Friday, November 1, if they wish to participate in the coming general election.

November 1 is also the last day for absentee voting and for voting by persons who qualified to vote in the presidential election as new residents of the state during the 15-day application period in September.

Persons who have lived in Texas more than a year but who have moved from one county to another since May 5, 1968, may vote on all statewide offices, including President and Vice President, and on the 14 proposed constitutional amendments, but they may not vote on local offices. In order to vote, they must be registered as voters for the 1968 election year.

Absentee Voting Deadline Nears

This Friday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock will be the deadline for local voters to vote absentee in the upcoming General Election, County Clerk J. P. Enochs reminded the public this week.

Voters who will be out of town Tuesday or otherwise unable to go to the polls that day and vote in person are urged to take time to vote absentee during the next two days.

As of 1:00 p.m. Tuesday of this week, 102 absentee votes had been cast. This indicates a good turnout of voters Tuesday. There were expected to be more absentee votes cast Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Funeral Held Thursday For Oliver H. Bailey

Oliver H. Bailey, 84, died Tuesday night of last week in a Kerrville hospital following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. Thursday in First Baptist church here with burial in Eldorado cemetery directed by the Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mr. Bailey was born Aug. 30, 1884 in San Saba. He moved to Schleicher county in 1901. He formerly worked as a carpenter.

Survivors include three sisters, Mrs. Allie Gibson of Glendale, Ariz., Mrs. Mattie Cozzens of Midland and Mrs. J. A. Nixon of Fort Worth and two brothers, T. J. Bailey of Ozona and Marshall Bailey of Abilene.

Post Script

I believe I'm more or less confused like everybody else, but here are some thoughts about the coming election.

Remember, some 30 years ago when Pappy O'Daniel won the governorship by landslide—and afterward you could hardly find anyone who would admit he had voted for him?

More people have been coming in for copies of our sample ballot, and many of them say that they "just want to study it," and they go on without much further comment.

Now Texas is normally a Democratic state where the majority usually votes straight Democrat and if this were true again this year, then what is there to study about?

If Texas gives a majority of its vote to Nixon it will be because hordes of normal Democrats split their ticket and voted for him. And if it turns out that Nixon actually does carry Texas you'll probably have a hard time finding anyone who will admit voting for him.

—ps—

Whether Texas goes Republican remains to be seen. But if it does it just may have some effect on state races. What about the person who in casual conversation said he just couldn't go for Humphrey, and then as an afterthought declared, "If you just want to know something, I'm not so crazy about Preston Smith for governor either!"

Was he fixin' to vote a straight Republican ticket? Just could be.

Does Republican Eggers really have a remote chance to become Governor of Texas?

I can't imagine it, but . . .

—ps—

In this our last publication before election day we had hoped to have newspaper pictures of the three candidates for President: Nixon, Humphrey and Wallace. The State Republican headquarters provided us with Nixon pictures three weeks ago.

It was not until yesterday we finally received a picture of Humphrey after writing Democratic headquarters in Austin over two weeks ago.

We should have been provided with a newspaper picture of George Wallace too. He is going to receive a respectable vote in Texas—and in Schleicher county, too.

The Wallace organization in Texas put out plenty of bumper stickers, but they failed to provide such things as pictures for small newspapers like ours. The Wallace organization is new—just a few months old. Some of the things George Wallace says appeal to many people. Even though he does not win, his ideas and some of his principles are going to have an influence on whatever party is in power the next four years.

—ps—

Locally Schleicher county has a Democratic party organization with Dick Preston as county chairman plus a considerable number of workers as well as money for advertising and publicity.

Republican party has a county chairman in the person of Ford Oglesby, Jr., who has a smaller corps of workers.

George Wallace's American party is very much in evidence with bumper stickers, etc., but there is no county chairman or other local organization. But there is a Wallace headquarters in San Angelo.

In this closing week we see Democrats have set up headquarters in the small office building near the telephone office.

