CHILDREN'S PICTURES TO BE TAKEN FREE

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures . . . they must all be of uniform size and quality. An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Tuesday, Dec. 13. Pictures will be taken at the Legion Hall from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them. Appointments may be made by calling Mrs. Charles McCurley, Phone GR 9-2558, McLean.

Cotton Harvesting Tempo Increases

As harvesting increased this week, the cotton classed for growers in the eastern Panhandle dropped sharply in grade, staple and micronaire, according to the USDA, Consumer and Marketing Service in Memphis. Perfect harvesting weather permitted farmers to make good progress in wrapping their production in bagging and ties. Farmers in this section of the Panhandle are experiencing low yields in most counties after early summer prospects of a bumper crop.

During the week ending Thursday, Nov. 24, 15,000 samples were classed, which is nearly half of the total of 28,000 classed for the season. Last year as of the same date 30,000 samples had been classed, reported K. E. Voelkel, in charge of the cotton division's Memphis classing office. Voelkel stated that receipts increased each day this week and as a result additional personnel was added. At the present time seven classing tables are in operation.

Some cotton was selling, but it was reported most of the production was held for various reasons. The average price for qualities moving into trade channels, with mike readings of 3.5-4.9, brought from 30 to 80 points above CCC loan rates. Middling light spotted, 15/16 was 18.95; strict low middling light spotted, 15/16, 17.85; and middling spotted, 15/16, 17.50. Cottonseed brought the farmers $63 to $67 per ton. The price of seed advanced at some gin points during the week to $67.

Signup Program for Crop Adjustment Now in Effect

The recently announced 1967 Cropland Adjustment Program authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to enter into agreements with farmers to divert cropland normally used for the production of feed grain and allotment and non-allotment crops to conserving and recreational uses.

The agreement may be for 5 to 10 years at your option. Annual adjustment payments will be made for the acreage placed under agreement. Cost-share payments are authorized for the establishment of approved conservation and recreation practices.

If you have a feed grain base or a cotton allotment, you must offer at least all of one such base to qualify for an agreement. You may offer all of any other base on the farm. The feed grain base consists of the corn and grain sorghum base on the farm. Any barley or wheat placed in this program would be paid at the non-allotment rate.

If you have an existing agreement, it may be modified to place additional CAP bases under a 1967 agreement. In certain cases, the agreement period on an existing agreement may be extended during the request period.

The designated acreage must be maintained for the duration of the agreement in such a manner as to prevent erosion and to control weeds, insects and undesirable rodents. No crops may be planted for harvest or harvested on the designated acreage. You must comply with all acreage allotments and the feed grain base for the farm under agreement as well as on all other farms in which you have an interest.

Requests will be considered on a first-come basis. If you are interested in an agreement, you may file your request in the Gray County ASCS office, beginning Dec. 1. Please contact this office if you have any questions about the request or the program.

WTSU Basketball Season Opens

The West Texas State University basketball team will be shooting for their first victory of the season at Canyon Saturday night as the Buffs tip off their 1966-67 schedule with the rugged Phillips 66ers of Bartlesville, Okla. Tip-off time is set for 8 p.m. in Buffalo Fieldhouse.

This marks the seventh meeting between West Texas State and Phillips. The 66ers have won all six previous meetings and enter Saturday night's game with a 7-1 record. Last year's Phillips team posted a 47-6 season to shoot the 66ers' all-time record to 1,464 wins against 252 losses. No Phillips team in 39 seasons has had a losing record.

Coach Jimmy Viramontes, whose Buffs will go into the game as the underdog, would like nothing better than to begin their 1966-67 season with a victory, especially against the star-studded 66ers.

"It would give us a tremendous start to defeat the 66ers, and we're going all out to do so," says Viramontes.

Public Meetings on Economic Program To Begin Dec. 5

The Panhandle Economic Program will move a step closer to the action stage through a series of four public meetings scheduled over the area Monday, Dec. 5, through Thursday, Dec. 8.

Those wanting to attend from this county are invited to be on hand at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Borger Hotel, Borger, for the three hour discussion of PEP.

Other sessions will be held during the week in Dalhart, Canyon and Memphis.

Anyone interested in the future of the Panhandle is urged to attend one of the sessions. A crowd of 100 to 200 people is expected at each event.

