Pope Elected District Chairman

At the regular monthly meeting of District Directors last Thursday, Nov. 13, 1969, Walter C. Pope III was elected chairman; Otis Deal, vice-chairman; and George Humphrey, secretary. These officers will serve for the coming year. Other members of the board of directors of the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District includes Voy Lee Butts and Clay F. Atkins. In the monthly meeting the directors discussed the use of fresh water for flooding in a secondary oil recovery in the different oil fields in the dist. After considerable discussion the directors voted 100% in opposition to the use of fresh water in secondary oil recovery.

The directors voted to give local prizes of $15, $10 and $5 for the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd winners in the essay contest sponsored by the Texas Conservation Awards Program. The subject for this year's contest is, "My Stake In The Natural Resources of Texas."

During the meeting, three Great Plains Contracts were reviewed and approved on the following places:
R. W. Reynolds564 acres
Wayne Hudson225 acres
Charles Le Boutillier...5,645 acres

Directors also approved conservation plans on the L. T. Cave ranch of 650 acres and the Runge Estate on 2,240 acres. Each year the directors make an annual report of their accomplishments in the way of soil, water, and plant conservation. At this meeting their annual report for 1969 was checked and approved for publication. This year directors plan to have enough copies of their annual report produced that they can give each district co-operator a copy as well as any other party that might be interested in soil, water, plant and wildlife conservation.

Canned Foods Simplify Holiday Preparations

Canned foods can simplify and streamline holiday food preparation, reports the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Many canned items—including peaches, pears, tomatoes and the many tomato products—will be plentiful this December.

Fresh pears and broilers will be especially abundant, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Other foods reported plentiful include potatoes and sweet potatoes, apples, dry beans, dry split peas and lentils. Pear production is up about 40% from last year. Most of the pears you'll find this December will be fall and winter varieties, such as Anjou, Bosc and Comice.

December broiler marketings will be about a tenth higher than a year ago. Large output of canned peaches and pears this year combined with record-large carryovers assures a large volume of these canned fruits.

Good supplies of apples, potatoes and sweet potatoes are moving into markets now, according to USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Dry beans, peas and lentils are handy items for the holidays. Production of all three is up from last year.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Ting Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Hunting is a safe sport in comparison to many other activities, but tragedy can mar the pleasure of the hunt. Already reports are coming in telling of accidents caused by carelessness and unthinking hunters, and the hunting season has already started.

The kind of clothing worn can save lives. A vest and cap of fluorescent blaze orange color is suggested. A hunter wearing such apparel is clearly visible to hunting companions and it helps reduce the possibility of mistaken identity on the part of other hunters.

Research has shown fluorescent blaze orange to be the most visible color for hunters to wear. It is especially desirable since its reflective qualities permit color blind persons to detect another hunter. For safety sake, such clothing should be worn and all cardinal rules of safe gun handling and safety in the field be carefully followed. It's attention to the rules of safety that make hunting a pleasure.

Every man's face is his own, and upon it are written his life's experiences.

Livestock which have grazed on pastures where a heavy crop of mesquite beans was produced should not be moved onto mesquite controlled areas. The reason is a simple one, for the livestock can be a source of reinfestation.

Studies conducted at the Rolling Plains Livestock Research Center at Spur show that mesquite beans passed through an animal's digestive tract have an 82% germination compared with a germination of 26% when the seed are left in the field.

Livestock grazing mesquite infested rangelands should be kept in drylot until all mesquite beans are excreted before putting them on controlled areas.

From three to six days should be sufficient, the tests showed.

Mesquite controlled areas should have a maintenance control practice applied at five to seven year intervals to keep the re-invasion of mesquite plants from producing beans.

The uncreative mind can spot the wrong answers, but it takes a creative mind to spot the right answers.

Planning for another crop season begins when tools and equipment are set aside from this year's work. Proper storage of idle equipment is an important first step in preparing for the crop year ahead.

Improper farm machinery storage may result in early bearing failures, slipping belts, slip clutches that don't slip when they should, balers that won't tie a knot, plows that won't scour, sheet metal with rusted holes in it, and fertilizer mechanisms that won't turn.

These troubles not only add to repair bills and shorten the life of the machine but also cause lost time at critical periods. Proper storage consists basically of protecting metal parts of the machine from rust and corrosion and rubber parts from deterioration. An engine may deteriorate more from rust and corrosion during periods of non-use than from wearing during operation.

