The Akron passed over Eldorado about 10 months ago or some time last May when it was on its way to the Pacific Coast. Radio messages were received in Eldorado early Tuesday morning telling of the Akron disaster.

The Akron was the largest ship of its kind in the world, and cost the U. S. Government $4,500,000. The loss of this big ship will likely be hard to overcome.

This strike is about the same as encountered in the Whitten well about ten miles southwest of Tisdale, which promised production, and a sweet gas was found, which could be used in cars as it came from the ground. No definite information could be learned Thursday as we go to press, but the drillers admitted they had found gas and were awaiting orders.

The W. R. Nicks is still under reaming and cleaning out, below 65-8-incl casing at a depth of 4,414 feet. Total depth being 6,170 feet. Phillips Petroleum Co. is completing both wildcats.

Quite a few people visited the stockpens Tuesday afternoon to see these cattle.

GOVERNOR PROPOSES SLIDING SCALE OIL TAX

AUSTIN, April 3.—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today sent to the legislature a message proposing passage of a bill levying a gross production tax on oil and calling attention to "the serious condition now taking place in the East Texas oil field."

The governor said conditions in the field were so unsettled that "we might truthfully term it a reign of terror, and the people who live in that area are disturbed in mind and spirit beyond apprehension."

She said she had been informed that "this desperate condition has reached that stage where heretofore law abiding citizens are arming themselves with fire arms and are threatening to take the law into their hands if the rights of property owners and persons * * * are not in some way protected by law."

Provide Stiff Penalties
The bill recommended by the chief executive would levy a tax of two cents on the first 150 barrels of oil produced each day from a single well, five cents per barrel on the next 100 barrels and 25 cents per barrel on all oil in excess of 250 barrels produced daily from a single well.

At this time the state levies a tax of two per cent of the sale price of the oil.

The bill would provide stiff penalties for violators of its provisions. A producer who failed to pay the tax would be subject to a fine of $1,000 and twelve months imprisonment. It would require all pipe lines to be metered and would direct that all persons or corporations transporting oil to make daily reports. Those failing to make reports would be subject to a fine of $1,000 for each day such report was not made.

Prison Terms Provided
Persons interfering with employment of the state railroad commission, administrator or promotion laws, would be subject to a fine of $500 and six months imprisonment.

Those found producing in excess of the allowable set by the commission would be subject to imprisonment of from one to five years.

Proceeds of the tax would be allocated one-fourth to the public free school fund and three-fourths to the general fund. —San Angelo Evening Standard.

Tribute Paid County Agent And Lambs

The March 30th issue of "Live Stock Markets" a market periodical published at Chicago, Ill., in commenting on the recent Southwestern Exposition & Fat Stock Show at Ft. Worth, paid the following compliment to L. E. Sumner, County Agent of Schleicher County and to the sheep exhibited:

"The Grand Champion carload, a very fat thick lot were fed and exhibited by Cecil Moore of Eldorado, Texas. The second prize load were fed by Thomas Bros. & Lawhon and were very fat. Third prize went to Oklahoma A. & M. College on a very high quality load that were not quite as highly finished as the other two loads. Fourth prize went to Tom Alexander of Eldorado, Texas.

In the Club loads, Schleicher County 4-H Club of Eldorado, Texas, under the direction of L. E. Sumner, won first, making the fourth year in succession that they have won this class. Mr. Sumner has brought national prominence to Schleicher County sheep through his efforts."

The article also carried photographic cuts of both loads of lambs with a brief feeding history, market weights, and sale prices.

In as much as the publication in which the foregoing article appeared goes to thousands of feeders, shippers, and purchasers of livestock, as well as packers, that tribute is itself a fair dividend on the investment of effort and diligence put into lamb feeding in Schleicher County the past four years. Recognition by a publication issued from Chicago, the world's largest livestock market, of the ability of our County Agent and of the desirability of our lambs for feeding and fattening purposes, is indeed worthy of note. The term 'nationally prominent' can mean no little to the sheep industry of Schleicher County and to southwest Texas.

Those ranchmen who, with the County Agent, have made this record possible are to be complimented, and they are deserving of continued support and co-operation in carrying this good work on.

