Eagle Trackmen Tops In Relays At Andrews

The Eldorado Eagle track team participated in the annual Mustang Relays held in Andrews last Friday. The Eagle squad turned in an outstanding performance and won the meet with a total of 90 points while holding off a strong Rankin team that finished up with a total of 81 points. The four divisional meet had teams from all over the West Texas area with some of the outstanding performers in the state present.

The Eagle team, which was in Division I in the meet, competed against 15 of these teams in their division alone. Some of these teams had previously won meets in which the Eagles participated. The Eagles, through their strong field events, were able to accumulate 74 points before the first running event of the finals had been run.

Another outstanding performance was turned in by Archie Nixon who won four first places, including a new record in the high jump.

All individual Eagles showed much improvement in their specific event. Billy Hubble ran a very good time of 18.1 in the 120 high hurdles as well as winning second place in the Discus. Jerry Baty accounted for 24 individual points as he won second in the shot put and broad jump, third in the discus, and ran a leg of the 440 relay. The 440 relay again cut its time down this week running a 44.9 in the prelims and a 45.0 in the finals which was good enough for 4th place. The relay team is made up of Mike Manning, Jerry Baty, Archie Nixon and Keith Williams.

Coach Lynn Meador stated that he was well pleased with the effort of the Eagle team. He stated that he felt that the Eagles have a great deal of enthusiasm and momentum going for them, and with the District 9-A track meet coming up this week, this will benefit the Eagles a great deal more than the other district teams. Coach Meador said that Sonora will be the team to beat at the district meet which will be held at Robert Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Christine Faull and infant son, Michal; Mrs. Margaret McGrath, Mr. and Mrs. Dan O'Connor and family and Mrs. Donald Le Clair from Corpus Christi visited with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faull over Easter holidays. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Faull and Mrs. Anna Faull.

The Texas Highway Department has announced a construction project on U. S. Highway 277, for the widening of the existing bridges and approaches at Meckel Draw, 5.1 miles north of U. S. 290, and at Devil's River, 0.5 mile south of U. S. 290. The Texas Highway Department and the contractor, H. D. TENTH ANNIVERSARY FOR SIX FLAGS OVER TEXAS

Ten years ago a new concept in family entertainment—a blend of fun and history—was born as SIX FLAGS Over Texas made its debut on what had once been a stretch of Texas ranch land.

Since then SIX FLAGS—located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth—has grown in size and reputation. Today it is visited by some two million fun seekers each year.

SIX FLAGS Over Texas—has never had a "customer." Every visitor is a "guest." There are no "employees." Some 1,500 "hosts and hostesses," mostly college students, give the Park its special personality.

SIX FLAGS is an exciting mixture of rides, shows, landscaping, shops, exhibits and a rare brand of hospitality.

Since 1961, more than 16,000,000 persons from every state and most foreign countries have sampled the fun of SIX FLAGS.

Adding to the Park's appeal is its one-price ticket policy. Adults pay $5.75. Children under twelve can buy a ticket for $4.00, and those under three are admitted without charge. The ticket covers everything except food and souvenirs. Guests can ride all the rides and see all the shows and attractions as many times as they like during the day without extra charge.

The name "SIX FLAGS Over Texas" comes from the state's history. Since the first explorers came in the early 1500's the flags of Spain, France, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States have flown over Texas soil.

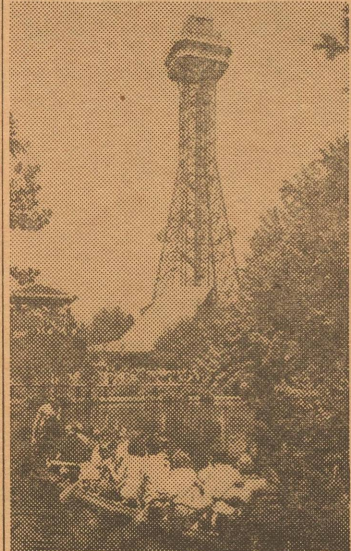

From this rich background comes the Park's theme. The entertainment area is divided into six sections in which the architecture and atmosphere reflect the various periods... the tile and stucco of Mexico and Spain, the faded wood of the Texas frontier, the Old South charm of the Confederacy, a rugged log fort built by the French and the modern look of the U.S.A.

At SIX FLAGS there is excitement everywhere.

