12. If someone takes a potentially toxic substance in your home, call a physician immediately. Don't wait for symptoms to appear.

Hall Appeals For Easter Seal Support

A last minute appeal for Easter Seal support was issued Saturday by Raymond D. Hall, who is the Easter Seal Representative in Schleicher county.

The Texas Easter Seal Society is providing treatment and services for 20,378 physically handicapped children and adults in the state, Mr. Hall said, and this program must be expanded. Many are going without services that would increase the productiveness of their lives. With increased growth of the Easter Seal Society, more and more of these people will be reached, he added.

The Society conducts a continuing program to seek out the disabled who are going without services, to see that they receive the help they need. As Easter Seal Representative, he is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society.

Twenty-one treatment centers in Texas are supported with help from the Texas Easter Seal Society. At each center crippled children and adults are treated, regardless of their ability to pay. Physical, occupational and speech therapy are offered to help the handicapped overcome their disabilities. A complete referral program to ensure equal rehabilitation services to every person in Texas is included in the Easter Seal Society services, he added.

Mr. Hall asked that anyone in need of services contact him at the First National Bank here in Eldorado.

Miss Peters Bride Of Mr. Heflin In Methodist Church Rite Saturday

MRS. NEAL TRACY HEFLIN
(the former Kay Frances Peters)

A candlelight ceremony at the First United Methodist Church in Eldorado was the setting Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock for the marriage of Neal Tracy Heflin and Kay Frances Peters. Reverend Bobby Palmos officiated at the double ring service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Peters of Eldorado. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stansky of Honolulu, Hawaii.

The guest register in the foyer of the church was attended by Martha Sue Page, and was decorated with a single burning anniversary candle, a gift from the Bridesmaids' luncheon, and the bride's Bible which had been covered in lace and pearls by a friend.

The candles were lit by Mike McCravey and Ken Wilson.

An organ prelude of "The Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Theme From Romeo and Juliet" was given by the organist, Mrs. Bill Rozean of Brownfield. Miss Mikki Phelps of Waco was soloist and rendered the vocal selections of "Walk Hand in Hand" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white peau de soie featuring an Empire bodice of re-embroidered lace showered with pearls and crystals. The lace was repeated on the long bishop sleeves and outlined the chapel length train. The full chapel length veil of silk illusion was held by a headpiece of heavy, re-embroidered lace, encrusted with pearls.

The bridal bouquet was of yellow and white roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Joe Irick of Dallas was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Tucker of Shreveport, La.; Mrs. Steve Blaylock of Waco; Miss Jill Mock of Dallas; and Miss Elizabeth Parr of Gorman.

The attendants wore floor length yellow gowns designed with an Empire bodice and elbow length sleeves accented by lace ruffles. They carried nosegays of yellow carnations and daisies. A small cluster of daisies held short yellow net veils for the headpieces.

The flower girl, Charlotte Mobley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Mobley, wore a yellow floor length dress fashioned after the bride's attendants' dresses. She carried a white basket trimmed in daisies filled with yellow rose petals.

Clay Ray of Orange, Texas, served as best man. Groomsmen were Gary Tucker of Shreveport, La.; Joe Irick of Dallas; Wayne Huggens of Denton, and Frank Hood, Jr. of Wichita Falls.

Ushers for the wedding were Ken Peters, brother of the bride; Tom Beasley of Hurst; Ken Wilson of Houston; and Mike McCravey of College Station.

The Mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a pale aqua silk crepe, featuring long full sleeves, a dropped waistline accented with a rhinestone buckle, and a pleated skirt. The groom's Mother wore a champagne beige dress featuring a beaded lace top, and an accordion pleated chiffon skirt. Their corsages were white-cymbidium orchids. The Parents of the Groom also wore Leis of Orchids flown in from Hawaii. Mrs. Stansky in turn presented hers to

The reception was held at the Memorial Building. Throughout the evening piano selections were provided by Mr. Joe Kreklow. Rice bags were passed from silver trays by Misses Carolyn, Kathy, and Debbie Page.

The bride's table featured a white Irish Linen cloth and the centerpiece was of yellow roses, stock and candles. The tiered cake was topped with white sugar bells and white roses with a scattering of yellow color. This was served by Mrs. Ronnie Williams, Mrs. Jeff Nance, and Rita Rozean. Alternating at the silver punch bowl were Tissie Enochs, Kathy Gohman, Dee Lund and Mrs. Lynn Meador.

Marilyn Wilson, Frankie Blaylock, and Mary Lynn McGinnes served the ring-shaped chocolate Groom's cake from a table decorated with a yellow lace and linen tablecloth. Yellow and white mums with the brass candelabra centered the table. Presiding at the Brass Samovar were Nancy Jo, Charlotte and Debbie Thompson, cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Heflin is a graduate of Eldorado High School and North Texas State University where she has been working towards her Master's degree. Her social sorority is Chi Omega. She was also a member of the Student Education Association and Sigma Alpha Eta, national fraternity in Speech and Hearing Therapy.

