Henderson and wife, R. C. Morgan and wife, and J. R. Page. The Eldorado crowd are going to try and bring the Association here next year.

CARD OF THANKS.

While I had no opponent in my race for District and County Clerk, I feel very grateful to the voters of Schleicher County for their loyal support and influence. I feel that it was due to your loyalty that I had no opposition and I will assure you that I will try all the more to make you a more efficient officer.

Accept my thanks and gratitude, and when in need of any information required by the duties of my office, command me.

John F. Isaacs

W. D. Swift was in Eldorado Saturday and while here made The Success office an appreciated visit, he was accompanied by Cisero and Margaret.

TO THE PEOPLE OF SCHLEICHER COUNTY.

Permit me to express to each of you my heartfelt thanks for your loyalty and friendship, although second in the race on July 22, I hope to be highman on August 26. No candidate in Schleicher County, perhaps, ever had more loyal friends among those who have known me longer and best, than I, and their unwaivering confidence in my honor and qualification to fill the County Judges office and to guard the tax payers interest of the county with out fear or favor to any men or interest, will always be cherished among the pleasantest memories of my life.

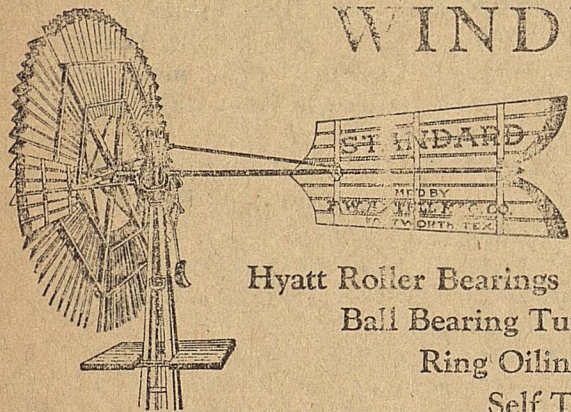

In my canvas of the county in quest of votes I was accorded the big hearted hospitality for which West Texas is noted, and now wish to ask my friends to be on hand August 26th, and to give me one more day of their time and if elected I will show my appreciation by faithfully discharging the duties of the office to which you elect me.

To the ladies, I wish to say, I not only admire woman as the most beautiful object of God's creation, but reverence her as the only power and influence in the home and in politics that can save this country from moral and political ruin. For the only peak that rises above the clouds the windows in which the light burns forever; The only star that darkness can not dim, is woman's love for home and purity. And I say let her vote and thus use her power as well as her refining influence for the moral and political uplift of the great American peoples.

Personally I would ask for no greater honor than to be elected to office by the votes of the ladies of the dear old Southland.

Friday, August 4.

There has been on Klan victory in Texas. Unusual circumstances and not the Klan have placed Mayfield and the other Klan candidates in the lead. The Klan has won local success about Texas, but it is said they used good judgment in endorsing candidates who had the election won.

In the senatorial race Mayfield and Henry polled what is believed to be the total Klan vote. Culberson, Thomas and Ousley received little or no Klan votes. If Culberson could get into the run-off he would defeat Mayfield. With Mayfield and Ferguson facing each other many Democrats will stay away from the polls in disgust.

Of twenty persons who voted for Ousley and Thomas Saturday all but four said they were sorry they did not have their vote back so they could cast it for Culberson. If this is a fair indication of Culberson's strength in other communities he could defeat any candidate in the run-off.

With Mayfield and Ferguson in the final round the women probably will vote for Mayfield believing that of the two evils the Klan is less to be feared than Ferguson's lute wine and beer. Many other voters, however, would rather vote for anyone than a Klan candidate. In either event the deciding vote in the election, will be a vote that is against one or the other candidates—not a vote for either of them.—San Angelo Standard.

