Alanreed Box Supper Success Thursday Night

On last Thursday night, McLean trade trippers attended a successful box supper staged at the Alanreed school, upon invitation from Alanreed citizens.

The McLean high school band directed by Prof. Robt. C. Davidson, furnished music, and a cornet solo by Jesse Dean Cobb, accompanied at the piano by Willie Louelle Cobb, was a feature.

Jesse J. Cobb, trade extension manager of the McLean chamber of commerce, was master of ceremonies, presenting the different speakers.

Supt. R. E. Paige of the Alanreed school, and Manager Elms of the Alanreed Lumber Co. make talks welcoming the visitors. Boyd Meador, president of the McLean C. of C.; W. D. Biggers, secretary-manager of the C. of C.; Supt. C. A. Cryer of the McLean schools, and Editor T. A. Landers of McLean, made talks.

J. S. McLaughlin, of the McLaughlin-Reeder Motor Co. of McLean acted as auctioneer, keeping the crowd in rare good humor as he pleaded for bids, very few boxes bringing opening bids of less than a dollar. W. D. Biggers made the principal address, stating that citizens of Alanreed should trade with their home merchants whenever possible, as no community can be built except by its own citizens.

Mr. Biggers stressed the friendly spirit existing between McLean and Alanreed, and expressed the hope that this spirit may continue to grow as we cooperate to build up this section of the Panhandle.

Supt. Paige closed the evening with a talk of appreciation for the visitors' efforts to make the supper a success.

JUDGE W. R. EWING
Candidate for reelection as Judge of 31st Judicial District

LIONS TO MEET AT CLARENDON

Clarendon, March 28.—Lions clubs in this district are making big plays for the annual spring meeting of group No. 10, to be held in Clarendon April 5th, at which time Richard J. Osenbaugh, second vice president of Lions International of Denver, will be honor guest.

The occasion also will be observed by the host club as its semi-annual ladies night affair, according to President T. D. Nore.

EWING FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

Judge W. R. Ewing, of the 31st judicial district, authorizes The News to carry his name as a candidate for judge of the 31st judicial district, subject to the action of the Democratic primary in July.

In announcing his candidacy for reelection, Judge Ewing stated: "I do not do so in a spirit of arrogant pride for having served my district so long, but in humble thankfulness to a citizenship that has always been generous to me.

"In a judicial office, there is no platform to declare, as in legislative or executive offices. We, of the judiciary, have the single duty to interpret and administer the law as we find it; therefore, I have no extended declaration of principles to make.

"I have been before the people of the 31st judicial district, as court reporter, attorney, district attorney and district judge, for more than a quarter of a century, and every man, woman and child who knows anything about the activities of the courts is familiar with my record and how I stand on leading issues and problems of the day; and my character, standing as a man, a citizen and as an official, is well known, and it would be highly unbecoming of me to laud my own merits, if I have any. Knowing me, as I believe the people do, it is up to them to say whether I possess the character, integrity and ability that should be demanded of their district judge.

"With this brief statement, I place my candidacy before the people, with the hope that I may prove myself worthy of their continued confidence, esteem and respect."

"What will stop kidnapers?" was the Socratic League program at the Lions luncheon held Tuesday, with Claude Williams, chairman of the program committee, leading the discussion.

Facts were brought out that local law violators with tolerance of others is the basis of all violations. The need of an aroused public conscience on all law violations was stressed.

Lion Secretary Reep Landers said that maybe the repeal of all laws against kidnaping might help, as they do not prohibit, and licensing of kidnapers with a tax of about 50% of the ransom for the government, might be the right thing to do, referring to the success (?) of the whiskey question under repeal.

Sim Rhodes and Lewis Tolliver, high school declaimers, made their addresses that will be used at the interscholastic league meet, which drew generous applause.

Miss Simmons, Mrs. Sligar, Miss Vannoy, Miss Cummings and Mrs. Back, teachers who assisted in the Lions spelling bee, were presented as honor guests of the club.

WORLEY FOR REPRESENTATIVE

To the voters of the 122nd Legislative District:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of state representative from this district, I pledge first, my undivided interest to matters which pertain to the welfare and needs of this district and to this district alone. Regardless of what other sections of the state do or attempt to do, my interest shall be devoted to the four counties which I represent, Donley, Gray, Collingsworth and Wheeler.

