Eaglettes Claim 7th Win Over Wall 52-33

After a slow and somewhat lackadaisical start the Eaglettes opened up the second half to beat the Wall girls 52-33.

Sheri Roberts netted 19 points, Kathleen O'Harrow 13, and Loretta Schooley 10 after which came Linda Derrick with 4, and Peggy Hill, Randy Yates, and Patty Page with 2 each.

Eldorado took a 10-4 first quarter lead and worked to a 21-15 half-time advantage but never looked too smooth in the process.

However, the half-time brought a spirited court back on the court to score 14 points in the third quarter and 17 in the last to outdistance the Hawks.

The girls will not have another game until the opening game of the Eldorado Tournament which will be Friday night December 19 against the Rankin Red-Devils.

Hawks Edge Eagles Tuesday Evening

The Eldorado boys lost a close one to the Wall Hawks Tuesday by a 54-50 score. Wall took a 14-10 early lead but Eldorado came up with a 14 point second period on the strength of 9 points by Jerry Baty to bring the half-time count to 31-24, Wall.

The Eagles hit on 12 points while holding Wall to 9 in the third quarter and it was 40-36; however, both teams added 14 in the final quarter to give Wall the win.

Eldorado got a 21 point performance from Jerry Baty and 10 from Sam Oglesby. Baty added to that was 7 from Bob Page, who went out via fouls, and 6 each from Charles Adams and Mickie Clark.

The boys are having difficulty at the free throw line as they could manage only 4 of 14 for a poor 29%. A few mistakes plus inconsistency in the Eagles greatest problem at present but when this is ironed out they will begin to take these close ones.

The "B" boys won 62-35 over Wall as they were paced by Billy Hubble who scored 20 points.

The boys will go to Ozona Friday night for A&B boys games with the Lions.

'B' Girls Take Miles

The Eldorado junior varsity girls wiped out the Miles "A" team last Friday night 54-11 behind point performances as follows:

Rosellen Maness	10
Patti Olson	9
Jeanne McCravy	9
Barbara Robledo	9
Judy Hanusch	5

Eaglette guards of Gail Robinson, Patsy Tampke, and Jean Rountree allowed Miles 2 points the first quarter. Margie Green, Betty Kay Bradley, and Janet Davis took over the second period allowing only 5. The last half all the girls shared turns playing.

This marks their 5th win against no losses for the season.

More about the green tomato business . . .

A sister of mine up in Minnesota informs me she made green tomato pie each summer for years for her husband.

Now we have a note from Mrs. Milton Faught telling of her experiment using green tomatoes in preserves and fruit cake. Along with it she included a sample which turned out to be real tasty.

Here is her note—

Since you mentioned about the green tomato pie, and that you didn't see why people didn't make something besides relishes from green tomatoes, I thought I'd see what I could do with them. I made some preserves and jelly, used raw green tomatoes ground up in the green cake, and I used a pint of the preserves in each fruit cake in place of citrus fruit.

Just thought I'd let you taste of it since you put me on the idea.

Upon making a delivery to El Dorado Woolen Mills last Friday, I had the opportunity to go through the mill (mechanical) and found it a beehive of activity. There were 16 people at work in that department alone, and machinery running all over the place.

Was told that bulk of the orders were for upholstering materials for firms in New York.

The neighborhood kids were in the front yard when a fire truck zoomed past with the station mascot sitting on the front seat. The children began discussing the dog's duties in connection with the truck.

"They use him to keep the crowd back at a fire," said a 5-year-old girl.

"No," said another, "they carry him for good luck."

A 6-year-old boy brought the argument to an abrupt halt. "They use the dog," he announced firmly, "to find the fire plug."

County Claims 14½ Inches Rainfall For Past Four Months

Schleicher county where weather observers can usually expect the unexpected, has been experiencing a four-month rainy season which has brought 14½ inches precipitation in less than four months, and has brought the 11-month total for the year up to 26½ inches. (See rain table on page 6.)

It all got started the last week in August following two months of drought and searing 100 degree weather, when one to four inches of rain fell over the county and ended a rash a disastrous range fires.

Average precipitation for that final week in August was put at 3.49 inches.

September brought 3.85, October was 4.14, and November was credited with 3.01, making 14.49 inches for the four months, and an 11-month total of 26.50.

The August rainfall came too late to be of help to the cotton crop, and rains since then have delayed stripping of this year's meagre crop which is estimated at 2,000 bales. Precipitation has been welcomed by ranchers and by those with winter feed crops.

The first ten days of December have seen a few days of sunshine, and just as many cloudy and foggy.

The Lions and C of C each put up half the prize money.

Christmas Shoppers Warned To Beware Of Auto Thieves

Christmas shoppers should take every precaution to protect their packages and automobiles from thieves, warns the National Automobile Theft Bureau.

C. C. Benson, manager of the southwestern division of the NATB, said that Christmas shoppers who leave their cars unlocked and packages in the back seat are leaving an open invitation to thieves of all kinds.

"Car thieves frequently prowl shopping centers and other such areas where shoppers are likely to leave cars unlocked and keys in ignitions while they run inside to make quick purchases," said Mr. Benson.

During the holiday season the thief not only has more cars to pick from, but often can find a car filled with packages. Thus, he can get two birds with the same stone—the car and the packages—and have an early Christmas, observed the NATB official.

Mr. Benson said shoppers should lock all packages in the trunks of their cars when the automobiles are unoccupied. Over 60% of the cars stolen had been left unlocked and over half of these were left with keys in the ignition.

LIONS MET THIS WEEK

A. G. McCormack presided at the meeting this week of the Lions Club. For the program, Walter Wallis presented a choral group who rendered several selections.

Cost-Share Extended For Another Decade

The 10-year extension and broadening of the Great Plains Conservation Program in legislation recently enacted by Congress can mean a doubling of the needed soil and water conservation work on Texas farm and ranch lands, State Conservationist Clyde W. Graham of the USDA Soil Conservation Service said today.

The law extending the program, which was launched in 1957 to give landowners in the Great Plains help in building greater stability in farming and ranching enterprises, was signed by the President on November 18, 1969. The program had been scheduled to end December 31, 1971 but has now been extended to 1981.

The legislation authorizes an additional $150 million in Federal funds for the cost-sharing of conservation measures.

In addition to cost-sharing regular soil and water conservation work, the broadened program will provide for the enhancement of fish, wildlife and recreation resources on farms and ranches where it will improve the economic condition of landowners. It will also provide assistance an agriculture related pollution problems in keeping with the program's overall objectives.

