VOL. IV ELDORADO, TEXAS (76936) THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1978 NO. 46

DID I HEAR SOMETHING? — One of Schleicher County's "native citizens" listens closely to the hum of a lonely windmill as he also watches for hunters, who are preparing for the opening day of deer season Saturday.

If this deer is wise, he will retreat into thick brush and stay there until after the end of deer season.

Court Rejects Road Easement

A sticky question that has faced the Schleicher County Commissioners Court for the past months was taken care of during a day-long meeting of the court Monday. Only after commissioners dealt with a long list of other items did they tackle the difficult question of accepting a road easement from a private landowner, and rejected that request.

The court is under an injunction filed earlier this year prohibiting them from using county owned equipment on private property. Most of the ranch roads in the county are on private land and therefore cannot be maintained by the county. However, under a provision worked into the injunction, the court can accept easements from landowners making these roads public. Then the court would have the right and the responsibility to maintain them.

Rancher Lawrence Steen and his son David, whose ranch is about 15 miles north of Eldorado on the San Angelo highway, presented the first easement to the court about a month ago. The court tables the discussion for two meetings and the tackled the question on Monday.

During long discussion in past meetings, the commissioners expressed the belief that if this easement was passed, they would feel obligated to accept all easements presented to them.

Outgoing commissioner Gene McCalla was the first to speak his feelings. "We negotiated this into the injunction and said we would not accept the injunction without this clause for accepting easements," he said. "I don't believe some people want to do that (give their roads to the county). I talked to Judge (Earl) Smith (district court judge in San Angelo) and he said he would rule on this according to law; where the county built and maintained a road, it is a county road. This road and others were built and maintained by the county and now an individual wants to give it to the county. I think we should accept it and work it at our convenience."

Commissioner Richard Jones said, "We are short handed now and have been. It is hard to keep up the public roads. Until we can keep up school bus and mail routes and keep more hands, we would be foolish to take on anything else."

Joe Christian agreed. "We have gotten a good soaking rain and have two blades instead of five. Only one-fourth of the roads are done that should be done. The county roads are going down and we can't keep equipment up to date."

"If we accept these roads, people will expect the county to maintain these roads and we would be misleading them into believing we would. We're putting the cart before the horse by taking on more roads. We can't take care of the roads we have now and it is a shame. I am the first to say taxpayers deserve the right to get service from the county to maintain a road to their houses. If and when we can, I will be the first to say 'yes.'"

mented, "There are good and bad things about it. But there are only six men at the county barn now. We could take the road and not work it at or at least work the others first."

After county judge Bob McWhorter asked for a motion, McCalla made a motion to accept the road. However, none of the other commissioners seconded the motion. Therefore, the easement was not accepted.

But on the other hand, McWhorter noted that even though the easement was rejected now, when the new county judge and new commissioner come into office in January, the same question could be put before the court and a different decision could be made.

In other county matters discussed during the meeting, money was the major factor.

The court received bids for fuel from two local wholesale distributors, Jack Halbert and Dan Griffin. Griffins' bid quoted a price of 51.65 cents for regular and 42.8 cents for diesel, with prices subject to increase as dictated by his supplier. Halbert's bid quoted a price of 53.5 for regular and 44 for diesel, with prices subject to increase or decrease as dictated by his supplier. The court voted to accept the Halbert bid because of the decrease clause, with Christian saying he felt it would "be in the best interest of the county, although there is only a slight chance prices will decrease."

In another matter, the court met with Bill McMahan and Joe Lee, representing Thomas Y. Pickett and Co., Inc., valuation engineers. The company has worked up the county's oil tax roll and receipts since 1973. Lee and McMahan noted that the firm has been paid $4500 each year for doing the rolls. Monday they asked the court to increase their fee to a base of $6,000 plus 25 cents per item is a line on the tax roll.

