Mrs. A. L. Roden Dies At Age Of 42

Mrs. A. L. (Marjorie Lee) Roden, 42, died about 11:15 a.m. Thursday in the local hospital after a brief illness.

Services were held at 3:00 p.m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church with burial in Eldorado cemetery under direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

She was born Oct. 22, 1930 in Lost Spring, Kansas, and was married to A. L. Roden in Russell, Kan., Jan. 17, 1949. They moved to Eldorado in 1960.

Survivors include her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Dacy and Mrs. Rita Lloyd, both of Eldorado; two sons, Howard Roden with the U. S. Navy in Philadelphia and Bradley Roden with the U. S. Navy in Albany, Ga.; her mother, Mrs. Fern Lackey of Augusta, Kan.; two brothers, Ernest Webb of Midland and Howard Smith of Wichita, Kan.; a sister, Mrs. Edna Stevens of Augusta, Kan., and two grandchildren.

School News

This Friday, the members of the Junior class will be on campus of Angelo State University for career day.

The Eagle Band members will go to Brownwood Saturday for the concert and sight reading contests.

On Tuesday, March 27th, Eldorado will host the district one-act play contests. Four schools will participate: Robert Lee, Sonora, and Mason, in addition to Eldorado. Dr. Watts of the ASU speech department will be judge.

Library Board Meets

The Library Board met March 7 with 4 members present, and with Mrs. Jackson presiding.

Minutes were read and approved. A letter was read from I.R.S. that the Library was now a non-profit organization and we don't pay Social Security for the employees.

Miss Baker reminded members of the Board that the Friends of the Library dues are being accepted.

Three new Geographic indexes were received and also new Index for Readers Digest. 1st Index 1899-1946, second index 1947-56, and 3rd index 1956-69. —Rep.

The Library Board met in February with 7 members present. Mrs. Edwin M. Jackson Sr., chairman, presided.

A motion was made and carried to buy new books in the amount of $50 for adult books, $75 for Junior books and $30 for children's books. The committee will buy these books. The book committee is Miss Ruth Baker, Mrs. Edwin Jackson Sr., and Mrs. Buster Gunn. The shelving committee was instructed to get new shelving built as soon as a carpenter is available.

The Librarian's report for January was given: 4 new readers, 10 books mended, fines collected $5.64, 11 magazines and two records with total circulations 849, adult fiction 475, non fiction 109, Junior fiction 257, non fiction 8. —Rep.

Post Script

Success printers turned out the ballots last week for the school board, hospital board, and the city mayor and alderman elections.

Absentee voting in these is now officially under way, although it remains to be seen how much interest develops in these contests.

Persons who expect to be out of town on April 7th, election day, may go and vote absentee.

Early this week were busy times for the Lions Club.

On Monday night the annual Queen's contest and program was held in the school auditorium.

A large and appreciative crowd turned out to see Debbie Page crowned new queen, succeeding Jean Rountree. Entertainment for the evening included dancers from Von Barber's school of dance and a fashion show staged by Miss Dana Owens's home ec. girls.

Tuesday night, the Sweetheart Banquet was held in El Dorado Restaurant with a good crowd of Lions and their ladies turning out to hear Charles Stewart of KCTV.

Since I have been in our hospital for over a week, and since I am supposed to be a newspaper reporter, it would seem proper for me to jot down a few notes, such as who are my neighbors in the hospital wing, etc.

My roommate has been Sam McGinnes, who came back to the hospital Monday after spending two days at home with Elton and Mary McGinnes.

During Sam's absence R. T. Waggoner moved from the nursing wing and occupied Sam's bed for one day and night and then moved back to the nursing wing late Sunday. Mr. Waggoner is from Menard and his wife has arranged for temporary housing in Eldorado. They are parents of Damon Waggoner who is employed here with the Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op.

In a room nearby is Charlie Schreier who is in the hospital under heavy traction from a back injury received while working for Haley Transports. Mr. Schreier has been working for Haley for about 11 years. For two years of that time Haley had him at work in New Mexico. He has since moved back to Eldorado where he has his own home.

Mrs. Thomas Richard Jones checked into the hospital last week and was being treated for pneumonia. She is in Room No. 116 and her roommate is Mrs. Ford Oglesby.

In Room 117 we have Mrs. Walter Ramsay, and Mrs. Roy Andrews who is always in good spirits in spite of being bedfast.

Those mentioned above are but a few here in the hospital. Most of these are in wing close to my room where I can speak to them as I go by.

Others come and go all the time.

In closing I want to say I am proud of Eldorado's hospital, and have nothing but praise for the attention and service received before checking out Tuesday morning.

Lt. McGinnes Named Outstanding American

(Following is reprinted from the Electric Times, published by West Texas Utilities. Larry McGinnes graduated from Eldorado High and formerly worked at Hext Foods.)

Lt. Larry D. McGinnes, stationed in Germany and son of Sterling City Local Manager Albert McGinnes, was recently named the Outstanding American in Europe.

Local Manager McGinnes and his wife received a tape recording of a telecast made by American Forces Television in Europe. Lt. McGinnes was shown performing his various duties. The tape said, "Today's Outstanding American in Europe is Lt. Larry D. McGinnes. As NIKE Hercules Integrated Fire Control Officer, Lt. McGinnes is responsible for all operations of the Integrated Fire Control area to include missile system availability, radar control training, maintenance of all equipment and the management of all Integrated Fire Control area personnel. In addition to his responsibilities as a platoon leader, Lt. McGinnes also trains and instructs Battery Control Officers."

Having served two years of a three-year tour of duty in Germany, Lt. McGinnes will be reassigned in January, 1974. His wife, Julie, and two daughters, Wendy and Karen, were recent visitors in Sterling City and El Paso, where Julie's parents live. They returned to Germany January 31.

Herin J. Ramsey Buried Here Friday

Herin J. Ramsey, 69, of 116 N. Harrison St., San Angelo, died at 1:55 p.m. Tuesday at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dallas. Services were held Friday afternoon in Johnson's Funeral Home Chapel with burial in the Eldorado cemetery. The Rev. Kenneth Vaughan, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

He was born Nov. 17, 1903 in Christoval. He attended schools in Arlington. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ramsey, pioneer ranchers from the Christoval and Eldorado areas. He was associated with Humble Oil Co. about seven years prior to World War II. He served in the Navy in World War II. He had been a resident of San Angelo for 25 years.