If we are not allowed to produce as much oil as we have reasonable need of, without, of course, flagrant waste, and such oil is legally taxed by the state, the condition should be changed. As a member of the Legislature it is my purpose to advocate the enactment of such laws as will protect and preserve the oil and gas reserves of the Panhandle section from wasteful and unlawful exploitation. If our schools suffer from lack of maintenance or finances, my efforts shall be to obtain the same finances and modern facilities as exist in other sections of the state whose representatives have been more alert for the welfare of their constituents.

Our farmers need better lateral roads which will afford more economical and faster transportation of their crops to market. They are certainly entitled to the best efforts of their representative to secure these roads. Any and all aids which it is in the power of a representative to work for and obtain should be given to his constituents. This I wholeheartedly promise to do.

We are in the midst of radical changes in government. Had we contented ourselves with development of our own resources, rather than those abroad, the current depression would not be with us. People have lost faith in the old order of things and are turning to the new with vigor and confidence. Plain common sense plus the fundamental principles of government and economics dominate the new order.

Half of my twenty-five years have been spent in this district. My home is in Shamrock, and I feel familiar with all the needs and desires of the people who reside here. At the present I am studying law in the University of Texas. I was employed during the Forty-second Legislature as clerk on constitutional amendments, judicial districts, and other comparable.

"A million dollar rain"—that seems to be the way most of us feel about the fine snow and rain this week. After all, we depend upon crops for our welfare to such an extent that when Providence smiles we all feel better.

The editor of this paper assumes no responsibility for opinions expressed by contributors. Editorial opinion is limited to this column. News items are kept free from editorial opinion, but contributors are entitled to express their opinions in their articles.

Cooperation is an overworked word, but there is no other way in which a community can grow. Dividing a community into factions is a sure way to destroy its usefulness, as has been proven times without number. Working together for a common end means success.

We are glad to have the interscholastic leaguers with us this week. We want to rejoice with you in your success upon track and field, as well as in the more serious literary events. These contests are only to better prepare students for the greater game of life, that has its own disappointments and rewards.

Several readers called to compliment our loose stock and chickens editorial in last week's issue, and suggested that something be done about the stray dogs in town. There seems to be little that can be done about the dog nuisance, as the city has no paid official to look after such things. Several attempts have been made in the past to enforce the dog license law, but it costs money to dispose of stray dogs and there is nothing in the city budget for such expenses.

This paper wants to see every business man in McLean prosper, for if other businesses do not prosper, it is impossible for the newspaper to prosper. We do everything in our power to assist our business men and appreciate any cooperation shown by business men toward the paper. A good word for the paper helps the whole community, for the paper is the mouth-piece of the community. While we know that it is impossible to please everyone, we have the assurance of the good will of the hundreds of our subscribers and the advertisers who want to see this community grow and prosper.

Next month is the time for our annual spring clean-up, and it is to be hoped that we may do a good job of it this year. It is a good plan to start with the house, cleaning the attic and cellar of refuse that is a real fire hazard; then the screens need to be looked after, for fly time is almost here. The garbage can needs to have a tight cover, for flies love dirt and filth and breed in uncovered garbage.

We are prone to judge our neighbors by the kind of yards they keep, and both front and back yards need going over, with special attention paid to the alleys.

It is understood that city officials are planning a regular clean-up day again this year with all trash hauled free of charge, but it will do no harm to have everything in good shape before that day.

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church held a very interesting meeting in the home of Mrs. J. B. Hembree Tuesday.

At the noon hour a covered dish luncheon was served to 27 ladies and a few husbands who ventured in long enough to enjoy a good meal.

Immediately after lunch most of the ladies became busily engaged in hemming and embroidering cup towels for the church. At the appointed hour the president, Mrs. S. D. Shelburne, called the house to order and opened the meeting by asking all present to join in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. H. E. Franks, who was leader, read the names of our missionaries for the day, and offered a prayer for them.

"Christian Missions in America," our national missions book, was discussed by Mrs. Ed Dishman, Mrs. Arthur Erwin, Mrs. T. A. Massay, Mrs. Raymond Glass and Mrs. Donald Beall, Mrs. Franks giving the closing chapter.

During the business session the secretary, Mrs. Beall, read a very fine report of the work for the year, which ends March 31. All phases of the work showed a decided improvement over any previous year. One of the most gratifying things was that we had an average attendance of 18 for the year. The society gave Mrs. Shelburne and Mrs. Beall a rising vote of thanks for the splendid work they have done.

The new officers are: president, Mrs. Hembree; vice president, Mrs. Ritter; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. T. J. Coffey. They were inducted into their respective offices with an impressive installation service conducted by Mrs. Shelburne.

After the closing prayer, we took our leave, hoping for another good year's work and hoping we may be guests in Mrs. Hembree's home again.