Jim Murphy, extension area farm management specialist and coordinator of PEP, says the 26-county Panhandle Economic Program is aimed primarily at improving income from our agricultural industry through improved use of area resources. During the meetings, he will report findings of an 18-month study of the Panhandle's economic influences.

Peace Corps to Test On December 5

McLean area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 3 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 5, at Room 322, Post Office, Amarillo.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. (If test scores indicate a limited language-learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country.) The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive — an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form—not the placement test—is the most important factor in the selection of volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

The placement test takes about an hour and a half.

On Dec. 2, meatless Fridays will end for all Catholics in the U. S.

The average annual per capita consumption of beef per person in the U. S. is around 100 pounds. If all of the 45 million Catholics in the U. S. turn to beef instead of fish on Friday, and they would eat the average of one-quarter pound of beef each Friday, it would take 11,250 head of 1,000-pound steers or heifers to supply the additional demand by the Catholic population each Friday. Multiply this by 52 weeks in the year and it would mean we would have to produce 585,000 1,000-pound animals annually. It would take an additional three-quarter million cows to produce these slaughter animals.

It is no wonder that the live beef cattle futures market jumped a good 40 to 50 cents per CWT when the announcement was made that the ban had been lifted on Friday.

What makes an even brighter outlook for the cattle business in the years ahead was in a recent U. S. D. A. livestock and meat situation report. They expect the 1966 calf crop to be off by close to one million head. They predict a further reduction in calf crop in 1967. Cattle numbers were reported down last Jan. 1 by some one and one-half to two million head. The cattle population will drop by another one and one-half to two million head when reported as of Jan. 1, 1967, according to the U. S. D. A.

All this is going on while the human population is expanding by an unprecedented rate. Unemployment is at its lowest. When you add all these factors up you can't help but be optimistic about the future for the cattle business.

Eight hundred seven bales of cotton have been ginned at the McLean Gin as of last Tuesday. A few representative yields are—J. I. Martindale, three-quarters bale; Leamon Andrews, between three-quarters and one bale; Jinks Shaw, one bale.

We estimate the harvest is two-thirds to three-fourths complete.

Baptist Men Meet

The Associational Baptist Men's organization met at the Baptist church at Lela Tuesday, Nov. 29, for their regular monthly meeting. There were seven men from McLean who attended the meeting.

HOSPITAL NOTES

VISITING HOURS:
2-3 p.m. — 7:30-8:30 p.m.
No Morning Visiting Hours

ADMITTED: Charlie J. McFarland, Dave Rapier, Jim Mac Hall.
DISMISSED: Ray Fish.

A state-wide reduction in telephone rates totaling $6 million annually was announced today by George Newberry, local manager.

This is the second such voluntary rate decrease made by the company during the past two years.

Largest item in the forthcoming reduction is a further lowering of intrastate (calls within Texas) long distance rates, effective Jan. 1, 1967.

With the reduction, most station-to-station calls over 56 miles in distance in Texas will have lower rates, varying from 5 to 15 cents less for three minutes, depending on distance. Reductions are even greater for calls over three minutes.

For example, here is how the reductions will lower rates for station-to-station calls made during the "day" period:

For a three-minute call:

	Present	New
Dallas-Houston	.95	.90
San Antonio-Amarillo	1.30	1.20
Austin-Ft. Worth	.85	.80

For a five-minute call:

	Present	New
Dallas-Houston	1.59	1.50
San Antonio-Amarillo	2.16	2.00
Austin-Ft. Worth	1.41	1.34

Along with these reductions, all intrastate station-to-station calls which are made after 8 p.m. and all-day Sunday will get the lowest night rate. At present, only station-to-station calls which are prepaid (charged to the number placing the call) and credit card calls are charged at this low rate.

This is the 10th reduction in long distance rates for Texas telephone users since the end of World War II.

"Although technological development continues to play a major role in keeping the cost of telephone service at a reasonable level, this reduction in long distance rates is due in no small part to telephone users themselves," the company spokesman said.

"Without the cooperation of our customers in placing their calls by number, using Area Codes, and the overwhelming acceptance of direct distance dialing, it would not have been possible to achieve the operating economies that have made possible the series of reductions in rates," he added.

In addition to the lower long distance rates, there will be reductions of some miscellaneous telephone charges, effective Dec. 1 this year. These include:

A reduction in the one-time charge for a color telephone from $7.50 to $5.00.

