Have We Lost Faith In Education?

At this time we are hearing the howl from the house tops: Economy! Economy! On every hand. Every man that has a pet scheme of any kind to put over is working his way under the banner of economy. Economy has become the most useful tool in the hands of the enemies of education.

The American people today are in a great struggle between Democracy and Autocracy. The deciding factor for democracy is our school system. The school is the only thing that will save the nation from the drift toward chaos and destruction of the political ideals of our forefathers. To lower our school means lowering the average intelligence of our citizenship. We as Americans citizens have for the last one hundred years, been quoting Mirabeau B. Lamar, "Education is the guiding genius of democracy," as our faith. Now if we believe such a doctrine, what are we going to do about it in the face of adversity? Are we going to fight manfully for that faith, or are we going to be a quitter, a slacker in the face of the enemy?

We are now facing a crisis in our school work. If we do not make a move of some kind, our per capita apportionment for the year 1933-34 will range between six and nine dollars. When we compare that with seventeen fifty and sixteen dollars for the past two years we can easily see our condition. There should be a letter sent to our representative at Austin this week with the names of five-hundred voters of this county signed to it, demanding his support of legislation that will keep our boys and girls in school. Are we as parents and citizens willing to sacrifice the future of our children? Shall we be found wanting in this the greatest opportunity that we, as individuals, are likely to meet in a life time? Let us consider the matter seriously for the sake of our children. There is one fact that we must face that should be a very grave concern to all people, who are interested in the future development of our social structure. The fact is this: The wealthy man is going to see to it that his child is educated, whether there is an adequate system of public schools or not. Then what chance does the child have who comes into the world with the handicap form the lack of personal wealth to obtain the thing that will put him on a social level with his more fortunate brother? When we fail to give every child a fair chance at educational advantages, we are paving the way for a cast system in American social society that will be just as degrading to civilization as the cast system in India is today. The cry should go up from every home in Texas today to our legislature to institute and support legislation that will sustain our schools.

If we are foolish under democracy we will be slaves under autocracy. We are soldiers in the ranks. The world is looking us. Shall we carry the banner of civilization, as brave soldiers should, or shall we let it trail in the dust?

Street To Depot To Be Improved

The local committee on R. F. C. Fund, has received a letter stating that $500.00 has been allotted to Schleicher County for March. The local committee has begun the work on the street to the Depot and have set the wage scale at $1.00 per day for men and $2.00 for wagon, team and man. All those who need employment should register with Don McCormick or W. N. Ramsay. This work is supposed to go to those actually needing work for support of their family and the wage should be in line with other wages paid. Some teams and wagons and several men can be put to work next week on this project.

The meeting was called to order by the Rev. W. H. Marshall and the matter discussed and the following committee was elected upon nomination of W. O. Alexander, to study a plan through this week with the leaders of the movement, and nominate a permanent Chairman and other officers at a meeting to be held next Monday night. Those elected to nominate the officers were W. H. Marshall, J. C. Carr and A. T. Wright. All citizens that are interested in retaining the 18th amendment and the present prohibition laws are invited and urged to be at the meeting next Monday night.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SERVICES SUNDAY

The Success has been asked to announce that the Rev. Guy Davis of San Angelo will be in Eldorado Sunday and will preach at the Presbyterian Church at the 11 o'clock church hour Sunday.

BORN—Thursday morning to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wolbruecke, a boy. Dr. Pennington reports all doing nicely.

Sherman Shoemaker went to Temple last week for treatment, but is back home again this week-end trying to take care of the others. Mrs. G. B. Shoemaker believes in the old saying, when it rains it pours. She had a son-in-law in the hospital at Wichita Falls, her daughter also there had pneumonia. Sherman was at Temple, her daughter Lorene was confined to her bed here and Mrs. A. B. Shoemaker at Sonora was down with the mumps and Guy was out of tobacco and she could not be with but one of them. We understand most of the sick one are improving.

Ed Ratliff, one of Schleicher's fine Hereford breeders, and Don McCormick, better known as "Dina" are in Ft. Worth looking for better bulls. Mr. Ratliff sold some fine stock at the San Angelo show and will probably buy a good bull at Ft. Worth.

