Drawing Set Dec. 24 By Local Merchants

Five local merchants are sponsoring a Christmas season drawing again this year, and tickets will be given out starting on November 1. Mobley Exxon, Hext Foods, Western Auto, Cathy's Floral & Gift, and the Eldorado Drug are firms participating this year. Grand prize at the Christmas Eve drawing will be a color T-V set now on display at Western Auto, and there are five other prizes of $25 in trade at each of the participating firms. Complete details are in the ad on page 3 of this Success issue.

Time Change Is Set For The Week End

It's time once again for the semi-annual time change, but people will gain an hour of extra sleep Sunday morning instead of losing it like six months ago. October 28th is the last Sunday in October and as such is designated for change from Daylight Saving Time back to the Standard Time. While clocks move back officially one hour at 2:00 a.m. Sunday to 1:00 a.m., it is only those people working a night shift for an oil company or hospital who will move their watches at that exact time. The easiest way to take care of the change is simply to set your time pieces back an hour before going to bed Saturday night. Standard Time will be in effect in Texas as well as the rest of the nation during the ensuing six-month period, until the last Sunday in April of 1974. So remember to re-set your watches and clocks and get an extra hour of sleep Sunday morning. If you forget to do it, you will be an hour early for church services Sunday morning.

Woman's Club To Host Meeting And Workshop

The Heart of Texas District of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will hold 14th Annual Fall Board Meeting and Workshop in Eldorado this Saturday, Oct. 27th, at the Memorial Building and El Dorado Restaurant, opening at 8:30 a.m. in the club room. Coffee will be served. The District president, Mrs. Gully Cowser of Junction, will preside over the business meeting. The program will begin at 9:30 during which a skit "We Were Caught Short," written by Mrs. R. D. Johnson, local club woman, will be presented. Lunch will be served at the El Dorado Restaurant at 12:45, after which the business meeting will continue at the Restaurant. The special guest speaker will be Mrs. H. B. Bratton, third vice president of T. F. W. C. of Waco, Tex., a very outstanding clubwoman, having served as an officer since 1957. She is a past president of T. F. W. C., having served as president from 1968-70. She was voted "Outstanding Clubwoman" in 1962 and selected as one of the "Outstanding Civic Leaders of America in 1967." Ozona Clubwomen will present original skits. Door prizes will be given. Mrs. Edwin Jackson is president of the El Dorado Woman's Club, and hostess for the Board Meeting and Workshop.

S. S. Man Here Today

Bruce Coates, Social Security representative for the San Angelo Social Security Office, has scheduled his October visit to Eldorado. He will be at the Court Courthouse on Thursday, October 25th, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Anyone who wants to file a claim for benefits, get information, or transact other business with the Social Security Administration may contact him at this time. Persons who are unable to meet with him are encouraged to call the office in San Angelo at 949-4608.

News Of The Sick

W. F. (Rocky) Meador is convalescing at home after undergoing surgery recently in Shannon hospital.

Post Script

The month of October is rapidly drawing to a close and our local taxing authorities remind local property owners that the 31st is deadline to take the full 3% discount on tax bills.

Orval Edmiston, county sheriff and tax assessor & collector, as well as Ernestine Hext, school tax collector, and city hall, all expect an influx of people in the next few days paying their tax bills.

The coming few days lead up to October 31st, Halloween.

The Lions Club are launching their annual Halloween Candy Sale from their panel truck near the post office. Candy will be sold each morning, for just $1 a bag.

All families will need candy for the trick or treaters on Halloween night, and by buying it from the Lions Club you put funds into community projects.

So... support the Lions Club by buying their candy for Halloween.

News of building: The interior of the Baptist church has sheet rock in place and some paneling. Work is continuing on the $50,000 renovation project. The new pews are due in about Christmas time.

An addition is being built onto McCormick's drive in.

The main auditorium room of the Memorial Building has had walls painted recently following installation of central air conditioning. The floors are to be refinished sometime in November.

S. C. Engdahl recently moved his garage from the building near the gin to the shop building of the former Eldorado Hardware.

