State Capital News

By Vern Sanford

First big public debate over the Legislature's spotlight issue—sale of liquor by the drink—was scheduled this week.

House Revenue and Taxation Committee set Tuesday afternoon hearing on the proposal to regulate mixed drink sales under a cents-a-shot tax, stiff retailers' fees and strict regulation.

One of this session's biggest issues was on hand for the House Committee session. Dry areas were lined up in depth of opposition testimony. Citizens Committee for Tourism and the Regulated Sale of Mixed Drinks announced formation of a support group—an advisory board of 37.

Liquor legislation already has been subject of these actions. House will pass a bill setting 8 a.m. hours (instead of present 10 a.m.-10 p.m.) for liquor package stores and ordering stores to close Christmas but permitting them to remain open on primary and general election days.

Representatives killed the bill to permit private clubs in areas voted "wet" for any purpose (beer, wine or whiskey) to operate under the "lock-keep" system by which each member must replenish his own supply.

Bill allowing beer distributors to continue supplying legal retailers although areas in which warehouses are located vote "dry" was signed into law, effective next August.

Rep. J. M. Simpson of Amado introduced a bill to put in all the strong enforcement measures advocated in the liquor-by-the-drink bill plus a $5,000 annual tax on private clubs, but failed to legalize "liquor by the glass." It's being called the "liquor without the liquor" bill.

REDISTRICTING STUDY BEGINS—All state representatives and some of their constituents will be called on for advice as to how to draw new federal and state House and Senate district boundaries.

Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham, chairman of House District Committee, said sub-committee will conduct an intensive four-week study in an effort to produce bills acceptable to the lawmakers which also meet the state's one-man-one-vote yardstick.

Two principal congressional appointments heard by the committee were offered by Republicans and liberal Democrats at its first hearing. GOP-backed measure would pit only one pair of incumbent congressmen against each other—Reps. Graham and Burleson of Anson.

Bill backed by Reps. Jake Johnson and R. L. Vale of Stanton would throw Cong. Abraham Kazen of Laredo into the same Rio Grande Valley district with Cong. Eligio de la Garza Mission; and Cong. John Gandy of Athens into the district with Cong. Olin Teague of Abilene Station.

TAX ISSUE NEAR SHOWDOWN—Optional one-per-cent city sales tax measure was tentatively passed by the Senate last week after weathering filibuster attack. It is expected to pass after one more filibuster this week.

Proposed tax package picked up more opposition in House committee on Revenue and Taxation hearing. Opponents of the tax boost in gasoline tax, which would channel more funds to the farm-to-market project, said the raise should be accompanied by a ceiling on FM roads and a proportional increase in diesel fuel used by trucks.

Committee sent to sub-committee the section of the bill by Ben Atwell of Dallas to raise the automatic $15,000,000-year appropriation to farm-to-market roads.

Good Roads Association insists that FM outlays should be held to about $70,000,000 a year.

Meanwhile, a bill to transfer all the funds now being given for new FM roads into projects to improve city streets was introduced.

In other action on the tax front, House overwhelmingly passed a resolution calling on Congress to begin steps toward constitutional change to rebate five per cent of federal income taxes collected to states. Minimum of two-thirds of states will have to join in request and four-fifths must ratify any constitutional change.

TAX CUTS—Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville and Reps. James E. Nugent of Kerrville and Ralph Wayne of Plainview are backing a proposed constitutional amendment to do away with the state property tax, thus leaving it for use by the cities, counties and school districts.

Since bonds have been issued by the colleges for buildings, to be retired out of a part of the property tax, they propose to make it gradually effective, with the final lifting of the state property tax coming in 1978, when present college bonds are paid out.

VETS LAND REVIVAL FAVORABLE—Chances of a state constitutional amendment to revive the veterans' land program appear favorable. House passed the resolution and sent it to the Senate.

Only four representatives voted against re-submission of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, with eligibility for long-term, low-interest and purchase loans broadened to include Vietnam veterans.

WATER RIGHTS—A bill by Sen. George Parkhouse for adjudication of water rights has passed the Senate and is being considered by the House Conservation and Reclamation Committee.

As things stand now, rights to use more river water than actually exists are claimed by Texans. Some have used them. Some have not.

Parkhouse's bill would set up a procedure for those who claim water rights to file their claims. Hearings will be held in each river basin. Then the Texas Water Rights Commission will decide who really is entitled to the water.

Those who don't like the decision will have their day in court automatically, for trial under regular procedures.

SULPHUR—West Texas' mining claim mixup has been cleared by the Legislature.

Gov. John Connally signed into law a bill putting sulphur, lignite, coal and potash under the regular leasing laws like oil and gas, which will give the state school fund 60 per cent of the bonus and royalty received from leasing, and 40 per cent to the landowners.

Fast action came after the courts held that sulphur comes under an old mining claim law, that mining rights can be obtained for as little as $10 an acre.

DRAFT QUOTA FIXED—Texas' draft quota for May will be 885 men, according to Col. Morris S. Schwartz, Selective Service director.

No quotas will be set for physical and mental pre-induction examination in April, continuing the examination half started early this year due to limits on travel funds.

Schwartz said Texas has enough men already examined and acceptable to fill current quotas. Army quotas ranged as high as 2,700 a month last fall.

First Baptist Church To Begin Revival On March 26

First Baptist Church, McLean, will open a 10-day revival on Sunday, March 26, with Bill Penland, evangelist, leading the services.

Services will be held daily through April 5, at 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., except on Sunday, which will be at the regular time.

Norman Burgess, music director at Central Baptist Church, Pampa, will be leading the choir and congregation in some fine music.

The public is cordially invited to come and hear the special music and gospel messages.

School Is Out For Easter Holidays

The McLean Public Schools will dismiss school Thursday, March 23 for the Easter Holidays. Regular classes will be resumed at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, March 28.

Only four representatives voted against re-submission of an additional $200,000,000 in bonds, with eligibility for long-term, low-interest and purchase loans broadened to include Vietnam veterans.

Jim Goss to Leave School Post at Lela

Jim Goss, principal of the Lela school since last summer, has resigned, effective the end of the current term. His resignation was accepted by the school board at a meeting on Tuesday night of last week.

Goss said he wished to continue his education and would probably enroll in Midwestern University, Wichita Falls. He was a member of the school faculty at McLean for two years before going to Lela.