Survivors include Seth A. Ramsey, a brother.

Pall bearers were Dr. Malone Hill of Alpine, James Nettleton of Del Rio; Leslie Baker, Palmer West, Pete Parker, and Truett Stanford, all of Eldorado; Ed DeLong of San Angelo and Eldred Roach of Harper.

Eagles Place 2nd In Relays Div. 2 Here

These scoring for the Eagles included:

3 Ken Peters, 43' 10 3/4"; 6 Ricky Bishop, 41' 2"; in Shot Put.

Long Jump: 6 Gene Nixon, 19' 2 1/4".

High Jump: 3 Hunter Henderson 5' 8"; 4 Gene Nixon, 5' 8".

Discus: 1 Mike Manning, 124' 9"; 5 Ron Rathbone, 101' 9 1/2"; & 6 Ben Minor, 100' 4 1/2'.

440 Yard relay: 2 Eldorado 45.7.

880 Yard Dash: 2 Timmy Farris, 2:12.0.

120 Yard High Hurdles: 3 Gene Nixon, 17.5; 4 Roger Green, 19.4.

100 Yard Dash: 3 Ken Peters, 10.7; 4 Mike Manning, 11.0.

440 Yard Dash: 2 Mike Ferguson, 55.3.

330 Int. Hurdles: 6 Ben Minor, 48.6.

Mile Run: 3 Jaime Minor, 5:12.3.

Mile Relay: 4 Eldorado, 3:54.1.

The coaches would like to once again express their sincere appreciation to all of those that took their own time to help make the Eagle and Plateau Relays tremendous successes.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grant of Lawton, Okla., are the proud parents of a son, Kenneth Floyd, born on March 7. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Grant of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Renfro of Odessa. The baby was born on the birthday of his great grandmother, Mrs. Ella Parrent.

Will G. Smith Dies At Sonora March 8th

Mr. Will Gee Smith, 85, died Thursday, March 8, 1973, in St. John's Hospital in San Angelo, after an illness. He was born February 14, 1888, in Mason.

Mr. Smith moved to Sonora about ten years ago after the death of his wife in Carlsbad, New Mexico. He had lived in Carlsbad 35 years.

He operated Will's Museum and the Nell E. Hollman Memorial Art Gallery.

He was preceded in death by his wife and two sons, both killed during World War II as United States servicemen.

Mr. Smith's services were held at West Funeral Home with burial in Carlsbad, New Mexico cemetery.

Survivors include his daughter, Grace Campbell of Carlsbad; two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Trainer and Mrs. H. L. Taylor and one brother, George E. (Bud) Smith. He is also survived by three grandchildren, Ronnie Smith, Joe Stanley Smith and Melinda Smith, all of Albuquerque, N. M. —Devil's River News, Sonora.

Eaglettes Win Meet

The Eldorado track girls won their own meet to stretch their win record in invitational meets to 6. The girls have not lost an invitational meet since the 1971 season. Eldorado compiled 115 points to outdistance McCamey who had 98. Other team totals included Lakeview with 77, Garden City 48, Menard 40, Rankin 38, Sanderson 20, Crane 18, Irion Co. 17, Junction 14, Mason 10, San Saba 8, Iraan 8, and Robert Lee 8.

On the way to the meet win the Eldorado Eagle relay teams set meet records in all three relays. Debbie Page, Carolyn Page, Wally Joiner, and Kathy Page ran the 440 yard relay in 51:5 to break the old record of 51:6 set by Garden City in 1972. A timing of 1:50.2 in the 880 yard relay prelims by Teresa Scott, Carolyn Page, Rosellen Maness, and Kathy Page erased the old mark of 1:51.1 set by Eldorado in 1972. The mile relay record is owned jointly with McCamey. The race ended in a dead heat with the winner being decided by a toss of the coin. Eldorado won the coin toss and trophy but the record time of 4:16.2 is shared by both schools. The relay team for Eldorado consisted of Debbie Page, Wally Joiner, Irene Garcia, and Rosellen Maness. The runners for McCamey were Barbara Killgore, Sarah Valentine, Linda Branham, and Leanne Waddell.

Leanne Waddell, McCamey, broke her own record of 65.2 in the 440 yard dash with the time of 63.3; Sarah Valentine, also of McCamey, set a new triple jump mark of 33' 5 1/2". The old record of 33' 3" was held by Lois Heuval of Robert Lee and was set in 1968. Martha Slaughter of Menard set a new hurdles mark with 11.6. The old record was held by Lisa McAnugus of Eldorado with a time of 11.9. Karen Loeffler of Mason ran a 2:34.0 in the 880 yard run to set a new record there and erase the old record of 2:38.9 set by Delma Montalvo of Sanderson in 1971.

Eaglettes To Run In Comanche This Week

The Eldorado girls travel to Comanche on Friday. The Eaglettes have won both of their track meets this year and would like to extend this record. A win this Friday would make it three wins for the year and seven consecutive wins at invitational meets.

Comanche is the defending champions in the 880 yard relay. The Eldorado girls have chocked a 1:50.2 this year and hope to give the Comanche relay girls some trouble.

Mrs. George (Lou Ella) Skornicki left Monday to return to her home at Bronx, N. Y., after visiting her mother Mrs. Ella Parrent.

Are you renting land... when you should be renting money?

There are many good reasons why it takes some land of your own to be sure of a future in agriculture. You're always welcome to drop by our office and talk over the advantages of taking out a long-term mortgage on farm or ranch property. Right now could be the best time for you to start using borrowed money to buy land... instead of using your own money to rent or lease.

Enamel Finish Care

College Station, Tex.—Spring cleaning? Use a gentle touch and non-abrasive cleaner on bathroom and kitchen fixtures to keep them looking like new.

This advice comes from Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University.

"Although porcelain and vitreous enamels are types of glass, they require special care to retain shine. Harsh scouring powders can damage these surfaces—and those of fiberglass reinforced plastic fixtures.

"In fact, some abrasive powders can damage these surfaces—and those of fiberglass reinforced plastic fixtures.

"In fact, some abrasive cleaners—if used relatively dry and rubbed hard—can remove a new surface's glossy finish in less than a year.