With our subscribers: The address of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Pennington is now: (#B4) 800 Babcock Road, San Antonio, Texas 78201.

Mrs. Richard Sauers reports new address as 2481 Pond Run Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio 45244.

Another student subscriber is LeAnne Cawley, Gates Hall, Room 118, Texas Tech, Lubbock, Texas 79409.

At the pep rally held in the high school gym last Friday afternoon, all team members were introduced with their parents, and corsages donated by Cathy's were given out. The pep rally is held each Friday at about 2:20 p.m.

Cathy has mums for the homecoming game Friday, and craft classes Tuesday afternoon. See her ad on page 5.

Apparently there will be little interest in the Amendment Election coming up Nov. 6th. A check at the County Clerk's office Monday revealed that just TWO absentee votes had been cast at that time.

Absentee voting will continue through this coming week with deadline 5:00 p.m. Friday, Nov. 2. So if you will be away on Nov. 6th or otherwise unable to vote in person that day, go by the clerk's office any time during regular hours and cast your vote.

Sample ballots, printed on pink paper, are available free for the taking here at The Success office as well as at the clerk's office.

Well over a hundred 4-H members, parents, and leaders turned out Monday night at the Memorial Building for the annual banquet and awards night.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the 4-H Gold Star Boy and Girl. They will attend the district banquet in November in San Angelo.

The other awards are listed in an article on page 4 of this Success issue.

The 4-H program here in the county is an active one, and the annual awards banquet is always well attended.

It's been a wet year as far as county average rainfall is concerned. The rainfall table on page 5 totals 21.26 inches (or 21 1/4") for the first nine months of this current year of 1973. No doubt the October rain will meet or surpass the 5.50 reported for September.

It was not until recent days that farmers were able to get into their cotton fields, and by Monday several wagonloads were at the gin.

ATTEND THE HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL WEDNESDAY, OCT. 31 — 6:30 TO 9:00 P. M.

On Monday, Oct. 22nd, Beta Sigma Phi met with 14 members present. After a short business meeting we started work on the Carnival. This is a listing of local organizations and their booths:

- 3rd grade—Candy Booth.
- 4H—Sponge Throw.
- 4H—Softball Throw.
- 4H—Spook House.
- Girl Scouts—Cake Walk.
- Chamber of Commerce—Coin Toss.
- 2nd Grade—Lillipop Pull.
- 2nd Grade—Shaving Cream throw.
- Lions Club Booth.
- Sorority has two booths—Bingo and Concession. Our local merchants have been great about donating prizes for Bingo, and each member used stamp books and we have some good prizes for bingo. If you are interested in having a booth, it's not too late: Call 2371

From our profit last year we did many community projects. Some of them were two Thanksgiving baskets with turkeys; blender and hair clipping set for the Nursing Home; donated to Library Fund and a book to the Library; a donation to the City Christmas Decorations, and helped to furnish the Club Room in Memorial Building. These are a few of our projects accomplished last year. We try to be of service to the community, and we do appreciate your support as we could not survive without it. Come to the Halloween Carnival and dress your little ones. There are prizes for the best costumes on elementary and pre-school children. The carnival will be from 6:30 to 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 31st, Halloween. —Rep.

Eagles To Host R. Lee At Homecoming Game

The Eldorado Eagles, with a 2-win 1-tie record behind them so far in District 9A play, are all set to host the Robert Lee Steers Friday night at 7:30 on Eagle Field. Last year the Eagles had a one-point loss to the Steers, 14 to 13.

This game is designated at Homecoming and will include crowning of the Football Sweetheart and Band Queen at half-time. Identity of these two girls is kept secret until they are presented.

Cotton Ginning Into High Gear

If weather predictions for the foreseeable future are correct, cotton farmers will be pouring their crop in to the local gin in volume amounts within a few days.

By Monday afternoon it appeared the rush was already under way with the gin running full blast and a number of trailers on the yard waiting to gin. When these are processed it would make a total of 123 bales.

But more trailer loads were expected to arrive during remainder of the day. According to Karen Homer most of the crop was coming from Reynolds and Bailey Ranch areas.