APRIL 7, 1933.

The Governors sliding oil tax for the East Texas Oil field, seems to be one of the most feasible solutions ever proposed to control the oil fields and provide needed revenue for the public treasury. Yet this proposition will face the same problems of honest distribution and control, but it will bring in the revenue and it has a penalty that will demand respect.

The East Texas Oil field seems to be the largest political proposition that Texas has ever handled. It is a first running mate to the State Highway Department, and the tales they tell and print in regard to them makes a fellow in a distant portion of our State wonder who are the liars. Sterling declared martial law on account of a near rioting and probably lost his office on account of the stand he took. But now comes Governor Ferguson with a strong accusation that the field is almost a reign of terror, and the citizenship are becoming enraged. The question remains what can be done.

As soon as Ma gets that East Texas Oil Field straightened out we want her to see that it rains in Schleicher County.

DOLLARS COME HOME

Trace the course of a dollar spent for property improvement, repairs, or replacement.

Part of it goes to local merchants, who provide the needed materials. Another part goes to the workman of the job.

The workman spends his part for the necessities of life. The corner grocery, the drug store, the department store get it—and through them it goes to their employes, to the farmer and the manufacturer. Then the circle begins again—the money enters new pockets, passes thru other industries, travels to other sections of the country.

The part of the dollar going to the store providing the supplies follows much the same course. It pays the store's workers. It pays bills. It goes to factories to purchase new stock. From the factory it goes to other workmen, to related industries supplying raw material to investors.

And, at last, the dollar comes back, through one channel or another, to the original spender.

In a short length of time that dollar has had a thousand uses. It has done the work of a thousand dollars.

That's the beauty of money which is actually circulating—it is used an infinite number of times, and it does as much good each time.

Now is the time to obtain needed repairs at the lowest cost in decades—and at the same time do your bit in fighting the depression.

Jobs are cheaper than charity—and without the jobs, there won't be anything for charity.

SPRING

An impetus to business and employment is the periodical return of the season of spring.

Spring creates new life and re-creates hope; all nature says, "Let's go!"

If there is any cleaning or repairing to do about the house, office, shop, store or factory, the best time to do it is in the spring time.

All of us should take lessons from the buds, the grass, the trees and flowers; and like the rising of the sun, in spring the soul is born again.

We are all more or less creatures of fancy, imagination and dreams. We dream of the days

GARDEN OF EXPERIENCE*

By F. G. Clark

Twenty-three hundred years ago, Aristotle wrote his system of ethics, in which he maintained that man should achieve a happy medium, by avoiding all extremes. He should avoid riches on one hand, and poverty on the other. He should not work too hard, nor loaf too much. He should keep in the middle of the road, in all things, if he would achieve the highest possible success and happiness.

But this misery of causing sin of going to extremes, is the constantly besetting sin of humanity. We don't seem to be able to hold ourselves on the plane of moderation, but like the pendulum of the clock, swing from one extreme to another. This argues lack of self-control. And it is as true in our national life as in our individual life.

In '29 we went to the extreme of speculation and debt making. We continued on in this reckless mood, until like loading the camel, we piled on the last straw, and crack! went the camel's back. It reminds me of the Irish wood hauler. He took his employer's team down into the woods, and began to pile on wood. When decently loaded he said to himself: If they can haul that much they can haul another stick, and he kept this up until the team was unable to start the load. Then he began throwing off. He kept saying: If they can't haul this one they can't haul that one, until he had thrown it all off. He returned to his employer with an empty wagon, declaring that the team couldn't pull any wood.

After the panic of '21, we began piling on the load of debts and continued until we couldn't pull it. Then we began throwing off until there is nothing left but the running gears of the wagon. We can't seem to stop when we have a medium load, either in piling on or unloading, and it looks as if the government was afraid to try.

We need to strike a happy value medium between money and products. At present we have gone to one extreme in boosting the price of money and to the other in lowering the price of products.

