Andy Bosmans Honored Friday At Andrews Game

Eldorado High School junior, Andy Bosmans was honored at Andrews last Friday night during their game against Sweetwater. The game clinched the District 2-4A championship for the Mustangs and was billed as "Andy Bosmans Night."

The game ball was signed by team members and was presented to Andy on Monday, along with donations totaling $1,100. The fund was started by the Andrews County News Publisher James Roberts, Coach Bill Shipman, and Van Percy.

Andy is one of Percy's most ardent fans and Van wanted to help the seriously ill youngster. Andy's face was one of immense pleasure as Van Percy presented the game ball to him.

Arriving in Eldorado by plane, Percy was accompanied by Coach Shipman, Guard Elvin Brownlee, quarterback Keith Brooks, pilot Alex Shaffer, and publisher James Roberts.

Andy was also presented a plaque showing Percy signing the ball.

In addition to the Andrews fund, the First National Bank of Eldorado has started a similar benefit, locally. Any donations may be mailed or taken by the bank. A contribution will be used to pay Andy's enormous medical bills.

Budgeting Questions Head County Agenda

The Schleicher County Commissioners met last Monday at their regularly scheduled time, 9:00 a.m. On this occasion, the commissioners conducted their business without the luxury of electricity, as Eldorado was without for over three hours.

Present at the meeting were commissioners Halvey Enochs, Richard Jones, Joe Christian, David Meador, newly elected Prissy Paxton, and the chief administrator officer, County Judge Johnny Griffin.

Also present at the semi-monthly meeting was County Treasurer A.G. McCormack. He reported to the court the financial status of Schleicher County. The commissioners then fulfilled the tedious task of examining each bill for which the county is responsible.

Subsequently, Judge Griffin voiced his concern over the huge amount of bills. Addressing the court's budgeting policy, he complained of the courts vulnerability for which the people of Schleicher County suffer. He said too many people and businesses are able to freely charge services to the county. Judge Griffin suggested revising the court's current policy.

Yet, Mr. McCormack commended the commissioners on its budgeting procedure during 1980. He said that Schleicher County will probably end this year operating in the black. Mr. McCormack said, "There won't be a lot of money left, but some. All the money has been utilized, which is the way the court finances should end up."

Also discussed by the commissioners was the policy which governs the use of the Memorial Building.

The current policy was upheld after deliberation. It states that the building will not be used by any person or business to make a profit. The building is to serve the people of Schleicher County and its non-profit organization.

Suit Filed Against County Commissioner

A two million dollar lawsuit has been filed by W.O. Breeding against James R. Alexander of Lubbock, Tx.

A $2,000,000 lawsuit had been filed by W.O. Breeding against James R. Alexander of Lubbock, Tx. and others in the 99th District Court in Lubbock County. The suit also named Schleicher County Commissioner Halvey Enochs as one of four defendants.

In the suit, brought before Judge Thomas Clinton, Breeding contends that the defendants "unlawfully dispossessed" them from the premises of the Keeney lease which is located in Lubbock County.

The Plaintiff, Breeding, in conjunction with the Big Four Oil and Gas Co. has obtained a temporary restraining order against the defendants. It will be effective until Thursday, Nov. 20. On that date Alexander, former attorney for the plaintiffs, is to appear in the 99th District Court.

Special Service Slated Nov. 27

The Annual Joint Thanksgiving Wordship will be held on Thursday, Nov. 27 at 9:30 a.m. This year's celebration will be held at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

The community wide event is sponsored by the Eldorado Ministerial Alliance. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Eagles End Season With Loss

Eldorado Suffers Shutout In Wall, 26-0

The Eldorado High School Eagles saw their season end in disappointment Friday night as they fell to an underrated Wall Hawk team. The weather made things even harder to endure for everyone. At game time the temperature was being blown about by northern winds. The 45 degree reading felt more like freezing. But the only thing truly frozen was the "goose egg" as the Eagle score. Meanwhile the Hawks managed to put 26 points on the board by going up and down the soggy turf.