Republicans this week established their headquarters in the Eldo hotel in the corner formerly used by Ernie Bauer for a jewelry.

With all the ballot splitting and 14 amendments to tabulate, election judges in the four county precincts will have a bigger and slower job than usual in preparing their returns.

T. R. Spence, who is election judge for precinct No. 1 at Memorial building, says he will have two crews on the job to count and tabulate returns.

History, courtesy of Bob Sykes: First game ever between Junction and Eldorado was in 1925 in Junction. Eldorado lost the game 25-0.

It is important to remember that starting time for the emaining games at home or away is 7:30 o'clock.

Eldorado goes to Junction tomorrow night and the contest will not only be an important one but it will probably be a very rough one too. Junction has specialized in "chug-uh-lug" football this year after their excellent rebuilding and reorganizational program begun last year. They have posted an impressive record to date, defeating Santa Anna 74-0; Bangs, 28-0; Judson to San Antonio, 61-21; Johnson City, 35-13; Eden, 51-0; and Menard, 35-8. But they lost their season's opener to Ozona 14-6. Obviously, they have done a lot more "chugging" than they have received and have not had their normal ration of football fun except in the instance of their Ozona contest.

The Junction team likes to maintain their offensive efforts primarily on the ground. They are an infantry outfit principally. For this sort of play they favor "I" formation, Wing T, and Flanker T. They especially depend upon their offensive slants and who ever plays defensive left tackle against them had better be prepared to withstand a great deal of two-on-one blocking.

Their main carrier on their power plays is Big Jimmy Baugh, No. 33, who lists his weight at 205. They utilize two quarterbacks, one who likes to run and the other to pass when they do pass. The running QB is 185-pound Brent Rice, No. 16. Of interest is that he is the son of their head coach Jerrell Rice. The QB who passes is No. 10, Bob Allen who weighs 138.

Defensively, Junction uses the same stance employed by Robert Lee but often shifts into a six-man line. The first stance is called by a typical football term, "The Arkansas Monster" and employs a five man front with a roving line-backer. With either defensive formation they still think as a running team as they have three men back to guard against air attack.

Their defensive efforts are enhanced by No. 33, Jimmy Baugh at left end and Buddy Murr, No. 70, at left tackle. Murr will be remembered for his defensive efforts against the Eldorado lads last year.

Junction is a formidable football team with size, speed, and good morale. Their starting lineup is as follows:

88 Danny May	LE	160
78 Joe Gonzales	LT	175
70 Buddy Murr	LG	185
52 Bob Chapman	C	154
67 Trey Schaefer	RG	162
64 Charles Allen	RT	180
81 Tim Gilliam	RE	139
37 George Perez	LHB	150
35 Jimmy Bankston	RHB	151
33 Jimmy Baugh	QB	205
16 Brent Rice	FB	185

Brother Of Eldoradoan Died Last Thursday

P. H. (Pete) Turner, 84, of Coleman, died at 9:00 a. m., Thursday, October 24 at his home following a long illness. Funeral was held at Wright's Colonial Chapel in Brownwood at 2:00 p. m., Saturday with burial in Greenleaf Cemetery.

He was a long-time Brown County resident and a retired pharmacist.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ruth Hext of Eldorado.

ELECTION DAY SALE SET

Mrs. Vida Kreklow, county Home Demonstration Agent, and her H. D. Council, announce that the clubs here will conduct a bake sale on election day in the old Enco station building, across from the Eldo hotel. The sale will start at 10:00.

C.R.O.P. DRIVE HELD SUNDAY

Rev. D. G. Salter, president of the Ministerial Alliance, reports that $128.90 was collected by the Senior High youth in their recent drive for CROP (Christian Rural Overseas Program). This is the largest amount ever collected for this cause. Last year $115.25 was donated.

Appreciation is expressed to the youth and adult sponsors who helped, and to all who gave to this program.