Here are general suggestions for preparing equipment for storage:

- Clean the machine thoroughly.
- Lubricate all bearings which normally require lubrication.
- Remove belts and store in a cool and dark area. If they cannot be removed, at least loosen them.
- Remove roller chains, clean, and store in oil.
- Coat unprotected metal parts with a rust preventive. Most oil companies carry these in their industrial oils. Liquid rust preventives may be sprayed on.
- Block up machine to take the weight off tires.
- Don't let weight hang on hydraulic cylinders.
- Store machines inside if at all possible.
- Read the manufacturer's instruction manual for further suggestions.
- List needed repairs and get them made during the slack season.

HE LOBBIES FOR CHRISTMAS SEALS — Young Calvin Thompson Jr. of Austin speaks to his governor about Christmas Seals from a first-hand knowledge of the disease that provoked the venerable Seal campaign—tuberculosis. Calvin's mother was hospitalized with the disease but is now back at work though she continues to take anti-TB medication. Calvin was found to have tuberculosis infection, and doctors placed him on the medication to prevent his becoming tuberculous. Governor Preston Smith, who is Honorary Christmas Seal Chairman for Texas, asked Calvin and Mrs. Thompson to witness his signing a proclamation of Christmas Seal Days in Texas for Texas Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association.

Farm-City Week Objectives Important

Americans work less to eat better than ever before. They spend less of their disposable income, now down to 16.5%, for food and get the best quality in the world, reminds John G. McHaney, Texas A&M University Extension economist.

And, he adds, Farm-City Week, November 21-27, is mighty good time for American food consumers to take note of this fact and express their appreciation for this "miracle of production."

It's true, notes the economist, that America's agricultural abundance is the result of teamwork. From the research and scientific laboratories of the nation comes the information which has been utilized by producers, processors, distributors, the transporters, stor-ers, suppliers and finally the sellers to build the great American agribusiness team; a team which, points out McHaney, interlocks farm and city people and continues to make each increasingly dependent upon the other. Cooperation and mutual understanding benefits both groups he says, and their improvement is a prime objective of Farm-City Week.

From field to factory use, food and fiber are the basis of a facet of the American economy that furnishes jobs and income for a third of the nation's working force. And, says McHaney, this is big business by any definition.

America's farm efficiency, one farmer produces enough food and fiber to feed and clothe himself and almost 50 others, benefits every consumer every day throughout the year in lower food costs and a steadily declining percentage of earnings required for family food needs—a record, emphasizes the economist, unmatched by any other industry or nation in the world.

And, concludes McHaney, Farm-City Week is a nationwide effort aimed at helping rural and urban people to better understand and appreciate the problems of each and to give each a clearer image of the other.

Menard Game

on quarterback keepers ran 22 yards in five carries. Victor Bellman and Ricky Griffin each carried three times, Bellman for 17 and Griffin for 15. Bill Hubble carried five times for 10 yards; Steve Sykes, twice for 3 yards; and John R. Powell, one time for one yard.

Paul Page accepted a Nixon Pass for three yards and a touchdown; Wayne Doyle, one for 10 yards; Jerry Batey, one for 11 yards and a touchdown; and James Larry Davis, one for 32 yards.
In the department of defensive efforts, usual leader Roy Jones and runner-up Bob Page were out of the game a great deal of the time while younger lads were getting some experience; but Jones still racked up 4 tackles and Page, 3.

Robert Wilson and Felipe Pena each got six tackles for the night's honors. Keith Williams, Robert Hibbitts, and Bob Sykes each tabbed five. Bill Hubble, Steve Sykes, and Sam Oglesby got four each; Jim Martin, John R. Powell, and Len Mertz, three each; and Mark Blaud who "punishes the Fairbanks at 107" got one tackle.

Back to Jerry Batey: He gets a commendation on settling down and living out the eligibility limit of one year for a transfer student to compete, this being an Interscholastic League Rule. Batey is a big boy, six feet two or three inches tall, and weighs 190; and he has no book problems. He transferred to Eldorado from Alaska, a calendar year ago, and has a full year of eligibility remaining. He can be a very valuable asset to the Eagles in 1970.

