Bailey Ranch Defeats Station A, 14 - 11

The Bailey Ranch cotton choppers put down the Station A Oilers Wednesday in a spirited baseball game 14 to 11, on the Station A ball ground.

The game was called at 3:00 o'clock sharp, by Bull-of-a-watch time, owned by Bill Mund, with Edgar Spencer telling whether the ball went in or out, or too high or too low, other words he was the official announcer from the inner courts, and none dared to talk back and the game went smoothly to the ninth inning with the Oilers in the lead, being excellent sports the Oilers felt bad from the way the visitors were being treated, and during the last part of the game allowed the visitors to nose out ahead. W. A. Hampton and E. W. Maddox were official rooters for Station A, while Henry Mund and wife rooted for the cotton choppers.

After the game had been declared officially won by the choppers, announcement was made that a basket supper was to be spread at the school and here is where the Eldorado visitors showed their stuff, from reports available. They defeated both the Choppers and the Oilers. Those going out from town reported a splendid afternoon, with those congenial people of Station A and Bailey Ranch.

After the ball game some enjoyed a swim in the swimming pool, and looking over the pump station machinery.

There will be another game at Station A next Tuesday afternoon June 7 between Station B and Station A.

Now this will be some game and friend Hampton of the Station A Oilers says we must not lose. Maddox says he will have his first baseman Lee Clements in a 1 shape by next Tuesday.

Three Saved From Drowning By Wilbarger County Girl

ODELL, Wilbarger Co., Texas, May 26.—The citizenship of Odell is unanimous in urging a Carnegie medal for Omega Whitehead, 14, daughter of C. A. Whitehead, Santa Fe station agent here, who, by her courage and swimming skill, saved three children from drowning one evening this week.

A number of children were playing along the banks of Wander's Creek. Suddenly there were two splashes as little forms slipped into the water and screams of other small children drew older members of the party to the scene. Dorothy Whitehead, 8, sister of Omega, and Ruth Sims, 10, were struggling in the deep pool, and Hebron Sims, 16, Boy Scout, immediately dived in to save them.

As he neared the children the current pulled him under and, as he came to the surface, those on the shore could see he was unconscious. That was when Omega got busy. Swimming swiftly, she brought first one and then the other of the smaller girls to the bank, where they were pulled out, none the worse for their experience, except for the scare and a goot wetting. Back into the stream Omega went again after the unconscious boy. Getting a firm hold of him, she fought her way shoreward, but he was heavy, unable to help her any, and she found the going hard.

Attracted by the screams of children on the bank, Whitehead ran to the scene. As he appeared Omega neared the bank. She looked up, saw her father, and cried:

"Come help me, daddy, I'm tired out."

Whitehead came to her assistance, and the two of them brought the boy to land, where he speedily recovered. But the saving was practically accomplished when Whitehead arrived for Omega already had brought the boy close to the bank.

If Carnegie medals are awarded for the saving of one life, Odell residents believe Omega should be given one with special embellishments. Not often, they insist, does a 14-year-old schoolgirl save three lives at a time, and two of them with no assistance whatever. — Dallas News.

Mr. C. A. Whitehead was the first Santa Fe Agent for our city, and Omega, his daughter, attended the Eldorado Public School while they lived here.

Frances Parsons, Lewell Alexander Are Married

(San Angelo Standard-Times)

The marriage of Miss Frances Parsons and Lewell Alexander was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parsons, 1211 South Sam Street, when the Rev. A. D. Foreman, Jr., performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue crepe frock, ankle length, that was simply tailored, the only adornment being a large collar of blue net on which flowers of blue crepe were applied. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink rosebuds. Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Seth Stephens of Temple. She wore a pink frock of crepe and carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Alexander, of Eldorado, had as his best man Jack Wilcox of this city.

Ella Marie Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Davis, and Amba Louise Parsons, a niece of the bride, came down the steps together, going from there to the improvised altar, indicating the path of the bride. They were dressed in pink and blue, their bouquets being replicas of the bride's. Mrs. Stephens was met at the foot of the stairs by Mr. Wilcox.

