Wanda Carter, Gray County Clerk, has announced her candidacy for re-election and won the nomination of the Democratic Party held on March 13, 1990.

Wanda Carter is a veteran of the Clerk's Office, having worked as a deputy and Chief Deputy for Charlie Thut, and having begun her first term of office on January 1, 1971.

"There have been many changes in the office," she said. "When I first went to work, we were photostating real estate records and typing court records. We began microfilming real estate records with computer indexing in 1981. As we enter the 1990's, I expect the changes to come much faster."

Clerk's are now required by statute to acquire an additional 20 hours of education each two years.

McLean Clinic To Sponsor Breast Cancer Detection Unit

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of every ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime during her lifetime. Every year over 37,000 women die as a result of breast cancer.

According to a spokesman from the Regional Breast Care Center at Women's & Children's Hospital in Odessa, Texas "The death rate from breast cancer could be drastically reduced if women would have mammograms done before a problem exists." By using modern state of the art X-Ray equipment breast cancers can be found when they are about the size of a grain of rice and well before the cancer can be felt. A woman who is diagnosed with breast cancer at this early stage has a 90-97 percent survival rate. However, a woman who is not diagnosed until a lump can be felt has approximately a 50 percent survival rate in five years.

In an effort to find cancers at the earliest possible stage and prevent unnecessary deaths, a mobile breast cancer detection unit will be made available to local women on Friday, May 4th.

The Mobile Unit will be parked at McLean Clinic, 402 N. Main Street, McLean, Texas. Appointments may be made by calling 779-2401.

For more information you may call the Regional Breast Care Center at Women's and Children's Hospital at (915) 334-8888/561-9999.

Pioneer Study Club Entertained Class Of 1990

The Pioneer Study Club entertained the Senior Class of 1990 with a tea at the Church of Christ Annex Sunday afternoon, April 22.

Each Senior was pinned with a favor in the shape and color of a rainbow with a pot of gold at the end of it. Parents and grandparents were pinned with a smaller rainbow.

The program was given by four underclassmen of the student body.

Dennis Hill and Amy Ward gave a number of achievements accomplished by each senior student. Cash Carpenter and Hollie Hauck gave a very delightful skit, looking back on the careers each student had selected as their life time work. It was a most thoughtful, enjoyable and comical presentation by Cash and Hollie taken from the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

I just wish I were a drama critic so I could adequately describe the performances given by Dennis, Amy, Cash and Hollie.

An array of finger foods, sweets and punch were served to all.

The senior attending were; Billie Matthews, Tres Hess, James Martin, Kim Orrick, James McClellan, Jimmy Armbrister, Alicia Reynolds, Tammy Passmore, Shatrel Colpetzer, Suzie Kunc, Stacie Hall, Danna Watson and Donald Harris.

Owners Of Signs Along Interstate Face Sept. 4 Deadline

Owners of signs along Interstate and certain U.S. and State highways (federal-aid primary) face a September 5 deadline for annual renewal of permits for all outdoor advertising signs which were issued prior to September 5, 1985. In addition, if the previously issued permit plat has become illegible or detached from the sign structure a replacement plate will be required.

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation is preparing to notify sign owners of active permits of record which will require renewal. Individuals and/or companies who have recently purchased signs should ensure that proper transfer has been made through the Highway Department. All sign permits which have not been renewed by September 5, 1990, will become invalid and the sign will be subject to removal.

Questions concerning this requirement, may be directed to Lou Bollman at (806)376:5253.

National poll shows 4-H Makes a Difference

Does participation in 4-H make a difference in the lives of individuals?

A nationwide poll of 1,761 individuals showed that 4-H does, indeed, have a positive effect on the lives of individuals who were involved in the program as youths.

4-H is an informal educational program for youth between the ages of 9 and 19 and is conducted by the Extension Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture and state Extension Service. Its objective is to provide help in the development of knowledge and leadership as well as in problem-solving and personal skills.

Dear Editor

We would like to submit the following report on the medical condition of our daughter, Amanda Hauck, to your reading audience. Several people from your community have expressed an interest in her welfare and we would like to give them this information:

Don, Cynthia, Bonnie, Christopher and Amanda Hauck all want to say a great big thank you to everyone who has helped us during Amanda's illness. We would like to report that she is in stable condition after her cerebral hemorrhage on April 8, 1990. She has been through a great ordeal in several cities but is presently at home for a week before surgery on May 8, 1990 at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Texas.