JR. CHAMBER PROMOTED

Rony Kerr and several other interested local people met Tuesday night at 8:00 in the Java Junction cafe to promote organization of a Junior Chamber of Commerce here.

Several men from the San Angelo Jaycees were here to discuss the aims and purposes of the organization.

600 Bales In 7 Days

Weather has been favorable for stripping this past week and Mikeska Gin has been running steady. As of Wednesday morning 1,680 bales had been processed, an increase of about 600 bales in the past seven days.

Post Script (continued)

With all this election confusion, I just got to wondering—Did Barry Goldwater run for President just four years too soon?

—ps—

With all this talk about politics, law and order, crime in the streets, vandalism, etc., it is no wonder I got mixed up in words over the telephone . . .

I answered when the phone rang and it was Blanche West asking me to tell Bill that there was a Methodist meeting coming up to take up vandalism.

"Vandalism?" I asked, "Did you say Vandalism?"

"No, I didn't say vandalism; I said EVANGELISM and it has something to do with such backsliders like you."

O-o-o-h. (I never can get the best of Blanche.)

The Eagles came out of the Eden contest unharmed and their offensive stance against Junction will feature Walter Speck, Albert Torres, Roy Jones, Jimbo Overstreet, Sam Oglesby, Bob Sykes, Jim Robledo, Ross Whitten, Dobbie Lively, and John Danford up front while other combinations of these same lads along with Jim McGinness will make up the defensive front.

Linebackers, corner men, halfbacks, and safety men will include Walter Speck again, Jimbo Overstreet, James Larry Davis, Keith Williams, Wayne Doyle, Paul Page, Dwayne Dempsey, Mickey Clark, Joel Muzquiz, Archie Nixon, and Paul Page. Whether Mike Olson will be able to join his teammates was awaiting the doctor's decision at this time.

Not only is this game a critical one for Eldorado, it is equally important to Junction although they face a tough schedule for the remainder of their season: Mason in Mason November 8, and Sonora in Junction November 15.

This will be an interesting contest. Question is can the Junction team dominate the play with their strong ground attack or will they fall victim to Eldorado's more varied offensive efforts along with their potent aerial warfare. The efforts of the Eldorado linemen to give Nixon the vital four or five seconds of time for his really deadly passes will be vital to Eldorado success.

GIVE CASH CONTRIBUTION TO YOUR POLITICAL CHOICE

A final thought on Tuesday's general election: Whichever of the three you vote for for President—Nixon, Humphrey or Wallace—give a dollar or more to the party organization of your choice.

Political campaigns take money, big money, and a number of small contributions from hundreds or thousands of voters will broaden the base of finance much more than when a few contributors give large amounts.

If you are a Democrat, give your contribution to Dick Preston; if Republican, to Ford Oglesby, Jr.; if you are for Wallace, give it to the Wallace headquarters in San Angelo.

OPEN HOUSE SET

Sam and Gladys Sanders took over the drive-in across from the school about a month ago from Lee Halbert. It is now Granny's Drive-In.

The Sanders announce that open house will be held Saturday morning in the newly-completed dining room and they invite the public in for free coffee and doughnuts that morning.

The new dining room is to be known as "The Eagles' Nest."

Sallie McKenzie, who works in the drug store, will leave Monday for San Antonio where she will have plastic surgery Tuesday in Santa Rosa hospital. She will remain a patient for several days and then be an out-patient.

Cotton left on the ground from improper adjustment of picking machinery, can mean the difference between a loss or profit on the crop.

A properly adjusted and operated machine can pick 95% or better of the open bolls, and the machine operator is a mighty important factor.

Approaching the row so the plants enter the center of the picking unit entering and leaving the row at full speed staying on the rows during travel and keeping the machine clean are vital factors. One boll missed per plant can result in up to 400 pounds of lost seed cotton per acre.

Adjustment of the machine to fit conditions of the individual field is the responsibility of the operator, and if he knows his job and machine, very little cotton will be left on the ground or plant.