Mr. Heflin graduated from Iolani High School in Honolulu, and North Texas State University. His fraternity is Phi Kappa Sigma.

When leaving, the bride was attired in a navy and white sleeveless linen dress with a matching navy coat. Her accessories were navy. Following a wedding trip to Honolulu, Hawaii, the couple will reside in Tulsa, Oklahoma, where the groom is employed by Georgia-Pacific Corporation and the bride will continue her graduate studies.

OUT OF TOWN VISITORS

Attending from out of town were Misses Charlotte and Babe Lewis and Mrs. Trace Roberts, Abilene; Mrs. Roy Phelps and Steve Blaylock, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lawton, Marfa; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Moeller, San Marcos; Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGinnes, Sterling City; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Williams, Irving; Tissie Enochs, Kathy Gohman, and Dee Lund, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. William P. White and Nancy, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Luke Thompson Jr., Nancy Jo, Charlotte, and Debbie, Brady; Mrs. Frank Hood Jr., Wichita Falls; Mrs. J. E. Nance Jr., Tahoka; Rita Rozean, Corpus Christi; Mrs. George Palmos, of Hearne; Marilyn Wilson, McCamey;

Mrs. Michael McCravey, College Station; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Gault and Cissy Gault; Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tisdale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mary Lynn McGinnes, Ebba Finley, Mrs. Carl Preston and Beep Cain, all of San Angelo, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stansky, parents of the groom, were hosts for the rehearsal dinner held Friday evening at the Holiday Inn in San Angelo.

Mrs. James L. Powell, Mrs. James Page, and Mrs. Steve Blaylock were hostesses for the Bridesmaids' luncheon, Saturday at the James Page residence.

Congress Seniority System Criticized

San Antonio, Texas.—Republican Congressional candidate Dick Gill today offered a two-word criterion for replacing the present outdated seniority system of selecting congressional committee chairmen: Competence and ability.

Noting that his opponent, Ovie Clark Fisher, had recently defended the seniority system and gone on record as opposing its change, Gill said, "Mr. Fisher says he would like to know of a better system for selecting committee chairmen. I doubt that my suggestion will appeal to Mr. Fisher, but personally I would like to see a system based on competence and ability."

"Just because a congressman has been repeatedly re-elected—'survived year after year' is the way Mr. Fisher puts it—does not necessarily mean he is the most qualified man to head an important congressional committee. Any seniority system that does not take into consideration accomplishments, effectiveness and ability will tend to keep in power good politicians—men with a great deal of ability to 'survive'—but not necessarily good statesmen."

Gill said he felt Mr. Fisher would not approve of his "Competence and Ability" formula for selecting committee chairmen because Mr. Fisher's own record of incompetence and inability in the one committee the San Angelo Democrat is assigned to—the Armed Services Committee.

"When you consider that Mr. Fisher has not been able to get one single military affairs bill he has introduced passed by his own committee in five years—much less passed by the entire Congress—you can understand why he would be reluctant to accept any criterion for keeping his job other than his ability to 'survive.'"

"A further indication of Mr. Fisher's ineptitude and the low esteem in which he is held by ever his fellow Armed Services Committee members is the recent cut in military and civilian personnel at Goodfellow Air Force Base near San Angelo. Goodfellow lost 6% of its military and 10% of its civilian workforce; and it should also be noted that the military cuts were not just in the form of reduction of forces. Instead, an entire unit was yanked out of Goodfellow and transferred intact to another Texas Congressman's district.

"If similar cuts were affected at the major military installations in Bexar County, it would mean a loss of 3,082 military and 3,583 civilian jobs—as compared with the actual announced cutback of 539 military and 709 civilian positions. It becomes readily apparent that Bexar county is lucky to have someone else looking out for it besides Mr. Fisher."

Noting that Mr. Fisher has said he will introduce legislation that would automatically demote a striking civil service worker one pay grade, Gill suggested a similar bill dealing with elected civil servants such as Congressmen was long overdue.

"I wonder how Mr. Fisher would feel about a bill which would demote every Congressman one seniority step for every year that goes by in which he does not get a single piece of legislation passed for his district and the people who live there?"

"He probably would not be very enthusiastic," Gill added, "for if such a law was in effect, his record of inability, ineffectiveness and incompetence would place him right at the bottom of the seniority ladder."

Cropland Can Be Planted To Grass— James Mika checking stand of grass planted on his farm 7 miles northwest of Eldorado. Seed mixture consisted of sideoats grama, K. R. bluestem, and Lehmann lovegrass.