Roy Andrews, the street whistler and general roost-about for the Andrews Grocery, says he is still in the goat business.

Rev. W. H. Marshall and wife were business visitors in San Angelo Monday of this week.

MARCH 17, 1933.

On every hand you can hear the word expressing confidence in the county and the new administration and everyone knows that better times are to be found in the future. The past is gone; let's build in the future.

In the passing of Dr. Horace Bishop, of San Angelo, Monday was just the going home of one of God's servants, who for 67 years had preached the word of God to his fellow man warning him of the years to be spent in eternity, trying to show him the way of that better life where all would be joy. It was a pleasure to have known him. He has frequently visited in our city and upon invitation preached in the local Methodist Church here. He would have been 90 years old had he lived until August. How sweet is the rest of them that love the Lord.

France is getting uneasy about another war. We hope she gets scared enough to pay what she owes, so she will be in good graces to buy additional supplies, that German election did not look good to France.

The attempted Assassinating of Roosevelt is over, the bank holidays are over, and the Japs have taken Jehol, what will we use for headlines next?

The Success does not believe Texas will be found in the wet columns, or do we believe that Schleicher County will be found in the wet columns. But we do urge the people to wake up and do not swallow every word the wet propagandists spit out. I think it will be thoroughly established before the campaign is over that the enforcement of the prohibition laws has never cost the government a penny, on the other hand it will be proved that it has been a financial asset to the government, when the campaign gets hot the facts will come out, and it won't all favor the wets.

The Crusaders, a group of boys from 15 to 20 years of age, will soon give a play, known as a "Living Dead Man" this will be worth seeing when they put it on and no one in the community should miss seeing it. The money will go to the Crusaders; just a lot of home boys doing a good work, with their Captain, Rev. Marshall.

President Roosevelt has been knocking home runs every time he went to bat until he came up to the beer business and he knocked a foul for the first time. The Success can never agree that the budget can be bal-

GARDEN OF EXPERIENCE

By F. G. Clark

With our present financial system the recurrence of booms and depressions are inevitable. The graph showing the ups and downs of our economic national life, will be extended as long as our present financial system endures. While these changes may not be quite as regular as the rising and setting of the sun, they are just as inevitable, since each is obeying an inexorable law.

Our financial system is founded on debt, and to make way with debt, would mean the utter annihilation of our money system. A boom is brought about, by abnormal borrowing of money.

These borrowings are founded on all sorts of securities, and many different rates of interest, but they all bear interest. These borrowings, simply mean, that we are mortgaging the future.

While spending this borrowed-money prices go up and boom is on. But the interest must be paid and the further we travel on this road, the more the debts pile up and more and more of our income goes to pay interest, until at last the interest tax is so great that we are unable to pay it, and at the same time carry on our everyday affairs. Then credit is withdrawn, factories close because people are not able to buy their products; banks break because borrowers cannot pay, and real estate foreclosures are the order of the day. Millions of men are thrown out of employment, and the depression is on! A mystery you say? Not at all! Merely the working out of cause and effect. The burden got so heavy that it crushed those who tried to carry it. These debts must be settled, somehow. But how? The public that owes them has little money certainly not enough to meet the emergency, and no way of getting more. All sources of revenue are dried down to a trickling stream. What is the outcome? Universal smash!

Some of these debts are canceled by bankruptcy, some by bank failures, some by foreclosures, and very few by being met at face value.

All of this means that the masses of the people are passing thru a terrible experience. Millions lose their life savings and are reduced to poverty in their old age. Property passes out of the hands of those who created it, into the hands of those who never earned it. But you say, why go in debt? Under our present system you cannot avoid it. If you start an enterprise, you must go in debt. If you prefer to work for others, then as a citizen, you carry your share anced by taxing beer, and if it could be it should not be. We do not believe the souls of little children should be sold for the glittering coin. We have no objection to letting the people voting on the question.