All faculty members of the Lela school have been re-hired for another year. They are: Mrs. Phil Biles, first and second grades; Mrs. Sandra Morgan, third and fourth grades; Mrs. Leon Fillingim, fifth and sixth grades; and Phil Biles, seventh and eighth grades.

Mr. and Mrs. Biles also are former members of the McLean school faculty, and Mrs. Morgan is a McLean High School graduate whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baker, McLean.

Mrs. Rose Anderson has been re-hired to operate the school cafeteria. Bus drivers will be hired at a later meeting, a spokesman for the board of trustees said.

FFA NEWS

McLean FFA chapter was presented in the Top of Texas District Farm Mechanics contest Monday, March 20. This contest is the practical side of electricity, welding, plumbing and identification of tools and equipment.

Harold Calcutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odis Calcutt, received high honors in the contest. He was high point man in electricity, second high in identification and third high individual in the contest.

Other participants in the contest were Brad Dalton, James Harkins and Johnnie Mann. Each boy went through each division of the contest.

FHA Celebrates Its 21st Birthday

Texas' 72,000-plus Future Homemakers of America join their half-million sisters in chapters throughout the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands in celebrating their 21st birthday this year.

Public attention will focus on the organization during FHA Week, April 2-8. The local girls in McLean's FHA chapter meet this week to plan a different activity for each day of FHA Week.

This national youth organization of homemaking education students in junior and senior high schools officially is sponsored by the U. S. Office of Education and the American Home Economics Association.

Under the supervision of their advisor, Mrs. Aleta Thompson, these FHA'ers enjoy opportunities for developing individual and group initiative in planning and carrying out homemaking activities. They have set for themselves two very ambitious objectives: (1) To help each family member recognize his abilities and strive for their full development; and, (2) To participate in projects for family, community and world improvement.

Several of the local FHA'ers, their advisor and two of their chapter mothers were in Lubbock Friday and Saturday, March 17 and 18, to attend an area meeting. Those attending were Rovena Wright, Jeannie Harrison, Sue Kunkel, Linda Pearson, Kay Greer, Gayle Griffin, Donna Pearson, Jackie Enright, Cindy Brooks, Nell Harkins, Jenny Everett, Rhonda Davis, Denise Bailey, Mrs. Thompson, their advisor, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Oba Kunkel.

The chapter would like to thank Eb Patton who served as their bus driver for the trip.

Outlook for enactment of $1.25 an hour state minimum wage bill dimmed after House committee hearing and Senate committee postponement last week.

J. D. (DEE) COLEMAN
State Director, District 1

Dee Coleman Is New Area Director Of Farm Bureau

J. D. (Dee) Coleman, Collingsworth County farmer and rancher, was elected to the Texas Farm Bureau Board of directors in November, 1966, to fill the unexpired term of the late D. M. Womble of Morse.

Coleman, 62, was born at Dozier. He attended public schools there and at Wellington. In 1928 he received an associate of science degree at North Texas Agricultural College, now Arlington State University.

Prior to his election to the Texas Farm Bureau state board, Coleman had served as first vice president of the Collingsworth County Farm Bureau. He pioneered work in the FFB's livestock marketing program in his county.

Coleman raises Hereford cattle, cotton, forage crops and grass in Collingsworth County. Active in civic affairs, Coleman is "tail twister" in the local Lions Club and formerly served as president. He is a member of the Citizens Band Radio Club. The District 1 director is a member of the church of Christ.

The Panhandle farm leader is married to the former Paralee Brock of Grapevine. They have two grown sons, John Dee Coleman and Jay Marjo Coleman. Mrs. Coleman is a former instructor in McLean High School. The Colemans make their home in Wellington.

Wife Of Former Resident Dies

Funeral services for Mrs. Roxie Powell Smith, 24, of Knoxville, Tenn., were pending at press time.

Mrs. Smith was married to a former McLeanite, Frankie Smithson of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest (Bub) Smith.

Mrs. Smith, a native of Leadville, Colo., died early Wednesday in a Knoxville hospital. She had suffered serious burns earlier this month in a gasoline explosion in her home.

Memorial services were held in Knoxville. Survivors in clude her husband, Frankie Smith; daughters, Kelly and Tracy, both of the home, and her parents.

R. T. WOOD ELECTED NEW LIONS PRES.

The McLean Lions Club met in the basement of the Methodist Church Tuesday, March 21, for their regular meeting.

Gary Phillips was made the Lions Club for the week and was presented with a pin.

Jay Thompson presented the City of McLean with a picture and plaque for McLean's float in the St. Patrick's Day parade at Shamrock last Friday. This float, sponsored by McLean Lions Club, McLean Jaycees and the City of McLean won first place in the community participation division.

The officers for the coming year were elected at this regular meeting. They are president, R. T. Wood; 1st vice-president, Jack Riley; 2nd vice-president, Jay Thompson; 3rd vice-president, Ted Simmons; Secretary and treasurer, Elton Wyatt, Lion Tamer, S. A. Cousins, Tail Twister, Jim Hathaway; Directors, Carey Don Smith, and Clarence Pearce.

The officers will be installed at the ladies night banquet which will take place June 20. The ladies will be honored at this banquet by the Lions. At 8:00 p.m. following the banquet everyone will be dismissed to the auditorium of the Methodist Church to watch the film "On the Square" by Cotton John Smith. The public is invited to come and watch this film.

He is a member of the Citizens Band Radio Club. The District 1 director is a member of the church of Christ.

Church of Christ Meeting Continues

David Fultz, minister for the church of Christ in Coleman, is the evangelist for a series of gospel meetings at the McLean church of Christ March 20-26.

Services are held daily at 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Fultz is well known in McLean, having served as minister for the church here from 1958 to 1960.

The song services are directed by Jim Kelly, minister for the church in Pampa.

Following services Sunday morning the Church of Christ will have a basket dinner at the school cafeteria. Their guest of honor will be David Fultz who has been delivering the gospel messages during a meeting this week.

Jubilee Planned for Saturday Night

The McLean Jaycees are going to have a Jubilee Saturday, March 25, starting at 8 p.m. in the Jaycee building, which is located in the old Puckett building.

They invite all McLean and area folk to come out and join in the fun.

A door prize will be given.

Alanreed Baptists To Begin Revival On Easter Sunday

C. R. Bridges, pastor of the Highland Baptist Church Pampa, will be speaking at Alanreed Baptist Church during a week long revival. The revival will begin on Easter Sunday, March 26, and will close on April 2.