"Once gloss is damaged, it can't be restored—and the dull, ridged, low-gloss surface becomes increasingly harder to clean," Mrs. Myers continued.

"Consequently, abrasive cleaners become necessary to remove stains from these worn surfaces.

"To protect original surfaces, use detergent, non-abrasive cleaners or homemade products.

"Various liquid, paste, spray and aerosol non-abrasive products are available, but effective mild cleaners can be prepared inexpensively at home," the specialist added.

"To use a homemade cleaner, apply to fixture or sink and scrub with damp cloth or sponge. After scrubbing, rinse surface well and towel dry."

Mrs. Myers recommended use of homemade products and provided the following "recipes."

—Mix 4 parts whiting (available at paint and hardware stores) and 1 part soap jelly. Store in a covered container and use as needed.

To prepare soap jelly, shave enough bar soap to make one cup. Pour 1 quart boiling water over shavings and stir. Set aside until cool, then store in a covered jar; utilize as desired.

—Combine 1 cup whiting or baking soda with ½ cup pine oil. Store in a covered container and use as needed.

—Add 2 tablespoons ammonia or kerosene to 1 cup soap jelly. Store in a covered container and use as needed.

—Mix 9 parts whiting and 1 part heavy-duty laundry detergent.

No Immediate Drop In Meat Prices Seen

College Station, Tex.—Livestock feed costs have risen substantially so a drop in meat prices is not likely in the near future.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, made this prediction—adding that meat supplies don't equal the demand.

"Roasts are popular this time of year, so there's greater demand for forequarter beef cuts—and better values on hindquarter cuts.

"Scattered specials may be found on round steaks, sirloin and rib steaks, ground beef and liver.

"Pork continues in short supply with prices reflecting the shortage. Features are scattered.

"Look for a few specials on fresh pork loin cuts and liver, and on bacon, sausage and semiboneless smoked hams.

"Although all poultry products have increased in price during recent weeks, they remain relatively good buys," Mrs. Clyatt noted.

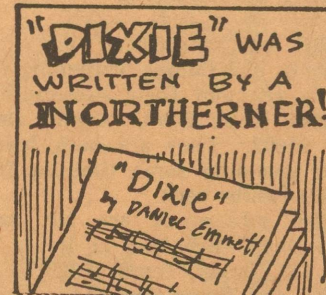

"Pound for pound, dairy products are excellent food choices. Cottage cheese is a good choice price-wise and calorie-wise."

Grocery produce sections are showing signs of spring—with a variety of fruits and vegetables being offered.

"Grapefruit, oranges, apples, bananas, pineapples, potatoes, carrots, turnips, cabbage, broccoli, and hard shell squash are in good supply at the most economical prices.

"Although fresh asparagus is available, price and quality vary," the specialist added.

Mrs. Thelma Childers had as recent visitors Mrs. Joe W. Phillips, Joe Paul, Mr. Joe Phillips, Jodale and David Patrick, Los Alamos; Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Willy and family, Cameron, Tex.; and Mr. and Mrs. David Childers of Carrollton.

If Desired, IRS Will Compute Your Tax

Dallas, Tex.—Many taxpayers again may have the Internal Revenue Service compute their income tax and retirement income credit, W. T. Coppinger, IRS District Director for North Texas, said today.

He said the IRS on request will compute the tax for persons with incomes of $20,000 or less, who take the standard deduction, and whose income is solely from salaries, wages, tips, dividends, interest, pension and annuities.

If the taxpayer also wants the IRS to compute his retirement income credit, he should include the basic information on Schedule R and attach it to his Form 1040, Mr. Coppinger said. He should also enter "RIC" on line 19, Form 1040. Instructions on Schedule R explain which items need to be provided.

For those persons who qualify, the IRS will compute the tax, whether the return is a Short Form 1040A or the regular 1040. The tax instructions explain what information should be entered on the return, Mr. Coppinger said.

After this information is entered on the return, the taxpayer should sign it and send it to the IRS Center in Austin, Texas.

He said the IRS will then compute the tax and send the taxpayer either a refund or a bill for the tax due, whichever is the case.

CAR CARE TIPS FROM THE PROS

Safety Checklist For Spring

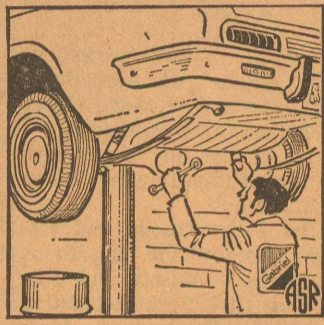

Just as the family home usually receives a thorough Spring going-over, likewise say auto experts, the family car should not be overlooked. Cars often need a "Spring tonic"—just like people.

Winter driving and temperature extremes can take their tolls on your car's performance. Statistics indicate more than 5 million cars will be scrapped this year, many ahead of schedule from a lack of proper maintenance. The car experts at Gabriel, makers of Striders, Hi-Jackers and Red Ryder shock absorbers, recommend the following 5 point Spring safety checklist for motorists:

1. Have your exhaust system thoroughly checked for leaks—carbon monoxide is a hazard year-round. And, a leaking exhaust system can emit some unpleasant sounds.

2. Inspect your tires and front-end alignment. If your car swerves on the highway it may need work.

3. Have your service station give you a free shock test. Shock absorbers are vital to safe handling and control. In addition, good shocks can save wear and tear on tires, ball joints, and other suspension parts.

4. A good engine tune-up will pay for itself in gasoline savings and tuned engines run cleaner.

5. Proper lubrication of both chassis and engine is the least expensive car life insurance you can buy.

Experts point out that now is a good time to start thinking about getting your car in top mechanical shape again. You'll be rewarded with more economical and safer performance during the long mileage months ahead.

Century Old Gardens Of Rosedown Are In Bloom Again

Azaleas and camellia trees more than a hundred years old, thrusting masses of magenta, soft lavender, scarlet and pink high into the air . . . delicate, fragrant, pristine-white gardenias on hundreds of enormous shrubs . . . a thousand hydrangeas stretching like blue polka dots along an oak avenue . . . sweet olive trees high as a house . . . exquisite, fragrant old-fashioned roses, swaying in soft breezes are some of the horticultural vistas in the gardens of Rosedown in St. Francisville, La., which inspired the late Mrs. Milton Underwood of Houston, Texas, to purchase this magnificent plantation empire in 1956 and restore it to its mid-nineteenth century grandeur.

