Wilson Talks on Road Situation at C-C Meeting

Commissioner W. W. Wilson was the principal speaker at the chamber of commerce meeting Monday evening, bringing information on the road situation in Gray county.

Mr. Wilson said that there is more misunderstanding of the situation here than anything else. He insisted that the county judge and the commissioners are anxious to complete the McLean-Pampa road and highway 66 just as soon as it is possible to do so, but the situation is out of their hands. They have had promises from the state highway department, but so far no action has been taken.

Mr. Wilson said that $20,000 had been spent last year on roads in this precinct and $12,000 this year. This year and next year's budget is set at $14,000 each year, which should maintain the roads properly.

The commissioner insisted that it is impossible to do any good dragging sandy roads in dry weather, which has accounted for the bad condition of the McLean-Pampa road the past year.

Mr. Wilson promised cooperation with Wheeler county on the county-line road, saying that the right-of-way needs widening, the sand piled back on the fields, and a grade made on the new width.

A motion was made that Secretary Biggers represent the chamber of commerce in cooperating with the commissioner in road activities.

It was also ordered that the secretary invite Congressman Marvin Jones to visit McLean and confer with citizens here on highway 66 paving.

Mr. Biggers reported all suggestions for chamber of commerce activities led back to the road situation. He also stressed the need of apartment houses here, as many people are being turned away from McLean on account of lack of suitable rent houses.

Jesse J. Cobb, Red Cross roll call chairman, announced the opening of the roll call next Monday.

C. O. Greene, past president of the Red Cross, reported $4,000 worth of flour and clothing distributed in McLean the past year.

Sam M. Hodges reported the activities of the county relief work, insisting that every person in need of work register at once.

O. G. Stokely reported Collingsworth county commissioners willing to work the south road after the rain.

M. D. Bentley reported 40 cars stuck at one time last week on the Jericho gap on highway 66, and decried the political situation that seems to be holding up work on this part of the road.

The meeting was in charge of President Boyd Meador, and the following were among those present: W. D. Biggers, M. T. Wilkerson, D. A. Davis, W. W. Wilson, W. A. Erwin, W. W. Boyd, Claude Williams, Ralph A. Caldwell, C. O. Greene, Jesse J. Cobb, Sam M. Hodges, Alva Alexander, M. D. Bentley, A. C. St. Clair, J. A. Sparks, O. G. Stokely, Dwight Stubblefield, W. H. Floyd, Earl Stubblefield and T. A. Landers.

Tuesday was program day for the Lions Club, and entertainment was the feature of the day.

Boyd Meador, chairman of the day's program committee, presented the entertainers with the statement that when the club wants to hear some real talent they have to have either himself or the boss Lion on the committee.

Miss Zonelle Brooks, expression teacher in the McLean schools, and one of her pupils, little Miss Mary Lee Abbott, favored with readings, and Miss Willie Louelle Cobb gave a couple of piano selections. Every number received generous applause from the Lions.

The secretary read the honor roll for the past month, showing most every Lion with a 100% attendance record.

Tall Twister and Vice President C. O. Greene stated that he was acting as vice president for the day, and the boss Lion appointed Lion Witt Springer as tall twister, who proceeded to get the money, beginning with the vice president, Lion Meador was fined for not entertaining a club guest during the meal.

Lion Greene announced plans being perfected for ladies' night during Thanksgiving week.

The book cover committee was continued with a motion that they be fined $1.00 each if a report is not ready by the next meeting of the club. It was ordered that they meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning for work on the cover proposition.

PAKAN PASTOR ORDAINED BY OWN FATHER

The Rev. Stephen Tuhy, Jr., who recently arrived for his new charge at the Lutheran Church in the Pakan community, was ordained and formally inducted into the ministry by his own father, who is president of the general pastoral conference of the Slovak Synod of America and president of the Eastern Conference of the Slovak Synod, shortly before he left for Shamrock, according to an item in the Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) Evening News.

