Austin, Tex.—A big state land trade has been proposed to obtain a scenic new park on 30-mile-long Matagorda Island.

Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong suggested the swap of 18,000 acres of state-owned land near Ft. Bliss in El Paso County for the federally-owned share of the island.

A joint House-Senate committee unanimously decided the state should own the island which lies south of Port Lavaca.

The U. S. Air Force has decided it will not continue use of Matagorda as a bombing range, but the U. S. Interior Department wants it as an additional refuge for the whooping crane.

Armstrong said Matagorda offers among the best sports fishing and hunting in the country, and it is within easy auto range of Houston, San Antonio and Corpus Christi citizens.

Matagorda's beach is growing rather than expanding, the committee was told.

Federal holdings on the island total nearly 19,000 acres. The state owns 16,369 acres and private interests 15,570 acres.

Parks and Wildlife Commission Chairman Pearce Johnson questioned wisdom of the trade, however.

No Texas Gas Shortage

Texas should not have a severe natural gas shortage this winter, Governor Briscoe said after an organizational meeting of his new energy council.

The Governor said he does not believe Congress will allocate Texas gas to other states.

Briscoe and Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby urged more emphasis on developing new sources of energy—including solar, wind, geothermal and waste material burning.

Short Shorts . . .

Texas officials filed suit in Washington in an effort to keep the state out of federal Voting Rights Act coverage.

An Austin district judge refused to grant a temporary restraining order sought by Texas Association of Proprietary Schools to prevent enforcement of new Board of Education rules.

Oscar Laurel of Laredo has resigned as Good Neighbor Commission director, effective Dec. 31.

Sept. 21-27 has been designated Highway and Transportation Week. Comptroller Bob Bullock said that $22.9 million in unemployment benefits were paid to jobless Texans last month.

Post Script

Lions Club To Honor Faculty Tuesday

The Eldorado Lions Club will stage their traditional early-Fall ladies night honoring the school faculty this coming Tuesday night, Sept. 23rd, at 7:30 in El Dorado Restaurant.

This event always attracts a good crowd of school teachers and administrators and their husbands and wives.

The speaker for the evening will be Phil George, coach of the ASU Rams.

Boss Lion Ronnie Mittel reports that arrangements for the ladies night are complete. The Lions Club will not meet on Wednesday, Sept. 24th, the day following the ladies night.

The local club will host the Zone Meeting the night of Sept. 29th in El Dorado Restaurant.

Slow, Gentle Rains

Rains which set in late last week continued through the week end and by Monday noon the town of Eldorado had had an aggregate total of about 1 1/2 inches.

The rains fell gently and penetrated the ground, with little runoff. It was thought for a while Friday that the rains might cut the crowd at the Ozona game that night but the night turned off cloudy and chilly with no falling weather.

Methodists Schedule Covered Dish Dinner

There will be a covered dish dinner at the First United Methodist Church this coming Sunday at noon, immediately following the morning service. The Rev. Keith Wyatt, pastor, and the congregation urge all member and friends to attend and bring a covered dish.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED PUBLIC NOTICE

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
(S.J.R. NO. 11)

SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and efficiency of the executive branch.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the VOTING AND ELECTION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the education provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VII, Education, is amended to:

Provide that the Permanent and Available School Funds and the county public school funds are continued for the support of the free public schools. The State Board of Education is retained and the Permanent and Available University Funds are continued for the benefit of The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. A new Higher Education Fund for Texas is established for the benefit of colleges and universities outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M Systems. The state ad valorem tax of ten cents on $100 valuation is continued as the source of revenue for the Fund. The ten cent higher education tax may be changed by law within the ten cent maximum. The legislature may allocate by law a portion of the Higher Education Fund to certain state vocational and technical institutes. The article provides that the public education system must furnish each individual an equal educational opportunity, but a school district may provide local enrichment of educational programs exceeding the level provided by the state consistent with general law. Authority to issue Permanent University Bonds is continued but the bonds may not exceed 30% of the Permanent University Fund.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present dedication of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%. A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the FINANCE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976, except Article VIII, Section 2, Subsections (b) and (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1978; and Article VIII, Section 6, Subsection (c), which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

State Fair In Dallas Oct. 3-19 Will Have Theme On The Bicentennial

Dallas, Tex.—Uncle Sam is having a birthday party and everybody's invited! It's the State Fair's Yankeedoodle Dandy bicentennial celebration October 3-19.

Star-spangled events will include four free Cotton Bowl Spectaculars with drums and drills, parades and pageantry, fireworks and flamenco dancers on October 6, 9, 13 and 14. Daring aerial artists on the high wire will give free performances each afternoon on Big Tex Stage, and the Trinidad and Tobago Carnival Band on Stage 7 will thump out the Calypso beat on steel oil drums. Daily horse shows at 8:00 p.m. and multiple shows of the Dr. Pepper-Morton Foods Circus, plus Pat Robert's Pop Music are all free to fair-goers.

A double billing at the Music Hall will feature Juliet Prowse starring in her own show, Oct. 3-12, and Johnny Cash taking the spotlight the second week, Oct. 13-19.

Plucky cowboys on bucking brocos will compete for $50,000 in prize money as they wrangle Brahman bulls and mettlesome mustangs in nine days of championship rodeo October 3-12.

