IRAAN COMING TO TOWN FRIDAY

Eldorado Eagles open season on winning note

BY TERRY B. NEILL

Good football teams make their own breaks, according to coaches and fans alike. Last Friday night the Eldorado Eagles made at least 11 breaks and upset state-ranked Mertzon, 8-2.

Playing on a wet and sloppy field the War Birds came up with nine fumbles and a pair of interceptions by Russ Dacy to turn back a fast and talented Mertzon squad.

"Our kids really got after them, especially on defense. We were pleased with our intensity level and real pleased to get the win. They have an outstanding unit and they did just what we thought they would try and do.

"The weather was the equalizer, however. We wanted to keep them in their end of the field and take advantage of the sloppy conditions and we did," first-year head coach Armando San Miguel said.

Eldorado scored early in the second period when fullback Troy Daniels blasted in on a six-yard run. Holder (quarterback) Martine Espinoza bobbled the snap from center on the PAT attempt but found Jason Stensby in the endzone for two points instead.

The War Birds had the scoring opportunity after pouncing on a Mertzon fumble at the six. "We took advantage of it and make it stand up," San Miguel added.

Eldorado gave up a safety in the fourth quarter to avoid gambling with a kick from the endzone and the scoring was concluded. Because of the rain, which ended in the first half, EHS was only able to amass 53 yards rushing and nine first downs.

"Mertzon threw the ball well in the mud, but then they are extremely talented," San Miguel said.

Eldorado suffered a major loss when all-state lineman candidate Tommy Prendergast went down with a serious knee injury. Prendergast underwent surgery in San Angelo this week to repair cartilage and tendon damage and will be lost for the season.

"We'll miss Tommy. He was a steady, solid player. The hit that hurt him was not a vicious one—just one of those things," San Miguel reported.

The coaches cited Mitchell Bradley, Jeff Hausenfluck, Ray Carroll, Dan Shriver and Dacy on defense and Prendergast, Dacy, Daniels, Carroll and Bradley on offense.

This Friday night the Eagles will meet another state-ranked squad when the Iraan Braves come to town for an 8 p.m. kickoff. Iraan, 53-6 winners over the War Birds last year, is ranked 25th in Texas among Class AA teams.

"We've been having good skull sessions this week getting prepared for Iraan and I think our kids will be up for the game. They should be able to remember last year and get ready," San Miguel said.

According to the Harris Rating System the Eagles will be six-point underdogs again this week.

The Braves are led by outstanding running back Chewi Ulate, a 140-pound senior speedster who has clocked a 11.2 100 meters.

"Iraan is young, has good size and a new quarterback who moved in from Rankin. They run the wishbone on offense and a '29' defense, and have been operating under the same system and tradition for years," San Miguel reports.

Eldorado has not settled on a replacement for Prendergast, San Miguel said. "We're looking at several possibilities. It just depends on practice this week," he concluded.

NO FUN....

Viewing Eldorado's first football game of the season from 20 miles away in a driving rainstorm proved to be little fun last Friday night.

Instead of stalking our accustomed path up and down the sideline this publisher ran afoul of an old man and the weather and had to miss the Eagles' season-opening win.

To say that the last three weeks has been a "trying" experience would be too easy. It's been pure hell!

Now, don't get us wrong, we love the rain. Anyone who comes from Fort Stockton appreciates rainfall like Custer would have appreciated reinforcements.

The old man pulled in front of us, we hit the brakes, slid off the road and found lots of mud for all four wheels. Have you ever tried to flag down help in the dark during a good, old-fashioned West Texas downpour?

But, looking at it from the bright side, at least no one was injured and the truck wasn't damaged. About all that was affected was my Eagle spirit and pocketbook.

NO SKILLS AT ALL....

Every now and then someone is born with no mechanical ability whatsoever. Yours truly surely fits that category.

Just about anyone else we know could buy and put together a new barbecue pit. Just about anyone.....

We even read the instructions for the "Easy to assemble!" pit, but still couldn't figure it out. Actually we cooked on it later, but somehow it just doesn't look exactly like it is supposed to.

This newsman's friends are usually amazed that we can keep our computers running so smoothly and even fix their equipment when we can't drive a nail straight or use a simple screwdriver.

Somehow those instructions, supposedly designed for mentally handicapped folks like us, just don't cut it. We can't figure out how to "Screw in two 'so' and 'so' screws into the left rear flange as depicted in exhibit C, then connect to the rod shown in exhibit D, before adding two 'so' and 'so' screws to the back front side of exhibit Z!"

Jeepers, who do they think they write those things for anyway? You don't have to be a jet mechanic to read them but it would certainly help.

So we got the legs on, the grid holders in

INTERESTED PERSONS NOTE! Chamber session set this month

Dr. Fred Cross, Community Development Specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, will be in Eldorado on Tuesday, September 23, to present information on developing a Chamber of Commerce or similar type organization for Eldorado and Schleicher County.