It also authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to enter into contracts on land not generally considered to be agricultural but where erosion is so serious that conservation work is needed to protect farm or ranch holdings.

Graham pointed out that the law brings the responsibility of soil and water conservation districts more sharply into focus, stipulating that "approved conservation plans developed in cooperation with the soil and water conservation district in which their lands are situated shall form a basis for contracts."

People To Join In Christmas Caroling Wednesday, Dec. 17

Under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce members are invited to meet at the home of Elnora Love next Wednesday, Dec. 17th, from where they will proceed to various places in town to sing Christmas carols.

They expect to proceed first to the hospital and then cover all streets in town including the lowest district.

The Chamber is also promoting a free-will offering to raise funds for the purchase of strings of Christmas lights to decorate downtown streets.

Reports Needed On Sheep and Goats

Bill Rountree, chairman of the Technical Action Panel of Schleicher County, reported in their monthly meeting last week that in the last of December, some 6,000 ranchers in Texas would be receiving questionnaires. These questionnaires will be from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin.

The Technical Action Panel consisting of Rountree, chairman; Ronnie Mittel, vice chairman; Truman Murdock, member; W. R. Bearce, member; Alan Masloff, member; and W. G. Godwin, participant, discussed the fact that the information furnished in filling out the questionnaires would be used to make official estimates of sheep and goat numbers for Texas and for each county. It will also provide the basis for the official estimates of January 1 lambs on feed and wool and mohair production.

Rountree pointed out that this is an important survey for the sheep and goat industry. It is estimated that Texas has about one-fifth of the sheep and nearly all of the goats for the United States.

All members of the Technical Action Panel wish to urge all farmers and ranchers who receive the questionnaire to complete it carefully and return it promptly in the self-addressed envelope which will be provided. This small responsibility of the individual is vitally important in arriving at an accurate picture of overall sheep and goat production in the state.

Miles Nips Eagles

Eldorado's boys lost a thriller Friday as Miles defeated them 50-52 but not until the Eagles had made a great fourth quarter comeback.

Early going saw the Bulldogs with a 14-13 lead and a 29-24 edge at the half. The Eagles experienced a rather poor third quarter getting only 11 markers to 17 for Miles but the last quarter things picked up and Eldorado notched 15 while keeping Miles to 6, but it wasn't quite enough. Eldorado hit a very good 12 of 15 free throws for an 80% mark.

Jerry Baty and Sam Oglesby led the scoring with 15 and 14 points while Bob Page hit 9, Mickie Clark 6, Charles Adams 4, and Wayne Doyle 2.

MASS SET FOR SUNDAY

There will be Mass at 8:30 Sunday morning at Guadalupe Catholic Church here, with Father Michael of Sonora officiating.

There will be no Mass at the church on Saturday.

Girls Win Second
At Winters Tourney

The Eldorado and Winters girls met in the Blizzard Gym Saturday night to decide the champion of the Winters Basketball Tournament and it was never certain until the last 15 seconds of the game when Winters took it 55-53 in a beautifully played game by both schools.

Eldorado looked their best on both offense and defense for the season but turnovers spelled the difference for the Eaglettes. There were just too many bad passes, traveling violation etc., for the Eaglettes to get a firm lead which they could hold. However, Winters made their share of mistakes so it was just whoever had the ball last and that was Winters who stalled out 20 seconds for the win.

Lisa Whitten, Lisa McAngus, Mary Lynn McCalla, and Gay Lynn Richardson performed well for the green and worked over-time in the final game. Lisa Whitten had 12 rebounds, Lisa McAngus 9, and Mary Lynn 7.

Offensively, the forwards moved, and worked their best of the season against a goal team.

Kathleen O'Harrow hit 27 points and had 8 rebounds playing a very fine game. Sheri Roberts turned in a 20 point performance with 3 rebounds doing great job as well on defense. Lorretta Schooley added 4 points in the third quarter of play and Randy Yates made 2 in the second period. The team hit a phenomenal 70% from the floor the second half and 58% the entire game. The free throws were good with a 73% mark but can be improved.

One can always remember the last few mistakes that were so costly in a game such as this but it is always the miscues throughout the game that make them seem so important. The game was well-played by both teams and was worth the price of admission.

The All Tournament team included two Winters and one Robert Lee girl at forward plus a guard from Paint Rock and two Eldorado guards. These were Lisa Whitten and Lisa McAngus. A Winters forward was Most Valuable.

Winters Tournament Totals

Scoring: Kathleen 50, Sheri Roberts 51, Lorretta 29, Randy 19, Sherry Davis 12, Peggy 9.

Rebounds: Lisa Whitten 44, Lisa McAngus 22, Mary Lynn 20, Gay Lynn 2.

Eaglettes 58—Paint Rock 41

The Eaglettes opened play in the Winters Tournament with a solid win over the Paint Rock Indians. Since the maroon guards were double teaming Kathleen O'Harrow the outside girls went to work. Sheri Roberts poured in 21 points in the first mostly around the circle and Lorretta Schooley added nine more while Kathleen was adding a couple of free throws and a field goal to keep it honest. The Eaglettes held a 34-21 half-time advantage. Third quarter action was slow in the scoring department with various combinations in the line-up and though all scored a point or two only 9 total points went on the scoreboard. It was during this time that the guards were committing violations that allowed Paint Rock to control the ball. Things smoothed during the final period and Kathleen cashed in on 6 of 6 free shots and a field goal! Peggy Hill added a field goal as did Jeanne McCravey while the defense settled back to their usual solid play.

Sheri Roberts had an outstanding night with 24 points. Kathleen O'Harrow 13, Lorretta Schooley 12, Peggy Hill 4, Jeanne McCravey 2, Randy Yates 2, and Sherry Davis 1.

Lisa Whitten was outstanding on defense as she hauled in 19 rebounds and committed no turnovers. List McAngus, Mary Lynn McCalla, and Gay Lynn Richardson turned in fine performance defensively.

The forwards hit 80% on free throws and 37% from the floor.

Eaglettes Pop Steers

The orange and white of Robert Lee couldn't hold the pace against Eldorado's Eaglettes Friday night and the green and white took a 62-47 second round win in the Winters Tournament.

It was in this game that Eldorado's strong team effort paid off. Kathleen O'Harrow was being double covered again and Sheri Roberts drew four fouls rather early in the game so Randy Yates, Sherry Davis, and Peggy Hill along with Lorretta Schooley came in to do their share and it was the contributions of all of the team that led to victory.