The Success says the good women will vote for Mayfield, for the same reason that the majority of the men will, because they know him to be in every way a clean man. Texas has never put a cleaner candidate in the field than Earl B. Mayfield. The Standard must have a cause for insinuating that Mr. Mayfield is a man not worthy of the support of the best citizens of the country, or a man full of evil. Mayfield has a spotless character, has the indorsement of the best in Texas, and the only candidate in the Senatorial race that did not cast aspersions at his opponents, he offered no abuse, ran upon the merits of his own life's work, he was not aided by the Catholic Church, nor the Jew nor the liquor traffic, just the common every day citizen, those 100 percent Americans. Clean! of course he clean, and the good women can vote for him without holding their noses.

We regret very much that the only Daily in our vicinity sees fit to insinuate in its editorial columns that Mayfield is our good women's choice, only because of two evils. If Mayfield is not worthy of their support, in the name of God, what candidate is.

Yes he is worthy of any support he might get, not only will the good women vote for him but the cream of the country will be found in his ranks. The Democrats will not stay away from the polls, they in company with the entire American party, Jews, Nighths, Columbs, will be on hand, the Democrats, a majority of whom will be trying to elect Mayfield the others trying to elect Ferguson.

The innuendos of the Standard should not go unchallenged by the qualified voters of this section of Texas, we are not in the class referred to by the Standard.

We have heard of the "battle of flowers" but the battle for ballots is on between James E. Ferguson and Earl B. Mayfield. Mr. Ferguson with his light wine and beer plank will catch lots of voters, but this plank will be like his former plank while running for Governor, if he is elected he will never be able to pass his ideas into law. He will also get the combined Catholic and Jew vote, this with his liquor plank will give him a strong following. But Texas has set about cleaning up and those who want a better and cleaner government will be found in the Mayfield column on August 26th, and he will be an easy winner.

We believe if Sheriff Luedecke wants to advertise for a wife, he should put out his cards at home first, and then Menard.

The visit here this week of Mr. J. F. Shingledecker to buy calves is further evidence that the Schleicher County cattle are among the best. Last year Mr. Shingledecker bought calves here and shipped them to Joy, Ill, and placed them on feed, they did so well that he has returned and is buying again.

Tom Green County is to start the road work near Christoval within two weeks, machinery and other road tools have been unloaded at San Angelo, Harris & Powell has the contract, the road will be finished to the Schleicher County line.

A COURTESY EXTENDED

Truth, one of the most popular Roman Catholic journals in America, is very charitable in its January issue, when it says: "In a sense we may, by way of courtesy, call them (Protestant) Christians, but in the true and rigid meaning of the word the Protestant sects are not Christians, but a travesty upon the name." Here is tolerance indeed! We suppose that "by way of courtesy" this same periodical might grant that a child born in wedlock solemnized by a Protestant minister is not a bastard while of course "in the true and rigid meaning of the word" the church of Rome has very clearly defined her position a his point. Thanks for the courtesy, but we do not need the kind in this county.—Bob Shuler's Magazine.

MUSIC WITH CHARMS

If you'll sing a song as you go along,
In the face of the real or fancied wrong;
In spite of the doubt, if you'll fight it out,
And show a heart that is brave and stout,
If you'll laugh at the jeers and refuse the tears,
You'll force the ever-reluctant cheers,
And you'll win success with a little song,
If you'll sing the song as you go along —Exchange.

After an absent of 12 years Rex Thompson Jr. of Beaumont dropped into our Sanctum Sanctorium last Thursday. Mr. Thomason owns considerable holdings here, but left in 1906, and had only been back one time that was a three day visit in 1910, he found more strangers than people he knew, he had a farm renter here for 6 years and never had met him, he just dropped by to see some of the old boys that he use to know, from an outing on Devil's River.

Water melons are plentiful now.

C. C. Estell Jr., assistant district attorney of Tarrant county, was transacting business in our city Tuesday, coming over from Brady Monday with E. E. Willoughby. Mr. Willoughby owns considerable ranch interest here.

Calomel Good but Treacherous

Next Dose may Salivate, Shock Liver or Attack Bones

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the child because it is perfectly harmless and does not salivate.