G. C. Boswell, dean of McMurry College at Abilene, was one of the pallbearers at the funeral of Dr. Hunt, president of the college, and made an address at the funeral services.

According to Homer Wilson, special agent, there were ginned in Gray County, from the 1933 crop, 5,339 bales of cotton, compared with 5,309 bales in 1932.

COUNTY BEDROOM CONTEST

By Miss Ruby M. Adams, CDHA
 To start with a bedroom with un-sealed walls, a very rough, far from level floor, a small amount of money to spend on a rented house is far from encouraging. This did not stop Miss Margaret Skibinski of the Bell 4-H Girls Club from starting right in.

To win, if possible, in the county, district and state contest in bedroom improvement; and the earnest desire of all girls to have a pretty room, has made the road seem less rough. Last year Margaret started her improvement by getting a new floor, and because of the short wheat crop was forced to abandon her plans until this year. With the aid of her father and mother, she has just completed the papering of her room. She now has almost realized her dream of a lovely room.

The county scoring will be in May, the district the first of June, and the state in July.

S. S. Lesson

By Rev. Cecil G. Goff
Pastor First Baptist Church

CONFESSING AND FOLLOWING CHRIST

Lesson text, Matt. 16:13-26. Golden text, Matt. 16:15.

For today's lesson we are to study a wonderful passage of Scripture. The instances noted in this passage took place near Caesarea-Philippi. The time was during the ministry of withdrawal. Opposition to the Master's ministry became so strong that some time before this the Master felt it necessary to withdraw. He probably felt that the time for His departure was drawing so near that He needed more time alone with them to impress His instruction upon them. Thus we find Him with His disciples in the most northern point He touched in His earthly ministry. They were alone. Jesus had a very important question to ask them. It was after a manner of speaking a test of the work and teaching He had done. He wanted to ask them who they thought, in the depths of their hearts, He was.

The disciples had been with the Master almost three years. There was but a short six months before the terrible tragedy of Golgotha was to fall. The disciples had witnessed the mighty works of the Savior, and had even helped to perform them. They knew more of Him than any other newly being. He first asked the disciples who men thought He was. The answer was out of the hearing experience of the followers of Jesus. The answer was a varied one. Some thought Jesus was John the Baptist raised from the dead, others thought He was Elias, Jeremiah, or some one of the prophets raised from the dead. How like men today was that answer. If the average man is asked today what he thinks of Jesus there is no way of telling what he may answer. There is a great percentage of men who will admit that Jesus was a great man. But what is the use of admitting that Jesus was a great man? There have been hundreds of great men. Why should the world pick on just one of its great men to follow and let as much rest on as millions do on Jesus?

The belief that Jesus was one of the prophets raised from the dead, on the part of the people, was not enough. That did not satisfy Jesus. That sort of belief would not save a lost world, or even one soul. It was that sort of belief Jesus came to combat. He asked the disciples their belief. The answer was "Thou art Christ, the Son of the Living God." This was the answer Jesus was waiting for. This was the answer of faith. And Jesus had taught that through faith came the saving grace of God. It is that belief that Christ wants in the hearts of men today. Nothing less will avail. Nothing less will satisfy the condemnation of God upon sin in the hearts of men. Nothing less will wipe the spirit of rejection of Christ from the hearts of men. Nothing less will take away the wilful selfishness of earthly hearts and place in its stead the sacrificial surrender of repentance and faith.

Upon such faith Jesus builds His church. Each faith enters men into the Kingdom of God. Such faith engenders a tie among the souls of men which is stronger than any earthly tie, and will last through eternity, longer by the lengthlessness of eternity than earthly ties. This is the fundamental basis of the church which Jesus established. It is the everlasting rock made possible by the blood of Christ. It is against the thing that is built upon that rock that the gates of hell shall not prevail. Peter did not know this divine truth of himself, it was by the revelation of the Father. So men today do not come into the peaceful knowledge of this same truth by their own reasoning, but rather by the same divine inspiration and revelation to surrendered hearts which touched Peter.