A reduction in the monthly rate for amplifier telephones to $1.00. (This type telephone is most often used by persons with hearing impairments and at noisy locations.)

Introduction of a flat-rate charge for installing residence service, ranging from $6.00 down to $3.50, depending on the size of the town.

This flat-rate, one-time residence service will replace the service connection charges now in effect and will enable residence customers to have several telephones installed or changed at one time for the single service charge.

Prolonged Fire Peril for Ranges

A 30-day forecast of continued dry, unseasonably warm weather prompted the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to again remind hunters of grave fire hazards existing in the upland game areas as well as on the big game ranges.

Department reports from field men on the opening of the deer, turkey and quail seasons emphasized a strong cooperative attitude by sportsmen.

One good reason for this, said a department spokesman, is the matter of self survival during a raging range fire.

Tinder dry grass and brush have combined to create such dangerous conditions in some areas that they have caught the attention of even the more inexperienced outdoorsman.

The department admonished hunters to be extremely careful not only with camp fires but with smoking materials. A creeping fire from a discarded cigarette was described as matching the disaster potential of an unattended camp fire.

Even should the dry spell be temporarily dampened by a shower, department field men reported that the heavy growth of matured grass and weeds will provide a hazard as long as so many sportsmen remain in the open spaces for their favorite fall pastime.

The department suggested the up-to-date autumn hunting outfit will have a gunny sack or two, or the equivalent, handy to soak in water for use should a camp fire threaten to spread.

FASHION SHOW CASE

By Jewel

December! It is here at last. The month in which we look back with happy memories and some that are sad. The month for singing carols, for giving and receiving. The time for listening to Handel's "Messiah" and Gruber's "Silent Night Holy Night," and while we are planning those gifts for loved ones and friends, have we thought of the gifts we would like to bring to Him whose birth we are celebrating? I think first that I would like to bring to Him, a package all wrapped in tinsel and ribbon, containing "Deeper Devotions" to God and my Country; the second package would contain "Self Sacrifice" and thoughtfulness of others; the third, "Self Discipline," and the fourth I would wrap in the prettiest ribbons and tinsel of all, would contain "Appreciation." True appreciation is a gift from God, but the art of showing it is cultivated by the gracious and refined.

As Luella Curing has said in her article on "How to Give and Receive," "as soon as children understand the meaning of money, they should be encouraged to budget their allowance to buy presents on special occasions for close friends and relatives. Parents should never tell a child not to spend money on them; if this is done, the child will grow up to believe that he should be on the receiving end only. It is better for a child to learn at an early age that a part of our gracious living is to make small personal sacrifices to bring happiness to others."

The opening of presents on birthdays and Christmas should be a very special occasion. If your husband gives you something to wear, express your pleasure in his choice before you check it for size (never say "It's beautiful, but") and show your appreciation by trying it on as soon as possible. Treat your children's presents with proper enthusiasm, and, if they have made them, put them on display. Never let your children hear you criticize presents that you or they have received.

A present given in person is customarily opened in the presence of the giver. Learn to make this a charming ritual so that your family and friends are well rewarded by your obvious pleasure. Admire the wrappings and exclaim and comment appropriately upon the present. Always appear to be pleasantly surprised at having received it. Remarks such as "You shouldn't have done it" or "You spent too much" should be avoided. Whatever you do, have a WONDERFUL Christmas!

Special Train Brings Classes To Trainees

Clear the tracks for The Permacel Express—perhaps the most unusual private passenger train in operation today.

