"RED INK"

I think, a thought, of gloom as I glance,
At my report card grades on high
And my air castles as if in a trance,
Comes tumbling from the sky.

D's and F's all come in a row,
Flowing downward like a river,
Some may come and some may go,
But it seems that I'm here forever.

Some of the boys get grades in black,
And some get grades in blue,
But mine are read, like red shellac
Stays on the long year thru.

Pa, he asked why my grades were red
Said that I should be ashamed

Pruett - Luedecke

Last Friday evening Mr. Arthur Pruett and Miss Sammie Luedecke motored to San Angelo to the home of the Rev. Guy Davis and were united in the Holy bonds of wedlock.

Mr. Pruett is teaching the school at Station A and is held in the highest esteem by all who have met him.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Luedecke, well known and who farms west of Eldorado, and was a student of the Eldorado High School.

Mrs. Roy Tate, sister of the groom and Miss Earline Tate accompanied them to San Angelo and Alvin Luedecke, brother of the bride also was present at the wedding.

The happy young couple will make their home at Station A for the present.

The Success joins the many friends in extending congratulations.

But he don't know my teacher like I do.
Say, he's just crazy about red ink.

Report card times are here at last,
And our fuel's getting low
The report card grades are falling fast.

President-elect Not Injured

Five Others Wounded

Wednesday evening just after President elect Franklin D. Roosevelt had landed from his yacht from a fishing cruise, at Miami, Florida, and had finished a short address, five shots were fired at him from a distance of 50 feet. None of the shots striking the president-elect. The man doing the shooting was overpowered by policemen and soon placed him in jail. He gave his name as Joe Zangara and claims he was trying to kill Roosevelt and was sorry he missed him, but was pleased that he hit Mayor Cermak of Chicago, who was at Miami and was present to be with Roosevelt. Four others were wounded by the shots fired by Zangara, two women and two other men besides the Mayor of Chicago. All were taken to the hospital and some hope was held for all of them. Cermak seemed to be the one most seriously wounded.

The would-be assassin says he at one time tried to kill the King of Italy. He seems to think it his duty to kill all Presidents and office holders.

W. J. McDONALD DECEASED

Written by a friend

There before our Father's throne,
When the mists and clouds have flown
We shall know as we are known.

So we shall pass to a world unknown and there behold him sitting on his throne, of whom David said: "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saint."

At the crystal river's brink
We shall find each broken link,
That star that faded here,
Left our heart and home so drear,
We shall see more bright and clear.

O, those parting scenes shall end
We shall gather friend with friend.

For years he lingered on the shore
Waiting the boatman pale,
He took his last farewell on earth,
The dusky barge set sail.

Adown the sacred stream it moved,
To strains of music sweet;
The angels touched the golden lyre
And sang his soul to sleep.

The anthems ringing down the vale,
Along which all must pass,
Brought loved ones to that distant shore
To welcome one more guest.

We mourn the loss of him who's gone,
But oh, 'Tis all in vain;
With Jesus now he dwells at home
Free from sorrow and pain.

He cannot come to us again,
But we may join him there.
Then let us wait and watch and pray
And God will hear our prayer.

FEBRUARY 17, 1933

Last week's cold spell has probably been a blessing in disguise. Let's hope so at least. The frigid weather is as hard on insects as it is on stock and people and no doubt will be beneficial to the farming interest here during the coming season. And another thing it will check up the overproduction of eggs and they will get back to production prices.

It has been brought out on the legislative hall floor that Ma signed her only official document when she went into office, and since then Pa has been doing the signing. Well they told us they were both running, and would both be governor, and the people have so decreed, "maybe."

Down at Austin there seems to be about as many lobbyists as there is representatives, and the Governors are trying to make the Legislature accept some of their appointees. Our guess is there will be a real hair pulling before the end.

The Success believes that every thing should sell for some value, above the cost. Therefore we believe that our wool, cotton, sheep, cattle and other farm products should bring a reasonable value above the cost of production.

At the present time the world is in a turmoil, scarcely any thing brings its value, unless it is war supplies. The Good Book teaches that the tares and wheat shall grow together until the Harvest.

