State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford

New recommendations in the executive budget call for spending $11,600,000 on the state's water planning, development and administration activities during the next two years.

This is $6,700,000 more than the present level of $4,900,000. (A 137% increase.)

Broken down by agencies the budget proposals for 1968-1969 call for:

$7,500,000 for the Texas Water Development Board $3,500,000 more than the present budget of $4,000,000.)

$2,400,000 to a separate, greatly-enlarged Water Pollution Control Board. (Presently spending $103,223.)

$1,700,000 to the Water Rights Commission. (Now $792,987.)

These boards requested $9,400,000; $4,100,000, and $1,160,000 respectively.

Highlights of Gov. John Connally's recommendations include:

Funds for increasing the staff of the Water Development Board to 245 employees (from 182). Also to expand services to implement the state-wide water plan and "provide for continued state leadership in water resources planning and development."

Establishment of the Water Pollution Control Board as a separate state agency with its own staff of 45. (It now has only four regular employees.)

Enlargement of the Water Rights Commission staff from 48 to 63 and strengthening of its role in rights administration and determination.

Adoption of a strong administrative water rights adjudication act.

Financing a WPCB-River Authority cooperative water quality monitoring and surveillance program in metropolitan-industrial areas ($375,000 a year) to help formulate beneficial water quality standards and enforce water quality permit conditions.

Continuing supervision of Texas river compacts by the Water Rights Commission.

"These recommendations represent not a cost but an investment for the present and future benefit of all Texas," stated Connally.

SALT WATER PIT BAN URGED
—A House salt water pollution control committee has asked the Railroad Commission for authority to issue a state-wide ban on salt water disposal pits.

Commission has approved no-pit orders for 43 counties and isn't sure a state-wide ban is necessary. House committee also recommended a law against dumping of salt water on public roads or public land and licensing of salt water haulers and disposal operators.

APPOINTMENTS — George M. Cowden, state representative from Waco, will be the state's First Assistant Attorney General when Attorney General-Elect Crawford Martin assumes office in January. Martin has announced. A special election will be held on Jan. 7 to choose Cowden's successor in the House.

J. Pat O'Keefe, formerly of Amarillo, is moving from the State Democratic Committee to the Texas Fine Arts Commission as executive director.

Texas Chamber of Commerce Association at its meeting in Austin named Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde its chairman; Jack Drake of Westlake, secretary; and Fred Post of Longview, treasurer.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPEAKS
—County tax assessors cannot "back assess" houses for previous years when they were erroneously left off tax rolls, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held in a Houston controversy.

In other opinions, Carr ruled a motor fuel tax increase could not finance removal of billboards or screening of junkyards under the highway beautification act.

Also, a state agency can retain its own legal "house counsel," but official state attorneys must represent it in court.

FAIR TRIAL - FREE PRESS COMMITTEE MEETS — A study committee made up of newsmen, lawyers and legislators agreed in Austin that no legislation is needed to regulate crime and trial news coverage.

The fair trial-free press panel recommended self-discipline for press, radio and television to insure protection of constitutional rights of accused.

Six members of the committee endorsed a five-point statement of principles presented by Felix McKnight of the Dallas Times Herald.

Statement advised voluntary restraint in publication of confessions, editorials which might influence a jury or a judge, testimony excluded from a jury, reference to past criminal records of the accused and statements of lawyers and officers concerning guilt or innocence prior to trial.

MIXED DRINK CAMPAIGN FORMING—A large-scale, business-like campaign for legislation of mixed alcoholic beverages is shaping up quietly behind the scenes.

A House-based Citizens Committee is being organized with high-level membership in all areas. It already has an executive secretary and press agent.

Sun Antonio's HemisFair and Houston's competition for really-bigtime convention trade will add strength to the biennial campaign to convince the Legislature that liquor laws should be liberalized.

There is no indication the dries have relaxed their opposition.

MODELS UNVEILED—The University of Texas has unveiled its models of the Lyndon B. Johnson Library, together with an associated library and research building to house the Lyndon B. Johnson Institute of Public Affairs.

The complex, to cost $10,750,000, is to be built from the university's endowment fund made up of income from its oil lands. Included will be 100,000 square feet of space to house the LBJ papers during his political career. It will be turned over to the National Archives for operation.

A 19-acre hill, covering eight city blocks east of the main university campus, overlooking Memorial Stadium and the campus, will be the library center site.

WELFARE EXECUTIVE DIES—John H. Winters, one of the state's senior administrators, died last week following a long illness. The former Potter County commissioner had headed the State Department of Public Welfare since 1943. He was 64.