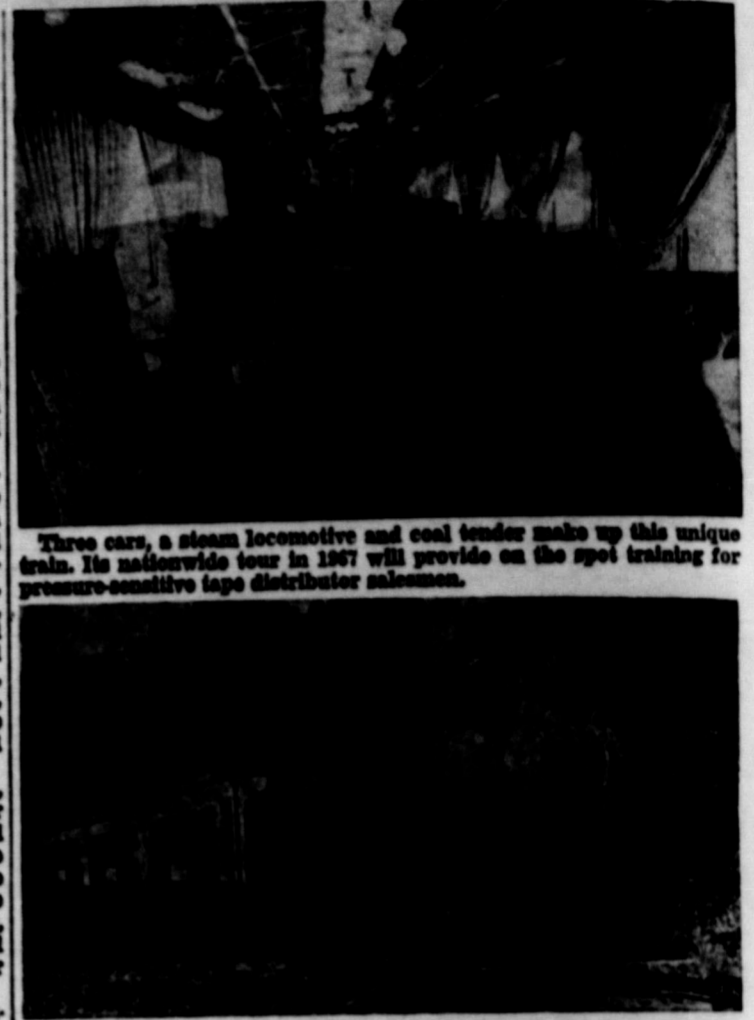

During 1967 the train will make a nation-wide tour. Train buffs will easily spot its brilliant red, white and black exterior, with gold trimmings, as it chugs along behind a steam locomotive and coal tender converted to diesel power. Nicknamed Choo Choo College, it is the only private passenger train operating on commercial U. S. railroads.

The really unusual part is the inside. Its three coaches have been remodeled and decorated in the style of the 1890-1920 period when railroads were king.

The train is replete with antiques and furnishings from the late Victorian era. One coach serves as a dining-parlor car and is elegantly outfitted with old-time parlor chairs, plush carpet, black marble cocktail tables, oil paintings, gold striped and fringed window shades, ornate carvings, silk and satin embellishments, and a player piano. There are brass cuspidors, including several used by ladies in the 1890's.

Another car contains a kitchen, the train crew's quarters and air conditioning, heat, electricity and other power facilities to make the train self-sufficient. The kitchen is a reproduction of those used on trains half a century ago, except for its three charcoal broilers, dishwasher and other ultra-modern conveniences.

Heart of the train is the classroom car, which blends the decor of the old with the latest in audiovisual equipment, including closed circuit TV. Permacel Division of Johnson & Johnson, manufacturers of pressure-sensitive tapes, will use this car to train thousands of its distributor's salesmen throughout the country next year. Each week or two the train will

At the rear of the classroom car is a small lounge with antique furniture upholstered in satin damask. Behind it is a picture window and another familiar sight on passenger trains of yesterday—an observation deck, with brass rail and fittings. This unusual train will begin its long journey throughout the U. S. in January, 1967.

FOOD PATTERNS FOR COLDER WEATHER

The nutritional needs of the body fall into three main classifications:

- a steady supply of the necessary materials for replacement of wear and tear (mainly proteins);
- a steady supply of material essential for body metabolism (such as vitamins, minerals); and
- a variable amount of fuel for energy and heat maintenance (fats and carbohydrates).

The first two classifications do not vary much with the seasons. Just as much rebuilding material and about as much of the vital chemical entities needed by the body are required at any time of year and in any climate. These are also relatively unaffected by the amount of activity, which varies from season to season.

But More Fuel Is Needed

In frigid climates, such as that in which the Eskimo resides, the need for conserving heat is greater. This is reflected in the high-fat diet of the blubber-eating Arctic dwellers. In the more temperate zones, especially where there is indoor heating, the need for more fuel and energy foods is much less. Even so, there is room for more carbohydrate and fat in the diet during the colder months.