Leading the song services during each meeting will be Gene Curtis, choir director at Calvary Baptist Church, Pampa.

Services will be held Monday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., with the regular time on Sunday.

The Kiva Will Have Grand Opening Mon

The Kiva will be having their grand opening Monday, March 27, at 9 a.m. The Kiva will be located at 112 N. Main, in the building that was formerly Henley Dry Goods Store.

Lou Ella Hall will be on hand to take of all your beauty needs and Charlene Pearce will be ready to help you with your gift and fabric needs.

A wig party will be held from 3 to 6 p.m., with a complete line of wigs in the store for you to see. Bob Parker from Pampa of the Pampa College of Hairdressing will be at The Kiva from 3 to 6 p.m. Mr. Parker is a hair and wig stylist and instructor.

Lou Ella and Charlene extend an invitation to everyone to come in Monday and browse around and get acquainted with their new store.

Jaycees Sponsor Easter Egg Hunt

An Easter egg hunt for boys and girls between the ages of 1 and 10 will be held Saturday, March 25, at 2 p.m. It will be held in the McLean City Park and is being sponsored by the McLean Jaycees.

The children will be divided into three age divisions: ages 1-3, 4-6 and 7-10.

There will be prize eggs hidden in each division. The Jaycees invite parents to come and bring their children Saturday to hunt eggs.

By FOSTER WHALEY

Starting at 10 a.m. next Wednesday, March 29, in the basement of the McLean Methodist Church, an irrigation clinic is being held for area farmers and ranchers. Mr. Bill Lyle, irrigation specialist, extension service, Lubbock, will discuss pump design and selection. Lyle will also discuss chemical well treatment. Morris Darris, Golden Spread Irrigation Company, Memphis, will discuss types of sprinkler irrigation systems. Bob Rose, Pampa, will also discuss cost of drilling and equipping an irrigation well.

An effort is being made to have a free meal at noon. The Golden Spread Irrigation Company of Memphis has volunteered to pay the expenses of the meal. The Pampa Shriners will cater the free barbecue.

Guidelines on the production of alfalfa hay will be distributed at the meeting and discussed. The meeting is co-sponsored by the extension service and the program building committee on alfalfa. Members of this committee include Truitt Johnson, chairman, Dick Everett and Thurman Trew.

Almost daily we read in one of the area newspapers that a new 20 or 30 thousand head feed lot is being planned for another county.

If there is anything we can be sure of it is the fact there will be an excellent market for alfalfa hay for many years to come as a result of this big feed lot movement. Alfalfa in one form or another is in just about every feed lot ration in every area. Research scientists tell you there are many unknown elements in alfalfa that produce additional gains when in a ration. Paul Marion, Spur Experiment Station, says any time we leave alfalfa out of our ration it costs us from one-quarter to one-half pound daily gain.

We think the meeting next week will help to encourage many to add irrigation and alfalfa to their farming program in this area.

We congratulate the local committee for their decision in sponsoring an enterprise that will help this community.

Former Resident Is Buried Here

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the McLean Pentecostal Holiness Church for Mrs. Ella Hornsby of San Jose, Calif., a resident of McLean from 1927 to 1942. Rev. Walter L. Comstock, pastor, officiated, and interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery under direction of Lamb Funeral Home.

Mrs. Hornsby was born April 5, 1903, in Willow, Okla., and moved to McLean from Willow. She died last Thursday at a San Jose hospital.

She is survived by a daughter, four sons, 12 grandchildren, two sisters and three brothers.

Band Banquet Set For March 31

A banquet for members of the McLean band is being planned for Friday, March 31.

The affair is sponsored by the Band Boosters Club. Parents wishing to attend the banquet must purchase tickets in advance. Tickets may be obtained from any of the boosters.

Teen Town Tonight

Teen Town will be held Thursday night, March 23, for the youth of McLean. It will be held in the McLean Jaycee Community Building starting at 8 p.m.

The Valasco Brothers will be playing for the dance. All youth are invited to come.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMER

From Mrs. Mary Palmer, Ocean City, New Jersey: When I was a little girl I lived in Philadelphia, and how I loved the trolley cars! Every Sunday, my sister and I would take the trolley to Fairmount Park. We lived in Center City and for five cents we had the best outting money could buy! Years went by — I married and moved to Ocean City, New Jersey. There was a trolley track that ran from the Gardens to 59th St. The full length of the Island. I remember many joyful hours on the trolley.

The children were small, and usually I had a Sulkie with me. The trolley conductors were mostly college students as the trolley service was in the summertime only. I lived on a corner and would get the children to watch for the trolley to approach because there was no special schedule. If the trolley passed we would whistle or yell and the conductor would back up, pick us up (Sulkie and all) and off we'd go! What fun!

Now there is a Shopping Center in Ocean City which has the Railroad running right in the center of it, so that no matter what side you're on, — it's the right side. I think this is a grand landmark. Sometimes there is talk about removing the tracks. I hope they leave them because our trains are real old "Turner Villes", and the kids (and grown ups too!) all stop and look and wave as the conductors come by. It makes them happy to see the train go by and what makes people smile and be happy is right . . .

Trust this will add to the trolley tracks . . .

TAX SAM SEZ:

Common Errors Delay Refunds
The good tax folks tell us that simple errors on federal income tax returns delay many refunds and cause taxpayers trouble. They suggest this simple check list: (1) check arithmetic; (2) sign your return (both husband and wife); (3) print or type name and address, including zip code; (4) list your social security number correctly.
Spending a little time checking can save a lot of headaches later.

Under intense heat, wooden beams will continue to support their rated load long after exposed metal beams have collapsed.

SUNDAY'S SERMON

APRIL JOKES

Sometimes, on April 1, even the most sedate citizens among us may be tempted to step out of character a bit. After all, it is April's Fool — or All Fools Day, isn't it?

There is nothing wrong with an occasional or a harmless joke. If we can put a bit of humor into a day, the day is better for it.

Yet, maybe this All-Fools Day is a good time for us to indulge in a bit of self-examination. Do we indulge in too many foolish pursuits during the other days of the year, the days which provide no logical excuse?

In ancient times, it is said, the inhabitants of India observed the feast of Hull (March 31st) by sending people on foolish errands. Another ancient tale is that Ceres, mother of Prosperina, went on a fool's errand, searching for the echo of her daughter's voice.

In the conduct of our daily lives, do we allow ourselves to pursue foolish errands, to chase elusive echoes?
It is worth a passing thought or two.