HIKING DOWN THE LONG BROWN PATH

Vacationists With Shelter Tents and Tin Cow Learning to Walk All Over Again.

Oh! It's not the pack that you carry on your back
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five inch crust of khaki-colored dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older;
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That drives away your smile,
Nor the socks of sisters that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last long mile.
—Pittsburgh Marching Song.

Stringing out from the suburban transit terminals of New York every Sunday and holiday goes the army of khaki-clad hikers. There may be an automobile for every twenty of the country's population, but a host of city folks disprove the theory of a future leg-eneebled citizenry and are learning to walk all over again.

To the more casual minded, the hike is just exercise, but to those who catch its real significance the hike means a great deal more. It is the cheapest form of recreation and therefore appeals to those living in crowded districts and unable to avail themselves of the more expensive amusements. And these people, be it noted, are just those the country is so anxious to have spread out and settled in the farming sections. The hike, indeed, has possibilities as a real starter for the "back to the farm" movement.

Doughboy and Boy Scout Lead Way

Just a brief survey of the rollicking groups which move off from the outlying terminals on holidays establishes a few general types. There is the ex-service man and his friends who will hear from him the story of more serious excursions on the muddy roads of France. He tightens a strap here and another there on the blanket roll adjustment or the "shelter half," in which the commissary is packed for the mid-day feast by the roadside. Expert directions come from him on the method of slinging the pack so it will not feel so heavy or interfere with the free body movement. He will pass along the information gained in his army days, of how that same pack was evolved after numerous experiments to find the easiest way of carrying the heaviest load. With results he now compliments, but which he characterized when a doughboy as a "blankety-blank total failure."

Then there are the boy scout parties, adept at everything pertaining to "shanks mare" traveling and woodcraft. The ex-service man and the boy scout are pioneers in the hiking game. Listen to one of them right off the train and making ready for a twelve mile jaunt: "Get that canteen over to the side, Jimmie, and it won't keep bouncing off your leg every step. Is it filled? Well, then, we drink. How about the eats? Let's check 'em off. You got the spuds, Bill; the bacon Jimmie. Who has the coffee and the Borden tin cow?"

"Right here," announces a freckled comrade of the road, patting his knap sack. "Snatched the mocha and the can of milk when Sis wasn't looking."

"Well, then, let's go!" snaps the commander of the expedition. This party is traveling light for real distance. Another must expect to make a shorter hitch or else be counting greatly on his power of endurance. Perhaps the camp is not far off because the group is equipped for an over-night stay with heavy blanket rolls, hatches, lanterns, canvas waterpails, rubber ponchos, kettles, pots, new fangled firestand, etc., etc. The blankets are laid out for a better packing of the bags and cans of food. When the party commences to load up the members bristle all over with camp tools and equipment.

Back to the Farm

The veteran from the crowded city tenement has found a new territory to roam and one almost unknown to his associates. He is introducing them to this newly discovered land and teaching them how to be independent of any transportation but their own good legs and of any subsistence but what they can carry and prepare. "Walk, and cook your own," is his motto.

Who will say the leaven thus fermenting in the city crowds will not bear fruit in a keener appreciation of country delights, especially as these are added to by increased comforts on the farm. With his radio hitched up, the farmer listens in on the best entertainment the country has to offer. Modern home devices wipe out many hardships formerly imposed upon isolated dwellers. There is, in short, a rapid cutting down of the differential between farm and city life.

In the meantime, knowledge must precede a true appreciation of what the country holds, and this is what the hike supplies. There is more appeal in one apple tree in blossom than

TOM HENDERSON SELLS CALVES AND LAMBS

Tom R. Henderson returned this week from Kansas where he has a lot of cattle on grass. He shipped 175 calves getting $8.75 per hundred for 160 pound calves, $7 for 275 pound heifer calves, and $6.35 per hundred for bull calves weighing 280 pounds.