Wall ended their season on a positive note posting the 26-0 victory over a disenchanted Eagle team. Their record will stand at 5-5 on the year and 4-2 in District 9-2A. The Eagles fell to 2-8, 1-5. Fortunately, their direction leads nowhere but up.

Also adding to EHS's woes was a mysteriously soggy field, especially along the visitors' sideline. Water was standing on the field during the games on Thursday. And the field soaked it up by Friday. It was a definite home field advantage. Defenders, mostly Eagles, were constantly slipping when they planted to break to the ball. Therefore, it usually found its way to its target.

The Eagle passing game left the game with Senior quarterback Keith McCormack. He was replaced for the second consecutive week by another talented senior, Mike Griffith. Griffith's assets are everything but passing. He was intercepted twice by the Hawks while completing five for 126 yards.

The rushing offense managed only 98 yards due mostly to the confident running of junior fullback/linebacker Eddie Montalvo. His place in the attack is right up the middle. Montalvo is a sure hitter on defense as well.

Once again the Eagles were smaller than their opponent. It was evident especially on defense as Wall rolled for 345 yards rushing, 176 yards passing in the blustery weather. With those kind of stats, it had to be warmer on their side of the field. For sure, it was drier.

Hawk quarterback, Brett Hahn scored their first touchdown, passed for another, and completed a two-point conversion while rushing for 176 yards on 17 carries.

Wall's first score came after McCormack slipped in that mud on a fake punt. They drove 50 yards for the score, mostly using the triple-option out of the "I" formation.

Co-captains Whit Paxton and Montalvo did a good job as usual, along with nose guard Robert Markell, in plugging up the middle.

Senior defensive backs John Paul Page, Gene Edmiston, and Griffith are going to be hard to replace. But for next year, Coach Johnny Clawson has a huge talent pool from which to draw.

He will also be relying on some J.V. personnel to fill the leadership void which will result from graduation. People like Griffith and guard Mark Wallis are going to be missed.

In all, 15 of 23 varsity members are now gone. The line will be built around returning letterman Eddie Harris. There is a bevy of fine backs in the J.V. ranks. With Montalvo back, star-to-be Greg Davidson could lead the Eagles into a new era with flashy backs Floyd Fay, Douglass Ussuary, Sammy Santellano and Brett Nikolauk.

So, for change, Coach Clawson now has a couple of advantages. He will profit from talent to improve on and time to accomplish it.

Girls Basketball Eldorado vs. Sonora Thursday 8:30 p.m. Eagle Gym

Food ranged from conventional chili to an assortment of meats. There was lots of cool beverages to wash it down.

The event was hosted by Mrs. Eleanora Love.

There was competition in a number of events. Such as horseshoe pitching, washer tossings, tobacco spittin, and "lemon rolling".

Contestants were judged on Best Recipe's and Showmanship.

There was a good crowd throughout the weekend to enjoy the friendly atmosphere.

The Sidewinders, a local band played for the crowds dancing pleasure.

Shoppers will have a wide variety of handmade goods and homemade foods to choose from as a group calling themselves The More, The Merrier holds its First Annual Christmas Bazaar next month.

The bazaar will be held at the Sonora Methodist Church Saturday, Dec. 6 from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Heading the effort are Lolabeth Jones and Sandra Cooper and the project has grown to the point that 40 local women are combining their talents in an effort to make the bazaar something unique.

"A lot of cities have them," Mrs. Jones said, "but we want to make this special it will draw shoppers from all over West Texas."

Everything on sale will be handmade and all the food items are the specialties of the individual cooks, she added.

Among the items to be sold are decorated Christmas foods, Christmas tree ornaments, arrangements for the home, handmade gifts, paintings, pen and inks, quilted accessories, western scene boxes and dolls.

Mrs Jones also said all food items would be sold fresh so they could be taken home and frozen for Christmas entertaining if necessary.

She said she got the idea for the bazaar while on a fishing trip over the Labor Day holidays.

"We have so many talented women in Sonora, I thought it would be extra nice if we could all get together to display our goods," she said.

She began calling ladies on her return home and the number, now at 40, had swollen to 30 in only two weeks.