This rare occasion of a father ordaining his own son into the ministry was the first of its kind in the history of the Slovak Synod of America. The Rev. Tuhy, Jr., held his first services in Pakan two weeks ago. He completed his ministerial training last June at Concordia Theological Seminary at St. Louis.

Red Cross Roll Call Campaign Begins Monday

According to announcement of Jesse J. Cobb, Red Cross roll call chairman, the actual work of the annual roll call will begin Monday morning with teams calling on the business men, and ladies of the P. T. A. calling in the residence district.

A follow-up call will be made later to enlist all who fail to join, or who are not at home when the workers call.

Mr. Cobb made the announcement of roll call plans at a joint meeting of the officers of the local chapter and the out-going officers, Monday afternoon.

Past President C. O. Greene thanked the old officers for their cooperation and presented the newly elected president, A. R. McHaney.

Mr. McHaney expressed thanks for the confidence placed in him by the people of the community and asked Mr. Greene to outline the duties of the new officers.

President McHaney appointed T. A. Landers publicity chairman and stated that other appointments would be announced soon.

Mr. Greene reported $2.70 sent to the Rio Grande disaster relief.

Mrs. A. T. Young, chairman of garment relief, reported need of buttons, braids, shoes, coats, etc.

The work of past secretary, Miss Frances Noel, was praised, as was the work of Mr. Greene and Mrs. C. A. Strandberg last year, and all old officers were given a rising vote of thanks.

The secretary was instructed to write a letter of appreciation to M. T. Wilkerson for furnishing a building for Red Cross headquarters free of charge. It was also requested that this motion be mentioned in The McLean News.

Mr. McHaney presented the new officers, only three being absent.

It was agreed that the former system of zoning the town with an investigator in each zone be resumed and the relief chairman issue clothing upon recommendation of zone investigators.

"I Want to Know"

By D. A. Davis

Why the wheat farmers of our western states are kicking because they are having to pay 96c for a pair of overalls, while the cotton farmers of the south are paying $1.79 for a 48 pound sack of flour.

Why the Brazilian government had to dump millions of bags of coffee because the price was almost nothing, while we consumers of America are paying from 25c to 40c per pound for our morning cup.

Why some people with apparently no visible means of support can afford a new automobile, while us wage earners are having to put up with our old rattletaps.

Why a large majority of men and women who belong to our service clubs, churches, commercial clubs, lodges and the like contribute a lot of their time and money to support these institutions, who are not financially able to do so; while a large majority of our citizens who are fairly well blessed with this world's goods contribute practically nothing of money or their time to help carry on these worthy causes.

Why an old boy will work hard all the week, come to town and buy a bottle of bootleg, get drunk, land in the calaboose, pay his fine with his hard earned money, go back to work Monday morning broke, and kid himself into believing he had a swell time.

Why Uncle Sam expects us guys that have had no salary increase to "Buy now" at prevailing higher prices while we could only pay for actual necessities last year.

Why we have so many "Major Hooples," "Andy Gumps" and "Moon Mullins-es" getting elected to public office and appointed to state and federal highway jobs. When are we going to get some of our road programs started?

What has become of all those "project surveys" we filled out away last summer urging us to hurry up and get them in so we could go to work right away putting our unemployed to work.

Why do most radio advertising announcers clutter up their programs with a class of advertising bunk that the most simple minded child in the United States knows is the sorriest kind of piffle. And why do these broadcasting stations allow 75% of their programs to go on the air with absolutely no entertaining value whatever?

Why everybody thinks they are getting the worst end of the new deal and the other fellow is falling down and not "doing his part."

Why Uncle Sam or anybody else expects anybody to create a buying power surplus on thirteen to fifteen dollars per week, which will not even afford the actual necessary things of an American standard of living.

HOME ECONOMICS REPORT

Pupils interested in home economics met November 2 at 3:15 for the purpose of organizing a Home Economics Club. Miss Vannoy, home economics instructor, opened the house for nominations for president, after which the president took charge and the other officers were elected.