Money is extremely scarce and produce is extremely abundant. Why can't the government increase the volume of currency, moderately, until a fair balance is struck between it and commodities? Since '29 money has enhanced in value three fold, and by that same token, produce has decreased in price three fold. A debt of $1,000 contracted three years ago could have been paid then with a hundred sheep, but today it takes three hundred sheep. Sheep are plenty, money is scarce. What is the remedy? Less sheep? No. More money. There are millions of people who would like to eat the sheep and wear his wool, but haven't the money to buy it with. There are none too many sheep, but there is too little money. Let us use a little sense and paste the plaster on the sore.

of prosperity and of all of the blessing that material gain can bring. He who does not look up in springtime is unfortunate, indeed; for everything about us suggests life and action.

B. F. Nolen was in the city Wednesday attending district court.

Sam Williams was among the ranchmen that was attending district court Wednesday.

Thousands of Women Have Taken Cardul on Their Mothers' Advice

It is an impressive fact that many women have said they learned of the value of Cardul from their mothers.

What stronger evidence of her confidence in a medicine could a mother have than that she advises her daughter to take it?

Cardul is given the credit for relieving so many cases of womanly suffering that it is widely and favorably known. Druggists, everywhere, sell it.

If you are weak, run-down, suffering monthly, take Cardul. Take it for a reasonable length of time and try it thoroughly. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of women who have written to say: "Cardul helped me."

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS WILL CONTEST AT BIG SPRING

The Eldorado High School has been asked to enter a student speaker in the Annual My Home Town Contest at the Fifteenth Annual Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Big Spring, May 11, 12, 13.

The entry blank and rules of the contest were received this week by Superintendent R. D. Holt from C. M. Caldwell, Chairman of the contest.

Contestants must be high school students and each town may select its contestant in any way it desires. The speech must be original and about the home town of the student. The rules provide it shall not contain poetry, and shall not be over five minutes long.

A new loving cup is to be offered to the winner this year at Big Spring—the Thos. Etheridge cup having been won three times by Joe Witherspoon Jr., of Wichita Falls, who becomes its permanent owner. Witherspoon will not be a contestant this year according to Chairman Caldwell. In addition to a loving cup, the high three contestants will each receive a substantial cash prize and the winner will be given a choice of a number of college scholarships.

The Home Town Contest has been a feature of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Conventions for the past ten years, and the final contest is held before the entire convention on the last morning.

PROHIBITION IN ONE COUNTY

1. Dr. Paul D. Hasbrouck, in the Christian Herald for October 1932, makes a study of Dutchess County (Poughkeepsie, Co. Seat), New York. All his figures are on a population basis for purpose of comparison, and show that during the last 12 wet years, the average arrests for drunkenness per year were 629. During the 12 years under prohibition the number fell to 374 showing the law to be 41 per cent efficient as to drunkenness.

2. For the first 3 years while New York had a state enforcement act, the law rated 70 per cent efficient on drunkenness.

3. Pauperism arising from intemperance stood at 25 during the 12 wet years. The record then dropped to 4, showing an efficiency rating of 80 plus per cent.

4. During the last ten years, 10.46 per cent of the admissions to the insane hospital were chargeable to alcoholism. Under prohibition this dropped to an average of 4.26 or an efficiency rating of 59 per cent.

5. Factory absenteeism was 2 1/2 times as great during the wet years, which showed an efficiency rating of 60 per cent for the law.

THE IGNOBLE EXPERIMENT

By Thos. E. Pickerill

There was a great deal of fun made over former President Hoover's famous remark that Prohibition was a "noble experiment." But now the new beer law is going to bring about an even greater experiment, but this time it may develop into an ignoble experiment.

The truth is, that nobody knows where he is "at" in this country before the liquor problem is settled. The brewers lobby won. Whether this is the will of the majority there is no way of telling. The appetite of man runs wild at times. It seems that the beer bill is a good example of it.

Now the whiskey bootleggers will come into his own as never before. With an appetite for alcohol stimulated by beer and light wine, the craze for stronger stuff will get a good start. They should at least have legislated GOOD beer and GOOD wine. The result will be that the brewers and wine-makers will either violate the law and make stronger liquor, or the people will become dissatisfied with the legal stuff and go in for hard liquors as never before since the advent of Prohibition.