SUB-IRRIGATION IN SCHLEICHER COUNTY

"I want some of that concrete tiling in my garden this year," said Mrs. Will Montgomery of the Adams Home Demonstration Club, Eldorado, Texas. Such has been the voice of numerous club women in the nine home demonstration clubs that have been organized in Schleicher county in the past two months. There have been seven sub-irrigated cutting beds made in the county home demonstration clubs namely; Mayer, Eldorado, Cliff, County Women's Club, Alexander, Bailey Ranch and Reynolds. The women of the Mt. Vermont club are also planning to make one at their next meeting which will be held at Mrs. Doc Kerr's, Wed, Mar 22, at 2 p. m. The goals in yard improvement are to interest every woman in the county in cleaning her yard and starting grass so that one year from now she may make plantings around her home without much expense—getting her cuttings from the club cutting bed.

of the burden of national, state and local debt, thru taxation. As long as our financial system is founded on debt there is no escape from it. Every dollar of our money was loaned into circulation, and continues to bear interest thruout its life, and it is only a question of time, when the interest will eat up the principle.

There is something rotten in the state of Denmark! Next week we answer the question—What is Technocracy?

Rev. W. H. Marshall came down town Monday just knowing he felt an earth quiver just before day Monday, but we tried to make him believe he had gone to sleep thinking of earth quakes and had a nightmare, but he was so thoroughly convinced that he felt a shock, he demanded us to watch the papers, so we did and sure enough they had one out in California about the time he thought he felt it here, and now that preacher just know he felt the quake, and you could not convince him otherwise, he was up when he felt the shock. So there it is believe it or not.

REYNOLDS CLUB MEETS

New members were Mrs. John Faught, and Mrs. F. Ramsel. The membership committee reported that most of those asked to join have as yet not been able to do so but may later on.

Consider the editor! A child is born unto the wife of a merchant in town. The physician getteth 10 plunks. The editor writeth a stick and a half and telleth the multitude the child tippeth the beam at nine pounds. Yea, he lieth even as a centurion. And the proud father giveth him a Crema.

Behold, the young one groweth up and graduateth. And the editor putteth in the paper a swell piece. Yea, a peach of a notice. He telleth of the wisdom of the young woman and off her exceeding comeliness. Like unto the roses of Sharon is she and her gown is played up to beat the band. And the dressmaker getteth two score and four iron men. And the editor gets a note of thanks from the sweet girl graduate.

And the daughter goeth on a journey. And the editor throweth himself on the story of the farewell party. It runneth a column solid. And the fair one remembereth him from after with a picture postal card that costeth six for a jitney.

Behold, she returneth and the youth of the town fall down and worship. She picketh one and lo, she picketh a lemon. But the editor calleth him one of the promising young men and getteth away with it. And they send unto the editor a bid to the wedding and behold the bids are fashioned in a far city.

Flowery and long is the wedding notice which the editor printeth. The minister getteth his bit.

Looking For Happiness Mary Dell Williams

Happiness is something that can never be discovered when it is the only object sought. It is a result. It comes from doing something for others; lifting a load for one who is weary; speaking a kind word to a discouraged soul; ministering to one who is sick; giving to one in need—doing the little ordinary things about us that the other fellow dislikes and neglects. Happiness always lies hidden behind something else.

Happiness comes from a realization of one's having done his work well—giving value received for his wages. Happiness does not come by dodging the hard and disagreeable tasks.

He who searches for happiness and happiness alone, will never find it. Happiness never stay alone; it is always associated with something else. Our happiness depends entirely upon our attitude toward others, our work our surroundings and all that has to do with life and especially do real peace and joy depend on our connection with the true source of happiness.

He who pours happiness on another cannot help spilling a few drops on himself. He who would be happy must first make others happy. This rule never fails.

Will you find happiness? It depends entirely upon yourself.

WORK OF EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKERS

By Hollis Alexander
The extemporaneous speakers are laboring daily on their league work. There are about 37 speeches to be prepared and we have nearly half of these prepared. We are putting in a lot of work so we may make some showing at the district meet in San Angelo sometime in April.

There are only two students coming out for this event. These students are Fay Keeney and Hollis Alexander. We are going to San Angelo Tuesday evening to have a practice meet between our team and San Angelo speakers.