Eldorado played a ragged first quarter making too many mistakes that let Robert Lee control the basketball. The Eaglettes found themselves seven points down at the end of the first period 17-10. O'Harrow had 5 of those on free shots, and Sheri Roberts, the other 5. In the second quarter it was senior, Randy Yates leading the charge of she made 5 of 6 free throws plus a field goal. Sherry Davis made 2 of 5 free shots and 2 field goals, while Kathleen and Lorretta added 3 each and Sheri Roberts 2 which put Eldorado into a 31-26 half-time lead.

It appeared early in the third quarter that Eldorado should never have taken a break at half because they again looked ragged but this time the defense was playing better and Robert Lee made only 11 points to 9 for Eldorado which made it 40-37 Eaglettes' favor. The last quarter went very well as the green racked up 22 points and held Robert Lee to 10.

Eldorado had 17 field goals to 16 for Robert Lee and made 28 free throws to 15 for the orange. The margin was in the 34 fouls called against the Steers and Eldorado had only 18.

Randy Yates was outstanding on offense as she made 15 points and had 13 rebounds and no turnovers. However, double figures from three more plus scoring from another three helped. Lorretta Schooley netted 13, Sherry Davis 11, Kathleen O'Harrow 10, Sheri Roberts 7, and Peggy Hill 5. Linda Derrick played her first game of the year since the recurrence of an injury. She was in the last couple of minutes and scored on a free shot.

The defense worked hard as usual and Lisa Whitten again came down with 13 rebounds, Mary Lynn McCalla and Lisa McAngus 6 each. These three went most of the distance until Gay Lyn Richardson came in to relieve. Claudia Meador, a stalwart on defense, is still hobble dwith an ankle injury.

The offense probably hit their best per centage from the floor as they made 17 of 35 for 48%. The free throw per cent was poorer as the team hit only 60% missing 19.

The game was in every sense a team effort.

Proposed Guaranteed Annual Income for Poor 'Grandiose Scheme'

By Congressman O. C. Fisher
The White House Conference on hunger, attended by 3,500, last week recommended an annual guaranteed income of $5,500 for all families of four—whether they work or not. While the conference was silent on where the money would come from, it has been estimated the financing of such a grandiose welfare scheme would total in excess of $40-billion a year. But the professional welfare cult never worries about who is to pay the bill.

In the meantime, OEO got back into the news on Capitol Hill. The law authorizing that agency expired some time ago but has been kept alive on a month-to-month basis. Sponsors have been afraid to face a show-down vote on a proposed extension for two years, but a test is expected before Christmas.

The OEO advocates are afraid amendments may be adopted in the House which would allow the states more voice in the programs, and they worry about possible restrictions being imposed on salaries and how the money is to be spent. Under the present blank-check authority given OEO, a vast amount of waste and scandal has been reported. Hundreds of thousands of dollars remain unaccounted for. Considerable OEO funding has gone to Black Panther and other radical movements.

Actually, the poverty program accounts for only about 5% of what is expended for the poor and disadvantaged. A Library of Congress study reveals that Uncle Sam is now dishing out $27-billion a year for this purpose. In addition, the States and local governments spend $14-billion, and $2.4-billion is donated by private agencies.

Here are two hypothetical cases which illustrate the aid program now available to the low-income families. A mother with four children—from preschool to one in college—could, according to the Library of Congress, participate in 13 different federal aid programs—costing a total of $11,513.

A mother and eight children, including two in preschool, three in high school, one in college, one in elementary, and one drop-out, could take advantage of all these programs for the poor and disadvantaged and draw $21,093 per year—while no one in that family would need to work for a single day.

Yet, the Poverty Cult insists the government is not doing half enough for those who hunger and starve—which the cult says is true of from 15 to 25-million Americans!

FIELD ETIQUETTE
CERTAIN BASIC SAFETY RULES ARE A MUST ANY TIME YOU HANDLE A GUN, BUT COURTESY IS IMPORTANT ALSO—ESPECIALLY WHEN HUNTING WITH TWO OR MORE PEOPLE. HERE ARE SOME TIPS FROM REMINGTON ARMS ON PROPER FIELD ETIQUETTE:

DON'T SHOOT AT TOO GREAT A DISTANCE
"SKY BUSTING" IS A CARDINAL SIN EVEN WHEN HUNTING ALONE. CHANCE OF A CLEAN KILL IS REMOTE, AND CRIPPLING A BIRD OR ANIMAL IS CONTRARY TO BOTH CONSERVATION AND GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP.

WHEN HUNTING WITH A DOG BELONGING TO A FRIEND, LET THE OWNER WORK HIM. EXTRA COMMANDS FROM YOU WILL ONLY CONFUSE THE ANIMAL AND ANNOY YOUR COMPANION.

ABOVE ALL... BE SURE YOU KNOW WHERE EVERY MEMBER OF YOUR PARTY IS AT ALL TIMES, AND POINT YOUR GUN ACCORDINGLY—SO THAT NO ONE IS IN THE LINE OF SHOT.

Quick Dish With Alaska King Crab

Here's a snappy meal-in-one dish to add to your file of quick recipes. Pieces of canned or frozen Alaska King crab are placed over cooked broccoli and topped with a creamy sauce made from canned soup. For special flavor and richness, sour cream and grated Parmesan cheese are added.

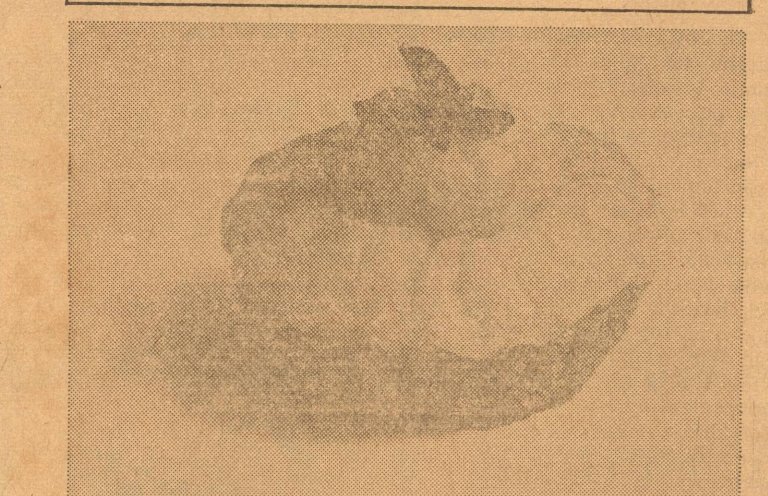

Prime-quality Alaska King crab meat comes fully cooked and full of juicy goodness. The tender white flesh of the King crab is distinguished by bright red striations, adding colorful flavor to salads and main dishes.