Truly, we are entering the nation's most ignoble experiment, and the end is not in sight.

MARK TWAIN AND THE EARLY TYPEWRITER

Hollys Alexander
 One of the most interesting sketches is his account of how he came to buy one of the first typewriters. In 1873 he tells us, he and a friend happened to see a machine in a store window and went in and looked at it. The salesman explained the machine and its uses and said it would write 57 words a minute. The type-girl wrote on the machine and they timed her and she wrote 57 words in 60 seconds time after time. Mark bought it for $125 and took all samples of work for curiosities.

He goes on to tell when they arrived at the hotel they found the girl had written a memorized passage over and over again. He continued to practice and was able to write "The boy stood on the burning deck," at the rate of 12 words a minute. This machine was the talk of the country.

Since the time of the typewriter there has been numerous labor-saving devices invented for the typewriter. There are typewriters made to write checks, to add, subtract, cross-add, and multiply. Noiseless typewriters and portable machines are now widely sold and used.

The typewriter is the one machine in our machine age which is in almost universal use. The ability to typewrite and to use the machine effectively for practical purposes is a requirement in almost all business positions for which beginners are accepted. The student who has learned to typewrite will find numberless opportunities, in his home life, his social life, and his school and college life, to use his skill. It is certain that typewriting will be studied by an increasing number of students in general courses, in addition to those who take the subject for its immediate vocational

CHORAL SINGERS AND SPELLERS GIVEN PICNIC

Nell Campbell
 Last Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock Miss Karr took all the choral singers and spellers that won in the county meet on a picnic out to Mr. Tom Jones' place. They were accompanied by several of the mothers. They returned about 7 o'clock, the thirty-five that were present reporting a delightful time. This treat was a result of a promise that if they would win, this would be given them.

LEAGUE DEBATORS HAVE PRACTICE DEBATES

Nell Campbell
 Those who are to represent Schleicher County in the Inter-scholastic Debate at the District Meet are: girls, Margaret Bradley and Lillie Bell Kent; and boys, Jack Ratliff and W. B. Gibson. They have been working for some time on both the affirmative and negative sides of the question, RESOLVED: "That, at least one-half of all state and local revenues should be derived from sources other than taxes on tangible property," which they will use at the District Meet.

As a practice they had a debate in Public Speaking Class last Monday, in which the girls' team took the affirmative and the boys' team took the negative. Because of lack of time no rebuttal speeches were given. As there were no judges, both sides were confident of their victory. Mr. Kelly, who has charge of the class at that time, and he and Miss Karr gave criticism on the speeches. The material given by each speaker covers fully the ten minutes allowed for their speeches.

Again Friday morning they gave a debate in assembly. The main speeches were five minutes with one rebuttal on each side. These debates afford a great deal of practice which will aid them in winning in the District Meet.

TYPING TEAM TO GO TO COLORADO

Fae Belle Enochs
 The team is going to Colorado April 8. The team for this year consists of Jack Ratliff, W. B. Gibson, Lillie Bell Kent, and Loleete Andrews. Two of these will write in the contest, the other two going along as alternates.

This is the third year Eldorado has taken part in this tournament at Colorado. In 1931 Eldorado won fourth place, the writers being Lucille Oglesby and Albert Martin. In 1932 Eldorado took third place, the team consisting of Gusta V. Graves and Melba Jones.

BERNARD CARR'S 1912 BUICK

Cecil Moore
 Another Ex-student of E. H. S. has made good. Bernard Carr has traded for an old 1912 Model Buick. The car is in good running shape now after being overhauled good.

This car looks very strange when you first see it. The car has four cylinders and an engine that looks to weigh about 100 pounds. The car is about seven feet high. The steering wheel is on the right side of the car. The gears and brakes are on the right side also. The cars lights are run by carbide and kerosene. All the frame work is wooden. There is a very little steel work in it. The wheels are about 21-2 feet high with very small tires. If anyone wants to ride, come around to see Bernard Carr.

GRADE NEWS

Nell Campbell
 Two members of the First Grade, Wanda Alexander and Jack Neill, have been ill in the San Angelo Hospital. The remainder of the class is enjoying their first reader which they recently received.