Suggestions for making the machine picking job more efficient and profitable follow.

Check the machine completely before the harvest and replace worn parts; lubricate it and make needed adjustments. Make adjustments for maximum machine efficiency. Adjust doffer pads for proper spindle clearance. Check pressure plate settings. Adjust stalk lifters. Check for bent spring fingers and for bent grid bars. And finally, lubricate the machine according to the manufacturer's recommendations.

Proper machine adjustment and operation, provided the machine is in first class condition, can put the cotton in the trailer which otherwise will be left on the ground.

The trouble with some political jokes is that they get elected to office.

Schleicher county is one of the many in the state where the end of the pesticide season is near.

The successful and safe use of pesticides is not achieved until leftover pesticides are properly stored and "empty" containers are properly disposed. Also decontamination should be a part of your preventative maintenance of pesticide application equipment.

Store pesticides to be carried over until next season in a separate well ventilated building or in an area of a building that is isolated. Pesticides should not be stored near foodstuffs, feeds or any other material intended for human or animal consumption. Many pesticides and the solvents used in liquid formulations are highly combustible and should not be stored near any source of heat.

The storage area should be checked periodically for deteriorating containers. Protective measures should be employed when inspecting the stored containers for leaks or other container deterioration. The storage area should be labeled as a pesticide storage area and should be locked to prevent unauthorized entry.

The shelf-life or stability of chemicals is generally greater under proper conditions of storage but most importantly, proper storage will prevent accidents.

Additional information on the use and storage and disposal of pesticides is available at County Extension Offices. Ask for MP-825, "Farm and Ranch Guide to Safe Use of Pesticides."

Inflation is so bad that dollars-to-doughnuts is no longer good odds.

Cooler temperatures and a change in weather conditions can bring on foliage diseases which attack ornamentals. To protect your valuable plants fungicides should be applied at regular intervals.

Several fungicides are available at farm supply stores which have a wide spectrum and are especially useful to the homeowner who likes to keep ornamental plants looking their best.

Captan, Zineb, Maneb and Folpet are among the broad spectrum fungicides which can be used to prevent many of the foliage problems on ornamentals.

These materials can be applied with a small pressure sprayer or with a hose-on type sprayer. Home owners are advised to carefully check the dosage rates of the material used to insure efficient and adequate control of the disease.

Spray coverage is also important for effective control. Be sure that both sides of the plant's leaves are covered by the fungicide. Additional information on cool season plant diseases which attack ornamental plants is available from my office.

The younger generation will soon find out that the man from uncle is the tax collector.

The Lord's Prayer, prayed in unison by the members, opened the chapter.

The minutes were read and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Ernest S. Goens.

A program of much interest was presented by Mrs. Ernest C. Hill.

The two guests, Mmes. Cole and Welsh, together with the members, were invited by the hostess to a beautifully appointed tea table where Mmes. McIntosh and Hill served. —Rep.

Banana Rice Pudding
2½ cups thinly sliced bananas
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup sugar
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
3 eggs, separated
1½ cups milk
2 cups cooked rice.

Combine bananas and lemon juice and mash thoroughly. Stir in 2/3 cup of the sugar, salt grated orange rind and finally milk and rice. Pour into a 10 x 6 x 2 inch baking dish. Set in a pan of hot water.

Bake in a 325 degree F. oven about 35 minutes or until set. Cool slightly. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add remaining sugar and beat until egg whites stand in stiff peaks. Spread meringue over pudding. Return to oven and bake about 15 minutes longer. Serve warm or cold. Makes 8 servings.

What about this?

When beef was included in the daily diets of the aging patients in a nursing home in Seattle, Washington, they were found to be more satisfied. This report was made at a meeting of the Washington Health Facilities Association.

The patients were served a daily serving of beef for four weeks and the irritability factor was reduced by more than 85%.

Maybe we all should be a little more careful and do what the signs say, "Eat More Beef."