McWhorter told the two men he felt the court should "shop around" to get other price estimates. "We would not be doing our job if we don't look into it," he said. McCalla and Christian noted that the agreement with the firm was made the same time the school renewed its contract with them. Both have been paying the same fee.

The court voted to table the matter until they talked with school officials to see what position they took.

Sheriff Orval Edmiston also appeared before the court asking for a salary increase for deputies. He said he is having a hard time finding someone qualified to hire as a deputy because of the low pay. Deputies now draw $700-750 a month in this county. The judge and commissioners told him that if they raised the deputies' salary, they would have to raise all county employees' wages and they did not have enough money to do that. However, the court did grant permission to buy two sets of uniforms, which consist of two jackets and four pair of pants. They will cost about $200.

The court also discussed repairs at the airport which is reportedly in bad

BRANDIN' IN AGGIELAND — The Bar 5 brand of Alvin R. Luedecke was burned into the Schleicher County panel of the "branded stairway" recently at Texas A&M University. The brand has been used by his father and other members of the Luedecke family in Schleicher and Brewster Counties since the early 1900s. Luedecke resides in College Station, and has been associated with Texas A&M for many years.

Busy wife to relaxed husband: "Sure, I can make a game out of the housework, but I like to think of it more as a team sport."

Dentist to patient: "I realize how hard it is to open your mouth and not say anything, Senator — but try."

The print media has come in for its share of criticism in recent years, and some of it is justifiable.

For the most part, newspapers, particularly community papers, are responsible and do the best job they can to report the news in a factual and fair manner.

Most papers realize that it is their duty to report the news and not create it. Of course, as in any profession, there are exceptions.

There are some daily and weekly papers that persist in blowing things up, so that they can slap a big headline on the story to raise their newstand sales.

I think that is demeaning, not only to the paper, but also to the community. A paper should report the news and leave the newsmaking to its readers.

If a paper does not handle things that way, it usually ends up with a "troublemaker" image, which is neither good, nor financially healthy.

We each need to take care of our own backyard, so to speak, and do our best to work for our communities and not against them. That's just the way we were raised.

Most people enjoy a good pun, and the following headlines, borrowed from the Los Angeles Times, were just too good for this columnist to pass up.

Read on and smile:

"Teacher finds himself rated Ex."

A dog attends college at the side of his master and is honored at commencement: "Bachelor of Arfs."

Taking political polls by telephone: "For Whom The Bell Polls."

The charms of nostalgic movies: "Back is Beautiful."

Astrology for dogs: "Hitching His Waggin' to Stars."

Infestation of fleas: "A Bad Year For Fleadom Fighters."

Food article headed: "Coconut-More Than It's Cracked Up To Be."

Reportedly the Times heard from Christopher Leithiser about the mass usage of puns: "Please stop before your newspaper sinks to such depths that its only use is to be spread out upon a newly-mopped floor. Let's not make these pages the Times that dry men's soles."

Thinking about making a major investment now? We think now is the time to buy that new house or land, because things are just not getting any cheaper. We ran across a story in U.S. News and World Report this week that estimates what things will cost in 1983, if the present rate of inflation continues.

At the risk of scaring some of our

Enrollment, Fees, And Roofing

Schleicher County Independent School board met Monday night to discuss six different items.

Joe Lee of the firm Thomas Y. Pickett Company met with the board to discuss the fee the school pays to work it oil tax roll and receipts each year. The firm was hired by the county and the school board in 1973 and has received a flat $4500 a year from each since then. The firm is now asking a base fee of $6,000 plus 25 cents per item on the roll.

The board decided to table the matter until the county court made a decision on the request.

School tax assessor Ray Lewis Ballew gave the board a financial report on taxes collected. Taxes collected to date are $617,387.54 with a balance of $118,341.74 to be collected. He said there are $16,712.12 worth of delinquent taxes to be collected. This brings the bank deposit to date at $600,065.19 which is lower than the taxes received because of discounts allowed. He noted the largest taxpayer in the county is Atlantic Richfield Company.