The Rosedown restoration, which will preserve the beauty of the South's golden years forever, not only saves for America one of its most unique and authentic heritage houses, but one of its oldest and most beautiful gardens as well. The gardens of Rosedown, which are characterized by Old World atmosphere, were inspired more than a hundred years ago by Versailles Gardens. The regenerated showplace is attracting thousands to the Louisiana River Road (the Natchez-Baton Rouge-New Orleans route).

Rosedown was built in 1835 by a wealthy planter, Daniel Turnbull, for his wife Martha. While he devoted his great wealth to creating a house of impeccable beauty, she invested her talent in creating magnificent 17th century French landscape style gardens. By the mid-1800's, the gardens of Rosedown had become one of the century's most distinguished horticultural collections, the showplace of the Mississippi.

The young couple, who had the means and the taste to fill their house and gardens with the finest treasures of the world, shopped the sophisticated capitals of Europe for furnishings, silver and crystal. The gardens of Versailles, with its artistic marble statuary, inspired them to give their own gardens an Old World atmosphere. The Carrara statues which they selected in Italy for their grounds arrived at Bayou Sara, a busy riverport just one mile from Rosedown, in 1852.

Within days, marble forms representing the gods and goddesses of mythology, the four seasons and the continents of the world stood on brick pedestals between the great live oaks of the Rosedown avenue, and along the avenue court.

A remarkable experimental horticulturist, Martha Turnbull devoted more than 60 years to her beloved gardens. Her diary, in which she kept meticulous garden notes, indicates that she tried every new plant she could find on the market. While the American Horticulture Society credits another Southern garden with the introduction of azaleas into American gardens in 1872, old invoices at Rosedown show that Martha Turnbull imported azaleas for her gardens from the Orient in 1836!

Martha Turnbull's tastes favored the exotic. In her gardens she planted specimens of cryptomeria, a specie of redwood grown in abundance in Asia, particularly Japan. She had read that the avenue leading to the Emperor's Palace in Tokyo is lined with giant cryptomeria.

Between 1830 and the Civil War, camellias imported from England and hot houses of the north, became popular in Southern gardens because they thrived outdoors and provided color in winter months. It was natural that the gardens of Rosedown were one of the first Louisiana gardens to show japonicas extensively. Today, the camellias planted at Rosedown more than a century ago are camellia forests, and are believed to be among the oldest and largest such trees still extant in America.

Keister Church Series Recipient of 16th Award

Valley Forge, Pa.—It has just been announced that the Keister Advertising Service, Inc., Strasburg Virginia, has been the recipient of a 16th award from the Freedoms Foundation, of which President Richard M. Nixon is Honorary Chairman. This is the fifth "Distinguished Service Award" bestowed upon the Keister Series which appears in your newspaper and in over 1000 other publications over the United States and Canada.

The Keister Advertising Series is nationally regarded as first in the field of modern church advertising. Its success is due to its great appeal to the unchurched through human-interest illustrations and texts which encourage church membership and attendance. It has been produced for America's newspapers for over one-quarter century.

The Freedoms Foundation honors those people and organizations that further the American way of life.

Rosedown, like other plantations of the South was stranded in a world of poverty. Surviving family members, proud of their heritage, managed to maintain their estate until 1956, when the last heir died. In spite of the inevitable neglect during the long, lonesome years in between, the original beauty of the gardens of Rosedown remained intact, concealed by a curtain of vines and jungle-like growth.

Catherine Pondren Underwood discovered Rosedown in the spring of 1956 when she took the River Oaks Garden Club of Houston, Texas, to Natchez for the annual Pilgrimage. While she was in Natchez, friends told her that Rosedown was for sale and that she might enjoy seeing the gardens.

On her first visit she was unprepared for the size and beauty of the azaleas and camellias, which were in full bloom. Around her she saw great walls of color. On every side were rare horticultural specimens—century old sweet olive, deutzias, "hip" gardenia shrub, crape myrtle and mock oranges, many of them almost a century and a half old.

Towering overhead were the prodigal trees—magnolia grandiflora and great live oaks, festooned with draperies of moss. Leading to Rosedown House a vaulted archway, cathedral-like in its dignity and Gothic height, enclosed within the cloistered gardens a silence, a strong sense of slow pause.

The Underwoods made the decision which gave America one of its most beautiful restored homes, and saved for all time the magnificent Old World gardens of Rosedown.

The diary of Martha Turnbull was invaluable in laying out the original paths, and in restoring flower gardens that were beautiful a century ago. Still on their old sites are the three summerhouses, the old garden house with its hand-made tools, and the original hot house. One wall of the old conservatory remains, which the landscape architect cleverly used as a backdrop for a formal parterre. As always, the century-old Italian made Carrara statues stand guard in the oak avenue, creating an Old World atmosphere.

A color film on the Rosedown restoration is available for clubs. For information on Rosedown and its century-old gardens, write Rosedown, Drawer M, St. Francisville, Louisiana 70775.

In Those Days

ONE YEAR AGO
March 23, 1972—Funeral services were held for Buster Gunn, 62. Benton Abstract & Title Co. was moving to new quarters, with Mrs. Elizabeth Ballew as manager. Len Mertz, Junior in Eldorado high, was to attend Boys State in Austin in June.

FIVE YEARS AGO
March 21, 1968—The Lions Club queen contest was coming up, and L. D. Mund, Jack Bell, and Ray Morgan were committee on arrangements. Delbert and Imogene Edmiston announced that their Eagle drive-in theater on the Menard highway would remain closed permanently, and they started disposing of the equipment. Mrs. Henry (Marinda Lucretia) Mund died in the nursing home in Christoval at age 91½. Her funeral was held here, with interment in the Bailey Ranch cemetery. Phillip Parker was reported back in Eldorado in the Lester Henderson house. Famed commentator, Paul Harvey, was to speak in the San Angelo Coliseum. The new Mobley Enco service station opened, and door prize winners were Ralph Waldron, Ed Meador, and Mrs. L. M. Hoover. Joe Charles Christian was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Air Force at Lackland base, San Antonio, and was going to new assignment at Chanute base, Illinois. The FFA judging team of Clifford Schooley, Ross Whitten, Jimmy McGinnes and Hyman Sauer won some contests at a meet in San Angelo. They were coached by Glynn Hill, voc. ag. instructor.