The Rev. Bob Shuler, who polled over 600,000 votes in California last year is going to run again.

His enemies put his Broadcasting off the air but they can't stop Bob, and how he tells it to them is real interesting. His critics are losing ground. Bob will win next time. You can't keep a good man down.

The scrap down at Austin is getting warmer all the time, and Jim is striving all the time trying to get control of the Highway funds, and the Fish and Game departments, and if he can cram it down the necks of some of our Senators he will soon have it. Texas is in a hell of a condition, but maybe she can vomit up the mess after awhile.

DOES AMERICA NEED A DICTATOR?

By Thos. E. Pickerill

A great deal of discussion has resulted from the proposal to invest the President of the United States with the powers of a dictator.

It all depends on what they mean by dictator. The President already has many powers consistent with dictatorship. He is no mere puppet who dances to strings pulled from above. His influence by virtue of his position is alone a power to be reckoned with by those in lesser authority.

But there are, as in all questions, two sides to this question. A good dictatorship would be similar in result to an honest kingship, wherein the king or ruling power is capable, trustworthy, humane, and above all, honest. History tells us that not all dictators have been bad dictators.

What the proposal means is to give to the President more authority to put into action the measures which now require allegedly too much red tape for their operation. It does not contemplate placing within the hands of our chief executive the power of making laws or any encroachment upon the judicial branch of our government.

At times it has seemed that so-called democracy would be required to give way to more direct action in some form of dictatorship. As a matter of fact no one questions unlimited executive authority in industry and

GARDEN OF EXPERIENCE

By F. G. Clark

Give us this day our daily bread, is a prayer uttered consciously or unconsciously, by hungry millions in the last three years. In the catalogue of human needs, food comes first—that is first among the necessities that are the product of man's labor.

In the model prayer, which our Master recommended to us, this phrase is directed toward 'Our Father, who art in Heaven' but under the circumstances this aim is wrong, since the Father has answered it before we ask. He has provided an abundance, thru the functions of nature, of everything necessary to our comfort. The Father has done His part in providing for the needs of his household. The Father's providential care includes all His children. When the Word was made flesh to dwell among us, He gave as the evidence of His genuineness, "The blind see, the lame walk, the prisons are opened, the hungry are fed and the poor have the gospel preached to them. This is why the popularity of Jesus is ever growing, and why in the days of His flesh, the common people heard Him gladly.

No human institution can be raised by hitching the lifting power to the top. This will raise the top, but the bottom will remain stationary. The result will be to widen the space between the top and the bottom, leaving the center empty. This condition spells ruin. If a nation is to make real progress, it must be lifted from the bottom, then the whole nation will be lifted to a higher level.

Disregarding this truth, brought about the ruin of Russia. Some of the brightest minds of the century have been Russians. But this upper crust had no connection with the sediment at the bottom, and apparently, no interest in it. The result was, the great mass of the common people were left in ignorance. When the test came the nation crumpled like an empty egg shell.

The French revolution was brought about by the same neglect of the common people. The people were hungry, while the king and court feasted and caroused, in utter disregard of their needs. But the court soon found out that you must either feed the hungry or fight them, and the king and queen's heads paid the forfeit, and theirs followed them to the guillotine, great numbers of the ruling class who had persistently ignored the hungry cry of the mass.

We have a hunger cry, and it is being ignored, and the result is the same, altho the method is different. We no longer cut off physical heads, but we have whacked off a goodly bunch of political heads and unless something is done the end is not yet. Some of the central states are in open rebellion, and have declared: "No more foreclosures."

More than two years ago the tax payers of Philadelphia marched on the city hall and compelled the political bosses to reduce expenses instead of raising taxes. Pressure should be brought to bear on our law makers, looking to the same result all over the nation, lest a worse thing come upon us. We, here in West Texas should add our protest to their's and give it all the weight we can. We feel like quoting Patrick Henry as he addressed an other crisis: Our brethren are all ready in the field. The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms. Why stand we here idle? Let your congressman know how you feel.

In private business of all kinds, but they do object to the manner of execution sometimes. But the American people have not yet been persuaded that the assumption of more power by one individual does not involve an element of danger, especially to the maintenance of their institutions and to the continued exercise of freedom.