In Scotland they call a sweater a "wooly jumper" and in England they call a traffic circle a "run-around."

Looking for a new sandwich idea? This western Egg Sandwich is very popular in the East and I think it will be a hit with your family too if you try it. It would make a whole supper dish served with assorted relishes and a tall glass of milk. This is how it's done:

Western Egg Sandwich (for one)
Beat one egg with 1½ tablespoons milk. Season with salt, pepper and any favorite herb such as thyme or sweet basil (just a pinch). Add ¼ cup diced cooked ham or luncheon meat and 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper. Fry in butter or oleo and place on a toasted bun or two slices of bread.

A long time ago I used to make cranberry-raisin pies all fall and winter and never let a Thanksgiving get by without our favorite pie. Then, like we are prone to do, I got out of the habit and have not made one for years but this year will be different; I am going to make a—

Cranberry-Raisin Pie
3 cups fresh cranberries
1 cup raisins (dark)
1½ cups sugar
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon grated orange peel
½ cup orange juice
pinch of salt
1 tablespoon butter
This is the filling: Mix together cranberries, raisins, sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, cinnamon, orange peel and juice; set aside.

Pie Crust
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
¾ cup solid shortening
¾ cup water.

Combine flour and salt in bowl. Cut in shortening until uniform but coarse. The best way to cut the shortening is to remove the inside beater from the mixer and let one beater do the job which it does exceedingly well. Sprinkle mixture with water and press into a ball. Divide in half. On lightly floured surface, roll bottom crust, 1½ inches larger than an inverted 9-inch pie pan. Fit crust into pan and trim even with the edge.

Add cranberry mixture to crust in pan; dot with butter. Roll out top crust; lift onto pie. Trim top crust ½ inch beyond edge of pie pan. Tuck top crust over outside edge of bottom crust. (This seals the juice in). Flute edge. Make a design if you wish but slit the top crust in same way to allow steam to escape. Bake in 400 F. oven for 15 minutes or until crust begins to brown, reduce heat to 350 F. and bake 25 or 30 minutes more. Cream or sweet milk brushed on the top crust gives a nice glaze. Serve warm or cold, either way it's good.

Value Of Resting Pastures Is Demonstrated . . .

Resting Pastures

Ranchers in the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District are stepping up the practice of resting or deferring their rangeland. There are pastures being rested perhaps for the first time since they were fenced years ago. Many ranchers in the district are already making plans to rest some of their pastures next year. If possible this practice should be a part of every operator's plan for 1969. Dry years and overgrazing have greatly reduced vigor and stand of grasses, and deferments will be the quickest and best way to get increased forage production. For maximum benefit the range should be deferred for a minimum of three consecutive months and should be in the growing season. Some ranchers are setting up Range Rotation-Deferred Grazing systems where one or more range units are rested at planned intervals throughout the growing season of key plants, and generally no unit is grazed more than half of any growing season or at the same time in successive years.

The length of the rest period or system used will be different on each individual ranch, depending upon the number of pastures, kinds and classes of livestock, range conditions, and speed with which the producer desires range to improve. When possible, spring to fall deferments are most beneficial as there deferments will allow the plants to develop the maximum of surface growth, mature seed, produce a deeper, more extensive root system, and therefore produce more forage. By deferring the more palatable grasses are encouraged and enabled to compete with and crowd out the less desirable plants. This practice should be applied every few years to every pasture on the ranch; however, the grazed portions of the range should not be overstocked by stock removed from the deferred areas. This will not happen provided stock numbers and forage production is balanced in all pastures prior to beginning the deferred program. Several long and complete deferments result in better kinds and amounts of range plants while short deferments usually result in better growth of the kinds of plants already there.

Many ranchers in the District are pleased with their deferred pastures even though limited amounts of rain fell during the rest period.

Periodic drouths and limited rainfall has caused a good number of ranchers to reduce their livestock numbers to the point to where they can defer a pasture at all times during the year.