We have several groups of people that we would like to express our appreciation to at this time.

The first people we think of on our list is our own McLean Ambulance crew and friends who responded so quickly to our emergency. These people are Jimmy, Clifford and Robert McDonald, Judy Stewart, Doyle Lee and Joe Burrows. We cannot praise you enough for saving our daughter.

Other medical people involved are Dr. Blacketter of Shamrock General Hospital, Dr. Rush Snyder and Dr. Charles Rimmer at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo and Dr. Duke Samson and staff from Parkland Hospital in Dallas, Tex. There are several other doctors involved but they are too numerous to mention. We especially appreciate their assessments, surgical procedures and referrals to specialists for further treatment.

There are so many people to thank that it seems impossible to begin. We are overwhelmed by the number of phone calls from people saying that they're praying for her and are concerned. Our love and sincere appreciation go out to the different churches who have upheld us in prayer. People from several states have reported that Amanda has been and will continue to be on their prayer lists. This is the single most important thing that we desire.

So many communities have expressed their concern, and we thank you all for your love and contributions. You are so important to us and we will always remember your consideration of Amanda at this time in her life.

We especially wish to thank all of our co-workers, friends, and community of McLean for their efforts to help us. Your cards, calls, gifts, visits and prayers are so deeply felt. You all know that we loved you before and are so proud to be a part of such a caring and loving community.

Sincerely,
Cynthia Hauck

was to determine the impact of the 4-H experience on the lives of former 4-H members, said Dr. Howard Ladewig, program evaluation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and leader of the study.

Working with Ladewig was Dr. John Thomas, rural sociologist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The study was funded by a grant for ES, USDA.

The randomly selected sample of individuals in the study included 710 former 4-H members and 743 members of other youth organizations. The remainder had not been involved in organized groups during their youth.

A key finding of the survey, Ladewig said, is that former 4-H members today are more active in community activities, particularly in leadership roles, than non-members.

When comparing both former 4-H members and those participating in other youth organizations with non-participants in youth groups, the community involvement aspect is particularly significant.

"Those who did not take part in organizations as youth are currently much less involved in adult community activities," Ladewig noted.

4-H also tends to have family ties. Ladewig pointed out. Former 4-H members indicated that their children are participating in 4-H to a large degree (by 50 percent more than children of non 4-H parents), and that they themselves take part in Extension educational programs and activities to significantly greater degree than former members of other youth groups as well as former non-participants in youth groups.

"One reason for the greater involvement by former 4-Hers relates to the types of experiences they had as youths," Ladewig noted.

"Without question, the study showed that former 4-H members gave higher rankings to personal development, knowledge, leadership and coping skills experiences than did former members of other organizations.

"4-H participants also felt that their overall experiences were more valuable to them than did participants of other youth organizations," he said.

The study also found that characteristics of 4-H members, as youths, are no different from other youths across the nation who are involved in such groups as Scouts, Boys or Girls Clubs, YMCA and YWCA church organizations, and FFA and FHA, the specialist noted. Their backgrounds, educational attainments and incomes are generally similar.

Further study of the survey data will focus on reasons why particular activities have led to greater involvement of former youth group members in community affairs. Areas to be addressed include leadership development, opportunities for responsibility, communication skills and the development of self-worth.

New Amendment

An amendment to the State Constitution now requires all elected and appointed officials in Texas to file a written statement before taking the oath of office, Secretary of State George Bayoud said.

Last November, Texas voters approved the constitutional amendment that removed the bribery provision in the official oath of office required of all elected and appointed officers. The amendment placed the bribery provision in a written oath that office holders must sign and file with the secretary of state's office before they take the oral oath of office.

"What needs to be emphasized is that as a result of this change in state law, elected and appointed officials must file a written statement with my office before taking the oath," Bayoud said.

State and local officers who were appointed or reappointed, elected or re-elected, after Dec. 5, 1989 must comply with the new law.

"This constitutional amendment affects thousands of elected and appointed officers across the state," Bayoud said.

On May 5, hundreds of Texas cities, school boards, utility districts and other political subdivisions will be conducting elections.