PLANTING GRASS SEED CAN BE SUCCESSFUL
Bill Rountree, Dist. Conservationist

The costs included in planting grass are usually high. Therefore, every effort should be made to obtain a good stand. Success will depend upon doing the recommended practices at the right time. This includes not only establishment, but also management of the grasses after they are up and growing.

When we speak of grass planting, in most cases we are thinking of planting perennial grasses—grasses that come up from the same root stock for several years. Since this kind of grass planting involves the planting of a perennial crop, land preparation is very important to establishment and future yields. The land should be plowed, disked, or rototilled in the fall or early winter and left rough until the next spring. The soil will be disked and good seedbed prepared several weeks ahead of sprigging to let the soil settle.

If the area to be planted is badly infested with weeds or weedy grasses, it is a "must" that they be eliminated. The weeds and weedy grasses may be controlled by planting early and using pre-emergence herbicides or the grass can be planted late in April or May and the weeds destroyed during seedbed preparation. The weeds and competition may also be destroyed after emergence by herbicides. Plans should be well thought out as to how the weeds and weedy grasses are going to be taken care of when good perennial grasses are to be planted.

A good firm seedbed should be prepared. The fine grass seeds will not germinate and come up uniformly if planted in loose or cloddy soils.

If land is subject to wind or water erosion, you should have a mulch of straw, stalks, or stubble on the ground when the grass is planted. This mulch might keep the ground from drying out or crusting and thus help get a more uniform stand of grass.

One way to get a mulch cover is to plant a cover crop the year before you plant the grass crop and leave the stalks or stubble on the field, or you may get a mulch cover by spreading straw or old hay over the ground after the grass is planted.

Planting at the proper time is also important for planting grass. We generally plant in the spring in this area to take advantage of the more favorable moisture time of the year, the idea being to get the grass planted early and get the seedlings established before the hot weather sets in.

Uniform planting at the right depth is essential if one expects to get an even stand of grass. A drill is best for planting most grass crops. Some of the fine seeds and the trashy ones need a special grass seed drill.

When planting grass in the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District remember these points:

Follow specifications closely, late plantings, inadequate seedbeds, and poor coverage causes failures. Use perennial climax species in range seeding. Grass drill is best tool for successful seeding. Variety of species should be specified. Avoid using species not adapted to site.

Two full growing seasons rest are always needed but grass may be grazed for short periods only. Spot seed in dozer pits if range is in high fair or better condition.

Technicians assisting the district will be glad to work with producers in planning their grass seed mixtures and getting the grass planted.

American Sheep Producers Council Held Meeting Recently in Denver, Colorado

First Postal Strike Came As Shocker

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

The recent postal strike, the first of its kind in our history, came as a shocker to most Americans. It shocked people into the awareness of inherent dangers to our national life, of what massive strikes involving essential services, can bring about.

It was claimed the strikers wanted more pay—and perhaps they deserve more. But the strike was against the Congress and, in a broader and real sense, against the American people. By using such tactics they run the risk of antagonizing the public to the point that in the future—if repeated—postal workers may have trouble getting what they would customarily deserve.

Very few people think they make enough money. Some don't make enough, others are overpaid for what they produce. Some policemen think they are underpaid, and they may be right. But should they all go out on strike? Some firemen think they should make more. But should they all go out on strike? Some GI's think they should receive better pay. But should they unite and go out on strike? In one form or another, they are all working for the public.

No; the Congress has provided a forum where all federal employees may through their spokesmen be heard, have their grievances aired, and then resolve the differences between the taxpayers (the employers) and the workers. The Congress then makes the decision. For those who don't like that method; if it is too slow and ineffective for them—well, they are in the wrong business. They should quit working for the public and try something else.

But, really, most of those who work for the public are conscientious and are not in accord with the minority element which is pushing their demands are not concerned with the public interest. Such striking is now a rather serious federal offense, punishable by a year in prison and a $1,000 fine, plus loss of the job for three years. In addition, it is believed an automatic drop in grade by the striking employee would implement the existing prohibition and make it more effective.

In the case of postal employees, although they have had 17 pay raises since 1945, there appears to be good reason for some increases brought on by the galloping increase in the cost of living. But in achieving that, striking is the worst technique that could be employed.

There simply is no such thing as justification for a strike against the government of the United States.

Renovation Finished On Lighthouse

Port Isabel, Texas.—The historic Port Isabel Lighthouse, built 118 years ago, is ready for another busy tourist season after a $34,410 facelift during the winter.

Construction crews this week finished repairs which included extensive work on the tower's outer wall and lobby floor.

The lighthouse, which was a key military point in both the Civil War and the War with Mexico, was made a State historic park in '65 centennial year.