It would seem that the word hell, or hades, signifies death. The church which Jesus established shall never see death. The keys for the purpose of binding and loosing to be given are not to Peter personally, but rather to the primitive church which Jesus established (Matt. 18:18, John 20:23). The command to tell no one concerning the matter seems to have been for two reasons. First, the knowledge would probably stir the people to another attempt to crown Him as king. Second, this truth would have stirred such hatred and dissension concerning Him that His ministry would have been ended then. The time had not yet come. The great mystery was that the disciples should not realize the truth. Knowledge and understanding help pave the way for the teaching concerning the necessary crucifixion of the Master. Before this time Christ had said very little to His followers concerning His coming death. From this time He began to prepare them for the event. They could not understand it and be satisfied concerning it, even with the knowledge that their Master was the Son of God. Yet it must come. They had known Jesus as the loving, compassionate, healing, teaching, death-dispelling Christ, but they had not yet known Him as the suffering Christ. But the hour was at hand, not more than six months away, and Jesus had to prepare them for it the best that He could. He then sets Himself up as the sovereign Christ. Those who follow Him are to deny themselves, take up their cross and follow Him. There is to be no idle boasting concerning the following of Christ. It must be genuine or not at all. Men may fool themselves, but they cannot fool Christ. He knows whether they meet the specifications or not. He need ask no one. He has laid them down—deny ourselves, accept our cross, follow Him—are we following them?

CURVES AND HEALTH

When Mae West popularized feminine curves she also opened the road to health and long life to millions of women. Saucy, naughty Mae did more than bring back puff sleeves of a by-gone day and substitute feminine curves for straight lines and angles, for she also brought the glow of health to the cheeks of her girl and women fans. This is not the propdanga extended by her press agent, but is opinion based on cold, dry statistics from the actuarial department of one of the large Texas insurance organizations—Briscoe Co. News.

After all is said and done, it must be admitted that the average small town editor is reasonable. He will agree to almost any proposition which seems fair. He will even suggest several propositions and let the other fellow take his choice.
 This obliging attitude is well illustrated by an item in the Tribune, published in Altoona Kan., which says:
 "Anyone owing this paper is requested to call and pay at once. Anyone not owing is requested to call and subscribe for this paper in advance for the full amount of the debt and pay us another year in advance, cash. Anyone who is not owing us and will not do so, is requested to move to North Dakota and make room for someone who will."—Wellington Leader.

60c BUILDS CELLAR

"With a lot of work and 60c in expense, we have 168 feet of shelves in our new cellar for our food supply for 1934," says Mrs. O. G. Smith farm and ranch food supply demonstrator for the Kingsmill Home Demonstration Club.

Mr. Smith dug the 9x12 cellar and arranged on each side six shelves 12 feet long and 10 inches wide, and across the back three shelves eight feet long and 4 inches wide. Below the back shelves Mr. Smith built four bins, each with 100 pounds capacity. These bins are a few inches from the floor and have open places in the side to allow free circulation of air.

Two goals for the farm and ranch food supply demonstrators are to test ten new recipes, have menu, recipe and bulletin files, and Mrs. Smith has completed all these.

To get a lead in the garden, Mr. Smith will soon have ready for use a hot bed and later a cold frame.

COUNTY INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE MEET IN McLEAN

The Gray County Interscholastic League will be held in this city on March 29, 30 and 31. Plans for a profitable meet are in full swing. The local elimination contests have been held and every contestant is trying to do his best to win for his school.

Although the events began on Thursday, school will continue as usual. Tennis was begun at 9:30 this morning and playground ball at 1 p. m. Volley ball will be played in the local gymnasium Thursday night. If finals are not played at that time they will be played Saturday night. All literary events will be held on Friday, with declamations Friday night. On Saturday, senior track and finals in playground ball will be held. Junior track will be held Saturday afternoon. All contests, except volley ball, are free to the public, and everyone is urged to attend.

Cups, medals and ribbons have been furnished by local business men.

LIONS CLUB SPELLING BEE HELD MARCH 22

The annual Lions Club spelling tournament was held at the high school building on last Thursday afternoon with Principal McHaney in charge. Teachers who pronounced were Mrs. Jim Back, Misses Vera Cummings and Joellene Vannoy.

Schools participating were Back Whitefish, Hopkins, Alanreed, Pakan and McLean. Due to the fact that McLean has won the loving cup, which is offered as award in this contest for the past three years, it became the permanent property of this school. Whitefish Back and Alanreed tied for second place. The highest individual scores were: Jesse Dean Cobb 99, Perry Masterson, Back, 98; Bathus Woodward 97, Leo Ledbetter 96, Zena Belle Ridgeway, Hopkins, 95; Cleo Ledbetter 95.

ASSEMBLY

On Wednesday, March 21, Rev. Erwin brought a most interesting message to the high school students and faculty. His subject was "Saved and Salvation." It contained some pertinent facts which each person could apply to himself as needed.

On Thursday afternoon, March 22 the high school was privileged to hear the elimination in story telling contests from the ward school. Participants told their stories in a most interesting and enjoyable manner.