Support Needed For HB 343

An Editorial
Did you know that some real estate in Texas has been taken from owners by unscrupulous lenders because of an antiquated law that requires notice of a deed of trust sale be placed in three "public places"?

The "public places" can be a utility pole, a tree in the park and the courthouse bulletin board. This is all the notice that is required by our present state laws, and the chances are that the only "bidder" for the distressed property will be the mortgagee. He and the sheriff will be the only ones likely to know of it.

Steps are being taken right now in our state legislature to correct this sad situation. A law has been proposed by State Representatives Jack Hawkins and Bill Ragg, House Bill 343, that will require effective public notices be presented to the public and that such notices will appear in a local newspaper of general circulation.

Now before readers jump to the conclusion we're interested in this law to acquire additional revenue for this newspaper, we assure you that there isn't enough of this type of business to make any great deal of difference to us financially. Besides, as we're not the county seat newspaper, such notices would most likely go to the Pampa daily newspaper anyway.

House Bill 343 has merit from several standpoints. It would provide adequate notice to the owner, giving him three weeks to round up the necessary funds to take up delinquent payments. It would also increase the sale price of the property because proper notice would attract more buyers, thus increasing competition for the property and the bids would be more in keeping with the property's true value.

The old practice of putting such notices on the bulletin board and on a utility pole or sapling wasn't too bad back in the horse and buggy days when the courthouse was the center of things.

But this isn't the case today. Most people, unless they're suing somebody . . . or being sued, never set foot in the county courthouse. Or even if they do, will anybody search through all the copies of items on the court house bulletin board, or conduct a search (as if they were hunting Easter eggs) and look on every telephone pole and tree around? Certainly they won't. This shoddy practice by unscrupulous lenders is a racket that has been permitted to exist far too long in Texas. It should be stopped and opportunity is at hand. If you agree with us, please let our State Representative Malouf Abraham, know your feelings by letter or a phone call.

Freedom

"Live as free men, yet without using your freedom as a pretext for evil; but live as servants of God."

1 - Peter 2:16

We talk a lot about freedom, most of us. How our country was born so men could live in freedom. How we are born as free individuals, with the right to choose our destiny in life.

And, at the same time, we tend to forget the responsibilities we inherit along with our "freedom." We forget that freedom is not a purely personal thing. We are not free to do those things which infringe upon the rights and the well-being of our fellow citizens.

We cannot justify any and all actions by saying, "After all, it's a free country." When we do this, we use freedom as an excuse, as a pretext.
Do not preach freedom — unless you serve the cause of freedom.

NEWS OF CONSERVATION

By VAN C. MILLS
Two fields were staked for land leveling on Harvey Waters' irrigated farm east of Pampa. Where land is leveled for irrigation, a much better job of managing irrigation water can be done.

Roy Kretzmer has leveled a field for irrigation on his farm northeast of Pampa. H. H. Keahey has completed a diversion terrace on his farm south of Kingsmill. This diversion will protect cropland from further erosion.

Charles Grigsby, Lee Roy McCracken and Lamon Stovall are in the process of seeding grass. Soil Stewardship Week is set aside nationally each year to call attention to everyone's moral responsibility as a steward of the soil and other natural resources provided by God.

In America, the Soil Stewardship observance traces its origin to the Rogation Days. In parts of the south, churches and congregations traditionally set aside the fifth Sunday after Easter as Soil and Soul Sunday.

In 1946 this became Soil Stewardship Sunday when the editors of Farm and Ranch Magazine suggested to a number of southern religious leaders that one Sunday be set aside to give special recognition to man's obligation as steward of the soil.

In 1964, Farm and Ranch Magazine passed the sponsorship to the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts. The original sponsors felt that a still wider observance of Soil Stewardship Sunday could help bring about a national awakening and recognition of man's obligation to the Lord's earth.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

PIG IN THE PARLOR

Is an ugly junk yard a nuisance? Is a noisy radio a nuisance? Is an odoriferous henhouse a nuisance? Consider this definition by the United States Supreme Court:

"A nuisance may be merely a right thing in the wrong place—like a pig in the parlor." In other words, in complaining about an annoyance, it is not enough for you to point out how it looks, sounds, or smells. You must also show that it is not appropriate to the location. For in the eyes of the law, when you choose your residence you are also choosing your environment. Choose the amenities and the excitement of the city, and you also choose its clutter and its dirt. They are a normal—even an essential—feature of urban living. As one judge put it:

"Without smoke, Pittsburgh would have remained a very pretty village." Complaints about nuisances may be judged not only in terms of the general community or the particular neighborhood but even in terms of feet and inches. For example:

A home owner was denied an injunction from cooking odors blown from the house next door, when the court ascertained that there was a space almost 30 feet wide between the two buildings.

But an apartment dweller was granted relief from the cabbage and onion fumes aimed his way by the people directly across the hall.

Of course, to the person annoyed, the mere location of the annoyance is not the whole story. Not every individual has the same "threshold" of irritation. A smell or noise that vexes one neighbor may leave another—equally close to the source—totally unconcerned.

But as a practical matter, the law must decide according to average, not individual, tastes and sensibilities. Thus, a court refused to interfere with blasting noises which were irksome only to an especially nervous woman in the neighborhood.

Even if it tried, the law could not please everybody. Inevitably it would run afoul of those people who, in one court's words, "consider all noises offensive except those they make themselves."

VC BEWARE! P & WD MAG'S ON THE WAY

Morale on the Vietnam front is due for a massive boost. A Texas soldier on duty in the far away battle zone has written for a subscription to the Texas Parks and Wildlife magazine. He has designs on his native field and streams, too, because he asked that the monthly report on wildlife generally be sent to his APO for only one year.

BY LINDA NORRIS
Guitarist Howard Robert and his Quartet perform a collection of recent instrumental hits made famous by such artists as Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass, Roger Williams, Stan Getz, Charlie Byrd, Percy Faith and Ramsey Lewis in All-Time Great Instrumental Hits... The songs, 'In' Crowd, Autumn Leaves, Work Song, Desafinado, Theme from 'A Summer Place, Misty, Danke Schoen, Mr. Lucky, Comin' Home Baby, Soft Winds and It Was a Very Good Year.

There is a Time, the title song of Liza Minnelli's third album, was written by French composer/singer Charles Aznavour... Several of the other songs, which were arranged and conducted by Ray Ellis, are also of French origin or are associated with France.