It is possible that each one of us knows one or more persons, either personally or by reputation, whom we would be willing to trust with the absolute power of monarchical government so far as are concerned our confidence and trust. But collectively the people are still too much grounded in the belief of demo-

PROGRESS and POWER

Present-day industrial progress of small communities is based in a large measure on ample and economical power facilities which deliver a practically unlimited power supply at once—when and where needed.

Small local plants, serving single communities, generally lack these facilities—lack the variety of volume and demand which is necessary if the road to industrial growth is not to be blocked.

The transmission system, which has resulted from a group of towns pooling their power requirements and resources, can deliver this power easily, economically, at any time or place.

Progress and Power go hand in hand in the small city—and the West Texas Utilities Company is aiding this desired progress in 125 alert cities and towns in West Texas, the "Land of Opportunity."

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day. "My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time." Cardui, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

cratic control and balance of power to adopt readily the suggestion that dictatorship be established in this country. It depends, of course, on what the dictatorship would consist of. It is a relative matter, and not one of absolutism.

One thing is sure: the proposal has been received with milder reaction than would have been the case only a few years ago. Any person who would accept such a radical theory as Technocracy, certainly should not be unduly alarmed at the proposal for a dictatorship, especially since the people, by the same power they use to establish it, can abolish it at their own will.

NEW SIDEWALK BEING BUILT FROM SCHOOL TO TOWN

By Frances Mills
 The Lions Club signed up for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation money for Schleicher County. They received a sum of $850. This money is being used to build a new sidewalk from the schoolhouse to town.

The R. F. C. money pays only for the labor needed and the money for the material used will have to be secured some where else.

The Lions Club which is directing this work has appointed committees to take care of special duties. One committee signs up for the men who want to work on the construction. Another committee manages and supervises the work and still another committee pays the men for the work.

The new sidewalk will be eight feet wide. It will have a sledge stone base and will be covered with caliche or cement.

The clubs of Eldorado have been working on this project for some years. The principal advantage of the new sidewalk will be getting the children off of the highway. It will prevent many accidents and the probability of deaths.

CHECKING UP ON EX-STUDENTS

By Thelma Taylor
 Mr. Albert McGinty, better known as Bull, is attending the Texas Technological College at Lubbock this year. Bull was one of our popular seniors last year and we are sure that he is well liked in College. His grades for the first semester were: English B—, Mathematics A—, Domestic Art C, G. A. C and Physical Education A.

Bernice, another exstudent of E. H. S. is attending the San Angelo Junior College. She was valedictorian of last year's senior class. Bernice's grades for the first semester were: Education B; English B; History B; Mathematics A and Spanish A.

According to the way the grades range in San Angelo and the way they range here, Bernice would have had a straight A card according to our way of grading. An A in San Angelo is 95 to 100. A "B" is 90 to 95.

Frances Bahew, also Ex-student of E. H. S., is attending the San Angelo Junior College too. Her grades for this semester were: Biology C; Education D, English C; History C and Mathematics C.

GIRLS' 4-H CLUB

By Maxine Wilton
 The girls' 4-H Club, directed by Miss Mable Howell, met Thursday afternoon, February 9, at 4 o'clock. Miss Howell showed us how to make a dressing table out of orange crates that would brighten a dark corner. She had made one for demonstration. Some of the girls are going to make a dressing table of this sort for next time.

We are going to start some dresser scarfs at our next meeting. Miss Howell will show us how to do Italian hemstitching which we are all very anxious to learn. A dresser scarf should either fit the dresser or be not quite as large as the dresser, but never hanging off the edge.

As there are so many girls in the club, we were divided into two groups, Junior and Senior. Officers elected for the Junior President, June Hooker; Vice-president, Johnnie Fern Isaacs; Secretary, Treas, Getty Grace DeLong; Reporter, Maxine Wilton.

The president appointed Wiltona Bruton, Helen Stanford and Naomi Underwood to get more members.

WHAT IS TECHNOCRACY?