The officers elected were: President, Marie Landers; vice president, Avaiee Back; secretary, Neva Flowers; treasurer, Catherine Patterson; pianist, Alice Hardin; chorister, Clara Faye Carpenter; reporter, Mozelle Glenn.

After the officers were elected, a name for the club, flower, colors and motto were selected. The name selected was "Homemakers." The colors are orchid and pink and the flower is carnation. The motto is "Forward ever, backward never." Lena Williams and Freda Duncan were appointed by the president to serve on the program committee with Avaiee Back as chairman.

It was decided that the Homemakers Club would meet every first and third Thursdays of the month at 3:15 p. m.

ASSEMBLY

An account of the assembly last Tuesday was written up by the editor of The News last week, so it will not be necessary to include that in this issue of the Tiger Post. However, the student body wishes to express its thanks to the chamber of commerce and those who assisted for the splendid program.

FOOTBALL RAMBLES

The game with Wellington, scheduled for last Friday night, but postponed on account of bad weather, was played Monday night at Wellington. A good crowd, considering the cold weather, witnessed the melee, in which the Tigers hopelessly outclassed their opponents. The Wellington squad showed plenty of fighting spirit and are to be complimented for that.

After falling to score in the first quarter the Tigers ran up a count of 30-0 in the last three periods. Dowell, stellar half, counted two scores. Tolliver two, and C. Christian one. Tolliver turned in probably his best game of the season, while C. Christian played almost up to his regular style despite the fact that he was hampered by leg injuries. "Metsger" Christian showed up well in the spinner position. To the Tiger line-men also goes a tribute for their blocking for the ball toters.

This game is probably the last conference game of the season for the Tigers. They go to Borger next Friday night for a contest with the class A Borger Bulldogs, a team that last week beat Clarendon 22-0.

TIGERETTES

The pep squad is no more, but a much more peppy organization has taken its place. The pep squad was organized into a pep club with the name Tigerettes. The requirements for membership are the same as for the pep squad. The club is to have four regular meetings each month for yell and song practice and they will have one social meeting each month, with groups of members as hostesses.

THE IDEAL SCHOOL

After consultation with a majority of school students, the following plan was drawn up for an ideal school: The school should open at 10 a. m. to allow the pupils to make up any lost sleep which may result from constant brain-work.

The school should be well equipped with elevators to prevent all undue exertion on the part of the students. As the board of education would not consent to bear the expense of paying the teachers to teach long hours, it was decided that they should conduct a free dispensary of candy, soda and cigarettes for the mid-morning and mid-afternoon refreshments.

should be under twenty-five and unmarried. At the beginning of the school year, the student will indicate what schedule he wishes to pursue, and a special course will be arranged for him.

School should begin in the fall with the frost, and close at the first signs of spring.

As this type of school does not seem to be in view for us, let us strive to gain it for our children.—The Semaphore.

DEBATE TOURNAMENT

The annual debate tournament will be held this year on March 2 and 3. The tournament will be sponsored by the Lions Club, and invitations will be issued immediately.

IN REVERENCE TO THEIR MEMORY

Our Homage to the Heroes Who Peacefully Sleep in Flanders Fields or in Consecrated Ground in Our Own Great Land

Time, 'tis said, "heals all wounds." So it has for a world which, fifteen years ago, was torn by the greatest conflict the centuries had ever known. Thanks to the victory of the Allied Armies, Good Will and Progress now rule where Enmity and Destruction once prevailed.

Time, however, cannot take from the minds of all true Americans the memory of those brave lads who so unselfishly laid down their lives in defense of Humanity's sacred principles. Their deeds live on . . . and will always live on . . . though they "sleep in Flanders Fields where poppies grow" or in hallowed ground of our own land.

And they shall know that we faithfully Remember when we breathe a Silent Prayer of Thankfulness as we:

Another local minister has complimented the editor on the character of the jokes printed in this paper, saying that many of them are clipped for use in sermons and addresses. Our jokes are carefully edited for good clean humor, with the hope of pleasing at least the great majority of our subscribers.