Among them are M'Lord, Watch What Happens, The Parisians and Ay Marieke. Another in Capitol's Starline series is The Best of the Kingston Trio, Vol. III, in which the songs, all recorded during the past few years, include such Trio favorites as They Called the Wind Maria, Jane, Jane, Jane, 500 Miles, and Three Jolly Coachmen... It also contains a recent version of It Was a Very Good Year, Hangman, Lemon Tree, This Land Is Your Land, San Miguel, El Matador and En El Agua.

Pioneer Study Club Has Irish Program

The Pioneer Study Club met March 16 in the home of Mrs. Forrest Hupp for a regular meeting. St. Patrick's Day decorations were used to make the house attractive and interesting.

The theme, "The Wit and Wisdom of Erin" presented by Mrs. Guy Hester, was most enjoyable. Refreshments of lime jello salad, sesame crackers and coffee were served on plates centered with dainty paper shamrocks.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mesdames Sinclair Armstrong, Theron Bradley, Morris Brown, Jesse Coleman, Harold Fabian, Dale Glass, John Jones, Creed Lamb, Clyde Magee, Alice Short Smith, Eyan Sitter, Leslie Webb, Elton Wyatt, W. E. Bogan, Guy Hester and the hostess.

FARM FOOD AIDS QUAIL SURVIVAL

Many bobwhite quail may say grace over a late-winter food supply of sorghum alum, says Joe Davidson of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

This food-provider, like Johnson grass, is suitable for late fall and early winter pasture for livestock. The bare soil exposed, the result of proper planting, is ideal for quail to find food.

Seed from sorghum alum shatter from the heads at different times, serving to supply prolonged feeding for birds. Being a weak perennial, it is easily controlled and has none of the bad characteristics of Johnson grass.

BLOWIN' OUT THE CORNERS

The following once appeared in the Shamrock Texan, with only the name of the town different:

Most everyone believes that George Washington was born in Virginia. He wasn't. He was born in Texas near McLean. There was only one tree in all of Gray County. It was a mesquite tree and was located in Father Washington's back yard.

Well, one day Father Washington had to hitch up his team and go to town for supplies. He needed some harness oil to soften up some collars for the spring plowing, a keg of sauerkraut, a sack of flour, some corn ground for cornbread, a new grate for the stove, a plug of chewing tobacco and some half soles for little George's shoes.

Mother Washington needed some dippin' stuff, some bees wax for quilting quilts, a new thimble, some elastic for garters, a new hat pin, and some whitenin' powder for going to church. She also wanted some asafetida for quieting little George's nerves.

Father Washington drove into McLean and put up at the wagon yard for the night. He got up early the next morning and done his shopping and was soon on his way home. While he was gone little George got out his Bowie knife and whacked down the tree—the only one in the whole of Gray County.

It is said that the country around McLean is so flat that you can see days away. Father Washington was about four miles away when he looked up and saw that the tree had been whacked down. He whooped up his team to a lather and before the wagon stopped jumped down and asked, "Who cut down that tree?"

Little George stepped up and said, "I did it, father. I cannot tell a lie." Father Washington grabbed him, took him to the house, locked all the doors and pulled down the shades and said, "Son, if you can't tell a lie, we can't live in Texas." So they moved to Virginia.

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I like this boy and this is my second try to get him. I liked him once before in the 7th grade, now he is a sophomore and I am a freshman. He pays attention to me, such as saying 'hi' and things like that. I think he knows how I feel about him so why does he act as he does? I can't give up. It's not that easy. I have gone steady three times since I started liking this particular boy. I thought I could forget him, but I broke up with the other boys because he started acting so very nice to me. He does go out with other girls. What should I do, or what am I doing wrong?"

OUR REPLY: The mere fact that a boy speaks to you and is friendly is not enough to get too excited about. He just might be a friendly person. It is also wrong to assume that because you like him and want to go steady, he should feel the same way... or there is anything you can do, right or wrong, to make him feel the same way. Possibly, since you say that he seems more friendly to you when you are going steady with someone else, it could be that he is more relaxed because he feels you haven't your sights on him at the moment. You say he goes out with other girls. Does he go out with only one girl on a steady basis? He may not be the steady type, doing wrong?"

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORD, KY.

FURNITURE MUST PERFORM ITS JOB

When house furnishings are well designed, well constructed and well finished, they are pleasant to live with through the years, say home furnishing specialists at Texas A & M University.

To have such furnishings, a family must begin with a plan which fits their house and their way of life.

Since good design and workmanship are found at all price levels, the family should shop around. It pays to compare merchandise and check prices at various stores.

Learn to read labels and understand facts about materials and construction. Look for the manufacturer's name on the label. A reputable manufacturer "stands behind" his furniture should anything go wrong.

Study woods and other materials used in making furniture. A single piece of furniture may be made of several different woods chosen for very good reasons.

Learn to recognize good construction features. Look behind, inside and under to see how the piece is made and what materials are used. Examine drawers, doors and all visible joints, then test rigidly.

A good finish is a definite indication of quality. The back and underside of high quality furniture are sanded smooth, sealed and finished to reduce the chance of wood swelling and shrinking. Inspect the finish in a good light.

A chair, table or any other piece must perform the job for which it was designed. If you're buying a desk or table, sit down and see if it is a comfortable height. A similar test will help determine the comfort and usability of other pieces.

DISGUISED COON HITS 'BIG TIME'

A white raccoon has been added to the wildlife exhibit of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department through the efforts of Game Warden J. C. Romines.

Warden Romines said the animal, live trapped on the R. M. Christian Ranch in eastern Jack County, is not a true albino with the pink skin around the nose and eyes or pink eyes and feet, but has nose and eyes similar to those of a normal raccoon.

The familiar face mask and the rings around the tail are absent.

Essay-Writing Contest to Close On March 31

Time is running out for teenagers entering an essay-writing contest on "American Citizenship—What It Means to Me." With prizes of $100 and $50 U. S. Savings Bonds, or their cash equivalent sent to colleges of the winners' choice, plus 20 Honorable Mention Citations, the contest is open to all young Texans, 15 to 19 years of age, inclusively.

The sponsoring Texas Knights of Columbus' rules limit the essays to 300 words and point out the final judging will be performed by an inter-faith panel composed of members of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths.

Essays must be mailed at latest by March 31 to the Essay Contest Committee, Texas Knights of Columbus, 1111 Majestic Building, San Antonio, Texas 78205.