12 YEARS AGO
March 23, 1961—The Plateau Relays were coming up, and the Eagles' mile relay team consisted of Ray Lewis Ballew, Jim Runge, Jerry Don Johnson, and Walter Powell. The Sprint relay team consisted of Kenneth Hicks, H. A. Belk, Donnie Holden, and Jim Runge. Mikel Jurecek was to participate in the field events, including shot put. Joe Ed Spencer was on the honor roll at Sul Ross, Alpine. He was a senior at that school. Ronnie Mittel visited here from Gonzales. Albert P. Bailey died at the age of 78, and was buried here. The refrigerated air conditioning system was put into use at the Court House. The Ralph Preston family were moving to Fort Stockton, where he was transferred by Northern Nat. Gas Co. Mrs. L. S. Vasbinder of Del Rio presided at the 6th District P-TA Conference held here. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Page returned from a two-weeks trip to Hawaii.

65 YEARS AGO
March 27, 1908—"Lodge Hall Will Be Built in 30 Days." The hall for the two orders, Knights of Pythias and Woodmen of the World, will be built just as soon as the committees can get the lumber on the ground and secure contractors. John Roach was in from the Roach Bros. ranch shaking hands with his many friends. John is one of Schleicher's jolly Irish lads and always full of fun. R. W. Murchison, an old Bexar county boy who went to the Concho country in the early '80's, was in San Antonio to attend the Cattlemen's Convention. Uncle Bob was reported living in San Angelo, and owner of a 12-section ranch in Schleicher county which was purchased from the state at $1 per acre, and now worth from $5 to $10 per acre. The ranch was reported well stocked and in charge of his son, Frank Murchison, and son-in-law, W. B. Silliman. In San Angelo, Southwestern Salvage Company was liquidating the $45,000 stock of Winkler & Hudson Company, a dry goods firm that was going out of business. A son was born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Charley E. Morris. B. N. Weatherby and son Sim passed through town Monday with a sheep shearing machine going toward San Angelo. The Commoner, a paper edited by William Jennings Bryan, is offered to you, from now until after the election for 60c, by renewing or subscribing to The Success. I. H. Elder & Son advertised, "Paint Your Buggy For 75c to $1.00, with Devos's Gloss Carriage Paint." Silliman, Campbell and Evans sold this week for R. A. and W. P. Evans, 148 head of three-year-old steers; purchaser was Lee Martin.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of Marjorie Roden would like to express sincere appreciation to all of the wonderful people who sent food, flowers, cards, etc. to our home during the loss of my wife and our mother. A very special thanks to the women of the First Baptist Church who in spite of the Revival activities gave freely of their time and energy to provide extra food for us. Marjorie had many friends, and it is such a nice feeling to know that your thoughtfulness and prayers will be with my family and me during this sorrowful period in our lives.
Sincerely,
A. L. Roden and family *

Miss Thornton Wins Dist. 4-H Food Show

Saturday, March 17 in San Saba, Texas, 109 4-H members gathered for the 1973 4-H District Food Show. Susan Thornton, champion of the Sr. Division at the Schleicher County 4-H Food Show, won top honors in her division. Susan entered a Christmas Fruit Salad in the Fruits & Vegetables division and was high point scorer. The senior contestants took a written evaluation of Nutrition Know How preceding the actual judging, were asked questions by the judges about their knowledge of nutrition and preparation techniques, and then the food displayed was tasted and evaluated by judges. Scores from these three events were averaged to obtain the final scores. Susan received a blue ribbon and a silver-plated Paul Revere bowl engraved with 1973 District 4-H Food Show, Con-Agra, Inc. Susan will now compete in the State Food Show to be held during State 4-H Round-Up at Texas A&M, June 4-6. She will be competing for a $500 scholarship in her division.

Other winners from Eldorado were Kara Homer with a blue ribbon for her Marshmallow Brownies in Jr. Breads and Desserts, Cherie Niblett with a red ribbon for Cranberry Whipped Cream Salad in Jr. Fruits & Vegetables and Susan Trimble won a red ribbon for her Tea Ring in Sr. Breads and Desserts. Others attending the contest were Mrs. Kenith Homer, Kara's grandmother Mrs. George Mikeska, Mrs. Raymond Trimble and Patricia Trimble, Mrs. Jim Thornton, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lube. Following is Susan Thornton's prize-winning recipe for Christmas Fruit Salad...

Christmas Fruit Salad
Cook until thick:
2 eggs
4 tablespoons vinegar
4 tablespoons sugar.
Add to this mixture:
2 tablespoons butter
½ envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup water
2 cups pineapple, crushed
2 oranges, cut in bite sized pieces
1 dozen red cherries
1 small package of miniature marshmallows
½ pint whipping cream.
Chill in serving bowl. Garnish top with cherries, if desired.

Two Local Students Honored At Tech

University of Texas Tech students with outstanding records in academics and leadership and other achievements were recognized Sunday, March 11, in ceremonies in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium. Greg Wimmer, president of the student association delivered the principal address at the 27th annual All-University Recognition Convocation. To be eligible for academic recognition, a student must have been in the upper 3% of his class with in his college during the spring or fall of 1972 and have made a 3.25 grade average or better during the other semester. Two students from Eldorado were eligible for this honor. They were Linda F. Derrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Derrick, and Thomas Keith Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Williams.

Eldorado Girl Scouts Host District Event

On Saturday, March 10th, about 200 girls and 30 adults gathered at the Memorial Building for a District event. Troop no. 25 from Eldorado started the day with the flag ceremony. Next, some time was spent just getting to know each other with a get acquainted game. The rest of the morning was spent learning songs and troop competitive singing. The girls brought their lunches and spent more time getting to know each other. After lunch, three workshops were offered. The girls were divided into groups and attended either singing, games, or folk dancing. The end of the day came with the retiring of the flag by Troop 225 of Eldorado. The Girl Scout troops and leaders came from Ozona, Big Lake, Sonora, Menard, Mason and San Angelo. Our Girl Scout executive director, Diana Underwood, from San Angelo and our field advisor, Clair Powers from Sonora, were also here. Everyone seemed to agree that it was a worthwhile day and that we should do it again soon. —Rep.

