SCHOOL HOUSE BONDS APPROVED.

J. B. Christian received a letter Thursday stating that the Eldorado ludapendent School Bonds were approved by the Attorney General, and that two parties were wanting to buy the bonds, one party living in Austin, and the other in Dallas. This is good news to the majority of the citizen-ship of our city, and Eldorado will soon have her new school building on the move.

John Hill was in the city Wednesday showing what his fine farm would produce, he had with him some California Wheat which he has grown on his farm. The plant resembles that of Kafficorn or Milo Maize, but has a grain that resembles the wheat, it has larger heads and look like it would make fine feed for stock and poultry. Mr. Hill has about 21-2 acres growing on his ranch and seems to think it wil make as much per acre as Milo-Maize or Kafficorn.