She said the group, not affiliated with any particular church or club, had really enjoyed the preparations.

"It's been like a party." Special orders may also be placed with the women involved.

Others involved with the bazaar are Anna Eustace, Barbara Savell, Jaque Baker, Rex Anne Friess, Claire Powers, Sherry Johnson, Elizabeth Hemphill, Susan Hermes, Edwina Friess, Jeanette Andrews, Irene Speers,

Also, Tommy Whitehead Diana Condra, Judy Miles Celeste Prugel, Laverne Benton, Diana Trainer, Julie Pollard, Dena Porter, Glen Sheppard, Sherry Belk, Becky Sterling, Pat Gentry, Vidette Sallee, Bridgette Griffen,

EHS Studies Electric Shock Prevention

Sudden-death hazards were animated by Joe L. Smetana, Waco Safety Director for the Texas Farm Bureau as part of a graphic electric shock prevention demonstration held Nov. 10-11, 1980, at Menard, Christoval & Schleicher High Schools.

The average modern home has 120-volt or 240-volt, 60-cycle alternating household electrical current with a capacity of over 100 amperes. Electricity is constantly seeking ground. Unfortunately the human body can complete the electrical circuit. Medical authorities agree that if the amount of current required to light a 15-watt bulb, which is only 1/10 of an ampere, should flow through your heart, death might result in just one second. Most homes have a number of 15, 20, 30 and 40 ampere circuits, protected with either plug-type fuses or circuit breakers for fire prevention. Fuses or circuit breakers will not prevent electric shock.

Smetana achieved the animated effect of electric shock to the human body, via arm-to-arm and arm-to-foot with the use of a special plastic figure representing man - the "misuser" of electricity. The plastic man, several simulated household appliances and portable power tools have special wiring and bulbs that actually light up - producing the animation.

With each sequence of accident producing events, both inside and outside the "danger house," Smetana offered prevention and protective methods such as: (1) make sure the prevention and protective methods such as (1) make sure the entire electrical system is grounded; (2) ground all major appliances; (3) maintain and don't break off the 3-prong plug; (4) attach the grounding "pig tail" wire on adaptors; (5) use "double insulated" portable power tools; (6) use ground fault interrupters; (7) disconnect electric power before servicing or cleaning; (8) be extra cautious of electric service and power lines when moving equipment, aluminum ladders and pipes; (9) beware of overhead power lines when putting up or taking down T.V. or Base C.B. antennas (10) flying kits and model airplanes near electric wires is dangerous; (11) when vehicles collide with electric power poles, electrically charged wires fall - causing severd shock hazard until the power is turned off. Do not attempt to get out of the energized vehicle unless it is involved in fire. If you must get out, open the door wide, make sure there are no down wires and then jump free of the energized vehicle. Regarding first aid - Smetana warns - "with high voltage shock, primary first aid is mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to restore breathing; however, with low voltage (household) low voltage (household current) shock, the victim usually requires CPR-cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (heart-lung resuscitation) to restore both heart beat and breathing. External cardiac compressions administered manually are alternated with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation in order to stimulate the natural functions of the heart and lungs, and so to save a life.

Shock Prevention--Joe Smetana, Texas Farm Bureau Safety Director, points out how the human body can become a path to ground (completing an electrical circuit), resulting in a fatal shock even from low voltage electrical current. The demonstration how to prevent electric shock was presented Nov. 10-11, 1980 at the Schleicher, Christoval and Menard High Schools.

J.V. Claim District Championship

The classy Eldorado junior varsity posted its eighth victory without a loss in the seasons last game at Wall. by way of a 32-7 score, the talented group gave the coaching staff reason for high hopes. For it is this team on which Coach Clawson and his staff will build. Coaches Mitchell and Copeland have laid a solid foundation for Coach Clawson to add to. With the ability and technique mostly there, all this bunch has to do is utilize the off-season to get larger and stronger.

Captains for the last game were guard Shane Wells, fullback Randy Lentz, Greg Garlitz, and quarterback Greg Davidson. They won the toss and elected to receive. It didnt take long for the Eagles to take charge.