ARIZONA WOMAN ENJOYS SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

Mary Dell Williams
Mrs. F. A. Westfall of Arizona complimented the work done by the Newspaper Staff of the Eldorado High School, saying many of the articles made a person think twice and were very interesting. This compliment is encouraging to all those who are members of the Newspaper Club. The letter was appreciated very much.

The speakers were Lillie Bell Kent and Nell Campbell, affirmative and Margaret Bradley and Hollys Alexander, negative. The question debated was: Resolved: "That the United States should maintain a large navy." The affirmative won by a vote of 4 to 3 by the remainder of the class.

The next debate was held on Wednesday the 8. The question for debate was: Resolved: "That the United States should join the League of Nations." The affirmative speakers were Willie Ruth Johnson and Luther Kent. As Luther was absent, W. B. Gibson substituted for him. The negative won by a vote of 3 to 2 the judges being the remainder of the class.

The last debate was held on Friday the 10, the proposition being Resolved: "That capital punishment should be abolished." The speakers were affirmative, W. B. Gibson and Alicia Burke; negative, Fay Keeney and Mary Dell Williams. This is the first debate for which outside judges have been chosen. They were Mr. Holt, Mr. Williamson, and Mr. Kelly. The affirmative won by a vote of 3 to 2.

TENNIS TEAM PLAYS ANGELO

Gordon Williamson
The team went to Angelo last Friday to play the Angelo netters. The results were as follows:
Joe T. Hext lost 6-4 6-2
Jack Ratliff lost 6-1 6-3
Hollis Reagan lost 6-2 6-3
Joe and Jack in Doubles lost 7-5 6-0

The results were not very good. But the boys were cold and were not accustomed to the Angelo courts. Angelo is coming to Eldorado next Friday 17. I believe the boys will have a better chance because they are used to the courts out here. I hope that the boys won't let that score be the same as it was in San Angelo.

THE PUPILS THAT HAVE QUIT SCHOOL SINCE CHRISTMAS

Milton Spurgers
Lillie Barrows was a senior of the Eldorado High School. She was a good pupil. She left here after the midterm exams. We know not why she left here, but she is now going to school in S.Sonora, Texas. We would like to see her here again.

Iola Haynes was another senior. We do not know why she quit, but she was a good pupil. She left here after midterm exams.

Sammye Luedecke was a Junior. She was a good pupil. She left here not long ago, and married Arthur Pruett, a teacher at Station A School.

Jack Meswane was a Junior. He did not go to school here long enough to get acquainted with anyone. We do not know where he went.

John E. Rodgers quit school here not long ago. We do not know why he quit, but it does not matter, he has started again.

Louise O'Harrow quit school after midterms. We do not know why she quit nor where she is. She was a Sophomore.

Ollie Ruth Newlin was a Freshman. She quit school long ago. We know not why she quit nor where she went. We would like to see Ollie Ruth back again.

P. T. A. SPONSORED PROGRAM

By Thema Taylor
The local P. T. A. sponsored a program last Friday evening at the School Auditorium. The program consisted of a style show, mock trial, and singing by the Choral Club. The Style show was given by the Economics class of 1933.

The dresses were modeled by the following girls: Margaret Powers, Wenona Enochs, Inez Bruton, Margaret Sheen, Marguerite Chick, Mildred Willis, Minnie Logan, and Thelma Taylor. These girls displayed two silk dresses and one wash dress. The stage was decorated with cedar trees and pot plants. The artistic work of the girls in decorating the stage and in making their dresses was highly complimented by those attending.

The mock trial was a complete success. The attorney for the defense was Fay Keeney, the prosecuting attorney was Hollis Alexander. The subject for trial was: The Senior Class was suing the P. T. A. for not serving them pink ice cream every Friday afternoon. The P. T. A. won the case. The witnesses for the Defense (P. T. A.) were Thelma Taylor (Mrs. Holt), W. B. Gibson (Bell Sample), and Evelyn Anderson (Miss Allen). The witnesses for the plaintiff were Junior Isaacs (Mr. Holt), Donnell Jones (a senior), Jack Shugart (Rev. J. L. Ratliff). The mock trial received great applause, which was appreciated by the participants in the trial.