The board also discussed the band spring trip, and gave permission to Wayne "Mr. Mack" McDonald for the band to go. It also allowed up to $2500 for the trip depending on expenditures.

The board also authorized the repair of the roofs of the main building, covered walkways and ag barn. Superintendent Guy Whitaker is to get bids for the work.

The textbook committee was also approved by the board. The committee is composed of: Beth Whitaker, Jo Callison, Janet Curtis, Linda Ingle, Maureen Hodges, Pat Moore, Jimmy Marshall, Larry Mitchell, Janice Routh, Shirley Jackson, Randy Mitchell, Walter Wallis, Clifford Curry, Guy Whitaker and Judy Meador.

Both principals gave presentations to the board regarding enrollment. Grade school principal Walter Wallis reported a total of 323 in grades k-6, and high school principal Clifford Curry reported 298 in grades 7-12, with a total of 621 in all grades. This is a gradual increase over last year.

Cathy Niblett met with the court and talked about supplying senior rings to the seniors. No action could be taken on the request since Mrs. Niblett was not listed on the agenda.

During a special call meeting held Nov. 8, the board discussed working out details with architect Gary Donaldson who is making a master plan for school construction for the board.

The board also decided to sell bus number 16 and buy two new buses.

Board members also discussed an appraisal on property around the school made by Phil McCormack.

At the next board meeting, the board will be honored by the home economics department with a dinner.

Jaycees Challenge Coaches, Seniors

The All Sports Banquet will get a boost Monday night when the Eldorado Jaycees will compete against the football coaches and senior boys in a flag football game.

Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for students.

TSCRA Head Blasts Carter's Import Veto

President Carter's "pocket veto" of the Meat Import Act of 1978 Saturday night virtually assures higher beef prices for American consumers for several years, says John B. Armstrong, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, representing 14,000 cow/calf producers in Texas and surrounding states.

"Retail beef prices will remain high for years to come," Armstrong said, "because farmers and ranchers have very little incentive to rebuild their herds and their confidence in the government has been shaken severely by the President's action."

Current domestic cattle numbers are down because producers have been forced to sell of their herds in recent years as the cattle industry went through a financial bloodbath.

"This legislation would have given cattlemen and consumers much-needed market stability. It was, in fact, anti-inflationary," Armstrong said.

"I am personally shocked that the President can ask us, as American citizens, to voluntarily comply with his new anti-inflation program when he exempts himself. The President's handling of the meat import act is a sad example of what happens when political trade-offs undermine the welfare of the U.S. cattle industry."

The counter-cyclical beef import bill, which received overwhelming approval from Congress, would have decreased imports when U.S. production was up and increased imports when U.S. production was down.

"What can cattlemen think when their president rejects legislation that is favorable to the cattleman and to the consumer?" Armstrong said.

'Old Shop' In Sonora Schedules Big Opening

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye! The opening of the Old Shop is here! "I'll Be Home for Christmas," "Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire," "Christmas In Williamsburg" and "White Christmas" will all be rolled into one to greet you when you come inside the James Hunt Home.

An opening was promised for this fall and it will be here from 4-8 p.m. Monday. Everyone is invited.

Christmas will be in the air and an array of items too good to be true have "your name on them" — antiques, potpourrie, candles, copper kettles and old lustre pitchers.

There are the primitives of little children with pull toys and kitty cats painted in the wonderful old colors you will love, exquisite old world Christmas music boxes that you won't believe, delightful decorations and antique reproductions of books and paperdolls that are a child's dream on Christmas morning. And wait until you see the real Hummel rubber dolls! Pinnocchio will be there to greet you with all the wonderful things that make Christmas the "way it used to be."

You'll see many wonderful pillows of old quilts; don't forget the original incomparable Spode Christmas China with all the new pieces as well as the old. And you won't be able to resist the chicken that lays the egg!

The basket collection is unbelievable and the linens, reproduction children's furniture is irresistible. There is something for all ages and interests.