Billy Frank Roberts, a nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. He was dressed in white and carried the rings on a blue satin pillow. He preceded the bride down the stairway where the bridegroom met her.

The bridal party entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus." The couple stood before a white lattice archway covered with English ivy. White candelabra, carrying fourteen lighted white tapers, provided the light for the ceremony.

Following the service, the two-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut and served with punch to the guests. Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Prentiss Davis presided at the table.

Some person needing parts of a cultivator visited "Uncle Sid" Booth's place a few days ago, and took off about half of his cultivator, and Mr. Booth wants him to come back and get the balance of it so the two together will have one, as he cannot use it like it is.

Albert Wright of Brady, says the people of the United States should be enjoying life. They have raised more than they can eat, got more wool and cotton than they can sell, and have done all the work to be done. Just eating and resting now, nothing to do but fish and hunt and visit. Why shouldn't we enjoy life?

Nearly any one can dig up a dollar for 13 months, Schleicher County News, why wait, send in the money and get the extra month.

The Schleicher Country crops are getting off this week to a good start. Nearly all planting is finished and the plowing out process has begun. Some of the early planting needs the grass and weeds out.

When one would do good, evil is nigh, or som'en. Last week The Success in need of some extra cash, entered into an agreement with a mother and son, who claimed to be as honest as the man "Old Diognes" was looking for. Feeling a little skeptical we had all checks payable to The Eldorado Success. Our honest friend got some advertising, collected for same, endorsed all the checks for us, collected the money for us, gave several checks to San Angelo merchants on the Eldorado Bank, put the change in his pocket and with his mother left for newer fields.

Now we must wait until a grand jury indicts this bird before a Sheriff can get any mileage for catching this crook. Why people will continue to cash checks for others without proper endorsement, or knowing the people is beyond us, but such was the case. All the laws in recent years seem to favor the crooks. We presume the business people or the banks of San Angelo cashed the check for him when he had no authority to do the same.

Our friend C. C. West was another victim of crooks this week. A brown-eyed lady gave a check to hold two hours for her, then she would return with the cash and take it up. He still holds the check.

Perry Johnson was in Eldorado Saturday, and says he has had to withdraw from the beauty contest with Hop Cheatham. He says some of the women folks are using his pictures for scarecrows in their gardens, and it has handicapped him in the contest.

Garden Of Experience

F. G. CLARK.

If you desire people to listen to your talk or read, with appreciation, what you write, get yourself a pedestal, and which you can stand and see and be seen, hear and be heard, just in proportion to its height.

This scribe has written several articles, striving to demonstrate that the cure for the depression is reaper money. Few read them and fewer still, gave any heed to his thought. Now Arthus Brisbane comes out with the same thought and the whole world pays attention. Is it because Brisbane has more and better brains than this scribe? Not at all. The reason lies wholly in the fact that his pedestal is higher. He is a copyrighted columnist, writing for numerous papers and drawing down a salary of $100,000.00 per year from a syndicate that sells his writings at a profit.

Is this because he has more ability than many others? No. The reason lies in the fact that he spent many years building up a towering pedestal of publicity. That is by good advertising. It pays to advertise. Take our little town for instance: What store has the largest trade? The one that keeps the best goods at the lowest prices? No. It is the one who tells the trade about it in the most persistent and attractive manner. Keep quiet and out of sight for a month, and the public will forget all about you. This is why the easiest thing about to become reconciled to is his death. Even Brisbane would be forgotten in a few weeks if he ceased to write.

The moral here is: If you have anything you wish to bestow upon the public, keep it flashing before their eyes with constant reiteration.

Continual dropping will finally wear a stone. So I hope Brisbane will keep at it, and maybe at last he will be able to make an impression on Congress, and the Administration. If he does, it will be a greater miracle than that water wearing the stone.