Winners were: Tiny tot girl, Mary Lee Abbott; tiny tot boy, James Hinton; third grade, Brac Biggers.

TEACHERS ATTEND ASSOCIATION

High school was dismissed last Friday so the teachers could attend the Northwest Texas Teachers Association which was held at W. T. S. T. C. at Canyon. Those who attended were Misses Vannoy, McCarty, Cousins, Kennedy and Abbott; Supt. Cryer and Mr. Tampke.

A most profitable time was spent and those who attended returned with a greater determination to be better "public servants" than before. The theme of the meeting was "Curriculum Building" with the idea that through greater cooperation between teachers, parents and school board members, a revision of the present curriculum might be made. The need for a new course of study is urgent so that the boys and girls may be better equipped for modern life with its ever-changing problems.

TEACHERS ACT AS JUDGES

Principals Harding and McHaney and Miss Vera Cummings went to Clarendon last Friday evening to judge the public speaking contests for the Donley County Interscholastic League.

P. T. A. TONIGHT

The Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the high school auditorium on Thursday evening at 7:30. It is necessary to meet a half hour earlier in order to let one of the members on program go to the volley ball contest. The program will consist of a one act comedy presented by high school students and sponsored by the Sigma Gamma, who have charge of the program. The other feature of the program will be the interscholastic league choral singers. If everyone will come early it will be greatly appreciated, for it is most necessary for the program to be finished as soon after 8 as possible.

The title of the play is "Her Husband's Old Sweetheart." The cast includes: Lewis Tolliver, a poet; his wife, Myra, Clara Faye Carpenter; her sister, Anne, Dorothy Jean St. Clair; and the old sweetheart, Daffodil, Lorene Turman. The play is directed by Miss Kennedy. No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited.

HOME ECONOMICS

The second year class in home economics presented their annual style show Tuesday, March 27.

Avalee Back read the verses that pertained to each girl of the first year class as she came in. Each one represented a girl who was inappropriately dressed. Eva and Ava Swafford changed the wearing apparel of each of the following until she was properly dressed: Evelyn Moore represented a fleshy girl inappropriately dressed. The twins wrought a change and she looked very much better. Maxine Johns represented a tall and slender girl inappropriately dressed. Frankie Mae Bell and Reba Lee represented girls wearing hats too large and too small. Iantha Follis was a girl overdressed for school. Duella Mann wore a picture hat with a school dress. She was given a tam to wear instead of the hat. Bobbie Lynch wore an afternoon dress for school, which was inappropriate.

The following showed contrast between good and bad: Mavis Brewer wore a dress which had poor color harmony. She was accompanied by Christine Hanner who wore a dress of pleasing color scheme. Pauline Martin wore a loud colored dress which was not appropriate. She was accompanied by Lena Williams who wore an appropriate dress. Nadine Tedder represented a girl wearing an inappropriate school dress, while Reba Lee represented a girl in extreme style. Myrie Andrews wore a skirt that was too short. She was accompanied by Ava Lee Robinson wearing a dress of desirable length. Alice Harlin was a school girl wearing pumps with spike heels, in contrast with Freeda Duncan who wore sport oxfords. Hazel Dyer was a school girl decorated with jewelry, while Louise Holmes, her companion, did not wear jewelry at all. Geraldine Graham wore too much make-up, while her friend, Bessie Mertel, did not wear any. Grace Reneau represented poor posture. She was accompanied by Neva Flowers, who had good posture. Pauline McCracken represented a girl with an awkward walk, while Gertrude Roush represented a girl with a graceful walk. Ava and Eva Swafford showed a contrast between a gum-chewing girl and one who did not chew gum.

The second year class then modeled their dresses. Marie Landers was awarded first place, Mildred Finley second and Catherine Patterson third.

DECLAIMERS AT LIONS CLUB

As usual, the Lions Club has continued to show live interest in the high school students by inviting the senior boy declaimers, Sim Rhodes and Lewis Tolliver, to take part on their program. The visit was made Tuesday and the boys report a most enjoyable luncheon and an appreciative audience.

SENIOR PARTY

The senior class was most pleasantly entertained by their sponsor, Miss Kennedy, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Appling, on Tuesday evening. Easter motifs were carried out in decorations, tally cards, score pads and plate favors. The game of table football was enjoyed until a late hour. Delicious refreshments consisting of hot chocolate fruit delight and cookies were served to about forty guests.

Other than members of the senior class and their friends, members of the cast of "Her Son's Sweetheart," and some faculty members were present.