And did you know the Old Shop is going to have a bit of "cakery" — all sorts of goodies to eat!

It's all at the opening of the Old Shop which will be open from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday after the opening.

condition. After a short discussion, McCalla said he would get an estimate for having sealer spread on the runway. The sealer would waterproof the runway and prevent seepage under it.

In other business the court said: • Signed a contract with the department of Human Resources creating a Child Welfare Board in this county. Meeting with the court was Ira Purdy and Jana Jeffers. The board will have eight members: the county judge, the four commissioners, the sheriff, county attorney T.P. Robinson, and justice of the peace, Frank "Pancho" Bradley.

• Discussed repairs of a water well at the cemetery, which is out of order. They agreed to have the three phase, two horse pump and motor pulled out and then determine the problem before getting bids for its repair.

• Canvassed election returns. Watching the canvassing were Cathy Niblett, Pat Ragsdale, Frank Bradley Jr., and Dan Brown of Christoval.

• Granted the Square Dance Club permission to use the Memorial Building as it is now an organized club. The club was denied use before because it was not organized and members were paying a caller. Appearing before the court on behalf of the club were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and Mrs. Delbert Taylor.

• Read a letter from Department of Public Safety lieutenant Oscar T. Armstrong of San Angelo. Armstrong said it might be another year before they will be able to fill the DPS vacancy in this county. He said this is because there are seven vacancies in the district now and because of the DPS's low pay scale and competition from big business and other police policies, only a few men apply for DPS patrolmen.

INVESTMENTS VS. INFLATION

If the above didn't scare you off and you still want to invest some money, here are some investments and how they have fared in the last 10 years.

STOCKS — Common stocks have lost ground to inflation in 1968-78 years. $10,000 invested in stocks 1968 would be worth about $10,310 today.

AN OFFICE BUILDING — The rapid rise in construction costs in the past decade had enhanced the value of many office buildings. For every $10,000 invested in an office building in 1968, today's value would be $21,580.

A BOND — Corporate or government bonds suffered because the fixed rate of interest doesn't change with inflation. Bonds of 10-year maturity bought at par for $10,000 in 1968 are not worth $10,000 when cashed in.

A HOME — As a general rule, people who have owned a house in the past 10 years have seen it rise sharply in market value. Each $10,000 invested in a new home in 1968 would be worth on the market about $22,200 on today's market.

FARMLAND — Well-located land in most parts of the country has been an effective hedge against the deteriorating dollar in recent years. An investment of $10,000 in farmland in 1968 would be worth about $28,800 today.

If any of this wealth (a pun) of information helps, and you make a good investment from reading this column, please remember this poverty-stricken columnist in your will.

Reddy's tips on electric safety

- ★ When disconnecting an appliance, don't pull cord; pull plug.
- ★ Be sure each appliance has the type of cord suited to the job it does — heavy duty extension cords for power tools; moisture resistant cords and plugs for outdoor equipment.

- ★ Have frayed cords replaced promptly.
- ★ Water conducts electricity; never handle electric appliances or switches with wet hands or when standing on a wet surface.
- ★ If an appliance has a separate cord, attach cord to appliance before plugging it into an outlet; disconnect cord from outlet before disconnecting it from appliance. Store cords away from cutlery, heat and dampness.

- ★ Don't place cords where they'll be tripped over or be subject to wear (under a well-travelled rug, through doorways).
- ★ Teach children not to play with or around electric sockets or equipment.
- ★ Don't use an electric lawn mower or hedge clippers when barefoot, or on wet grass or hedges.

Remember, Reddy supplies the electricity—only you can use it safely!

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:
Eldorado is fortunate to have two medical doctors. What we need now is a dentist with an office on Main Street.
Sonora, Ozona and Menard already have two doctors and a dentist. Eldorado is growing and it would be a profitable location for a dentist.

I would like to see some of the civic organizations — Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, etc., sponsor or get behind this project.

San Angelo is probably over run with dentists and possibly one of them would be interested in coming to Eldorado.