FUNERAL SERVICE HELD FOR A. J. ROACH, JR.

The funeral services for A. J. Roach, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roach, pioneer settlers in Schleicher County, were conducted at the First Baptist Church in Eldorado on Thursday morning, May 26, at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Ratliff, pastor of the church, was in charge of the services. He was assisted by the other ministers of the town, Rev. J. D. McWhorter, pastor of the Methodist Church, and Dr. W. B. Gray, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and by Dr. C. A. Powell, pastor of the University Baptist Church of Abilene. Dr. Powell was the principal speaker during the services. The theme of his sermon was, "The Gain of Death". This great and inspiring message was discussed under the subjects of the gains from death which resulted in the physical, intellectual, occupational, social, and spiritual senses. A special song, "Whispering Hope," was sung by Mrs. W. N. Ramsay and Mrs. T. W. Johnson, accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Hill at the piano. This was the first song which A. J. had learned to play upon the saxophone. The Robert Massie Company, assisted by the Eldorado Funeral Service, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Brief funeral services were conducted in Abilene on Wednesday at 11 o'clock at the Chapel of the L. A.ughter Undertaking Company just before the body was brought to Eldorado. Rev. C. A. Powell officiated at this service, which was attended by a large crowd of the high school teachers and classmates from the Abilene High School. The extremely large floral offerings were evidences of the innumerable friends which this Eldorado youth had gained in Abilene.

A. J. Roach, Jr., was born in Schleicher County, near Eldorado, on January 31, 1913. He spent practically all of his life in Eldorado. He attended the Eldorado Public School and here made a host of friends by his ready smile, his big heart, and by his friendly, genial disposition. He united with the Eldorado Baptist Church when he was eight years of age. Following the Christmas holidays, last January, he went to Abilene and enrolled in the high school there. He was classed as a junior and would have received his diploma at mid-term next year. He made an excellent scholastic record in Abilene, being exempt from a final examination in several of his studies. While in Abilene he made his home with his sister, Mrs. T. J. Bailey.

He was taken seriously ill on Thursday, May 19, with double pneumonia. On Sunday he rallied and every hope was held for his recovery, but on the next day he lapsed into semi-consciousness. He died on Tuesday, May 24, at 8:15 P. M. He was 19 years, 3 months, and 23 days of age. A host of friends in Eldorado and elsewhere mourn the passing of this youth.

Surviving in the family are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Roach, of Eldorado; two brothers, Eldred and Jim Tom, both of Eldorado; one sister, Mrs. T. J. Bailey, of Abilene, one brother and one sister had preceded him in death.

A large number of relatives and friends were present at the funeral services. Among the out-of-town relatives and friends were the following: Mr. and Mrs. John Roach and daughters, Mary Lee and Mildred, of Abilene; Mr. Matt Roach and daughter, Reva Kate, of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Brock, of Winters; Mrs. Ira Green of Sonora; Mrs. Charlie Guggolz of Gatesville; Mr. and Mrs. Ruff Sewell of Sonora; Mr. Elmer Ray and Mr. Frank Curtis of Lubbock; Miss Nina Roberts, Abilene; Mrs. Rufus Freeman and Mrs. Ed Reeves, Abilene; Mr. Delmar Harison of Abilene; Miss Opal Akin, Winters; Miss Helen Craddock, Sonora; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rounds, Christoval; Rev. and Mrs. L. D. Hardt, Paint Rock.

The pall bearers were as follows: Active, Herin Ramsey, Leland Haynes, Lyonelle Ballew, N. T. Busby, Delmar Harison, Pat Finley, Chandler Whitten, Hayne Graves; Honorary: Bill Sproul, Robert Evans, Harold Isaacs, Jim West, Elton Ellis O. B. Bradshaw, Charlie Buie, Albert McGinty, Hassell Ratliff, Jack Ratliff, Eben Nicks, J. R. Conner and Carl Kerr. Practically all of these had been classmates in school.