SERMONETTE

By Rev. Stephen M. Tuhy
Lutheran Pastor, Pakan Community

Text: "And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said."

Just as the daughters of Jerusalem were and wept as the procession of our smitten and afflicted Savior wended its way to Calvary where He was to announce concerning His work of redemption once and for all: "It is finished," just so a group of women early on Easter morning slowly and sorrowfully treaded the path to the garden-grave of the crucified and buried Christ. The daughters of Jerusalem had a blind sympathy for Jesus of Nazareth; they neither knew the real meaning nor realized the true cause of His great and peculiar suffering. Likewise the faithful women, who were approaching the sepulchre of Jesus in order to perform their last act of love by anointing Him with costly spices, had a disillusioned notion in regard to Christ. They did not believe that Christ would actually arise from the dead on the third day after His death else they would not have said among themselves: "Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?"

These women are examples of thousands of ordinary human beings in this wide world who are without the joy of Christ in their hearts. Entirely useless are the tears of those who, with devout attention listen to the reading of the Passion story of Christ, yet do not believe in Him as their only personal Savior. Christ does not demand mere human sympathy and admiration. Repentance and faith in Him alone are the essential requirements.

Sound, basic Christian principles must be had by every true believer in Christ. Only then is one's religion real and worth while. Otherwise, whatever religion one may possess is merely an impractical, temporary fit of emotion, a misleading absurdity.

That religious emotions are often misleading we know from the fact that people who depend on them often have a spiritual "break-down" and become indifferent toward religion in general. They are "down and out" and live without hope; their religion is shallow, empty. Something is missing, something is really necessary. ONE THING IS NEEDFUL, and that is the all-powerful Gospel of Jesus Christ which is "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." Rom. 1:16.

That which gives us the stamina, courage, power and hope is firm and unshakable faith in Christ concerning Whom the angel on Easter morn testified: "He is risen!" The world was shown that Christ's teachings concerning Himself were true. He rose from the dead. He it is Who, being co-equal with the Father, rules over heaven and earth and sustains all things with His almighty power. To Him we may unburden our hearts, pour out our troubles. He will hear us and give us a sure and curable remedy for our spiritual depression. He alone gives that comfort and consolation for our souls which the world cannot give. He alone invites us in His Gospel and offers rest. With open and extended arms He graciously calls: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." Matt. 11:28.

Food For All!

"I Want to Know"

By D. A. Davis

Why do most of us think we can do a thing better or fill a position better than anyone else?

I remember away back when I was several years younger, with quite a bit less experience, that if a railroad company fired me or I quit a job, I thought that particular railroad would go to smash, but in some way those railroad companies managed to get along all right without my help. I remember hearing a cuss fight between a railroad superintendent and a boomer brakeman. This particular superintendent got mad at the brakeman and said, "John, when you get in on this trip, come up to my office and get your time. You're fired." "OK," replied the boomer brakeman. "You know, boss I used to look over the map of the United States and thought all those straight lines scattered all over the map were rivers, but I found out a whole lot of them were railroads."

I don't believe there ever was a position of any kind, from the lowest of jobs to the highest, including great statesmen, Presidents and kings, but what there was some man somewhere that could do the job just as good, or perhaps better. So what I want to know is why we get to thinking we are the only pebbles on the beach.

My age and experience have thoroughly convinced me that I am just a common old clodhopper with just enough brains to keep out of the fire and try to keep out of the way of these reckless automobile drivers, and that there are millions and millions of people that can do any kind of a job or fill any kind of position from just as good to a whole lot better than I can. I want to even admit that there are better husbands than I am. There are better fathers than I have been, and just thousands and thousands of folks that have even got more religion than I have, and I KNOW that lots and lots of folks have got more brains than I have. And another thing, there are lots and lots of bald-headed folks that ain't got near as much hair on their heads as I have, so why take life so seriously? Why not go ahead and have all the fun we can, and laugh and joke each other and make life just as pleasant as possible? Why go around with a grouch on all the time and try to kid ourselves into thinking that everybody is wrong and I am right? But the hardest thing for me to understand is why anybody will take anything seriously that I have been saying in this column for the past year. It's nothing in the world but foolishness (especially what I said last week).

Bill Dees of Shamrock was in McLean Saturday.

Henry Pugh was in Pampa Monday.

G. M. Abbott was in Memphis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Huselby of Mobeetie were in McLean Tuesday.

Misses Elizabeth Kennedy and Aline McCarty were in Shamrock Monday.