T. E. Johnson, in his column "Plain-speaking" in last Sunday's Amarillo News, had much to say about the highway situation near Jericho that was very pertinent. This stretch of 7 miles could only be negotiated in little less than an hour's time Sunday afternoon and was still risky driving that long after the rain.

McLean can be glad that Amarillo is waking up to the highway situation. We have had to do most of our fighting for saving on this highway without Amarillo's help the past few years, but it now looks as if we might get some action.

There is little excuse for this situation at the present time, and whoever is in authority should take some short cuts to get the road paved.

McLean merchants got away from the old school curtain scheme several years ago by promising to buy any school curtain, if allowed to buy other than from a peddler. This was done because an advertising curtain at that time was bringing $300, while a good scenic curtain could be bought of a legitimate artist for around $50.

Then, a good curtain with "Compliments of McLean Business Men" in one corner would be worth much more than an advertising daub, such as was being peddled at that time.

The fine curtain at the high school building is the result of that offer, as it was first intended to sell an advertising curtain. No one would say that we do not have something to be proud of in that curtain, while an advertising curtain several years out of date would be something else again.

It is much cheaper to buy things like this in the regular way and not have so much money leave town.

EFFICIENT TEACHING

Lecturer—"Three thousand four hundred and twenty-six elephants were needed last year to make billiard balls. Now are there any questions?"
Freshman—"How did they train the elephants to do such delicate work?"

PREPAREDNESS

A childless couple adopted a three-month-old French orphan. Then they took a correspondence course in French so they would be able to understand the baby when it starts to talk.

TOUGH PROPOSITION

Razlie—"Do you know why the ones didn't eat Daniel?"
Tazlie—"No. Why not?"
Razlie—"Because most of him was backbone and the rest was grit."

Man (getting shave)—"Barber, will you please get me a glass of water?"
Barber—"What is the matter, a hair in your throat?"
Man—"No, I want to see if my throat leaks."

She—"I dreamed I was having dinner with you last night."
He—"Really?"
She—"Yes, and now I have indigestion."

MODERN KIDS

Right here and now, I want some of you married folks with children, who are trying to raise a crop of kids under modern rules and regulations, to step forward and tell me if I am getting old-fashioned and antiquated. My daughter, thinks I am. She had plans and blue prints drawn up for a Halloween celebration, and they didn't include anything as mild as a Sunday school party (and they are too much like a Ladies Sewing Circle these days and times). First off, she figured on having the help of about six other girls and maybe seven boys, and they planned to visit Elmer Gunn—just to show their love and affection toward Elmer, they were gonna pile enough rubbish and fire wood on his front porch to last him all winter. They planned to visit Cerial Bratton, their Geog. teacher next, and as they all love Geography and make such good grades, they were gonna string Mr. Bratton up by his toes and cave the roof of his house in with cross ties. This they felt would properly illustrate their love and affection for Geography.

Other teachers were included in the plan of attack, and I am here and now ready to accept the thanks of the school faculty for having saved their property and maybe their lives.

But the thing I want to find out is just when girls developed the idea that they were tough as a boot, and when boys got so sissie that they would allow girls to prance around with them on Halloween when they were out to do their darndest.

Now when I WUS A BOY, the girls kept off of the streets after 8 p. m., and the boys was so tough they would have run a "skirt" home to mommer, if they had ever darpd, want to pull Halloween pranks.

Is it possible that boys have become so feminine that they allow "skirts" to go around with them to roll barrels in the street, put cows on the roof and sech like—hevens forbade.

ONE TRIBUTE TO THE "BOSS"

"The Boss" is the title given to the editorial reprinted below which appeared in the Omaha World-Herald:

During these changing days when labor is going on the forty-hour week and men by the hundreds of thousands are going to have more leisure than they ever had before, it is well, perhaps, to give thought for a moment to the one who isn't going to be quite so happy. We mean the boss.