A thrilling ride designed and built by Swiss engineers—the Jet Racer—is a new addition to the lineup for 1971. Sleek cars travel along tubular tracks over other rides and through groves of trees at breathtaking speed. It is the fastest ride yet at SIX FLAGS.

Glass-doored elevators rise swiftly to the observation platforms atop the world's largest land-based oil derrick. From the top, 300 feet up, visitors can see the skylines of Dallas and Fort Worth. The Park is 15 miles from each city.

SIX FLAGS' most popular ride, the Log Flume, carried more than 3,300,000 persons last year, many of them riding several times because of the one-price ticket policy. Riders climb into hollow "logs" for a trip through torrents of water, ending with a plunge down a steep incline which sends a curtain of water high into the air.

On the Runaway Mine Train "ore cars" roar around unexpected curves and through dark "mine tunnels" at speeds up to 38-feet-per-second.

Guests can try to slip past the blazing cannon of a Spanish fort on LaSalle's Riverboat. Then there are such rides as the antique and modern cars, the Swiss Sky Ride, the quaint Fiesta Train and many others.

It is always showtime at SIX FLAGS. A cast of talented collegians presents the full-scale musical "Sing Out! America" in the Southern Palace Music Hall. Brilliant color slides and movies form the backdrop for the production which traces American history in song and dance.

New for 1971 is a lively Country and Western music show in the Western Pavilion. Guests can take part in the square dance sequence of the colorful show, "Six Flags Shindig."

Sid and Marty Kroff's popular TV and movie character H. R. Pufnstuf is the star of the new show in the Puppet Theatre.

Still another musical production is presented in the frontier atmosphere of the Crazy Horse Saloon, where the strongest "brew" served is a soft drink. Alcoholic beverages are not allowed at SIX FLAGS.

And, there are hourly performances by trained porpoises, in a special saltwater tank.

Despite all the activity, SIX FLAGS is kept immaculately clean. Every member of the staff (executives included) is a member of the "cleanup detail."

Completing the picture is the lavish landscaping for which SIX FLAGS has become famous... a blaze of floral color set against a background of lush greenery. And, throughout the Park, more than 1,200 tons of air conditioning keeps guests cool.

Smiles, shows, rides, beauty, hospitality... a few of the things that make SIX FLAGS Over Texas the state's most popular single tourist attraction.

Interest Revives In Grandfather Clocks

Fairhope, Alabama.—Emperor Clock Company of Fairhope, Alabama, has succeeded in generating a revival of interest in the traditional grandfather clock. The renaissance began just two years ago.

"General acceptance of grandfather clock ownership has been nation-wide," reports George Fowler, president. "Sales have been so good it pushes production to meet the demand. It appears that the traditional grandfather clocks are a national status symbol," Fowler added.

"Grandfather clocks are among the most treasured furniture pieces handed down as heirlooms from generation to generation. They grow in value and survive the changes of time," Fowler said. "The Emperor Clock Company enhances the beauty and charm of cherished grandfather clocks by using modern manufacturing methods. The heretofore high cost of quality grandfather clocks is thus reduced to a popular price range," Fowler stated.

Wood, cut from solid mahogany and walnut, under the skill of southern furniture craftsmen, and movements, imported from West Germany, give Emperor Grandfather Clocks a warm, rich beauty and lasting dependability as a time-keeping instrument.

Each clock features the well-known Westminster Chimes. Other models offer a choice of the Westminster, Whittington or St. Michael Chimes.

Emperor Clock Company not only sells assembled, unfinished cases without movements, and completely finished clocks with movements, but also "do-it-yourself" kits for building your own grandfather clock. Emperor Clock, in addition, offers detailed blueprint plans of each model at a nominal cost.

Sale Is Continuing At Foxworth-Galbraith

The 70th Anniversary Sale that started April 1st is continuing at Foxworth-Galbraith here and at all other yards in Texas. The sale is set for the entire month of April.

A 50 year anniversary celebration usually rates a short newspaper story. But a 70th Anniversary deserves more than a casual mention. Seventy years this month is exactly how long the Foxworth-Galbraith Building Materials Supermarkets have been a family business, according to local store manager, Mr. J. H. Mace.

Mr. Mace told us that after 70 years of doing business in the rural areas of the Southwest, the 56 store chain is still family owned and operated. Management is now in the hands of second and third generation Foxworths and Galbraiths.