Weather predictions are that cool nights and warm days will continue and there were no signs of precipitation at press time.

Par-TEE News

Winners of the Special Play Oct. 21st was the team of Charles Adams, W. G. Crippin, Ray Alexander and Ernestine Hext. Coming in second was team of Bob Bland, Ralph Waldron, Ben Hext and Ted Short. Our regular play days are the second and fourth Sundays of each month and we are changing meeting time back to 1:30 p.m. since the afternoons are shorter.

We wish a speedy recovery to Juanita Taylor and Mary Waldron who are in the hospital. Hurry and get well; we miss you out on the course. —Rep.

Young People To Meet

A supper and special program for Senior High Youth of the Presbyterian, Methodist, and Baptist churches is being planned for Sunday evening, Oct. 28, at 5:30 p.m. at the El Dorado Restaurant.

Mrs. Ethel Gunn is at her home in Eldorado now. Our sympathy is expressed to her in the recent death of her sister in Oklahoma.

Battle Of Eagles Ends In 6-6 Tie Friday

In the 2nd quarter Junction's Edmund Rathke ran 60 yards for the score. The point after failed. Neither team was able to score again. Eldorado and Junction are tied in district play, 2-0-1 for each.

Library Board Meets

The Library Board met for the October meeting with 6 members and librarian present. Mrs. E. M. Jackson Sr. presided.

The board postponed voting on two members at large to fill the vacancy of the DAR members, since it disbanded, until November meeting. If you are asked to serve on this board, give it some consideration as the board needs 10 members to be a full board as the constitution calls for. Also it was voted to put drapes in the front of the library. Miss Ruth Baker and Mrs. Gunn were appointed to get these.

New shelving has also been added, and is ready for the books now. The New Webster Dictionary is also in the Library.

The amendments to the by-laws were read and approved. Librarian's report for September: 5 new readers, 12 books mended, fines collected $4, 17 records, 510 adult fiction, 375 adult non-fiction, 55 Junior fiction, 73 non-fiction for juniors. Total circulation 1,013.

The Library has new lights. Come in and visit. See all the improvements and enjoy reading. It's something to be proud of. —Rep.

Food Stamps To Be Issued November 1st

The first Post Office issuance of Food Stamps under the new state-wide Food Stamps Program will take place at 10:00 a.m., November 1, 1973, in the Eldorado Post Office according to Postmaster Bernard E. Carr and Mr. Carrol D. Crum, Regional Administrator of the Texas Department of Public Welfare.

Schleicher County currently has a Food Stamp Program, but it will be replaced with the new state-wide plan which has installed this new issuance system. Certified households will be able to go to the Post Office at their own convenience and buy their allotment of Food Stamps. They can buy their stamps between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except on Federal holidays. Pilot projects in three Texas counties have shown that Post Office issuance is a faster and better way for certified households to get their Food Stamps.

Eligibility is determined by size of household, total net income, resources, and other considerations. Persons who are unemployed, work part-time, or receive small pension checks should contact the Food Stamp Office at 318 North Bell St. in San Angelo. People who are not employed must register for and accept work.

Food Stamps increase the food purchasing power of low-income households and make it possible for them to eat more and better foods.

The new state-wide Food Stamp Program is administered by the Texas Department of Public Welfare and is financed by the State of Texas. The Food Stamps are provided by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Rabies Cases Reported In Sutton County

Confirmation has recently been received by the Sonora Veterinary Clinic that a fox killed in Sutton county was rabid. This is, according to Veterinarian John E. Fields, the fifth such case of rabies in the county in the past month.

The rabies cases thus far have been confined to the western part of the county in foxes and skunks, but the last killed, a fox, was only a short 12 miles from Sonora. All cases have been getting nearer and nearer to town even though they have all been within a 15-mile radius. —Devil's River News, Sonora

Jeannie ON THE SPOT
Be it ever so humble, there's no home like a home that sparkles with chrome. When stains appear on chrome, baking soda is a truly tremendous polish. Just rub it on dry, using a dry cloth. Then use a damp cloth to clean.