This is in response to interest expressed by community leaders who want to promote this area. Dr. Cross has worked with other counties in the state in organizing this type of group.

Business people, ranchers, farmers and any other interested persons are encouraged to attend. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Building.

BARBARA JACKSON APPOINTED

Council loses, gains member

Eldorado lost a city councilwoman Tuesday night but gained a new one when Bobbie Sanders submitted her resignation and Barbara Jackson was appointed to take her place.

Ms. Jackson was appointed until the city elections, held annually on the first Saturday of April.

Mrs. Sanders resigned after her husband, Jerroll Sanders, was appointed municipal judge last month by the council. Under state law Mrs. Sanders could not serve on the city council because of the "conflict of interest" statute.

Mrs. Sanders' letter of resignation was read by mayor pro-tem Edwin "Rooster" Jackson, and "regretfully" accepted by the city council.

In other action the council:
(1) Met with Shirley and Delbert Overstreet, local citizens, concerning problems with the recent gas outage, which reportedly caused damages to their laundry, a tree in the alley damaging a fence at their residence and gas piping at the laundry.

(2) Administered new Municipal Judge

Jerroll Sanders his oath of office, and reviewed with him his schedule for required schooling for the position.

(3) Approved the minutes from the August meeting.

(4) Reviewed and approved August financial reports, fiscal year-end reports and a comparative study between the current year and prior year. The August tax report was also circulated.

(5) Rescinded a motion from the last council meeting to appoint an agent of record for the city's Blue Cross and Blue Shield policy.

The insurance company had contacted city officials concerning the action and related that such an appointment could raise the city's premiums by 11 percent.

(6) Heard a report from city water and street superintendent Clay Long concerning paving, gas line repairs, personnel changes and the Railroad Commission safety evaluation.

(7) Voted to advertise for bids for the old civil defense building in Eldorado, with the stipulation that the building be torn down within six months of the property transfer.

The Sweetwater Fire Department has already taken possession of the civil defense hospital, leaving the vacant and decaying building.

(8) Clarified the city's leave policy regarding funerals. Leave with pay will be granted only for immediate family members as defined in the city policy manual. Leave without pay would be granted in other cases.

(9) Approved the formulation of a month-to-month budget. The new monthly budget will give councilmen a tool to gauge and control the city's annual budget and fiscal condition.

(10) Reviewed a proposed amendment to traffic ordinance 109-82 which would establish location for dead end signs, additional stop signs, and u-turn and keep right signs at the United States Post Office in Eldorado.

(11) Established a $10 fee for intra-town transfers.

Beta Sigma Phi meets

It's that time again - Beta Sigma Phi met Monday, September 8 with 14 members present.

Following roll call, Brenda Norris gave the treasurer's report.

Correspondence from the International Office was a letter concerning any new pledges the chapter have this year. If any member has a new pledge, they should turn it in to Kim-et Nelson as soon as possible.

Stacey Haynes read thank-you notes from Operation Love and the Schleicher County Emergency Service for donations made last spring.

Members then discussed money-making projects for the upcoming year. Kathy Smith is discussing a co-sponsorship of the Halloween Carnival with Marcy Willis and her TAFE group. With Halloween being on Friday and a home town game the time and date are still not set.

Dee Dee Meyer is checking on a travel packet for another money-making project. "If we can get the packet we will be selling donation tickets for the chance to go to a Dallas Cowboy game and all the trimmings," a spokesman said.

The Social committee reported some new ideas for the upcoming year along with our regular socials. One such new event would be attending a concert at the city auditorium at San Angelo. The problem is trying to decide which one.

The next meeting, September 22, the club will have the Ritual of Jewels for Dee Dee Meyer and Becky Taylor. The Perceptor Ritual will also be held for Fayla Cheatham, Mary Leigh Dunagan, Betty Hanusch, Glenda Harris, Flora Hubble, Barbara Jackson, Sarah Yates, and Dorothy Clark. Everyone is asked to be present.

Flora Hubble gave the cultural program entitled "Once Upon a Time", a beginning of the Beta Sigma Phi Organization.

The sunshine gift was won by Glenda Harris with refreshments served by Kim-et Nelson and Barbara Jackson.

GRADUATES - Mrs. Patricia Villalon was graduated from the Howard College L.V.N. nursing program on Monday, August 25 in San Angelo. She graduated third in her class of 26 with a 96.00 grade point average. She also received a perfect attendance certificate. Mrs. Villalon received her E.M.T. certification in February, 1985 and has served on the Schleicher County Ambulance Service most of the time since that date. Mrs. Villalon's graduation was attended by her husband Alfred Villalon, her daughters Glenda Steffens from England and Gene Reynolds from Oregon, and her one-year-old grandson Robert Dell Reynolds also from Oregon. Nancy Wagoner, Sue and Becky Jones, all of Eldorado, and Leah and Arron Dobzevitz from San Angelo also attended.