A good way to get into the holiday spirit is to attend the Thanksgiving program at 1 p.m. Tuesday in the high school auditorium.

The program will be presented by the elementary school choir under the direction of Susan Stark.

Singing in the choir will be: Eureka Norton, Kara Garlitz, Renetta Robinson, Marta Reyes, Judy Lipsett, Mendy Edmiston, Leticia Salas, Luz Martinez, Rachel Berrera, Michele Kent, Belinda Turner, Sulema Esquivel, Veronica Mendez, Anna Aguilar, George Gonzales, Angie Heald, Caryl Franklin, Michele Moore, Sylvia Sanchez, Juanita Hernandez, Odilia Garza, Diane Wilds, Jennifer Patton, Becky Schrier and Gina Hefferman.

Pilgrims will be Ginger Sterling and Stan Meador, and Indians will be Henry Robles, Jason Leifester, Jon Ingle and Craig Gutierrez. Ron Mittel, Mitch Bradley and special helper Patsy Ussery will be narrators.

ago I received two broken ribs and it hurt every breath I took.

Leslie Jones, who had been a resident here for a few weeks, went home the middle of last week, and I haven't heard whether he plans to come back to the home or not.

We had several visitors last week. Frank and Arlene Hill of Ozona, daughter and son-in-law of Zeral Holland, visited him. Ila and Chester Enley of San Angelo, visited Myrtle Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Evans of Junction and Asa Murr of Ft. McKavett Rt., Junction, visited Lester Garrett. Nancy and Cashes Taylor of Sonora visited with Zeral Holland on his birthday, Nov. 11.

The Presbyterian Church conducted the service in the dining room here last Sunday, led by their new pastor Bro Ron Sutto of Austin. He and his family, consisting

Two Residents Receive Honor

Two local people were honored for their outstanding cooperation with the Texas Extension Service Wednesday morning at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center in San Angelo. They are Billy Williams and Karen Homer.

They were among 32 others who were selected as outstanding cooperators in 17 counties in district 7 of the Texas Agricultural Extension service.

They were nominated for the award on the basis of their total contributions and support of extension programs in this county.

Guest speaker was Carl Porter of Terrell.

of his wife and three children, will be moving to Eldorado in December. The Presbyterian Church has been without a pastor for several months, so I am sure they are very happy to have one again. We enjoyed the service Sunday.

Next Sunday the Antioch Baptist Church will conduct the service here.

The bingo winners last Wednesday were Frank Reed, 2; Erna Rexroat, 2; Elva Daniels, 2; Fannie Blaylock, 2; Dehelia Gardener, 1; Juanita Sanchez, 1; LaVita Brooks, 1; Bess Andrews, 1; Beaulah Harris, 1.

On Friday the winners were Fannie Blaylock, 1; Beaulah Harris, 2; Elva Daniels, 2; Fred Gunstead, 1; Gene Stark, who was a visitor, 1; Frank Reed, 1.

Our well-travelled neighbor was complaining, "Two weeks in Europe is a family experience. You go like the Rockefellers, and come back like the Waltons."

EAGLES' NEST

By STASSI DONALDSON

The air is leaking out of the football and basket balls are being bounced around. The girls will play host to Eola Nov. 21 in the Eagle gym at 6:30 for an A team contest. The boys host Iraan Nov. 28 at 5 p.m. for A and B team games. Come out all you sports fans. The Eagles need your support.

Seniors will be ordering their graduation invitations Nov. 20.

Quarter exams begin Nov. 28th. Students are a little unhappy about having to study over the holidays.

The revision committee is still working on revising the school rule book. The committee is composed of students who are working hard to update the school rules to benefit all students.

A "one" rating is being planned by the Eagle band as they will begin working on their concert program soon. Contest for the band will be this spring. The school board has approved the band spring trip. It has also allowed up to $2500 for the trip.