Going through the milweed needn't be as grueling an experience as going through the mill. Soak in naturally soured milk overnight. Rinse and expose to sun until dry. Another method is to rub salt on stain with lemon juice and place in sun.

WASH SHOO!
Want to kiss lipstick stains good-bye? Outside of commercial removers, glycerin (available at drugstores) may be applied and left to set. Wash as usual. Or: rub with lard or petroleum jelly. Wash in Ajax Laundry Detergent. If any stain remains and it is safe for the fabric, rubbing alcohol or hydrogen peroxide may be used. Wash as usual.

When it comes to removing ugly tobacco stains from fabrics, try using rubbing alcohol. Rub the spots using a washcloth or piece of cotton.

'Credit Crunch' And Home Financing

by John L. Hill, Attorney General
Austin, Tex.—With the "credit crunch" on capital for home financing, and the increased requirements for down payments, some consumers may be tempted to take the "contract for sale" route to satisfying a desire for home ownership.
In legal terms, this is known as "an executory contract for conveyance of real property."
What it actually is an agreement between the person who owns a piece of real property and the person who wants to own one that the owner will convey the house and lot after certain terms are met.
A price is determined, and the buyer agrees to make monthly payments of a certain amount for as long as it takes to pay off the principal. The average buyer, however, has a tendency to look only at the amount of the monthly payments—in terms of his budget, without taking into account all that the payments may have to cover, or how long they will last.
For instance, in one case which was investigated by the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division, a South Texas man had signed a contract in 1968 to buy a house costing $6,350. He paid $500 down, leaving a balance of $5,850 payable at $45 a month at an interest rate of 8% on the declining balance.
There was no mention of the total number of payments to be made, but an amortization schedule (which would have been available from any bank or savings & loan institution for about $1.50) would have shown that it would take more than 30 years to pay it off.
In a separate section, the contract for sale required that the buyer pay taxes accruing on the property, as well as the premium for insurance to protect the investment.
When you consider that the amortization on the note would have resulted in the first few $45 monthly payments breaking down to $39 for interest and only $6 for principal, you can see that further deductions for taxes and insurance would reduce the principal payments to little if anything.
That points up a primary danger inherent in a poorly-drawn contract for sale: If the payments are too low, it could take a generation—or a lifetime—to assume ownership.
Because that is another problem with many of these contracts—when they state that the buyer will not give the deed to the property until the full contract price has been paid. If the would-be homeowner gets 30 days behind on a payment, the seller could demand the full balance immediately, with a threat of repossession.

Reports of cases of repossession, without notice, led the 1969 Texas Legislature to pass a law requiring the seller to give formal notice, if the buyer's investment had reached a given point.
If less than 10% of the purchase price has been paid off, the seller must give 15 days' written notice by certified or registered mail. If between 10% and 19% of the purchase price has been paid off, 30 days' notice must be given. And, if 20% or more has been satisfied, 60 days' notice is required.
And the notice of forfeiture of interest and acceleration of indebtedness must be stated in this language, printed in 10-point bold face type: "You are late in making your payments under the contract to buy your home. Unless you make the payment by-----, the seller has the right to take possession of your home and to keep all payments you have made to date."

There have been many abuses of the contract for sale of real property on record. In fact, the Federal Trade Commission has held hearings with a view to prohibiting such contracts entirely.
But this type of home buying can be useful, if the consumer takes precautions: Be sure that the total number of payments are set out in the contract, and that you understand exactly what they must cover. Ask for a warranty deed, to be certain there is no cloud on the title. Require the seller to show you his title insurance policy. Try to arrange it so that you can acquire the deed when a good portion of the principal has been paid off. And, it would be helpful to have a private attorney or a legal aid advisor go over the contract with you.
If you run into any problems, do not hesitate to contact the Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division.

It's Light-Saving Time

Break the habit of always turning lights on when entering a room. Do some "light-saving." The following is suggested to conserve electricity:

First, use sunlight whenever possible. Reach for the window shade or drapery pull instead of a light switch.