The constitutional amendment in effect, has divided the swearing-in procedure required of all elected and appointed officers in Texas into two parts-the written statement of the officer to be filed with the secretary of state's office, and the oral oath of office, Bayoud said.

For more information on the new law, call Linda Stout with the secretary of state's office at 512-463-5654.

A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate. The cost is only $60.00.

Annual Staff Report

We are very proud of the 1989-90 Annual Staff. The students have worked hard both at raising money and on the yearbook. The cost of the 1990 yearbook is approximately $6,000 to print plus all of the additional cost of film and developing.

During the fall semester, they published a school newspaper once every six weeks, sold magazine subscriptions, sold cookie grams at Halloween, sponsored the annual Harvest Coronation and had a marriage booth at the Halloween Carnival. In the spring, they sold valentine carnations, the yearbook and ads. All of these events were a great success only because the students and people of McLean supported each one.

At the first of the year it was suggested by the publisher that we sell our annual this year for $20. Last year the price was $17.50.

Since the students worked so hard at the fund raising, we were able to sell the yearbook for $15.00, which was less than both last year's price and our suggested price. The students worked very hard and sold 110 out of the 120 books that were ordered. As of now, it is possible for us to completely pay for this year's book. We thank you for all of your support and we thank this year's staff for all of their hard work.

The 1989-90 Annual Staff consists of Alicia Reynolds, Editor and chief; Stacie Hall, Chief Photographer; Danna Watson, Typist; Missy Young, April Judkins, Tammy Passmore, Lisa McClellan, Stacy Walker, Shartel Colpetzer, and Kathy Wvatt.

County Receives Report

On Money Paid To Veterans

An official report showing the monetary benefits paid to veterans residing in Carson County was given to the Commissioners when they met Monday morning, April 23. The figures show that $263,555 was paid in compensation and pension in fiscal year 1989; $4,001 in readjustment and vocational rehab; $44,058 in insurance and indemnities for a total of $311,614.

Douglas Brown, executive director of the Texas Veterans Commission, said in the report, "This is an excellent barometer of the effectiveness of the valuable service you perform for the veterans, their dependents and survivors in Carson County."

The Court also received a letter from Ward Brown Associates informing them that Nolan Brown had recently taken a job with Mason and Hanger at the Pantex Plant. Ward Brown is the architect in charge of the courthouse handicap accessibility project.

Richard Slagle of the Texas Association of Counties presented a safety program for elected officials and supervisors, pointing out the need for safety in the workplace and discussing various costs of accidents. An employee safety training session will be given at a later date.

Education certificates earned by the commissioners were distributed by Judge Roselius, in recognition of continuing education credits received at a conference in College Station. Commissioners received 12 hours credit toward their mandated 16 hours.

Water Stewardship Week

The McClellan Creek Soil and Water Conservation District has announced they will join in the national observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week to take place on April 29-May 6, 1990 according to an announcement by Aubrey Russell, chairman of the district.

The theme of this year's observance is "Citizens Of All Creation." This focus is especially appropriate as our need for stewardship is vital if we are to maintain the productive capabilities of our basic natural resources of soil and water. Together we must work for the good of all to utilize, conserve and properly manage those resources in our care. Participation in Soil and Water Stewardship Week activities offers an opportunity to reflect on the nation's natural renewable resource problems and consider actions to resolve them or reduce their impact.

The McClellan Creek SWCD was organized in 1960 for the purpose of offering farmers, ranchers and the local community a voluntary conservation technical assistance program through which individuals could seek and request conservation assistance to meet their individual land's capabilities and needs.

"Basically it is the district's responsibility to provide technical assistance when requested relative to proper soil use and treatment, erosion control practices, solve drainage problems and assist farmers and ranchers with crop, range and pasture land management," said Russell.

The National Association of Conservation Districts has sponsored Soil and Water Stewardship Week in the United States since 1955, in cooperation with the nation's nearly 3,000 soil and water conservation districts. Informative material on the Soil and Water Stewardship Week theme each year is distributed through local conservation districts to clergymen, lay leaders, civic and educational organizations and to individuals interested in participating in the celebration.

Information and materials for the 1990 observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week can be obtained in this area from the local district office.