This is the question that is being asked thousands of times every day. Rupert Hughes defines it as "government by skill," skill means wisdom based on knowledge, knowing how to do things with tools and machinery. It has nothing to do with fine arts, religions, philosophers jokes and amusements. In simpler terms, it is a plan to bring order into the present labor system and construct a decent working world. Technocracy is a brand of the theory of evolution. It is as easy to misunderstand and misrepresent as evolution; some people get angry at the thought of it.

Strong opposition as always arose at once. Furious protest followed. Some thing that the world will be benefitted and will suffer as it has from other theories.

Howard Scott started the theory of technocracy. He and his followers first studied and worked at Columbia University, but they have recently been discharged.

Many changes have taken place in the last two centuries. Fifty years ago, people thought it absurd to teach women to write. Twenty years ago they thought it just as absurd to let the women vote. One absurd thing follows another, but some of them have proven true. Now technocracy comes along with the absurd idea that everybody shall have economic equality, the same hours of work, and the same income. Every one will have comforts and luxuries. Their only hope is to get farmers to raise smaller harvests and to get manufacturers to make less goods and use more men in making them.

Two facts that anti-technocrats will have to admit. In the last few years machinery has developed so fast that new fields of employment cannot be opened fast enough to take care of the unemployed. If science were permitted to have full sway, unemployment would hugely increase.

Many say that technocracy means the surrender of personal liberty. They say that science would become supreme king. They say that one fourth of a man's income goes to taxes and that science will have the rest.

A technocratic suggestion for money is a receipt to a man for paid debts, balance in the bank, and there would be no mortgages. It would not have to be a great success to beat the plan we have now. The United States now owes itself twenty billion dollars. Therefore, it is a bankrupt nation.

Rick people do not like technocracy. It would mean equal income for all classes of people. It seems natural to always have reward for ambition and skill. It seems natural that a person who works hard should have more than the lazy one. It is a pleasure to think of no debts, no worries, $20,000 a year rain or shine. Technocracy would be a great thing for the country if it would prove practical.

Technocrats have first assumptions that they base their theory on. They are:

1. Production increases with the cube of time of the period under consideration.
2. The number of man-hours required in manufacture decreases inversely with the passage of time.
3. Production per capita increases directly with time.
4. The ratio of debt to production is increasing faster than production.
5. Debt per capita is increasing as the square of time.

As for myself, I think that he theories advanced by the technocrats are possible, but not probable. Some think that Howard Scott is crazy, but Christopher Columbus and Henry Ford were also crazy!

REPORT ON SCHOOL LEGISLATION IN TEXAS

House Bill No. 261 has been passed by both houses. This bill gives the taxpayer the right to pay his school taxes in both common and independent school districts without at the same time paying his other taxes. This is a good bill and doubtless will help the schools very materially.

A bill has been prepared which authorizes school trustees in common school districts as well as in independent school districts to issue interest bearing warrants in payment of salaries of employees.

Senate Bill No. 142 by Green: Authorizing State Board of Education to make rules governing issuance of teachers certificates, but forbidding revocation or impairment of certificates issued prior to Sept. 1, 1933. This bill should be passed.

House Bill 340 requires the same valuations for property for local taxation for schools, cities, and towns, as for state and county purposes. The passage of this bill will mean terrific loss locally in the support of the schools. School boards and municipal authorities should communicate with their legislators.

Sales Tax Measures: All of the bills proposing to levy sales taxes will come together in the hands of the House Committee on Revenue and Taxation. We are informed that a new bill will be written in an effort to provide the best possible bill. Governor Ferguson says that the state scholastic apportionment should be maintained at $17.50 per pupil. Governor Jim says the only possible way to hold the present scholastic level is to enact some sales tax measure. All of us should lend encouragement to those who are working for such a measure.

Scholastic Apportionment: In a report from Supt. Bonner Frizzell of Palestine, school figures of the state auditor are quoted to show that unless some revenue measures are enacted into law the state scholastic apportionment for 1933-34 can hardly be more than $9.50 per scholastic.

100,000 Individual Communications from Patrons and Teachers should go to members of the legislature immediately telling them that the schools must not be seriously hurt, that funds must be provided for their operation.