This additional requirement should be supplied by a moderate increase in the energy foods, without disturbing the necessary supply of the basic nutrients in the first two classifications mentioned earlier. In many instances it is possible to combine the additional calories with the essential nutrients. Many fatty foods and meats carry vitamins; many of the vegetables with higher carbohydrate content also supply vitamins and minerals. Whole milk, half and half, cream, butter, cheese, ice cream and eggs are among the foods which contribute both energy and an array of needed nutrients. Peanut butter, beloved of the younger generations, is another excellent example. Now is also the season when olives, avocados and artichokes add fuel calories along with vegetable values.

Heartier Vegetables, Too

Now is also the time for the heartier vegetables which have had less appeal during the hot weather—all kinds of beans (navy, red kidney, lima and soy), split peas and lentils add protein as well as carbohydrate to the diet. Nuts provide protein and fat. Enriched bread and potatoes are sources, often unrecognized, of vitamins and minerals.

While there is some greater energy requirement during colder weather, the conditions under which most people live today are not such that this increase need be substantial, except for those in sports or doing heavy work, or those exposed to outdoor winter conditions.

While the dietary fuel is increased, caution is necessary to insure against too great a decrease in activity.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

School teachers are moving boldly forward with their drive for an $85,000,000 a year pay raise. This, despite the fact that they don't have the support of the governor's committee on education needs.

Texas State Teachers Association seeks salary increases ranging from $61 to $100 a month. This would cost the state $68,000,000 and local school districts $17,000,000 annually.

A committee resolution recognized that salaries are important to staffing schools, but added that other factors are just as vital in determining the effectiveness of teachers and administrators.

Without a committee recommendation, there will be sentiment among lawmakers to tell teachers they will have to wait another year for pay adjustment. Teachers will bring pressure on legislators to act immediately. This will be one of the toughest problems legislators will face during the 1967 session.

Decision is all the more difficult in view of an anticipated tax bill of well over $100,000,000 that is exclusive of the teacher pay question.

AIR STANDARDS HEARING SET—Air Control Board set Jan. 5 for public hearing on proposed regulations to control pollution from smoke and particulate matter.

Tentative regulations would outlaw burning of burs, trash, lint and other wastes from cotton gins and require mechanical dust collectors for asphalt portable plants. They cover flues, grading of smoke density, combustion units and distances of pollution sources from neighboring property.

TEXTBOOKS ADOPTED—State Board of Education has adopted $6,400,000 worth of new textbooks for 11 subjects.

Board also authorized development of state plan to support $2,500,000 federal loan application for educational services to children of migrant agricultural workers.

ENROLLMENTS UP—Texas' 35 state-supported colleges and universities enrolled 248,711 regular students this fall, representing an increase of 22,300 students—or about 10 per cent—over last fall.

Biggest gainers, percentage-wise, were Stephen F. Austin, Nacogdoches, (18.7%); Southwest Texas State, San Marcos (17.3%); and West Texas State, Canyon (15.6%). The 1966 enrollment figure approximately doubles the number of students in the college and university system 10 years ago.

SEGREGATION DECLINING—Segregation in Texas schools is on the way out.

All but four of Texas 1,303 school districts have filed intentions to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act with the U. S. Office of Education, says the Texas Education Agency.

Of 283,426 Negro students enrolled in state schools, a total of 84,575 are in substantially integrated schools.

Of the 1,875,352 white pupils tabulated, 718,537 were on integrated campuses, and an additional 401,497 were on campuses having a small percentage of Negroes. There were 504 on campuses having a predominately Negro enrollment.

"Of the 754,814 white pupils on campuses without Negro pupils, 285,231 resided in school districts having no Negro pupils," the report said.

Memories of Chicago 4-H Club Congress Linger

"Making the Best Better" has brought some of the best memories of their 4-H careers to four Texas teens.

The young people, all named winners in their 1966 4-H projects by the Cooperative Extension Service, recently returned from the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. They attended seminars and banquets, visited numerous tourist spots in the Windy City and enjoyed an evening as honored guests at the International Live Stock and Dairy Exposition.

They are LaNita Wood, 17, of O'Donnell; Diane Dodd, 17, of Mobeetie; Jaylie Longbotham, 16, of Monahan, and Doug McCloy, 16, of Morse.

Another special treat, and a first for congress delegates, was an evening at Cheetah, the Windy City's newest night spot for young people.

Miss Wood, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wood, won the clothing award sponsored by Coats & Clark Inc.