"We get to know the people over the years. We know what they need and when they're going to need it. We keep emphasis on personal service this way. We also get the advantage of big volume purchasing through headquarters. When you buy in quantity, prices can be kept down to where people can afford them. The 70th Anniversary Sale is a good way to say 'Thank you' to our customers," said Mr. Mace.

Founded at Dalhart in the Texas Panhandle in 1901, Foxworth-Galbraith lumber yards grew rapidly by following the railroad all the way to El Paso. J. C. Galbraith joined the founders, H. W. Galbraith and W. L. Foxworth soon after the first yard opened. The successful young company keyed to the industrial growth of the times and followed another steel ribbon, the Fort Worth and Denver City Line, into additional Southwestern towns.

The oil boom caused further expansion in West Texas and on to New Mexico, Arizona and California.

In the 50's and 60's, Foxworth-Galbraith expanded its service in North and East Texas, purchasing eight yards in 1954. In subsequent years, a number of yards have been rebuilt, modernized and enlarged, with additional expansion south to Kerrville and east to Mt. Pleasant.

As communities grew through the years, Foxworth-Galbraith lumber yards began to expand their stock to include other building materials and supplies for Southwestern homes, businesses and industries.

Now, in 1971, the lumber yard is a far cry from the early days and is better described as a building material supermart. The woman's influence is largely responsible for this. More and more, women are customers in what was once a man's world. Foxworth-Galbraith now stocks a wide range of items for home decor, kitchen modernization and gardening, plus other items needed by the female side of the family.

Current management includes J. L. Foxworth, president, J. C. Galbraith, Jr., vice-president in Dallas and H. S. Galbraith, vice president, Phoenix, Arizona, all sons of the founders. Representing the third generation are the 70th Anniversary Sale "drum-beaters," W. L. Foxworth II and J. C. Galbraith III.

Respect by your own business peers has always been a gauge of success so it follows that J. L. Foxworth is the newly elected president of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas, one of the largest lumber associations in the nation.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Mainly for Mothers
by Carol Hart

Safety at home—while parents are away

In the United States today, an estimated five million children under the age of six are left in the care of another person while their parents are out working.

According to the United States Department of Labor, women today represent one-third of the nation's work force. As employment opportunities for married women increase and the number of child day-care centers grows, there will be more and more mothers of preschool children holding jobs.

How safe are these youngsters? Only as safe as the homes are made by parents, says the Council on Family Health. The Council, sponsored by the manufacturers of medicines as a public service, suggests some safety measures to insure the safety of children while parents are at work.

Teach the children to obey the person in charge, and emphasize to the sitter that she should never leave the children alone at home.

To avoid accidental poisoning, be sure to store all medicines and cleaning agents safely out of the sight and reach of children. When you use medicines at home, remember to return them to the cabinet immediately after use.

To help prevent burns and scalds, teach the sitter to keep pot handles turned toward the rear of the kitchen stove, to test the children's bath water before letting them enter the tub and to keep all matches out of children's reach.

Keep a list of the name and telephone number of your doctor, nearest friend or neighbor and the telephone number of your place of employment. Keep it near the phone and show it to your stand-in.

Parents are the guardians of their family's health and safety. It is up to all parents to make their homes as safe as possible when they are away.

Cancer Crusade
Set April 18 to 25

The Time Has Arrived! April is Cancer Control Month!

Our volunteers will be calling on you at home and at work during the week of April 18th to 25th. They have been trained to give you vital information and an opportunity to make a gift to the American Cancer Society which, indeed, will be an investment in your future and for those you love.

If you have any questions, ask the Crusaders who will provide the answers and if, perchance, they do not know the answers, they will make a point of obtaining the information for you. Our slogan for 1971 is "We Want To Wipe Out Cancer In Your Lifetime," and we are sincere in this task.

There are more people that die from cancer every two years than have been killed in ALL the wars the United States has ever fought. A sobering thought, but we can start to correct this situation this month.

Be assured your donation will be used wisely. Only five cents of every dollar goes for development of program and administration.

Jackie Susan and Greg Etheredge of Dallas spent the Easter holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Etheredge and Mrs. Bessie Doyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Doyle and children of Pearsall visited during the Easter holidays with Jerry's mother, Mrs. Bessie Doyle, and his brother Jimmy and family.