The combination of few livestock and the great need for range improvement should result in extensive application of deferred grazing in 1969. If ranges are allowed to regain their stand and vigor before livestock numbers are increased, ranchers will again be on a sound range management basis. Choice grass plants will replace weak grasses and annuals, soil and rainfall will be conserved, and high livestock production will be the result.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the District will be glad to work with you on your deferment or deferred range rotation grazing system.

Eagles Down Eden 28 To 10 Last Friday

The Eldorado Eagles took the Eden Bull pups for a good natured "romp" last Friday night and came away with a win of 28-10, the game featuring a very humane gesture towards a usually worthy adversary, now suffering a real football depression. The Eagles did not fire up, wind up, or whatever expression is apropos for a team to use in building up its energies towards a hard game with a tough adversary. There are adequate opportunities for the Eagles to use all their energies in the remaining football games of the 1968 football season.

A comment concerning the Eden contest, the Eagles played the Bulldogs the only way possible to avoid their own humiliation and to encourage rather than help destroy Eden. The team that fires up and completely obliterates a weaker adversary usually collapses before its next real competition. Example? Mason.

The Eden game by quarters shows that the Eagles did indeed "romp" around and give the Bulldogs lots of humane exercise.

Eagles	6	14	8	0-28
Eden	0	0	2	8-10

Statistics for the game show that the Eagles did take it easy but the scoring story demonstrates that had they gotten bloodthirsty they could have raised the score to astronomical proportions.

	Eldo.	Eden
First downs	14	21
Yds. rushing	313	119
Yds passing	162	—6
Total yds	475	113
Passes att & comp	5 of 11	2 of 3
Passes int. by	1	3
Fumbles recov. by	0	3
Punts & yd.	no punts	2 for 20

Eagle scoring was dramatic. Eagle blockers gave Fleet Wayne Doyle a start early in the game and he scampered 75 yards to a score. The try for extra point failed. This ended scoring for both teams the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Eagle QB Archie Nixon flipped a 25-yard "bomb" to Paul Page who out-distanced all pursuit for the remaining 55, this pass-run combination earning 80 yards. In this same quarter, Nixon continued his bomb attack with a 20-yarder to James Larry Davis who scored easily. James L. Davis then hurled his own "mini-bomb" to Paul Page for the two extra points. The halftime score stood 20-0 for ELdorado.

The third quarter saw Wayne Poyle zip over a path sketched out by the down-front Eagles, this permitting Doyle to go on for 20 yards and the touchdown. The try for point featured James Larry Davis on a successful paunt into the Eden end zone.

Eden scored in the last quarter with a safety, a touchdown, and a successful run for the two extra points.

James Larry Davis caught three Archie Nixon aeriels for 79 yards and Paul Page two for 83 yards. Davis carried 12 times for 78 yards; Wayne Doyle, 7 times for 111 yards; Fullback Bob Page 5 carries for 45 yards; and Archie Nixon three times for 79 yards. Halfback Keith Williams did not get to make this one because he had the "flu" and was home sick in bed.

In the defensive exercises in the game, Roy Jones led the way with 13 tackles; Bob Page got 9; Mickey Clark, 12; and Bobby Sykes and Walter Speck, 8 each.

Coach Sherwood Barker said that he was pleased with the Eagles offensive effort. He noted that the line did a good job of blocking particularly in providing QB Archie Nixon time to fuze and launch his missiles.

The Eagles face a stern test against Junction tomorrow night and the Eden offensive drills provided them with a fine practice period. Now is the time for the "wind up" against a very worthy opponent.

THANKS
To the people of Eldorado and Schleicher county for their kindness in sitting with Papa. Your cards, calls, visits, food and prayers are deeply appreciated. Sitters are no longer needed but your prayers, calls and visits are still needed.
May God bless each one of you according to His will and your needs.
Each of us extends our love and gratitude to each one of you.