County Extension Agent's Column

By DIANE LUBE
Fear Of The Dark
Darkness often frightens preschoolers—especially those around the age of four. Actions associated with this fear include a child's reluctance to enter a room alone and to go upstairs or downstairs by himself. However, parents shouldn't be too concerned about such fears—they usually disappear in time if the family doesn't make a major issue of them. There are several things parents can do—and not do—to help a child during this "stage." For example, don't tease the child—nor allow older children to. In addition, don't force him to do what frightens him. Although it might seem like a good idea, often it only terrifies the child even more. If he's afraid to go to sleep in the dark, there are several remedies besides simply leaving his light on all night. For example, just leave the light burning until he's asleep—using the bulb's low beam if possible. Nightlights, on the other hand, can be left on all night. So, if the child wakes in the night, he won't be frightened by the dark. Nightlights generally are inexpensive and use little electricity. Or, dimly illuminate the child's room by leaving a light burning in the hall or bathroom. Still another possibility is giving the child a battery-operated flashlight of his very own. Place it beside his bed—chances are he won't feel as frightened knowing he has a light to turn on any time he wishes.

Nutritional Problems Of The Elderly

Older adults require balanced diets throughout life. Although a person's body, activities and caloric needs may change with aging, nutrition continues to affect every cell in the body. Unfortunately, however, nutritional problems often accompany aging. Because of dulled taste buds, older persons tend to neglect foods which provide certain nutrients essential for energy and good health. Certain foods often are avoided because of outmoded or unfounded ideas about their effects on the body. For example, some people falsely believe citrus fruits are too acid and cheese is hard to digest. Additional factors influence dietary intake—and thus problems—of older persons. For instance, lack of teeth, poorly made dentures, and illness affect how and what they eat. Also, a person's cultural heritage, religious convictions and emotional stability can govern eating habits. Food patterns and ideas carried since childhood likewise are factors.

From Out Of Town At Roden Funeral

Out of town relatives: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Webb and family of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Winters and Mrs. Frankie Moore of Wichita, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rumsey of Eldorado, Kan.; Mrs. Fern Lackey, Mrs. Edna Stevens, and Mr. Jim Stevens of Augusta, Kan.; Mrs. L. O. Roden of Knoxville, Ark.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Porter and family of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Yates, Janice and Diane Swanson of Denver, Col. Out of town friends: Mr. and Mrs. Dee Williams Jr. and Lori of Welch; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rushing and Trudy Allen of Bastrop, La.; Mrs. Glynnia Holley of Midland and Danny Swails, Mrs. Laura Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gentry of Paint Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lloyd of Batesville, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Martin of Fort Stockton, Sally, Nedie and Vickie Rowe of Odessa, Bob Rowe of Odessa, Eddie Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Turner, Mrs. H. Tax Bill Seen

Legislators will be forced to write a new tax bill due to demands of higher education and welfare, the chairman of an interim House Revenue and Tax Committee maintain. If the regular session managers to get by with no tax bill, lawmakers will be called into special session to pass one, predicted Rep. Don Cavness of Austin. Rep. Joe Wyatt of Bloomington, co-chairman of the Committee, shared the gloomy forecast, adding that federal welfare guidelines will cost the state an extra $100 million a year. Cavness also cited the estimated $28 million a year cost of an adult education bill and a $13 million-cost measure to insure teachers a duty-free lunch hour, plus the multi-million dollar bilingual education bill.

tors. Loneliness, anxiety and other emotions can influence food choices. Lack of nutrition information and understanding adds to the problem. Due to ignorance, older persons don't make wise selections among low-cost foods. As a result, some nutrients in the diet may be consistently low. In many cases, elderly persons buy and consume specialty foods and assorted supplements to compensate for lack of appetite or to overcome dietary deficiencies—whether deficiencies actually exist or not.

Static Electricity

Invisible and unheard, static electricity can cause rapid soiling of rugs and carpets. It "pulls" lint, dust and soot from the air and onto these floor coverings. Other maladies associated with static electricity include clinging garments, "sparking" blankets and annoying shocks. Static electricity is simply electricity that's standing still. As two dissimilar materials rub together (such as shoe leather and carpeting), electrical charges form and accumulate. When enough charges build up, sparks travel through air to a second object. Some sparks are visible while others are just strong enough to produce clinging.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

Austin, Tex.—Early senate approval was forecast by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby for HB 3 to strengthen the open meetings law. The bill was cleared by a criminal matters sub-committee of the Jurisprudence Committee last week. The shield bill (HB 10) to protect newsmen from forced disclosure of information sources was due consideration in the criminal matters sub-committee this week. It will be expanded to include definitions contained in a U. S. Senate bill and probably amended to provide for a State Supreme Court mandamus proceeding to compel disclosure of information sources under certain cases, according to Senate sponsor, Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena. Hearing was delayed until April 10 on HB 6 to broaden accessibility of information on government records pending a Legislative Budget Board estimate on the cost of the act to the state.

Young Homemakers Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. Kay Patton was hostess to the Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club on March 15th. Mrs. Karen Homer, president, presided at the meeting entitled, "Attitudes on Food and Health." Her thought for the day was: "Eat Few Suppers and You'll Need Few Medicines."

Mrs. Diane Lube, County Extension Agent, showed members and guests different health foods, how to use them, and the importance of Vitamin E content.

Members were informed of the Spring THDA Meeting to be held on April 19 at the new Llano High School Auditorium on Highway 71 E., Llano, Texas. Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. with the meeting beginning at 10:00 a.m. The Llano County Home Demonstration Council will prepare the meal and tickets will be $2.50 per plate. Delegates attending from this area are: Mary Dunagan, Rozanna Sauer, Claryce Williams, Diana Lube, Virginia Bruton, Dixie Belk and Geneva Wade. Any others wishing to attend should contact Diane at 853-2894 before April 6.

Members present were: Sandy Caudle, Charlene Gunstead, Kay Patton, Pat Gentry, Janet Powell, Claryce Williams, Rozanna Sauer, Mary Leigh Dunagan, Karen Homer and Diane Lube. Guests attending were Lola Squyres and Sherry Lux. Refreshments served were cinnamon raisin bars, coffee and tea.

The next meeting will be on April 12th at Mrs. Karen Homer's residence. —Rep.