Nixon Takes 4 Firsts
In Relays At Andrews

Andrews, Tx.—There have been many outstanding performances at the Mustang Relays in the last 14 years, but the feats of Eldorado's Archie Nixon were so good that a couple of coaches didn't even think they were legal.

Nixon, a junior trackman who doesn't look big enough to be an equipment manager, became the first athlete in the history of the prestigious meet to win four individual events as he single-handedly ruled the Division I field events and led his team to the title for Class A and B entries.

Nixon, dubbed by one area sports writer as "the world's smallest shot putter", is usually the high point man in every meet he enters and has won three events several times. But he took home four first place medals for the first time, Friday.

The 17-year-old athlete, who made the All-West Texas football team as a quarterback and has lettered in basketball, managed 42 points as his team shaded Rankin for the team crown, 90-81.

Nixon cleared 6 3/4 in the high jump (a division record), won the broad jump with 20 1/2, threw the discus 145-7, and had a toss of 54 6 3/4 in the shot put. His 4th field event victory brought a protest as some coaches claimed state rules do not allow participation in four field events.

A check of the rules showed that an athlete is allowed to enter five events, provided no more than three are running. No limit is put on field events.

Nixon's high jump was the first of six records set in Division I. —Midland Reporter-Telegram

Deer On Roadside
Pose Extra Hazard

San Angelo, Tex.—The hunting season may be over, but a deer harvest of sorts goes on and on, according to George Litton, project leader for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

It is automobiles instead of firearms which are taking their toll of West Texas deer.

Litton and his assistants who are assigned to the West Texas area have found more than a hundred deer on various roadsides during the past two weeks, all killed by vehicles.

Litton speculates the drought which has gripped Texas for several months has driven the deer from the parched range land to greener pastures along the road bed, posing a hazard to both the deer and to motorists.

Litton says most of the deer are hit at night when they are temporarily blinded by the headlights of the oncoming cars.

In some instances deer are knocked over the hoods of the cars and through the windshields.

Litton said the danger should lessen when rains finally come to West Texas, but until then motorists should take extra care.

Pollution Control
Begins With You

Austin, Tex.—We all think we know what pollution is, but we are apt to overlook some of the more subtle forms of fouling the environment, according to Ron Jones, interim executive director for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept.

"When we think of pollution it is the most obvious offenders that we see in our mind's eye," said Jones. "We see great factories belching out foul effluent or cities ridding themselves of their filth by dumping it into a stream or river, making it someone else's problem down stream."

Industries and cities do much of the polluting, but we do too, according to Jones.

Smoke from burning leaves or poorly tuned internal combustion engines lead to degradation of the environment. So do lost monofilament fishing lines, abandoned trotlines, feed lots, throwaway cans and bottles, junked cars and phosphate detergents.

Jones said that although it is harder to see these less obvious sources of pollution, it is easier to do something about them since it only takes a little bit of personal sacrifice to solve some of the problems.

Oil News

Schlsicher Confirmer

Sixth lower Canyon oil producer and a location west extension to that pay was assured in the Fort McKavett, North field, of Schleicher county with the swabbing and flowing of 142 barrels of new oil, plus 201 barrels of load water in an unreported time through perforations at 4,163-4,181 feet, at Atlantic-Richfield Co., Midland, No. 1 J. H. Treadwell, in 19-BS&F, 35 miles northeast of Eldorado.

During the last three hours of the same test, recovery was 33 barrels of new oil, plus three barrels of load water through a 13-60 inch choke and the above perforations. Operator was preparing to take potential.

Bake Now—Freeze For Later

How does the busy woman manage to serve homemade breads and cookies? She bakes when she has the time and freezes the goodies for use at busy times.

This dark golden quick bread freezes particularly well. There are two unusual ingredients: finely rolled NABISCO Shredded Wheat biscuits add crunchy texture and coarse-cut orange marmalade adds tangy orange flavor.

To freeze, cool loaf and wrap in aluminum foil. Unwrap and let thaw at room temperature before serving.