The following is an article written by a member of the Second Grade:
 Visit To Mexico

By Frances Thompson
 Our room visited the Mexican school last Friday morning. We enjoyed our visit. The Mexicans have a nice clean school house. Their teacher's name is Mrs. Davis. They liked our play very much. We enjoyed their songs.

The Third Grade A Class had their tryouts in declamations Wednesday, 29. The winners were: boys, Holvey Enochs, 1st; and James a Griffin, second. Girls, Lou Ella Parrent, 1st.

They were given a fourth holiday Tuesday March 28, for having the greatest number of parents present at the P. T. A. meeting. This was the first of two times they have won in this contest.

Lawrence Rodgers of Carlsbad, New Mexico was a visitor of the room Friday before last. One member of their class, Wanda Stapp has withdrawn from school and is now living on the Bert Page Ranch.

Those absent during last week were Jack Bruton, Dwight Weidemann, Geraldine Sproul, Mary Lou Brown, and Winnie Hegue. Wilburn Jefferys brought some lilacs for their room Friday.

The bulletin board was used by the entire Grammar Grades during the last week of March. On it were the articles selected as the best from the bulletin board of each grade.

PERSONALS

Thelma Taylor
 Miss Pauline Rape visited with her parents last week-end and attended a weiner roast at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Kerr. There was a large crowd and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

Miss Margaret Traik, ex-grammar-school student, who is now attending school in Brady; visited in Eldorado Sunday. She was glad to see her old friends and we are sure that they were glad to see her.

Hassell Ratliff, a dignified Senior, went fishing last Saturday and went in swimming Sunday but he says that it is still a little too cold to venture in again for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson attended the weiner roast at Kerr's last Friday night.

Miss Turney, Economics teacher of E. H. S. visited and shopped in San Angelo Saturday. The result of the trip is that she doesn't like candy and especially candy that has garlic and aspidity in it.

Miss Margaret Bradley reports that she studied all the week-end but that is a good one to put in the "Believe it or not" column.

Bell Sample says that he didn't do a thing this week-end and that is what we call a dignified Senior, on that spends his week-ends quietly.

JOKES

J. R. Conner
 Judge (In dentist's chair): Do you swear that you will pull the tooth, the whole tooth, and nothing but the tooth!

Jack Shugart: Is it true that money talks?

Miss Turney: Why yes, that's what they say.
 Jack: Well, I wish I had some to talk to me during the day. I get so lonesome.

Evelyn A.: I wonder how Thanksgiving originated?
 Lois W.: It was probably instituted by parents whose boys survived the football season.

Jim W.: Will five dollars pay for this old hen I ran over?
 Stranger: You better make it ten because I have a rooster that thought a lot of that hen and he may die now too.

No Speed Limit

This truthlet popped into my head,
 While soaking in my bath
 You won't find any speed cops on
 The straight and narrow path.

And this one banged into my brain
 While shaving on the dresser
 There must be lots of cops required
 On the way of the transgressor.

WHAT THE LOCAL LIONS CLUB HAS DONE FOR THE SCHOOL

Louise Boyer
 The Lions Club has helped the Eldorado school in many ways, such as giving prizes in Essay writing. Last year they gave Medals and this year they are going to give money.

They have encouraged and promoted the High School Athletics by helping to advertise the games.

They helped to build the Boy's Bathhouse by appointing a committee to help and by furnishing part of the labor.

They helped to build the sidewalk from town to the school building, and they had the county to widen the street in front of the school building.

They also helped to promote good sportmanship in Athletics, and they sponsor the Boy Scouts

Jack Ratliff and J. W. Gibson debated at the Lions Luncheon, Tuesday on the tax question. The question is one that has been before the American people since the Americans dumped the tea over board. It caused America to gain its freedom, and the tax question is now about as burdensome as it was in Colonial days. The boys gave some facts on the question.

The Lions Luncheon which has been meeting on Wednesday of each week will meet again next Tuesday on account of District court being called to meet next Wednesday and most of the Lions will be tied up with the court.