He's the man that the national recovery administration refers to as an executive who is exempt from the code provisions for the shorter week. He is exempt for the simple reason that he is going to work harder and longer hours and carry greater burdens than before. He's the guy who must think up ways and means of changing his business methods to meet code conditions and still, if possible, keep out of the red. He's the fellow who has to dig up the newer and higher wage scale cash, so that the pay envelopes will still be available, on Saturday night. He's the man who must answer "I will" to the president, and, in order to get that precious eagle emblem think and work and worry as never before.

In some future day when, we all hope, historians will look back upon the summer of 1933 and record it as the period of a new emancipation of the American people, when they will tell the story of a nation united to destroy that old' debbil Depression; when they will write of a leadership that was courageous and confident and determined, at that future day we hope the Prescotts and Gibbonses of the era will find time for at least a paragraph about the usually unsung, unhonored and unwept hero of it all—the boss. Just in case those future historians neglect their duty, we hasten to seize the opportunity here and now to cast a few bouquets and laurel wreaths at the fellow who is too busy to know or care about praise, who is only hoping he can scheme a way to make ends meet, while he devotes forty and twice forty hours a week to the process.—Chronicle, Toledo, Ia.

FROM A LOCAL PAPER

"At church last Sunday morning the tenor sang 'I May Never Pass This Way Again' to the delight of the congregation."

Lady—"I want a wart removed."
Hardware Clerk—"But, lady, I'm not a doctor."
Lady—"I know it. I want to buy a revolver."

Suitor (sighing)—"Well, since you don't want to marry me any more, perhaps you'll return me my ring."
Girl (acidly)—"If you must know, your jeweler has called for it already."

GRAFTER STOPPED SELLING CALENDAR

A grafter blew into Canyon the other day all set to fleece the business men out of $50 or more for a so-called church calendar.

Local solicitors were sent out to sell advertising on the calendar "for the benefit of the churches."

The grafter sat around waiting the return of the solicitors with the cold coin of the realm.

Word went out from the chamber of commerce office of the scheme being pulled, and the man left town.

The chamber of commerce seeks to protect business men from this class of men.—Canyon News.

Wife—"Did you have a hard day at the office, dear?"

Mr. Begtostate—"In reply to your query of even date as to my day at the office, regret to say that business matters were pressing, and I am very tired."

Wife—"You poor dear! Well, come on now, dinner is ready."

Mr. Begtostate—"In re your statement concerning immediate preparations to serve dinner, beg to advise that it will be five minutes before I can act on this, owing to the fact that I have just lighted a cigar. Regretting my inability to comply promptly with your request, and trusting that the delay will not seriously inconvenience you—"

Wife—"Lay down that cigar and come to dinner at once! It's getting cold!"

Mr. Begtostate—"Your complaint regarding delay in attending to your recent order has been called to my personal attention, and I beg to assure you that same will receive immediate handling. Feeling sure you will be pleased, and—"

Wife—"Thank heavens! Won't you have some potatoes, dear?"

When the wild goat's kids and the tiger's cubs are not eating or sleeping, they are lying in the sunshine or playing vigorously to develop strength and grace and stamina.

Surely the one race blessed with reason could find a way to train its young as sanely.

Not every boy can become a Ford, an Edison, or a Rockefeller, but every one who is not afraid or ashamed can make an honorable and useful place for himself, and he doesn't have to begin in a "white-collar" job either.

Scarcely a day passes without the announcement from some business house of national magnitude that is turning again to newspaper advertising to reach the public.

Daughter—"But, daddy, why do you object to my becoming engaged? Is it because of my youth?"

Dad—"Yes, he's hopeless."

GETTING RID OF HIM

"No more shall I hear Silver's footsteps on yonder walk every night as the clock strikes eight?"

"Goodness gracious, Naomi!"

"And the old parlor light will never be turned out for him again?"

"You don't mean it!"

"I do. And furthermore, he will never sit on the sofa beside me seven nights a week and call me pet names as he has been doing for two years."

"You could knock me over with a feather!"

"And tonight I am going to burn all his old love letters and empty out my bureau drawer."

"But—are you going to discard him? I thought he was a very good fellow, as men go."