ORANGE WHEAT BREAD

- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground mace
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/4 cup milk
- 5 NABISCO Shredded Wheat biscuits, finely rolled (about 1 1/2 cups)
- 3 eggs
- 1/2 cup coarse-cut orange marmalade
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted

Sift together first five ingredients; add sugar and mix well. Pour milk over NABISCO Shredded Wheat biscuits crumbs. Beat together eggs and marmalade; stir in butter. Add to dry ingredients together with shredded wheat mixture; mix until blended. Pour into a well greased, 9 x 5-inch loaf pan. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375° F.) 1 to 1 1/4 hours, or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes in pan, then remove. Cool overnight before slicing. Makes 1 (9-inch) loaf.

Less Populous Areas New Industry Target

Austin, Tex.—Jim Harwell, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, has called for a concentrated industrial expansion program to repopulate smaller cities and stop the threat of overpopulation of metropolitan areas.

In a Texas Industrial Week statement, Harwell outlined a three-pronged proposal to help 166 Texas counties that lost population in the last decade, and close the growing gap between the average Texan's income and the national average.

Harwell pointed out that although Texas is a leader in industrial growth, the state is still facing problems. He said Texas lost 52,000 manufacturing jobs last year due to tight money and federal cutbacks, and the trend toward concentrating industries in already-large cities threatens to overburden the areas' resources.

"We must stop the flow of people from our smaller towns and cities into the already overpopulated areas," he said. "We must secure better, higher-paying jobs for Texans."

As an answer to the problem, the state industrial chief proposed a comprehensive planning program for the state's 21 industrial regions. He pointed out that the Commission is now able to match the needs of an industry with the assets of a city through a computerized program established within the TIC.

He also called for an incentive program to attract new industry to the less-populous regions of the state. "For all Texans to receive the benefits of industry, plants must locate not just in the big cities, but in all areas of the state," he said.

Harwell said all states but Texas already offer financing incentives to new industry and carrying out such a program would allow the state to remain competitive. He said Texas should institute a pre-employment training program to enable Texans to move from the vanishing farms into profitable industrial positions.

The third step would be continuation and more emphasis on the export market. He noted that exports have increased 64% since creation of the international trade division within the Industrial Commission.

"Texas is at a turning point right now," he said. "We can either take the lead in industrial development and secure a prosperous life for our future generations, or we can lag behind while other states pass us by."

Senator Urges Drouth Designation

Washington, D. C.—Sen. Lloyd Bentsen today urged President Nixon to take immediate action on the request of the Texas Governor for emergency Federal drouth relief for 60 drouth-stricken Texas counties.

The Senator said his office had been in communication with the Office of Emergency Planning at the White House following the request of Governor Smith requesting emergency relief for the 60 counties. The Senator said that he feels other counties should be added as drouth damage surveys indicate conditions.

A declaration by the President could trigger several programs of assistance to farmers, stockmen and agricultural workers in the area. This could include help in the form of freight rate reductions for livestock feed and livestock, special agricultural loans, assistance for seed crops, food stamps and special food commodities to unemployed agricultural workers, unemployment compensation for those out of work due to the drouth.