Stewart Lambert, assistant director for planning for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, said work began Oct. 6 on the building.

Lambert said part of the tower's stairway was replaced, a new roof was installed on the upper lighthouse and the entire upper area was re-veneered with cypress.

The lighthouse is located on a key navigation site overlooking the mouth of the Rio Grande and the southern tip of Padre Island.

Nearby Palmito Ranch was the site of the last pitched battle of the Civil War—having occurred three weeks after General Lee's surrender. News of the surrender had not reached Texas.

Federal troops wrested control of Brownsville, while the Confederates held Port Isabel. Control of the lighthouse changed hands several times between the sides.

The light was in operation until 1888, when it was closed. The tower was reinstated in 1895.

It was built at a cost of $7,000, and restored at a cost of $23,500 during its Centennial year.

The lighthouse remains virtually the same as when constructed, with only minor modifications in the interest of preserving the historic building.

The present tower still appears on navigation charts as an approved aid to navigation.

Mrs. Jack Elder returned Saturday from El Paso where she attended a family reunion. The affair was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Montgomery and family who formerly were in business in Eldorado. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montgomery Jr. and family of Kansas City, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Montgomery and family of Sierra Madre, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan and family of Crane. Mrs. Elder traveled by plane.

Mort Mertz, Eldorado, Texas, at left, served as a delegate at the recent annual meeting of the American Sheep Producers Council in Denver, Colorado. Here he is shown participating in a workshop session during the meeting. The American Sheep Producers Council is the national promotion and advertising organization for lamb and wool. It is supported by almost every sheepman in the United States. It is governed by a board of directors and a delegate body of sheepmen representing the 20 state and area sheep producing sections in the country and every sheep and wool organization. The organization has as its purpose the promotion of the two major products of the sheep industry, wool and lamb. This is done under the names of the American Wool Council, American Lamb Council.

toffee, 1 tefi, 2 tofe, n. (Eng) Taffy, taffy; Also Scots & USA

1. COMPOUND OF SUGAR AND BUTTER BOILED TILL IT BECOMES THICK, THEN POURED INTO A DISH AND ALLOWED TO COOL AND HARDEN.
2. ALSO SPELLED TAFY--A CONFECTION MADE OF BROWN SUGAR OR MALASSES, MIXED WITH BUTTER, BOILED DOWN AND PULLED INTO LONG ROPES UNTIL IT CRYSTALLIZES. 3. TOFFEE IS HIGHLY COOKED, HARD OR CHEWY CARAMEL.

FIRST RECORD OF CANDYMAKING DATES BACK TO EGYPTIANS 4000 YEARS AGO. THEY MADE CANDY OF HONEY, ALMONDS, DATES AND FIGS.
BY COMBINING HONEY WITH FLOUR PASTE AND FRUITS, THE ANCIENT ROMANS AND GREEKS ENJOYED CONFECTIONS.

AS EARLY AS 1270-1295 MARCO POLO REPORTED DISCOVERING VARIETIES OF HARD AND CHEWY CANDIES IN CHINA.
ABOUT 15TH CENTURY VENETIANS HAD VIRTUAL MONOPOLY OF EUROPEAN SUGAR TRADE. BY MIDDLE OF 14TH CENTURY SUGAR SHIPPED TO VENICE WAS USED FOR MAKING CONFECTIONS.
TRADITIONAL TOFFEE WAS FIRST MADE BY THE ENGLISH
IT WAS ESSENTIALLY CARAMEL THAT HAD BEEN COOKED AT A HIGHER TEMPERATURE AND USUALLY WITH ADDED FAT.
MIDDLE OF 16TH CENTURY WAS FIRST REFERENCE TO MANUFACTURE OF TOFFEE AND ESTABLISHMENT OF CANDY STORES.
BEFORE THIS, TOFFEE AND OTHER CANDIES WERE SOLD BY PHARMACISTS AND SPICE STORES.
REAL DEVELOPMENT OF MANUFACTURE OF CHEWY TOFFEE AND OTHER CONFECTIONERY BEGAN IN 19TH CENTURY IN ENGLAND AND FROM THERE, AFTER GREAT EXPOSITION HELD IN LONDON IN 1851, SPREAD INTO FRANCE AND GERMANY.

THE LATTER PART OF THE 19TH CENTURY WAS CHARACTERIZED MOST OF ALL IN THE CANDY WORLD BY THE INTRODUCTION OF THE POPULAR PENNY CANDIES INCLUDING TOFFEE ITEMS.

TOFFEE IS NOW ONE OF THE FAVORITE FORMS OF CANDY AND IS ADVERTISED AND PROMOTED BY MANY FIRMS. LIKE THE CURRENT "CHEW UP A SMILE" CAMPAIGN FOR KRAFT TOFFEE.