Feature this delightful crab entree at a fall supper, complete with a tangy fruit salad and hot biscuits.

King Crab Divan
2 (7 1/2 oz.) cans Alaska King crab or 1 pound frozen Alaska King crab, thawed
2 (10 oz.) packages frozen broccoli, cooked
1 (10 1/2 oz.) can condensed cream of chicken soup
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Drain crab and slice into chunks. Arrange cooked broccoli in bottom of shallow casserole or individual ramekins. Top with crab, reserving some pieces for garnish. Combine soup with sour cream and cheese. Spoon over crab. Garnish with reserved pieces of crab. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

"Home Is Where The Tart Is"

There is nothing so home-like at any season as the tantalizing aroma of baking, but too many homemakers have given it up for a variety of reasons: it's too time-consuming, too difficult—and anyway, too fattening. But the delicious refutation of these sometimes valid excuses is a succulent little Japanese Mandarin Orange Tart.

Time-consuming? Not a bit of it because the graham cracker crust is as easy as well-pie to prepare. And after the mixing is over, the oven does all the work. Difficult? Not when you use these plump little Japanese Mandarin Orange segments that come straight from the can ready to use without seeds, rinds or membranes. And this readily available Japanese delicacy gives the little tart its big taste—sweet, tangy and utterly tantalizing.

Fattening? Certainly not when a low-fat cottage cheese is used. And the canned Japanese Mandarin Oranges, packed in light juice, are low in calories though high in nutritive value. The whole tart adds up to a very-easy-on-the-figure delight. Next time you want to serve a royal dessert, try your hand at this Queen of Tarts: Here's how to prepare it:

JAPANESE MANDARIN ORANGE LO-CAL CHEESE TART

Crumb Crust
1/3 cup graham cracker crumbs
2 tsp. granulated sugar
1/2 tsp. cinnamon

Filling
1 11 oz. can Japanese Mandarin Oranges
1 16 oz. container low fat cottage cheese
3 eggs
2 tbsp. lemon juice
1 tbsp. lemon rind
2 tbsp. granulated sugar
1 tsp. vanilla

Mix together crumb crust ingredients. Press mixture in bottom of 8 cupcake tins. Make filling by beating cottage cheese in electric mixer or blender until smooth; beat in eggs, lemon juice, lemon rind, sugar and vanilla. Pour into tins; bake in preheated (350° F.) oven for 25 minutes. Cool; turn out. Drain can of Japanese Mandarin Oranges. Use Orange segments and mint to garnish tarts.

Eagles Take Trophy

The Eldorado boys basketball team captured Runner-Up honors in the Rocksprings Tournament last week end by defeating Nueces Canyon 38-33, Junction 38-34 and Rocksprings 68-47 while losing only to Comstock who won the tournament. Jerry Baty was named to the All-Tournament team as he was top point maker for his team in each game.

Both the Eagles and Canyon Panthers got off to a slow start with a 2-5 first quarter score but by half Eldorado had a 17-12 lead. The third quarter was a poor one for the green and Nueces caught up and tied it at 22. All but the Eagles got rolling on 10 points by Baty and 2 by Adams and 4 by Bob Page in the final period. The Eagles were awarded 10 free throws but could sink only 4.

On Friday the Eagles tangled with a tough Comstock team and took a 35-52 loss. Though no one did much scoring it was fairly equally divided with Baty getting 8, Sam Oglesby 7, Bob Page 6, Billy Hubble 5, M. Clark 3, and 2 each for Adams, Davis, and Nixon. Again the green made only 7 of 19 at the free throw line hitting 32%.

Saturday morning a partial Eagle squad met Junction and combined good health with a much improved free throw per cent to take a 33-34 victory. Six Eagles carried the load with Baty notching 12, Roy Jones 9, Charles Adams 7, Archie Nixon 5, James Larry Davis 3, and Billy Hubble 2. The Eldorado boys hit 62% making 16 of 26 at the free throw line.

Saturday evening the Angoras of Rocksprings met the Eagles and expected to win the green as they had done earlier in the year; however, Eldorado played good basketball, hit the basket and made free throws better to take a 68-47 victory and the second place trophy.

Eldorado hit 11 points in the initial period and 16 in the second to hold a 27-26 half-time advantage. The third quarter was a hot one for the home Eagles as they pumped in 26 points with Adams, Baty, Clark, Nixon, and Oglesby getting in on the scoring. The green capped it off with a 15 point final quarter. Baty ended the game with 23 points, Charles Adams 12, Bob Page 9, Sam Oglesby 8, Mickie Clark 6, 4 each for Nixon and Jones, and 2 for Hubble.

This tournament with its schedule of four games helped the Eagles as they prepare for the all important district race which begins after Christmas. This brings their record to 3-6.

Why Participate?

Do you occasionally get caught up in thinking why should boys and girls participate in athletics when there is so much pressure, tension, competition and at times little appreciation? Probably everyone has felt this way from time to time but this week one of those "extra" rewards came in the form of a letter from the Winters Coach and her team.

The words reflect well on the Eaglette team and school.

Mr. Jack Bell
Eldorado, Texas
Dear Coach Bell:

We sincerely enjoyed playing such a fine ball team as yours. If we should have the pleasure of playing your team again, we feel that we will play a well coached team that is a fine example of good sportsmanship.

The practice of good sportsmanship in the state of Texas makes girls basketball an exciting and enjoyable game to watch. We believe that the fans watched an exciting and an enjoyable game between Winters and Eldorado.

We feel that your team added to our tournament and wish you good luck for the rest of the season.

Sincerely,
Coach Freddie Gardner
and Winters Blizzardettes

Eldorado Success

Austin, Tex.—January's draft call for Texans is 573. That is up 117 from December's 456.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service director, said allocation of the call will be delayed to local draft boards until he receives official instructions on procedures for random selection.

Induction period is Jan. 15-31. Under the new Selective Service rally, men from 19 to 26, born on September 14, whose last names start with the letter "J" will be the first drafted after January 1. Under the new lottery procedure 365 capsules are dropped into a hopper. Each capsule bears a number representing a day in the year. These are regarded as birth dates.

Order in which capsules are drawn thus determines the order in which men with matching birth-days will be drafted next year. Same sequence applies to those now deferred, or exempt in the future, when they return to "I-A" classification.

Texas' quota for pre-induction physical and mental examination next month is 5,800.