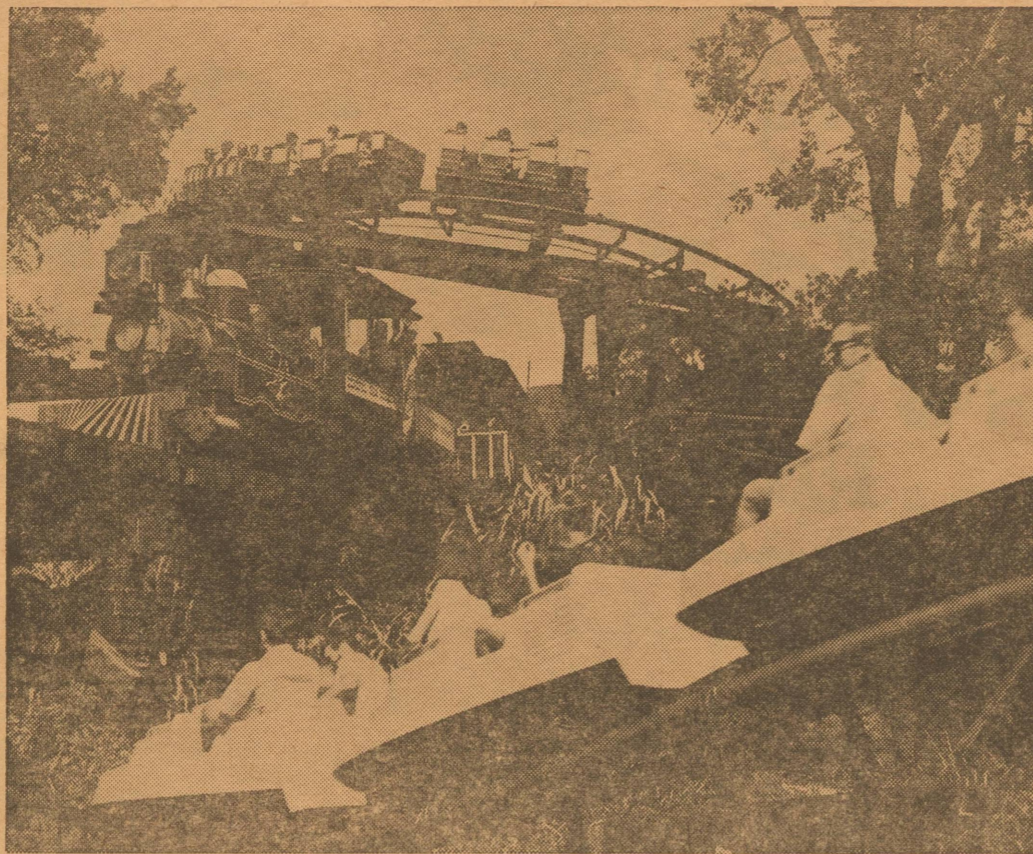

The Senator pointed out that such a declaration for Florida created similar relief in that state recently.

"The deteriorating range and crop conditions resulting from extreme drouth over much of the state is working a terrible hardship on the farmers and ranchers, and the many workers who are normally employed to work the farms and ranches," the Senator said. "I am urging immediate action so the aid programs may be instituted."

TEXAS EXCITEMENT—Three of the most popular rides at SIX FLAGS Over Texas are shown in action. At top is the Runaway Mine Train which annually carries more than 2½ million riders. At center an authentic 1898 steam engine carries passengers over a narrow gauge track which encircles the huge theme park. And, in the foreground is the SIX FLAGS Mini Mine Train, designed for the younger set.

Austin, Tex.—Serious financial business faced the Legislators on their return to the capitol after spending the Easter holiday with the homefolk.

A Senate sub-committee immediately began drafting a tax bill which is expected to exceed $550 million. That is the minimum amount needed to balance the upper house version of the budget—from a smorgasbord of proposals already aired.

Both the House and the Senate are due to take up and pass their respective appropriations bills, already drafted, and move the issue of budgeting into a 10-member conference committee of top legislators.

Big battle in the Senate, over revenue-raising, may be on a liberal backed proposal to levy a new corporation income tax. More than a dozen votes are regarded as firm for the corporate profits tax, with three or four more senators rated as "possibles."

Senators are cool toward the $492.5 million tax package sent over earlier from the House—first because they regard it as inadequate and, second, because it places the bulk of the load on consumers and students. Bill would raise the sales tax three-fourths of 1% to 4%, hike college tuitions and mark up the corporate franchise tax 50 cents per $1,000.

Earlier, and for the first time, the Senate voted against permitting floor amendments on tax proposals which have not been subject to public hearing.

Here are some of the major tax proposals which have been made to the Senate State Affairs Committee:

—A corporate profits tax of 6%, which would produce an estimated $600 million in two years.

—A corporate profits tax boost, to gross about $39.5 million.
—Increase the sales tax to 4%, to bring in $279.8 million.
—Two cents a gallon gasoline tax increase, to promote $92 million to the state and $30 million to cities and counties for highway matters.
—A beer tax boost to $10 a barrel, $95 million.
—Pipeline tax, $30 million.

Appointments . . .

Rep. Monton J. Murray of Harlingen was named to head the new five-member House general investigation committee.

House Speaker Gus Mutscher designated Murray as chairman and the following representatives as members of the panel: DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi, James Nugent of Kerrville, Jim Slider of Naples and Clyde Hynes Jr. of Vidor.

Gov. Preston Smith approved appointments of J. C. Chatmas Jr. of Marlin, Clarence Gaskamp of Brenham, Bruce Campbell Jr. of Knox City and Burford I. King of Fort Worth to the Board of Directors of the Brazos River Authority. Reappointed were R. E. (Gene) Chambers of Wichita Falls, Albert Brannan of Comanche and Glynn A. Williams of Bryan to the same Board.