Bad Combinations

By O. L. D. Timer

A Noted dietician often writes of bad combinations of food and everybody has felt the effects of them at some time or other. Lots of times you have not eaten too much but have eaten the wrong kinds of food at the same meal and these foods created a terrible disturbance in your stomach. Some people can eat most any kind of a combination and not suffer, but others fare differently.

Once I heard an old man say that two red-headed and red-complexioned people were a real bad combination but that a blonde and a brunette would blend perfectly, and the result would be a happy medium. Two extremely fat people often make a bad combination. From the way the divorce courts are grinding out their grit, it seems that innumerable marriages are very poor combinations, and are indeed is there a combination that results in a golden wedding.

Sometimes one person within himself seems to be a bad combination. For instance, I heard a farmer say a preacher bummed a chew of tobacco off of him. One man played an instrument in the church choir on Sunday and tended bar during the week, and another musician told me he played for a church service one night and a dance the next night. Bad combinations, believe it or not. One man tried to impress firmly upon the intellect of his growing son that it was indiscreet and radically wrong to smoke cigarettes, but the boy saw a preacher on his way to church smoking a cigarette, and in the face of a combination like that the father fumbled the ball and the boy made a touchdown.

I once heard of a Sunday school superintendent who wore boots while conducting services and had a bull durham tag hanging from his shirt pocket. Was this the right combination?

But the worst combination I have heard of of late was a crazy drunk man in an automobile with a drunk woman. Results, one child dead and two badly injured. I am more afraid of a combination like that than I am of a rattlesnake, for a rattlesnake does give warning.

Mrs. Will Glass of Alanreed visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Watkins, Saturday.

The Paper That's Read First

Out of the Past

By Eld. W. B. Andrews
Minister Church of Christ

"I" TROUBLE

We are all familiar with the fellow who finds nothing so interesting to talk about as himself. About every second sentence will begin with a great big "I". We never like to talk with a fellow of that kind because he spends so much time talking about what he has done that we don't have time to tell him of any of our experiences.

Some people carry this "I" trouble into their every act of life. Here is a man who has gone to prayer, and even there you hear the same boasting that we use to try to keep folk from guesing how insignificant we are.

Jesus told the story of the pharisee and the publican. The pharisee made a prayer much as he would have boasted to his friends. He said "I thank God . . . I am not . . . I fast . . . I give . . . I possess." This, with a few additional words, is what the man mistook for a prayer. I suppose he had many fine qualities, but he had one strong weakness: he had "I" trouble.

We may see his counterpart in our friends and enemies, and some are so gifted with the power of introspection that they might see that weakness even in themselves. If they tried. It is a very unsocial and unchristian thing to become so selfish that even in prayer we cannot forget ourselves.

Theology has taken an odd turn. God is over all things to the church, we know that, but we forget that what the church adopt a pleasing program . . . that is one that is pleasing to the people. Is God displeased? Oh, well, that is a little matter.

But there is not so much we can do without others. No man can live or die alone in the best sense of that word. More than that, we are constantly confronted with circumstances over which we have no control. We live every moment by the grace of God and owe to Him thanks for our every accomplishment.

STUDY CLUB

Reported.

The Study Club held a delightful meeting in the home of Mrs. W. E. Bogan, on March 1, when they had Texas as their subject, and Mrs. Shelburne as leader.

After the business session the roll call was answered by quotations from Texas writers. Then the club sang "Texas."

Mrs. Massay told of the beauty spots of Texas. Great moments in Texas history were discussed by Mrs. Sligar. "The First Cattle Drive" was described by Mrs. Cryer. Mrs. C. C. Bogan discussed "Famous Texans of Today," and Mrs. Greene sang "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring?"

The nearness of St. Patrick's day was emphasized during the social hour, in the refreshments, and by Mesdames Lochridge and Sligar singing "When I Dream of Old Erin" and "I'll Take You Home again Kathleen" sung by Mrs. Greene.

Guests were Mesdames Pete Fulbright, H. C. Rippy and O. E. Lochridge. There were 12 members present.

On March 15 the club spent a very pleasant and profitable afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. C. Bogan, studying "The Holy Land." Mrs. Brooks was leader.

Roll call was answered by naming a character of the Old Testament.

Mrs. Ed Dishman introduced the program with a short talk on the Political Relation of the Land of Moab and Bethlehem of Judea. Mrs. Cryer then described "The Road of the Three Wise Men from Jerusalem to Bethlehem." "The Street of Sorrow, in Jerusalem," was discussed by Mrs. D. A. Davis.