"Youngsters of all races, colors and creeds are invited to enter the annual competition which, in the past, has been won by students residing in cities and rural areas throughout the state," said Willard Green of Temple, heads of the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic fraternal order of men with 32,000 members in Texas.

"Essays must be signed by the writers with their full names, ages, schools, classes, home address, telephones and cities of their residence, as well as the same information on their parents or guardians, and their school principals," he said.

Green added that previous years' winners have resided in small and large cities, including Whiteface, Rowena, Galveston, Benavides, Seymour, Port Arthur, Alpine, Corpus Christi, Amarillo, Gonzales, Schulenburg, Poth, Gainesville, San Antonio, O'Donoghue, Dalhart, Fort Worth, Ennis and Wichita Falls.

SIEUR de LA SALLE: "His was the restless spirit, the inquisitive urge to explore strange lands and uncharted seas..."

He set out to reach far horizons which held more lure than the glint of gold. Tossing aside a life of wealth and ease, he chose the wild, adventurous, unexplored New World.

On his third voyage to establish a fortified post on the Gulf of Mexico, he met death at the hands of mutinous men of his own party.

The La Salle monument was erected at Navasota near the site where many believe the assassination took place.

Thus, though the enterprise ended in failure and death, it strengthened France's claim to a greater part in the New World.

Conservationist Goes to New Mexico

Duane Bartee, area conservationist in Pampa since 1958, will become assistant state conservationist in Albuquerque, N. M., on March 26.

Duane, 34, has been with the Soil Conservation Service since Jan. 2, 1950, and has worked in Lubbock, Muleshoe, Floydada, Paducah and Childress. As Pampa area conservationist, Bartee administered all Soil Conservation Service activities in 11 northeastern counties in the Texas Panhandle.

Duane is a 1949 graduate of Texas A & M University with a B. S. degree in agronomy. He is a native of Taylor County, near Abilene.

The Bartee family consists of his wife, Lou Emma; Brenda, a sophomore at Texas Tech; Sandra age 14, and Glynnel, age 12. The family will not move to New Mexico until school is out.

In his new position, Duane will work with watersheds, resource conservation and development projects, river basin surveys and assist with public information projects.

Succeeding Duane will be Douglas E. Cunningham, presently working at Quanah. Doug, 31, has been with the Soil Conservation Service since 1960, and has been work unit conservationist at Post, and range conservationist at Pampa. He started his Soil Conservation Service career in Dalhart.

Doug is the brother of Virgie Cunningham of Amarillo, area conservationist.

TAX QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—Does the gas tax table on the 1040 instructions cover business driving as well as pleasure driving?
A—No. This table should be used only for non-business driving. If you are entitled to a deduction for business driving handle it separately. Check page 7 of the 1040 instructions for details.

Q—Are weekends counted in the waiting period for a sick pay exclusion?
A—Yes, they are counted unless the illness began on a weekend. In that case, the waiting period begins on the next working day.

Q—If you have more than one casualty loss during the year can you combine the losses so that you only have to apply the $100 limitation once?
A—No. The $100 limitation applies to each separate casualty.

Q—Is there any limit on what you can claim under the minimum standard deduction?
A—Yes, the limit is $500 for married persons filing separately and $1,000 for single persons or married couples filing jointly.

Q—Am I taxed on what I received on the sale of a house?
A—Profits made on the sale of a residence are taxable. However, if another home is purchased within a certain period that costs the same or more than the adjusted sales price of the one you sold, payment of the tax may be postponed. There are also special rules on home sales by those 65 or older.

Details on these provisions of the tax law are given in IRS Document No. 5017, "Selling Your Home." Send a post card to your District Director for a free copy.

Q—Is a man entitled to claim something for child care expenses?
A—Yes, under certain circumstances men as well as women are entitled to use this provision of the law.

Q—I got a refund on my state income tax last year. Do I have to declare that a sincome?
A—Yes. Refunds of state income tax deducted in a prior year are income. However, federal income tax refunds are not taxable, but interest on them is.

Q—I just moved. Should I notify you of my new address since I'm expecting a refund?
A—Yes, it will avoid delays in receiving your refund.

Q—My wife worked a little last year. Since there was no withholding on her salary, does that mean we don't have to pay tax on it?
A—No. Income is taxable whether or not it is subject to withholding.

Q—My 14-year-old boy earned several hundred dollars last year on his paper route. Does he have to report it or do I, since he is my dependent?
A—If your son earned $600 or more last year he is required to file a tax return. You should not report his earnings on your return even though he is your dependent.

Q—I sold some family property I inherited. What do I use as the basis to determine whether I made any profit, the original cost of the property or its value when I inherited it?
A—Generally the basis should be the fair market value of the property at the time you inherited it.

Q—My buddy says strike payments are taxable while unemployment payments aren't. Is that right?
A—Strike benefits are taxable unless they are clearly intended as a gift. Unemployment payments are not taxable.

Q—Is a government disability

CHILDREN IN CAMP

It's a good idea to give written consent for necessary medical care if your child leaves home for a visit or a camping trip, or if you plan to be away for any length of time.

For example, a summer camp nurse may bring a boy into a hospital with an acute case of appendicitis. But the doctor may well hesitate to go ahead and operate without the parents' consent.

Is going to your doctor arbitrary, and is such permission just a legal technicality? No, he is well within his rights though he may give first aid—but only for emergency treatment where a child's health or life may be at stake. He is likely to put off follow-up care until he can reach the child's parents. A relative or baby sitter generally cannot grant consent of a child's treatment.

Even an adult must request treatment and grant consent to medical care on his own before a doctor can give it to him. Children cannot do this.

By going to your doctor you show your willingness and consent to accept his treatment. Your consent is assumed when you ask for a house call by the doctor, or if as a result of an accident you come to a hospital for emergency treatment. If you are unconscious, the doctor may well give you emergency care, yet later he should get your consent to further treatment.

Minors cannot consent to medical treatment, and except in dire emergencies their parents or guardians must give it for them.

The consent should not be broadly or loosely phrased, but should be as specific as circumstances permit.

The principal reason for having the consent in writing is to avoid later misunderstandings. It is a protection both to the patient and physician.

Rattlesnake Derby At Mangum, Okla.

The Mangum, Okla., Chamber of Commerce has announced the second annual Rattlesnake Derby to be held at Mangum on April 7, 8, 9. Plans are underway to operate an Antique Flea Market this year in connection with the rattlesnake hunt. This, together with a program of special features, is planned to provide interest and entertainment for the entire family.