The flower girls had also been classmates and friends in high school and were as follows: Jess Ella Johnson, Lucile Oglesby, Grace Ratliff, Gusta V. Graves, Ruth Nix, Elnora Andrews, Loleete Andrews, Margaret Bradley, Inez Cobb, Thelma Taylor, Margaret Sheen and Willie Ruth Johnson.

The floor fell out of the Self-Serve warehouse on the Santa Fe track Monday evening, and Bill Currie and the agent, Mr. Mullett narrowly escaped serious injury. They were pinned down by falling blocks of salt and people from town had to get them out. Preston Bailey happened to be passing by when the crash came. He phoned for help and a rush from town took help to the men in short time. Neither were seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Bird spent the week end at Miles with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bird. Miss Geneva Bird, sister of Mr. Bird, who had been visiting in Eldorado for two weeks returned home with them.

Rev. W. B. Gray and family left Thursday for El Paso where he enters a new field of work. They have lived in our midst for two years, and made many friends while here.

H. W. Chrieseman was here from Big Lake, Monday meeting old friends and looking after business. He reports the Big Lake country, to be wearing its Sunday clothes.

THIS AND THAT

By Jimminy

Oil is back to a dollar a barrel in the mid-continent field now, and if events of the past few months indicate anything, the price of a gallon of gasoline will reach a dollar before the Christmas holidays. It begins to look like the oil companies are going to stabilize the price of a barrel of crude oil and a gallon of gas at one dollar each. The big boys apparently want to make the rest of us believe that gasoline and oil is more important than grits and gravy.

Of course, no industry can endure without profits—nobody expects them to. But, by Jimminy, there's no sense in one industry trying to hog all the profits. Let's prorate—that's what the oil companies were crying for not so long ago.

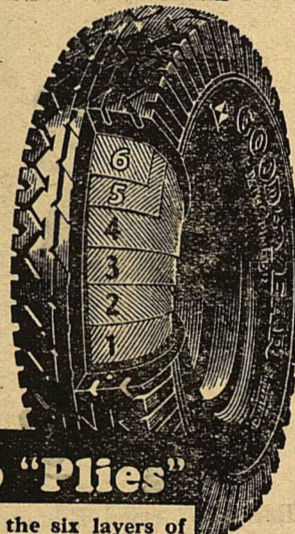

The oil companies claim they have been doing most of their bookkeeping on the red side of the ledger for a year or so and are just trying to get back on their feet. They are not to be blamed for that, but it doesn't look just exactly right for them to put every body else on their feet, too, literally speaking. Any way these big companies operate, it's next to impossible to try to "jew" one of them down a cent or two. When one announces a price change, the rest of them fall over each other in the rush to meet the price—just like they didn't know it was coming.

It may be that we would all be better off if the industries operated that way, the writer doesn't know—Jimmie Allred might.

The secretary of a South Texas printers association, observing the mounting gasoline prices was struck with a happy idea, following announcement of the latest increase. He took a news item, doctored it up a little, and here's what he got:

Letter Heads to $8.25
 "For the second time in the past month prices of letter heads in Houston were increased Tuesday when Magnolia Printing Company initiated an increase of 50 cents per 1000, and Texas Printing Company, Gulf Printing Company, Sinclair Printing Company, Consolidated Printing Company met the raise Humble Printing Company will meet the increase Wednesday, it was announced by officials."

Printers and a lot of other business men don't do those kind of things, of course, but the possibilities are there just the same. What's "sauce" for the oil companies, may be "gravy" for the little fellow.

CRIME (Editorial Digest)

Crime in America may not be as bad as it is sometimes pictured, but it is bad enough, to say the least, "and it is to be borne in mind that the United States has had some very bad advertising in recent years thru publication of the exploits of the organized gangsters and racketeers," the Houston Post points out.