Turn lights off when leaving a room. Children will remember to do the same when "turned on" to the idea of conservation.

Fluorescent light fixtures wear out sooner if turned on and off frequently. However, if you will be out of the room longer than half an hour, turn them off—and save electricity.

Fluorescent lights provide four times more light per watt than incandescents. So if offered a choice in fixtures, consider fluorescents for those dark rooms where artificial light is needed all day long. Don't skimp on lighting dark halls or any frequently-traveled paths—keep them well-lighted for safety.

To conserve energy in this area, use switch-ahead lighting as you enter. Then turn it off when leaving the dark area.

Take time as a family to find other ways of saving electricity. Realize the family's importance in reducing the total demand on this limited resource.

Prevent Iron Skillet Rust

Don't leave iron skillets out to air dry after washing.

Moisture causes rust—whether the skillet is seasoned or not.

After washing and towel-drying an iron skillet, make sure it's completely dry by putting it over the range pilot light. Or, with an electric range, place it over very low heat for a few minutes.

This procedure "cooks out" all moisture, helping prevent rust.

Should rust appear, scrub away the blemishes with soap or detergent and a scouring pad or brush.

Season iron skillets at least every six months—more often if in frequent use.

To season a skillet, first wash it carefully, rinse and dry. Then liberally coat the inside with vegetable oil or shortening. Heat skillet so the oil permeates the porous surface.

Austin, Tex.—Future development of major Texas water projects will come to a halt unless new standards laid down by the National Water Resources Council are reversed, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby says. Hobby, joined by State Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo, and serving as spokesman for four Texas water advisory councils, urged President Nixon and Texas congressmen to alter the regulations.

"Unless this policy is reversed," said Hobby, "Texas stands to be harmed very substantially."

The new principles and standards for planning water and related land resources are effective October 25.

While acknowledging that they have merit, Hobby said, they would destroy "the long-established partnership between federal and state governments for development of water resources. . . For all practical purposes, the thrust of 'principles and standards' wipes out the present-day mechanics for use and control of water, and falls short of practical substitutes."

A proposed "discount rate" feature, claimed Hobby, precludes federal participation in traditional development of water projects. The standards, he maintained, would further force impractical planning for projects on an in-state basis.

In the last five years, more than $850 million have been invested by the local, state and federal governments in Texas water projects. About a fourth of that was federal money.

Refusal by the federal government to finance in the future "non-reimbursable features" such as fish and wildlife, recreational benefits and flood control provisions would ban parts of water projects that "tend to enhance the environment," said Hobby.

Double-Header Convention Planned

Legislators are being polled on a proposal to split next year's constitutional convention into two sessions—one from January 8 to April 6 and the second after mid-June.

Sen. Bill Meier of Eules offered the suggestion, contending that the convention may be poorly attended just before May and June primary elections. Many legislators, who are delegates to the convention, will face opponents for re-election.

The recess, as proposed by Meier, would give legislators nearly a month to campaign before the May primary and another month before the June runoff.

Meanwhile, House Speaker Price Daniel Jr. urged lawmakers to set a 90-day flexible and extendable timetable for the convention and try to finish the job of rewriting the constitution by early April. He said legislators can do it by making use of the research of the Constitutional Revision Commission as a beginning point. Daniel said taxpayers will be saved nearly $2 million if the convention winds up in 90 days rather than extending over the full 170 days allowed.

Allowable Still At 100%

For the 20th straight month, the Texas Railroad Commission set the November statewide oil allowable at 100%.

Uncertainty of supplies for winter months and possible cuts in imports from the Middle East were cited by Chairman Jim Langdon.

Exceptions again were made for the East Texas Field, Kelly-Snyder, Tom O'Connor and several others, where the allowable was retained at less than 90% of potential.

Appointments . . .

Netum Steed and G. L. Vinson of Wichita Falls and Jack Warren of Tyler were named to the National Petroleum Council.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe appointed Hugh Half Jr. of San Antonio to San Antonio River Authority board of directors; John A. Mehos of Galveston to the Gulf State Marine Fisheries Commission; and Alcus Greer of Houston and William H. Sharp of Lubbock (reappointments) to the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education.