In addition to available men 19-26, all those 18 years and six to 11 months old in January of 1970, may be ordered for examination to fill the call. Oldest will be ordered first.

A 17-member Youth Advisory Committee to Schwartz elected these officers: William C. Sarapalius, presiding officer; Michael J. Shearn, vice chairman and Miss Karen K. Burk, secretary.

This group will evaluate the draft law and its administration and offer advice.

Other members include Rodney E. Donaldson, Austin; Eddie C. Hill, Dallas; Larry L. Long, Austin; Peter S. Cotham, Paris; Jose G. Guerra, Edinburg; James H. Wilkison, Houston; Robert L. Jones, Corpus Christi; Robert J. Hodges, Austin; Miss Sandra Coachman, Belton; Jay N. Miller, Odessa; Michael T. Riddle, Lubbock; George H. Gould, Beaumont; Frank L. Sullivan, Nacogdoches and Larry L. Freeman, Houston.

Attorney General Rules

A Texas law requiring publication twice in a newspaper of political subdivision land use for sale does not repeal the statute requiring commissioner's courts to appoint a commissioner to dispose of county real estate at auction, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

Martin also ruled that the new law does not repeal the provision that a taxing unit which purchased property at a tax sale may sell it either at a public or a private sale.

In other recent opinions Martin concluded:

—Navigational districts, water districts and river authorities may become subscribers for workmen's compensation insurance for employees.

—Councils of government can accept federal grants for water pollution control programs.

—Soil and water conservation districts are prohibited by budget bill from using state funds to buy liability insurance.

—Counties under the Tort Claims Act do not have to carry workmen's compensation insurance.

—Hospital administrators may refuse to furnish to a widow medical records of a former patient who died shortly after discharge from the hospital.

—Local school fund assignment credit for federal-owned military posts must be proportionately computed on the basis of total territory in the district, including that resulting from annexation of another school district.

—Garden clubs which are institutions of "purely public charity" can be exempt from property tax.

—Salary supplements to get doctors and dentists for state hospitals are legal.

—Former legislators seeking state retirement benefits must, under a new provision, make application by January 1 and pay prior-year contributions.

—Persons who are employees of a participating sub-division of the effective date of its joining Texas County District Retirement System automatically become members on the effective date of the agreement.

Appointments . . .

Gov. Preston Smith named L. Rumsey Strickland of Dallas to the board of regents of Texas Woman's University.

Smith also named six to the State Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners. They are Mrs. Minnie B. Otto of Needville, Mrs. Billie W. Wood of Grand Prairie, Mrs. Arnice Fowler Spence of Houston, Dr. Robert Wells Shirey of Hillsboro, Harry H. Miller of Baytown and Mrs. Melba Jo Thomas of Naples.

Humberto Silex Jr. of Austin and El Paso is the new administrative assistant to James W. Griffith, Southwest regional director of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court refused to change its rule that the Sunday closing law is constitutional. However, it granted a motion by challengers to stay its mandate pending appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Federal district court here threw out atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair's suit to prevent broadcasting of prayer and Bible readings by astronauts from outer space. She said she will appeal.

State Supreme Court agreed to send back for retrial a medical malpractice suit brought by a farmworker against an Ennis doctor.

High Court was asked to reconsider its finding that a young Army Sgt., Albert Buckman Wharton II, is sole heir to Electra Waggoner's $45 million estate located in six North Texas counties. A foster sister challenged the will.

Supreme Court ordered a new trial of a suit resulting from a 3-car collision in Collin county.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed itself and upheld the life sentence of a man convicted of having narcotics paraphernalia.

Disaster Tag Urged

Governor Smith has asked that 27 counties in East Texas be declared as disaster areas due to the prolonged drought this summer and fall.

Counties are Anderson, Angelina, Bowie, Camp, Cass, Cherokee, Franklin, Gregg, Harrison, Henderson, Hopkins, Houston, Marion, Morris, Nacogdoches, Panola, Rains, Red River, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Titus, Upshur, Van Zandt and Wood.

Clifford M. Hardin, U. S. Secretary of Agriculture, promptly announced the counties are eligible for emergency assistance under the livestock feeding program.

Small Town Safety Valves

Interest in developing the small town as a safety valve of galloping urbanization is gaining momentum.

Governor Smith started the new interest in small town development when he announced his "Texas Communities Tomorrow" plan, that offers a program of self-help for the state's decaying rural communities.

Texas Municipal League devoted an entire issue of its magazine, Texas Town & City, to the problems—and the solutions.

Governor Smith has said "if we continue to worry about urban problems in a relatively exclusive way, without attending to the plight of small towns, we will have only rural wastelands and urban slums."

Ex-Legislators Work For State

At least eight former lawmakers have been given state jobs to help them complete their eligibility for state retirement pay. Three are registered as lobbyists.

Added to the payrolls recently were these former Senators: James E. Taylor of Austin; Weaver Moore of Houston; Jimmy Phillips of Angleton; William Fly of Victoria and Vernon Lemens of Waxahachie.

Three former House members also were added: Jack Brvan of Buffalo, Henry Lehman of Giddings and Fred Niemann of Austin (elected from Yoakum).

Weather Control

A "hail suppression" program proposed for six West Texas counties around Lubbock is feasible, a report to the Texas Water Development Board shows.

Tom Henderson of Atmospherics, Inc. of Fresno, Calif., made the study for the state board, as part of its job of developing interest in weather modification projects.

But John Carr, assistant chief engineer for the board, said the agency has no money to go further into the program. Technique employed is a modification of "seeding" practices. A "bomb" made with silver iodide is dropped into clouds with hail potential. The nuclei of the chemical "comets" with other nuclei in the cloud for what water is available. Goal is to prevent hailstones from forming, or at least reduce them in size. Cost of the program is estimated at $100,000 a year.

Short Snorts . . .

Attorney General Martin announced he will run for a third term.

Bob Shannon of Austin, formerly of Brownwood, said he will run for the Third Court of Civil Appeals, the Austin appellate court which reviews virtually every appeal involving a state agency.

Cigarette tax revenues jumped nearly $2 million from November, 1968, to last month—due to the 4.5 cent-a-pack increase which became effective October 1.

Sen. Jack Strong of Longview announced he will not seek reelection to his District 2 Senate seat.

A state regional planning assistance grant of $18,400 went to the 17-county West Central Texas

Council of Governments, with headquarters in Abilene.

No quick recovery is seen from the recession in house construction, according to University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Texas economic expansion in general is slowing—and hopefully the inflation pace will slow also, says UT B.B.R.