Floyd Fay gathered the opening kickoff in at his own 10 and raced 80 yards to the 10 of Wall. Davidson swept wide untouched for the score and before the fans could settle in their seats, the score was 6-0.

The second score came on the Eagles' next possession. After Wall was forced to punt, Davidson returned the ball to the 35. Using his fine backs Ussary, Fay, and Santello, Davidson moved the team down the field. he got his second score from the three yard line. The PAT failed but the lead was upped to 12-0 with 3:00 left in the first quarter.

The Hawks took Gene Edmiston's kickoff to their 45. They turned a first down and were aided by a facemask penalty which put the ball on the 23. A quick pass ove the middle netted 18 yards before Edmiston made the stop at the 5. The tailback sliced over right gurard for the Hawks first score. With the PAT it was 12-7 after the first quarter

The J.V. took advantage of their specialty teams to set up the next score. The Eagles were held and Lamar Harder came in to punt. He sailed the ball all the way to the four yard line.

James Woodward played good defense along with Lentz to force a punt. There Richard Gibson rushed the punter and dropped him on the one. From there it took one play for Santellano to get the score and an 18-7 lead.

After forcing another Hawk punt, Davidson ignited an 85 yard scoring drive. The Eagles used their sound running game to march down the field in 10 plays. It was again Santellano going off tackle for the score which was now 24-7.

The Hawks last touch-down was a result of Douglass Ussary's fumble recovery at the Hawk 40. From inside the five the Eagles tried twice. Coach Mitchel inserted back-up quarterback Michael Phillips at split end. On third down he dropped back and caught the pitch from Davidson, then found Hardee in the end zone which made it 32-7 with the PAT by Lentz.

Wall did score again but it was more of a present as the Eagles felt generous because of only two touch-downs being scored on them until then. The final count was 32-15 and the J.V. remains unbeaten.

8th Grade Skunks Wall

Coach Craig Bessent's eighth grade team shutout the Wall Hawks and ended their season with a 5-3 record. The Eagles fought back from a 2-3 record and posted three consecutive wins to finish the season strongly.

Captains for the game were Ron Sauer, Wade Wallis, Steve Bowery, and Sonny Dean. They won the toss and elected to receive. Both teams found the ball hard to hold on to as they exchanged possession a couple of times early in the contest. Seth Robinson came up with an early recovery for the Eagles.

Quarterback Tim McAngus carried for 25 yards and a first at the Hawk 35. Chris Woodward followed up with a first of his own via a dive play up the middle. A personal foul nullified a 35 yard touchdown run by McAngus. On third down, McAngus pitched to half-back Brett Nikolauk who threw the ball back to his quarterback after he had slipped behind the defenders. McAngus swept down the left sideline for the score. This time it stuck. With 3:05 left in the half, the Eagles were on top to stay.

Victor Gutierrez kicked-off for the Eagles and the defense forced a punt from the Hawks. But they soon turned the ball over to the home team on their 33. However the gun sounded to end the half before they could benefit from the break. Wall received the second half kick-off. But the defense was still stricky and refused to budg. The Hawks punted to Nikolauk without having made a first down after three quarters of play.

The Eagles took over on their 35 and took off toward the Hawk goal. McAngus carried for eight before a Hawk cut him at the 43. Then the always tough Nikolauk bulled his way down to the 15 yardline. McAngus carried more than his share of Hawks down to the four. It was Woodward who got the score from there. Again the PAT failed, but the eighth grade Eagles were ahead 12-0.

They kicked-off to the Hawks who started from their 35. They tried a risky pass into the flat. But McAngus stepped in front of the receiver to snatch the ball and all that was left was 35 yards of soggy turf. He navigated the distance in fine fashion to add to the Eagles' lead. He then zipped the ball to Gutierrez in the endzone for the two-point conversion, which made the final score 20-0.

On the next Wall possession, Wesley Sparks got into the Hawk backfield to mess things up by causing a fumble. He recovered the loose ball at the 15. But the Eagles were tired of scoring and Wall had one last chance to make a first down. They didn't.