State Insurance Board has extended the appointment of Clay Clay Cotten of Austin as state insurance commissioner for two years.

Attorney General's Opinions

Counties may use federal revenue sharing funds to contract with private non-profit corporations to construct recreational facilities for the aged, Atty. Gen. John Hill held. In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

—There is no authority and no appropriation for paying state employees who resign or are dismissed (except in case of death) in lieu of accrued, unused vacation time.

—A California non-profit dental service corporation is not providing dental service in Texas by entering a contract to pay for dental services of a Delaware corporation, including its Texas facility employees, where dentists are not chosen by employees.

—The state comptroller must pay statutory witness fees for out-of-state witnesses into the court registry on certification by the judge that fees are necessary to compel attendance. A county can advance funds and be reimbursed by the state.

—A State Insurance Board order authorizing companies to set unusual risk rates subject to later board approval is not authorized.

—A reduction in appropriations for the State Board of Pardons and Paroles in event of refunding by the Criminal Justice Council of "continuing programs" during the fiscal year which ended August 31 is not required where a new program is funded September 1.

—Status of an area from dry to wet can only be accomplished by a "for" vote on a legalizing proposition, and transformation of a wet area to a dry area can only be accomplished by an "against" vote on a prohibitory proposition. A city prohibitory election which does not result in a vote unfavorable to the sale of alcoholic beverages has no effect at all upon the status of the city or any part.

—The owner of a title to a fractional interest in a patented survey less than total is not entitled to purchase only his proportionate share of the excess acreage in the survey.

Courts Speak

A three-judge federal court in Dallas adopted the so-called "Plan B" for Texas congressional reapportionment, which will require some readjustment of existing boundaries. Attorney General Hill said he has no plans for further appeals. Motions to intervene in the case were rejected as not being "timely."

A Corpus Christi district judge set an October 26 hearing on a state motion to cite Roloff Evangelistic Enterprises for contempt in operating two youth care facilities without state licenses.

The Court of Criminal Appeals upheld four convictions, including two life sentences, of a Dallas man in the shooting of three.

Bollworm Plowup Extended

Agriculture Commissioner John White extended the cotton stalk destruction deadline "according to individual needs" in 14 rain-soaked South Texas counties.

An earlier extension had set the plow-up deadline for October 15 in zones 1 and 2 of the pink bollworm control area. Counties affected are Cameron, Hidalgo, Willacy, Starr, Zapata, Jim Hogg, Brooks, Kenedy, Webb, Duval, Jim Wells, Kleberg, Nueces and San Patricio.

Air Pollution Controls To Be Challenged

Texas will challenge new federal air pollution controls in the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The controls seek to limit use of autos in Houston-Galveston, Dallas-Fort Worth and San Antonio.

Austin-Waco and El Paso areas are also affected by the Environmental Protection Agency proposals.

The state contends EPA has failed to show any need for controls more stringent than the state's own and that the federal regulations may worsen pollution.

Short Snorts . . .

Texas Water Quality Board set a second hearing in Uvalde October 25 to determine what regulation will be necessary in Bexar, Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Kendall, Comal and Hays counties to protect the Edwards Underground Reservoir against pollution.

Texas Aeronautics Commission February 26 will hear the application of Southwest Airlines to extend jet service to the Rio Grande Valley.

Hearing on plans for first phase development of Mustang Island State Park is set by the Parks and Wildlife Department for November 15 here.

Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission took in more than $1 million for the first time in a single month from beer, whisky and wine permits during September.

State Banking Board approved charters for First State Bank of Harker Heights and denied one for American Bank of Woodway.

More than 2,000 gathered here Tuesday (Oct. 23) for a Governor's conference on rural development.

The League of Women Voters is distributing a Spanish-language voters guide for the November 6 constitutional amendments election.

Tips To Reduce Cattle Shrinkage

It isn't necessarily the highest price per pound that brings the highest return per animal. Shrinkage on the way to market can cut deeply into your livestock profits.

