Two Wrecks Cause Damage To Vehicles

Two one-vehicle ac cidents last week damaged vehicles but caused no injuries. On Aug. 25 at 6:20 p.m. eight miles north of McLean, David Leon Boyd of McLean was driving a 1972 Ford truck and pulling a 1969 homemade trailer when he turned left on Farm to Market road 2473. He lost control of the vehicle and it overturned.

On Aug. 26 at 4 p.m. eight miles north of Alanreed on a dirt road, Douglas Carl Patrick of Amarillo was driving a 1980 Dodge Ram pickup. when he approached a curve on the road. His vehicle turned over.

Members of the Mc-Lean School Board met Monday night for a public hearing on the school's budget, but no citizens came to protest any items. The $1,013,365 budget was approved by the board, and the group also approved an amended budget for 1981-82.

In the 1982-83 budget, $68,500 cafeteria expense is included which has never been included in the state budget before, according to Mrs. Shirley Johnson, school business manager. 'State law now requires that as of Sept. 1 expenses for the cafeteria and the athletic department must be included on the state budget. We have included the athletic expense before but not the cafeteria expense,' she said.

Total estimated revenues are $1,012,707. Mrs. Johnson said that the deficit of about $600 will probably come from penalty and interest payments on late taxes

Of the revenue. $309,662 comes from the "$703,045 must come from local revenues," Mrs. Johnson said. While school expenses are up 11 percent, the state allotment is up only eight percent, she noted.

The largest single expenditure in the budget is $352,998 for instructional salaries. "Most of the increase in the budget includes state-mandated salary raises, increased estimates on the cost of utilities, and increased estimates on the cost of the appraisal district. "We had budgeted $30,000 for the appraisal district last year which we did not use, but we budgeted $35,000 for this year, and we hope it will be enough," Mrs. Johnson said.

The 1982-83 budget also includes health insurance for 'employees, a new benefit for McLean school personnel.

The board approved an amended budget for 1981-82 which included the cost of the new science/administration building and architect fees, new teachers desks and chairs, desks and chairs for the first, second, and third graders, over $3,000 for new science supplies, the interior painting in the high school, and $43,725 of unexpected expenses incurred when the high school was damaged in a lightning storm last year.

Swimming Pool Committee Sets Organization Rules

Members of the Mc-Lean Swimming Pool committee met Monday night in the Sam Haynes home to make plans for fund-raising activities for Linda Haynes reported to the group that she had contacted Gray County Judge Carl Kennedy and Bill Waters, supervisor of the M.K. Brown Foundation fund about possible help on the pool.

"The judge was very helpful, and suggested we write the court a letter requesting funds. If it is legally possible, he said that he was sure that we would get some money from the county, although he made no promises about the amount," she said.

"Mr. Waters said that McLean had about used its allotment of M. K. Brown funds with the library addition but that he too would ask his committee to consider a request." she told the group.

Members discussed a variety of fund-raising activities, and decided to set the first minor fundraiser during Homecoming activities at the school.

The group also discussed safeguards for the fund, and decided to establish a savings account at the American National Bank, with ANB vicepresident Roger Mc-Cracken and the elected mayor of McLean as the only ones who can withdraw the money. "We want people to know their money is safe, and that someone will not abscond with it," Mrs. Haynes told the group. committee also decided to set a time limit of three years on the project, and voted that if the project has not been started by Sept. 1, 1985, that all monies collected would be returned, with interest, to the donors. Anonymous gifts to the fund would be donated to the City of McLean's park fund.

The group decided to meet with both the Mc-Lean school board and the McLean City Council at each group's September meetings. The committee will seek officials approval of the council of a plan to give certain donors special privileges. Subject to the council's

Tax May Be Problem

Ben Ezzell in The Canadian Record Unemployment hasn't been much of a problem in this area, but employment insurance may get to be a sizeable problem for Texas employers before much longer.

The Texas unemployment tax, a levy paid by all persons they employ and the frequency of employee turn-over, has not been a very significant item for most of us...the minimum tax has been just one-tenth of one percent based on $6,000 of wages for each employee each year...but it is about to zoom, according to word from Austin.

The Unemployment Compensation trust fund has a "floor" required by law to remain above $225 million. The fund has been drained rapidly this summer by a large increase in the state's unemployment, and a mammoth increase in the tax, from one-tenth of one percent to two percent or more, is in prospect.

That would mean a tax whopping increase of 2.000 percent or more which would affect every employer, large or small, in the state.

One Texas Legislator, Rep. Lloyd Criss of LaMarque, has called on Governor Clements to call a special session of the Legislature immediately to draft legislation to remedy the situation. Criss wants a four-point measure to repeal the $225 million floor, raise the minimum tax rate, raise the $6,000 wage base for the tax, and assess penalties based on the prime lending rate for late payment of the tax.