U. S. Department of Agriculture has placed Houston county under a hog cholera quarantine which does not allow feeder pigs or breeding swine to be moved interstate.

For the first time since the Aeronautics Commission began certifying intrastate airlines, two cities—Corpus Christi and Wichita Falls—have been given permission to intervene in a hearing on proposed service to their towns in the interests of their citizens.

Internal Revenue service reports that stores are no longer required to keep records of ammunition sales since Congress changed the requirement this year.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

A labor of love is never work. Unselfish fingers never tire. Days are never quite long enough to finish gifts being made for the pleasure and use of others. Effort is never too great when the results will bring happiness to even beloved strangers.

Mrs. J. Tom Williams, in her quiet unteaching way, has taught me these things. What she has done with her time and talent has spoken more eloquently than thousands of words could have.

In the past three or more months Mrs. Williams, whom we friends and neighbors of the Reynolds Community affectionately call Cecile, has made 22 small, bolster type pillows designed especially to fit an aching joint or that tired muscle where no pillow before had been successful.

Six inches in diameter and 18 inches long the "mimi" bolster was originally meant to be used as a preserver of the hair style widely used today, but somebody saw tremendous possibilities in it as an aid and comfort rather than a cosmetic use.

The pillow, originally called beautiful by name has been adapted into car, sofa, arm chair, wheel chair and sick bed pillows. Everyone who has used one has found a unique use for it.

Now about the 22 pillows Cecile has made—guess who got them? Every prson in the Extended Care Wing of the Schleicher County Medical Center received a pillow. Twenty-two people will have at least some of life's physical pressures eased as they spend their hours at rest using these small but great comforts.

I know Cecile did not have in mind to make gifts just for her friends. Hardly any of us know all the residents of the Extended Care Wing; I am sure she does not, nor does it matter. The goal was—a pillow for everybody, strangers and all in our new hospital. The goal has been reached.

The work I have described is not easy. I know because I have had a part in making one or two pillows. The work is tedious, demanding extreme diligence and patience.

But then Cecile has always been generous with the gift of herself. Daughter Ann and sons Billy, Bobby and Frank are all Eldorado High School graduates. In each Class graduating seniors numbered from 20 to 40. If the number averaged 30 over the years the count would be about 120. Each graduate received a hand made graduating gift and I remember well the year that Cecile knitted over 20 ties for the boys who were graduating with Bobby.

Cecile has known for a long long time that that which is given away is the only thing which can be really kept.

Ladies' Pumper Team Is Raising Money

The Eldorado Ladies Pumper Team has begun to raise money to participate in the State Racing Meet in June. They are selling chances on a boy's racing set (Johnny Lightening) and a baby doll with a complete wardrobe for the girls.

Tickets may be obtained from team members: Edith Collins, Susie Collins, Tooter Dunham, Jo Fetherie, Flora Hubble, and Dorothy Clark. The drawing will be held Dec. 24 at 3:00 on Main St. You need not be present to win.

BRIDGE WINNERS

Last week's bridge winners at the club house were: B. L. Blake-way, 1st; Jerry Childers, 2nd; and Frankie Williams and June Jones, 3rd.

STILL SOME 5 x 7 photos of the Jr. High team, twirlers, and cheer leaders. Just $1 each at the Success office.

THE Christmas season is a magical time of year. Children make impossible wishes, and the dreams they dream delight even the angels. My sister Kathy, at the age of seven, was possessed of one such dream. She credited it to her "Christmas Star."

I was twelve at the time, and looked upon Santa Claus and such things with the tolerant eye of an adult.

"Do you know what I dreamed last night, mommy?" asked Kathy this particular Christmas Eve.

My mother looked up from the dressing she was making. "That you were a princess in a far-off castle?" she asked.

"Oh mother! I dreamed THAT last summer. Last night I dreamed that Santa Claus came to visit me, and he brought a lot of friends with him, and each of his friends had a present for me, and—"

"Oh brother, has this kid got the 'gimmies,'" I cut in. "You'd think she was the only one on Santa Claus' list."

"Shut up! Make him shut up, mommy. If I ask my Christmas Star it will happen—just like in my dream."

"Goody! goody!" cried Kathy. She scooted for the stairs.

My mother gave me a significant frown. She turned to Kathy: "You should be happy with one or two presents, dear. Besides, I'm sure Santa Claus is far too busy to bring all his helpers to one house." Then she asked me: "Is it still snowing, Bob?"

My mother wasn't merely changing the subject. She was worried about my father. He was due on the 7:15. Our town lay at the end of a spur. During heavy snowfalls the main line was kept clear by the plows, but our little side track usually waited until the next day.

I pulled back the curtain. "It's stopped; sure is deep, though. Look how clear the sky is all of a sudden. I'll bet Kathy will be able to see her Christmas Star tonight."

"Goody! Goody!" cried Kathy. She scooted for the stairs leading to the second floor.

My mother shook her head. "Kathy will be awfully disappointed if your father has to stay in town."

"Dad knows that. He'll make it somehow," I assured her. But I had my doubts. Lesser storms than this had stopped the train.

Fear Grows

Kathy went to bed early to speed things up. My mother and I trimmed the tree. By eleven o'clock mother could no longer hide her disappointment. "Isn't this terrible, Bob?" she asked. "If only we had the teddy bear. That's what Kathy wanted most."

Suddenly there was a commotion outside the front door. The door flew open before we could reach it. Grinning like a triumphant general, my father stood in the doorway. Several other persons stood on the porch behind him; some of them were strangers to me.

"We made it!" cried my father. "The railroad sent a special train out because it's Christmas Eve. It's stuck in a drift this side of the quarry. Fix these folks some hot coffee, honey, so we can get 'em home for Christmas. The plows are working on the roads already."

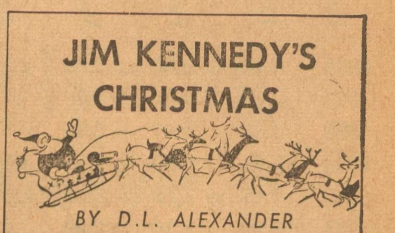

Happiness

I'd never seen my mother so happy. She served coffee to fifteen or twenty people. They sat in a circle around the tree and chatted noisily. Old Pete Dawkins even tried on the red and white suit he had bought.

Suddenly the talk stopped. All eyes turned to the little girl on the stairs.

"It's Santa's helpers!" cried Kathy. She rushed down the stairs and into my mother's arms. "See mommy, they're here, just like I told you! Now do you believe my Christmas Star?"