A feature of the game was an end-around-run which turned into a pass as it saw Southpaw Paul Page pretend to run left; but instead he threw a fine 30-yard pass which an over-zealous Eagle had in his hands but dropped.
The game ended Eldorado's '69 season with a very respectable 7-win 3-loss history. Very few teams ever win them all.
The Eagles have a very competent adversary, Rankin, waiting to come to Eldorado next September 11th to launch the 1970 season.

United Pentecost Is Oneness(Pd. Adv.)
"Trinity Isn't Sound Doctrine"
The religiousness groups which are of the trinity faith are misinformed on the Godhead. As there had to be a change of law which was given to Moses and for the fulfillment of the dispensation, there had to be blood shed.
God chose Mary and sent an angel. Luke 1:30-31 "And the angel said unto her, fear not Mary for thou hast found favor with God." And behold thou shalt conceive in thy womb and bring forth a son and shalt call his name Jesus! The spirit of God was in this body of Jesus that walked the earth. In St. John 10:30, I and my father are One. Jesus spoke of the Father because the minds of the people couldn't realize a body without a Father. When he spoke of the Father he spoke of the spirit St. John 14:9-10. Jesus saith unto him. Hame I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then Show us the Father?
Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words I speak unto you I speak not of myself; but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.
The blood was shed so we could have forgiveness of sins. St. John 14:16. And I will pray the Father and he shall give you another comforter, that he may abide with you forever.
This body which was here on earth was a comforter to the people. He said I will pray for the comforter to abide with you forever and we have the comforter today to abide with us, the Holy Ghost. St. John 14:26. But the comforter which is in the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrances. whatsoever I have said unto you.
The Father the son and Holy Ghost are one and his name is Jesus. I Cor. 12:3. Wherefore I give you to understand that no man speaking by the spirit of God calleth Jesus accused; and that no man can say that Jesus is Lord but by the Holy Ghost.
Remember Acts 2:38 Repent, be Baptized in the name of Jesus and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. —Rev. Walter L. Ford, United Pentecostal Church, at Warren and Hackberry. 1*

BY THE MID-1800'S, THE INDISCRIMINATE CUTTING OF FORESTS HAD SEVERELY REDUCED THE NUMBERS OF THESE WILD BIRDS, AND IT WASN'T UNTIL QUITE RECENTLY THAT TURKEY WAS AGAIN HUNTED IN MANY OF ITS ORIGINAL AREAS.

ONE OF THE MOST ELUSIVE OF ALL WILD GAME, THE TURKEY IS MORE THAN A MATCH FOR ALL BUT THE MOST SKILLFUL HUNTER. THE REMINGTON 1100 AUTOLOADING SHOTGUN IS CONSIDERED ONE OF THE BEST CHOICES FOR HUNTING THIS CHALLENGING GAME.

Big Ben Strikes Again

According to latest estimates, more than 50 million Americans—one out of every four people—are engaged in collecting antique items as a hobby. Although reliable experts don't consider any item made after the 19th century an antique, modern collectors are re-defining opinions on what's considered valuable.
For instance, many collectors with the hoarding instinct and a sense of history are busily amassing such turn-of-the-century memorabilia as Tiffany lamps and gas buggies. For these collectors, Westclox has recreated in limited edition the original Big Ben, granddaddy of all modern alarms and the first dependable mass-produced clock ever made.
Big Ben first woke Americans up in 1910—the year when bacon was 12 cents a pound, the favorite song was "Meet Me In St. Louis" and the Panama Canal was a still-new achievement. To celebrate the 60th anniversary of this famous time-piece the handcrafted Classic Big Ben reappears finished in chrome-nickel with a solid brass case and the same powerful voice of its ancestor. The reproduction is faithful in every detail—from the repeat feature of the alarm system which allows for alternating periods of silence and alarm to the top set alarm switches and separate keys for time and alarm.
A unique gift, this reproduction solves the problem of what to give the collector who has everything, the executive who wants to add a personal note to office decor or a back-to-school present for the student—as Big Ben again strikes a significant note in history and provides a ringing memory of a gay, bygone era.

On Every Dollar Bill

(by Mrs. Walter Varney Magee, pres., General Federated Women's Clubs, Washington, D. C.)

There's a powerful lesson on every dollar bill. Take a look at the back of one—the green side—i. e., the "greenback." The two circles represent both sides of the Great Seal of the United States.

Origin of Symbols

The founders of our country thought it so important to express the basic truths of our Nation in the great seal that the matter was brought before Congress on the very afternoon of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776.