As an example of this sort of advertising the Post quotes from an editorial in the London Evening News, which says, "It is for the people of the United States to decide whether, in the name of other children, it will call a halt to a state of things which looks as though it will make the gangsters and thugs the final arbiters of America's destiny." The London paper was referring, of course, to the Lindbergh case, which has aroused worldwide public indignation.

Whether the kidnapers and murderers of Baby Lindbergh will be apprehended and punished remains to be seen, but it is evident that the agencies of law enforcement will leave no straw turned in the search for the abductors of the little fellow. With federal, state and local authorities tracking down the criminals, kidnaping, and possibly all other forms of racketeering will be dealt a solar plexus blow. The public has become so aroused over the New Jersey atrocity that nothing short of capture of the thugs responsible for the dastardly crime will satisfy the demand for an America in which a parent will have assurance that his children are protected against fiendish criminals.

Mrs. Cora Putman, who has been visiting her daughter, Miss Lodice Putman, at Santa Rita, returned home Sunday, accompanied by Miss Lodice, who has come home for the summer.

Tom R. Henderson made a business trip to San Angelo Monday. He was accompanied by Miss Annice Putman.

KERRVILLE BOY KILLED BY CAR HERE SUNDAY

(Menard Messenger)

Newt Nichols, 20, of Kerrville was instantly killed on Highway No. 4, 11 miles north of here about 8:30 Sunday night when his parked automobile was side-swiped by a car driven by Sam Lumly of Eden. Lumley was said to be in a serious condition Wednesday, the result of an injury to his head.

Nichols' body, found more than fifty feet from the spot where the cars collided, was badly bruised and broken. Earl Howell, his uncle who was riding back to Kerrville with him after spending the day in Balingier, received minor injuries.

Sam Ford, R. M. Heyman and Floyd Napier, returning from Melvin, were the first to the scene of the accident. They extinguished a fire caused by a gasoline leak in the Eden car and sent for a local physician. Nichols was brought here in the Sanders ambulance.

The Kerrville car was parked along side the road and the two men were outside working on the carburetor, according to the account given by Sam Ford. Nichols was next to the road-way. The driver of the Eden car failed to see the parked automobile in time to turn out and clear it, Ford said. Swerving sharply to the right, the rear of Lumley's car struck the Kerrville car and Nichols was standing between.

Nichols' body was taken to Kerrville early Monday for burial.

Balanced Farming Would Help Farmers, Says Chicago Banker

Melvin A. Traylor Would Make Modern Farm More Self-Contained

Speaks From Own Experience

Speaking before the International Chamber of Commerce at Washington, Melvin A. Traylor, President of the First National Bank of Chicago, said in part:

Like all of us, in every line of activity, the farmer was deceived by high values in the time of his prosperity. In a well-intentioned, but what now seems at least an unfortunate venture, the Government provided abundant credit facilities for the farmer's use. These facilities were supplemented by other large and liberal lending agencies which, likewise, were misled by land values. The result was that millions of farmers assumed obligations out of all proportion to any possible normal farm income.

All of us interested in farm activity and farm finance must assume our share of responsibility for this situation. We are learning our lesson and will have to take our medicine with the farmer himself. For this mistake, time and hard work seem to be the only remedy. Certainly, more credit will not solve the problem.

Agricultural Industry Relief
I wish I possessed some prophetic vision that I might suggest an easy way by which the agricultural industry could be relieved of its distress and started on a course of well-being and profit. God has not given me that power, but I think there is at least a partial remedy which the farmer himself can apply. That remedy will start him on the only course which, experience and observation convince me, any of us can hopefully anticipate: the making of a comfortable livelihood.

When we find that on approximately 20 per cent of the farms in the United States there is not a milch cow nor a chicken, and that on more than 30 per

LOOKING TO THE FAR

PLACES OF THE WORLD

In years to come, the far places of the world will mean almost as much, from the commercial standpoint, to millions of Americans as do their home towns and states.