"Eight years, hundreds of yards of thread put in and ripped out and put in again—and a wardrobe I am proud to own. That is my 4-H Clothing story," said Miss Wood. She also studies fabrics and fabric content and has been a junior leader in clothing workshop for the past four summers.

Miss Dodd, the horse award winner, has received an A junior rating as an instructor of western riding from the National Committee On Western Riding. During nine years of 4-H work, she has increased her project from one to 11 animals.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Dodd, Miss Dodd enjoyed her trip as the guest of Merck & Co., Inc.

Excellence in the horticultural project won the trip award for Miss Longbotham, who estimates her garden project has saved her family $325 in fresh produce purchases during seven years of 4-H work. Miss Longbotham also is raising 18 experimental fruit trees in cooperation with a Texas A & M University program. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Longbotham, her trip was sponsored by Allis-Chalmers.

McCloy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McCloy, won the community beautification award sponsored by The Sears-Roebuck Foundation. As a member of his club's community clean up committee, he organized resident participation in Saturday clean up—fix up sessions. McCloy also participated in a successful effort to obtain a vacant building for use as a community center.

These federal grants will be matched with local money for health modernization and expansion programs. Total cost of the improvements sought in the applications is $104,917,000. Since the amount requested is so much more than the amount available, the health board will have to sift through the applications and recommend the most pressing ones for acceptance.

RETAIL SALES UP—Texas' retail sales surged upward five per cent during October, mainly because of a 16 per cent increase in the durable-goods sales, according to a report by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

October durable-goods sales totaled $514,000,000, up $71,000,000 over September. Strongest increase was in the area of new car sales, showing a 25 per cent increase, but still two per cent short of the October, 1965, gain.

SCREWORM ERADICATION—Airlanes dropped 263,425,250 sterile screwworm flies during October to fight Texas screwworm infestation. So says a joint report by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Animal Health Division and the Texas Animal Health Commission.

This includes drops over Mexico of 190,724,000; Arizona, 74,646,000; New Mexico, 20,790,000; and California, 7,680,000 during the same period.

Mexico was the leader in the number of laboratory-confirmed cases, with 2,135. But Texas' epidemic put it far ahead within the Southwestern U. S. with 715 cases. Arizona had 120, New Mexico 36 and California 9.

Texas' epidemic seems to be tapering off, as a spokesman for the commission said the number of cases is now down to four or five per day. Before the infestation, the number was normally three or four per week, and during the epidemic's height, that jumped to over 190 cases one week.

HOSPITAL GRANTS—State Board of Health will meet on Dec. 11-12 to decide how to allocate the $17,300,000 in federal Hill-Burton grants among the 80 Texas health facilities which applied for over $43,000,000.

This federal appropriation is slightly above the $16,900,000 allocated to Texas for 1966 grants.

Michael Grogan Is WT Society Initiate

Michael Grogan of McLean is among 24 new members to be initiated into Beta Beta Beta, international biological society of West Texas State University, when the society meets for a banquet Friday, Dec. 2.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Grogan, Michael is a junior pre-veterinary student.

Speaker for the banquet, to be held in the American Legion Hall, will be A. S. Jackson, wildlife biologist and naturalist at Canadian. Initiation ceremonies will start at 6 p.m. and will be held in Room 257 of the WTSU science building.

A. J. Dye, Roaring Springs senior, will conduct the initiation as president of the WTSU Delta Xi chapter. Membership is granted undergraduates with at least four courses completed in biology and with a high scholastic average in both biology work and overall university work.

Gun Carelessness Hikes Death Rate

Gun carelessness by both adults and youngsters is marring a successful fall wildlife harvest, according to reports to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

The resulting fatalities have boosted this fall's death toll beyond the 1965 total and have pressed veteran department field men to try to recall any such weird series of mishaps.

For example: A deer hunter, preceding companions back to camp, hid in some brush, shook the bushes and growled like a beast. He was killed.

A young man, stepping into his pickup at dusk, was wounded by one of three rifle slugs imbedded in the vehicle in a 12 by 9 inch area. Investigators found two rifle cartridges 927 feet from the "target." There was a small bush between the gunner and the victim, about 60 feet from where the victim was struck.

A nine-year-old boy was shot out of his tree blind by an older companion who said he fired at wild turkey. The previous week a boy hunter killed himself when his shotgun, being carried in a car, fell when the rig stopped suddenly, causing the weapon to slip.