The Antique Flea Market will be a "first" for the Southwest Oklahoma-Texas Panhandle areas. Local sponsors have been in contact with dealers from other areas and interest is mounting. More than 75 dealers are expected to be showing. The Flea Market will be held around the town square and will be open to the public. Families are invited to come to browse or to buy.

Cash prizes and trophies will be awarded hunters catching the largest, smallest, most pounds and most snakes. A marked snake, worth $25, will be released in the hunt area this year.

930 Texas landowners are soil and water conservation district supervisors.

Six Flags to Begin Season on April 29

Six Flags Over Texas will begin its 1967 season on Saturday, April 29.

The announcement came from Angus G. Wynne Jr., president of Great Southwest Corporation, owner-operator of the famed 115-acre, historical-theme entertainment park located midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.

During the spring, Six Flags Over Texas will be open on Fridays from 5:00 p.m. to 11 p.m., and on Saturdays and Sundays from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Starting May 26 and continuing thru Labor Day, the park will be open seven days a week from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Following Labor Day and until the season closes Oct. 29, Six Flags will operate on Saturdays and Sundays only from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The Run-A-Way Mine Train ride, new project in the $1,000,000 expansion of the Boom Town section of the park which was begun last season, has been completed over the winter months. The ride, one of the most exciting ever developed, was introduced to visitors on a limited basis near the end of last season, while work continued on the project.

An attendance milestone will also be reached during the forthcoming season, as Six Flags anticipates welcoming its 10-millionth visitor some time during the month of August. The park, which opened in 1961, has already counted over 8.5 million visitors.

Antique Show, Sale At Pampa April 7

Members of the Twentieth Century Cottion of Pampa will welcome the public to their annual spring Antique Show and Sale on Friday, April 7, at 10:30 a.m. The Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn in Pampa is the scene of the show which has attracted dealers from all over Texas and Oklahoma. The dealer's collections cover a wide range of antiques including jewelry, china, cut glass, pewster, brass, copper, art objects, furniture and oriental pieces, according to Mrs. Jim Brown, general chairman of the show.

Showings are scheduled from 10:30 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. on Friday, April 7, and Saturday, April 8, and from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday, April 9.

The tickets are on sale and all proceeds will be presented to the Opportunity Plan, Inc., of West Texas State University.

This student loan plan was developed and designed into a program whereby any worthy high school graduate of the Golden Spread could have the opportunity to attain a higher education. The plan is specifically designed for students who possess ability, ambition and character and yet, for financial reasons cannot attend college. The plan offers no free ride to an education, but is only for those who want to help themselves and have the courage to do so.

QUESTIONS & A

Q—I have several W-2 forms since I worked for several people last year. Should I attach all of them to my return or can I add them up and give you the totals?
A—You should attach Copy B of all your W-2's to your return, although only the total need be entered on your Form 1040. Failure to do so will hold up the processing of your return and any refund that might be due you.

Q—How do you figure out how much to report as interest when you cash in U. S. savings bonds?
A—Report as interest the difference between what you paid for the bonds, the issue price, and what you received when you turned them in. Some cash basis taxpayers elect to report the interest earned each year on their bonds rather than all at once when they redeem the bonds. Either way of reporting this interest income is acceptable.

PAMPERING THE SWEET TOOTH

Among the four basic taste sensations, that of sweetness is perhaps the most prized. There are a few gourmets who savor bitterness, some who like the sharp tang of acid. Salt is usually preferred for its subtle influence on other tastes, but occasionally for itself.

Almost everyone goes for sweets. And there a problem arises. The natural sweet taste of foods comes from their sugar content. Sweetness is insufficient in some, and overshadowed in others by the acids, as in some citrus fruits. And so the taste is supplemented by the addition of the sugar we know best, sucrose, derived mainly from the sugar cane and the sugar beet. And this has, in addition to its delightful taste, "dose off" debilitates."

Besides, it has been indicated by dentists as a contributing cause of dental decay. And the crudest blow of all, nutritionists hold it in contempt as a source of "empty calories." Only the food faddists love sugar, and then only in its unrefined form.

Sugar Useful
 In defense of sugar, it is only fair to say that used in reasonable moderation, it contributes relatively few calories to a properly balanced diet. Its alleged "emptiness" of mineral and vitamin contributions, likewise is counterbalanced by the rest of the diet. As to dental decay — the proper use of the toothbrush offsets much of the damage done by sticky sweets clinging to the teeth.

In two circumstances, sugar and starches must be reduced in the diet. One is diabetes, and the other is a strict reducing diet, where there is no allowance for luxury items. In such circumstances, those who insist on pampering the sweet tooth, have a handy way of doing so in the artificial sweeteners now available. The principal ones are:

Saccharin, a white powder which has roughly 500 times the sweetening power of sugar;

Cyclamate, sodium or calcium (Sucaryl), also have a very high sweetening power (the calcium form is for sodium-restricted diets);

Sorbitol, a sweet-tasting alcohol found in imported low-calorie food preparations; unsuitable for diabetics.

The first two artificial sweeteners are available in solution, powder or tablets. Their sweetening power in relation to customary quantities of sugar used in recipes depends on the preparation; the maker's instructions should be followed.

The safety of sweeteners has been questioned. In 1955 the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences — National Research Council, recommended them, and repeated this advice in 1962. A 1965 declaration by the Food and Drug Administration repeats the assurance of safety "as presently used."

Nursing Career Day In Amarillo Apr. 8

The Amarillo committee on careers in professional nursing is sponsoring a Nursing Career Day on April 8. The program will be held in the auditorium of the new Psychiatric Hospital in Amarillo on the Medical Center site.

The highlight of the day will be the selection of "Miss Future Nurse" of 1967. The winner of the contest will receive a nursing scholarship and other gifts.

Several panels will present programs on nursing education and opportunities in the field of nursing. There will be exhibits relating to the health field. Tours will be made of the new Psychiatric Hospital and the other city hospitals.

All persons interested in nursing are invited to attend. There will be a special session for young men who are interested in nursing.

For additional information, contact: Amarillo Committee on Careers in Professional Nursing, P. O. Box 3334, Amarillo, Texas 79106, or phone DR 6-4431, extension 330.

CAUSE FOR PRIDE

Pride can sometimes pre-empt a fall. But, let's face it. When some individual does an outstanding piece of work, he or she has the right to evidence a little bit of self-satisfaction. That's the way it is with local stores: they're proud of their record of service to the community; proud of the fact they have been doing business with the same fine folks for years and years.