Three great leaders, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and John Adams were appointed as a committee of three to prepare the seal. Six years later, on June 20, 1782, after exhaustive study and largely through the efforts of William Barton and Charles Thomson, Congress passed a resolution approving the final design of the great seal.

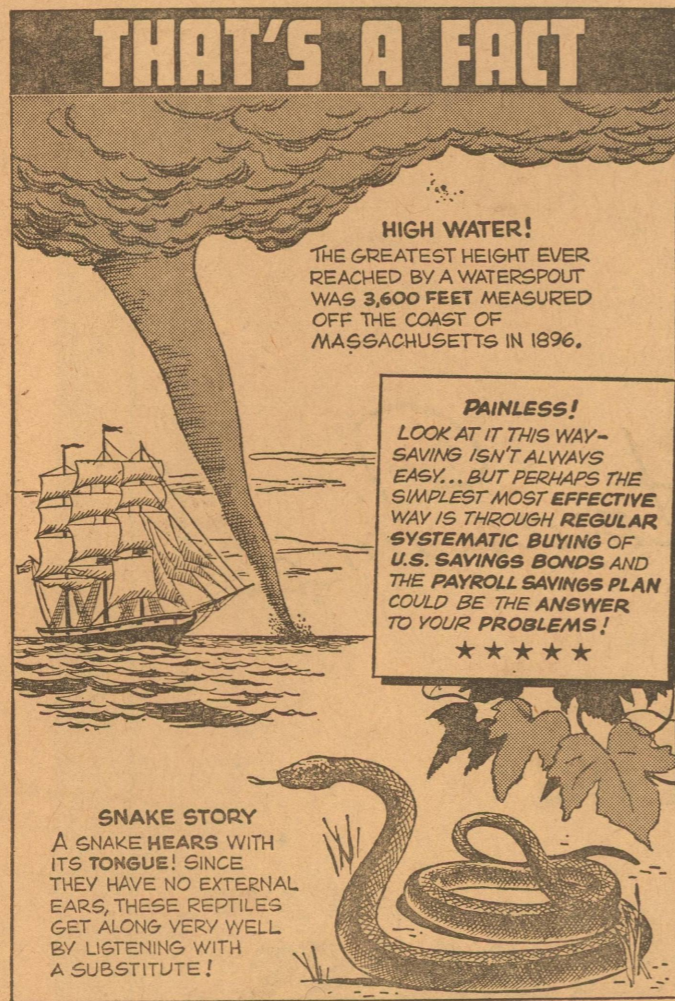

Details With a Meaning

Here are some of the significant details we found through our research:

- Pyramid: First of all, note the pyramid in the left hand circle. It represents the material strength of our country. In the words of William Barton, who played such an important part in designing it, it stands for strength and duration.
- Eye: Directly above the pyramid is the Eye of God which, though separate, completes the pyramid. It emphasizes the importance of putting the spiritual welfare of our country above its material prosperity. Our Founding Fathers firmly believed that our strength was rooted in God and that our progress must always be under the watchful eye of Providence.
- Under God: The words "Annuit Copetis" circling the top of the seal are once again a significant proof of the faith of the Founding Fathers and this Nation's dependence on God. These words mean: "He (God) has favored our undertakings."
- New Order: Now look at the three Latin words directly under the pyramid: "Novus Ordo Seclorum" which means "A new order of ages." They signify that this new republic, which has just been founded, introduced a new age in the life and freedom of the people of the world * * * that it ushered in a new era in which the people themselves would be able to exercise their God-given rights to self-government.
- Started in 1776: The roman numerals—MDCCLXXVI— at the base of the pyramid add up to 1776—the beginning of the United States as an independent Nation.

The Circle At The Right

- Eagle: It first became our national emblem in 1782 when it was chosen for the Great Seal as a symbol of strength and victory.
- States rights: The shield on the eagle's breast signifies self-reliance. It contains 13 stripes as a reminder that each individual state, with its basic rights and responsibilities, was expected to help protect the freedom of all the states.
- The role of Congress: The bar across the top of the shield stands for Congress—as the unifying and binding force between the states. The colors of the bar are red, white and blue in the seal itself. Red signifies hardiness and valor; white, purity and innocence; and blue, vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

Peace comes first: In the right talon or claw of the eagle, you will note an olive branch and if you examine it closely, you will see that it has 13 olive leaves. In the eagle's left talon is a bundle of 13 arrows. Symbolizing the power of peace and war, the olive branch and the arrows are a reminder to the 13 States of their obligation first to work for peace and against war.