Sonny Dean and crew held the Hawks again as they had all night long. It was Dean who made the last tackle, which ended the season for the high flying Eagles.

Flanker Tommy Martinez scoots for yardage against the Hawks. With him will go his valuable speed.

Seventh Grade Closes With Win

The Eldorado seventh grade Eagles pounded a victory out of the Wall Hawks Thursday away from home. In the season finale for both teams, Coach Lefester's bunch decided they wanted to end the season on a winning note.

The guys who have been doing it all season long for the seventh grade came through again. This time they mustered up a 20-7 victory to close out the season with a 5-2 record.

Leading scorers for the season were quarterback Eloy Martinez, halfbacks Jimmy Turbeville, Duwain Moody, and Mike Bellman. They operated behind the likes of Matthew Dahlberg, Steven Saldivar, and Brain Gillespy. Coach Lefester reflected, "The good thing about only having 13 players is that I don't have any trouble playing everyone." And everyone had a hand in the last victory of the season.

Martinez and Tuberville scored the first half points through the air. At halftime the Eagles had a 14-0 lead. They came out for the second half ready for more.

Bellman took a pitch 60 yards down the muddy field to the Wall 20 yardline. From there the Eagles mastered a tricky "hitch and pitch" play which carried to the five. Then Tuberville took in a five yard scoring strike from ace quarterback, Martinez. The third quarter ended 20-0.

The Hawks scored after a long drive, but it was all they were to get from the Eagle defense. Gillespy played some "heads-up" ball to keep the Hawks in check.

Girls Tip-off 1980 Basketball Season

The Eldorado High School Girls' basketball team dropped their season opener in Sonora last Saturday. In sloppy play which typifies early games, the Eglettes fell short of a 42-39 score. The Sonora girls sank two baskets in the last 19 seconds to snatch the lead, and post the win. The big difference was at the free throw line, where Sonora committed only seven fouls, but Eldorado had 15 called against them. Scoring for the Eglettes were Lori Patton-12, Linda Gentry-10, Lori Whitaker-8

M. Logan-4, L. Lazano-3, and Kara Homer-2. This week the Freshman, J.V., and varsity play at home against Rankin. Action starts at 6:30 p.m.

Extension Notes

Field dressing deer--After killing a deer, promptly tag and prepare it for field dressing by propping the animal on its back, using rocks or other available objects. First, remove external sex organs and cut down to the pelvic bone; then up to the breastbone. Don't cut the skin any further if the head is to be mounted. Remove intestines and skin the animal. Hang the animal by its hind legs for cooling and aging, says a wildlife specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Shot placement key to deer hunt--Accurate shot placement is mandatory for a quick, humane deer kill, says a wildlife specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. This means making sure your rifle is working properly and is sighted in at different ranges. Knowing a deer's skeletal structure and exact location of vital organs and arteries is helpful in placing the shot. A lung shot is best since it's effective even when somewhat off-target, and the lungs form the biggest vital area.

Hunters should know deer habitat--Knowing a little something about deer and their behavior can increase the chances of a successful deer hunt, says a wildlife specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Since deer have a keen sense of smell, a hunter needs to neutralize human odor by bathing and rinsing his clothes in a bicarbonate of soda solution or to use a masking scent. Deer also have limited peripheral vision, so a hunter can move forward while a deer is feeding without being detected. Since deer are not conditioned to expect danger from above, elevated or tree stands can be advantageous.

Texas Sesquicentennial Commission Plans Logo Contest

The Texas Sesquicentennial of 1986, Texas' 150th birthday celebration, is on the way, and all Texans are invited to the party. Preparations for the birthday are being kicked off with a statewide contest to devise an official logo -- a simple and readily-identifiable symbol, or trademark, of the Texas Sesquicentennial.

The logo contest is one of the first activities of the Texas Sesquicentennial Commission. Created by the 66th legislature in 1979, the Commission is charged to "coordinate celebrations of the 150th anniversary of Texas' independence as a Republic and progress as a state." These celebrations will highlight the "historic, economic, cultural, environmental and social aspects of Texas."