"Discard him? Why, you goose, I am going to marry him."

A STORY AND A MORAL

A naturalist once divided an aquarium with a bass in one section and minnows in the other. At first the bass would strike every time a minnow came to the glass partition. After several days of fruitless lunging which netted him only bruises, he ceased his efforts and subsided on the food that was dropped in.

Then the naturalist removed the glass partition. The minnows swam all around the bass, but he did not strike at a single one. He was thoroughly sold on the idea that business was bad.

MORAL—"Take another shot at the glass partition. Maybe it isn't there any more."

THE MAN BEHIND THE MAN WHO CARRIES THE BALL

Any organized game or sport may be compared with life. With the football season upon us, we may consider that popular branch of athletics. In a football game, there are only a few men who get to carry the ball over for a touchdown. It is well to remember, however, that the number of touchdowns a team secures may depend more upon one player whose efforts are never noted by the crowd than it does upon the man who actually carries the ball.

The same thing is true in every community. A lot of things that are done for the good of a community often depend upon the workers who do not take much of an active part in the actual proceedings. They do not get into the limelight, but their efforts make it possible for someone else to put the proposition over.—Republican, Pittsfield, Ill.

Killing chickens the A. & M. way (sticking) is just as easy as the old way and gives much better quality, says Mrs. Clyde Mosely, Hopkins county farm woman who cans chicken, ground, cubed, and as tamales. "I'll wring a chicken's neck no more," she declares.

I-C—"I want to pay cash for this car."

Dealer—"Your request is so unusual that I'm afraid I will have to have references."

A full week's pay for half a week's work is just plain dishonesty.

A VERY BUSY MAN

A member of Congress from the South was referring recently to the easy-going ways some of the people in his part of the country have. He told of how a certain man would take his position on the porch right after breakfast and sit there hour after hour, perfectly motionless, except for the steady working of his jaws as he chewed his "niggerhead" tobacco. Finally one day his wife came to the door and said, somewhat despairingly, "Ain't ye goin' to work today?"

"Nope."

"Why ain't ye?"

"Ain't got time."

of them at least, were wealthy, since it seems that they took care of Paul's evangelistic party without the necessity of their laboring or using any private means which they may have had.

Finally the persecution came. Some men had brought a demoniac slave girl and were making a fortune off of her soothsaying. She followed the evangelistic party, and proclaimed truthfully who they were. It was un-welcome advertising. Paul, one day, cast the devil out of her. The own-ers then stirred up trouble. Paul and Silas were severely beaten, and placed in stocks. They prayed until their prayers burst forth in song. There was an earthquake. They were loosed, kept the jailer from com-mitting suicide, and told him those glorious words, "Believe on the Lord Jesus and thou shalt be saved." He was saved, and in the morning Paul sent word to the ruler of the city that he and Silas were Roman citizens, beaten without trial. This meant the death penalty for the ruler. But the two were willing to be satisfied if he would personally release them.

From Philippi, Paul and Silas traveled 33 miles to Amphipolis, 30 miles to Apollonia, and 37 more to Thessa-lonica, the metropolis of Macedonia. Luke and Timothy remained in Philippi. Here the missionaries preached in the synagogue three successive Sabbaths. Many were converted, and a church was established. Soon, how-ever, the anger of the Jews was stirred up and they tried to take the missionaries from the house of Jason. They were not there, so they took Jason before the authorities. Nothing came of it, however, and the mis-sionaries went to Berea.

Berea was 60 miles away from Thessalonica. There were many Jews in Berea, and there was a synagogue there. The missionaries preached and were able to persuade the people to search the Old Testament Scriptures to see if the missionaries were telling the truth. There were many con-verted. However, the news soon spread to Thessalonica, and some of the Jews came down from there and stirred up trouble. There was no violence committed, but it was necessary for Paul and Silas to leave. From there they went to the coast, a distance of about 40 miles, and from thence by sea 200 miles to Athens.