Hospital Auxiliary meets

The Hospital Auxiliary had a number of items to discuss as they met in the lobby of the Hospital Thursday morning, September 4.

Four new members were recognized; Helen Pfluger, Alma Corbel, Bessie Jones and Gina Sauer.

Nancy Graves, activities director, announced that the annual barbecue, sponsored by the Schleicher County Hospital

Board, will be September 20, at 7 p.m. on the patio.

All Nursing Home residents and their families and auxiliary members are invited. Auxiliary members are asked to bring salad or dessert.

Two nursing students are attending ASU on a scholarship paid for by the Auxiliary. They are Charlotte Mobley and Brenda Stueky.

Nursing Home residents will be taken to Sonora September 13 for the 2 p.m. performance of the Tri-City Shrine Circus. "Anyone who can help take or load residents call Nancy Graves at the nursing home," a spokesman said.

The Beauty Shop is still being maintained and operators are volunteering their time. It was voted to buy new rollers to be used by operators.

The birthday party will be held September 11 at 2:30 p.m. in the Dining Room.

TEXAS FARM RECEIPTS TO BE BELOW '85

While 1985 was a tough year economically for Texas farmers, 1986 likely will be worse.

Top of The Divide

BY THOMAS GIOVANNITI

Because of the nature of the business I am in, I have to make frequent long distance phone calls. Here in rural America we don't get to pick and choose our long distance carrier and that concerns me.

I don't know about you, but every time I place a long distance call, some operator comes on the line and asks me "What is your number?" Although she never has said that she wanted my phone number, giving my phone number seems to satisfy her. I'm a little worried, though, about a phone company that doesn't know which number I am calling from.

I mean, they have all that supposedly sophisticated equipment and they don't know what number I am calling from. I could give them any number I wanted to and it would be a month before anyone would know. The first person to know would be the renter of the number I did give the operator.

The telephone company wouldn't know; they don't even know where I am calling from the day I call, so I don't know how they would ever find out a month later.

Now, I don't plan to use anyone else's number but my own, but it is a little worrisome.

On the other hand, I know of someone who placed an ad in our little country paper, placed a home phone number in it and it didn't take the sleuths of the phone company over a day to call and accuse this fine person of trying to put one over on General Tel.

The company wasn't just curious about this person's attempt to gain a little business, they were down right accusatory. You would think this person had stayed up nights just trying to think of a way to trick the phone people. You see, there are different rates for home phones and for business phones.

Now that may be all well and good, but if we have a phone at home does that mean we can never receive a business call there? Is some phone employee lurking around watching through our windows ready to knock on our homestead door whenever we look a little too businesslike while using the phone?

Is it a business call when your pastor calls and asks you to increase your donation? I could go on and on about the utter confusion that this business/home use determination could cause. People will become over anxious every time the phone rings, fearing that if they answer it and it's a business, their rate will suddenly go up. Who could live with this tension?

And what about we business phone users? Will our rate suddenly go down when we call home to find out what's for dinner? What do you think????

New divisions slated for local show

Each year the Schleicher County Livestock Show has grown. 1987 is no exception.

New divisions added this year are broilers, meat goats and range angora goats pen of three. Classification and validation of most livestock will be October 18.

Contact the extension agent for more information, a spokesman said. The show will be held January 16 and 17.

Visits reported

Belle McAfee and her daughter and son-in-law Rene and John Calcote were hostess to Mrs. McAfee's two sons and families from Katy and Amarillo recently.

They were: Jay Lee McAfee, his wife, Euna Mae, and daughter, Pattie; Ronnie McAfee, his wife, Pat, and daughters, Shannon, Teal and Reagan from Katy; Rene and John Calcote, their son, Gary and Janet Warnock and their son, Charley; two daughters, Susan Schweinning, her son, Joe Dan and daughter, Mayce from McAllen; and Charlene Warnock from DeSoto.

Lots of fun, food and fellowship was enjoyed by all.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 4, 1986

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 15 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to provide by general law for the apportionment of the value of railroad rolling stock among the counties in which the property of the railroad is located for purposes of property taxation, and would delete the requirement that the Comptroller participate in making the allocation. To comply with both statutory and constitutional law, the apportionment currently is being made by the State Property Tax Board in conjunction with the Comptroller.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to provide by general law for the apportionment of the value of railroad rolling stock among counties for purposes of property taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 33 proposes a constitutional amendment that would replace the constitutional requirement that the subject of a bill be expressed in its title with a mandate that each house of the legislature adopt rules of procedure that would require the subject of each bill to be expressed in its title in a manner that gives the legislature and the public reasonable notice of that subject. Determining compliance with the rule would be the responsibility of the legislature. Currently, a law is invalidated if a court finds its caption is defective. The amendment would provide that past and future enactments may not be held void on the basis of an insufficient title.