SHORT SNORTS
Legislative Budget Board will convene in Austin on Dec. 12 to look over spending proposals of its staff.

State Rep. Tom Holmes of Granbury proposes a cent-a-bottle tax on soft drinks (yield: $25,000,000) to help finance a raise in teachers pay.

Seasonally-adjusted index of construction shows a drop (16 per cent from year earlier) for the fourth consecutive month. Total for October was $106,200,000, compared with $125,000,000 one year ago.

Annual meeting of the Texas Mosquito Association will be held in Austin on Dec. 13, 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDermott of Dallas have been awarded the official Texas award for Historical Preservation by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee for contributing money to renovate the old Gillespie County Courthouse at Fredericksburg.

George Terry invites everyone to come out next Saturday to help celebrate the 20th anniversary of Terry's Electric Co.

Two bands from Amarillo, one from Oklahoma, plus local talent, will be on hand to entertain those who attend. Radio Station KRGH of Memphis will have six of their disc jockeys on hand and will broadcast live from Terry's showroom.

George Terry says, "If you are unable to attend the open house Saturday, tune in KRGH, 11:30 on your dial Saturday and enjoy the entertainment."

There will also be a drawing held to see who will be the lucky winner of the $29.95 dishwasher that is to be given away. So if you haven't registered for this dishwasher, go by now. No purchase is necessary to register, and you do not have to be present to win.

Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts will be served Saturday by the ladies of the Pioneer Study Club.

Lloyd Bybee Receives Proficiency Award

An official State Health Dept. citation for work proficiency has been awarded to Lloyd Roy Bybee, plant operations specialist for the McLean water supply system. The citation reflects the regard in which Bybee is held by state water officials.

Signed by the State Health Commissioner and authorities of the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association, the certificate of competency is awarded only to those utility plant operators who have successfully demonstrated their skill and knowledge in modern principles of plant management.

To qualify for certification, a plant operator must have accumulated a prescribed amount of actual work experience. He must also have attended both regional and statewide short schools at which the techniques of water treatment and waste water disposal are taught, and must have passed an examination given by State Health Dept. sanitary engineers.

State law requires that at least one operator per shift be certified for competency by health department engineers, but many operators seek certification on their own time and at their own expense to increase their efficiency as key public servants to their community and state.

The engineers said the attainment is evidence of Bybee's efforts to better prepare himself for the duties of his profession.

Texas Oil Production Hits 1 Billion Barrels

Texas oil production reached the one billion barrel total in 1965 for the first time since 1957, figures compiled by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association show.

There were 1,000,749,000 barrels of crude oil, valued at more than $3 billion, produced in 200 of the 254 counties during 1965, statistics show.

Since production records began 70 years ago, the state has produced a total of 28,403,016,681 barrels of crude.

Andrews County continued to be the leading county in oil production, with 76,908,300 barrels, although all sections of the state have several high producing fields.

Gray County had a 1965 crude production of 12,264,000 barrels to bring its total to 504,667,000 barrels since its first discovery in 1925. Its 1965 production rate averaged 33,600 barrels a day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

"It could only happen in McLean"
On Nov. 25, we were called to come at once to the bed side of our mother. Nine miles north of McLean we had trouble with the motor in our car, when we reached McLean we went to Bill Simpson's Garage. There we discovered the motor was ruined and could not drive it. Bill and Floye Simpson so generously insisted we take their car so we could reach Dallas as soon as possible. "Where else but in McLean could you find people with hearts so big and free."

Income Leveling Can Cut Taxes

December is the last chance this year for farmers, ranchers and other self-employed people to level or adjust their income—with the object of reducing income taxes. Leveling income between two or more years is a common practice to avoid the increased taxes that come with a highly variable income, particularly that of farmers and ranchers. James I. Mallett, extension area farm management specialist at Texas A & M University, explains how income leveling is done.

He said a high taxable income one year and a low taxable income another year results in higher taxes than if the same amount of the higher percentage paid on vided equally over the two years. The reason, he said, is because of the higher percentage paid on the high-income year.

Tax rates range from 14 per cent on the lowest amount of taxable income to 70 per cent on the highest taxable income level, he said.
Mallett gave this example of a tax saving by leveling income. If a farmer's taxable income for one year is $15,000, but only $5,000 the next year, tax rate on the highest part of his income would be 25 per cent. But, if the same farmer has a $10,000 taxable income both years, the highest tax rate would be only 22 per cent. This amounts to a tax saving of several hundred dollars, he said.