A 10-year-old boy was killed by a 15-year-old boy when the latter was being shown a deer rifle which discharged.

A 14-year-old boy was killed when he stumbled over a deer rifle left leaning against a darkened wall.

Visiting in the Odell Mantooth home through the Thanksgiving holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Mantooth and family of Happy, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Greenhouse and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Swain of Pampa and Miss Cleo Pope of McLean.

Southwestern Bell announces $6 million rate reduction for Texas Telephone customers

Second Voluntary Reduction For Texans in Two Years

At a time when prices for most goods and services are continuing their upward spiral, Southwestern Bell has announced a voluntary reduction in rates that will result in annual savings of $6 million for Texas telephone users.

Included in the reduction are both Long Distance rates (effective January 1, 1967) and a series of miscellaneous telephone charges, (effective December 1, 1966).

Lower Rates on Long Distance Calls Between Cities in Texas

Reductions in intrastate (calls within Texas) Long Distance rates become effective January 1, 1967.

With the reduction, most station-to-station calls over 56 miles in distance will have lower rates, varying from 5 to 15 cents for three minutes, depending on the distance. Reductions are even greater for calls over three minutes.

In addition, all intrastate station-to-station calls which are made after 8 p.m. and all-day Sunday will get the lowest night rate—a maximum charge of 80 cents, plus tax, for three minutes. At present only station-to-station calls which are prepaid (charged to the number placing the call) and credit card calls get this low rate.

This is the 10th reduction in Long Distance rates for Texas telephone users since the end of World War II.

One-Time Color Charge, Other Rates Reduced on December 1

Texans will also enjoy savings on other telephone services, effective December 1, 1966.

These include the one-time charge for telephones in color (from $7.50 to $5). This is also the second reduction in the color charge in the past two years.

The original color charge was reduced from $10 to $7.50 on April 1, 1965.

And a new Residence Service Charge will benefit most residence customers who will be arranging for new service and additional service requiring installation. At present, there is a Service Connection Charge on each item of equipment installed. The new flat-rate, one-time Residence Service Charge will enable residence customers to have two or more telephones installed for the price of one.

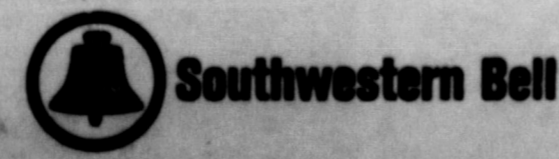

There will also be a reduction in the monthly rate for amplifier telephones (presently ranging from $1.25 to $2). The new charge will be $1. Amplifier telephones are primarily used by persons with hearing impediments and at noisy locations.

Customer Cooperation Helps Reduce Long Distance Rates

Technological developments continue to play an important part in keeping the cost of telephone service at a reasonable level. But much of the credit for making possible the reductions in Long Distance rates goes to Texas telephone users.

Without the cooperation of our customers in placing their calls by number, using Area Codes, and the taking advantage of Direct Distance Dialing where it is available, it would not have been possible to achieve the operating economies that have made possible these reductions.

We know of no better way, in passing these savings directly back to you, to say "Thank you."

Cancer Warning Signals Stated

"If hoarseness or cough lasts more than two weeks, see your physician" reads the 5th of Cancer's Warning Signals, as stated by the American Cancer Society.

As famous an American as President Johnson did just that last summer, and in his case—as in the cases of thousands of people annually—the warning signals indicated a benign condition, one that was not "cancerous."

But cancer of the larynx . . . the vocal cords . . . does strike 6,000 times a year, and half the cases prove fatal. This is a disturbing record because cancer of the larynx is readily diagnosed, often curable, and, according to some experts, even preventable.

There is no question that smoking cigarettes irritates the throat to an uncomfortable extent; every beginning smoker is aware of that, but many ignore the discomfort and eventually come to accept hoarseness, rawness, and difficulty in swallowing as normal. But such chronic irritation as smoking almost always precedes a diagnosis of cancer of the larynx; rarely has a case been seen in a non-smoker.

Even if the vocal cords are removed for cancer, the chances of survival are good—if the operation is performed early enough. In addition, new hope has been brought to those without vocal cords through programs of the International Association of Laryngectomees, supported by the American Cancer Society. New, effective methods of rehabilitation have resulted in most laryngectomees' learning to speak again, and many, to have resumed their careers and normal lives within weeks after their operations.