Ring of light: Finally, above the eagle's head is a ring of light in gold, surrounding 13 stars of silver on a blue field. The stars denote "a new State taking its place and rank among other sovereign powers."

So you see how important the great seal of the United States really is. In its design our Founding Fathers drew a lesson that was meant to be handed down for generations to come.

It may interest you to know that the great seal is used on official documents, medals, currency, official stationery and publications, and in several other ways under the supervision of the Secretary of State, who is custodian of the seal.

More Publicity For El Dorado Woolen Mills

In the Nov. 4th issue of the Corpus Christi Times, a reader wrote to the Action Line column with the following question:

"For the past seven years I have been trying to find a 100% mohair saddle blanket with no luck. I had one many years ago but have been unable to purchase another. Can you help me find one or some company that will make me one?" JDM.

The columnist answered:

"The El Dorado Woolens Mills at Eldorado, Texas, manufactures a variety of wool and mohair products.

"They are sending you samples of various combinations of wool and mohair saddle blankets for your inspection. A company spokesman doesn't believe that 100% mohair would be practical because it would be too fine and fuzzy and the long fibers would not wear well. Chances are good, however, that you may special-order the blanket to your specifications.

"Our source was Will Paradeaux, owner of Slade's Saddle Shop in Uvalde, heart of the goat country."

Austin, Tex.—Gov. Preston Smith turned from reading political polls to Indian signs last week and came up with a proposal for a new park in the Amistad Reservoir area near Del Rio.

Smith made a day-long inspection tour by air, car and boat, primarily to view 8,000-year-old Indian pictographs in Seminole canyon.

Impressed, the governor said the area must be developed as a recreation site and necessary steps taken immediately to protect primitive art from elements and vandals.

Smith said he personally favors state park development but noted that legislation already has been introduced to create Amistad Recreation Area covering some 63,000 acres of land and water.

Parks and Wildlife Department Director J. R. Singleton said state funds could come from future sale of bonds from the $75 million Texas recreation and park development program. However, Singleton favors waiting on federal action to establish a national recreation area and determination of funds that U. S. agencies will provide for access roads and other facilities.

Smith said he plans to consult with Singleton and request the PWD chief to call all appropriate state department heads together at an early date to explore the state's role in area development.

Crime and Narcotics

An anti-crime and narcotics education package is being drawn up by the Texas Education Agency for classroom use beginning in September, 1970.

Detailed proposals for a statewide attack on crime and narcotics will be drafted. State Board of Education has authorized the agency to develop proposals requesting funds through the federal Juvenile Delinquency Prevention and Control Act of 1968, plus state and private sources.

Program was initiated by the 61st Legislature, which directed the agency to develop "a course on the evils of crime and narcotics" which will be required of all students.

Next planning step will bring 100 educators and other interested persons together in Austin for the first National Leadership Methods Laboratory on crime and narcotics. Laboratory will be directed by R. T. "Sonny" Davis, Austin attorney.

Scope of the problem the Legislature is trying to solve is illustrated with the latest figures compiled by the Department of Public Safety. During February through August, 1969, a total of 1,035 students in Texas in the 11 to 18-year-old age bracket were arrested on narcotics and drug charges. This includes 519 arrests for possession of marijuana, 243 for dangerous drugs, and 273 for narcotics.

Courts Speak

Harsh editorial criticism of a university professor's anti-war demonstration activities did not constitute libel, since the man was a public figure subject to criticism, Supreme Court has held.

A Corpus Christi contractor must pay $127,700 damages to the widow and children of a man killed in collision with one of the firm's heavy highway construction machine units, high court said.

In other recent decisions, court concluded that:

—A new hearing should be granted in the state's suit for more than $10,000 in telephone taxes from a McAllen firm which installs and services auto telephones.

—No commission is owed a newspaper broker who said he had arranged for the sale of two Corsicana newspapers, since he had no written contract.

Hospital Funds Approved

Texas' Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation has approved more than $6.3 million in new construction projects.

Included is $1.5 million for Corpus Christi State School, phase 3; Lubbock state school, $915,000, phase 33 and Richmond State School, $2.5 million, phase 3. Major expansion at three schools will provide 766 new beds for retarded. Additional projects will be at Big Spring State Hospital, Rusk State Hospital, Vernon Center, Wichita Falls State Hospital and San Angelo Center.