"I believe it, darling." And you know, I felt kind of creep myself. I went to the window and pulled back the curtains. Kathy's Christmas Star was still there, brighter than the rest, and winking a Merry Christmas to all.

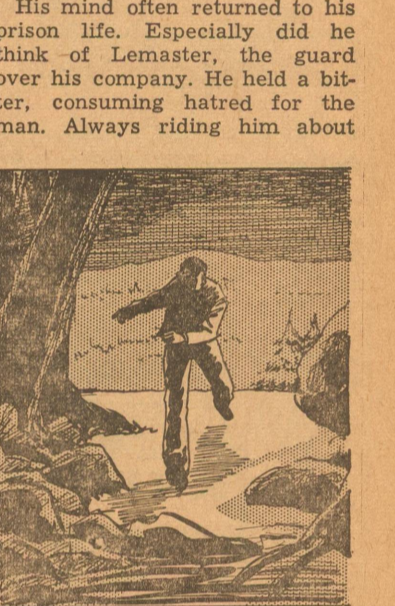

BEFORE the echoes of the prison siren had died away over the hills Jim Kennedy was well on his way toward a cherished freedom and his family. Where speed had been essential, extreme caution became imperative. He kept below the skyline, well away from the highway with its occasional cars and searching spotlights. Away from the farm houses with their barking dogs. Slogging along through the slush and snow with one thought uppermost in his mind: To spend Christmas at home with his wife Millie and their two children, Marian and Joe.

Back at the prison they would be certain he was headed for home. They might even be waiting for him when he arrived, but there was one thing in his favor: At this time of the year the road to his remote cabin was impossible for cars, and he might get there before they did.

He slogged on for two days and nights. He ate sparingly of the meager food he had filched from the prison tables. The weather was not too cold and he took fitful rests beneath jutting cliffs and abandoned shacks. But the overpowering desire to reach his home drove him onward, insensible to the discomforts of his travel.

His mind often returned to his prison life. Especially did he think of Lemaster, the guard over his company. He held a bitter, consuming hatred for the man. Always riding him about prison rules, making him toe the mark, but ignoring similar infractions committed by others. Rules! Rules! The man didn't let him live for rehabilitation, but by rules. He hoped Lemaster would be dead by the time they took him back.

The morning Jim stood on the bluff overlooking the little valley would always remain a bright spot in his memory. The tears that gathered in the corners of his eyes were not the result of cold. The lump in his throat was caused by pent-up emotion, finally released when he realized he had won through.

The mists in the valley raised suddenly and the cabin stood out in startling relief. Smoke poured from the chimney and yellow light splashed from the windows onto the snow.

Somewhat blindly he found the path down to the valley floor. The delighted voices of the children came to him through the cloud of snow he kicked up as he rushed to the door. And then he had Millie in his arms.

Welcome Sight

There was an interval of silence, and then heart-felt expressions of joy and pleasure. When it had somewhat subsided Jim looked around. The homey surroundings were the same as when he left, excepting the Christmas tree in the corner. It was brilliantly lighted, and numerous packages and toys clustered around the base.

He took a step towards it, but Millie pushed in front of him and, reaching toward the tinsel star at the top, took down a long envelope.

"For you," she said, with a bright smile.

"What is it?" he asked, wondering.

"Open it and see."

"It means a Merry Christmas and a full pardon for you." It was the hated voice of Lemaster who had come up behind him.

Jim whirled about. "You here?" he asked bitterly.

"I knew you wanted to come home long ago, Jim. I had to report on your behavior, and to make sure I could make a good report on you I made you live up to every rule strictly. You ranked as a number one, and when the pardons were handed out yours was the first."

Jim had slowly lifted his head as hope sprung anew in him. He gazed mistfully into Lemaster's eyes. "I've had you all wrong, Cap. I thought you was riding me all the time for spite work."

"That's all right. Forget it. I'm going to have a Merry Christmas with you folks if you'll let me stay."

County Extension News
W. G. Godwin, Co. Agent

With the arrival of colder weather, stockmen in Schleicher county should be on the alert for the annual invasion of lice on livestock. These pests, unless controlled, will reduce profits and increase feed bills.

Livestock producers can come by my office and pick up a copy of MP-691, "Texas Guide for Controlling External Parasites of Livestock and Poultry."

The publication outlines control measures and lists formulations for controlling all major external parasites of livestock and poultry. It also contains a dilution chart for mixing sprays and dips and outlines control programs for all types of livestock and poultry.

To get a head start on lice this winter, initiate a sound control program. Expensive to get, never acquired at a bargain price; yet if offered free is usually spurned; experience.

Christmas trees will soon be the center of attraction in most homes and the problem of how to keep them fresh and safe becomes real. Here are suggestions which may help solve the problem.

If the tree isn't to be put up right away, it should be stored in a cool and shaded location and sprinkled frequently with water. When the tree is moved into the house, the lower tip of the trunk should be cut off at an angle, exposing new wood. The base of tree should be placed in water. A new tree may absorb as much as a quart of water in a day, so the container should be checked daily. The moisture helps keep the needles moist and reduces the fire hazard.

Place the tree away from heating units, fireplaces and television sets. Heat dries out the tree and creates a fire hazard.

Lights should be carefully placed on the tree. Each light puts out heat. If needles on the tree touch a bulb, they are dried out and if the contact is for long periods, fire could result.

Most important, place the tree so that if it accidentally topples, it will not touch something that could be ignited or block a passageway. Finally, don't overload electrical circuits and don't use strings of lights which contain defective wiring. It's best not to leave tree or other lighted decorations on when no one is at home.

If you are going to get even with someone, try those who have helped you.

Due to increased greenbug activity producers are urged to inspect their fields regularly for this insect and its damage. Under heavy infestations of this insect entire fields of small grains can be killed. Conditions during the past few weeks have been favorable for greenbug population buildups.

Greenbugs reproduce well at temperatures between 40 and 95 degrees and predators and parasites that prey on greenbugs increase slowly at temperatures below 65 degrees. Thus, in cool weather the greenbug may increase to enormous numbers while its natural enemies multiply slowly.

Information on determining the need for applying an insecticide for control of greenbugs is given in MP-339, "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects and Mites on Grain and Forage Crops." This guide can be obtained at my office.

Insecticides listed in MP-339 for control of greenbugs are malathion, methyl parathion, parathion and phosphamidon. Since the guide was printed, disulfoton (Di-Syston) has been cleared for control of green bugs on wheat only. Disulfoton should be applied only once per season and treated fields should not be grazed. These insecticides are more effective when the temperature is above 50. Malathion is not as effective as disulfoton, methy parathion and parathion but may be used where a less toxic material is preferred for ground applications.