The Governor has indicated he is in no hurry to call a special session, but may do so after the November election

The Texas Employment Commission already has its answer ready...an increase in the tax from $6 per employee to $120 per employee.

Whatever the remedy...the TEC's tax boost or Rep. Criss' tax boost, or some other remedy which the Legislature may come up with if the Governor gives it a chance....Texas employers are going to feel the impact, and soon. If the whopping increase in unemployment taxes forces a lot of marginal employers out of business, as Rep. Criss suggests that it will, the problem and the tax may get bigger Employers who go out of business not only add their own employees to the unemployment rolls, but may join it themselves!

Labor Day Holiday Death Count of 58 during 1981 was a 32% increase over the 44 fatalities recorded in 1980. It is hoped that with a statewide awareness campaign and stricter law enforcement during the holiday period this increase trend will be bro-

"Harris County has shown a 3 % decline in traffic fatalities this year - this is particularly surprising when you realize that traffic fatalities in the past have increased an average of 13% a year! We think the reason for this decrease is the awareness campaign generated by MADD, the HPD DWI Task Force, the County DWI Task Force, more aggressive prosecution of drunk driving offenses by the District Attorney's office, as well as the the issue," stated Marinelle Timmons, Texas Director of MADD.

We are talking about a crime that kills more than homicides, injures more than assaults with deadly weapons, does more property damage than the forgers, burglars and robbers all added together. Drunk drivers kill 70 people a day in the United States and cause an estimated economic loss of over $5 billion annually. In Texas alone, 12 people are killed each day by drunk drivers while hundreds more are MADD has shown that people make the difference. During the past year, 22 states have toughened their drunk driving laws, and many are currently considering changes. The MADD organization now has 82 chapters in 29 states, with 6 established chapters in Texas, and 18 more in the forming stages.

Michigan 9-state survey reflected that when the drinking age was raised from 18 to 21 the states involved showed a 28% reduction in fatalities in the 18-21 year old age

§ Open container law. You cannot say to the people of Texas that drunk driving is a serious issue as long as the citizens are allowed to drink while driving.

§ Mandatory jail time for repeat offenders. A Republican Primary poll showed that 93% of the voters favored jail time for repeat offenders.

§ Eliminate deferred adjudication in DWI-related offenses. Under a 'deferred adjudication' sentence, the guilty conviction is deferred pending a probationary period. If the defendant successfully completes the period the offense is removed from his record. (Statistics show that a person can drive while intoxicated, on a regular basis, for up to 31/2 years before being arrested, and that only one in 2,000 drunk drivers is arrested.) § Revised procedures for prosecution of juvenile offenders.

§ Stricter laws regarding driving while license suspended.

§ Revisions to occupational licensing. Presently these are granted freely to young people and those convicted of DWI. (30% of all occupational licenses are issued for 24-hours a day, 7 days a week!)

§ Mandatory license suspension by law enforcement officer for refusal of alcohol test. (This would be a separate offense to refuse the test. and have nothing to do with the outcome of the court case on DWI.)

§ Allow breath test refusal as evidence in Presently the breath test refusal is not admissible as evidence in court and this is misleading to the jurors. They think either that the individual took the test and passed, or that the individual was not given the chance to take the test to show that he was not intoxicated. Final recommendations will probably be presented to the Governor in September.

Recognizing the scope of the DWI problem in Texas, Governor Clemidents in March and at that time made the commitment that the DWI

the MADD chapter Pres-

legislation would be his 'top' priority' during the '83 legislature.

'MADD is not a crusade against the use of alcohol," stated Timmons, "only against the combination of drinking and driving. The two simply do not mix. We would hope that people will not have to lose someone they love before they become concerned about the problem."

did you know?

For 20 years, Southwestern Public Service Company has sponsored Future Farmers of America (FFA) electricity workshops. This year, 82 FFA boys and one FFA girl participated (She was Kathy Karber of Booker, Texas, the first girl ever to attend the workshop). The students learned how to wire buildings, how to install and use electric controls, or how to build electric motors. The five top students won SPS-sponsored trips to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo., in November.

Glenn Bickel, Agricultural Engineer, Plainview.

Anytime you see a downed electric power line, report it to SPS. Don't touch it. Let professional linemen — SPS employees — handle the problem. Sometimes a downed line will appear to be safe. Someone who doesn't know what he's doing may touch it or pick it up.

Ray Juarez, Lineman Journeyman, Artesia.

There is no guaranteed profit for regulated electric utilities. Investor-owned companies like Southwestern Public Service Company are allowed to seek a fair and reasonable profit, but there are no guarantees. Last year, for instance, SPS was authorized by the Public Utility Commission of Texas to earn an average 10.76% return on equity.

The actual return was 8.35%. What we were able to earn for our shareholders was retained because we work hard to keep all our expenses down.