The choral club sang three numbers and Misses Inez Cobb, Loleete Andrews, and Islagayle Childress tapped to the tune of "The Sidewalks of New York." The amount cleared on this program was a little over ten dollars, which is good for these times.

Come see the next program and let it speak for itself.

SIMMONS UNIVERSITY CHORAL CLUB TO BE IN ELDORADO, MARCH 27TH

Arrangements were recently made with Mr. W. J. Work, Director of the Simmons University Choral Club, by which that organization will present their program in the high school here on March 27th at 3:00 p. m. The club will be on a tour of this section of the state and that explains the afternoon program in Eldorado. There will be 26 singers on the program in Eldorado. There will be both a male quartet and a ladies quartet. The program will be varied enough that it will be interesting to both children and adults. The lovers of good music will especially be interested in this program.

The bringing of the Simmons Choral Club to Eldorado is not a money-making scheme. The program is treated as a pay-assemble program. The price of 10 cents will be charged for school children and 20 cents for adults. One third of this amount goes to the local Parent-Teachers Organization. Cowboy songs, male quartets and old Southern melodies will feature the program.

Remember the date—March 27th at 3:00 P. M.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF EVELYN ANDERSON

By Louise Boyer
My past began on August 31, 1914, in the city of Eldorado. I scarcely remember anything of this part of my life. They tell me that I followed the dogs off down to the river when I was three years of age. All on the ranch were hunting for me.

At the age of seven my school career began. When I was in the first grade I told a story in Fae Belle Enochs and received some generous spans with a ruler. Later in my history I attended a box supper here in the school building. Raymond Smith was the first person to buy my box. It was trimmed in yellow and blue paper, the colors of my costume for the play preceding the box-supper. After this some time a pie supper was held. Of course, the boys could not see through the sheet that had the girl on the stage, therefore, this was not successful.

The first "ferris-wheel" I rode on was at the fair park here, about two or three years ago. Along about this time I began to enter into basket ball. I liked this very much, but I was always disappointed as the end of the season drew near, since we were to receive no sweaters. We were always gracious for the cold drinks from Mr. Royster and Mr. Hoover. I also entered in the pep squad. However, I wasn't nearly so interested in football then as I am now.

Three years ago, June 19, I took a trip to New Mexico along with my parents and brother. We went to Lovington where we saw barren lands with grease woods for trees, and it all had the appearance of something vivid, yet its breast was plain. Going through Artesia, I saw beautiful rolling planes and in the city there are beautiful trees, the lawns are green, and the whole town has the appearance of something green and fresh.

RESULTS OF THE JUNIOR'S DECLAMATIONS

Junior Isaacs
The ones that declaimed ran a very close race for first, second and third.

There seems to be some very good debators in the grammar school as well as in the high school.

The boys were out to beat each other as well as the girls. The judges decisions were for the girls as follows: Maxine Wilton, first; Dorothy Jarret, second; and Louise Bruton, 3rd.

The judges decisions for the boys were as follows: Tommy Wiggins, first; Patton Enochs, second and Jim Tom Roach, 3rd.

JOKES

J. R. Conner
Mr. Holt: Luther, What happened in 1763?
Luther: Luther the great was born.

Mr. Holt: Well, What happened in 1767?
Luther: He had his fourth birthday.

A couple of grammar school children were talking. One said, "Did you know that my father built the Rock Mountains?" The other little boy said, "That's nothing, my father killed the Dead Sea."

Mr. Wilton: Holvie, when does your daddy plant saurkraut?
Holvie Enochs: The same time you plant hominy.

AGAINST WORLD PEACE

(By Thos. E. Pickerill)

When the Japanese delegates walked out of the League of Nations Assembly, after the Assembly had refused to sanction the policy of Japan's Manchurian invasion, they did so without taking into consideration the full effect of Japan's action. The leader of the delegation said that his country was doing all within its power to promote and maintain world peace. If so, why did he and his co-delegates quit the Assembly? World peace is best promoted by co-operation of international powers in just such an organization as the League. The way to get the good of any organization is not to quit it, but to work with it. Not to fight it from the outside, but fight for principles of the organization inside it. The withdrawal of the delegation implied the opposite of peaceful motives.