Mr. Henderson also sold 1-400 mutton lambs to St. Clair Sheep Compy of St. Louis at $5.50 per head to be delivered in October.

Judge F. C. Bates, Sr., for many years a conspicuous figure here, but now resides with his son F. C. Bates, Jr. at Sheffield was in Eldorado Thursday on his to the Old Soldiers Encampment at Christoval.

Judge Bates has many warm friends in our city who were glad to shake his hand again. He will probably be the oldest Veteran at the Encampment.

Our friend A. E. Shepherd of Christoval sent us word to go on and vote for Mayfield, but that the people were going to elect a good man for senator this time and that would be James E. Ferguson.

Of course our friend knew just where to place us as we have no secret, and now the battle of Armegeidon is on and we are placed on the side of righteousness. If we fall in the battle of ballots it won't be the first wound. But we have always been able to come back.

Mrs. F. C. Bennett and children of Dallas are here this week visiting her sister Mrs. R. P. Hayard and brother Geo. M. Brown, she is accompanied by her brother-in-law Mr. Will Bennett from Alabama.

Mrs. J. E. Tisdale had us send The Success to Ren McCormick Ft. Bayard, N. M., and to Mrs. Vester Hughes, Mertzon.

H. M. McClatchey added $2.50 to the fund taken up for Mrs. Lee Right, this week.

Miss Maude Thomas, one of central girls, visited her home at Bronte the first of the week.

reams of printed matter put out to induce the citizen of the city to change his abode to the country. The hikers constitute a growing army equipped with bacon, spuds, coffee and tin cow for merely a day's outing; but nevertheless seeing sights that make them yearn to be among them all the time. It is not too much to assume that the army may one day recruit the open places.

Meat Market

I will keep meat every day from now on, so when in need of fresh meat call and get it, and say, don't forget to call, I kill meat to sell and not to keep, and by-the way if you think of it just pay the Cash. Thanks,

F. S. Miller, Proprietor.

TALKING ABOUT OUR SHERIFF.

Sheriff A. F. Luedcke of Schleicher county was here from Eldorado Friday on official business while we were off to the barbecue. Sheriff Luedcke is an old time friend of the editor. We used to gang together in and around Lockhart in the palmy days of that city when the owls hooted from the district court house and human life was worth only what some of your enemies were willing to pay to have you "bumped off." Throughout the days of bad men and heavy artillery, August always maintained the high standard of a gentleman, but sending greater advantages in the west he stuffed his earthly belongs into a flour sack, mounted "Old Pat" and turned his face toward the setting sun. He always had the "stuff" in him that men are made of and he has made good. He is a man whom anyone is honored to claim as a friend but next time he comes to Menard and gets away without getting his feet under our table and kissing our babies, business is going to pick up. August is not only a splendid sheriff but is an elegant old bachelor and some of our old maids might make a profitable catch on his next visit, by filing their claim with us. — Menard Messenger.

I have just received a new lot of White Flame Lamp Burners, none better.

S. W. Hollnad.

Edward W. Passaw of San Angelo, was in Eldorado this week tuning pianos. Mr. Passaw was at Christoval from 1901 to 1904, he was just from Chicago with a pocket full of money and the prey of the West. Ed is a good scout and has seen lots of the world, he married one of San Angelo's girls, he returned to Chicago and spent some 10 or 15 years, but had a longing for West Texas and with his family came to San Angelo again about 18 months ago. This is the first time we have seen him since 1903, but he is the same old Ed, full of talk and still enjoying life, has a nice home in San Angelo and gets "over the country in a "Tin Lizzie."

I have a lot of Bee Insect Powder good for gardens, hen houses and to kill flies. W. H. Parker

Fire alarm was sounded Friday afternoon, coming from the Geo Williams farm a quick response was made from town the fire started in the field near the barn but did not do any damage, it is not known just how it got started.

T. L. Benson, Sonora Commission man, was a business visitor in Eldorado Saturday.