The amendment also would eliminate the suggestion that the state's laws be revised every ten years, and instead would provide for continuing revision of state laws.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment requiring each house to include in its rules of procedure a rule that each bill contain a title expressing the bill's subject, and providing for the continuing revision of state laws."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that would permit the Legislature to authorize any county, city, town, or other political subdivision to use public funds or credit to pay insurance premiums on nonassessable life, health, or accident policies. Due to the prohibition in the constitution against the lending of credit and granting of public money, political subdivisions currently are prohibited from becoming shareholders in associations such as mutual-insurance companies, in which policyholders are shareholders. A nonas-sessable mutual insurance policy does not allow a company to raise capital by assessing the policyholder an extra amount on a premium. This amendment will allow mutual insurance companies and stock companies to bid for life and health group policies of political subdivisions. Public liability will be limited to the payment of premiums specified in the contract.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment allowing political subdivisions the opportunity to engage in and transact business with authorized mutual insurance companies in the same manner as with other insurance companies."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would repeal the prohibition against branch banking by state banks and would allow state banks and national banks domiciled in this state to establish and operate banking facilities at locations within the county or city where they are domiciled. The amendment would also authorize the Legislature to permit a state bank or a national bank domiciled in this state to engage in business at more than one place if it acquires a failed state bank or national bank domiciled in this state.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows:

"The constitutional amendment to provide that a bank may offer full service banking at more than one location within the city or county where its principal facility is located, subject to limitations and restrictions provided by law."

Annie Speck services held

Annie Speck, 84, died Monday in Saint John's Hospital in San Angelo, following a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the First Presbyterian Church of Eldorado with Dr. Ron Sutto officiating. Burial was in Eldorado Cemetery, directed by Kerbow Funeral Home.

Mrs. Speck was a pioneer ranch woman who was born in 1902 in Tom Green County. She married Henry Speck on February 28, 1925. They had ranch holdings in Schleicher, Menard, Edwards and Brewster counties.

She was preceded in death by her husband on October 17, 1962. After his death, Mrs. Speck was very active in Eastern Star and enjoyed playing dominoes and 42 with her many friends.

She is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Henry and Joyce Speck of Eldorado, Fred and Sue Speck of Rocksprings; six grandchildren, Barbara Ann Box of Sherman, Connie Sue Hansen of Plano, Walter Speck of Abilene, Scott Speck of Houston, Stuart Speck of Cisco, and Dr. Fred Speck of Kerrville; seven great-grandchildren, Trey Speck, Sarah Speck and Lara Speck all of Kerrville, David and Lori Hansen of Plano, and Jennifer Speck and Joe Speck of Abilene; one brother, Harvey Dannheim; one sister, Roxie White of Christoval; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Scott Speck, Stuart Speck, Fred Speck, Walter Speck, Rick Hansen, and Von Box.

Honorary pallbearers were John Powell, David Powell, Charles Ray Pfluger, Ford Oglesby, all of Eldorado, Marvin Mirike of Sheffield, and Fred Mathews of Uvalde.

The family requests memorials be sent to a favorite charity.

Meeting held at church

Presbyterian Women were hostess to an Interdenominational Women's gathering Saturday morning September 6 in First Presbyterian Church in Eldorado.

Sally Green from First Presbyterian Church in Midland was the guest speaker. Mrs. Green is a well known speaker and is called on to give lectures throughout the area.

She used a chalkboard and illustrations to bring out facts which she was using in her lecture. She also used posters for outlines on her subject of prayer. She was a humorous speaker and captivated her audience with humor as well as more serious moments.

A delicious luncheon was served by the Presbyterian Women after the lecture.

Members of First Baptist Church, Methodist Church, Christian Church, Church of Christ, and some from Presbyterian Churches were present.

ESTROUS SYNCHRONIZATION
Synchronizing estrous in beef heifers and exposing them to bulls 30 days earlier than the rest of the cow herd are two practices that can pay dividends for cattlemen. A demonstration by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Victoria County showed that early exposed synchronized heifers will return $25.25 more per head

Announcing

Donna Moore and Dan Fimbres are proud to announce the arrival of their daughter, Jessica Devlyn.

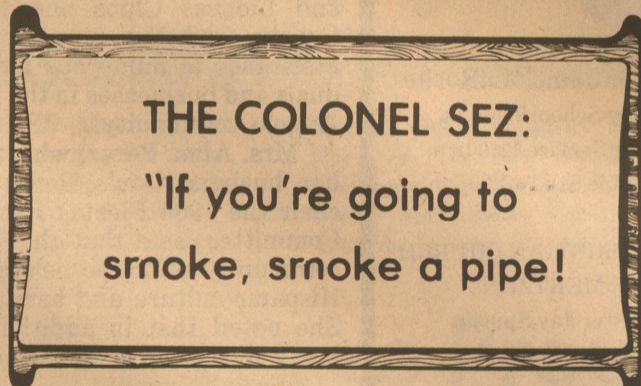

Jessica was born at 7:06 p.m. on September 1 and weighed eight pounds and seven ounces.