Eldorado-Divide District News

Minimum Tillage-Conservation

Reduced air pollution, lower farming costs—these are two goals of a new farming technique being used by Texas conservation farmers.

Called minimum tillage, the system limits cultural operation to only those essential to crop production.

Bill Rountree, district conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service at Eldorado, said with minimum tillage farming, crops are planted directly into a mulch left undisturbed from the previous crop. Competition is controlled with herbicides.

"This system leaves a year-long cover on the soil surface," Bill pointed out. "Cover from dead stalks and leaves is one of the best known methods of reducing wind and water erosion."

He said farmers in certain areas using the system report eliminating three to ten tractor trips across a field per crop. This not only saves time but it also reduces production costs. Some of these savings are known to be offset by herbicide costs.

Records in areas where minimum tillage has been used reveals that cotton yields generally have increased, especially on the sandier soils, Bill said. Grain sorghum yields have been about the same or slightly less with minimum tillage.

Bill also listed other major advantages of minimum tillage as follows: (1) Better seedling survival. Surface residues protect young seedlings from wind damage or from being covered by soil dislodged during heavy rains. (2) Conserves moisture. The protective mulch of crop residues keeps the soil cooler in the summer and warmer in the winter; this effectively reduces evaporation. (3) Increases food and cover for wildlife. Stalks, leaves, and scattered seed left on the soil surface greatly benefit dove, quail, deer, turkey, songbirds, and other wildlife.

To begin a minimum tillage farming system, Bill said farmers should either start with a high residue producing crop, such as grain sorghum, or plant the first crop into a thick mulch of crop residues. He mentioned that minimum tillage systems can fail if a crop such as cotton is planted on land without sufficient cover to protect the young seedlings.

Most farmers adapt equipment on hand for minimum tillage farming. Flex planters, coulters, and packer wheels are usually mounted on double or triple tool for hook-ups for planting in surface mulches.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the Eldorado-Divide Soil and Water Conservation District, can help farmers plan minimum tillage farming systems.

Rountree said that the SCS has a booklet available which explains minimum tillage in detail. To get a free copy, contact the SCS office located in the County Courthouse, or write the Soil Conservation Service, P. O. Box 1459, Eldorado, Texas 76936.

MISS McCLENDON BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. MEADOR IN DALLAS CHURCH RITE

Mrs. John Dale "Rusty" Meador

Miss Sharon Ann "Sam" McCleendon and John Dale "Rusty" Meador were married Saturday afternoon, March 17, in North Park Presbyterian Church, Dallas, Texas, with the Rev. David L. Zacharias officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira N. McCleendon of Dallas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meador of Eldorado.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Mr. and Mrs. James Farabee, organist and soloist respectively.

Maid of honor for the ceremony was Miss Sue Wilson of Dallas. Miss Claudia Meador of Eldorado and Miss Michael Feehan of Houston were bridesmaids. Miss Susan McCleendon of Dallas, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Lynn Meador of Eldorado, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were David R. Clark of Dallas and Mickey Pennington of San Antonio. Ushers were Steve McCleendon of Austin, brother of the bride, and Sanley Crossman, Dick Abney, and Mack Diltz of Dallas. Brian McCleendon, brother of the bride, and Perry Haynes of Plano were candle lighters.

The bride wore a formal gown of ivory silk organza. Val lace and tucking defined the bodice with a scooped sheer yoke topped by a notched collar and full bishop sleeves. The dress had a chapel length train attached. She wore a hat of alencon lace with a fingertip illusion veil.

The La Ronda Room of the Cowboy Club in Expressway Tower was the setting for the reception. Serving in the houseparty were Mrs. Lynn Meador of Eldorado, Mrs. Mack Diltz, Mrs. David R.

Clark, and Mrs. Bob Bowman of Dallas.

Mrs. Meador is a graduate of Lon Morris Junior College and Southern Methodist University where she was a member of Angel Flight, Road's Theatre, Pi Delta Phi, Phi Theta Kappa and member of the Student's Activity Directorate. She is presently employed as a Fashion coordinator for Sanger Harris Department stores in Dallas.

The groom is a graduate of Southern Methodist University where he was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha, Road's Theatre, and the Mustang Band. He is employed as assistant director of advertising and publicity for Redman Industries in Dallas.

Those attending from this area included Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Teele, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Jo Ed Hill, Dr. and Mrs. Jim Brime and family, Mrs. Mary Davis Coupe, Mrs. Evelyn Wimer, all of Eldorado; Miss Barbara Amstead of San Antonio, Mrs. L. B. Wade of Georgetown.

After a wedding trip to San Antonio, Tex., the couple will reside at 5248 Merriman in Dallas, Tex.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meador, was held Friday evening, March 16, at Sammy's Restaurant on Central Expressway in Dallas.

A reception honoring Sharon Ann McCleendon and Rusty Meador was given March 10th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meador here. Greeting the guests with the honorees were Mr. and Mrs. Meador and Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dudley.

Those serving in the houseparty were Mrs. Phil Olson, Patti Olson, Mrs. Lynn Meador, and Mrs. Mike Moore.

Reynolds H. D. Meets

The regular meeting of the Reynolds H. D. Club was held on March 13th in the home of Mrs. Jack Wade. Our president, vice president and sec. were absent. Each member present gave 50c for the T. H. D. A. scholarship. Mrs. Virginia Bruton was elected to represent our club at the district meeting in Llano.

In this day and time when we hear and read so much about health foods and natural foods we were glad to have Mrs. Lube give a program along that line. She had several items from the Health Food store to show us. She also served some very delicious cookies made from health foods. The health foods do not have the added preservatives that most of the foods we buy contain.

Members present were Mmes. Jack Wade, L. E. Lloyd, Ray Bruton, Ello Wilde, Henry Moore, H. A. Belk, Milton Faught, V. W. Lux, Cecil Williams; two visitors, Miss Connie Spence and Mrs. Bethel Jeffrey and our agent, Mrs. Lube.

Our hostess, Mrs. Wade, served pecan pie, tea and coffee for refreshments.

The next meeting will be held April 10th in the home of Mrs. Ello Wilde. The demonstration will be on foreign foods. We would like for all our members to be present.

After club dismissed we had quite a discussion on the value of the house plant, Aloe Vera. I was surprised to learn of its many uses. Mrs. Wade had a number of young plants, which she generously divided among the club members. —Rep.