Ten per cent of our total trade depends on overseas markets. And that ten per cent, as John S. Carson, Vice-president, the American and Foreign Power Company, recently pointed out, marks the difference between profit and loss in the grand balance sheet of American business. The fact that so many of our industries are swimming in red ink is the direct result of the tremendous drop in the volume of our foreign trade that has occurred during the past year or two.

In 1928 our total export trade, according to President Hoover provided the livelihood for 2,400,000 families, including some three million individuals, have suffered. Their buying power has dropped—they are no longer able to go their part in keeping the industrial machine in motion. Their misfortune has thus been felt, directly or indirectly, in millions of other families.

Unprejudiced minds are looking across the seas, knowing that in the modern world, isolation means industrial suicide—that employment for millions of our fellow citizens is dependent on the markets of distant lands.

Sandy went down South and, not expecting cold weather, he neglected taking his red flannels. A sudden cold spell brought upon him the necessity of telegraphing home for his "reds." The result was the following telegram: SOS BVD COD PDQ.

Doctor: "The best thing you can do is to give up cigarettes, liquor and women."
Patient: "What's the next best thing?"
—Sour Owl.

First: "Does your wife believe everything you tell her?"
Second: "Why, she believes lots of things I would never dream of telling her."

IN MEMORIAM

"I hear a Voice you cannot hear Which says I must not stay, I see a Hand you cannot see, Which beckons me away."

Thus the spirit of our beloved young friend A. J. Roach Jr. passed to his home above. In his passing, the seat in his home is vacant. A loving son and brother is missing. A beautiful friendship, and his friends were legion, is only a memory. But a memory that will grow brighter through the passing years.

We shall miss him because we loved him, but we would not call him back, for to the pure in heart death but opens the shining portals of an endless day, gorgeous with perpetual glories and everlasting bliss.

"Beyond this vale of tears, There is a life above Unmeasured by the flight of years,

And all that life is love." To his loved ones and friends we would say,

"Rejoice oh grieving heart. The hours fly past; With each some sorrow dies With each some shadow flies. Until at last The red dawn in the east, Bids weary night depart, And pain is past."

—A friend who loved him.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this opportunity of expressing our most sincere thanks and appreciation to each one who showed us kindness after the death of our loved one, and especially do we thank the friends for the lovely food that was sent in. May God's blessing rest on each of you.

IS PROPERTY CONFISCATION APPROACHING

Throughout the land there is growing talk of "tax strikes." Many property owners are simply unable to pay the exorbitant levies demanded.

We are gradually approaching a time when it will be cheaper to tear down many buildings, thus creating unimproved properties, or allow the property to be taken over by the state, than to pay taxes.

Is it any wonder that the best minds of the country are regarding the tax problem as the most serious, most far-reaching and most menacing issue the people now face?

Mr. A. L. Stewardson was here Monday from the ranch near Ft. Stockton and says his country is in fine shape.

VERNON PORTER HITS COW ON HIGHWAY

It cost around $50.00 to repair the car.

OIL WELL NEWS

The Stanolind Oil Co., W. H. Williams well will probably start work in 8 or 10 days.

The J. D. Wesner test is still idle and nothing definite is known as to when the work will be resumed.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Vester T. Hughes, who had been suffering for several days with various ailments, was taken to San Angelo Monday, where he was operated on for mastoid trouble and for removal of tonsils and adenoids. Latest report is that the youngster is recovering nicely from the effects of his illness. He will probably be returned to his home at Mertzon in a short time.—Mertzon Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Baugh and daughter, Miss Sarah Frances Bush, of Dallas are visiting friends and relatives in Eldorado this week.

TWO DROWN IN CONCHO AT SAN ANGELO

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Haynes were drowned Saturday night about midnight when they attempted to cross the causeway on 6th street. The stream was swollen and their car stalled. Mrs. Haynes attempted to wade out. She was washed down and her husband went in after her, both drowning. Other occupants of the car were rescued as they remained with the car.

Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left a small son, who was asleep in a bed at the Grand Courts when his parents were drowned.