They're also proud of their continuing record of "guaranteed quality and satisfaction."

When you get right down to us, nearly all of us have a share in community pride — the awareness that the products, facilities and services available locally help make our town a wonderful place to live and work.

News From ALANREED

By MRS. CECIL CARTER

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Davis visited in Amarillo over the weekend.

The First Baptist Church was host for the associational brotherhood meeting Thursday night, March 16. After an interesting program they adjourned to the school cafeteria where the WMS ladies served cake, pie and coffee.

Leo McMahan was in Groom Friday for the surgery of Betty Finley. She is reported as doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKee and family of Groom spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert McKee. Robert Bruce and Mrs. Leo McMahan accompanied the young people to the youth rally at Shamrock Sunday.

J. C. Oakley of Pampa spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Faye Oakley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stapp spent the weekend in Amarillo with the Paul Averitts. They were celebrating little Miss Judy Averitt's third birthday.

Shannon Nail of McLean spoke at First Baptist Church Sunday evening. Young Nail, who has surrendered to the ministry, will be going to Plainview in June to further his education. His parents and sister and numerous friends were on hand to hear and encourage him. His father and he have been employed on the R. O. Ranch for some time. Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carter Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Leather and Wayne of Clarendon and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Dalton and family of McLean.

The Alanreed W.M.S. of First Baptist Church met Monday, March 20, in the church for Royal Service program. Prayer Chairman Norma McMahan read the call to prayer and after a song, the program was turned over to Lela Sherrod, with all present taking part.

Mrs. Jess Finley is home from Groom Hospital this week after undergoing surgery last week.

FAMILY POT LUCK

BY HELEN HALE

Add a touch of glamor to vegetables by topping them with cottage cheese sauce. Blend 5 tablespoons flour into 5 tablespoons melted butter. Add 2 cups milk, cook and stir over medium heat until thickened. Heat in 1 cup cream style cottage cheese and add salt and pepper to taste.

For a quick and hearty meal try cooking pork sausage links or patties with a tomato or Creole sauce. You can add an extra touch by serving with toast points.

For variety, fill centers of baked apples with peppermint candies, chopped dates, raisins, nuts or orange marmalade.

Potatoes, prepared either creamed or fried on top of the range, are excellent with broiled dinners because this permits the homemaker to use surface units for cooking vegetables as well as potatoes.

Helen's Favorite:
Luncheon Meat Filling
(2½ cups)
1 can (12 ounces) luncheon meat
½ cup chopped nuts
½ cup finely chopped celery
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
6 tablespoons mayonnaise
Mash luncheon meat with a fork. Add nuts, celery, Worcestershire sauce and mayonnaise. Mix well. Use as celery stuffing, sandwich filling or topping for crackers.

American Legion Observes Birthday

American Legionnaires of the State of Texas joined in a gigantic celebration of the Legion's 48th birthday during March in their respective festivities. Jack W. Flynt, state commander of the Legion, has announced.

The Legion's 48th anniversary was spotlighted in Texas with a special TELETHON in Department Headquarters, Austin, on March 18. Commander Flynt was in Department Headquarters waiting to hear from posts all over Texas, telling in what manner they celebrated the Legion's birthday.

This year's observance is the Legion's first as an organization of four generations of war veterans. The American Legion was founded March 15-17, 1919, in Paris, France, shortly after the close of World War I hostilities. Its founders were representatives of the various outfits which made up the American Expeditionary Force. The organization now consists of veterans of World War I, World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War.

Soil and water conservation districts are governed by local landowners.

4-H HEALTH PROJECTS GIVE LIFETIME BENEFITS

Good health is not a "Some-time Thing" with 4-H boys and girls. They work at it year-round. Besides, the 4th "H" stands for HEALTH. More than 2,225,000 youth pledge their "health to better living."

State-wide supervision of the program is given by the Cooperative Extension Service. County Extension agents work with local club leaders in setting up and carrying out health projects for both the individual and the club.

National sponsor of the 4-H health program and awards for the 12th straight year is Eli Lilly and Company. It will provide six $500 scholarships to three boys and three girls who qualify for 1967 national honors. The winners will be announced during the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago next November.

These awards do not come easy, however. The 4-Hers must show definite progress in a health project or activity and should complete a specific phase of the program. Year-to-year records are kept by the member.

Here are examples of what two top 1966 winners did to improve their own health and that of others.

One 16-year-old boy headed community projects dealing with water pollution, immunization and drowning first-aid. As a matter of fact, one young mother who had attended the 4-H mouth-to-mouth resuscitation

Baptist W. M. S. Has Mission Study

The W. M. S. of the First Baptist Church met in the church parlor Tuesday, March 21, for mission study.

The president, Mrs. Henry Lowrance, asked for the call for prayer for the missionaries who were having birthdays that day by Mrs. George Colebank, and called for prayer led by Mrs. Homer Abbott.

The mission book, "Great Is the Company," was brought by Mrs. Nelson Christie. She reviewed the translation of the Bible from the beginning of the translation to the King James version.

Other than those listed above who were present at the meeting were Mesdames Henderson, E. E. Brooks, Walter Miller, Bill Pettit, Luther Petty, Frank Howard, Garland Ramsey, Dan Beltz and Jerry Mounce.

training sessions was able to revive her own child.

An 18-year-old university coed credits her work and knowledge gained in the 4-H health program with her decision to become a social worker. Physical fitness, dental health and eye and ear care were stressed in her projects.

No special requirements are needed for enrolling a youngster in a 4-H club. Age limits generally are from 9 through 19 years. Parents wishing more information about the 4-H program can obtain it by calling the county extension office.

Culture Club Meets With Mrs. Baker

Reported by Mrs. Foreman Stubbs

The Centennial Culture Club met in the lovely new home of Mrs. Carl Baker.

The house was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. M. Carpenter. Business was taken care of and then Mrs. W. E. Bogan displayed her new hobby, a new art, or at least new to this reporter. Her display was ash trays.

Lovely refreshments were served to 12 members Mesdames C. M. Carpenter, Homer Abbott, Newt Barker, W. E. Bogan, B. E. Glass, Claude Lester, Brent Chapman, J. E. Kirby, Kid McCoy, Henry Lowrance, Foreman Stubbs and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Claude Lester on April 14. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bailey were in Huntsville last week to attend a press conference and also visited relatives in Houston and Fort Worth.