In Texas, the American Cancer Society sponsors laryngectomee teachers who themselves have had the operation and have learned to speak again through a hole in their throats. These teachers offer free lessons to fellow "neck-breathers," through the American Cancer Society, and upon recommendation of the patient's physician.

Cancer of the larynx most often strikes men, and too often fatal because of unwillingness to see a doctor in time, is one of the most preventable of cancers. But, as pointed out by Leonard W. Larson, M. D., past president of the American Cancer Society and the American Medical Association, ". . . it may take years for the forces of health and reason to outweigh cigarette advertising and addiction."

Visiting in the Jim Stevens home for Thanksgiving was their son, Jim, who is attending Texas Tech at Lubbock. Also visiting with them Thanksgiving Day were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ed Sherrod of Lubbock, Mrs. Jack Blayock and daughter from Pampa and Mrs. Arthur Boyd and children.

WHEN MONEY WON'T DO
 By winning his lodge's annual golf tournament, Roger became entitled to the traditional silver loving cup. But to his chagrin, the previous winner refused to part with it. When Roger filed suit, the other man told the court:
 "This cup can be duplicated for about $95. If I am wrong in keeping it, suppose I just pay him the $95 and we will call it square."
 But the court ordered him to hand over, not $95, but the cup itself. The judge said the trophy had, over and above its cash value, a unique sentimental value. Hence, mere money could not be a satisfactory substitute.

Whenever money damages would not be "just as good," the law may insist upon what it calls "specific performance"—that is, performance of the actual obligation rather than just damages for non-performance.
 Specific performance is decreed most often in cases involving real estate. Suppose you make a contract to buy the lot on the southeast corner of Maple and Spring, and then the seller backs out.
 You could probably get a court order commanding him to transfer that specific property to you. For there is no other piece of land the one you bought. Money damages would not make you come out even.
 Will a court always order specific performance, whenever money damages would be inadequate? No, because sometimes it is simply not practical. For example:
 When an opera star broke his contract, the management asked a court to force him to sing. True enough, money damages were no substitute for an actual performance.
 Yet, the court refused a decree.
 The judge said he would have no way of telling whether the star, if forced to sing, was singing as well as the management had a right to expect.

times, specific performance may also be unjust.

Say a girl's fiance breaks their engagement. Money damages, even if available to her, would not be the equivalent of a husband. But no court would literally make the man get married. As one judge explained:

"It is abhorrent to public policy to force a man or woman, under penalty of contempt of court, to enter into a marriage that is objectionable."

Mildew Resistant
 Paints Recommended
 For Exterior Woods

Only mildew resistant paints and stains should be used on exterior wood in most areas of Texas, says Paul Kramer, associate director, Texas Forest Service.

The desire for a "natural" or "rustic" look in residential buildings today is creating an increasing demand for rough-textured wood siding. Natural beauty of wood, its durability and economy are reasons for its popularity with American home buyers.

All too often, Kramer claims, home builders cut corners by using cheaper grade finishing materials.
 Later, the home owner is faced with serious maintenance problems. One such problem, Kramer says, is the bluish-black discoloration of exterior paints and stains.
 Cause of the discoloration is a fast-growing fungus called mildew.

Easiest and most effective control of mildew is to prevent it.
 Better exterior paints and stains on today's market contain a fungicide, such as phenyl-mercury-ole-ate, which prevents mildew.

Mildew stains can be removed temporarily. According to Kramer, the affected areas should be scrubbed with a mild solution of household bleach and water, allowing the solution to set a few minutes, then rinse with water.
 For a lasting relief, Kramer recommends that the wood surface be refinished with a quality paint containing a recognized fungicide.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my friends for the nice flowers, cards and visits during my stay in the hospital at Amarillo.

OLD STONE FORT
Nacogdoches

The Old Stone Fort standing on the campus of the Stephen F. Austin State Teachers College at Nacogdoches is generally believed to have been built during 1779 or 1780.

It has been held and garrisoned at various times by Spain, Mexico, the Republic of Texas, the Confederacy and the United States.

It was truly an outpost in the wilderness!

Nacogdoches itself, one of the four oldest civilized settlements in Texas, was named for the Nacogdoches Indians. Here in 1716 the Spaniards established Mission Nuestra Senora de Guadalupe around whose deserted buildings Nacogdoches was permanently established in 1779.