THE BIG DIRGIBLE AKRON STARTS ON RETURN JUNE 4

The Akron, which recently passed over Eldorado on its way to the Pacific Coast, will start on a return trip June 4. But it will likely go north of here. It should pass over Texas about the 5th or 6th, so if you see or hear the strange visitor take a peep at the worlds largest air ship.

BEHIND THE CITY LIGHTS

The next time you look at the sky-line of a city, with its multitude of twinkling lights in homes and factories and office buildings, it would be interesting to reflect that much of what you see could not have been created without the protection offered by stock fire insurance companies.

Every light, whether electric, gas, oil or acetylene, means possible fire. Almost every fire contains the elements of a potential conflagration. Property valued at millions may be wholly destroyed within the space of a few minutes.

Stock fire insurance stands between the bank, the investor, the home owner, the factory operator, the farmer, the industrialist, and ruin. It takes over the risk at a definite rate, based on the hazard involved. The insured incurs no indeterminate premium liability.

Almost unconceivable fires—such as those which swept San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago—have not disturbed the strength, stability and safety of stock fire insurance in the lightest degree.

If it were not for fire insurance, few modern buildings would be built, fewer men would be employed, money could not be safely invested in a construction venture, and shipping would be crippled on land and sea. It is the backbone of credit—and the friend of industry and employment.

BICYCLE VS AUTO

FORT WORTH, May 20.—This may be the automobile age, but Wesley Davis, T. C. U. ministerial student, finds the bicycle more practical (and economical) as a mode of travel.

Davis rides 35 miles to Midlothian, where he preaches, on Saturday, and returns Sunday afternoon. And 70 miles is no small pedaling on anybody's bicycle!

ELDORADO FUNERAL SERVICE MOVES INTO NEW QUARTERS

The Eldorado Funeral Service has moved into the old W. H. Parker Store building, which is directly behind the Parker & Son Grocery.

The building has been repaired nicely for the business and will be really a better location and come convenient for the business.

The Eldorado Funrela Service has the very best equipment and an experienced embalmer and undertaker, and deserves the patronage of the citizenship when such service is needed.

The Funeral Service at present is owned by the Rev. J. L. Ratliff, but he has A. C. Browning as director.

They invite the public to call and see them and inspect their stock and see for yourself how well they are prepared to assist you and even at a saving to you, when such service is needed.

LET'S PUSH FOR ACTION, IT CAN AND MUST BE DONE

The State Highway Commission have removed 75 percent of danger from the turn going out of Christoval to San Angelo where several wrecks and deaths have occurred.

They are going to remove another dangerous place some two and a half miles south of Christoval, where the highway crosses two draws on a turn, another needed piece of work, and should have never been built from the beginning. At this point some 800 or 900 feet of new highway will have to be built.

But to date we have had no evidence of the widening of the Public State Highway from the School Building in Eldorado, to town, about 800 or 900 feet, one of the most dangerous pieces of highway between the two cities or in either city. The Lions Club has been at work on this project for nearly two years. The Success believes that if the citizenship of our city could present the necessity of this piece of Highway being widened, that 75 percent of the danger would be limited. No child has been seriously hurt on this piece of highway yet, but it is only a matter of time until it will likely occur. One has only to pass over at noon or at the close of the public school while it is in session to realize the danger of hurting some child. The danger to our judgement is far greater than that of the danger points two and one half miles south of Christoval, and we believe could be accomplished with less expense. If the State officials could be shown the real danger to life as it now is, The Success believes they would act.

Our Commissioners Court could have more influence than anyone, but by all means, let's don't wait for a serious accident to occur for us to make demands if the State cannot be induced to act, Schleicher County can. All of our organizations have talked it, and each have committees to act, but so far no action has accomplished much.

The Success just wants to renew this need to your minds. We are willing but negligent. A wide highway on this piece of road would eliminate 75 percent of the present danger. Let's insist on the State doing something at once, before school opens in September, if possible.