During the planning stages of the Sesquicentennial, the Commission functions as a clearinghouse of information between state and local levels. The Commission will also work to encourage state, national, and international participation, to develop standards for sanctioning local groups, and to plan for the creation of commemorative products, such as stamps and medallions.

The Commission publishes a special newsletter of the Sesquicentennial, the Texas National Dispatch. The Dispatch is a revival of a newspaper published in the early days of the Texas Republic at Washington-on-the-Brazos, and will be available free of charge.

The contest to develop a visual symbol, trademark, or logo, of the Sesquicentennial is open to all Texans. Contest rules are as follows: (1) Only one entry per person; (2) All are eligible except Commission members, staff, and their immediate families; (3) Designs must be submitted on one side of a plain, white 8 1/2" x 11 paper; (4) Entrants' names, addresses, phone numbers, and school affiliations (if any) are to be printed on the back; (5) All entries must be postmarked no later than San Jacinto Day, April 21, 1981 and the winner and runners-up will be announced on May 5, 1981 in Austin.

Holiday Hints

The next time you want to stir up a batch of Bloody Marys, why not try Danish Marys instead? Made with Denmark's Aalborg Akvavit and plain tomato juice, it's a delicious alternative to vodka--they can be uncommonly good.

You might go all out and plan a holiday Danefest. The Swedes call it a smorgasbord, the Danes call it kolde bord, but Somerset Importers--U.S. agents for Aalborg Akvavit--renamed it. Whatever its name, it remains a lavish, buffet-style feast in the grand manner.

Jerry Lackey's Country Folk

However, before the meeting started, Mrs. Paul Jansa and Dorothy Schwertner were still talking about the 3,000 people that served sausage, turkey and dressing with all the trimmings the Sunday prior.

I am reminded of a holiday feast we had one time in an old church in Fredericksburg. The menu focused on wild game prepared in a way only my German relatives of Gillespie County can. From the locally grown grapes that made the wine to the venison, turkey, dove, etc. the evening was gourmand's delight.

Well, the more I write, the fatter I feel. We must move on to another subject. Turning back to the weather, Harold Price, Concho County ranchman, says his country is looking good going into winter, "but one more rain wouldn't hurt anything."

Perfect weather permitted cotton stripping in recent weeks. On a trip to Lubbock last week, I noticed most of the cotton harvest complete, however it is balled up at the gins. It will likely be 1981 before the gins catch up. Despite the fact a dry and hot summer brought a shortage of cotton maturity, a fairly good yield in some areas is evident. Steve Hoelscher said some of his irrigated cotton has made good this season.

Before closing, let's post notice of a Team Roping scheduled for November 29 and 30 at the Taylor County Coliseum in Abilene. Sponsored by John Stokes of Sonora, the event will benefit the West Texas Rehab Center.

Team roping will include three events: Century Ropings, where the team must total 100 years or more; 80 Year Old Roping, where the team totals 80 years or more; and Open Roping.

Summer temperatures managed to drop just in time, within hours, of the opening of deer hunting season in West Texas.

Last weekend was a most unusual occurrence for weather; a cold northern coming into our area on the heels of the hottest days (93 degrees) in the history of November; a Gulf storm (a month or more later than ever) coming into the state from the south.

With plenty of wood stacked on the back porch ready to feed the fireplace, I'm ready for winter, so let

FACTS & FIGURES

Heating Water by the Sun

It may surprise some to know that solar water heaters are not new. There were thousands in use in Florida and the Southwest during the 1930s. Now, they're becoming increasingly popular in the Northeast. In 1979 alone, the number of installations doubled from 5,000 to 10,000 thanks to the efforts of the Northeast Solar Energy Center, which is operated in Massachusetts by the not-for-profit Northern Energy Corp.

The average family of four can save 40 to 60 percent of its annual water heating bill by heating that water with a solar system. A homeowner can get a 40 percent federal tax credit for having a system installed. Some states also have a state tax credit. This can bring the cost of installation well below $2,000.

A recent government study indicated that 77 percent of Americans don't know that heating water consumes more energy in a year than refrigerating food, drying clothes and lighting homes, combined.