Couple Married Saturday

MRS. ROY MACK HAWKINS

After a wedding trip to Lawton, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mack Hawkins will be at home at 826 East Garden Street in Uvalde, Texas.

The couple were married Saturday in the ranch home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Ratliff of Llano.

The bride is the former Miss Deborah Jean Light, daughter of Mrs. Lynn Ratliff and the late Mr. Lawrence Light. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mabel Hawkins of Eldorado, and John Hawkins of Eldorado.

The double ring, candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Roger Archer, pastor of Pittsburg Ave. Baptist Church, Llano, in front of candelabra flanked by arrangements of white gladioli. Music for the ceremony was provided by Mrs. Billy Morgan, organist, and Lee Simpson, Oscar James, Dalmon Simpson, and Wilford Simpson, string instruments.

Mrs. Judy Watkins of Copperas Cove attended the bride as matron of honor.

J. W. Hawkins of Eldorado served his brother as best man.

Ushers were Joe Ratliff, Jesse Ratliff, and Tom Ratliff of Llano, cousins of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, Lynn Ratliff, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over satin, trimmed with lace daisy appliques, fashioned with empire waist, long puffed sleeves, and chapel length train.

The bride's bouquet was of white carnations with white satin streamers, and carried on a white Bible.

The tiered wedding cake was made by the bride's mother.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

A barbecue and dance were held afterward at the ranch home. An old time string band consisting of Mrs. Polly Morgan, Lee Simpson, Oscar James, Delmon Simpson, Wilford Simpson and Joe Scott furnished the music.

Mrs. Hawkins is a graduate of Llano High School and attended Southwest Texas Junior College in Uvalde. Her husband graduated from Eldorado High School and Southwest Texas Junior College in Uvalde. He is employed at Chapman Chevrolet in Uvalde.

Guests were from Runge, Glen Rose, Uvalde, San Angelo, Bron-

N. Y., Eldorado, Copperas Cove, Austin, San Antonio, Baytown, Hebbronville, Goldthwaite, Kingsland, and Llano.

The rehearsal and sandwich supper were held Friday night at the home of the bride's parents.

Woman's Club To Hear Book Review Tuesday

Mrs. T. P. Robinson Jr. will review the book, "All Those in Favor Say Something" by Runa Erwin Ware at the Memorial Building on March 27, at 2:30 p.m. for the Woman's Club and guests.

The Social Committee will be in charge, and guests are welcome. Anyone desiring to hear the review may contact Mrs. Jess Blaylock, Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves or Mrs. R. D. Johnson, or any club member by Wednesday, March 21.

The February meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Oliver Teele on February 27. The program was on Americanism. Mrs. Lewis Stockton was the main speaker and she talked on the meaning of Americanism.

During the business session presided over by Mrs. Edwin Jackson Sr., club president the members voted to co-operate with other Federated Clubs throughout the state in planting trees on a spot near Austin, in memory of the late President Lyndon B. Johnson, and to plant a tree in the local park in his memory.

Mrs. Arch Mittel and Mrs. S. D. Harper assisted Mrs. Teele as hostesses. —Rep.

The following events, selected by the Texas Tourist Development Agency, Box 12008, Austin 78711, are but a few of the many excellent recreational opportunities offered by communities across the state. A more complete listing of Texas events may be obtained free of charge from the Texas Highway Department, Travel and Information Division, Box 5064, Austin 78703.

March 1-4 The 36th Annual Charro Days Fiesta, Brownsville. This pre-Lenten costume festival features fun and frolic. A full schedule includes continuous street entertainment, food, art exhibits, street dancing, rides, children's parade, night parade, three balls, a Grand International Parade and golf tourney. Added this year in the self proclaimed "Tamale Capital of the World & Texas" is a tamale cookoff running all four days. For full details write Charro Days Fiesta, Box 1904TT, Brownsville, Tex. 78520.

March 4-April 14 Holiday Trails, Mineola. Not an event, but a time of year when this scenic area bursts forth with blossoms of the dogwood, the redbud, crimson clover, bluebonnets and Indian paintbrushes. Trails wind through verdant walls of hardwood and evergreen trees interspersed with pastures and gently flowing streams. For a folder on the trails, write Mineola Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 68, Mineola, Tex. 75773.

March 16-17 St. Patrick's Celebration, Shamrock. It's here, on the eastern edge of the Texas panhandle that thousands go to kiss a slab of the world-famous Blarney Stone imported from Cork County, Ireland. A kick-off banquet the evening of the 16th and a full day of activities the 17th mark the event. On the schedule are an all-day carnival, colleens vying for the title of "Miss Irish Rose," parade, old fiddlers contest, stage show, and two dances.

March 24-25 Texas Rattlesnake Sacking Championship, Brownwood. This event, which started as a joking statement in 1968, has drawn national attention. Held in the Brownwood Coliseum, the contest is to catch ten rattlesnakes in a pitted area and place them in a burlap bag. One person catches and the other holds the bag. There are novice and professional divisions and entries are coming from as far away as Pennsylvania. Also in progress at this time is a wildcat show of antique, coin and gun dealers.

March 24-25 First Gulf Coast International Folk Festival, Galveston. Dedicated to bringing together the many cultures which have contributed to the development of the Gulf Coast area, this event will feature ethnic foods, arts, songs, dances and costumes. Located in Moody Civic Center, the festival will feature continuous stage entertainment. Admission $1.

America is a land of bells!
Wedding bells, door bells, dinner bells, school bells, sleigh bells . . . all speak of a country where freedom from tyranny exists.

Chimes also keynote freedom of speech as commentators broadcast the news. Typewriter bells ring out freedom of the press. And church bells, whether they be the musical chimes from a cathedral's spire, or the ding dong from the steeple of a village chapel, typify freedom of religion.

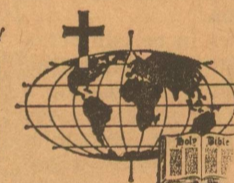

Churches throughout the land are open to all. Inside their doors, we cast aside worry that shackles our hearts in this atomic age. We find strength and courage to face the unknown future. Our faith, hope and trust in God, who says, "Fear not; for I am with thee," is renewed and peace fills our anxious souls.

Let us accept the invitation of the bells to "Come and worship," and go to church regularly.