Producers should read and follow closely information given on the label. Safety precautions in handling insecticides should be given careful consideration.

Never get mad at anyone for knowing more than you do. It's not his fault.

Girls Win Second
At Winters Tourney

The Eldorado and Winters girls met in the Blizzard Gym Saturday night to decide the champion of the Winters Basketball Tournament and it was never certain until the last 15 seconds of the game when Winters took it 55-53 in a beautifully played game by both schools.

Eldorado looked their best on both offense and defense for the season but turnovers spelled the difference for the Eaglettes. There were just too many bad passes, traveling violation etc., for the Eaglettes to get a firm lead which they could hold. However, Winters made their share of mistakes so it was just whoever had the ball last and that was Winters who stalled out 20 seconds for the win.

Lisa Whitten, Lisa McAngus, Mary Lynn McCalla, and Gay Lynn Richardson performed well for the green and worked over-time in the final game. Lisa Whitten had 12 rebounds, Lisa McAngus 9, and Mary Lynn 7.

Offensively, the forwards moved, and worked their best of the season against a goal team.

Kathleen O'Harrow hit 27 points and had 8 rebounds playing a very fine game. Sheri Roberts turned in a 20 point performance with 3 rebounds doing great job as well on defense. Lorretta Schooley added 4 points in the third quarter of play and Randy Yates made 2 in the second period. The team hit a phenomenal 70% from the floor the second half and 58% the entire game. The free throws were good with a 73% mark but can be improved.

One can always remember the last few mistakes that were so costly in a game such as this but it is always the miscues throughout the game that make them seem so important. The game was well-played by both teams and was worth the price of admission.

The All Tournament team included two Winters and one Robert Lee girl at forward plus a guard from Paint Rock and two Eldorado guards. These were Lisa Whitten and Lisa McAngus. A Winters forward was Most Valuable.

Winters Tournament Totals
Scoring: Kathleen 50, Sheri Roberts 51, Lorretta 29, Randy 19, Sherry Davis 12, Peggy 9.

Eaglettes 58—Paint Rock 41

The Eaglettes opened play in the Winters Tournament with a solid win over the Paint Rock Indians. Since the maroon guards were double teaming Kathleen O'Harrow the outside girls went to work. Sheri Roberts poured in 21 points in the first mostly around the circle and Lorretta Schooley added nine more while Kathleen was adding a couple of free throws and a field goal to keep it honest. The Eaglettes held a 34-21 half-time advantage. Third quarter action was slow in the scoring department with various combinations in the line-up and though all scored a point or two only 9 total points went on the scoreboard. It was during this time that the guards were committing violations that allowed Paint Rock to control the ball. Things smoothed during the final period and Kathleen cashed in on 6 of 6 free shots and a field goal. Peggy Hill added a field goal as did Jeanne McCravery while the defense settled back to their usual solid play.

Sheri Roberts had an outstanding night with 24 points. Kathleen O'Harrow 13, Lorretta Schooley 12, Peggy Hill 4, Jeanne McCravery 2, Randy Yates 2, and Sherry Davis 1.

Lisa Whitten was outstanding on defense as she hauled in 19 rebounds and committed no turnovers. Lisa McAngus, Mary Lynn McCalla, and Gay Lynn Richardson turned in fine performance defensively.

The forwards hit 80% on free throws and 37% from the floor.

Eaglettes Pop Steers

The orange and white of Robert Lee couldn't hold the pace against Eldorado's Eaglettes Friday night and the green and white took a 62-47 second round win in the Winters Tournament.

It was in this game that Eldorado's strong team effort paid off. Kathleen O'Harrow was being double covered again and Sheri Roberts drew four fouls rather early in the game so Randy Yates, Sherry Davis, and Peggy Hill along with Lorretta Schooley came in to do their share and it was the contributions of all of the team that led to victory.

Eldorado played a ragged first quarter making too many mistakes that let Robert Lee control the basketball. The Eaglettes found themselves seven points down at the end of the first period 17-10. O'Harrow had 5 of those on free shots, and Sheri Roberts, the other 5. In the second quarter it was senior, Randy Yates leading the charge of she made 5 of 6 free throws plus a field goal. Sherry Davis made 2 of 5 free shots and 2 field goals, while Kathleen and Lorretta added 3 each and Sheri Roberts 2 which put Eldorado into a 31-26 half-time lead.

It appeared early in the third quarter that Eldorado should never have taken a break at half because they again looked ragged but this time the defense was playing better and Robert Lee made only 11 points to 9 for Eldorado which made it 40-37 Eaglettes' favor. The last quarter went very well as the green racked up 22 points and held Robert Lee to 10.

Eldorado had 17 field goals to 16 for Robert Lee and made 23 free throws to 15 for the orange. The margin was in the 34 fouls called against the Steers and Eldorado had only 18.

Randy Yates was outstanding on offense as she made 15 points and had 13 rebounds and no turnovers. However, double figures from three more plus scoring from another three helped. Lorretta Schooley netted 13, Sherry Davis 11, Kathleen O'Harrow 10, Sheri Roberts 7, and Peggy Hill 5. Linda Derrick played her first game of the year since the recurrence of an injury. She was in the last couple of minutes and scored on a free shot.

The defense worked hard as usual and Lisa Whitten again came down with 13 rebounds, Mary Lynn McCalla and Lisa McAngus 6 each. These three went most of the distance until Gay Lynn Richardson came in to relieve. Claudia Meador, a stalwart on defense, is still hobble dwith an ankle injury.

The offense probably hit their best per centage from the floor as they made 17 of 35 for 48%. The free throw per cent was poorer as the team hit only 60% missing 19.

The game was in every sense a team effort.

Miles Nips Eagles

Eldorado's boys lost a thriller Friday as Miles defeated them 50-52 but not until the Eagles had made a great fourth quarter comeback.

Early going saw the Bulldogs with a 14-13 lead and a 29-24 edge at the half. The Eagles experienced a rather poor third quarter getting only 11 markers to 17 for Miles but the last quarter things picked up and Eldorado notched 15 while keeping Miles to 6, but it wasn't quite enough. Eldorado hit a very good 12 of 15 free throws for an 80% mark.

Jerry Baty and Sam Oglesby led the scoring with 15 and 14 points while Bob Page hit 9, Mickie Clark 6, Charles Adams 4, and Wayne Doyle 2.