The Longhorn News

ALANREED HIGH SCHOOL

Due to the fact that the school has not been in session for several weeks, the Longhorn News has not appeared this year until this week. We wish to bring greetings to the readers of this column and hope that we shall be able to appear regularly from week to week for the balance of the school year.

A great improvement in the Alan-reed schools has been planned for this year. Work has been started toward classification and affiliation. For a number of years the operation of the school has been at a cost almost equal to that of maintaining an affiliated school, but the community has been receiving none of the priv-ileges of a standard school because the remaining requirements had not been met. New improvements within the state has necessitated a move on our part in order to maintain the school according to state educational plans. Certain adjustments and ad-ditions to the schools were necessary. In order to meet these several changes have been made recently. Mr. John Plaster, graduate of West Texas State Teachers College and resident of Can-yon, has just been elected by the board as an additional member of the high school faculty. We feel that we have a valuable addition to the teaching force in Mr. Plaster and that with the additional help much more effective work can be done. Among the other changes which are being made are the cataloging of the library, the addition of several additional volumes, minor interior changes in the physical set-up, and the addition of two practical courses to the curriculum.

During the holidays, when school was dismissed for cotton picking, some very badly needed repairs were made to the Alanreed high school building. Last winter when the bilz-zards came along all the heat from the stoves and the warmth from many warm clothes were inadequate to keep one comfortably warm. In an effort to relieve this unpleasant situation, all the windows were calked inside and out. Some of the window frames were in a bad condition and these were given a general over-hauling. The check-rails of the win-dows were given a weather strip to help keep out the north wind. The past storm was sufficient to prove the value of these improvements to the building. The roof, which was leak-ing in several places and doing con-siderable damage to the building, was repaired and the leaks stopped. Loose bricks on the top of the building were re-set and other repairs made to the brick work. A number of minor repairs were made that will be of substantial benefit to the build-ing.

John Herrin enrolled in high school Monday morning.

Pauline and Billie Crisp were en-rolled in the eighth grade this week. We were glad to have the new add-itions to this class, as it is the small-est in the high school.

A number of extra-curricular ac-tivities have been organized in the school this year. Mr. Dillard is the Boy Scout master for the boys. Miss Merriman and Miss Bowen are in charge of the senior and junior Girl Scout organizations. Miss Pettit and Miss Tacks will have charge of two high school organizations and will present several special programs, also. Mr. Paige will have charge of the Choral Club. A great deal of em-phasis is being placed upon the social value of education, the later trend in the field of education.

Mrs. Paige has organized a public school music class which meets at her home every Wednesday evening.

Ordinarily bad weather accounts for a downward trend in a fluctuation in attendance, but in Alanreed the con-verse is the case. During the bad weather our attendance increased, and with the breaking away of the storm the number decreased again. We hope to have our full attendance again so that the year's work may progress in full swing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. Paige, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Elms, Misses Bowman and Merriman at-tended a pie supper at Eldridge last Saturday night. Mr. Paige sang sev-eral songs on the program and Mr. Dillard auctioned the pies.

Miss Opal Oakley, senior in Alan-reed high school, and Mr. Olin Stapp were married a week ago Sunday. We regret to lose Opal from the class, but wish her every happiness for the future.

The schedule of examinations this week is late on account of school having dismissed for four weeks. Ex-aminations will be given for the first six-weeks period the last of this week. Parents may expect the reports next week. We ask that all parents check the reports to see if their children are doing satisfactory work, and confer with the superintendent or teacher in cases of unsatisfactory reports.

A shower for Mrs. Olin Stapp, for-merly Miss Opal Oakley, was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. James Saturday night.

The agriculture department is just completing a project in the con-struction of wood-working benches for the elementary grade rooms. The teachers in the grades are planning some project work in wood construc-tion and this new equipment will be a great help to the pupils in their creative exercises.