L.E.O.N. sets barbecue

A guaranteed diet plan will not be found at L.E.O.N.'s annual barbecue. In fact there are excellent reasons why you don't want to continue your present diet plan that is failing you right now.

This Friday, behind the United Methodist Church of Eldorado, in the Christian Education Building, you will find hot, tender, juicy, and prepared (no dishes) barbecue, with other assorted foods, waiting for you.

Now, coming to the barbecue is not a lack of will power, but your effort to help send a kid to the youth group (Methodist-Presbyterian) ski trip. You won't be breaking your diet by coming; you're doing your community a service.

Now that you have a good reason to come, make the sane choice. Who needs a guaranteed diet plan when you have the L.E.O.N. annual barbecue Friday at 5 to 7 p.m. Tape this article to your refrigerator as a reminder. Missing the barbecue could cause depression and severe hunger pains.

International luncheon set

The Irion County Extension Homemakers Club will be sponsoring an "International Luncheon" on September 15 from 11:30 to 1 p.m. at the Mertzton Community Center.

Tickets are now on sale for $6.50 each. The dinner will be catered by Southern Seas Catering of San Angelo. Everyone is invited to attend.

Celebration set Saturday

The Mexican-American people of Eldorado will be celebrating Mexico's Independence from Spain this Saturday, September 13.

The festivities will begin at 10 a.m. with a colorful parade down Main Street, followed by fun, games and food on the courthouse square.

Awards will be given for the best Mexican costumes. There will be Pinatas for both children and adults. Food booths featuring delicious Mexican food will be set up beginning at 9 a.m.

There is still plenty of booth spaces available. Highlight of the celebration will be the crowning of the Diez-y-Seis de Septiembre Queen at 9 p.m. during the dance which will be held at the rodeo slab.

The reigning Queen will relinquish her crown to the lucky winner of this year's contest. Music will be provided by Johnny Reyes of Ballinger.

This year's celebration is being hosted by Grupo Amistad, Eldorado's own non-profit organization.

IN SAN ANGELO THIS WEEKEND
Fiestas Patrias scheduled

The grandest Fiestas Patrias yet for San Angelo begins Saturday, September 13 at noon when food booths open and a free stage starts entertainment at 1 p.m. There will be a reception by invitation for more than 150 Hispanic educators from ASU, Goodfellow, and the school districts at 4, followed by the official Opening Ceremony at 6 p.m.

Early evening will be highlighted by La Perla De Las Fiestas Patrias Scholarship Pageant at 7, with dancing to the music of Los Tejanos from 9 p.m.

A moving Ecumenical Service on the Fort Concho Parade Grounds is scheduled for noon to 1 p.m. Sunday. Following the service, food booths will open and entertainment begins on the free stage. A Menudo cookoff, one of this year's added events, will be judged at 2 p.m.

Meanwhile, the Fiestas Patrias Parade with commercial, non-commercial floats, vehicles, and riding and walking groups, plus youngsters on decorated bikes will have assembled at the YMCA area downtown and will proceed at 3 p.m. on Randolph to Harris to Oakes and south to Avenue C and through the grounds at Fort Concho, where trophies and prizes will be awarded.

With barely time for the crowd to visit the more than 30 food and beverage stands, the Exhibition of Charros presented by the Del Rio Association of Charros will begin at 4:30 and in the early evening at 7 p.m. the much acclaimed Pageant "Viva Mexico, Viva America" written by Dr. Arnaldo DeLeon of ASU will be presented. Following the pageant there will be dancing again, this time to the music of Roy Contreras Y La Corporacion Tejana.

On Monday, September 15, food booths will open at 5 p.m. and free stage entertainment continues. The "Viva Mexico, Viva America" pageant performance will be repeated at 7. Dancing to the music of Tropical Acuna will begin at 8 p.m. and will be suspended for a time at 9:30 when the traditional ceremony of "El Grito de Dolores" will take place. Following El Grito, dancing will resume.

On Tuesday, booths will again open at 5 p.m. and free stage will continue, including a program of speeches in Spanish by "Los Madrugadores". Diez y Seis will then be concluded with a dance again to the music of Los Tejanos beginning at 8 p.m.

This action filled four days of Fiestas Patrias celebratory events is free and open to all the people of San Angelo. It is the culmination of several months of preparation by the sponsors - The Southside Lions and Lioness Clubs and Fort Concho with the support and assistance of numerous individuals and businesses in the San Angelo community.

Mrs. Alma Perez, who with her husband Louis Perez co-chair the 1986 Fiestas Patrias Committee, said that this is a community effort to celebrate Hispanic culture and heritage. She noted that in addition to being designed to be pleasurable and celebratory, events such as the historical pageant are educational as well.

able and celebratory, events such as the historical pageant are educational as well.