Reps. Tommy Shannon of Fort Worth and Phil Cates of Lefors will serve on a committee to select an official Texas State Artist. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes will designate two Senators and Governor Smith will appoint a fifth member.

Amendment Fight Looms

Battle lines are forming for the May 18 constitutional amendments election.

Conservation leaders and Texas AFL-CIO executive board have declared war on Proposition 4, which would create a $100 million bond fund to assist local governmental units with sewage treatment plant construction.

AFL-CIO also announced opposition to an amendment creating a state commission to set legislators' pay and ethical standards for officials. Support was given to raising the welfare ceiling and the amendment which would allow constitutional changes to be proposed in special sessions as well as regular sessions.

Governor Smith announced appointment of Richard D. Brown, executive director of Texas Municipal League, to head a Committee on Clean Water, promoting passage of the water bond amendment that would also raise the maximum rate of interest on Texas Water Development Board bonds from 4 to 6%.

A committee of 12 will serve as the coordinators of Texas Citizens for Welfare Reform, promoting passage of Amendment 3 to raise the aid ceiling.

Courts Speak

State has given notice of appeal in an historic federal court case at Corpus Christi where a three-judge panel held that Texas' annual voter registration requirement is unconstitutional.

State Supreme Court reversed the decision of a Dallas civil appeals court, directing a new hearing in the civil breach of contract action against Texas Rubber Supply Inc.

Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial for a Texarkana man convicted of murder on the grounds that the trial court did not rule correctly on whether a statement by the defendant was voluntary and that the man should be heard on the issue of accidental shooting.

Fifty-sixth district court of Galveston County has enjoined the Gulf Chemical and Metallurgical Corporation near Texas City, directing it to install specified air pollution abatement equipment by September 10.

Third Court of Civil Appeals was told, in arguments by attorneys, that the defunct Sharpstown State Bank did not adequately check the identity of a man who gave it $470,000 in surety bonds.

Bonds Fail To Sell

A $25 million offer of Texas Water Development Bonds failed to draw bidders. It was felt that the 4% ceiling on interest discouraged buyers.

Board members said another offer will be made later in the month if a "favorable" market develops.

A representative of a Dallas bank was about to offer a bid, but moments before the opening he announced he had changed his mind. Board succeeded in selling $15.1 million worth of bonds late in February at 3.9984%.

are converted into state district courts of general jurisdiction, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—A bill providing for a county civil service system in counties over 300,000 is constitutional.

—Legislation seeking to prohibit State Board of Insurance members or employees from receiving compensation from any insurance company within six years after they leave their state posts is unconstitutional.

—Grayson County commissioners court may legally employ an attorney to make investigation for a grand jury.

—Petroleum products shipped out of state from F. O. B. loading points in Texas do not constitute receipts from business done in Texas under the franchise tax law, because physical possession occurs outside the state.

—Texas Fine Arts Commission may publish in its newsletter the text of legislation relating to fine arts and solicit comments; but it may not argue the merits of a bill, tell who supports it nor can a list of legislators be printed in their publication.

—Requirement of a bill that no county may alter, damage, destroy, sell or lease its courthouse without six months' notice to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee is not comprehended in the Antiquities Code.

—A bill to create a State Budget Commission of executive and legislative branch members violates the constitution in seeking to grant legislative power to the executive department of government and executive power to the legislative branch.

Car Dealer Licensing Due

Governor Smith signed into law legislation establishing a six-member Texas Motor Vehicle Commission to license major new car dealers and manufacturers.

Consumers are assured by law that warranties will be performed by dealers and manufacturers. False advertising and misrepresentation of products and services are also prohibited.

Short Snorts . . .

Former Texas Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner, 78, died last week.

Reduction and eventual repeal of the chain store tax, which produces about $5 million a year in revenue, was voted by the Senate.

A bill changing the Texas Unemployment Compensation System to conform with minimum new federal requirements was passed by the House.

Transfer of $6.8 million in welfare contingency funds to prevent a cut in aid to families with dependent children was ordered by the Senate.

A law just signed by Governor Smith allows city bus companies to provide lower fares for aged, blind and disabled.

A controversial code of ethics bill was passed by the House.

Consumer groups and the AFL-CIO directed their wrath against the so-called uniform consumer credit code and its proposed steep increases in loan interest rates.