The Boy Scouts, under the direc-tion of Mr. Dillard, conducted one of the first chapel programs of the year. Two songs were sung, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "The Boy Scouts March." Mr. Dillard explain-ed the scout oath and salute. Ten boys, members of the newly organi-zed troop, gave the laws of the Boy Scouts. Rev. Henderson gave a short talk on the meaning of the scout oath.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Upham and Mrs. W. K. Wharton were in Pampa Sunday.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD MEETS

The regular bi-monthly banquet of the Baptist Brotherhood was held Tuesday evening at the First Baptist Church basement with President A. C. St. Clair in charge.
Rev. S. A. Cobb led the devotional, using a subject suitable to Armistice Day. Rev. Cobb said that love for one's neighbor, and consideration for the rights of others will end wars.
President St. Clair talked on the value of cooperation in church work and Reep Landers made an address on the experiences of a soldier in the great war.
R. L. Appling gave the invocation, Rev. S. A. Cobb led in prayer, and W. H. Floyd pronounced the benediction.

CERTAIN RETAILERS NOT EXEMPT IN SMALL TOWNS

Washington, Nov. 7.—National Recovery Administrator Hugh S. Johnson issued the following interpretation designed to exclude from the exemptions allowed in the President's Executive order of October 23, employers located in towns of less than 2,500 population but whose operations extend "over a relatively wide area and include a number of communities."
The Executive order of October 23, 1933, exempting from the provisions of the President's Reemployment Agreement and from approved codes certain employers located in towns under 2,500 population applies only to employers engaged in trades or services of which the operations are customarily confined to local areas. It does not apply to those trades or services in which operations ordinarily extend over a relatively wide area and include a number of communities. The Executive order therefore does not exempt from the provisions of the President's Reemployment Agreement and from the provisions of any code those employers engaged in selling at retail such products as lumber, building material, building specialties, builders' supplies and coal.

SCHOOL SPORTS

By the Railbird

The McLean Tigers tore their way to another conference victory in Wellington Monday night as they defeated the Skyrockets of that city 30-0.

The Tigers started the game without the services of "Cricket" Christian and were held scoreless for almost two quarters. Late in the second quarter Dowell went over for the opening touch.

The set-to was a lively affair with both teams presenting stubborn defenses. Ellison turned in his usual game at his tackle position, as did Christian as the field general. However, the most talked-of individual was Tolliver, who played brilliantly on offense and was a power on defense.

The starting line-ups:
McLean Greer Woods H. McCarty G. McCarty Bogan Ellison Stratton Ashby A. Christian Dowell Tolliver
L. E. L. T. L. G. C. R. G. R. T. R. E. Q. R. H. L. H. F.
Wellington Vandever Bungardner Shield Anders Blasingame C. Duncan B. Duncan Pussnell Woods Glenn Parker

A BIRD'S EYE-VIEW. The victory over Wellington allows the Tigers an even break with the remainder of the teams in this section, with the exception of the Irish of Shamrock. Shamrock has won three and lost one. McLean has lost two and won two.

The Skyrockets are the second class B team to hold the Tigers to less than 50 points in a game this year.

THE LOWDOWN. The Tigers still see a ray of hope in the pennant chase, as it is believed that the Wellington crew will give the Irish a run for their money when the two aggregations crash later this season.

Meanwhile, Coach Rush has been drilling his charges for the classic Friday night when his Bengals invade Borger to scrap the class A Bulldogs of that city.

A victory over the Borger team would mean a great deal to Rush and some of last year's veterans, as the team is coached by the same man whose Olney Cubs gave the Tigers their only set-back last year in the regional championship affair, which meant the highest honor in class B.

DOPE. The Clarendon Broncs won over McLean by a score of 7-0. Borger beat Clarendon three touchdowns—therefore, according to the old "bucket" the Bulldogs are a four-touchdown favorite.

However, the dope this season seems to have scarcely any effect on the outcome of the important games—Navy even beat Notre Dame for the first time in years.

Local opinion is that with the services of Robinson and Crockett the Tigers should really give the Borger Bulldogs a real battle.

T. H. Andrews was in Pampa Monday.

Chas. E. Cooke was in Amarillo Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curg Williams of Amarillo visited friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Bessie Blake of Amarillo visited in McLean this week.