TAXATION AND GOVERNMENT EXPENSES

By Fred Vane, Economist

Speakers and writers on taxation plans and expenses of government create, perhaps unintentionally, several misapprehensions. For example, they give the impression that increased taxes on public utilities would be extremely undesirable unless they were absorbed by the companies. An increased tax on utilities would in many respects be preferable to a general sales tax and would require no new machinery for administration, would not interfere with regular business and would be less burdensome on the average citizen. In this connection, the bitter fight which the utilities make against any increase in their tax rate would seem to indicate that they are not entirely sure of their ability to pass these increased taxes on to their consumers.

Again, the impression is created that our Representatives and Senators in Congress are in the habit of grafting on the public by submitting and collecting padded expense accounts. This is not true as a general rule. The rate of compensation in such matters is fixed by law, and does not necessarily bear such relation to the amounts spent. It is possible that the remuneration and expense allowance for our public officials is too high, but it is certainly unfair that the suggestion be made that these men should not draw the compensation to which they are entitled under our present laws.

The further suggestion is made that public representatives in Congress spend taxpayers' money with a freedom never permitted in private business.

KEEP 'EM GROWING

Chicks are an expense—until they are grown. How fast they grow—and the profit they pay you after they reach maturity—depend upon how well you feed them during the growing period.

RED CHAIN GROWING MASH is growth insurance, for the present—and profit insurance, for the future. No other feed develops young chicks so surely into such husky, sturdy pullets and cockerels.

Of course it costs a few pennies more than makeshift home-mixtures and cheap commercial feeds; but SUPERIOR results will convince you that it pays to keep 'em growing—with RED CHAIN.

"HUMOGRAPHS"

By Thos. E. Pickerill

War clouds of Europe usually come during or after the reign.

They say we get more for our tax dollar than from any other dollar we spend. Get more what?

Well, we've at least been finding out how a lot of our self-made men got themselves self-made.

Anyhow, when we get enough of that new beer we may be able to see things we've never seen before.

Beer will make people loosen up and spend their money. Now if it would only make the right people do that!

Even earthquakes are not without their touches of humor. The following incident actually occurred during the recent quake in California.

As buildings were swaying and brick walls toppling in down town Long Beach, a drunk approached a young man and his girl. Calling the young man aside, the drunk said to him: "Ish a war. Now you take your girl and go north. I'll hold 'em back."

"But it's an earthquake," explained the young man.

Mrs. A. P. Bailey entertained the Eldorado Bridge Club at her home in Eldorado Thursday afternoon.

H. W. Finley went to Ft. Worth the first of the week. He shipped some sheep and went along with them.

"O, I never thought of that," replied the drunk, as he staggered on down the street.

IF ITS BAD FOR ONE BUSINESS ITS BAD FOR ALL BUSINESS

In November, 1915, the DuPont Company hired attorneys and paid the expenses of witness to have the only liquor license in Penns Grove revoked so as to remove the danger of insobriety among their workmen in the powder factory on Carney Point. The DuPonts gave two thousand dollars toward organizing the Penns Grove Camp Meeting Association and for the erection of the tabernacle on East Harmony Street.

Under the law forbidding the sale of liquor within a mile of a religious meeting, the DuPont Company also leased land at the rear of Carney Point Postoffice on which was erected a tent for evangelical meetings so that the county judge would have legal reasons for not granting a license either in Penns Grove or Carney Point.

Liquor wasn't good for the business of the DuPont Company then; it isn't good for the business of the same company now. Indeed, it isn't good for any business anywhere, any time.

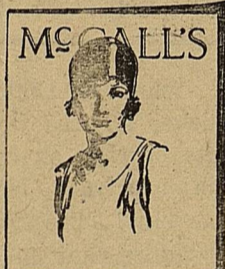

"Whoever first brewed beer has prepared a pest for Germany. I have prayed to God that He would destroy the whole brewing industry. I have often pronounced a curse on the brewer. All Germany could live on the barley that is spoiled and turned into a curse by the brewer." —Martin Luther.

Mrs. E. W. Brooks is at Christoval this week taking treatment.

Sunday morning April 4, 1920 the files of The Success shows many lambs were frozen to death, much damage done to vegetation, the mercury dropping to five degrees below freezing.