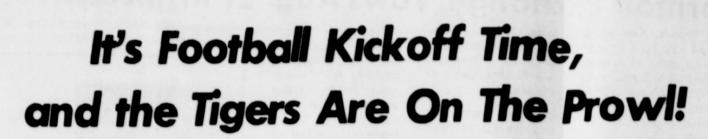

Charles Dammier, Manager Accounting Services, Amerillo.

Adventure On Red River Report on the Exploration of the Red River by Captain Randolph B. Marcy and Captain G. B. McClellan.

Edited by Grant Foreman This valuable volume, first published in 1937. and long out of print, has been brought back to satisfy an increasing demand for information concerning the South-

In 1852 Captain Randolph B. Marcy was commissioned to explore the country bordering on the headwaters of the Red River, a vast, hitherto unexplored territory extending from what is now Central Oklahoma to New Mexico. His subsequent account, first published by the United States government in 1853, is an amazing and fascinating collection of historical, geological, and anthropological information. Randolph B. Marcy was a graduate of the United States Military Academy in 1832, and was later stationed at Fort Towson in the Choctaw Nation. His subsequent success on other assignments led to his being selected to head the 1852 expedition.

whose efforts greatly enhance this edition, has devoted half a lifetime to investigating and writing about Indian tribes and the history of the Southwestern Plains, is no doubt one of the best known historians of the American Southwest, and properly categorizes the place of the Southwest in the unfolding of American history.

People of this area will no doubt be extremely interested as Marcy and Captain G. B. McClellan accurately document the habits and character of the "natives of the plains" and present with clarity the degraded condition of their women, their aversion to ardent spirits, and their manner of warfare. The many people in our area who may be remote descendants of the Southwestern Indian tribes will no doubt view with interest the accounts of their particular ancestors.

"Adventure on Red River" is now available at Lovett Memorial Library.

The McLean Methodist Youth Choir will present special music at the morning services of both the Heald Methodist Church, and the First United Methodist Church in McLean Sunday morn-

The presentation will be the first for the choir this year. The group was formed last January, and sang at the church, at civic functions, and at the Methodist Church in Clarendon last spring. The choir was disbanded during the summer, but began regular practice again last week

Ida Hess, director, said that any youngster from age 10 through high school, regardless of church affiliation, is welcome to join the group. Practice begins with a supper each Wednesday night at 6 p.m. in the Methodist Church fellowship hall.

The Baptist Women and the BYU's met Tuesday morning at the church for a salad luncheon and to hear a book review. Lil Reynolds reviewed "Say No, Say Yes For Change". The book was recommended for study to prepare the women for the State Missions Week of Prayer. Sept. 12 to 19. The group presented Mrs. Reynolds

A reception was hosted by Shirley Galmor in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was. laid with a white lace cloth with a gathered lace skirt. The centerpiece was the bride's bouquet and a yellow fountain featuring greenery and silver candelabra with yellow candles. The three-tiered wedding cake was accented with yellow roses and topped with yellow and cream silk roses and rose buds with baby's breath under a heart with two wedding bells with yellow and cream ribbon. Serving were Mrs. Leslie Pritchard. Shawn Galmore. and Judy Trew, sister of the groom. Rice bags were distributed by Brandon Galmor, Cody Pritchard, and Shawn Sanders.

After a wedding trip to Las Vegas, the couple are at home in Amarillo.

111 George McKnight, a prosperous farmer living about three miles north of Alanreed, died at his home late Tuesday afternoon from blood poisoning, caused by a severe wire cut. It seems that he was riding in a wagon with a little boy Friday and in his rounds had to cross a fence at a drop gap. Getting out of the wagon, he stood on the wire near a post and the little boy drove through, striking the post and uprooting it. In some manner Mr. McKnight got tangled in the wire and the team became frightened and ran away, dragging him and a strand of the wire with them. When rescued it was found that the wire had cut into his leg. completely severing one of the bones and cutting deep into the other. Medical assistance was immediately summoned and it was found necessary to amputate the limb. He rallied from the operation, but soon blood poison set up with the fatal result mentioned.

Nursing Center News

Thomas Nursing Center welcomes a new resident, Annie Eudey from McLean.

Sunday, Brother Wells of the Baptist Church was here to conduct services.

Monday our residents played Bingo. Those assisting were Vela Young. Mildred Giesler, Lena Bailey and Loree Barker. The Lions Club is now furnishing the bananas for our Bingo players, we really appreciate this. Many thanks to the Senior Citizens for furnishing the bananas in the past.

Tuesday morning 25 residents shelled peas brought in by Cynthia Hauck who also brought them a lovely planter. In the afternoon more peas were shelled brought in by Marsha Reynolds, we thank you Marsha for the bucket of peas donated for our residents, they sure enjoyed them. Our helper for this day was Oleta Westbrook

Wednesday morning more peas were brought in by Evelyn Pennington, we all enjoyed the cookies she furnished for us. In the afternoon members of the Baptist church were