Big event of the week! The Toilet Bowl game! The game was held Monday afternoon at the Eagle stadium and the teams were those fighting seniors and sophomores vs. the mighty juniors and freshmen. The senior-sophomore team claimed the victory.

The FFA Chapter Conducting team, the Farm Radio team and the Quiz team travelled to Wall Wednesday Nov. 15th for district competition.

Eagle Chatter

Kay Sargent gets grossed out. Moosie dreams about becoming a Dallas Cowboy cheerleader. Welcome back, Ronnie Hall! Donna Daniels gets embarrassed. Paul McWhorter decides to jump out the concession stand window. Rodney Sanders wins his bet. Mickey Nixon has a secret admirer. Who broke the Bluegel? Whit Paxton has a one track mind. Debbie Patton has a splinter.

Day Finishes School

AIRMAN MARY DAY
... Graduated

Airman Mary S. Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Day of Eldorado, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, in San Antonio.

During the intensive six weeks of training she earned the honor graduate ribbon for academic and military excellence. Completion of this training earned her credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Day has been assigned to Minot AFB, N.D., for training and duty in the transportation field. She is a 1973 graduate of Eldorado Senior High School.

4-Hers Preparing For Food Show Saturday

Schleicher County 4-Hers are busy this week finding recipes and trying them out in preparation for the 4-H food show Saturday. The show will be in the 4-H barn beginning at 1 p.m.

Schedule for the show is as follows: 1-1:30 p.m., setting up entries; 1:30-3 p.m., judging; 3-3:30 p.m., presentation of awards.

There will be four entry classes for the show, main dish, side dish, snacks and beverages and breads and desserts.

Everyone in the county is encouraged to attend the show which is open to the public at 3 p.m.

Local Farmers Can Get Loans

Farmers in Schleicher County are now eligible to apply for emergency loan assistance from the Farmers Administration due to drought incurred to crops and pasture land from May through November. The announcement was made by a spokeswoman from the office of U.S. congressman Bob Krueger.

Applications should be filed with the FHA office in San Angelo, phone number (915)655-5518. Applications can be filed for production losses for 12 months from last Tuesday and for physical losses for nine months up to $250,000 at three percent interest. Loans to offset losses and restore production or to make major adjustments are available at eight and one-half percent interest.

Mae Cowan Is Honored

A former local resident, the late Mae Ellie Davis Cowan, was honored by a memorial motorcycle ride Sunday in Austin.

She was the daughter of Buck and Emma Davis who lived here many years.

Mrs. Cowan, a longtime motorcycle enthusiast recently died of cancer. Proceeds from the ride went to the Austin Area Radiation Research Group, where she had received treatment.

Several riding clubs attended.

Cougars Top Novice, Win I-B District Title

Friday night football action saw the Christoval Cougars run over the Novice Hornets, 50-8. Joe Jacquez got the Christoval scoring started in the first quarter on a 30 yard run for the TD. The PAT was no good and the Cougars had an early lead of 6-0 over the Hornets. Danny Duke went 15 yards to get Christoval on the scoreboard again and Pete Morado's PAT was good.

Jacquez scored on a 51 yard run and Morado got the extra points to pad Christoval's lead 22-0 at the end of the first quarter.

In second quarter Christoval's Al Myers plunged one yard for the touch down. Corkey Solomon went over for the PAT.

Cougar Ernie Booth added another touchdown, however the PAT failed and Christoval was leading 36-0 at halftime.

Tommy Tomerlin of Christoval was trapped in the end zone for a safety in the third quarter, however in fourth quarter play Benny Balladares started Christoval scoring when he barreled one yard for the TD. Tony Wheeler grabbed a pass from Marcus Herrera and sprinted 25 yards for the TD. Corkey Solomon added the PAT.

Novice picked up a TD late in the fourth quarter to end the game Christoval 50, Novice 8.

LET ME TELL YOU A SECRET — Susie, a pet fawn at the Bois 'D Arc ranch near Christoval seems to be telling John Clark a secret from the heart of the pasture land. The baby fawn lives on the ranch and belongs to a herd of tame deer that visit the home of Travis Parker regularly.