Mrs. Greene and Mrs. Sligar sang "Will You Go" accompanied by Mrs. Boyett, after which "A Visit to the Holy Land among the Shepherds of Bethlehem" was given by Mrs. Goff.

The hostess served lovely refreshments to 16 members and one guest. Mrs. J. M. Noel.

Mrs. A. R. Glenn and Miss Lucile Stratton returned Monday from Pampa, where the former had been in a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris King and children were in Altus, Okla., last Thursday.

Miss Bobbie Hefner of Frederick, Okla., visited in the M. H. Kinard home last week end.

Mrs. Raymond Hefner of Tipton, Okla., visited in the J. E. Lynch home last week end.

mittees, and during that time took advantage of the opportunity to learn at first hand the methods and mechanics of law making. I therefore feel well qualified to represent my district and protect its interests on the floor of the House.

My platform has few definite planks pledging simply that I am for the most economical, yet efficient system of government possible; I am opposed to any sales tax levied upon the necessities of life; I am opposed to the issuance of any more state bonds except 'bread bonds'; I am as strongly opposed to careless and unwise legislation as I am for wise and prudent legislation; I am for, first and last, those things which will, in any manner, be beneficial to the majority of the people in my district.

I shall be unable to make a personal campaign until the beginning of June because of law examinations at that time; I therefore earnestly ask that you give my candidacy your serious thought and consideration. Frankly, I hope to be the next representative from this district and work my best for its welfare when elected. Any support and all support you can give will be deeply appreciated.

Looking forward with pleasure to meeting each of you individually within the near future, and inviting correspondence from you at this time I am, sincerely yours,

REPEAL DID NOT SETTLE CRIME

Arthur Brisbane, highest salaried columnist in the world, has charged for years that prohibition has been at the seat of all our national ills. He advocated the repeal of the 18th amendment as the only method of stopping bootlegging, racketeering and other crime.

Repeal came, but now listen to Brisbane:

"Uncle Sam is having trouble with bootleggers, in spite of prohibition repeal, because bootleggers sell what some people call 'better whiskey' for a lower price than 'legitimate whiskey' can be sold.

"Uncle Sam puts a tax of $5 a gallon on whiskey sold 'legally.' The bootlegger, can manufacture whiskey at a total cost of not more than 50c a gallon, paying no government tax. He will continue in business. Repeal did not solve all prohibition problems."

The fact had just as well be recognized that liquor is at the bottom of much of the crime. To make liquor plentiful and easy to secure only multiplies crime.

That is the reason why The News is opposed to prohibition repeal.

No one maintains that liquor cannot be secured if the thirsty individual goes out to hunt for it. But today it is not openly offered to tempt those who has not developed a taste for it.

To legalize liquor more than doubles the temptation that may exist thru-out the country; it will bring no good, but will multiply the evils which now exist in too large a number.—Canyon News.

Ford Building Under Construction at New Fair

Ford contributes giant structure to 1934 Century of Progress. Shown here is a conception by Hugh Ferriss, noted New York artist, of how the Ford Exposition building, now being erected at the Chicago World's Fair, will look at night in its blaze of light, after the Fair opens May 26. The building is 900 feet long and ten stories high at its center. It faces on a five-acre park fronting on Lake Michigan. Albert Kahn of Detroit is the architect, and Walter Dorwin Teague of New York, industrial designer, is in charge of interior display. Ford Park will have 10,000 seats for free concerts.

THINK THIS OVER

Newspapers should not give a line of space to athletic games when the newspaper receives no support from the team, one editor comments following the use of mimeographed letters to advertise the game.

"Publicity which newspapers give to ball teams and ball games would cost $10 or $15 a week if figured at space rates, and is worth more than that to the teams, so the printing offices are certainly, entitled to the small revenue possible from printing the dodgers, and a team which will resort to a mimeograph for that purpose deserves no consideration from a news standpoint. And this same line of reasoning applies to many other things about which newspapers are expected to give much publicity as well as it does to ball games."

Papers owe the community its news of the day, and every town is entitled to the support of the newspaper for worthwhile projects, but in turn the community owes its support and cooperation to the newspaper.—Minnesota Press.

Records on 28 beeves on feed by 4-H club boys in Menard county show average daily gains of 2.4 pounds in 213 days—the best record in three years of feeding, the county agent says.

Mother—"I've tried hard to make you a good girl, Dorothy, and yet in spite of all my efforts you are still naughty."

Dorothy—"What a failure you are as a parent, aren't you, mother?"

If you save your money you are a miser.

If you get it you are a grafter.

If you spend it you are a fool.

If you haven't any you are a bum.