Fiestas Patrias - "Diez y Seis" - marks when Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, a Creole, was pastor of the village church in Dolores, Guanajuato, and on September 15, 1810, called on his Indian congregation to join the revolt that was being planned against their Spanish overlords. From the pulpit, Father Hidalgo shouted the now famous Grito de Dolores (Cry from Dolores): "Long live Our Lady of Guadalupe! Long live our Independence."

This date is celebrated in Mexico and by persons of Mexican descent in the United States as the day of Independence from Spain. On September 15, the President of Mexico rings a bell in Mexico City and repeats the Grito de Dolores and with the crowd cheers the heroes of the independence struggle.

Supervisors named at youth center

Parents and members of Eagles Point Youth Center in Eldorado met last Sunday to discuss and plan forthcoming events.

Memberships are now due, costing $2 each. Rules for the center, which is open for students seventh grade through senior year, were discussed, and visitors were limited to one per member at special events.

All members are asked to meet on Sunday, September 14 at 2 p.m. for a very important session. Seventh and eighth grade students must sign out with a parent or not be able to sign back in.

Hours for the newly-relocated center will be from 6 until 10 p.m. on Thursday and from 7 until 12 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights. New supervisors are Kay and John Stensby. The center is now located at 606 East Street.

The center's second anniversary dance is set for Saturday, September 20 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., featuring nationally recognized disc jockeys, Deja-Vue. Admission will be $4 for non-members and $2 for members with cards.

Eldorado tournament scheduled

L.E.O.N., the First United Methodist and Presbyterian Church Youth Group, will sponsor the second annual Fall Doubles Tennis Tournament September 20, 21 for all residents of Schleicher County.

Mens and womens doubles will be held Saturday, with mixed doubles on tap Sunday. Play will begin at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and 12:30 p.m. Sunday at the Eldorado High School courts.

All participating teams' ages must equal 50 years. Entry fee will be $10 for one event, which includes lunch on Saturday, or $15 for both. Trophies will go to the winners.

Persons wanting to enter but without a partner should call Ron Sutto, 853-2098; Julie Griffin, 853-3239; or Bobby Helmers, 896-2272.

Museum Musings

Since this is the beginning of our football season perhaps you would be interested in hearing about the football squad of 1923-24. On the evening of September 6, 1923 a meeting was called for the purpose of organizing the first football team in Eldorado.

John McElroy was elected captain and Leslie Baker business manager. The first game was played in Eldorado with Sonora. It was the first football game ever played in Eldorado and many people turned out to see it.

The following Saturday a game was played with Ozona at Eldorado. The next game was at Sonora and on November 11 the squad went to Sonora and played in the mud. The game was finished after dark.

The last game was played Thanksgiving at Eldorado vs. Sonora. Sorry I don't have any of the scores.

XXX
If you went to school in Eldorado from 1912-1917 you can come by the museum and see what your grades were from about the first grade through the sixth. You may get a big surprise or perhaps a shock!

XXX
Miss 1986 Old Timer Ruth Baker in the museum with friends, Ola Ruth Barbee and Marguerite Chick Goremke. Mr. E.N. (Gene) Edmiston was the Old Timer of the year for the men. Mr. and Mrs. Edmiston celebrated their seventy first wedding anniversary on August the 7. Congratulations to these great old timers.

XXX
We have three new members this month. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray Pfluger and W.B. (Hoot) Gibson of Menlow Park, Calif. Hoot sent us a generous donation to help us out and we really appreciate this. He had sent us a book he had published on his work in S.R.I.

He is writing a book now and there will be a few chapters on his boyhood in Eldorado. He sent us the chapter entitled "The Punkin Vine", a humorous story of the old party lines in Schleicher County.

XXX
Barbecues were quite a bit different from what they are today back in the early days. They dug a long pit and the barbecuers would spend all night cooking. The men donated their time and animals and the women cooked the beans and made the potato salad. Everyone in the county was invited.

XXX
Did you know we had the World Champion Polo Team in 1957? The team members were Horace Linthicum, Vernon Humphrey, James Alexander, Ollie Phillips, H.A. Belk, Skeet Mace, Lewis Whitten, Tucker Clark, Arch Ory, Eldred Roach, E.H. Sweatt, and Sam Henderson. They all went to Florida to play this championship game. We have their picture and trophy in the museum.

Davis Reunion held over LD

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Davis and children, James Larry Davis and Jacque Davis Wilson were hosts Labor Day weekend to the Davis Reunion.

Davis brothers, Charles, Chalmers, Weldon, Winiford, and Walter, along with their wives, children and grandchildren came.

The young children swam in the tank and rode horseback while the women competed in a Wahoo Tournament. The men had a rifle and pistol shoot off while a mixed doubles washer pitching tournament was going on. Trophies were awarded.

Winners were: Ruth and Mabel Davis, Wahoo champs; Joe Davis, pistol; Weldon Davis, rifle; Floyd and Hubert Davis, washers.