THE CHILD OR THE DOLLAR?

America today faces a choice between the child and the dollar. It cannot afford not to put the child first. Any other policy destroys progress. The first and last test of the statesman is his attitude toward education. If he cannot meet that test he has no place in public life. Only as the schools move forward today can government, industry, and the standard of living move forward tomorrow.

Education costs more now than it did in pioneer days because schools are better and more children attend them for longer periods. A majority of parents now desire their children to have the advantages of high school, which costs more than the elementary school.

And yet American schools are run so economically that they give your child books, a classroom, equipment, a playground, and a day's instruction under a well-prepared teacher, for the price of a golf ball or the cost of a box of candy. The average cost for a day's instruction for an American child is only fifty-one cents. Of the fifty-one cents the teacher receives only twenty-eight cents. Suppose you had to engage a tutor to teach your child in your home. Such service often costs $1 to $2 per hour.

In proportion to the magnitude of its helpfulness—the number of children, the number of hours, the variety of activities, the care for each individual child, the preparation necessary for teaching, the high responsibility—the school is relatively inexpensive. Let us all join hands to give to our young people the best possible preparation for life. Let us keep the children first.

A nation's concern over education measures its interest in its own future.

The purpose of a newspaper is to furnish the news. The business of the newspaper is to furnish advertising service. Both require the cooperation and patronage of the public.

There are only two things to worry about in regard to better business conditions: the things we can't control and the things we can. Forget the things we can't control, and ATTEND TO the things we can.

Joe Turner Hext: Is there any difference in meaning between sight and vision?
Tommy Smith: I should say so. My girl is a vision and yours is a sight.

Mr. Holt: Your son, Albert is pursuing his studies at college, isn't he?
Mrs. Williams: I guess so. He's always behind.

Mr. Holt: You young rascal! You know what I said I'd do when I caught you tossing coins again. I am going to thrash you for five minutes.

Jim West: Hay, wait a minute, Mr. Holt! I'll toss you to make it ten minutes or nothing.

THE FRESHMAN HALL OF FAME

Margaret Powers
Fifty or sixty years from now people will go through the halls of fame and see many interesting and remarkable things done by the Freshmen of 1932-33 when they grow up. Let's just suppose we are living in 1996 and are visiting a famous hall.

As you go in the front door to your left is seen a beautiful statue of Alton Page holding a his guitar. We are told he rose to fame singing cowboy songs and picking his guitar.

On the left is a statue of Jack Shugart holding an algebra book. We are told he gained his fame as a Mathematician.

As we go on down the hall we see many beautiful paintings. A man tells us these were painted by the famous artist, Milton Spurgers.

another statue, this being of Guy Moore, a very famous football star.

Gussie Nolan's statue is seen next. She was a very famous Mathematics teacher.

We see a beautiful statue of Fae Belle Enochs in a basketball suit. She became a basket-ball star.

In a bright corner we see the smallest statue, this being of Mildred Willis the noted song leader.

Next we see a statue of Mary Jess Kay who gained her fame as a Violinist.

The most interesting statue was of Frank (Pancho) Bradley training his burro to dance. He was a famous animal trainer.

Another statue equally interesting was of Inez Bruton. We are told she rose to fame as a tap dancer.

The next is of Bob Evans on a wild horse. They tell us he gained his fame breaking wild horses.

We next look upon a very dignified looking statue. This is of Rev. Charles Ratliff, a very famous preacher.

William McWhorter became a famous lawyer and has his statue here.

Cecil Moore comes next. He is noted for his great ability to raise fine sheep.

Loleet Andrews became famous because of her ability to sing.

Isagayle Childers became a very competent nurse and for this reason has her statue here.

Inez Marshall rose to fame as a Science teacher and was honored in this way.

This interesting statue is of Samuel Cloud. He was an elegant speaker.

The next is of Louise Boyer, the famous historian.

Who could this tough looking statue be? They tell us it is sheriff John Luedecke, the most famous sheriff of the West.

We are to the end of the hall. It is surprising that mere freshmen could amount to so much. This only shows that freshmen are not so green as some people think.