By shifting income or expenses from one year to another, farmers can keep income fairly stable, he said. For instance, if income is unusually high this year, sales of crops or livestock could be delayed until the next tax year.

Or, production items for next year, such as fertilizer, seed or supplies could be bought before the end of the current tax year and charged to this year's expenses.

Drownings in 1966 Top 1965 by 21

The Texas water recreational toll for this year has reached 221, or 21 deaths more than the entire 1965 season, as recorded by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Seven previously unreported drownings provided the grim boost. The last four victims perished while lacking life belts.

Three of the four were fishing. One man fell into the Trinity River near Palestine. A man and a boy drowned in a private lake near Huntsville. The lad apparently fell into the water and the man succumbed while trying to save him.

The only fatality associated with boating occurred on Lake Texoma when a man, with a skin diving party, drowned when their boat broke up and sank.

Meanwhile hunting accidents total 12 to date, just nine short of the entire 1965 fall hunting season toll of 21, with the major hunting period still ahead.

All three hunting victims were killed by guns in the hands of a companion.

All but one of the previous nine gun fatalities had been youngsters but only one of the latest trio involved a teenager. He was a 14-year-old Athens youth struck in the head with a charge from a .410 gauge shotgun.

A 22-year-old Corpus Christi man was struck in the chest by a charge from a .12 gauge shotgun held by a companion while hunting birds.

A strange accident took the life of a Cameron man. He was exchanging rifles with a companion when one gun fired, striking the victim in the heart.

One fatality, not counted in the hunting total, was a 47-year-old Guy man who died of a heart attack while hunting squirrels with a 13-year-old son.

4-H Girls Back from Chicago

Linda Huebsch bread

Diane Wade foods

Donella Dopslauf dairy

Girls who mastered culinary arts, sewing and Holsteins were among Texas delegates at the 45th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

The four who won trip awards to the recent congress are: Linda Huebsch, 18, Westminster; Donella Dopslauf, 18, La Grange; Diane Wade, 15, Longview, and Beverly Ann Barrett, 18, Gunter. They were selected by the Cooperative Extension Service which directs 4-H programs.

Highlights of the congress were a "pop" concert, evening horse show, fun and dancing at Chicago's newest teen-age night spot, educational tours to the Art Institute and museums and the festive 4-H banquet.

Miss Huebsch won her trip in the 4-H Bread program sponsored by Standard Brands Incorporated.

The daughter of Brodie Huebsch became her family's baker, cook and homemaker after losing her mother at the age of 11. Admitting that her first biscuits were terrible, she said, "When you learn the art, nothing can make your biscuits fail." Her biggest delight was a party sandwich loaf. She is also expert at Swedish tea rings, rolls, kolaches, parmesan puffs, bread sticks and casseroles.

"Casseroles are a great way to trim food costs," Miss Huebsch advises. Another state blue ribbon winner was her "Goulash Go Go." A Collin County 4-H Council delegate and Gold Star girl, she has devoted nine years to 4-H projects. She won the title of "Miss Cotton Queen" at her high school.

Miss Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wade Sr., was tops in the 4-H Food-Nutrition program sponsored by General Foods Corporation. Five years ago she won her first top state award in the Favorite Food Show junior division. Her ham salad was her prize creation this year.

Miss Wade has made numerous talks on the importance of an adequate diet and meal planning to her 4-H Club and other organizations. "I want to influence more people to be concerned about the food they eat," she said. She has given method demonstrations on rice and bread. Because of her new skills her mother depends on her to help plan and prepare meals and shop for groceries.

Miss Dopslauf was the guest of the Oliver Corporation, 4-H Dairy sponsor, at the congress. An eight year 4-H member, she has won numerous blue and purple ribbons on her Holsteins. She has made over $1,000 from the project and has won three heifers, a ton of grass pellets and a radio. She values her herd at $3,400.

Two years ago Miss Dopslauf was named Texas Holstein Girl, and her judging team went to the National Dairy Cattle Congress in Waterloo, Iowa. She has given dairy demonstrations, promoted "June is Dairy Month" and helped her father, Donald L. Dopslauf, run his dairy. She served as Fayette County 4-H Council chairman.

Miss Barrett, a Grayson County College freshman, modeled her black "leather-look" cotton coat and black-and-white houndstooth checked shift dress at the congress. She had used the coat fabric to make a hunters-type hat.