Recipe Roundup

By LIZ CLARK

VINEGAR CANDY
Combine three cups sugar with one and half cups vinegar, and cook over a low heat, stirring constantly until sugar is dissolved.

Continue cooking until syrup reaches a soft-crack stage (270-290 degrees or until a few drops tested in cold water separate into threads which are hard but not brittle).

Pour into a large buttered platter and let cool until candy can be handled comfortably. Butter your hands and pull the taffy until it is white and almost firm. Stretch into a rope about one inch in diameter and snip pieces with scissors.

To the house of a friend, the way is never far.

TRANQUILIZING NIGHTCAP

Mix one teaspoon of dry skim milk powder into a cup of hot skim milk and flavor with a teaspoon of honey. Sip slowly.

For more tranquilizing calcium and vitamin D, nutritionist recommend two calcium tablets to be taken with the hot milk instead of habit-forming sleeping tablets.

Remember that hot-milk drinks, sipped slowly at bedtime are by far the best sleep inducers.

Pardee Homecoming Club Organized Recently

The Jack Pardee Homecoming Club was organized Nov. 8 at a meeting in the Christoval School gym. There were about 20 persons attending.

Jamboree Set Nov. 25

The Christoval Country and Western Jamboree will be held Saturday Nov. 25th in the Christoval Community Center.

All musicians are invited to bring their instruments and participate. There is no charge and the public is invited.

COUNTRY WISDOM

Different spices can add a new appeal to standard dishes.

A little nutmeg adds glamor to creamed vegetables or chicken soup, and brightens beef dishes and fish cakes.

Dill seed is delicious sprinkled on potatoes, cold slaw and macaroni.

A hint of caraway adds to most soups, meats and stews.

Rosemary gives a lift to chicken or pea soup and is excellent in veal and chicken dishes.

Sage is the perfect herb for pork and poultry. Add a sprinkle to cottage cheese too and try a pinch in vegetable soup.

Bay leaf adds a touch of class to tomatoes, onions, green beans, carrots, squash, beets and boiled potatoes.

The Almanac tells us to: Can fruit and vegetables when the moon is decreasing in light (after full moon) and in the watery signs, Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces.

Make sauerkraut on the increase of the moon or when the moon sign is turned up.

You can keep the water down on it this way and prevent it from spoiling.

Never gather fruit or vegetables in the watery signs or the new of the moon they will surely decay. Just before the full moon is the best time to gather for shipping.

Plant fall potatoes in July in the sign of capricorn, Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces and Taurus.

You're the winner!

My most heartfelt thanks to those of you who gave so much of your time and efforts to my campaign. Without you, there is no possible way we could have enjoyed the great moment of victory on Tuesday evening.

Kathy and I will be visiting with you soon, but for now, we want you to know that the real winners this year are the conservative people who are the backbone of the 21st Congressional District—and you are the ones who have so much to celebrate.

I'll do my best to be the hardest working representative this district has ever had!

Pol. ad paid for by Tom Loeffler for Congress Committee.

THANK YOU

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the voters who voted for me to serve as your county commissioner of Precinct 4. I will continue to work for all the people of Schleicher to the best of my ability.

IT'S COMING! IT'S COMING!

The "Real" Opening

Monday, November 20th from 4 until 8 — Please come and help us celebrate!

Also ~ we are planning something new and hope you think it is fun. So circle these dates and let us know if we can expect you for the luncheons. We are having two. One, November 27th, honoring George and Lilly, who will show their exquisite collection of all the things you'll love from the Orient. Another one on December 4th, honoring Rosa Claussen. She is a delight in herself, but her antique English porcelain is irresistible.

Reservations only for the luncheons
12:00 Noon ~ $7.50 ~ It's a feast!
Old fashioned gifts at each

Please call by November 25th for the Hus' and by December 1st for Rosa.