Wichita Falls, Plainview and Midland received first-year grants for community MH/MR centers.

Attorney General Rules

Deposit-type accounts may be accepted by state-chartered savings and loan associations under the Texas Savings and Loan Act, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held.

In other recent opinions Martin ruled that:

—A county depository contract is not assignable by a liquidator of a defunct bank to a successor bank, and successor First State Bank of Aransas Pass, therefore, is not subject to terms of a depository contract with a defunct bank.

—Texas Board of Licensure for Nursing Home Administrators of seven appointed members and two ex-officio members, completing 9-member board. Members appointed to this board and the State Board of Examiners for Psychologists serve for two years except for initial appointees.

—Ex-officio members of the Texas Civil Judicial Council do not hold separate and distinct offices. Terms of appointive members are 6 years, 1/3 appointed every two years.

Appointments . . .

Gov. Preston Smith appointed Hidalgo County Court-at-law Judge J. R. Alamia of Edinburg to serve as 92nd District Judge until the next general election. He succeeds the late Judge Tom L. Hartley.

Smith also made these selections: State Antiquities Committee: Dr. W. C. Holden of Lubbock and Dr. Fred Wendorf of Dallas.

Other members selected for the interim committee are: L. Dean Cobb, Dumas, vice chairman; Harold Davis, Austin; Elmer L. Tarbox, Lubbock; Jimmy Weldon, Port Arthur and Joe Allen, Baytown. Dr. A. W. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes appointed the remaining members to the Senate Interim Committee on Public Utility Commissions. Sen. Charles Wilson of Lufkin had previously been appointed chairman. Sens. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock, Criss Cole of Houston, William T. Moore of Bryan and J. P. Word of Meridian were added to the committee. Reps. Leroy J. Wieting of Portland and J. A. Garcia Jr. of Raymondville have been named to the House Interim Committee on Recreational Water Safety.

Military Liquor Sales Eyed

Liquor Control Board is reassessing its tax collection enforcement limitations on federal military posts, apparently with intentions of increasing state revenues.

LCB ordered a staff study to determine those posts on which state jurisdiction has been yielded and those which have not. Members seemed to have an eye on collecting the state's new 5-cents-a-drink service charge as clubs on military bases.

At the same meeting, Board turned down for the present the idea of a master club card which would create a system of guest reciprocity in participating private clubs. Proponents were offered a chance to get an attorney general's opinion on the subject, however, if they would officially request a permit in writing.

Medical Assistance Unit

State Department of Public Welfare's first medical assistance unit will begin field operations from San Antonio December 1, serving a vast 48-county area of South Texas.

Team, headed by a doctor, will have responsibility for medical review and utilization review of services provided by physicians, nursing homes and state institutions participating in Medicaid. Unit will also offer consultation to nursing homes on patient care and social services and medical record keeping. Its consultation services will be available to state mental hospitals and schools for retarded.

Unit is due to be the prototype for similar services in 16 welfare regions.

Short Snorts . . .

Lt. Gov. Barnes recommends creation of a new state department of urban affairs to help cities with their problems.

State Board of Education upheld the firing of a Wichita Falls coach who would not ride a bus with players on the way to practice.

Texas beer sales rose 6.7% for the first nine months of 1969, but

The Liquor Control Board reported an October decline in its overall tax take from $5 million to $4.1 million for month.

Trucks Important To State's Economy

"If you've got it, a truck brought it," the slogan of American Trucking Associations, Inc., may seem like an exaggeration, even to Texans.

But little do most people realize just how vast and far-reaching the trucking industry in Texas really is. Nor do they realize how vital is the industry to the economy of the state—and to the Eldorado area.

For example, according to studies conducted by Texas Motor Transportation Association, the truck and bus industry in Texas employed 666,968 persons during 1968 and paid them more than $3½-billion. In fact, one out of five non-farm pay checks in Texas comes from trucks.

In 1968, Schleicher county alone had 265 persons employed by the trucking industry and they earned $1,436,300. The value of the 679 trucks registered in this county amounts to $726,450.

Yes, when one considers the impact of the trucking industry on the economy of the state and on the economy of Schleicher county, he realizes just how important trucks are to his well-being.

And when he stops and looks around at the items in his environment, he realizes that a truck did bring just about anything he can lay his finger on—at least during one phase of its journey.