Her trip was provided by Simplicity Pattern Co. Inc., 4-H Dress Revue sponsor. For eight years Miss Barrett has won blue and purple ribbons in county and district dress revues. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barrett.

APPLY A LITTLE SCIENCE

If you've ever encountered the problem of having one glass stuck inside another, here's the best way glass in fairly warm water. Since age. Just fill the top glass with cold water, then dip the bottom glasses in fairly warm water. Since the heat of the warm water expands the bottom glass, and the cold contracts the top glass, they will then come apart with a gentle pull.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

By MATTHEW BAILEY
McLean's Boy Scout Troop met for their regular meeting Monday night at the city hall. They meet each Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the city hall. The Scouts and their leaders met Tuesday night, Dec. 6, with Bill Walker, the Scout leader for this area, who will be moving to Pampa soon. Two Cub Scout dens were organized at this meeting and they will meet on Monday and Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. after school is out. They will meet at the Scout hall behind the library. Jay Thompson was made Cubmaster and the den mother and den chief for den 1 will be Mrs. Juanita Moffitt and Matthew Bailey. Mrs. Best will be the den mother for den 2, and den chief will be Boyd Thompson. Thirteen boys signed up Tuesday night to be Cub Scouts, but the leaders are hoping to have many more sign up. If you are a boy between the ages of 8 through 11 and are interested in scouting, now is a good time to start. You may contact one of the leaders or attend one of the meetings.

CARD OF THANKS
Thank you for the flowers, cards, prayers and many other thoughtful things you did for me during my stay in the hospital.
Harvey Hudgins

"You TOLD me to water the plants!"

A YOUNG FAMILY'S ESTATE
Couples with minor children should make wills to provide for guardianship of their children. They should provide for someone to serve as guardian in the event both parents die in an accident or other cause. When parents don't plan for custody of their children, family discord and separation of children sometimes occur. Parents can reduce this possibility by taking steps to insure that their wishes concerning guardianship of their children are carried out.

Lefors Flea Market Is Termed Success

In a gay holiday atmosphere, amid Christmas decorations, the Art and Civic Club-sponsored Flea Market was a notable success on Saturday at the Lefors Civic Center. Twenty-five exhibitors were delighted with the sale of $236.10 worth of arts and crafts. Many beautiful displays furnished Christmas ideas galore to the approximately 200 customers and visitors who also enjoyed free coffee.

Exhibitors included the high school choir, football mothers, Mrs. R. W. Beck, Mrs. Harold Sims, Mrs. Jack Thacker, Mrs. Wendell Akin, Mrs. Chester Hill, Mrs. Walter Elliott, Mrs. Jeff Davis, Miss Norma Lantz, Mrs. Edward Vincent, Mrs. G. N. Mougner, Mrs. Howard Archer, Aunt Jane Cates, Mrs. Herman Cates, Mrs. Clarence Robertson, Mrs. J. B. Duckworth, Mrs. O. O. Bishop, Mrs. Elmer Melton, Mrs. Emily Smith, all of Lefors, and Mrs. Joe Ford and Mrs. Cecil Barnett of Pampa.

The dramatic success of this initial attempt at sponsoring a Flea Market has prompted the Art and Civic Club to adopt this as an annual project to be held the first Saturday of December. With the promise of even more exhibitors next year, the added space in the Civic Center will be well-filled with another display of Christmas spirit.

TWO GRAY COUNTY STUDENTS ENROLL AT STSC, SAN MARCOS

STRICTLY FRESH

Many a man has tried to pull the wool over his wife's eyes by using the wrong yarn.

If people learn through their mistakes, there are a few fellows around who seem to be getting a fantastically broad education.

If a person looks tired and careworn, don't suggest a vacation. The odds are that he just had one.

Did you hear about the Texan who was so poor the telephone in his Rolls-Royce was on a party line?

Horse sense is what keeps a woman from becoming a nag.

QUACKERY CHEATS YOU

At least $1 billion a year are spent on falsely promoted, worthless or dangerous products. Over $500 million are wasted on unnecessary or falsely represented vitamin products and other so-called health foods. One national survey has shown that arthritic patients are spending $250 million a year on misrepresented remedies. Even worse than the financial loss is the danger of using ineffective products and delaying proper treatment.

The youngster on your Christmas list would appreciate a gift of U. S. Savings Stamps or Bonds—the gift that keeps on giving.

Christmas comes every day to the person who receives U. S. Savings Bonds as a gift. And he receives $4 at maturity, for every $3 you pay out for his E bonds.