Shrinkage can be a big factor, especially in years as the present one when light weight calves have been selling for record prices.

To reduce livestock shrinkage during the trip to market, these pointers are suggested:

1. Reduce the amount of grain and rich feeds in the ration of fat cattle.
2. Protect cattle from extreme cold or hot weather while they are on a truck or trailer.
3. Plan shipment during the most desirable part of the day.
4. Take advantage of feed, water and rest stops during long journeys to market.
5. Keep cattle off feed and water several hours before shipping.
6. Keep livestock quiet while loading—avoid excitement.
7. Don't overfill cattle before hauling.
8. Don't overcrowd or underload shipments.
9. Drive carefully in transporting the stock yourself. Otherwise, select reliable truckers who are accustomed to hauling livestock.
10. Expect at least a 3% shrink on cattle and calves if the market is more than 15 miles away.

With the winter season approaching, care in loading and transporting cattle becomes even more important.

Trees Can Curb Noise

Are industrial and traffic noises in your neighborhood becoming unbearable? Maybe some of this noise can be abated or reduced through proper use of trees and shrub planting.

Research has shown that shrubs and trees, if used correctly, can play a major role in reducing noise. Trees will also effectively moderate wind and temperature and, in so doing, will also reduce the influence that these two factors may have on transmitting sound.

Experimental work at Syracuse, New York and Lincoln, Nebraska has shown that size, position and density of planting as well as meteorological conditions (wind, moisture, temperature) contribute to sound control by plants.

Many communities are making concerted efforts to both conserve existing tree plantings and to plant others. Not only do such green belts between residential and industrial areas serve as noise barriers, but they also provide much needed park areas, bike paths and hiking trails. By means of overpasses and tunnels, green belts can be connected across busy thoroughfares to provide many miles of recreational area.

Prussic Acid Can Kill Livestock

before the season's first freezing temperatures arrive. Such a killing frost can spell danger for livestock producers that have cattle grazing on sorghum stubble or any of the sorghum-sudan hybrid pastures. The reason is prussic acid poisoning of the animals.

The danger of prussic acid poisoning exists mainly in pastures and fields where sorghum stubble is making regrowth and where there is vigorous, young growth of Johnsongrass, sorghum-sudan hybrids and related plants. Such growth generally has a high content of prussic acid, especially if produced under stress of dry or cool weather.

place a sturdy stake in the container and tie the central or strongest leader of the plant to it. Remove all lateral or side shoots soon after they develop.

When the central leader reaches the desired height, pinch out the top and allow the plant to branch. Further pinching will help develop a bushy, attractive plant. The stake should remain until the leader is strong enough to support the top.

Grow the plant in a container that has a drainage hole in the bottom. Use a rich soil mix of sandy loam and an organic material such as peat moss.

Regular applications of a water soluble fertilizer will help to insure healthy, fast-growing plants. Occasional pruning and grooming is also necessary for most standard specimens.

Evergreen shrubs such as azaleas, Japanese yew, wax-leaf ligustrum and hollies have been used for tree shaping for a number of years. Recently, there has also been considerable interest in training flowering shrubs such as Lantana, coleus and geraniums. English ivy also makes an interesting specimen when trained up a stake and onto a ball made of chicken wire.

The main danger to livestock is grazing such pastures and fields immediately after a killing frost.

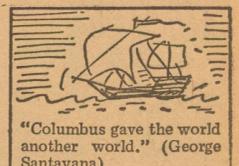

I advise livestock producers to wait a week to 10 days following a killing frost before allowing cattle to graze suspect pastures and fields. If only a light frost occurs, remove the cattle until plant growth is killed by a heavy freeze.

Each year numerous animals are lost from prussic acid poisoning. These losses are needless and rob the producer's pocketbook. Giving special attention to grazing management and staying abreast of changing weather conditions can avoid cattle losses to prussic acid poisoning.

How About Tree-Shaped Plants?

Standard or tree-shaped plants, popular as specimens or in groupings of container grown plants, can be grown at home easily.