Themed to the title of the Fair the eight museum will feature special exhibits pertaining to the bicentennial.

Dallas Garden Center will host three flower shows on the three week ends of the Fair: Ikebana International, the Bonsai Show and the Chrysanthemum Show.

The Stars and Stripes Theater in the Creative Arts Department will feature Yankeedoodle Dozen free fashion shows with models in the historic garments of 1700 to fall fashions 1975: a stately minuet by dancers wearing beribboned wigs and Colonial costumes; a segment from the spritely ballet and a Yankeedoodle chorus. Also in this department the Art Colony will demonstrate quilting, soap making, wood carving and other pioneer skills. Contests run the gamut from bread making and cake baking to pumpkin carving, fashion sewing, twins and chili cooking. Traditional contests have been expanded and new ones added, including ethnic food, churning, paper-hat making and George Washington cherry pie contests, taking place in the kitchen theater.

Then there's football and hot dogs, the ferris wheel and cotton candy, nachitos and Belgian waffles all adding up to a Dandy Fair.

INCREASE DENTAL VISITS WITH AGE

Elderly persons should see a dentist at least three times a year, according to Arthur Elfenbaum, DDS, honorary president of the American Society for Geriatric Dentistry.

Frequent dental visits allow for the early detection of problems that may accompany the aging process, according to Dr. Elfenbaum's remarks at the annual session of the American Dental Association reported in a recent issue of Geriatrics. A problem such as gradual changes in proper bite, if not detected early, can lead to faulty jaw movements and cause straining of the muscles in the neck and shoulders, he said.

Other unrelated reports have indicated that dental hypersensitivity, a condition in which teeth respond with pain to stimuli such as heat and cold, may occur as tooth enamel wears away over the years or as a result of periodontal work, exposing the layers of dentin and cementum underneath. The dentist can detect super-sensitive teeth during a routine examination with a jet of cold air or water. The condition can be treated by simple office procedures, or substitution of a therapeutic dentifrice such as Sensodyne for the regular home toothpaste.

Regular dental examination also allows early detection of oral cancer and systemic disorders that frequently are manifested in the oral tissues, Dr. Elfenbaum said. He also advised dentists to include nutritional counseling when older patients visit. Studies indicate that persons in their late 70s may have a very destructive type of dental decay, that may be due either to change in the protective capacity of saliva, or to an increase in the consumption of sweets.

Chicago, Ill.—Howard Derrick, Eldorado and Jack Drake, San Angelo, participated in the 53rd Annual Meeting of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, Aug. 20-22 in Chicago. Both are Meat Board Directors and members of the Board's Lamb Committee.

Derrick, as president of the American Sheep Producers Council and Drake, a partner in Producers Livestock Auction Co. in San Angelo, represent the National Lamb Feeders Association on the Board's directorate.

Six Flags Weekend Schedule Follows Record Summer

Arlington, Texas—Six Flags Over Texas announced that it has completed its most successful summer season. The park's total attendance through Labor Day exceeded 2,023,000. Six Flags is now on a weekend only schedule through November.

Attendance hit the 2,000,000 mark on August 31, two weeks ahead of the 1974 pace. Through Labor Day Six Flags showed an increase of more than 58,000 visitors over the same period last season, and more than 15,000 ahead of the all-time record year, 1973.

General Manager Dan Howells said, "To say the very least, we are most pleased with the attendance figures for spring and summer, as we will exceed our all time record of 2,267,000, which was set in 1973."

Howells continued, "One of the most pleasing aspects of the summer season was the fact that our attendance was up from all areas of the nation, as well as the local region. Our parking lot surveys tend to support the idea that Arlington, and the Metroplex as a whole, are becoming increasingly popular vacation destinations.

"Now that the bulk of the tourist season is over and the temperatures are at more comfortable levels, Six Flags becomes the ideal spot for a 'mini vacation.' We expect Texans and others within reasonable driving distances to visit Six Flags during the fall in greater numbers than ever."

During September Six Flags Over Texas will be open on Friday evenings, Saturdays and Sundays. The theme park will be open only on Saturdays and Sundays in October and November.

Country Music Weekend Set

Arlington, Tex.—Two top names in the field of country music, Lynn Anderson and Jerry Reed, are scheduled for appearances at Six Flags Over Texas.

Lynn Anderson will grace the Music Mill Theater stage in shows on Friday evening, September 19. On Saturday, September 20, Six Flags will feature Jerry Reed.

Six Flags will be open on Friday from 6:00 p.m. until midnight, and on Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until midnight. Showtimes both days will be 8:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Six Flags tickets will be specially priced at $5.00, adult or child, on Friday evening and on Saturday after 6:00 p.m. There is no additional charge for the shows.

Sorority Meets

Xi Xi Chi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met September 8 in the club room with 15 members repeating opening and closing rituals. Plans were discussed for the upcoming Halloween Carnival in October. The date and more details will be announced later. Members were asked to help contribute clothing and other items to the Alan Haynes family whose mobile home burned recently. Hazel Land of 531 N. Emerson in San Angelo won the half of beef given away September 2nd.

The program, "Woman, Her Heritage and Her Hope," was given by Tooter Dunham and Flora Hubble. Refreshments of cokes and cheese-cake were served by Linda Ingle. —Rep., Dorothy Dacy.