There were 53 in attendance. 42 people spent Friday and Saturday night. Campers, cots and bed rolls were brought by many.

Meals were cooked outside by Weldon, James Larry, Winiford Davis, and a cousin, Sam Young.

Everyone brought food and a barbecue dinner was served Saturday.

Two aunts were in attendance, Mrs. Dora Young, Dallas and Mrs. Ellie Perry Horny, San Angelo.

Everyone expressed a desire that this be made an annual event.

J.T. (Jater) Bailey honored his brother, Buck, with a display case with some of his special awards. Buck was one of our famous boys whose boyhood was spent in Eldorado. He was an avid baseball player when he lived in Eldorado as was Jater and these brothers were two of the most colorful players. Buck was coach for many years of the Washington State University. Bailey Field is dedicated in honor of Buck in 1950.

XXX
Our latest addition is a miniature covered wagon donated by Floyd Butler. This wagon had belonged to his father and was made by prisoners. When you go by the museum look for it in the window display. It would be nice if someone would make a miniature chuck box to go with it.

XXX
The Library now has some Schleicher County History books and Jerri Whitten will be happy for anyone interested in buying one of these to stop by. The price is $47.50. These can also be purchased at the museum.

XXX
The museum now has a new roof to the tune of $1,431 so anyone wishing to make a donation toward this we would really appreciate it. Even your membership dues help toward this so if you are not a member join us now for only $2.50 a year.

place and decided to forget the lid folding/holding mechanism that caused us so much grief. We'll wait 'til the old brain cools down on the project, then figure it right out....about 1995 or so.

A GOOD STORY....

Here's one of our favorite old stories. It's about the old man who sold hot dogs beside the road. In order to promote his business, he placed signs along the highway in front of his stand.

As word of his good hot dogs spread, his business began to grow. He soon had to increase his bun order to cover the demand. Before long his sales had doubled.

The man was old, could not hear well and did not listen to the radio. His eyesight was not too good either, so he did not read the newspapers or watch television.

His son came home from college and joined him in his business. After a week, his son told him, "Pop, don't you know that we are in a recession? You should be cutting back on your orders, not increasing them."

The father knew that his son had been to college and that he knew what was happening in the world better than he did. So he began to cut back on his orders. He also took down his signs along the road since no one had any money to spend during a recession.

After two weeks, his sales had fallen off to half of what they had been previously. Soon he was only selling a few hot dogs a day.

"Son, you were right, we are in the middle of a recession. If you hadn't told me, we would still be ordering too many hot dogs," the father said.

This is the kind of story that is easy for each of us to read our own meaning into. We find a lot of parallels between our community and the old man's hot dog stand.

My contacts aren't rose-coloured enough to think everything is perfect in Eldorado. Like most communities we have our shortcomings. One of the most serious is slow retail trade. Most local businessmen will acknowledge that business is poor. This seems to be a statewide trend and is probably a reflection of the bad times in the oil and ag industries.

While we have minuses we also have our pluses. I think anyone who wished to think a minute could tick off a number of improvements made in community life here over the past 10 or twelve years.

We wonder then why so many of us are like the son, and seem to continually harp on the negative. Let's get the "I think I can" attitude and talk and work positive for Eldorado.

BIKE-A-THON SCHEDULED HERE

Local woman heading drive

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital officials announced today that Mrs. Becky Sterling will chair the hospital's "Wheels For Life" Bike-A-Thon in Eldorado. This ride will raise funds to support the hospital's battle against childhood cancer and other illnesses being studied there.

Hospital has become the world's largest center for the study of childhood cancer and is the only institution dedicated solely to the treatment and study of catastrophic childhood diseases. The hospital is non-sectarian and interracial.

In addition to direct treatment of patients throughout the United States and 29 foreign countries, St. Jude has provided the world's doctors with the best ways of treating their own young cancer patients. This lifesaving knowledge is given freely and with no charge to any other hospital or private physician.

St. Jude Hospital's dramatic progress has been made possible primarily by voluntary contributions raised through events such as the "Wheels For Life" bike rides organized by concerned citizens all over America.

Wheels For Life Bike Ride Fights Childhood Cancer Bike-a-thon chairman Becky Sterling today asked Eldorado residents to join the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels For Life" Bike-a-thon slated for September 27.

Mrs. Sterling said this ride honors Jaime, a leukemia patient at St. Jude. "With every turn of the wheel, riders become 'spokes'-men for all the kids with cancer, like Jaime," Mrs. Sterling said. "This ride is a vital part of the fight against childhood cancer at St. Jude. Riders are really needed. They

BY ELDORADO SCHOOL BOARD
New tax rate approved

A new tax rate was finally approved by the Schleicher County Independent School District board of trustees Monday night, following months of study and worry over new school funding legislation in the Texas legislature.

"It's good to have the rate set and know where we are," superintendent J. Weldon Moore said this week. The new rate was established at 99 cents per $100 of assessed evaluation, up from 87.74 cents last year.

The new rate will mean a $33.78 tax raise for a local property-owner with a home valued at $30,000 on the tax roll.

In other business the board, meeting in regular monthly session, toured the new high school facilities and courtyards.

Board members discussed the "punch" list, the last minute work list for the project and told architectural representatives to insist to contractors on the project that the work be finished in short order.

The board also discussed work in the girls dressing room, which has undergone a complete renovation, along with the varsity and junior varsity dressing areas.

In other action the board:
--Discussed and approved policies concerning teacher appraisals, as required by the Texas Teacher Appraisal System and House Bill 72.

Under the law, all Texas teachers must be evaluated twice each year. The new policy approved by the board will give the Eldorado district the instrument by which to conduct the appraisal.

--Adopted a plan for disciplinary action for handicapped students. The board amended SCISD policies to comply with state law on the subject.

--Approved a waiver of the 22 to one rule in local kindergarten classes. Despite the sagging economy locally, kindergarten classes show an increase this year, making the waiver of the rule necessary for the first semester.

Last spring, 55 pre-enrolled for kindergarten, but this fall 69 showed up for classes. "It's a good sign for our school's growth, but it caught us a little by surprise," Moore reported.

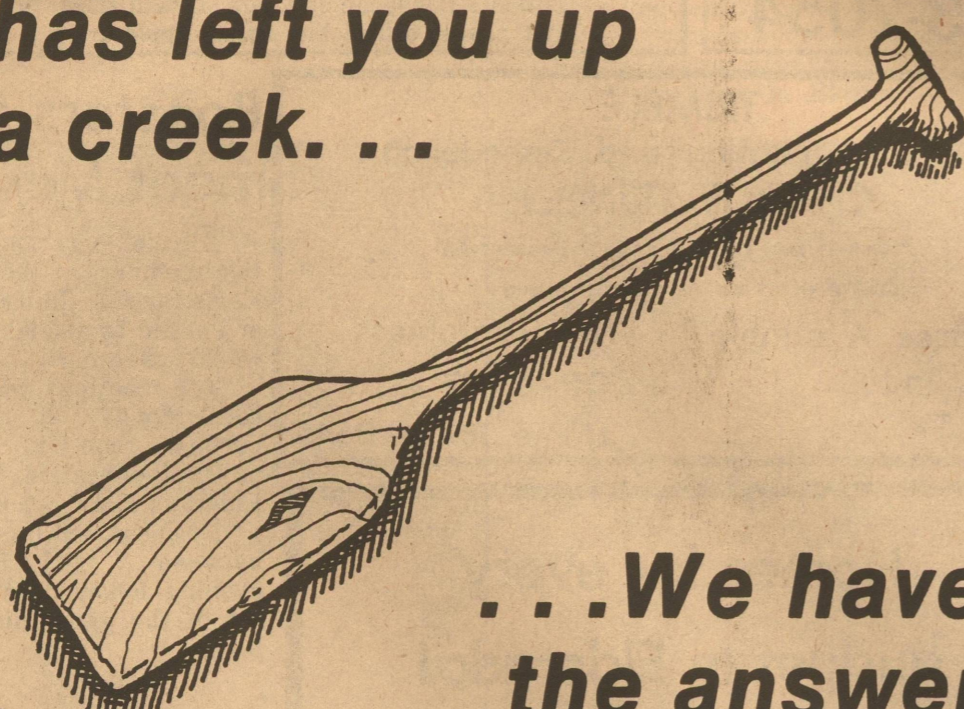

--Paid the district's monthly bills and adjourned.

DON'T SHOOT AT POWER LINES!

NEVER SHOOT AT POWER LINES or the insulators that hold them, because the result could be a dangerous downed electric line. A severed line could cause a serious electrical outage, and the downed line itself could be extremely hazardous.

ADDITIONAL SAFETY TIPS:
• Use Power Tools Wisely
Be sure wiring is in good condition and all circuits are grounded. Never use electric tools in the rain or on wet surfaces. Also, when buying new equipment, look for the "UL" seal of approval from Underwriters Laboratories.

• Keep Children Away from Electrical Outlets
Don't let small children play near electrical outlets. A child could put some object in an outlet when you're looking away. A wise safety precaution would be to put safety caps in all wall outlets.

• Always Disconnect Cords by Pulling on the plug
When disconnecting electrical items, be sure to pull on the plug — not the cord! If you pull on the cord, you'll eventually wear it out and expose hazardous wires. Also, don't overload extension cords or outlets.

DON'T FEED TREATED SEED

Because of the recent heptachlor contamination of milk in Arkansas and surrounding states, dairymen are urged to avoid feeding treated seed or seed byproducts to their herds. Feeding treated seed to dairy cows can lead to milk and meat contamination and thus result in serious financial losses to producers.
